

Trick Me 1681

Chapter 1681 think about the people you love and the people who love you

Li Jie's heart slowly calmed down when he remembered that his two younger brothers, who had always been quiet, suddenly found something they liked to do one day and could even occasionally tell him about the new friends they had made recently.

There was also Ling Yue... She was always exasperated by his various gifts, but she had no choice but to accept them. In the end, she would even glare fiercely at him a few times ! !

They were all trivial things that could not be more ordinary in life, but with these people whom he treasured, his heart was always warm.

The hatred and murderous intent that he could not suppress no matter what began to slowly dissipate at this moment.

Taking a deep breath, Li Jie finally withdrew his gaze from the cell and turned to walk out slowly.

Huo Ting watched him leave with heavy steps, then looked back at Lu Yiming who was already sitting on the bed, pressing his abdomen with a pained expression. His heart was filled with mixed feelings.

On the contrary, Li Jie, who had walked out of the prison, was the most cold-blooded killer who killed without blinking. At this time, he could actually put down the hatred in his heart.

Perhaps, he, who had not experienced love in the past 20 years, would cherish this moment of happiness more than the average person?

If one day, there was a moment when your heart was filled with hatred and resentment.

When you can not suppress the wild beast in your heart, you might as well think about the people you love and the people who love you.

Perhaps, the method of redemption was one of them.

However, I still hope that this day, this moment, will never come to your side.

Su Zhishui.

After coming out of the military district's prison, Yan Jun immediately contacted Ben and arranged for a special plane to pick him up to Rao city.

In addition, he also sent more people to search the area around the Ice Lake. This time, the main target was not the bushes by the road, but the villages around the ice lake.

Yan Jun knew Yan Qing's character very well.

It could be said that he had already let go of his past hatred. Even if he was not completely relieved in his heart, he would not mistreat that child for Xia Jinqi's sake.

Lu Yiming also said that when they stopped by the ice lake, Yan Qing disappeared with Yu Han.

When they came back, Yan Qing was alone.

It seemed that Yan Qing must have handed Yu Han to someone he met halfway.

And the person who appeared around the Ice Lake at this time was most likely a fisherman who went to participate in the winter fishing!

After listening to Yan Jun's analysis, Fang Shaoan was somewhat proud. "See, I told you that the little cannon fodder must be nearby!"

The result was naturally Yan Jun's death stare.

"Cough, cough, cough!" Fang Shaoan hurriedly coughed to ease the atmosphere. He blatantly changed the topic. "leave the matter of finding Xiao Yuhan to me!"

He had volunteered to take on this task. He felt guilty towards Yan Jun and his family.

If it weren't for his negligence and the burning down of the security department building and Yan Jun's rush to save him, Lu Yiming wouldn't have succeeded so quickly... ..

No matter what, he should go and find Yu Han personally! n.-OvELBIn Yan Jun narrowed his eyes in silence. The aura around him was somewhat unusual.

Yu Han was his son. He should have gone to find him personally.

Fang Shaoan seemed to see the hesitation in his heart and said casually, "Don't try to be brave. I heard from your secretary that you've only slept for a few hours in four days. If this continues, your body will collapse sooner or later. Sister-in-law's condition isn't good now. Ben should be arriving soon, right? Also, I heard from Wen Tao that you still want to capture Zhao Chongbin. This Damn Guy, he's always hiding in the dark and doing bad things!"

Chapter 1682. What if you can't find Yu Han?

"with your current status, who knows how many pairs of eyes are staring at you, hoping that you'll make a mistake so that you'll fall into the abyss. There are so many things waiting for you to do, so I'll go to Yu Han's place for you. "Don't worry, I've always been better at finding people than you are!"

In fact, in the past, Fang Shaoan was good at finding people because he relied on the powerful information network of the Ministry of security.

But now, the places he was looking for were all relatively remote mountain villages. Many people didn't even have an identity card. Looking for people there was like looking for a needle in a haystack.

However, Fang Shaoan had already made a vow in his heart. No matter what, no matter what price he had to pay, he must find Yan Yuhan! ! !

This was what he owed Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi.

When Yan Jun looked back, he happened to meet Fang Shaoan's unusually determined eyes!

After a long silence, he opened his mouth and said, "bring more people."

"Okay!" Fang Shaoan immediately nodded. He picked up his coat and walked out of the door. "Wait for my good news!"

He walked out with a smile, but the moment the door closed, the smile on his face instantly disappeared.

His face tensed up, and his footsteps became heavy. "Is the car ready?" He asked the assistant behind him.

"It's ready." The assistant nodded and quickly followed Fang Shaoan. "But Minister Fang, the Ice Lake is vast. The search in Yanbian will take at least a month to complete."

"Send more people. No matter how long it takes, we have to find it!" This was the first time Fang Shaoan had done something so seriously. He would risk his life to complete it!

Without Yan Jun, there would be no him now!

Moreover, he and Yan Jun had been brothers for so many years. Now that Yan Jun needed him the most, he could not let him down... ..

"Yes!" The assistant was shocked by the powerful Aura on Fang Shaoan.

Was he seeing things?

Minister Fang, who had always been careless, was still so serious?

Indeed, after three days of separation, he would look at him in a New Light!

Two hours later.

Fang Shaoan was wrapped in a thick cotton coat. He started to search for Yan Yuhang's whereabouts from the place where Yan Qing's body was found.

There were also quite a number of fishermen coming and going along the side. Fang Shaoan personally took Yan Yuhang's photo and asked them one by one.

However, for the whole afternoon, everyone's answer was that they didn't know or hadn't seen him.

The team sent out searched the nearest village to the ice lake, but no one knew Yu Han's whereabouts.

When the sun was about to set, Fang Shaoan stood beside the Ice Lake and looked at the endless ice surface. His brows were knitted tightly.

This was really like looking for a needle in a haystack.

When Zuo Xiaoran received the news and rushed over, she saw Fang Shaoan sitting beside the ice lake with a gloomy face and a cold wind hanging down.

"Hey, are you stupid? Sitting here in the cold wind in the middle of winter, do you think your life is too long?" Zuo Xiaoran cursed, but she still bent down and sat beside Fang Shaoan.

His appearance made people's hearts ache.

Hearing her derisive voice, Fang Shaoan curled his lips and said with a bitter smile, "I'm already like this, and you're still mocking me? Xiaoran, if I can't find Yu Han, what should I do?"

In front of Yan Jun, he said it so decisively that he almost made a military order.

But in reality, he was panicking.

Especially after not having any clues for an entire afternoon, the uncertainty in his heart increased.

Zuo Xiaoran already knew the general story, but she couldn't see Xia Jinqi, so she could only come to Fang Shaoan first.

Chapter 1683: I'll accompany you.

However, as soon as he got out of the car, he saw him sitting there dejectedly. n.-OvELBIn

"You also said that you didn't know how to take over the security department, but didn't you do well in the end? As long as Yu Han is here, we'll definitely be able to find him!" Zuo Xiaoran shook his hand, raised her smile, and encouraged him.

"really?" Fang Shaoan's heart instantly became weak.

"Of course it's true!" Zuo Xiaoran nodded heavily, took the lead to stand up, and extended her hand at him. "Let's go, I'll accompany you."

Fang Shaoan looked up and saw that the girl's smiling face was so pure and beautiful under the setting sun.

His heart was filled in an instant.

"Okay." He also curled his lips and followed her strength to stand up.

The two of them looked at each other and smiled under the setting sun.

Then, they held a stack of missing persons notices and began to spread them around the ice lake.

"Hello, have you seen this child? If there's any news, please contact us as soon as possible. We'll reward you handsomely!"

Fang Shaoan and Zuo Xiaoran repeated these words one by one. The missing persons notice was also sent out, but the number of people received was very small.

The fishermen who came and went were all diligent and hardworking people. It couldn't be said that they were not enthusiastic, but they were busy keeping themselves and their families alive. They really didn't have much energy to care about other things.

When night fell, the two of them were exhausted. They found a snack bar at the entrance of the village and hid in it.

Fang Shaoan randomly ordered some food, but he couldn't eat a single bite. His brows were tightly knitted, and he was still trying to figure out how to find Yu Han.

Zuo Xiaoran ate two Hundun's before her body started to heat up.

She looked up and saw that Fang Shaoan was not thinking about food and tea. She lectured him, "if you don't eat, how will you have the energy to look for Yu Han? Didn't you also say that Xiao Qi and Yan Jun are very busy and that you want to share the burden with them? If you are hungry and sick, do you still want them to take care of you?"

During this period of time, Zuo Xiaoran was rarely gentle, but today, for some reason, she scolded Fang Shaoan without any mercy.

Fang Shaoan felt wronged by her words. He pursed his lips and complained, "can't I eat?"

Zuo Xiaoran saw that he had barely eaten two mouthfuls, and her heart felt sour. She sighed to herself.

In fact, her parents had come to look for her once in the morning. When they found out that she had already been expelled from the esports team, they pulled her away in exasperation.

She had used the excuse of visiting Xiao Qi to escape.

The day of separation was approaching, but with Fang Shaoan's current state, how could she leave with peace of mind?

She was anxious and could not help but be a little aggressive.

Looking at Fang Shaoan again, Zuo Xiaoran could not help but feel guilty. She moved a stool to sit next to him and coaxed him with a smile "That's a good boy! Only when you're full will you have the strength to work! When I came here, I saw a joke on Weibo. It said that as long as you're hungry and don't consume enough sugar, your brain will become empty, and you'll become stupid!"

"There's everything on Weibo!" Fang Shaoan took a sip of the soup, and his stomach immediately warmed up.

However, after he finished the soup, an idea suddenly popped up in his mind, and he was shocked.

When he looked back, Zuo Xiaoran's expression was almost the same as his.

The two of them looked at each other and said in unison, "we can post a notice on the Internet to look for someone!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Zuo Xiaoran excitedly took out her phone and began to post a message to look for Yan Yuhang on Weibo, forums, and wechat moments!

Chapter 1684 she was pregnant

"Yu Han is still so young. Even if there's a photo, I don't know if everyone will be able to recognize him!" After sending the message, Zuo Xiaoran anxiously muttered.

However, Fang Shaoan said, "No matter what, this is at least one way!"

In the current situation, even if there was a one in a thousand chance, he had to try!

After saying that, he got up and walked to the side to contact the security department, asking them to try their best to do something online.

After a simple dinner, Fang Shaoan and Zuo Xiaoran went to the village next door.

On the way, Fang Shaoan suggested that Zuo Xiaoran go back first. After all, it was a cold winter night, and he was afraid that she would catch a cold with him.

However, she insisted on following him. "Yu Han also calls me Godmother, and now Xiao Qi... can't find him, how can I go back to sleep in peace?"

Zuo Xiaoran knew very well that the current Xiao Qi was no longer like the old Xiao Qi from school. She could see her whenever she wanted to.

Moreover, Yan Jun would definitely guard Xiao Qi every step of the way. Even if she went, it would be useless. She might as well focus on finding Yu Han.

"Alright then." Fang Shaoan nodded. He held her hand and walked into the village. "Let's go together!"

For the whole night, they knocked on every door and asked about Yu Han's whereabouts.

On Yan Jun's side, Ben had just gotten off the plane.

Yan Jun went to pick him up personally, but he saw that he came alone.

He subconsciously asked, "Wen Qing didn't come with you?"

Previously, Yan Jun had also contacted Ben and knew that he was already with Wen Qing. The two of them were like glue.

When Ben heard this, he rubbed the back of his head in embarrassment. He smiled a little foolishly, but he was very happy. "Ah Qing is pregnant and has been throwing up a lot recently. I told her to wait at home for the news."

Firstly, Wen Qing's first pregnancy was very tiring and it was not suitable for her to be tired from the journey.

Secondly, they all knew about Xia Jinqi's current situation. Wen Qing did not want Ben to be distracted and take care of her. She wanted him to treat Xia Jinqi wholeheartedly.

Ever since the four of them had untangled the knot in their hearts the last time, Wen Qing no longer had any animosity towards Xia Jinqi.

Sometimes, choosing to let go and forget could really make people happy.

Yan Jun did not expect the two of them to improve so quickly... ..

After a short moment of surprise, he curled his lips and said with a smile, "congratulations."

These two were his good friends. He was really happy for them to be together.

“hehe.” Ben Laughed foolishly happily. He rubbed his head and asked, “right, tell me about Summer’s situation. You didn’t explain clearly on the phone either. Did she lose her memory?”

“No.” Yan Jun shook his head. His deep black eyes darkened slightly. “another person’s brainwaves were implanted into her brain. In other words, her body is indeed Xia Jinqi, but she has become another person.”

After he finished explaining the cause and effect, Ben was basically in a daze. “You must be joking!”

Even in the academic world, transplanting brainwaves was not recognized from the start. It could even be said to be banned!

This was because this experiment was only carried out on living people. However, which living person would willingly contribute their body?

There was no such precedent in the world!

But now, Yan Jun was telling him that Summer had experienced all of this?

And... This so-called transplant technique had even succeeded ? ?

Yan Jun drove the car with a terrifyingly gloomy expression. “I saw it with my own eyes.”

If not for that, he would not have believed it!

Ben Looked at his furrowed brows and knew that he would definitely not joke about such a thing.

Then... “could it be some kind of high-level hypnosis technique?”

Chapter 1685: The person in was no longer Xia Jinqi

If it was a hypnosis technique that had reached a certain level, it was very possible for the person to imagine himself as another person.

Ben had once come into contact with a special patient in a high-level psychiatric hospital.

He was not hypnotized, but he was always squatting on the ground, fantasizing that he was a mushroom.

He did not move for a long time, did not eat or drink, and completely imitated the state of a mushroom.

When one’s mental disorder reached a certain level, many essential things could be changed.

Therefore, in the thesis Ben published that year, he emphasized that hypnotism was not rigorous and threatening. He also called on contemporary universities and teaching teachers to teach hypnotism All learners must go through strict screening and psychological tests.

Those who failed would be blacklisted for life.

Because of the environment and the range of knowledge, Ben’s first guess was hypnotism.

After all, the so-called brainwaves were not mentioned in the international world anymore, let alone precedent.

“It doesn’t seem like hypnosis.” Yan Jun shook his head and denied it.

Back then, Wen Qing had been hypnotized, and he had seen it too. It was just a little amnesia, but the feeling Xia Jinqi gave him was completely different.

It was as if she had fundamentally changed a person.

When Ben heard this, his brows furrowed. “Then it’s hard to deal with. If it’s hypnosis, I can still help, but if it’s brainwave...”

Halfway through his words, Ben immediately shut his mouth and carefully looked to his side.

Yan Jun was silent. n..OveLbIn

His sharp eyes narrowed, and his knuckles were clearly pointing at the steering wheel, driving the car into a series of tunnels.

The extremely fast speed of the car caused the orange lights in the tunnel to flash past his cold and handsome face.

He did not say another word. Even Ben could not guess what he was thinking in his heart at that moment.

But the forced calmness on his handsome face was ultimately betrayed by the Pale hand holding the steering wheel... ..

If it was hypnosis, Ben could still be there. He was the authority in this area, so Yan Jun naturally believed him.

But if it was really brain waves... .. No one knew if the transplant was reversible ...

If it couldn’t be... ..

Yan Jun couldn’t continue thinking.

He could only step on the accelerator and head straight for the hospital!

Ben was very tactful and didn’t say anything along the way.

By the time he reached the hospital, it was already late.

The doctor stood guard at the door of the ward, pacing back and forth anxiously, his face almost scrunched up.

When he saw Yan Jun coming, he rushed over as if he saw his savior. “Young Master! You’re finally here!”

“How’s her condition?” Yan Jun looked through the one-way glass at Xia Jinqi, who was leaning against the bed in the ward, and asked.

“Young Madam has been crying for the whole afternoon, asking us why her child is gone... we...” the doctor’s face was also Pale After hesitating for a long time, he said, “we really had no choice but to tell her that it was because of an accident, and her child is gone...”

“Child? What Child?” Ben Asked casually.

Only then did Yan Jun look back. “Bi Yue was already five months pregnant at that time.”

“So this Bi Yue’s memory stops at fifteen years ago?” Ben raised his eyebrows and looked at Xia Jinqi in the mirror.

Perhaps it was due to his professional acumen as a psychologist, but at first glance, he realized that the person inside was not Xia Jinqi.

Although her appearance had not changed, her temperament had completely changed.

He still remembered the first time he saw Xia Jinqi in the laboratory of the University of Las Vegas. Her Aura was cold and pure, aloof and independent.

Chapter 1686: Hypnosis at the same time

Perhaps she looked very weak on the surface, but in reality, she had a heart as strong as steel!

And this person in front of him... ..

There was a faint sadness spreading all over her body as she looked out of the window with a melancholic and sorrowful gaze.

She did not have the light and tenacity in Xia Jinqi’s eyes at all!

“I want to talk to her,” Ben frowned and said directly without waiting for Yan Jun’s reply.

However, watching from such a distance was still too superficial.

He wanted to have a concrete conversation with her and observe all of her micro expressions and subtle movements before he could make a more concrete and rigorous judgment.

Yan Jun saw that he had become serious, so he got the nurse to give him a white coat and asked him to pretend to be a doctor here.

“Ben.” Before he went in, Yan Jun stopped him.

He should have said something, but when the words reached the tip of his tongue, he could not say a word.

Ben Seemed to see the worry in his heart. He patted him and smiled, “don’t worry, I will do my best.”

With that, he knocked lightly on the door and pushed it open.

The moment she heard the sound of the door being opened, Bi Yue, who was originally in a daze, immediately looked back and looked at the door.

She thought that it would be Lu Yiming. After all, it had already been a whole day, and he was still not here... ..

But when her gaze landed on Ben's face, it was filled with disappointment and surprise.

Ben Quietly took in all her micro expressions and started to introduce himself. "Hello, I'm Ben, the new doctor's assistant. I'm here to register your information."

A simple introduction immediately made Bi Yue lower her guard against him.

She forced a smile. "Hello, my name is Bi Yue."

Ben Walked over, holding a notebook in his hand. As he asked, he began to record, "how are you feeling today? Do you feel any pain in your body?"

"No." Bi Yue shook her head.

Ben then circled the 'severe external injuries' that he had written in advance on the notebook and asked again, "are you dizzy?"

"A little."

Ben Looked up at her and wrote on the notebook, "suspected brain damage."

"You haven't eaten anything all day?"

"Yes, I have no appetite."

Ben's questions came one after another. They were all very ordinary questions.

The doctor, who was listening outside the door, was a little confused. He turned around to look at Yan Jun. "young master, this..."

"Let him ask." Yan Jun did not intend to stop him, nor did he doubt Ben's method.

Sure enough, after a few simple questions, Ben leaned sideways and sat on a chair at the side. He was still chatting with Bi Yue, but the pen in his hand did not record anything else. Instead, he gently tapped on the cabinet next to the hospital bed, one after another With a certain beat.

The moment he heard the beat, Yan Jun's brows furrowed.

He stared at the defenseless Bi Yue, and his heart gradually turned cold.

If it was Xia Jinqi, she would have noticed it long ago.

Without any instinctive reaction, had this Bi Yue really completely taken over Xia Jinqi's body?

At this moment, the doctor's gaze was also attracted by Ben's tapping action. He stared straight at Ben's hand, and his eyes began to lose focus bit by bit... ..

In the ward, Ben's tapping action suddenly stopped at a certain point. n..OveLbIn

At the same time, Bi Yue, who had been sitting on the bed and chatting with Ben, suddenly closed her eyes and lay back on the bed.

Other than her, the doctor outside the door also fell to the ground with a bang.

Chapter 1687: I will make him pay the price for

The nurse next to him was shocked and quickly came over to help him up. "Doctor Zou! Doctor Zou!"

Yan Jun pinched the space between his eyebrows and said helplessly, "he's fine. Help him to the room next door."

"Yes, young master..." The nurses dragged Doctor Zou away suspiciously.

Doctor Zou probably still didn't know that he was just staring at the beat. How could he be hypnotized?

Moreover, he wasn't hypnotized. He was just a bystander... ..

Really, he was innocent.

Just then, Huo Ting and Li Jie arrived.

Before they could take a look at the girl's condition, they saw a doctor who had fainted for some reason being dragged away... ..

Huo Ting walked over with a frown. "What's the situation?"

Yan Jun turned around when he heard the sound. Seeing that it was him and Li Jie who had come over, he answered, "He was hypnotized."

"..."Huo Ting was stunned. He looked up at the one-way glass and recognized Ben at a glance.

Previously, Wen Qing had been drugged and appeared at Yan Jun's place. When he sent the girl back, he had seen Ben.

Huo Ting knew what Ben did, and when he heard Yan Jun say that he had been hypnotized, his heart became clearer.

It was probably Yan Jun who had specially called Ben over. With him around, he was many times better than these laymen.

His gaze did not linger in the ward for long. Fortunately, Huo Ting took this time to ask Yan Jun about something. "Are you looking for Zhao Chongbin?"

Huo Ting did not have any other intentions from the information he received on the way here. He just felt that if Yan Jun could still be distracted to investigate such a person at this time, then he would definitely be involved in the matter with the girl.

Yan Jun nodded and did not say much.

"using the army?" Huo Ting asked again.

Actually, no matter who Yan Jun was looking for, it was Yan Jun's freedom. He had no right to interfere.

But the intelligence he received also explained the situation of an army belonging to Yan Jun operating in Rao city.

As the head chief of Rao City, Huo Ting had the responsibility to ask Yan Jun about his intentions.

It was one thing to send an army outside, but to place such a threatening army in the city, and they only listened to Yan Jun's orders, this was more or less a hidden danger.

Yan Jun, who had been watching the ward, finally looked back when he heard this. His long and narrow Phoenix eyes contained a cold charm as he met Huo Ting's somewhat sizing-up gaze.

"He made ah Jin into this state, I will make him pay the price." The powerful words slowly flowed out from Yan Jun's Thin Lips.

It was clearly a very plain sentence, but huo ting could hear a certain degree of death threat... ..

He instinctively realized that this time, Yan Jun was serious.

He even knew that this matter involved the girl, and it was different from the past. n..OveLbIn

However, he still wanted to advise Yan Jun, "don't hurt the innocent."

Yan Jun did not answer.

His dark eyes were bone-chilling.

Huo Ting did not say anything more. He just looked at the calm Yan Jun and suddenly had a very ominous premonition.

They had interacted for a long time and he knew very well how important the girl was to Yan Jun... ..

If the girl could not return to normal, Yan Jun might really... ..

Huo Ting did not continue to think because Yan jun suddenly said something that interrupted his train of thought.

"Ah Jin and I... If anything happens to us, help me find Yu Han. At least let them reunite as brother and sister."

His very rational words were so clear that it was terrifying!

Huo Ting was stunned at first, then he turned to look at him in shock. "What exactly do you want to do? Yan Jun, DON'T DO ANYTHING RASH! There are still a long time to go, there will always be a way to cure the girl!"

Chapter 1688: If you're not careful, you'll never see each other again

Yan Jun curled his lips into a pale smile. "There are no mountains and rivers. If you're not careful, you'll never see each other again."

In just a few days, not many people could withstand what he had experienced... ..

But he still had to persevere.

At least, he had to prepare for the worst.

If Ah Jin really couldn't come back, then... ... What was the point of him living in this world ? ?

He would let her go.

It was just that he had suffered that pair of children, and now there was still one who did not know where he was.

He was really frustrated.

He could not protect the woman he loved, and he could not even protect his own children... ...

Huo Ting had never seen Yan Jun so depressed.

He gritted his teeth. He had clenched his fist and was about to punch Yan Jun awake, but he could not lift his hand.

What right did he have to punch Yan Jun awake?

No matter how strong a heart was, there would be a moment of weakness... ...

At this moment, Yan Jun was probably more self-reproachful and regretful than he had imagined!

Just this alone was enough to make Yan Jun want to die, right?

Moreover, he had to bear the reality that the woman he loved had become another person... ...

Sighing softly, Huo Ting softened his heart. "Yu Han will definitely be found, and the girl will definitely wake up. Yan Jun, you can't fall now. Don't even think about leaving everything behind, don't even think about it. "

Yan Jun frowned slightly.

However, Huo Ting continued, "back then, you promised me that you would lead the people of Rao city towards the light, towards an unprecedented bright and prosperous Era! Now, all of us have cleared the obstacles for you, and you are now the person with the highest authority in Rao city.

"All of us have risked our lives to push you to a high position. Don't even think about backing out at the last minute "The girl will not allow you to do this. Even if she is really gone, she will definitely not want you to go with her "You are the future president of Rao city, the girl's husband, and also the father of Yu Han and Xiao puff! "

Speaking of high spirits, Huo Ting could not help but tear up.

The iron-blooded soldier could not help but want to cry at this moment!

"I will pretend that I did not hear what you just said! You better buck up and be a man who stands tall and strong! Don't let me, Huo Ting, misjudge you! "

After that, Huo Ting turned his back and didn't look at Yan Jun again.

In fact, he just quietly turned around and wiped the corners of his eyes.

Even he, the former love rival, unconsciously began to feel sorry for the man beside him.

But who asked him to be Yan Jun? n-.OvℰℓBIn

This loneliness, this strength, this forbearance, he could only clench his teeth and endure it!

All the people in the world could fall, but only Yan Jun couldn't!

After Huo Ting turned around, Li Jie walked over.

His gaze fell on the ward, but his words were directed at Yan Jun..

"The chairman will definitely get better. "

Li Jie did not speak much, nor was he as talkative as huο ting. He could not even make any big sense.

He simply felt that a woman as tenacious as the chairman would not give up so easily?

No matter where, no matter what the situation was, the chairman must be desperately trying to survive... ..

And as the person involved, Yan Jun... ..

He gently closed his eyes, not daring to look at the woman who claimed to be bi yue on the bed again.

No matter what Huo Ting and Li Jie said, they could not comfort his almost torn heart.

Why did his heart hurt so much?

Whenever he thought of his Ah Jin, his heart would hurt so much... ..

Finally, he was so overwhelmed by the intense pain that he could not straighten his back. He could only use one hand to support his balance against the wall and the other hand to press down on his chest!

Chapter 1689: thinking of a person can make one's heart ache

Li Jie noticed his strange behavior and hurriedly went forward to ask, "chairman? "

Hearing this, Huo Ting also looked back, only to see Yan Jun bent over with a pained face, and large beads of sweat were still dripping from his forehead... ..

Just as he was about to go forward, he caught a glimpse of Xia Jinqi behind the glass from the corner of his eye. Xia Jinqi's facial features were also tightly wrinkled, and she was in extreme pain.

She lay flat on the bed with her eyes tightly shut, as if she had been hypnotized.

But even so, she seemed to be having some inexplicable connection with Yan Jun..

The two of them were in such pain at the same time... ..

And in the ward.

Ben had already easily hypnotized the defenseless Bi Yue and successfully entered her subconscious.

The moment he entered, Ben was stunned.

Because it was a place full of birds chirping and flowers, like a fairyland. It was exactly the same as when he entered Xia Jinqi's consciousness!

So... .. could he understand that this place still belonged to Xia Jinqi ? ?

Everyone's thoughts were different, and their brains and subconscious were also different. Ben's occupation was special. In his life, he had entered the minds of countless people, and the environment he had seen was also different.

The subconscious of a person with a dark heart was usually dark, chaotic, and indistinct.

However, most people still had light. They had rooms, flowers, and trees.

There were very few people like Xia Jinqi, who had a pure heart and no distracting thoughts. That was why there was such a paradise-like scene.

That was why he was so relieved that Yan Jun had found a true lover.

Walking along the lawn, Ben saw a girl lying on the grass.

The face was very unfamiliar, but Ben guessed that this person was Bi Yue, the one who had occupied Xia Jinqi's consciousness.

Frowning and sizing her up for a moment, Ben raised his eyes and looked around, but he didn't find anything!

Bi Yue was here, but what about Xia Jinqi Where was she?

She shouldn't have left yet, or the birds, flowers, and fragrance here would no longer exist!

Thinking of this, Ben began to run quickly in the grass. As he ran, he shouted, "Summer! Summer! "

As he ran, he found a cliff.

Ben Stopped and looked down instinctively. He found that there was a dark lake below.

"Summer?" He called out tentatively. The surface of the lake was still calm and there was no reaction.

Even though he did not get an answer, Ben did not leave quickly. Instead, he stared at the surface of the lake with a deep gaze.

There was no trace of Summer on the green land here. She did not leave, so... .. It was very likely that she fell into the deep bottom of the lake ! !

Even though he did not know much about the so-called brain wave transplant technique, it should not be wrong to search according to his method.

“Summer? Can you hear me? You must not give up! As long as you have not completely disappeared, there is hope to regain your body!” Ben Shouted at the surface of the lake He hoped that Xia Jinqi could hear his voice. That way, at least she could cheer for him.

At this moment, outside the ward, the pain in Yan Jun’s heart did not lessen at all. Instead, it was getting more and more serious!

“Ah Jin...” he muttered unconsciously. His eyes darkened and he almost fainted!

Huo Ting supported him and said hurriedly, “Don’t think about it! The more you think about it, the more it hurts!”

As an experienced person, Huo Ting knew how Yan Jun felt at that moment.

Thinking about a person, he could feel pain in his heart... ..

And such pain struck deep into his soul!

At the same time, the lake under Ben’s feet suddenly bubbled up two bubbles.

Chapter 1690: He was so close to not being able to come back!

BEN’S HEART TIGHTENED!

He stared fixedly at the spot where the bubbles had appeared and tentatively called out, “Summer?”

However, this time, the surface of the lake returned to its previous tranquility. There was no more movement.

At the bottom of the lake.

Xia Jinqi’s soul was originally in a deep sleep until a whistle reached her ear. “Summer! !”

Who Was it?

Who was calling her

She couldn’t open her eyes. She didn’t even have a consciousness that belonged to her.

It was at this moment that she felt her heart hurt so much... .. It hurt so much that she scrunched up her jade-like face. She opened her mouth and tried hard to breathe ...

However, the bone-piercing Lake water surrounded her and bound her... .. She couldn’t move at all ! !

Ben Waited at the edge of the cliff for a long time, but he still didn’t get anything.

While he was thinking, a hand suddenly came over his shoulder!

Ben Felt a chill all over his body. He instinctively wanted to turn around to look, but that hand suddenly exerted force and pushed him off the cliff!

“Ah! !” With a scream, Ben gritted his teeth and forced himself to pull himself out of XIA JINQI’s subconscious! n-OvℓBIn

The moment he returned to reality, Ben had no way of stabilizing himself. He fell backward and sat on the ground!

At the same time, his chest rose and fell rapidly, and he started breathing rapidly!

His back was already drenched in cold sweat! ! !

It was so close... ...

Ben Wiped his face in fear and swallowed hard.

He was so close to not being able to come back!

If he had been thrown into the dark lake, he would have been trapped there for the rest of his life!

Huo Ting pushed open the door of the ward and ran in quickly. When he saw Ben Lying on the ground, he pulled him up in surprise. "What happened?"

He had witnessed the whole process from outside the door.

Ben was clearly standing by the bed just now. How did he suddenly fall?

Ben was still in shock. "I was pushed. "

Huo Ting subconsciously looked at Xia Jinqi, who was lying on both sides of the bed. He saw that her eyes were tightly shut and there were no signs of her waking up. At that time, only Ben and she were in the room. Who Could Push Ben?

Sensing Huo Ting's puzzled gaze, Ben explained, "not here. "

"..."Huo Ting really wanted to ask him, where else could it be?

But before he could finish his sentence, Yan Jun walked over from the door.

His right hand was still covering the spot where his heart was. His brows were knitted tightly, but his footsteps were steady and powerful. He must have recovered a lot.

He looked at Ben, his black eyes narrowed, and he opened his mouth anxiously. "How is it? "

Ben Did Not answer immediately. Instead, he looked at Yan Jun's Pale face and asked in puzzlement, "What's wrong with you? "

" ... " before Yan Jun could speak, Huo Ting beat him to it and said, "the lovesickness is acting up. "

When Ben heard this, his originally furrowed brows furrowed even more tightly at that moment.

He stared at Yan Jun and suddenly said, "Summer... may not be found... "

The moment he said that, Yan Jun's heart sank, and a sharp pain instantly spread out!

His slender fingers clenched tightly, and he clenched his teeth tightly. The veins on his forehead burst out because of the pain!

When he saw Yan Jun like this, Ben immediately looked towards Xia Jinqi who was lying on the hospital bed!

He saw that she was also frowning at the same time. Her facial features were constricted and her breathing was starting to become obstructed... ..

Ben Secretly sized up all of this and conveniently recalled the strange woman he saw lying on the lawn when he entered Xia Jinqi's consciousness.

The expression on her face was peaceful from the beginning to the end, as if nothing could affect her.
