

Trick Me 1771

Chapter 1771 gave Yu Han more experience

The bodyguard's eyes twitched as he marveled at how sensible these people were.

However, it made sense when he thought about it. Yan Jun was currently in the limelight, and it was a foregone conclusion that he would be the next president after the New Year.

Many people wanted to please Yan Jun so that they could have a better life in the future. It was also human nature.

The car beside them had already driven away, so there was nothing to see anymore. The bodyguard turned around and got into the car.

"Young Master, I didn't find anything unusual."

Yan Jun nodded and held Xia Jinqi's hand tightly. "Let's go to the Ice Lake First, HMM?"

Xia Jinqi could only nod. "maybe I heard it wrong."

When they listened again, there was indeed no sound.

Yan Jun saw that she had calmed down a little, so he looked ahead. The driver immediately understood, stepped on the gas, and drove in the direction of the Ice Lake.

After meeting up with Fang Shaoan and the others, Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi found out that Liu Juan's family had already moved away, and no one knew where they had moved to.

The hope that they had waited so hard for was shattered without any warning.

For a moment, everyone's expressions became solemn.

Fang Shaoan felt even more ashamed to see Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi. He hid at the side and rarely spoke.

Instead, Zuo Xiaoran hugged Xia Jinqi tightly and almost cried. "Xiao Qi! Are you done?"

Xia Jinqi did not expect her to be here. At first, she was a little surprised, but when she saw her rushing over to hug her, she used a lot of strength. If she had not secretly steadied herself, the two of them would have fallen into the snow by now!

"Yes, I'm done." She hugged Zuo Xiaoran back. "I didn't expect you to be here too. Are you and Shaoan helping us find Yu Han?"

Xia Jinqi wanted to thank her, but Zuo Xiaoran frowned and said apologetically, "I'm sorry, we're still late."

Zuo Xiaoran's heart was filled with frustration because she was just one step away.

If it had been a little earlier, the result would have been different, right?

When Xia Jinqi found out that Yu Han had been taken away, it was as if a piece of her heart had been cut off, and it was dripping with blood.

But now, seeing Zuo Xiaoran so sad, she smiled and comforted her. "Maybe the heavens want to give Yu Han more experience... it's time to find him, and we will find him."

These words comforted Zuo Xiaoran as well as herself.

The only fortunate thing was that the family would at least not hurt Yu Han's life.

Knowing that they went out to look for milk every day, she could also feel that they were still good to Yu Han.

Zuo Xiaoran was stunned and looked up at Xia Jinqi. Only then did she see the smile on her lips. It was like a strong tea, bitter to the extreme.

Only then did she remember that Xiao Yuhan could not be found. The person who was the most sad was Xiao Qi... ..

But she was crying here and asking Xiao Qi to comfort her instead.

Hurriedly wiping the corner of her eyes, Zuo Xiaoran said in a panic, "look at me. I'm only thinking about myself, and I even asked you to comfort me. Xiao Qi, I..."

Xia Jinqi shook her head and interrupted her, "I'm already very grateful that you came. After going through so much, what else can I not see through? Yu Han... will be found eventually."

Since she had already left, it was useless to be anxious. It was better to calm down and think of a way.

Moreover... Xia Jinqi looked around. In this world of ice and snow, Zuo Xiaoran and Fang Shaoan could only stay here for a few days and nights just to find Yu Han. She was very grateful in her heart ...

"En! Yu Han will definitely be found!" Zuo Xiaoran also nodded her head heavily.

Chapter 1772: I've always felt sorry for you

Other than that, I really don't know what else to say.

Xia Jinqi smiled and adjusted the white woolen hat on her head before asking, "how are you and Shao'an doing recently?"

"Uh..." Zuo Xiaoran remembered that her parents had been calling her non-stop for the past two days, asking where she was and urging her to go back.

To be honest, she was also very flustered and couldn't make up her mind. If she could talk to Xiao Qi, perhaps her heart would feel better.

But now that she saw that Xiao Qi had more difficulties than she did, she could not bear to use this small matter of hers to annoy her anymore.

She rolled her eyes and simply skipped over her own matters, talking about Fang Shaoan "It's still the same. But Xiao Qi, Shaoan, he... he said that at that time, because of a sudden fire in the security department, Yan Jun went to save him, so he came home a little late. As a result, something happened to you and Yu Han... ”

Xia Jinqi did not know about these things, so Yan Jun would not tell her these things.

At that time, she had indeed been waiting at home for a long time, but Yan Jun did not go back... .. So, he went to Save Shao An ...

“So that’s how it is... ” Xia Jinqi muttered, and for a moment, she was absent-minded.

Seeing Xia Jinqi like this, Zuo Xiaoran simply told her everything she knew “after knowing that you and Yu Han were taken away, Yan Jun chased them all the way out of the city. However, at that time, there was a sudden riot in the city, and countless people were killed and injured. No one was able to take charge of the overall situation. Tan Zhuqing caught up with them and brought a group of council members. He knelt in front of Yan Jun, crying and begging him, before begging him to go back. “although he went back, he left Shao’an and Wen Tao behind. He let them use the GPS that Yan Qing left on you to catch up with you. “later, they guarded the village for two days. Yan Jun brought the army over and saved you. ”

These days, Fang Shaoan also told Zuo Xiaoran what he knew.

Zuo Xiaoran did not know if Xia Jinqi knew the inside story, but no matter what, it was better to say these words.

Xia Jinqi listened to Zuo Xiaoran’s words silently. She only knew the general details of those things, but she did not know anything about the details.

Seeing that she had remained silent, Zuo Xiaoran continued, “Shao’an has always felt sorry for you. If nothing had happened to him at that time and Yan Jun had not gone to look for him, perhaps you and Yu Han would not have... ”

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi finally saw Fang Shaoan, who had been leaning not far away and had not said much.

No wonder she said that she felt that Fang Shaoan was a little strange today. It turned out that she was thinking about this.

“What will come will come. No one can avoid it. ” Xia Jinqi shook her head. She had no intention of blaming Fang Shaoan.

Lu Yiming had his eyes on her since the beginning. Even if it was not Fang Shaoan, there would be other people or things that would hinder Yan Jun’s footsteps.

She really could not blame Fang Shaoan for this matter.

However, seeing Fang Shaoan’s cautious look and Yan Jun standing in the distance with his hands behind his back, Xia Jinqi sighed and patted the back of Zuo Xiaoran’s hand. “wait a minute. ”

“Xiaoqi... ” Zuo Xiaoran wanted to call her, but she realized that she had already turned around and walked in the direction of Yan Jun..

Instead of continuing to chase after him, Zuo Xiaoran looked back at the listless Fang Shaoan.

His heart, more sensitive and fragile than she thought... ..

Snow-white collar wantonly flying, nihility Distant Mountain Daiying, the sun and moon brilliance.

Xia Jinqi walked to his back, suddenly felt a threatening cold air, cold to the bone.

I don't know if it's coming from him or the surface of this frozen lake.

Chapter 1773: only needed to trust him

She had always been afraid of the cold. After so many years in Rao city, she had never come to the ice lake in winter.

This was the first time she had seen such a magnificent ice layer. Wave after wave of cold air rushed to the shore, almost freezing people.

But for some reason, she suddenly felt that this lake looked somewhat familiar?

While she was lost in her thoughts, a heavy weight suddenly fell on her shoulder, and then her whole body was enveloped by a familiar warmth.

She subconsciously looked back and happened to meet Yan Jun's gentle black eyes.

"It's cold here. Why are you here?" His voice sounded a little hoarse. He didn't know if it was because he had been silent for too long.

"You know it's cold, yet you're still standing here?" Xia Jinqi said somewhat reproachfully. She stretched out her hand to shake his big hand. Sure enough, she felt a little cold.

She wanted to return his coat to him, but he took the opportunity to grab her shoulder and bring her in the direction she came from. "It's good that you're cold. You're much more awake now." nove/lB)In

He hadn't slept or rested for the past few days, and his nerves had always been tense. He had endured it all the way, and Yan Jun's body had already reached its limit.

However, the heavenly Duke had never been a good person, and he had still let them fall for nothing.

How much hope there was before they came, how much disappointment there was now.

He had an inexplicable headache. He could only stand by the lakeside and take a deep breath to suppress the dull pain.

Xia Jinqi looked back at him. She saw that his eyelids were slightly drooping, and his thin Chin was tense. She more or less knew the pain in his heart.

Because of her, he was already mentally and physically exhausted. Now that the child was nowhere to be found, as a father, the self-blame in his heart was doubled.

She held his hand behind her back. When he looked down, she raised her head and gave him a brilliant smile. "Don't worry, that family will definitely treat our son well. As long as we don't give up, we will find him eventually."

Yan Jun's heart froze. Just when he was unable to face her, he saw her smiling so brightly.

"What if, it drags on for too long..." he was still worried.

A month or two was fine, but what if it was a year or two years, or even ten or twenty years? What should he do?

"There's No 'what if'." Xia Jinqi held his hand tightly and kissed him with her Red Lips. She had a smile on her face. "I believe in you. You will definitely be able to get our son back."

Her words were so certain and firm. It was as if he was a celestial being from the nine heavens. As long as she believed in him, it would be fine.

Yan Jun's originally perturbed heart finally calmed down after hearing her words.

He looked into her delicate and pretty eyes and curled his thin lips slightly. "En, I will definitely get Yu Han back."

Xia Jinqi returned with a warm smile and turned to look at Fang Shaoan, who looked very lonely "Let's go thank Shaoan. He spent so many days and effort on Yu Han's matter. Back then, he even chased after Lu Yiming's car and found me. Otherwise, I might still be trapped by Lu Yiming Now!"

Yan Jun listened quietly and was about to nod, but when he heard the last sentence, his expression froze and he asked in return, "you know about it?"

At that time, Xia Jinqi was taken away by Lu Yiming. She probably didn't know what happened after that.

Xia Jinqi wrinkled her nose and glared at him "If Shao'an didn't tell Xiao ran, and Xiao ran told me, how would I have known "You didn't say anything. You were clearly so worried about me, and you were clearly in a difficult position. Why did you keep it in your stomach "If I really blame you and blame you, are you planning to quietly suffer alone?"

Chapter 1774: you are not allowed to go back on your word!

Yan Jun was silent.

He was indeed not good at saying these things.

After so many years, he had gotten used to enduring the pain and suffering alone.

Moreover, Xia Jinqi had also suffered so much. What right did he have to claim credit?

Seeing that he did not speak for a long time, Xia Jinqi thought for a moment and said, "didn't you say that as long as I return, you will listen to everything I say?"

Her tone was very proud.

Yan Jun came back to his senses just now and raised his eyebrows to look at her. "You heard it?"

"MM-HMM!" Xia Jinqi nodded.

"What else did you hear?"

"I won't tell you! HMPH! You're not allowed to go back on your word!" Xia Jinqi deliberately exaggerated her words, wanting to liven up the atmosphere.

Ever since she woke up, she had always seen Yan Jun frowning and deep in thought.

And she was always able to make him laugh.

Yan Jun, who was frowning just a moment ago, was also amused by her cute appearance.

"Okay, I won't go back on my word," he said softly. His doting manner made it seem as if as long as it was something she said, he would willingly agree to anything.

Zuo Xiaoran looked at the two of them from afar. Her heart was filled with envy.

The two of them came from the same family background. They were a perfect match in every aspect. They were truly a natural-born couple.

As for her and Fang Shaoan... ..

They did not belong to the same family. Other than the fact that they both liked to play, there was a huge gap between them.

Perhaps love could accommodate everything, regardless of age, family background, or social status... ..

But marriage was the combination of two families.

Her parents did not accept Fang Shaoan, and neither did Fang Shaoan's parents.

Perhaps, they really should not have been together in the first place, right?

After thinking about it for a long time, she almost fell into it, until she heard Xiao Qi's call from afar. "Xiao Ran! Come here quickly! It's time to go back!"

Only then did Zuo Xiaoran hurriedly come back to her senses. She raised her eyes and looked in the direction of the voice. She saw that the originally gloomy-looking Fang Shaoan now had a smile on his face. After saying a few words to Yan Jun, he turned to look at her.

Under the contrast of the midwinter snow, he looked so handsome... ..

Her heart suddenly stopped.

Xia Jinqi saw that she did not move for a long time, so she called out again, "Xiaoran?"

"Hey! I'm coming!" Zuo Xiaoran quickly put away her thoughts and ran over.

However, the snow was a little thick. Although she ran hard, her speed was very worrying.

She was clearly running, but when the three people saw her from afar, she looked a little clumsy.

When Fang Shaoan saw this, he laughed unkindly, but as he laughed, he still ran over to help her.

Xia Jinqi looked at the harmonious look between the two of them and could not help but laugh. "THEY LOOK so compatible!"

Yan Jun also followed her line of sight and nodded. "Yes."

"Yes?" Xia Jinqi looked back at him curiously. "I remember you said before that they are not from the same world?"

Yan Jun had indeed said this before.

The prerequisite was to know what kind of character Fang Shaoan's mother had.

But today, how could it be compared to the past?

"Xiao ran bought the YAN corporation's stocks," Yan Jun suddenly said something that seemed to make no sense. "and a lot of them."

"... and then?" Xia Jinqi frowned and looked at him in confusion ...

Xia Jinqi knew that Zuo Xiaoran bought the shares of the Yan Corporation.

At that time, she had just returned from Macau. Lu Yiming suppressed the Yan Corporation and closed down a few companies, causing the shares of the Yan Corporation to plummet. Zuo Xiaoran said that she would do her part to support Yan Jun..

"recently, the shares of the Yan Corporation have soared, and many people have become rich overnight," Yan Jun replied.

Chapter 1775 didn't have a good night's sleep

"..." Xia Jinqi thought of a possibility and hurriedly asked, "you mean... Xiao ran was one of those who became rich overnight?"

Yan Jun knew that this news would definitely make her happy. "Tell her not to sell it so quickly."

"Why?" Xia Jinqi raised her eyebrows. She knew that Yan Jun meant to tell Zuo Xiaoran not to watch the stock price rise and start selling to cash out.

"after the New Year, it will rise again," he said indifferently. He held her hand and walked straight to the car parked at the side.

Xia Jinqi was confused and was dragged away by him. She first glanced at Zuo Xiaoran, then turned back to look at Yan Jun's perfect side profile.

Does this mean that next year's matter has already been decided?

She was about to ask him for confirmation, but before she could look up, she heard a PLOP.

Xia Jinqi suddenly stopped in her tracks and stared blankly at Yan Jun, who had fainted in front of her.

It took her three seconds to regain her senses. She pounced over and called out to him, “Yan Jun? What’s wrong? Yan Jun! ! ”

However, no matter how much she shook his arm, he remained indifferent. He only closed his beautiful phoenix eyes tightly, and his handsome face was strangely red.

He reached out and touched his forehead, only to find that it was shockingly hot... ..

“Yan Jun! ! ”

Xia Jinqi’s call from afar caught the attention of Fang Shaoan and Zuo Xiaoran.

The two of them looked at each other and quickly ran in Xia Jinqi’s direction.

Ben had been very busy recently.

When Xia Jinqi collapsed, he was busy trying to guide Yan Jun..

Now that Yan Jun had fallen ill with a high fever, he had been busy guiding Xia Jinqi.

“even an iron man wouldn’t be able to endure it. During the days when you and Yu Han went missing, he didn’t have a good night’s sleep. No matter how hard I tried to persuade him, he couldn’t. Now that he’s better, he’s finally exhausted! ” Ben Rattled off these words Only then did he realize that it didn’t sound like he was comforting someone?

He had no choice. Who let this couple stay in the hospital twice?

It made it so that he couldn’t have a good rest!

It was best to tell Xia Jinqi more so that she could control Yan Jun. don’t let him do this again!

Xia Jinqi sat on the side of Yan Jun’s bed. She held his hand and looked at his pale face. Her eyes had always been red.

She did not know that during the days when she was kidnapped, he had been living like this... ..

Seeing that she did not speak, Ben continued, “I’ve asked his assistant. He hasn’t eaten much these few days. He was busy with Rao city earlier. Wasn’t there a riot Speaking of which, this person really went all out. I heard that he quelled the riot overnight “later, he went to save you and brought you back with great difficulty, but who knew that when you woke up, you became Bi Yue... “At that time, we didn’t know what exactly happened, and I wasn’t sure. You don’t know, but at that time, Yan Jun wanted to die “I heard from Huo Ting that he had already started to tell me about his funeral “Sigh, to be honest, I’ve known him for so many years, but I’ve never seen him lose his mind like this. ”

Xia Jinqi stared at Yan Jun’s handsome face, which was as Pale as a piece of paper, the whole time. She sobbed and muttered, “just now by the Ice Lake, he even gave me his coat. I should have paid attention at that time. Maybe he had a fever, so he didn’t feel cold... ”

No wonder she felt so cold, but he was able to stand by the ice lake for so long without changing his expression.

A strong sense of self-blame spread from the bottom of her heart. Xia Jinqi's eyelashes trembled slightly, and two hot drops of tears fell on the back of Yan Jun's hand.

Chapter 1776 fought back and forth over his body

Ben had originally wanted her to manage Yan Jun, but who knew that his words would actually make her cry.

Suddenly feeling guilty, Ben hurriedly changed the topic and comforted Xia Jinqi, "about that... it's not your fault. His own body doesn't know how to cherish it."

Xia Jinqi slowly shook her head, and her voice was choked with sobs. "If I could have climbed up that damn cliff earlier, I wouldn't have let him face so many things alone!"

Ben was a little surprised when he heard that. He quickly asked, "what cliff?"

Did something else happen that he didn't know about?

Only then did Xia Jinqi tell Ben everything about how she had regained her body.

After she woke up, she was in a hurry to find Yu Han, but she had forgotten such an important matter.

After Ben heard that, he was stunned on the spot for a long time. He looked at Xia Jinqi with admiration and worship from the bottom of his heart!

"You mean... you climbed up that cliff with your bare hands, and your hands and feet were worn out, and the whole cliff was covered in your blood?" Ben asked Xia Jinqi with a trembling voice, still in disbelief ...

He himself had studied clinical psychology for so many years, so he naturally knew how helpless a person was when their mind was completely under control, as well as how much determination and willpower it took to break free... ..

Therefore, when Alan mentioned the female prisoner who was so desperate that she gave up her life, Ben was very understanding.

Even though he was willing to believe that Xia Jinqi would definitely come back, when he heard Xia Jinqi mention all of this, he was extremely shocked.

No one had ever been able to break free from the control of their mental state in such a short period of time. n)-o.(v((ε-).l./b((1-(n

UNLESS... ..

Her heart had already grown stronger to a certain extent!

"En." Xia Jinqi nodded without hesitation. She remembered quite clearly how she had come back.

"although it was in the mental world, the pain was abnormally clear."

As she spoke, Xia Jinqi lowered her head to look at her hands. She realized that there weren't any scars on them.

Everything that had happened in the past was like an illusory dream.

And now, she had walked out of that dream that couldn't be any more real.

Look, her guess was right. The injuries she had suffered in that mental world were all fake. Even death and resurrection were filled with falsehood.

Only her own body and her own consciousness were the most real.

"amazing." Ben Let out a long sigh. When he looked at Xia Jinqi, he was looking at her from a different angle.

Xia Jinqi didn't feel very proud about this matter. Instead, she frowned and asked, "since I'm back, Bi Yue, did she just disappear like that?"

Xia Jinqi felt uncomfortable whenever she thought about the previous encounter, especially when she knew that there was another person living in her body! ! !

Ben Stared at her for a moment and shook his head slightly.

Xia Jinqi's heart was instantly lifted.

"She's still here? Why?" Xia Jinqi suddenly thought of a possibility. "could it be... that she still wants to take my body?"

"It's only a matter of time." Ben Nodded with a solemn expression. "Who doesn't want to live a few more days? Moreover, Bi Yue still has a deep obsession in her heart."

"..."Xia Jinqi fell silent, her face turning green.

Could it be that she had to fight Bi Yue back and forth for her body for the rest of her life?

"where is Lu Yiming now?" Xia Jinqi suddenly asked. Her gaze never left Yan Jun's Pale face.

Chapter 1777, no matter what method it is, I have to give it a try

Ben came over this time because of Xia Jinqi's matter. He didn't ask about anything else, but because of the relationship between Bi Yue and Lu Yiming, Yan Jun also told him about Lu Yiming's situation. "I heard that he's locked in some villa."

"As expected. For me, he won't touch Lu Yiming." Xia Jinqi bit her lower lip. She seemed to have guessed Yan Jun's thoughts.

"What do you mean?" Benn raised his eyebrows and looked at her in confusion.

Xia Jinqi spread her hands and pulled the corner of the blanket for Yan Jun. Then, she opened her mouth with a bitter smile "Lu Yiming owes the Yan family two lives. In addition, he has done many evil deeds. If he fell into Yan Jun's hands, he should have lost his life a long time ago. "But BI YUE has stolen my body.

All she thinks about is Lu Yiming. How can Yan Jun make a move “If I’m not wrong, if I can’t come back, he will even let Lu Yiming go and let Bi Yue be with him in order to keep my body alive... “... “...”

It sounded so unbelievable, but Xia Jinqi knew Yan Jun well. Especially when she knew that he was willing to let Bi Yue meet Lu Yiming, she had already guessed his thoughts.

“...” Ben opened his mouth, but he found that he couldn’t say a word.

He turned to look at Yan Jun, who was lying on the bed, and then turned to look at Xia Jinqi. After a long time, he sighed and smiled. “You two are really a match made in heaven. You can control each other’s thoughts so well. It’s really enviable!”

Xia Jinqi was stunned at first, then she smiled. “It’s not that we’re a match made in heaven, but we’re honest with each other. After a long time, we’ll understand each other enough.”

In fact, there was no such thing as a match made in heaven?

Temper, family background, these were things that could be destined to match from birth, but life was ultimately a matter between two people.

Back then, she did not understand Yan Jun like this from the very beginning.

It was all because of the two years of interaction, the accumulation of time and effort, Chi Cheng and calmness, that they were able to exchange their hearts and cherish each other now.

Any relationship needed to be carefully managed, otherwise, in the end, it would all be for naught.

Xia Jinqi pursed her red lips slightly. After she smiled, she changed the topic to the main topic. “Just now, we were talking about Bi Yue... Ben, I want to ask you, is there a way to once and for all, so that she will never be able to take my body?”

“Yes.” Ben immediately turned serious.

Xia Jinqi immediately became interested and hurriedly asked, “what is it?”

Only by completely driving Bi Yue away would she not wake up and fall asleep at times.

Not to mention herself, the people around her also suffered.

Especially Yan Jun... ...

After being married for such a long time, this was the first time Xia Jinqi saw him so tired that he fell sick.

One could imagine how much he had to bear in just a few days... ...

It was fine if she didn’t know in the past, but now that she knew, how could she just sit by and do nothing?

Ben hesitated. He looked at Xia Jinqi but didn’t say a word.

Xia Jinqi could tell from his expression that this matter wasn’t easy, but she still said firmly, “no matter what method it is, I have to give it a try.”

As she said that, she turned around and held Yan Jun's big hand, exerting a little strength. "Moreover, it's best if it can be resolved tonight. I want him to wake up and see a complete me."

Seeing this, Ben could only take a deep breath and tell Xia Jinqi about the plan that he and Alan had discussed.

Bi Yue's remaining brainwaves had to be removed as soon as possible. Otherwise, if it took too long, it would have a big impact on Xia Jinqi.

Moreover, no one could predict what changes would happen in the future.

They could only cut the Gordian Knot.

Chapter 1778: Don't say anymore. I'll sign it.

It was exceptionally cold in Rao city tonight.

A new wave of cold air suddenly descended. It started snowing as night fell.

Unlike the cold wind outside the window, the ward was warm at the moment.

The ultrasonic humidifier vibrated at a high frequency of two million times per second, turning the water mist into ultrafine particles and negative oxygen ions from one to five microns, balancing the humidity in the room.

It had been a while since Ben had left. Xia Jinqi had taken his suggestion. He made good use of the time to go back and make preparations.

Xia Jinqi had been standing by Yan Jun's side the whole time. His fever was still high, and the internal medicine specialists came one after another. All of them had very serious expressions on their faces.

Other than the doctors who were in a terrible state, there was also a pile of secretaries and assistants waiting for Yan Jun to deal with the documents outside the ward.

"It has only been three to four hours, and they have already piled up so many documents for you to review..." Xia Jinqi glanced at the pile of documents on the table next to her. She turned around and looked at Yan Jun, who was still frowning even though he was sleeping soundly. Her heart ached.

Wen Tao stood outside the door for a long time. He was so cold that he was shivering. As soon as he entered the ward, a warm aura rushed up and blurred his lenses.

He took a soft cloth and wiped it. Wen Tao narrowed his eyes out of habit "Now, the entire operation of Rao city is in his hands. Other than that, there is the huge Yan Corporation. In addition, the reconstruction of the disaster, the reconstruction of the Yan family, and the whereabouts of Yu Han. All of these heavy burdens are placed on him."

"The yan family has just been built..." Xia Jinqi muttered, feeling regretful in her heart.

She didn't know what had happened in the past two years. With so much turmoil, the Yan family was the first to bear the brunt of it. It wasn't easy to build it, but it was destroyed again.

Wen Tao didn't respond. He just put on his glasses again and handed a document to Xia Jinqi. He suggested, "since second young master can't sign it, how about... sister-in-law, you do it for him."

"Me?" Xia Jinqi was shocked and instinctively refused. "I don't know anything, especially about politics."

Wen Tao said, "second young master has already planned all of this. You just need to sign for him. In addition, I know that sister-in-law, you've managed the huge Lego company properly. The Yan Corporation's matter will definitely not be difficult for you."

"... " Xia Jinqi was unable to refute what he said, but she still hesitated. "If something goes wrong..."

"sister-in-law, if you don't sign now, people will soon find out that second young master is currently unconscious and unable to handle government affairs. Some rats hiding in the dark waiting for an opportunity will come out in full force. At that time, Rao city will once again be in turmoil..."

Wen Tao did not force Xia Jinqi to do these things. He only told her the stakes of the matter. His tone was calm, but it was like a sharp sword hanging above her head.

How could Xia Jinqi have any other choice?

"Don't say anymore. I'll sign it." After he finished speaking, he took the document that Wen Tao handed over. A moment later, the three words 'Xia Jinqi' with beautiful handwriting appeared on the paper.

She did not read the contents of the document. Since it was Wen Tao who brought it over, it was naturally not wrong.

Yan Jun had always suspected that people did not need to be used, and she was the same.

After signing it, Xia Jinqi finally realized what was going on and asked, "what I signed is my name. Is it useful?"

"It's useful." Wen Tao nodded. Then, he picked out a qualified document from the mountain beside him and handed it to Xia Jinqi. "Second Young Master had asked a lawyer to sign the power of attorney before."

Xia Jinqi was flabbergasted when she heard that. "He knew this day would come?"

Chapter 1779: naturally had to be taken out

"That's not it." Wen Tao shook his head again, his expression still calm. "The yan family has many properties. He means that if anything happens, you can exercise some of his power on his behalf."

Xia Jinqi,"..."

This man... .. Just how worried was he ? ?

Following that, Xia Jinqi signed a few more documents, and her previous worries were instantly swept away.

Since Yan Jun trusted her so much, she naturally had to take out something.

“For the matter of the Yan Corporation, leave it to the vice president to take full responsibility. Wen Tao, you will assist from the side. As for the political matters, I will call my father in a while and ask him to come over and help deal with them. “Also, double the number of guards in this building. Those who are not related are prohibited from entering and leaving, especially the doctors and nurses. Everyone must strictly check their documents and be wary of impersonating others.” Xia Jinqi furrowed her thin brows. She thought about it and said it bit by bit, striving to make things perfect.

Wen Tao adjusted the frame of his glasses and nodded before asking, “Zhao Chongbin has been hungry for two days. He has been scolding non-stop every day.”

“If he can still scream, it proves that he won’t die. Continue to starve.” Xia Jinqi snorted, supporting Yan Jun’s actions from all sides.

Anyway, with water, he wouldn’t die even if he starved for a few days. It was just enough to dampen his spirit!

Wen Tao didn’t say anything, but silently noted it down.

Although he personally felt that it was best not to even give that person water, so that he could properly enjoy the taste of dehydration.

After signing a lot of documents that could crush a person to death, Wen Tao took the group of people outside the door and left.

Xia Jinqi could finally catch her breath and turned to call Xia Jitian.

She didn’t know where her phone had gone, so she took Yan Jun’s phone to call. She knew the password anyway.

As soon as the call went through, Xia Jitian’s voice came through. It was a little respectful but also a little excited. “Chairman? Is there something you need me for?”

Xia Jinqi, “...”

She didn’t know that her father called her husband like that... ..

She secretly glanced back at the man who was lying on the bed with a slight fever. She simply covered her phone and walked to the window, whispering, “Dad, it’s me, Xiao Qi.”

The person on the other end of the phone was stunned for a moment before she replied in an even more excited tone, “Xiao Qi? ! Are you alright?”

“Yes, I’m fine.” Xia Jinqi couldn’t help but smile. She was a little happy to hear her father being so worried about her.

After exchanging a few pleasantries, Xia Jinqi finally got down to business. “Dad, can you come to the hospital tonight? I’ll send someone to pick you up. Yan Jun is sick and there are some things that I can’t decide. I want you to come and take a look.”

Outsiders couldn’t be found. Among the few people that Xia Jinqi knew, the most powerful person was her father.

After all, Xia Jitian was also someone who was close to becoming president. He always had a good eye and was more adept at these things.

If she, a layman, were to mess things up, it would probably ruin Yan Jun's matter.

In that case, it would be better to have her father come over and help advise him.

Xia Jitian did not know the reason behind this. However, when he heard his daughter say this, he suddenly felt a little relieved. "Yan Jun is sick? What kind of illness? Is it serious?"

"A little fever." Xia Jinqi turned around and glanced at the man lying on the bed. Seeing that he was sleeping well, she said, "I'm also worried about others. Father, you know these things very well, so can I trouble you for a moment?"

On the other end of the phone, Xia Jitian was stunned for a moment before his eyes turned red again. He hurriedly agreed, "this silly child, why are you being so polite? Wait a moment, I'll be there right away!"

Chapter 1780: her position in his heart

Father and daughter had finally gotten back together, and Xia Jinqi had given him an important task. How could he refuse?

In fact, he could roughly guess what his daughter was thinking.

Even if Yan Jun was sick, with Tan Zhuqing around, political matters would not be delayed much. However, she just had to let him go. This was clearly giving him a chance so that he could come into contact with these things again.

Even though he had long lost the desire to enter an official career again, it was still his daughter's kind intentions.

After giving his instructions to the family, the Yan family's car arrived. He immediately left the house. After Xia Jinqi had arranged everything, she sat by Yan Jun's bed alone and watched over his IV drip. She also used a towel to wipe the sweat off his forehead.

Looking at his pale and bloodless handsome face, she thought of what he had silently done for her. Her heart could not help but ache.

However, in the end, she could not even say a word of reprimand. She could only sigh softly. "You, even when you have a fever, you're still so honest."

If it were her, she would have already started talking in her sleep. How could she be as quiet as him?

"Don't worry. Our Son is like you. No matter what the circumstances are, he will be able to turn the situation around," she said slowly. She turned her head to look at the heavy snow outside the window. She could not help but think of Xiao Yuhan, who was wandering outside.

No matter what, it was better than falling into the hands of Lu Yiming and Zhao Chongbin... ..

“mother just spoke to me on the phone. She said that she would come over later with Xiao puff. I haven’t seen her for the past few days. I wonder if she will forget about me...” she muttered to herself Xia Jinqi put down the towel and leaned lightly against Yan Jun’s chest. She listened to his heartbeat and said gently, “just now, your assistant complained to me that you’ve been staying in the hospital these few days. You didn’t care about the company’s matters and didn’t care about the political matters...”

As she said this, she actually felt a little choked up.

“those were your years of hard work. How could you...”

Unable to say a complete sentence, Xia Jinqi bit her lower lip and choked up.

She actually understood everything.

Yan Jun had his heart set on her. How could he have the heart to care about anything else?

It was just that she had never known that she was more important to him than all his years of hard work and planning.

“What right do I have to let you treat me like this...” she closed her eyes, and warm tears seeped into the clothes on his chest.

When Xia Jitian arrived, Tan Zhuqing had also arrived.

Initially, Xia Jinqi did not expect Tan Zhuqing to arrive. However, Xia Jitian told her the importance of this person on the way, so Xia Jinqi took the initiative to contact Tan Zhuqing.

That night, Xia Jinqi was kidnapped, but Tan Zhuqing came forward to invite Yan Jun back on his knees. Therefore, when his son heard Xia Jinqi’s request, he, who was already feeling guilty, immediately agreed.

Next door, Su Xiangxiang had already been discharged from the hospital, so Xia Jinqi left the room empty. She set up two desks and sent all the official documents inside.

Xia Jitian and Tan Zhuqing were in charge inside. They told the public that Yan Jun was guarding his seriously ill wife in the hospital and refused to leave.

In any case, outsiders would not be able to see the signature of those confidential documents. What they could see must be Yan Jun’s trusted aides.

The only thing was that Xia Jinqi, who had been busy all this while, did not feel that she was a seriously ill person at all... ..

As she came out of Yan Jun’s ward, she personally brewed tea and sent it to the next room.

She first served Xia Jitian tea before walking up to Tan Zhuqing. She smiled sweetly. “sorry to trouble Uncle Tan.”
