

Trick Me 1691

Chapter 1691: If one person was in pain, the other person would also be in pain

If that was the case, then the person who was telepathically connected to Yan Jun at this moment should be Xia Jinqi!

He recalled the two bubbles that floated on the surface of the lake earlier, and how Yan Jun had also entered with his hand covering his chest... ..

Ben's mind spun rapidly. He turned around excitedly to look at Yan Jun. "don't worry! What I said just now was a lie! Summer is still here. Summer CAN STILL BE SAVED!"

Yan Jun,"..."

Initially, when Ben said that Xia Jinqi could not be found, his heart was in so much pain that it was about to die!

However, it had not even been half a minute when Ben overturned everything he said just now and told him that Xia Jinqi could still be saved?

Taking a deep breath, Yan Jun tried hard to suppress his surging heart. He focused his eyes on Ben and asked, "What exactly happened?"

However, Ben Did Not Answer Yan Jun immediately. Instead, he turned his eyes to look at Xia Jinqi who was lying on the bed

Sure enough, he saw that the pain on her face had eased! ! !

After sensing all this, Ben was abnormally excited. His facial features couldn't hold it in any longer. He took two steps on the spot and hugged his head. Then, he grabbed Yan Jun and asked in surprise, "how did you do it? You... you actually have telepathy? !"

When Yan Jun was in pain, Xia Jinqi's body would also be in pain!

In other words, during this period of time, Xia Jinqi's real body subconsciously controlled and seized her body!

She... Could she feel Yan Jun's pain ? ?

" ... " Yan Jun frowned at him, his dark eyes unfathomable. "What do you mean?"

But Ben was still so high that he couldn't stop!

He looked at Yan Jun with a smile, then at Xia Jinqi. He didn't know where to put his hands and feet, and he almost started dancing!

Huo Ting, who was watching from the side, was confused from the beginning to the end. He turned to ask Yan Jun, "are all psychologists like this?"

Yan Jun didn't answer. He only furrowed his eyebrows, and his dark eyes suddenly darkened. He coldly raised his lips. "Ben!"

There were not many words. It seemed gentle, but it was forceful and aggressive. It was filled with a kind of erosion.

The incomparably excited Ben felt a gust of cold wind blow past his back when Yan Jun stared at him like that. All of his soaring emotions instantly dropped by a large margin!

Quickly regaining his senses, Ben coughed lightly, wanting to ease the awkwardness.

However, Yan Jun was already impatient from waiting. He sternly said, "speak!"

"Cough, cough, cough! Don't be anxious, don't be anxious..." Ben sorted out his words before he carefully recounted what had happened when he entered Xia Jinqi's subconscious.

In the end, he even cleared his throat "From what I see, Summer should have been trapped As for whether this experiment would completely make the subject disappear, or if he would be trapped like this for the rest of his life, he would still need to find the person who did the experiment to find out. "But judging from the current situation, Summer has a reaction to you "Have you guys... "Ever had such an experience before "? I mean, is it something like a heartache or something like that?"

Yan Jun lowered his eyes and his deep gaze landed on Xia Jinqi's similarly pale face. "Yes, I have."

"When?" BEN STARTED TO GET EXCITED AGAIN!

In medicine, the so-called telepathy only appeared in twins, especially identical twins.

Couples like Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi, who were not related by blood at all, had never been together before.

"A year ago." Yan Jun recalled the time a year ago when Xia Jinqi had just given birth to two children when she was taken away by Ji Yunjing. He and Xia Jinqi were only separated by a wall, but they had already sensed each other.

That feeling was hard to explain, but it was very magical. It involved each other. When one was in pain, the other would also be in pain.

Chapter 1692: Ah Jin, don't give up.

"AMAZING!" Ben Clapped his hands in excitement and almost lost his words "How about this? Spend more time with her these few days. Take her to a place where you have special memories. Try Your best to do something that leaves a deep impression on her. See if you can make Summer struggle even more intensely when she's trapped Only then can she save herself!"

No matter what, this was the only way at the moment!

Moreover, once it worked, things would become simpler... ..

As long as Xia Jinqi still had feelings for Yan Jun, this body would be snatched back sooner or later!

Yan Jun quietly stared at Xia Jinqi's little face that had already calmed down slightly. When he heard Ben's words again, waves of mist actually rose in his pure black eyes.

He slowly walked over and tightly held Xia Jinqi's hand, tightly... ..

"Ah Jin. " He opened his mouth, and his voice was slightly choked with sobs.

Although Xia Jinqi's eyes were closed and she would not answer Yan Jun, there were tears silently falling from the corner of her eyes. In the end, they disappeared into her hair.

Seeing this scene, Yan Jun's heart could not help but jump with joy!

"Ah Jin, don't give up. Wake up, look at me, look at our child..." he sobbed as he muttered. He then placed Xia Jinqi's hand close to his cheek, extremely gentle.

Seeing this, Ben and Li Jie tactfully retreated.

Huo Ting's body stiffened slightly, but he did not leave immediately.

He still remembered that two years ago, when he found out that Xia Jinqi was married in the army, he ran back to Rao city without caring about anything.

In his memory, she still liked the silly girl who followed behind him and called him 'Huo' and 'Huo' .

In the blink of an eye, when they met again, she was already a wife.

When he first heard from the girl that she liked Yan Jun, his heart was filled with disdain.

After all, Yan Jun was a cold person who did not like to talk. He was a blockhead who did not understand the meaning of romance!

He really did not know why the girl would like such a person. Of course, when he was young, he was a little conceited. In addition, Yan Jun had stolen his girl. When he looked at Yan Jun, he always wore a pair of colored glasses. He did not like anything! n-(O.-v/.E-.I)-b-(1/-n

Later, when he found out that the two of them had feelings for each other and loved each other to death, he decided to let go.

Letting go might be letting go, but in the bottom of his heart, he was still a little unconvinced.

He had also always felt that perhaps he had not left for so long back then, or perhaps he could have returned earlier. Perhaps Yan Jun would not have had anything to do with it!

It was not until he heard Ben mention that there was actually such a subtle connection between Yan Jun and the servant girl that his heart finally came to a realization.

The people who wanted to meet, always had to meet.

The people who should be together, no matter what, would eventually be together.

As for the fate between Yan Jun and the girl, no one could cut it off.

Perhaps, the two of them were the legendary match made in heaven?

Sighing in his heart, Huo Ting curled the corners of his lips and smiled self-deprecatingly, as if he had been relieved of a heavy burden.

The girl, from the very beginning, was destined not to be his.

The last trace of obsession in his heart also completely disappeared at this moment.

Huo Ting arched his eyebrows and looked at the sleeping Xia Jinqi. He teased, “girl, such a handsome husband is guarding you. Aren’t you going to wake up? Be careful that he is snatched away by another woman!”

He smiled, but his eyes turned red. He continued, “If I were you, I would fight for my body even if I have to risk my life! Don’t let the person you love be sad, and don’t let the person who loves you worry, okay?”

Chapter 1693: you stay

After that, Huo Ting stopped looking at Xia Jinqi and turned around to leave the ward.

The moment he walked out, his tightly clenched hands slowly loosened... ..

Everything was finally at ease.

Without stopping at the door of the ward, Huo Ting turned around and went downstairs to get some fresh air.

He also knew that his current expression must be in a sorry state. He did not want others to see this side of him.

On the other side, Ben went to the room next door.

The unconscious doctor Zou was still lying on the bed.

When he heard that he was hypnotized through a double-sided mirror, Ben really didn’t know whether to laugh or cry... ..

Li Jie also felt that it was strange, so he asked, “at that time, the chairman and I were also there. Why weren’t we hypnotized?”

“people with a strong will and a strong heart aren’t easy to hypnotize,” Ben answered. He took out something that looked like a coin from his pocket, blew hard on it, and then put it beside doctor Zou’s ear.

That thing seemed to make a sound. It was very strange, and it was something that Li Jie had never heard before.

After a moment, Doctor Zou frowned and woke up.

He blinked his eyes in a daze before he sat up from the bed. He looked around blankly. “what... happened to me?”

Ben Did not explain. He had already turned around and left with Li Jie.

On the contrary, the nurses surrounded him and said in surprise, "Doctor Zou, you fainted just now! Have you been working too hard recently?"

"maybe... You have anemia." Doctor Zou used his hand to support his forehead. He had forgotten how he fainted ...

When Ben walked out of the door, Yan Jun had already walked out of Xia Jinqi's ward.

Li Kun was standing in the corridor, breathing unevenly. From the looks of it, he had run all the way here. He didn't know if something had happened.

Yan Jun carefully closed Xia Jinqi's door before frowning at Li Kun. "Any news?"

"Yes!" Li Kun nodded and went forward to whisper a few words to Yan Jun..

Ben and Li Jie didn't hear what Li Kun said, but in the blink of an eye, they saw Yan Jun's handsome face instantly tensed up, and his black eyes darkened!

Before they could ask what happened, Yan Jun had already turned around to look at them, his eyes filled with doubt. "Huo Ting left?"

"probably not, he was still here just now." Ben turned around to look at his surroundings, and only then did he realize that Huo Ting had actually left without them knowing... ..

Yan Jun pondered for a moment, then asked, "Ben, when will ah Jin wake up?"

"At least she can sleep for a night," Ben answered.

"Help me take care of her." With that, Yan Jun turned around and was about to leave with Li Kun.

"Don't worry." Ben Nodded. He had come this time for Xia Jinqi. Naturally, he had to stay here and observe her changes.

Li Jie glanced at Yan Jun's back and then turned back to look at Xia Jinqi lying on the bed. After hesitating for a moment, he quickly followed Yan Jun..

Hearing the footsteps behind him, Yan Jun turned back and saw that it was Li Jie who had followed him.

With a deep frown, he lowered his voice. "You stay."

Li Jie shook his head. "Chief Huo is here. No one can hurt the chairman. If you are injured, the chairman will feel uneasy."

Although Li Jie was Xia Jinqi's man, he knew how important Yan Jun was to Xia Jinqi.

Just now, when he saw that Yan Jun and Li Kun did not look too good, he reckoned that the matter of going this time would be somewhat troublesome.

He had to follow and protect Yan Jun. Only then could the chairman feel at ease.

"..."Yan Jun's black eyes flickered, but he did not refuse.

Now that Wang Mang was still recovering from his injury, he indeed lacked a fighter by his side.

Chapter 1694: I don't know if I can still get pregnant

Downstairs of the hospital.

Huo Ting wanted to say that he was going for a walk, so he chose a quiet corner to stay alone.

After all, it was a relationship that had been going on for many years, and he needed time to digest it.

Just as he was about to relax a little and prepare to go back, he casually looked to the side and saw a slightly familiar silhouette... ..

Huo Ting subconsciously frowned. The moment he focused his eyes on it, his pupils contracted slightly.

Not Far Away.

Su Xiangxiang had a cute bun on her head. She wore a light gray coat and a scarf of the same color around her neck. It was very thick, which made her face even smaller.

She seemed to have just come out of a certain department, and her face was a little Pale.

Huo Ting's heart unconsciously tightened. He thought to himself, she came to the hospital alone. Is She sick?

While he was puzzled, his eyes moved slightly. He just happened to see the sign hanging on the door of the department that Su Xiangxiang walked out of: Obstetrics and gynecology.

At the same time, two nurses of a certain age walked past and were discussing something in a low voice.

"Tsk Tsk, young girls nowadays really don't care about themselves! They've already had three abortions in a year! The uterine wall is so thin, I don't know if I can still have a child in the future! "

"I heard from the director that it won't be easy to have a child in the future. ". "She's so young, yet she doesn't know how to care about herself. Even though she's already an adult, since she's planning to not have a child, why didn't she take proper protective measures? ! " "Sigh, in the end, she's not the one who's injured! "

"Who says so... just now in the operating theater, the young lady was crying her heart out. It was as if her family had found a fianc?? for her. She didn't like it, so she eloped with her boyfriend. In the end, her boyfriend even broke her legs... "

"I'm not sure... no matter what, we can't waste ourselves like this! "

After the two nurses finished speaking, they left quickly, leaving Huo Ting, who seemed to have been struck by lightning, frozen in place.

Her family found a FIANC?, but she didn't like it, so she eloped with her boyfriend?

Why did it sound like they were talking about Su Xiangxiang. Moreover... Huo Ting had just seen Su Xiangxiang walk out of the obstetrics department with his own eyes with a pale face ...

After a moment of surprise, when Huo Ting looked up again, he found that a boy had come to Su Xiangxiang's side out of nowhere.

He looked like he was in his twenties, but he was quite tall. He could not help but pull su Xiangxiang's wrist. The two of them were talking excitedly.

Huo Ting stood rooted to the ground. He did not know why, but when he saw this scene, he felt very uncomfortable!

Without thinking, he walked up quickly and knocked the boy to the ground with one punch!

The boy was stunned. He did not expect such a person to suddenly appear. Moreover, he stared at him fiercely. He did not dare to fight back. He fell to the ground and covered his face in a daze... ..

Su Xiangxiang was also shocked. She was about to turn around to see who it was, but she realized it was Huo Ting?

"You..." Su Xiangxiang opened her mouth. She wanted to say something, but Huo Ting pulled her away with a backhand!

His face was livid and his steps were unusually fast. Even he himself did not know why he was so agitated at this moment!

Su Xiangxiang was scared silly. She instinctively took two steps forward. She walked too fast and her feet seemed to twist a little. "Aiya!"

She bent down in an attempt to stabilize her center of gravity.

However, Huo Ting thought that her stomach was not feeling well. After all, just now... ..

Even though he was angry, he still bent down, hugged her in his arms, and strode away!

Chapter 1695: trust me, I'm very experienced

The boy fell to the ground for a long time before he came back to his senses. He got up from the ground in embarrassment, patted the dust off his butt, and cursed with a dumbfounded face, "crazy!"

Then, he went to the department that Su Xiangxiang had just walked out of.

Su Xiangxiang, who was inexplicably hugged by Huo Ting who fell from the sky, was not much better. Her cute little face was now red and curled up in Huo Ting's arms. Her body was so stiff that she did not dare to move!

She carefully looked up. From her angle, she could see Huo Ting's taut jaw and his handsome side profile.

She really wanted to ask him why he suddenly appeared here?

And... .. He was holding her ? ?

Didn't they agree not to get married? ? ?

Since then, they had never contacted each other again. She even thought that they would never cross paths again in this lifetime... ..

She was not someone who liked to pester people. Since Huo Ting did not like her, she could turn around and leave in a carefree manner.

But he... ..

Why did he barge into her life again without any warning?

The words were on the tip of her tongue, but after hesitating for a long time, she still did not have the courage to ask.

She had a feeling that he was very angry now... .. And that anger seemed to be directed at her ? ?

But they had not seen each other for such a long time, and she had not done anything to make him angry!

What a strange and unpredictable man... ..

Huo Ting did not know what the girl in his arms was thinking. He just pulled a long face and carried her to different departments on the same floor.

After placing her on the hospital bed, Huo Ting turned around and called for the doctor. "CHECK HER UP! She just... cried out in pain."

As he spoke, Huo Ting stuttered, and there was an unnatural look on his handsome face.

After all, he was a man, so it was not appropriate for him to talk about that in detail.

The doctor recognized Huo Ting and immediately nodded. "Don't worry, chief, don't worry!"

Then, Huo Ting went out first.

Su Xiangxiang, who was dumbfounded on the hospital bed, muttered to herself, "I twisted my ankle, but you sent me here..." as she spoke, she glanced at the name tag on the chest of the female doctor who walked in. "Gynecology Department?"

...

There was a strange atmosphere in the air.

The doctor and Su Xiangxiang stared at each other for a moment before they asked kindly, "Miss Su, where does it hurt?"

Coincidentally, the doctor's father used to be a military doctor. Now that he was retired, he was still used to paying attention to military affairs. Naturally, he also paid attention to military marriages. Among them, the Huo and Su families were the most anticipated.

Therefore, not only did she know Huo Ting, but she also recognized Su Xiangxiang at a glance.

"I... I think I twisted my ankle." As she spoke, Su Xiangxiang rubbed her ankle. She felt a faint pain, but it was not intense. She thought that it should not be a serious problem ...

The doctor smiled. He thought that she was shy, so he simply found an excuse to prevaricate, so he said kindly, "Miss Su, there's no need to be nervous. Where exactly does it hurt? I'll help you check. Otherwise, if it drags on seriously, it will hurt your own body."

After all, it was not easy for a girl at this age to have a gynecological examination.

"No, I really just twisted my ankle." Su Xiangxiang was anxious to explain, and her small face was red!

"If you really twisted your ankle, the chief should have sent you to the Orthopedics Department! Since you're here, relax a little... trust me, I'm very experienced." The doctor began to put on gloves, and his face was serious. "Lie down first and take off your pants."

Su Xiangxiang, "..."

Chapter 1696, you... .. Hate me so much ? ?

Su Xiangxiang's pink face couldn't be any more embarrassed. She stood rooted to the ground, not knowing why things had developed in this strange direction?

The doctor saw that her face was abnormally red. He thought for a moment and asked a very experienced question, "is there any bleeding?"

"Ah?" Su Xiangxiang was stunned and looked at the doctor in confusion.

"Chief Huo doesn't know how to take care of women," the doctor thought to himself and sighed. "How many times a week?"

"..." Su Xiangxiang was completely petrified.

She had already said so much. If she still did not understand, then she would really... ..

Taking a deep breath, Su Xiangxiang struggled to change the topic. "Doctor, it's really not what you think!"

The doctor, however, firmly believed in his own experience. He even smiled and comforted Su Xiangxiang "Miss Su, don't be nervous. I've been a chief physician for more than twenty years, and I've seen more patients than you eat rice! Usually, couples like you, except for those who are pregnant, most of them..."

Su Xiangxiang could no longer listen. She jumped off the bed with one leg and said, "I'd better go to the Orthopedics Department!"

There was no point in explaining anymore. She could only use actual actions to prove her innocence!

Su Xiangxiang did not care whether she was angry from embarrassment at the moment. She limped out of the room just like that!

The doctor was surprised and still called her, "Miss Su? Aren't you going to check?"

Outside the door, Huo Ting frowned and waited for a long time.

When he looked back, he saw Su Xiangxiang limping out. He hurriedly went forward and asked, "what happened to your leg?"

"I twisted it!" Su Xiangxiang replied in a bad mood. Thinking of the person who caused the mistake just now, she turned around angrily, bypassed Huo Ting, and left on her own.

Huo Ting thought that she had just quarreled with the boy, so he was in a bad mood.

In addition, she had just undergone surgery, so her body definitely did not have much strength. He carried her to the orthopedics department again.

After an examination, he was sure that she was fine. He sat on a chair in the corridor and waited for some blood-activating and stasis-dissolving medicine.

He could not help but feel a little bored sitting there. Huo Ting opened his mouth and asked, "how is your body?"

He did not ask her directly about her child, so he could only ask.

Su Xiangxiang answered in a fit of Pique, "not good!"

She was originally fine, but with his tugging, she was dragged into the gynecology department... ..

Thinking about what the doctor said just now, she wished she could dig a hole and hide in it!

Huo Ting thought about it and agreed. He sighed and said, "let the family make up for it later."

Su Xiangxiang frowned. She thought to herself, such a small injury, there's no need for such a formality, right Moreover, she did not plan to let her parents and brothers know about it, so that they would not worry again... ..

The two of them sat for a while before Huo Ting asked, "do you... hate me that much?"

He remembered what the two nurses had said earlier. She did not like the fianc?? arranged by her family... ..

She felt inexplicably sad.

"Ah?" Su Xiangxiang turned around in surprise, only to see a bitter smile on his lips. It was very sad.

She felt a sharp pain in her heart and hurriedly shook her head. "Why do you ask? I..."

"No matter what, you shouldn't be so uncaring about your own body," he added.

Su Xiangxiang was filled with doubt... ..

She accidentally twisted it. How was it uncaring?

Moreover, why did he make it sound so heavy?

It was as if she had a major illness... ..

Could it be... .. Su Xiangxiang's heart clenched. Could it be that the doctor's examination just now had given her a terminal illness ? ?n--0ve1&In

Chapter 1697: he... .. shouldn't be considered an outsider, right ? ?

He panicked for a moment and completely did not notice the man's tightly furrowed brows and deep eyes.

Huo Ting secretly gritted his teeth and his expression did not look good. n

It was not easy for him to clear up his feelings for the girl, but now that he met Su Xiangxiang in the blink of an eye, his heart was even more confused!

The two of them were connected because of the interests of the family. Later on, when they talked things out, he also thought that everything was over just like that.

But... .. Today ...

When he saw her entangled with another man, he only felt a burst of anger. He couldn't care less about anything and went up to give that bastard kid a punch!

Even when he first saw the girl and Yan Jun together, he didn't have such a strong impulse to hit people in the bottom of his heart!

Moreover, when he knew that her private life might be very chaotic, not only did he not hate her, he only thought that she had hurt her body.

Even he himself didn't know, what was wrong with him? ? ?

His heart was in a mess!

He even suddenly had a thought that made people break out in cold sweat

If he had agreed to this marriage without caring about anything back then, they would probably be married now, right?

He would tie her tightly to his side so that she would not meet another jerk!

Yan Jun's words echoed in his ears unconsciously, "there are no mountains and rivers. If you are not careful, you will never see each other again."

Huo Ting's eyes paused. His eyes flickered, and he suddenly did not know what to do... ..

Previously, he had thought that there would be more time, so he had allowed the girl to grow up by his side. He had thought that there would be a day when he would be able to confess to her, but later... ..

Now, he also thought that he and Su Xiangxiang would be able to go with the flow. In the end, there was someone else by her side.

When he thought about all this, Huo Ting clenched his teeth tightly.

"You like him very much?" He suddenly asked.

Su Xiangxiang was sad that she didn't have much time left, but she heard huo ting say something so ridiculous.

She was stunned for a moment before she asked Dully, “who?”

“The boy who pulled you just now.” Huo Ting’s tone was very low, and the word ‘Chuan’ appeared between his brows.

“Him? I don’t like him...” Su Xiangxiang answered in a daze.

Huo Ting was stunned, and he looked back at her in surprise. “You’re still with him even though you don’t like him?”

“We...” Su Xiangxiang was dumbfounded. She did not understand what Huo Ting was saying at all.

“WE’RE NOT TOGETHER! He’s Wanqing’s boyfriend... Wanqing... HMM...”

When she said this, Su Xiangxiang paused. After all, this was Fu Wanqing’s private matter, so it was not appropriate for her to tell others about it.

However, when she turned around and saw Huo Ting’s shocked jaw almost falling off, she pondered for a moment. He... Shouldn’t be considered an outsider, right??

Thus, she said awkwardly, “Fu Wanqing, do you still remember? The last time at the shooting range, she was the one who suggested that GRANDPA change the target to a balloon. If it weren’t for you helping me, I would have embarrassed myself in public!” When she thought of the situation at that time, Su Xiangxiang still had an indignant look on her face!

“AHEM! I’ve gone too far...” Su Xiangxiang cleared her throat. Then, she continued “GRANDPA doted on her and found her a fianc??. His family background isn’t very good, but I heard that he’s a good person. “But she refused no matter what. She caused a Ruckus at home for quite some time. At first, I also thought that she didn’t like that Fianc??. but this morning, I happened to see her on the street with a boy.

Chapter 1698: he suddenly carried her up... ..

The two of them seemed to have quarreled. After that, the boy ran away. Wanqing chased after him and fell after two steps. She couldn’t stand up no matter how hard she tried, so I sent her to the hospital.”

As for the doctor later saying that Fu Wanqing had to take abortion medicine to suffer from abdominal pain, and that she might not be able to get pregnant after having three abortions a year, Su Xiangxiang did not say anything.

Even though when she heard the news, she was so surprised that she almost fell... ..

After all, whether it was the SU family or the Fu family, everyone thought that Fu Wanqing was a good girl.

In order to gain the favor of her grandfather in the huge Su family, apart from having an extraordinary mind, she must not be bad herself.

Even Su Xiangxiang felt that Fu Wanqing was really outstanding in certain aspects... ..

But who knew... .. She actually had a boyfriend behind her back, and even.. .. Treated abortion as a common occurrence.

Later on, she thought that since she was young, aunt Fu had been so strict with her, so she probably exploded in silence?

People's hearts were always separated by their bellies. Who could really see through a person?

However, he did not expect that fate would arrange for Su Xiangxiang to see all of this... ..

Fu Wanqing had always treated Su Xiangxiang as a thorn in her flesh.

Huo Ting did not have the time to marvel at the fact that a well-behaved girl in the eyes of everyone would actually do such a thing behind her back... ..

He now had a feeling of enlightenment?

So, the person that the nurse mentioned was not Su Xiangxiang, but Fu Wanqing!

That boy has nothing to do with Su Xiangxiang?

So... ..

She doesn't hate him or like anyone else?

Everything, just a mistake he made?

Do not know why, when thinking of this, Huo Ting pursed his lips and laughed foolishly.

At first it was a light smile, but then it got out of hand, the louder the laugh, the brighter the laugh... ..

"Ha ha ha ha ha!"

The whole person that laughs directly at last is shaking!

Su Xiangxiang was worried that Huo Ting did not want to hear her say this. After all, he had been silent for a long time.

But who knew that after he heard it, he actually laughed out loud?

Besides, Fu Wanqing had bullied her before. Now that she saw Fu Wanqing like this, she deserved it. But laughing like this, wasn't it a little too much?

Su Xiangxiang plucked up her courage and poked Huo Ting's shoulder with her index finger. "Stop laughing. She's still lying in bed in pain."

Only then did huo ting realize that he had lost his composure. He shook his head and tried to stop the smile on his lips. "She bullied you so much, and you still sent her to the hospital?"

"She fell on the street and bled..." Su Xiangxiang thought of the scene at that time and felt her heart beat faster.

No matter what, it was still a human life. She couldn't just pretend that she didn't see it, right?

Hearing that, Huo Ting turned to look at the girl beside him.

He didn't want to laugh at first, but when he looked at her, his eyes couldn't help but contain a smile.

She had been in his sight since just now. Why did he suddenly have a strong sense of joy and excitement that he had lost and regained?

"Well done," he praised her. He could not help but lean forward and pull her into his arms.

Friction and conflict were inevitable when people interacted with each other.

However, they had to learn to distinguish between the big evil and the small.

In front of the big and the bad, Su Xiangxiang had forgotten about the past and saved Fu Wanqing's life. This proved that Huo Ting was not wrong about her.

Su Xiangxiang did not know what Huo Ting was thinking. As they were talking, he suddenly hugged her...

...

Chapter 1699: wait for me here

Her body froze, not daring to move.

She could feel his arms around her, his chin even resting on her neck, and the pleasant smell of a man...

...

He seemed to have surrounded her world all of a sudden.

She was trapped within the circle, unable to move... ..

Her mind seemed to be a little empty. She couldn't think about why he said he wouldn't get married, that his heart belonged to someone else, but he hugged her several times in a row?

However, he lost himself in his momentary tenderness and lost his direction for a moment.

Both of them were a little lost.

Until someone passed by and looked at them with a strange gaze. nOve(lb.1n

Only then did the two of them come back to their senses and backed away awkwardly.

Huo Ting coughed lightly and looked to his side. He saw that the girl's face was red. She tried her best to keep her head down and did not dare to look at his shy look. She also realized how ambiguous her actions were just now.

"I'll go take a look. Is the medicine not ready yet?" He did not know what to say. He could only stand up first and walk into the pharmacy.

After he left, Su Xiangxiang finally took a deep breath and slowly exhaled... ..

Even so, she could not relieve her racing heart!

She reached out and patted her little face. Su Xiangxiang muttered, "HUFF HUFF! Calm Down, calm down!"

Not long after, Huo Ting came out of the pharmacy with a small bag in his hand.

Su Xiangxiang quickly put down her hands and tried to make her expression look more normal.

Huo Ting glanced at her, took out the medicine from the bag and explained to her one by one, "this is for external use, this is for internal use. When you go back, if the pain is severe, ice it..."

Su Xiangxiang nodded and took note of what he said seriously.

However, Huo Ting stopped halfway.

He frowned for a moment and suddenly changed his mind. "Forget it, it's more convenient for you to stay in the hospital."

Anyway, the girl was upstairs, and he didn't know when she would wake up, so he couldn't leave anytime soon.

Su Xiangxiang didn't know if she would take the medicine obediently when she went back, so she simply brought her with her. This was a hospital, so the nurses would definitely take better care of her than she did.

"Huh?" Su Xiangxiang was slightly stunned, but she quickly shook her head after she came back to her senses. "No need, I'll go home. Actually, I didn't twist it much, and it doesn't hurt very much."

As she said this, Su Xiangxiang stood up, wanting to prove that what she said was true.

But just as she exerted her strength, a piercing pain spread to the tip of her heart.

Su Xiangxiang frowned. If she had known earlier, she wouldn't have come out in high heels.

She rarely wore them, and she was a little anxious just now. No wonder she twisted it.

Huo Ting saw her painful expression and then looked at the blinking stilettos, and his brows suddenly furrowed.

"Wait for me here." He threw her a sentence, stuffed the bag of medicine to her, and then turned around to quickly walk out of the hospital.

"Eh? Where are you going..." Su Xiangxiang asked him, but he did not look back.

"What a Weirdo..." Su Xiangxiang shook her head and looked down at the medicine in her hand. Her heart felt warm for some reason.

No matter what, it was worth it to twist it a little and get three hugs.

She sat on the chair and waited for Huo Ting to come back. Su Xiangxiang thought for a while and still limped to Fu Wanqing's room.

When Su Xiangxiang went in, she saw Fu Wanqing lying on the bed with a pale face. She looked out of the window without saying a word.

The boy beside her held her hand and apologized, "Wanqing, I really didn't know you... that girl was an accident. I really don't like her! She insisted on pestering me..."

Chapter 1700: the dignity of a big cousin

As he spoke, he turned around and saw Su Xiangxiang standing at the door.

The boy's expression changed slightly and he said, "are you hungry? I'll go buy you some food."

Then, he left the room.

Su Xiangxiang saw that he had left and walked in.

Fu Wanqing did not turn around but said, "you're here to watch my show, right?"

Su Xiangxiang was slightly shocked. She did not say anything and Fu Wanqing did not turn around either. How did she know it was her?

It was just a moment of doubt. Su Xiangxiang did not think about it and only answered, "I'm not that bored."

After saying that, she felt that it was inappropriate for her to treat a weak patient like that. She added, "body, are you alright? If the pain is severe, the doctor can prescribe painkillers for you."

After all, Su Xiangxiang had never aborted an abortion before. She did not know if the advertisements for painless abortions were really painless. novel)In Fu Wanqing had taken the medicine previously and the pain was excruciating. The child did not come out completely, so she still came to the hospital to have it done.

Whether it was painful or not, one could tell by looking at her pale and bloodless lips.

"You don't have to pretend," Fu Wanqing retorted. She was very proud.

Su Xiangxiang's eyes twitched. She felt like a dog biting Lu Dongbin. She did not stand on ceremony. "Do you think I'm willing to care about you? It's just because your mother is my father's sister."

Thinking about it, it made sense. She did not want Fu Wanqing to thank her. Now that her boyfriend was here, she had nothing to do with it.

She turned around and was about to leave. "No matter how many sweet words a man with a broken leg uses, it can't change the fact that he betrayed you. If he can steal once, he can steal a second time."

Su Xiangxiang did not know why she had said those words. She just could not bear to see Fu Wanqing lying helplessly on the bed like a rag doll.

She did not expect Fu Wanqing to listen to her. Su Xiangxiang felt that she had at least fulfilled her responsibility as a cousin.

Just as she was about to walk out, Fu Wanqing said, "don't tell my mother about me."

Her voice was a little choked up, but she also pretended to be strong.

Su Xiangxiang stopped in her tracks. "I'm not that nosy."

She would never use someone else's weakness to complain about such a tasteless matter.

But... ..

After thinking about it carefully, Su Xiangxiang felt that she should establish the dignity that a big cousin should have at this time.

She took a deep breath and turned to look at Fu Wanqing, who was still twisting her face "I helped you this time, and the past grudges between us will be written off. You go your own way, and I'll go my own way. No one will bother you. If you dare to scheme against me again, HMPH! When that time comes, I won't be able to control my own mouth! "

After she finished speaking, she clearly saw a certain someone lying on the bed stiffen.

Knowing that her words had worked, Su Xiangxiang turned her head in satisfaction.

Just then, she saw Fu Wanqing's boyfriend return. She immediately frowned and scolded him "And you! If you want to be in a relationship, then focus. Aren't you afraid of Karma if you're two-timing? Let me tell you, my cousin's body can't take much more suffering. Do you dare to make her cry again? ! "

" ... " the boy was scared silly and hurriedly nodded. "cousin, don't worry, I'll take good care of Wanqing... "

Su Xiangxiang glared at him again before she left.

However... .. This stomp hurt so much that her heart was broken ! !

However, she couldn't show it in front of the boy. She could only turn around and frown.

The boy returned to his room and was surprised when he walked to the bed. "WANQING? Why are you crying? "

Su Xiangxiang, who hadn't walked far outside, froze.
