

Trick Me 1721

Chapter 1721: tomorrow, I'll bring you to see him

Just as he finished speaking, Ben Walked over quickly and asked with narrowed eyes, "Don't you feel pain?"

Just now, when Yan Jun used a pair of tweezers to remove the glass shards from the bottom of her feet, Ben also saw it. Although the penetration was not deep, the pain was definitely not shallow.

"En." Bi Yue nodded gently, her eyes filled with doubt.

"It doesn't hurt, then why are you crying?" Ben Asked again.

"... " Bi Yue paused, then shook her head, "I don't know, I just suddenly feel very uncomfortable in my heart."

Ben Fell silent and turned to look at Yan Jun thoughtfully.

When the few of them were around, Bi Yue had never experienced such a situation. However, as long as Yan Jun was around, Bi Yue's body and mind would be separated into two.

Bi Yue was not uncomfortable, but she was crying. This meant that Xia Jinqi had sensed Yan Jun's arrival... ..

In that case, Xia Jinqi must still be in a corner of her body. It was just that Bi Yue had the upper hand, so she could not wake up.

After Ben did not say anything, Bi Yue asked Yan Jun again, "excuse me, have you found Yi Ming?"

She still remembered what Yan Jun had said before, to help her find Lu Yiming.

Now in her eyes, all the people in front of her were strangers, but the person she loved in her heart was nowhere to be found.

Yan Jun was silent. He hadn't thought about what he should do... ..

Bi Yue saw that his brows were tightly knitted, and he didn't say anything for a long time. He seemed to have a lot on his mind, and her eyes were misty again. "Is he... is he blaming me? It's my fault that I didn't protect our child..."

Seeing her cry, Yan Jun's heart tightened, and he could only say, "don't think too much. He... is very busy with work and can't come to see you. I'll let you recuperate properly."

"really?" Bi Yue's eyes were still filled with tears as she looked at Yan Jun hopefully.

That pair of eyes was too familiar to Yan Jun... ..

In the past, ah Jin always used this pair of bright and beautiful big eyes to look at him, either coquettishly or angrily. But no matter which one it was, she was only looking at him from the beginning to the end.

But now, the same pair of eyes were staring at him, but they were asking for the whereabouts of another man.

The pain in his heart began to flood again. He stood up shakily, forcing himself to speak, "really."

With that, he turned around, not daring to look into her eyes again.

Bi Yue stopped him again, "you... you're his friend. Do you have his phone number? I want to hear his voice. I don't know why I couldn't get through to his previous number." n(-o)/v-)e-(l)-B-.l--n

As Ben Listened, he also knew that paper could not keep fire. He also wanted to see how Yan Jun would deal with it.

Who knew that before he could look back, Yan Jun had already answered, "tomorrow, I'll bring you to see him."

Ben and Huo Ting exchanged a glance. Both of them were shocked at the same time. They did not know what Yan Jun was thinking. He actually agreed to let her see Lu Yiming?

Moreover, she called herself Bi Yue, but her real self... .. Was Xia Jinqi !!

The only one who was happy among the three was bi Yue.

She looked at Yan Jun's back excitedly. A bright smile finally appeared on her pale face. "thank you!"

However, Yan Jun did not look back. He quickened his pace and left.

It was as if if he stayed any longer, he would suffocate to death... ..

Ben Turned back to look at Bi Yue, sighed softly, and hurriedly chased after Yan Jun..

After the two of them left, Huo Ting took a deep look at Bi Yue and asked, "is there anything you want to eat? I'll go buy it for you."

She had not eaten anything since yesterday.

Bi Yue frowned and touched her stomach. "I'm... not hungry."

Chapter 1722: no matter what you give up, you can't give up hope.

"Even if you're not hungry, tell me what you like. Buy it and eat it when you're hungry." Huo Ting was the same as Yan Jun. he was only worried about Xia Jinqi's body.

"I... " Bi Yue froze because she realized that she didn't know what she liked to eat?

Huo Ting was a little impatient. "Forget it, I'll just buy some."

After saying that, he left directly.

Bi Yue was left sitting in the same spot.

She slowly let go of her hand that was touching her stomach. Her gaze fell on the spot that had just been bandaged by Yan Jun, and her black eyebrows slowly furrowed.

She knew that she had never eaten anything before, but why wasn't she hungry?

She had clearly bled just now, but it didn't hurt at all?

Also, she couldn't even remember what she liked to eat?

And this face, it was completely different from hers... ..

Her slender index finger caressed her face, and Bi Yue was absent-minded for a long time.

Ever since she woke up, everything had become so unfamiliar.

Outside the ward.

Ben saw at a glance that both of his hands were propped on the railing of the corridor, and he frowned as he looked down at Yan Jun downstairs.

He smiled knowingly and slowly walked over. "I thought you could really be so free and easy? So you just picked a place where no one was around and suffered alone."

Yan Jun did not turn around to look at him, but when he spoke, there was pain in his voice. "Zhao Chongbin said that this transplant technique is irreversible."

"You found him?" Ben was stunned, but then he remembered that Yan Jun had left in a hurry. It was probably because of this. "What else did he say?"

"He said that Ah Jin will never come back." Yan Jun did not hide anything.

"..." Ben was silent for a moment before he asked, "you... believe him?"

Yan Jun shook his head. His gaze fell on the crowd that was passing by downstairs. Suddenly, he opened his mouth with incomparable determination. "Ah Jin will definitely come back."

Only then did Ben's worried heart relax. He consoled, "you've finally thought it through. You can't give up hope no matter what you give up."

Yan Jun's hands behind his back tightened slightly.

At this point, other than believing that Xia Jinqi could still come back, what else could he do?

Ben saw that he had a deep frown and his dark eyes were unfathomable. He could not figure out what he was planning, so he could only ask, "are you really going to bring her to see Lu Yiming tomorrow?"

Personally sending the woman he loved to another man's side, he did not know what Yan Jun was thinking.

"You still need to tie the knot. Ben, have you ever thought about why Bi Yue reincarnated into Ah Jin?" Yan Jun suddenly asked.

"this..." Ben was speechless. He really had not thought about this question.

He had studied psychological research and had been focusing on it for so many years. Naturally, his thinking would start from this aspect.

However, Yan Jun seemed to be able to think from several aspects every time?

This was also why Ben, who was also a genius, was attracted to Yan Jun during his university days.

This time was no exception. He waited for Yan Jun's analysis with great interest.

"there must be a cause and effect. Lu Yiming has come this far because of his obsession with Bi Yue. Bi Yue has been reborn and has always said that she wants to meet Lu Yiming. Perhaps, it's better for them to meet." Yan Jun raised his eyes to look at the bright horizon His picturesque eyes were deep and calm.

Ben listened and nodded slowly. "What If... don't you regret it?"

After this 'what if', ten thousand words were omitted. Ben Did not say it, but Yan Jun understood.

He stared at the black eyes of the sunrise and suddenly became gentle and doting. "The sudden change and Yu Han's disappearance made me panic and almost forgot what kind of woman she was."

Chapter 1723: There was no need to explain I understand.

Ben Was Silent. As he waited for him to continue, he recalled what Summer looked like in his mind.

"No matter when or what circumstances, she never gave up hope." Yan Jun curled his lips. The corners of his eyes and brows were filled with a warm smile.

Whenever Xia Jinqi was mentioned, his eyes would always be so bright. His smile would always be as gentle as jade.

It was Huo Ting's words that reminded him.

He was Xia Jinqi's husband and Xiao puff's Pufu Yu's father.

Now that the family was in ruins, if even he fell, what would happen to Ah Jin and Yu Han?

Therefore, at this moment, he could only believe in Ah Jin. He believed that she could defeat Bi Yue's soul and that she would be able to find him in the end!

His Ah Jin was never a weak and incompetent person, was she?

At this moment, she must be in a corner somewhere, working hard to wake up!

Ben Nodded his head in agreement. When he turned to look in the direction of Yan Jun's line of sight, he just happened to see the blazing sun leaping out, dispelling the darkness and shining brightly!

Were these chaotic days finally going to pass?

Huo Ting quickly bought food back. Half of it was for Bi Yue, and the other half was sent to the next room.

Only then did Yan Jun learn that the person living next door was Su Xiangxiang.

Without waiting for Yan Jun to ask clearly, Huo Ting said, "she sprained her ankle and her family wasn't around, so I sent her over. Taking care of the girl is one thing, taking care of two people is also taking care of her. Moreover..."

Yan Jun waved his hand to stop him. "No need to explain, I understand."

Huo Ting, "...what do you know!!!

A little later, Li Kun brought the chip that had been decoded and handed it to Ben. While Ben was engrossed in his research, the Ji family came to the hospital.

Through the two-sided mirror, Ji Yunjing saw bi yue inside, taking small bites of food. After listening to Yan Jun's words, his brows knitted into a knot "I didn't expect so many things to happen... grandfather has always wanted to come back to see my cousin. If he knew, what would he do?"

Ji Heng was still in Macau, and the casino still needed him to manage. Although Xia Jinqi's last trip to Macau had helped her gain a firm foothold, there were still a few people who were not convinced. Ji Heng was afraid that these people would make things difficult for Xia Jinqi after he died a hundred years later. So, he planned to get rid of all these hidden dangers.

In addition, Ji Yunjing had also returned. He thought that nothing would happen, so he did not come.

But now that he had not been able to contact her for such a long time, he had already urged Ji Yunjing several times, saying that he would come to Rao city to see her in person.

Yan Jun felt guilty. In the end, it was because he had failed to protect Xia Jinqi that he had become like this... ..

"grandfather Ji is already very old. Moreover, the weather is too cold. I'm afraid that he won't be able to endure the torment. Next Spring, Ah Jin and I will personally go and pick him up," Yan Jun said solemnly as he stared at the beautiful figure in the double-faced mirror who was focused on eating.

Ji Yunjing's brows twitched slightly when he heard him say this.

What Yan Jun meant was, would his cousin be able to get better in the spring?

Knowing Yan Jun's character, Ji Yunjing still chose to believe him despite his doubts.

He took out his phone and took a small video of the person in the mirror. "I'll send it to GRANDPA in a while to reassure him."

"Okay." Yan Jun nodded. Then, he thought of another matter and frowned at Ji Yunjing. "There's one more thing. I want to ask you for a favor."

This rare courtesy of Yan Jun was only shown to the Ji family members.

Chapter 1724: promised me that you wouldn't give up either

Even Ji Yunjing was a little surprised. "Just tell me what you need. We're family, why do you have to ask?"

Rao Cheng was famous for being cold-faced Yama. Many high-ranking officials and dignitaries wanted to curry favor with him, but he didn't even bother to take a look. Now, he was being so polite to him.

Ji Yunjing knew that it was only because of Xia Jinqi's face... ..

As expected, he loved the House and the Crow. Even Yan Jun treated him so well.

However, Yan Jun curled his thin lips and handed a photo to Ji Yunjing. "This person is now in my hands. There's also a mysterious and huge organization behind him. Investigate it."

Ji Yunjing took the photo and did not look at it carefully. "understood. Before we set off, Grandfather told me that with your current identity, there are some things that you can not do, but I can."

From the moment Ji Heng acknowledged Yan Jun, the entire Ji family had already regarded Yan Jun as the Real son-in-law.

Since Yan Jun had helped Xia Jinqi and protected Xia Jinqi, the Ji family naturally had to repay him.
no ve. B-1n

Moreover, those things were easy for the Ji family to handle.

However, since he said this, Ji Yunjing asked again, "will your cousin's identity affect you?"

Yan Jun looked back at him. "No."

"..." Ji Yunjing probably didn't expect him to answer so straightforwardly. He didn't even have the intention to think about it.

After all, on the surface, lego had a very decent company, but behind the scenes... ..

If someone made a big fuss about it, it might endanger Yan Jun's position.

At first, he was a little worried, but when he heard Yan Jun say this, Ji Yunjing only nodded. "I'll contact you when I find out." He waved the photo in his hand, put it away, and left.

Watching Ji Yunjing leave, a hint of worry sank into Yan Jun's deep black eyes.

Last night, Zhao Chongbin had also mentioned Xia Jinqi's identity.

It seemed that this matter could not be hidden anymore... .. He had to prepare for the future and make preparations first ...

After pondering for a moment, Yan Jun called Fang Shaoan.

They exchanged a few simple words, but as expected, they still could not find her.

After hanging up the phone, Yan Jun looked back at the woman who was barely eating in the mirror and said, "Ah Jin, I'll definitely find our son! Promise me that you won't give up either!"

After saying that, he turned around. Today was the day Yan Qing's memorial tablet entered the Yan family ancestral hall.

Even though he had a lot of things to do, he had to send Yan Qing off.

He did not know that the moment he turned around, Bi Yue, who was struggling to eat, suddenly clutched her chest. The pain made her curl up on the hospital bed, unable to straighten her body.

At this moment, Bi Yue realized that it was not that she did not feel any pain at all. At least this sudden pain in her heart was very intense.

But this pain came and went quickly.

In less than two minutes, when Bi Yue gritted her teeth and focused her attention, the pain slowly disappeared.

Her face was a little Pale. She struggled to stand up, and her gaze naturally fell on the dining table in front of her.

Steamed Fish, stir-fried vegetables, and a soup.

None of these were things that she liked... ..

Especially fish. She didn't like fish since she was young, and she didn't want to eat a single bite.

But just now, even though she barely ate, she ate half of the fish.

Bi Yue didn't understand. What was wrong with her?

She turned to look at the sun outside the window and suddenly raised her hand to block it.

The warm sunlight passed through the gaps between her fingers and landed on her fair face... ..

Chapter 1725: Care More about her

A beam of white light flashed past her eyes, and she instinctively narrowed her eyes.

It had been a long, long time since she had seen such a bright sunlight... ..

It was as if a few centuries had passed.

Next door.

It was rare for Su Xiangxiang to sleep in. When she woke up, Huo Ting was already in her room.

She hurriedly got up and washed up briefly. Then, she sat upright on the bed and watched huo ting place the packed lunch on her small dining table one by one.

Su Xiangxiang was used to seeing Huo Ting's stern appearance as the head of the bureau. When she saw how approachable he had been these past two days, to be honest, Su Xiangxiang felt very uncomfortable.

So, after hesitating for a while, she said in a low voice, “chief Huo, this... I don't need to trouble you with these small things...”

Huo Ting saw that her face was pale and flushed, and she looked pretty good, so he frowned. "Is your leg healed?"

"..." Su Xiangxiang cursed in her heart. How could it be healed so quickly?

Instead, she felt that it was worse than yesterday. The swelling was a little purple.

There was nothing she could do. The chief was here, and his aura was too strong. She could only lower her head and eat obediently.

Her dishes were exactly the same as Bi Yue's dishes next door.

Huo Ting brought two portions. He did not know what Bi Yue liked to eat, nor did he know what Su Xiangxiang liked to eat. Therefore, he bought the dishes that the girl liked to eat in his memory.

Su Xiangxiang did not ask anything. She ate quietly.

When she ate, Huo Ting leaned on the side and unconsciously looked at her.

She ate slowly. Her movements were elegant, but it was not pretentious at all. She looked indescribably comfortable.

Although the previous generations of the Su family were not considered a big aristocratic family, after these few generations had made a name for themselves, they paid a lot of attention to this kind of family upbringing. Their expectations of their descendants also gradually increased.

It would be obvious if they were planning some kind of shooting competition.

Compared to those so-called scholarly families who did not know how to advance, they were much better.

Looking at Su Xiangxiang, she had a cute bun on her head. Her fair face complemented her sweet and pure features.

As he looked at her, Huo Ting could not help but ask, "does it suit your appetite?"

"..." Su Xiangxiang was a little shocked by his sudden words. After swallowing it with great difficulty, she nodded, "yes, it's quite delicious."

Huo Ting was delighted when he heard that and said, "I saw that you were still asleep just now, so I didn't wake you up. I chose the dishes on my own initiative. What do you like to eat? Tell me. I'll have them prepare it for you tonight."

Huo Ting completely let go of the girl in his heart. He only thought of her as the little sister that he loved for his whole life. In addition to that, Yan Jun's words [ if I'm not careful, I'll never see you again ] made him reflect a lot.

When it came to relationships, he had always been very slow. In fact, he was indeed not good at these things.

However... Every time he saw Su Xiangxiang, his heart could not help but want to get close to her ...

In addition to her injury, it was also because of him. It was only right to care for her a little more.

Huo Ting thought so, but Su Xiangxiang did not know at all... ..

She was a little stunned. After all, from yesterday until today, Huo Ting had been too kind to her.

So good that she even forgot that they were not even friends, but she unexpectedly answered, "I wonder if there's still glutinous rice paste at Xiao Xiang Square... when I was young, whenever I was sick, my brothers would buy it for me to eat."

In fact, she didn't mean anything special. It was just that Huo Ting's question reminded her of it.

As soon as she finished speaking, her phone rang.

Chapter 1726: Brat, well done!

Su Xiangxiang's thoughts were interrupted. She lowered her head and took out her phone to take a look. It was her second brother.

Huo Ting saw that she was going to pick up the phone, so he did not say anything and just silently noted it down.

Glutinous rice paste from Xiao Xiang Square?

She did not know what it felt like.

"second brother?" The call was picked up. Su Xiangxiang still felt that it was strange. Shouldn't her second brother be in the army at this time Why did he have time to look for her?

Unexpectedly, she heard a howl immediately, "Xiangxiang! Why didn't you tell your brothers about such a big matter? How long do you plan to hide it? And the Huo family, why didn't they react at all!"

Su Xiangxiang didn't know what to say. "What are you talking about, second brother? Why can't I understand?"

"Stop playing dumb with me! The news is out! You and Huo Ting went to the OB / Gyn Department for a check-up. Are you getting married?"

"What? !" Su Xiangxiang was dumbfounded. She was so shocked that she didn't know what to say!

On the other side of the phone, Su Zhilian thought that she was surprised that her secret had been found out. He even tried to persuade her "It's one thing for you to hide it from others, but why did you hide it from second brother It's not like you don't know about our parents. You and chief Huo are truly in love and have a child. They would be more than happy for you It's just that this wedding date has to be prepared in advance. Bring Chief Huo home for dinner tonight and let our parents... "...". "..."

The more he said, the more ridiculous it became. He still had to PREPARE FOR THE WEDDING DATE!

Su Xiangxiang was so scared that she hurriedly interrupted him. "second brother, I still have something to do here. I'll hang up first!"

After that, she did not care about anything else and directly hung up the phone.

Huo Ting did not hear what Su Zhilian said. He only heard Su Xiangxiang's shocked words and her stunned face. He instinctively sensed that things might be a little tricky, so he asked, "what happened?"

Su Xiangxiang was roused by his words. She quickly opened her phone and checked the news.

She did not know until she saw it. When she saw it... .. She was practically crying !!

The news was overwhelming. It was all about her and Huo Ting's upcoming shotgun marriage!

There was even a picture of Huo Ting holding her as he walked out of the OB / Gyn Department yesterday. He said that she was actually pregnant long ago, and Huo Ting secretly accompanied her to do a prenatal checkup... ..

Su Xiangxiang was fuming. She was still a virgin. Where did she get pregnant?

These gossip reporters were really irresponsible. They were always making up stories and writing whatever they wanted!

Huo Ting saw that her expression had turned from shock to anger. He simply walked up to her, snatched the phone she was holding, and flipped through it a few times.

After reading a few articles, his face could no longer be described as livid... ..

Su Xiangxiang saw that his handsome face was tense and knew that he must be furious. She quickly said, "reporters love to write nonsense. They should be fine in a few days..."

Huo Ting handed the phone back to her and frowned. "You still have the heart to worry about me?"

She had not married yet and was already rumored to be pregnant. It was extremely bad for her reputation.

Su Xiangxiang frowned slightly. Just as she was about to speak, Huo Ting's phone rang.

She did not need to think to know that it was grandfather hu calling.

"What are you doing? You just told me not to get married, but you secretly went for a prenatal examination? Do you really think that I'm worth anything to you?" Grandfather Huo's voice was a little loud His words were not pleasant to hear, but his tone was filled with joy... ..

If it were not for the fact that he was an elder and had to be more serious, he really wanted to say, "well done, you little Brat! "!! I'M ABOUT TO HAVE A GREAT-GRANDSON HUG! Hahahaha !!

Chapter 1727: Why do I have to disappoint myself for the sake of an outsider?

Huo Ting pinched the space between his brows tiredly. It was not that he could not read between the lines of his grandfather's words.

But... ..

"Grandfather, listen to me first..." he felt that he should explain himself.

Unfortunately, grandfather hu0 completely ignored him and said to himself, "THAT'S ENOUGH! Don't you think that I have to personally handle the things that you've done? I'll go to the SU family in the afternoon to arrange the betrothal! Pick a time to come over yourself! I'M HANGING UP!"

Huo Ting,"..."

He wanted to say something more, but only a beeping sound echoed in his ears.

Although he was the one who said he wouldn't get married, now that the news had already spread, and it had even spread like this... ..

Huo Ting turned to look at Su Xiangxiang, who was tilting her head and looking at him curiously.

She was a pretty good girl. Because of him, she had lost her reputation time and time again. If he didn't take responsibility, what would he do in the future?

Although it was the 21st century now and there were no rules of the older generation, the Su family was also rich and powerful in Rao city. After such a thing had happened, it would definitely not be easy for Su Xiangxiang to negotiate another marriage.

Therefore, Su Xiangxiang could only marry him.

When he thought about how she was going to be his wife, not only did he not feel disgusted, but instead... .. He felt as if a huge weight had finally been lifted off his heart ? ? ?

Su Xiangxiang saw that he was only looking at her and not saying anything, so she asked, "what's wrong?"

"Nothing." Huo Ting put away his thoughts and cleared his throat. "Take Care of yourself."

As he said that, he left the ward.

Later, a nurse came in to clean up the lunch boxes. Su Xiangxiang did not need to do anything.

She sat alone on the hospital bed, feeling a little disappointed... ..

After such a big scandal, Huo Ting actually... .. Did not have much of a reaction ...

It seemed that she was really just an insignificant person to him.

She opened a few chat apps out of boredom and found that whether it was her family members or her classmates and best friends, all of them had sent her messages.

Some were surprised, some were happy for her, and some were sarcastic and sarcastic... ..

Normally, she would not be able to tell, but once something happened, the true faces of these people could not be hidden anymore.

Su Xiangxiang only glanced at them indifferently and did not take it to heart. Life was short, so why should she be disappointed for outsiders?

As she continued to scroll down, she saw a message from Fu Wanqing.

There was not a single word, only an EMOJI filled with disdain.

While she was lost in her thoughts, a pleasant voice suddenly came from outside the door.

“Hello. ”

Su Xiangxiang immediately came back to her senses and looked towards the door.

She recognized the person at a glance as Xia Jinqi. Su Xiangxiang hurriedly put down her phone, raised her smile, and greeted her warmly, “Jinqi? Why are you here? Are you feeling better? ”

Su Xiangxiang didn't know about Xia Jinqi's condition, nor did she know that the person standing in front of her was actually Bi Yue.

Bi Yue, who was standing at the door, froze, not knowing what to say.

She had just eaten, and when the nurse went in to tidy up, she forgot to close the door, so she sneaked out.

Coincidentally, she saw the door next door open, so she planned to come over and borrow Su Xiangxiang's phone.

Although she couldn't get through to Lu Yiming's phone, she wanted to call home. She thought that she had been in the hospital for so long, so she didn't know how her parents were doing.

But just as she made a call, the girl in front of her called her... .. Jinqi ? ?

Su Xiangxiang saw that she was stunned and thought that she was embarrassed. She lifted the blanket and hopped in front of Bi Yue. She pulled her hand and asked, “do you want to come in? ”

Chapter 1728: Xia Jinqi... .. Who the hell are you ? !

Seeing that she still had no reaction, Su Xiangxiang called out again, “Jinqi? ”

Bi Yue came back to her senses and was already pulled in by Su Xiangxiang.

The two of them sat down on the hospital bed before Su Xiangxiang smiled and said, “when I came here yesterday, you were still asleep. Have you recovered? I haven't returned the clothes you borrowed from me the last time. Chief Huo said there's no need to return them, but I thought I should at least let you know. ”

The last time she was in such a sorry state, it was Xia Jinqi who lent her the clothes. She remembered it all in her heart.

Even though... .. She also knew that Xia Jinqi was the one in Huo Ting's heart ...

But there was nothing to be jealous of. It was all in the past. She would still be grateful to Xia Jinqi.

Bi Yue had no idea what Su Xiangxiang was talking about. She didn't even know the girl in front of her who was pulling her to talk to herself.

“What... did you call me? ” Bi Yue narrowed her eyes and asked her ...

“JINQI!” Su Xiangxiang blurted out. Later, she realized that she might have been acting a little familiar. After all, they had only met a few times, so she smiled sheepishly “The name Jinqi is quite nice to hear. It’s catchy, and I unconsciously called it that. Or should I call you Mrs. Yan?”

Bi Yue’s thin brows were tightly knitted. Listening to the incessant Jinqi and Jinqi beside her ears, she felt a splitting headache... ..

It was as if something was deeply buried and was about to come out!

[ I’m Xia Jinqi ]

[ at that time, I didn’t know it was a dragon and Phoenix pair. I thought it was just a child ]

[ Jinxu’s future is smooth sailing. It’s a pretty good name. ]

A woman’s voice flashed back and forth, but no matter how hard Bi Yue tried, she couldn’t see that woman’s face clearly!

“Ah!” In the end, she hugged her head and screamed in pain.

Su Xiangxiang was shocked and quickly pulled her back. “What’s wrong? Is Your head hurting?”

Bi Yue could not listen to her at all. The headache was about to explode, and the conversation kept echoing in her ears.

[ I am Xia Jinqi ]

“Xia Jinqi...” Bi Yue muttered in pain, “who are you? !”

Su Xiangxiang, who was next to her, was so scared that she stood rooted to the ground, thinking that she had heard wrongly.

Xia Jinqi, was she asking her who she was?

Just as Su Xiangxiang was at a loss, Ben, who had thoroughly studied Zhao Chongbin’s chip, went to find Bi Yue. However, he did not find her. He then heard a scream coming from the next room, so he quickly ran over.

Who knew that just as he entered, he would see Bi Yue hugging her head tightly with a pained look on her face.

“What happened to her?” Ben Asked loudly.

Xia Jinqi was Yan Jun’s life. If anything happened to Xia Jinqi, how would he explain it to Yan Jun? ! !

Su Xiangxiang did not know what had happened either. She only hurriedly recounted everything that had happened, then asked, “what happened to Jinqi?”

Ben Did not have time to answer her. He immediately called the nurse in and injected Bi Yue with a small dose of tranquilizer. Only then did Bi Yue slowly calm down.

Then, he sent Bi Yue to the next room and asked the nurse to take care of her.

Su Xiangxiang did not know what had happened. She could only limp and stand outside the two-way Mirror, looking at Xia Jinqi's condition in the room with worry in her eyes.

It was not easy to wait until Ben came out. She asked, "is Jinqi okay? Did I . . . Did I do something wrong?"

Ben saw that she was standing on one leg and dressed very thinly. He helped her back to the ward and said, "her condition is not very stable right now. She needs to rest."

He did not say what the specific situation was, but judging from Ben's expression, the situation was not optimistic.

Chapter 1729: Getting Her body back

Su Xiangxiang blamed herself even more and asked uneasily, "is it because of me?"

After listening to the whole story, Ben knew that Su Xiangxiang could not be blamed for this, but it was all a coincidence?

Su Xiangxiang saw Fu Wanqing faint by the roadside.

Su Xiangxiang sent her to this hospital. Huo Ting went downstairs to relax and saw her again... ..

Huo Ting forgot to close the door when he left, and the nurse who took care of Bi Yue also forgot to close the door when he left.

In the entire corridor, Bi Yue turned around and saw Su Xiangxiang sitting on the hospital bed in a daze... ..

Coincidentally, Su Xiangxiang did not know the actual situation, so she only called Jin Qijin Qiqi. It was only when she woke up a thread of memory that was buried deep in Bi Yue's mind that she suddenly had a splitting headache!

All of this seemed to have been fated to happen just like that.

"You don't have to blame yourself. This might be a good thing." Ben pondered for a moment. In theory, it should be a good thing for Bi Yue to have such a big reaction when she heard the name Jin Qiqi.

However... He looked through all the information recorded on Zhao Chongbin's chip and found that the most important point was that this so-called brainwave transplantation technique was really irreversible... ..

In short, not only him, but even Zhao Chongbin was unable to extract Bi Yue's brainwave from Xia Jinqi's mind.

Now that the boat had sailed... .. Unless Xia Jinqi, who was the Real Xia Jinqi, was able to snatch her body back ...

When he thought of this, Ben was suddenly stunned... ..

He immediately turned to look at Su Xiangxiang. His Blue Eyes were filled with hope as he asked hurriedly, “you said just now that you only called her ‘Jinqi’ ? And she said herself, ‘Xia Jinqi, who exactly are you?’ ”

Su Xiangxiang nodded her head. “Yes...”

Ben was suddenly excited. He put his hands on Su Xiangxiang’s shoulders and almost cried with joy. “Xiangxiang, YOU’RE REALLY AMAZING! !”

“Huh?” Su Xiangxiang was stunned. What the Hell was that?

“How could I have forgotten! The chip recorded a paragraph that Bi Yue and Xia Jinqi had seen in their subconscious! It must be Zhao Chongbin who erased Bi Yue’s memory. As long as she remembers it, she will definitely know where Summer is! ”

Ben could not help but mutter a lot. What he said was logical, but Su Xiangxiang, who was beside him, could not understand it at all.

Her eyes were filled with confusion as she looked at Ben, who was so excited that he could not stop. She opened her small mouth slightly and tried a few times, but she did not say a word.

She kept feeling that talking at this time was disturbing Ben... ..

After Ben finished entertaining himself, he turned around to look at Su Xiangxiang. “You’re really a lucky star!”

He had only recently learned the word lucky star.

It was probably almost new year’s. All the alleys and alleys in the Old City were pasted with Fu Lu Shou. He had also added some knowledge in passing.

As the saying goes, when in Rome, do as the Romans do!

Having said that, he got up and ran out.

He had to exchange these details and ideas with a few foreign experts to see if they had any new ideas!

After Ben left, Su Xiangxiang continued to sit alone on the bed. Her brows were furrowed very tightly. She didn’t know if she should be sad or happy?

She clearly seemed to have done something wrong. Why did it seem like she had found something important by accident in the blink of an eye?

HMM... ..

She wasn’t sure. Anyway, as long as she was good to Xia Jinqi, then there should be... .. No problem, right ? ?

Su Xiangxiang was so focused on Xia Jinqi’s matter that she completely forgot what her second brother had told her before. He wanted her to bring Huo Ting back tonight.

At this moment, the Su family was busy making preparations... ..

Chapter 1730: his life, he did not owe anyone anymore... ..

The Yan family's ancestral hall was not in the main city area. Instead, it was in the direction of the city's southern Ice Lake.

Li Kun was ordered to guard the hospital while Li Jie was watching Zhao Chongbin. Therefore, this trip with Yan Jun this time was Qu Yang, who had just taken office, and Wang Mang, who had just recovered from a serious illness.

Logically speaking, Wang Mang's injuries were so serious that he would not have fully recovered in such a short period of time. However, he was lying in the hospital with aches all over his body. He was so bored that he was about to die. He found an opportunity to run out with his entire body wrapped in bandages.

Yan Jun ordered him to recuperate, but he said, 'what's wrong with a good man being ambitious and staying in bed all day like a paraplegic? '

He had no choice but to bring him along. Actually, Yan Jun's heart was as clear as a mirror. How could a dreary place like the hospital be able to trap a Meng Beast?

Wang Mang and Li Jie were completely different. Although the two of them were equally skilled, Wang Mang had been from a wealthy family since he was young. His fighting skills were only a hobby, and he was more positive and sunny. As for Li Jie... .. That was a life-saving skill that could not be helped. Killing people was not his original wish. If it was possible, he really wanted to find a small place to live a normal life, and not have anything to do with fighting and killing for the rest of his life ...

Fortunately, it was only a trip back to the ancestral hall, and there were many people along the way. Presumably, nothing would happen.

If Wang Mang wanted to follow, he would let him follow. It would be good to pretend to be out for a walk.

Compared to Wang Mang's casual nature, Qu Yang, who sat beside Yan Jun, was a lot more serious and upright.

He was not considered a stranger to Yan Jun. it was just that he had defected here, so he was still a little reluctant to let go.

But even so, he still tried his best to build a closer relationship with Yan Jun. it was not to curry favor, but to show genuine concern.

The relationship between Wang Mang, Li Kun, and Yan Jun made him very envious... .. *nOve*l(1n

Since he had chosen Yan Jun's camp, he naturally had to work hard for it.

When he looked sideways, he saw Yan Jun in a black suit holding Yan Qing's memorial tablet in his hands. He could not help but be a little stunned.

Qu Yang knew very well how Lu Yiming secretly manipulated Yan Qing to fight against Yan Jun for the family property... ..

But even so, after Yan Qing's death, Yan Jun was still willing to personally hold his memorial tablet and send it to the ancestral hall?

Not to mention other people, if this matter was placed on him, he would definitely not be able to do it.

He cursed silently in his heart. Before Qu Yang opened his mouth, Yan Jun had already sensed his doubt. He lifted his thin lips and said, "he left the hope of life to Ah Jin."

Yan Jun had no way of knowing what exactly happened that night.

However, he knew that before Yan Qing died, he had secretly placed the GPS location on Xia Jinqi.

If not for that, he wouldn't have known Xia Jinqi's whereabouts so quickly.

But because of that, Yan Qing lost his life... ..

No matter what Yan Qing had done in the past, he had used his life to make up for it.

Perhaps this wasn't the best ending, but to Yan Qing, he didn't owe anyone anything in his life... ..

Qu Yang had never known that the cold-faced King of Hell was actually such a close-knit person.

"The chairman has forgotten about the past. Qu Yang admires him."

Hearing this, Yan Jun smiled faintly and changed the topic, "Do you know about your uncle's matter?"

During this period of time, Yan Jun had not appeared. Tan Zhuqing had been handling the left faction's henchmen.

Qu Ruoshan and Tan Zhuqing had always been on bad terms. This time, the Qu family would be in trouble. If it were not for Qu Yang, Tan Zhuqing would probably be the first to deal with Qu Ruoshan.
