

Trick Me 1881

Chapter 1881 we'll have a wedding after we're done with our work!

No matter what she says, her parents won't allow her to be with Fang Shaoan.

Love is important, but she knows that she can't abandon her parents for love... ..

So, she won't tell Fang Shaoan that she's pregnant with his child.

She's destined to be separated, so why bother?

She'll leave quietly, just like how she didn't have to appear in his world in the first place.

Now that he was on the right path, and there were so many people who wanted to marry their daughter to him, she thought that one day, he would meet the person who was truly suitable for him.

After crying, Zuo Xiaoran wiped her tears, pulled herself together, and left with her head held high... ..

Not long after she left, Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi came over. noVe-lb(1n

These days, the couple would come over from time to time to take a look. Sometimes, they would come alone, and sometimes, they would come together.

Fang Shaoan knew that they came because they wanted to know if there were any new developments in the search for the little cannon fodder, but every time, they would return disappointed.

This time was no exception... ..

"There's still no news for the time being. "

When she received such an answer, Xia Jinqi's heart felt as if it was being ruthlessly torn apart, dripping with blood.

She experienced this kind of disappointment every day... ..

But even so, she still maintained her strong and calm self. On the surface, there were not many changes in her emotions. She could even smile and say, "No news is good news... "

When Yan Jun heard this, he reached out and grabbed her hand that was holding her handbag tightly. He said gently, "Yu Han will be fine. "

Xia Jinqi looked up at him, and the smile on her lips widened. "Okay! "

Then, they talked about the renovation of the security department. Fang Shaoan patted his chest confidently and said that the renovation would be completed within a month. Yan Jun did not urge him, but only reminded him to pay attention to his safety.

Before leaving, Xia Jinqi took the opportunity to ask Fang Shaoan while Yan Jun was out on the phone. "Has Xiao ran been with you recently? "

When they were at the Ice Lake, Xia Jinqi had only chatted with Zuo Xiaoran briefly. Although they had contacted each other on social media in the past few days, they did not have a deep conversation. They did not know how her current situation was.

Since there was an opportunity now, they could ask her the same question.

“Yeah!” Fang Shaoan replied excitedly. “WE’RE GETTING MARRIED SOON!”

“really?” Xia Jinqi was surprised. She had never expected this good news to come so suddenly.

“Yes, just now, I proposed to her. She agreed!” Fang Shaoan continued to be extremely excited. His small hands started to rub together “But I didn’t buy flowers or a diamond ring either. I proposed just like that... .. Isn’t that too UNROMANTIC ? I just looked at her, and I suddenly had an uncontrollable impulse. I felt that it should be at this moment, at this second, that I should say it .. Aiya Why didn’t I think of buying a diamond ring first Sister-in-law, don’t you think that I’m being too old-fashioned Will Xiao ran feel disappointed?”

Xia Jinqi saw that he was so anxious that he was about to slap himself, so she hurriedly said, “Don’t be anxious! Xiao ran won’t care about those things! Since she agreed to you, she must be sincere! Congratulations to the two of you!”

“hehe... after we’re done with this, WE’LL HOLD THE WEDDING! You and second young master must come then!” Fang Shaoan was happy again, and his face looked especially good. Indeed, people were in high spirits when it came to happy events !!

His mind was now full of Zuo Xiaoran. He was married, had a family, and had a wife!

Chapter 1882: What kind of gift should send?

Xia Jinqi immediately smiled and said, “don’t worry, we’ll definitely come!”

The two good friends had finally come to fruition, so how could she not go?

But... .. Xia Jinqi still had some doubts in her heart ...

Xiao ran did not tell her about such a big happy event? n--0veLb1n

According to Xiao ran’s fiery temper, she would definitely spread the news at the first opportunity... ..

This thought only flashed through her mind. When Xia Jinqi saw how happy Fang Shaoan was, Xiao ran was probably so excited that she did not know what to do, right?

After leaving the security department, Xia Jinqi couldn’t wait to share this news with Yan Jun..

“Xiao ran and Shaoan are getting married. What should we give them?” She expressed that this was a question that was very worthy of serious consideration!

Yan Jun was still flipping through a document. Hearing this, he answered, “a yacht.”

“En?” Xia Jinqi didn’t think of this at all. She asked again, “what yacht?”

“The last time we went out to sea, he asked me for it.” Yan Jun raised his eyes and looked at Xia Jinqi.

Xia Jinqi blinked her eyes. Only then did she remember that time when she and Yan Jun went out to sea because of Wen Qing... .. En, in short, they went to Qinghuai ...

It seemed that Fang Shaoan and Zuo Xiaoran were trapped in the sea when they went out to sea for the first time?

She wasn't clear about the specific details. She only knew that since then, Fang Shaoan had been interested in Zuo Xiaoran.

Then, the four of them went out to sea together. Yan Jun's yacht was so big that it shocked everyone's jaws... ..

At that time, she could see the envy in Fang Shaoan's eyes. She didn't expect that this guy actually secretly asked Yan Jun for it?

What was even more surprising was that Yan Jun didn't give it to him?

After thinking for a while, Xia Jinqi asked Yan Jun nosily, “you didn't give it to him at that time? “

“At that time, the military force on Arqi island was not enough. The sea area of Qinghuai can't go out of control,” Yan Jun answered indifferently, his black eyes deep.

“At that time, there was an army on Arqi Island?” Xia Jinqi was dumbfounded. At that time, she and Yan Jun had just been married not long ago... ..

The internal struggle of the Yan family had just begun... ..

How come from that time, Yan Jun had been preparing for a rainy day?

Yan Jun seemed to have recalled those years that were long gone, and his dark eyes sparkled with specks of light. “We have to have some plans to save our lives. “

At that time, Grandfather's attitude was firm, and Yan Qing's ability to win over the hearts of the people was also top-notch. He had originally planned to withdraw from the Yan family and give Yan Qing a chance.

But later, he found that there seemed to be someone behind Yan Qing who silently supported him, so he was extra cautious and began to cultivate death warriors.

At the beginning, his goal was indeed to strengthen the guards, but later on... .. He made a trip to the Middle East and brought back an army from Berlin. He simply developed and grew stronger ...

Now that he thought about it, there must be a reason why everything happened.

When Lu Yiming rebelled and Zhao Chongbin started a riot, it was this army that stabilized the situation in Rao city and rescued the woman he loved. In the future, they would continue to defend this city!

Yan Jun did not tell Xia Jinqi about the rest of the words. This was what he should plan, so he did not let her worry.

She had been by his side all these years, being careful and taking every step at a time. It was already very tiring.

In the following days, he just wanted her to do what she liked with peace of mind.

But even if he didn't say it, Xia Jinqi could more or less guess it.

Although it was only a short two years, if she really recalled it, it really couldn't be explained in detail... ..

Chapter 1883: you still dare to appear in front of me?

She leaned over and hugged his arm. Pressing her face against his shoulder, she said affectionately, "if you're giving me a yacht, then what should I give you? "

Yan Jun's hand that was holding onto the document paused slightly. He turned his head around. There was a hint of displeasure in his deep black eyes. He looked into her bright eyes and asked, "do you still want me to give you a yacht? "

He did not like her being so distant from him.

Xia Jinqi did not think so much at first, but when she heard the anger in Yan Jun's tone, she immediately chuckled. "Shao'an likes yachts. I still have to give Xiao ran a gift! "

These words obviously could not appease Yan Jun. his brows were tightly knitted, and his face was a little gloomy.

Xia Jinqi knew that he was overthinking things. She hurriedly raised her head and kissed his thin lips as a form of 'fawning' . "Alright, we gave the yachts together. What else do you want to give Xiao ran together? "

In fact, Yan Jun did not care much about what Xia Jinqi said later. His entire mind was attracted by her soft lips... ..

Obviously, that peck just now was not enough to satisfy him.

"You started it first. " His deep and suppressed voice came out from his throat, full of his unique magnetism.

"what... " Xia Jinqi still hadn't come back to her senses. After all, weren't they just discussing what gifts to give to Fang Shaoan and Zuo Xiaoran?

How did it become that she started it in the blink of an eye?

Moreover, what did she start?

Before she could think clearly, Yan Jun's tall figure had already pressed down and easily took away her breath... ..

"UGH... " he wanted to say something more but could only swallow it down.

The driver in the front row very tactfully lowered the curtain in the middle and pretended not to see anything. He continued to focus on driving, and... He very considerately slowed down the speed of the car ...

So much so that when the sky was completely dark, the car slowly drove into the Yan family's old mansion.

Lu Yiming drove the car and watched Yan Jun's car enter the mansion.

These few days, he had almost nothing to do. Either he was wandering aimlessly in the city, or he was quietly following behind Xia Jinqi.

Even though he knew that person was no longer his beloved Bi Yue, but... ... He would still unconsciously imagine Xia Jinqi to be Bi Yue ...

Only in this way could he survive... ...

After sitting quietly for three minutes, he rolled down the car window, took out a cigarette, lit it up, and took a deep breath.

The bitter and pungent taste swept through his entire mouth and entered his heart and lungs.

It wasn't a particularly good experience, but... ... It was this faint smell of tobacco that could miraculously soothe his irritable and boring heart ...

After he finished his third cigarette, the passenger door was suddenly pulled open.

The Big Commotion Attracted Lu Yiming's attention. He subconsciously looked back and saw that a man had already sat in.

He immediately threw away the cigarette butt, took out the pistol he carried with him, and pointed it directly at the man's temple.

"You still dare to appear in front of me?" Lu Yiming widened his eyes, which were full of red blood, and spat at the man fiercely, "Do you think I won't kill you, Qu Yang! "

That's right, the person who got into the car just now was Qu Yang.

And he was also the person that Yan Jun sent to support Lu Yiming... ...

The people that Xia Jinqi sent to Lu Yiming were all sent back. They had no choice but to ask Yan Jun to send people.

However, Xia Jinqi didn't expect that Qu Yang had to come out of all the people under Yan Jun..

It was said that one's eyes were especially red in front of an enemy. Lu Yiming's current appearance was more than just red-eyed?

He really wanted to tear this life to shreds!

Chapter 1884 I am very happy to see the current sir.

Qu Yang did not hide or evade. His expression was calm, but there was a faint trace of sadness in his eyes.

This was still the person who had helped him.

“Sir, long time no see. “

His voice was flat and as respectful as before.

Lu Yiming did not appreciate his kindness and continued to spit at him, “traitor! ! “

Qu Yang did not deny this crime.

After Lu Yiming fell, he had indeed transferred to Yan Jun’s side.

However, he did not regret making such a choice.

“Sir, you have taken the wrong path in the past. As long as you are willing to turn back, there is still room for salvation. ” Qu Yang turned his eyes and looked straight into Lu Yiming’s eyes that were filled with killing intent.

“HMPH! Turn back? You want me to turn myself in? Then you can go and claim credit from your new master? ” Lu Yiming scolded back without holding back.

However, no matter how bad his attitude was, he still did not shoot.

He maintained that posture. No one knew if he was protecting his last bit of dignity or what... ..

Qu Yang was silent for a moment before he said, “this time, he asked me to assist you. “

Lu Yiming naturally knew who this ‘he’ was.

But he didn’t expect... .. That Yan Jun would make such an arrangement ? ?

“What does he want? He wants you to show off to me. He stole my most capable subordinate in the past? Stole my position as President? ” Lu Yiming continued to snort coldly, his facial features were ferocious.

The moment he heard the words ‘most capable subordinate’ , Qu Yang’s heart slightly ached.

All these years, he was the clearest about how Lu Yiming treated him.

Unfortunately, they were not on the same boat after all.

Moreover, this time, he was working for Yan Jun, not to reminisce about the past.

“Even if you managed to snatch that position, sir, you won’t be able to stay in it for long. Everything obtained through killing will eventually be lost in the same way, ” Qu Yang sighed faintly.

All these years, he had been by Lu Yiming’s side and had done many things to help the wicked.

He was well aware of how Lu Yiming obtained his power.

He was even more clear about how Lu Yiming had lost everything.

A brutal massacre might bring about a lot of fear, but there would never be genuine admiration.

Therefore, after Lu Yiming's accident, the people who used to flatter Lu Yiming all had their tails between their legs. They were eager to separate themselves and Lu Yiming from the Milky Way, afraid of being implicated.

There were even people who jumped out to accuse Lu Yiming of his crimes, and there were many of them.

Compared to the People's support for Yan Jun now, Qu Yang knew what a bright and prosperous world was... ..

Qu Yang risked his life to persuade Lu Yiming, but he didn't expect Lu Yiming to sympathize with him.

His hand that was holding the gun shook heavily, and then he slowly put it down... ..

He remembered that Xia Jinqi had said something similar before.

Killing couldn't solve the problem.

He wanted to refute, but looking back at his life, he couldn't even say a word to refute... ..

Qu Yang was very surprised that Lu Yiming put down the gun, but this at least showed that the current Lu Yiming was not quite the same as the previous Lu Yiming.

"I'm very happy to see the current Sir." Qu Yang sighed from the bottom of his heart, "if you need me to do anything for you, please don't hesitate to ask."

Hearing this, Lu Yiming came back to his senses and glanced at him coldly, "Zhao Chongbin has an assistant by his side. He has been wandering around the bar and nightclub all year round. Find him first."

"Yes." Qu Yang nodded, a flash of gratification in his eyes.

Chapter 1885 DON'T BE JEALOUS!

No matter what happened in the past, Lu Yiming's willingness to work for Yan Jun was worthy of his respect.

Lu Yiming turned his head and stepped on the accelerator. The car immediately shot out like a rocket!

In fact... .. compared to his hatred for Qu Yang's betrayal, Lu Yiming was more concerned about letting his former subordinates see him in such a dire state ...

He was now even more certain that Yan Jun did not look for anyone else but Qu Yang to help him. The purpose was to humiliate him!

But so what?

He is already the fish meat on Yan Jun's chopping board, still can resist? n.-0V&lbIn

Sooner or later, he was going to die in Yan Jun's hands, but before that, he had to find Zhao Chongbin first, and after taking revenge, he would go and find out exactly what Bi Yue had said before she left.

So much for his life.

Walking with death on your back, every step you take, is a relief.

After Lu Yiming and his party left, the old house that was shrouded in darkness still stood tall, not affected at all.

Tonight was the first time Xia Jinqi returned to this mansion after being kidnapped by Lu Yiming.

The corpses and blood on the ground in her memories had long ceased to exist and were replaced by flowers and shrubs.

It was as if it had been renovated once again. It was slightly different from before, but the general plan was still the same.

Xia Jinqi stood there in a daze, recalling the group of people who rushed out to protect her... ..

Everyone in the Black Tortoise Hall, Wang Mang, and... .. Yan Qing ...

The person she owed the most in her life was Yan Qing.

And she was destined to never be able to repay what she owed him... ..

Yan Jun was about to walk forward, but when he saw her stop beside him, he stopped as well.

The big palm that was wrapped around her slightly cold little hand slowly tightened.

Xia Jinqi raised her head to look at him, her beautiful eyes filled with moisture. "Jun, I want to go and see Yan Qing."

In the past, in order to avoid suspicion, she almost never mentioned this name in front of Yan Jun..

But now, even if he would be angry, she knew that she had to say it.

However, outside of her imagination, after Yan Jun heard it, he didn't get angry. Instead, he said gently, "go. Bring the flowers that he likes."

Xia Jinqi was stunned, but she immediately smiled. "Are you going?"

"He probably wants to see you alone more." Yan Jun gently stroked her cheek and smiled.

When Yan Qing was mentioned again, he was no longer as aggressive as before.

Time could be diluted and deepened.

Xia Jinqi looked up at him. She couldn't find any displeasure in his eyes anymore. Only then did she agree to nod. "JUST DON'T BE JEALOUS!"

The topic changed, and her tone became more playful.

Yan Jun raised his eyebrows slightly. He was about to speak to her properly, but before he could open his mouth, she had already turned around quickly, like a cunning little loach.

Helpless, he could only shake his head with a smile and follow her.

After learning that the young master and Young Madam had already returned, the kitchen immediately became busy.

Because the manpower had been transferred from Qingxin Garden, there were still some places that she was not too familiar with, so it was inevitable that she would be a little flustered.

Liu Juan had been busy since the moment she stepped into the kitchen, and she did not even have time to drink a mouthful of water.

Even so, she still picked up the two large chicken legs that she had bought with her salary and ran out of the door after obtaining the housekeeper's approval.

In a corner of the courtyard, big tree was rubbing an unknown puppy with Yu Han.

“What are you two doing?” Liu Juan ran over happily. The fragrance of the two large chicken legs in her hands spread in the air. “come and eat something first!”

Chapter 1886 imitated him

No matter how busy she was, how hungry she was, or how hard she worked, she never mistreated her children.

Perhaps this was motherly love.

DASHU immediately put down the dog in his arms. All his attention was focused on the two golden chicken legs that emitted an alluring fragrance... ..

He unconsciously swallowed his throat.

Since the afternoon, he and his brother had not eaten anything.

But even so, when his mother handed him the chicken legs, he shook his head. “Give them to your brother first. He's hungry.”

“silly child, Mommy bought two drumsticks. You and little brother each have one!” Liu Juan smiled. This eldest son of hers had always been like a big brother since he was young, which saved her a lot of worry.

As she said this, she placed the other drumstick into Xiao Yuhuan's hands.

Although Yu Han was small, his grip strength was not to be underestimated. Such a drumstick was more than enough for him.

At this moment, he was holding the drumstick and suddenly felt a little helpless.

When he left the Yan family, he was not weaned. When he arrived at Liu Juan's house, he began to eat some rice porridge. It was very easy to digest. For such a large drumstick, he expressed that... .. It was a little difficult ...

Liu Juan saw his stunned look and the smile on her lips deepened. "Young Master, try it. Do you like it?"

Yu Han paused for a moment before taking a small bite. Then, he slowly chewed.

The taste... .. was indescribable ...

But it was different from the things he had eaten before.

Liu Juan saw his frown and said, "I'll go in later and beg the Butler to boil some small porridge for you. Eat a few mouthfuls to fill your stomach first. "

After saying that, she turned around and instructed big tree, "look after little brother. You can only give him a few mouthfuls. You must not eat too much. Moreover, you must chew it thoroughly before you swallow it! "

DASHU nodded heavily. He could definitely take good care of little brother, but... .. He looked at the drumstick in his hand and fed it to Liu Juan without hesitation. "Mom, you eat this. I'll wait for little brother to eat it before eating the one in his hand. He can't eat too much anyway. "

"Mom isn't hungry. You can eat. " Liu Juan patted his head. In fact, she was already famished.

"You eat. " Dashu insisted and suddenly became stubborn.

The Little Yu Han stood at the side. He didn't seem to be very interested in the drumstick. He only took a small bite and spent most of his time observing the mother and son in front of him.

They seemed to be... .. arguing over a chicken drumstick ...

Was it the kind in his hand?

He looked down at the thing in his hand and then looked up at the big tree in front of him. Without thinking, he imitated the big tree's actions.

He raised his short arm and handed the chicken drumstick to Liu Juan.

"Eat. "

He opened his mouth. Although he only said one word, his meaning was already very clear.

Liu Juan was stunned for a moment. She did not expect that the two children were worried that she would be hungry too... ..

Her heart ached, and her eyes turned red.

She tried not to cry in front of the children, but when she spoke, her voice was choked with sobs.

"good children, you can eat. I'm not hungry. "

DASHU shook his head after hearing that. "If you don't eat, my brother and I won't eat either. "

Yu Han looked at Dashu and then turned back to look at Liu Juan. He did not say another word, but he did not put down his raised hand either.

Liu Juan choked with sobs several times. Looking at the two stubborn children in front of her, she could only accept their kindness.

She went forward and took a bite of the chicken drumstick in Dashu's hand. Tears welled up in her eyes. "Alright, mommy has eaten. Hurry up and eat while it's still hot. Mommy will go back to work. "

Chapter 1887 the ferris wheel was based on a clock as the original design model

After saying that, she almost jogged away.

She was afraid that the children would see her tears and that there would not be enough chicken legs to eat.

In the past, when they were in the fishing village, even eating fish was a very extravagant thing because the fish had to be sold, not to mention meat.

Later, Yu Han's sudden arrival made their family's situation turn for the better.

Otherwise, why did they say that this child was a lucky star?

The fish was sold well, and then they went to the long family. Both of them had a good salary, and they even provided food and accommodation. Only then could they gradually save some money.

Just now in the kitchen, she saw that there were a lot of leftover chicken legs. She really wanted to reward the children, so she asked the housekeeper for a favor and bought two.

After all, they were servants, and they could not covet the owner's things. Not to mention spending money to buy them, even a glance was a violation of the rules.

Fortunately, the housekeeper knew her family's situation, which was why she was so bold.

It was really their family's fortune to meet such a good family She had to work even harder to repay them!

After Liu Juan ran away, Dashu did not chase after her. He turned around and held Yu Han's hand. He carried him to a stool at the side and sat down. He said gently, "little brother, you have to eat in small bites! You are still too young, you can only... uh... you can only eat three bites! Okay? "

The corner of Yu Han's eyes twitched. He had already eaten one bite just now, so... ... There were only two bites left ? ?

He lowered his eyes and continued to observe the drumstick in his hand... ... He leaned forward and took a small bite ...

Big Tree looked at his elegant appearance and felt happy. He held the drumstick that Liu Juan had bitten and started to eat it.

Chicken meat was rarely seen in their house, not to mention such a large drumstick.

While big tree was immersed in enjoying the delicious food, Yu Han took a third bite and stopped eating.

The stool was a little high, so it was a little difficult for him to jump down. Fortunately, he just sat there and looked around.

As he looked around, his line of sight was suddenly fixed.

In the dark sky, a burst of colorful lights suddenly lit up!

One after another, the lights drew a circle in the air, and those circles were even slowly moving!

At this moment, in the distance.

Two workers wearing hard hats were sitting beside the control panel. They were operating a bunch of buttons in front of them while looking outside. "The lights are all on. Make sure that everything on the ferris wheel is operating normally. "

"everything is normal. " After the other person confirmed, he asked, "master, why don't you check it during the day? It's so dark at night. You can't see it clearly. "

"What do you know? Young master has brought young Madam back. Just now, Mr. Wang specially came over to order a good check. I think young master will bring young Madam over. "

"Oh... so our young master is such a romantic person? " As the apprentice spoke, he looked at the huge ferris wheel that was flashing with bright lights and slowly turning. His face was full of envy ...

The old master laughed when he heard that "Young Man, you're still too young No matter how arrogant and cold-blooded a man is, as long as he falls in love, his heart will become incomparably soft See This ferris wheel used a clock as the original design model. It was built by the young master himself. I guess this means that he wants to spend the rest of his life with the Young Madam, right Our young master is a cold-faced but warm-hearted person Hahahaha!"

The apprentice nodded as if he did not understand. "No wonder I've always felt that this ferris wheel is like a clock! There's also the hour hand, minute hand and second hand... "

Chapter 1888 felt an inexplicable impulse

"This is what love is like... " The old master murmured, and there was a moment of absent-mindedness in his eyes.

However, he quickly came back to his senses and cut the apprentice's head. "turn off the lights after the test! Do you think the young master went to great lengths to build this ferris wheel for you to see? "

The apprentice pursed his lips, feeling wronged, but he did not dare to say anything more. He obediently turned off the start button of the ferris wheel.

At the same time, the colorful lights in the sky suddenly disappeared without a trace... ..

Yu Han was stunned. He subconsciously wanted to look for the lights and the big iron circle that matched his memory.

Unfortunately, he couldn't see anything except the deep darkness around him.

He was a little anxious. His pitch-black eyes rolled uneasily... ..

Just then, Dashu finished eating the drumstick. He looked up at Yu Han and saw that he was still holding the drumstick obediently. There was only a little bit of meat on the drumstick, so he immediately smiled and said, "little brother, you're so obedient! "

He wiped his small hands and carried Yu Han down the stool. At the same time, he took the drumstick in his hand and said, "little brother, wait for me here. I'll bring the DRUMSTICK TO MOMMY! "

After saying that, he walked into the kitchen.

There was only a wall between them. Moreover, Yu Han had always been very obedient, so big tree went into the House with ease.

But this time, Yu Han did not listen to big tree's words. He only thought about the Big Bright Iron Circle just now!

He remembered that he had seen it with his mommy, Daddy, and little sister!

When the sun was good, daddy would lift him up and throw him into the air, then catch him steadily!

Every time at that time, he would see the big iron circle in the sky... ..

And he could see it now!

So... .. would daddy and mommy be nearby ? ?

But why could he see it just now and not now?

The Little Yu Han's eyes finally turned red, and he began to SOB, "mommy... Daddy... "

He could only follow the direction in his memory and spread his short legs, running with all his might.

He had just learned how to walk not long ago, and his steps were still unsteady. After running for a few steps, he fell.

Fortunately, he wore thick clothes in winter, so the fall did not hurt.

He did not cry. He quickly got up and began to run again!

"Mommy... "

"..."

Dinner was not ready yet. As a small snack before dinner, Yan Jun brought Xia Jinqi to the backyard.

The Ferris wheel had been adjusted. He could not wait to give her this surprise.

Xia Jinqi did not know what Yan Jun was up to. She just heard that he wanted to take a walk, so she followed him out. However, she could not help but mutter in her heart, why take a walk when it was almost time to eat!

Even so, she felt an inexplicable impulse.

It was like a sixth sense. She always felt that something good would happen... ..

While frowning and meditating, the man beside her suddenly opened his mouth. "You went to the Ice Lake in the morning?"

Xia Jinqi snapped back to her senses and stopped in her tracks. She raised her head to look at him. "You know about it?"

When Yan Jun was busy, she didn't follow him. She would only appear during meal time to accompany him.

LEGO had her cousin to support her for the time being. She could hide and Laze, and the rest of her time would be spent searching for Yu Han's whereabouts... ..

Ice Lake was the place where Yu Han had lived for a few days. Since there were cameras there that had captured the car with Yu Han, she might be able to find something if she went to investigate along the way.

Chapter 1889 he seemed to have heard Yu Han calling for him?

Even though she knew that Yan Jun would definitely send the most capable men, Shao'an would definitely do his best, and her cousin would definitely help... ..

But she just couldn't stay idle.

If she didn't go and take a look for herself, her heart would be extremely flustered.

She had always hidden these emotions well and didn't want to be seen by everyone. It would only add to her sadness.

But... ..

That was still meat that had fallen from her body. How could she not be anxious?

Even if she pretended to be strong in front of others, she could not hide the heartache behind it.

"I... I can't not look for him. That's our son..." Xia Jinqi covered her face as her sobbing voice seeped out from between her fingers ...

Yan Jun only felt a stabbing pain in his heart. Without thinking, he reached out and pulled her into his embrace. He patted her body, which was trembling slightly from crying. "We will find him."

How could he not know her heart?

During this period of time, after she fell asleep, he would quietly get up and use all his connections to find Yu Han's whereabouts... ..

He would often suffer from insomnia throughout the night.

He was afraid that she would worry, so he never said anything, even though he was still calm and collected during the day.

As a parent, how could he not worry?

“trust me,” he whispered in her ear, unable to bear to watch her cry.

Ever since she married him, she had cried too much... ..

He recalled the first time when their families met. When he saw that her mother had secretly pinched her thigh without saying anything, he wanted to protect her.

He wanted to protect her for the rest of her life and not cry.

He wanted to protect her for the rest of her life and not be bullied.

Later, after they got married, he found out that she was not so weak. She was actually very strong. She was so strong that it made his heart ache. Just like this moment... ..

Xia Jinqi buried her head in his arms. It took her a long time to control her collapsing emotions.

She was not a robot. After experiencing so much, she could still maintain a cold and emotionless face. She was also flesh and blood. She would be sad, sad, and cry.

It was good that she had cried. She wiped her tears and faced life once again!

This was life.

“I’m hungry...” Xia Jinqi rubbed her eyes. After crying for a while, she felt a little exhausted, so she suggested, “let’s go back for dinner?”

Yan Jun,”...”

They hadn’t even seen the surprise yet Wouldn’t all their previous efforts go to waste if they went back just like that? ! !

However, when he saw her big watery eyes and extremely aggrieved expression, his heart instantly softened.

He gently stroked her long hair that draped over her shoulders and softly agreed, “alright, let’s go back.”

The moment the two of them turned around, a small, black figure with staggering steps squeezed out from a low bush.

Yu Han panted slightly. He was obviously very tired.

He had never run this far alone before... ..

He didn’t know if he was running in the right direction, but he followed a colorful light belt all the way here.

Just like there were many unsolved mysteries in this world, Yu Han couldn’t tell how he ran here on his own. He just felt that... .. Mommy and daddy might be in this direction ? ?

He came here regardless of everything.

He was very tired, but he wasn't afraid.

Daddy had said that he was a little man, so he would not be afraid!

"Daddy..." He let out a soft whistle and began to look around, wanting to see where he was at this moment.

After taking a turn, he found that there was a huge platform behind him. He had to raise his head very high to see the end... ..

And right after this platform, Yan Jun was holding Xia Jinqi as they walked forward. At that moment, he suddenly stopped in his tracks.

His long and slender brows furrowed tightly, and his heart began to throb... ..

He seems to hear Yu Han calling him?

Chapter 1890: little cannon fodder' was in the Yan family!

However, after listening carefully, he realized that there was nothing else besides the sound of a breeze blowing by his ears.

Pursing his lips in a self-deprecating manner, Yan Jun took another step forward and held Xia Jinqi as they walked to the right.

On the other side of the high platform, Xiao Yuhao blinked his reddened eyes and chose to walk to the left.

Under this huge ferris wheel, the two sides were going in opposite directions!

At the same time, the damaged central processing unit of the Security Department had been repaired in advance. Fortunately, the archives and documents that were previously saved were still there!

After all the files were uploaded and downloaded, in less than 0.001 seconds, the technicians found the owner of the car that took away little cannon fodder!

"found it! The owner's name is Sun Zhihao! The registered address is Qingxin Garden! "

"Qingxin Garden? Isn't that..." Fang Shaoan raised his eyebrows. Before he could finish his sentence, the team members behind him reported, "MINISTER! The surveillance system in the city has been completely restored! WE FOUND THE BLACK SUV! "

"where is it?" Fang Shaoan felt that his heart had stopped beating and hurriedly asked.

"It's... It's at the Yan family! ! "

Fang Shaoan,"..."

Why did he have to look everywhere, it was either Qingxin Garden or the Yan family?

So... .. The little cannon fodder was far away in the horizon, right in front of his eyes ? ?

“Are you sure?” He asked in disbelief.

“ABSOLUTELY NOT!” The technician directly put the image of the black SUV on the big screen, and the top left corner of the image even captured the huge ferris wheel... ..

Who else but Yan Jun could build a ferris wheel in his backyard?

Fang Shaoan slammed the table and jumped up in excitement. He grabbed his phone and dialed Yan Jun’s number.

“Du... Du... “

The call went through, but no one picked up!

“Why didn’t you pick up? Seriously!” Fang Shaoan was so anxious that his hair almost fell out. After hanging up, he called Xia Jinqi’s phone.

“Du... Du... “

She didn’t pick up the phone either!

“AHHHHH!” Fang Shaoan was so anxious that he messed up his hair. “WHAT THE HELL! She didn’t pick up the phone at such a critical time! ! “

After shouting excitedly, he grabbed his coat and personally made a trip to the Yan family!

Such exciting news, he had to personally tell Yan Jun!

Maybe... .. Maybe the little cannon fodder was at the Yan family right now ! !

And the two pitiful cell phones that were still vibrating were lying next to each other on the Sofa in the living room... ..

Unlike the empty living room, the kitchen was busy at the moment.

DASHU handed the chicken drumstick to Liu Juan and then bounced back the way he came.

However, when he walked to the corner of the courtyard, he found that Yu Han was nowhere to be seen.

At first, he was stunned. He thought that his brother was playing hide-and-seek with him, so he smiled and called out, “little brother? “

“...”what answered him was silence.

There was nothing around him.

Only a dog curled up on the ground looked up at Dashu.

“little brother?” DASHU called out again. At this moment, his voice was trembling.

“...”there was still no reply.

Big Tree was completely flustered.

His little brother had always been very obedient. Wherever he was told to play, he would always be there. He had never run around.

This time... ..

“little brother!” He shouted loudly. Thick fog quickly gathered in his bright black eyes. The tip of his nose also became sour. His entire person was surrounded by a great sense of fear!

It seemed that he had lost his little brother...
