

Tick Me 191

Chapter 191: Thank you for once loving me

Just like how Fang Shaoan had once loved her deeply, Julie was still as charming as ever.

The way she held the cigarette in her left hand, the way she twisted her waist as she walked, and the way she looked at him, the way she looked at him, the way she was filled with love.

Everything had never changed.

It was just that at this moment, what had changed was only the human heart.

Fang Shaoan walked around her and went straight to the sofa to sit down. He raised his hand to loosen his collar, and his heart instantly became agitated.

“Don’t call me Shaoan.” He was still angry.

Even if he didn’t love her anymore, the humiliation he had suffered in the past couldn’t be erased.

Plus, this time, he wouldn’t forget the way she looked when she was with Fatty Hua.

Julie’s face was obviously stiff when she heard that. Then, she smiled brightly. “I told you, a man’s love is shallow. When he loves you, he wants to die. When he doesn’t love you, he doesn’t even bother to look at you.”

Her tone was full of contempt, but there was sadness mixed in.

Thirty years of life had taught her many truths, especially in men.

Fang Shaoan looked up at her, his gaze frighteningly cold.

The love he had once had was so shallow in her words.

He really felt that he was not worth it.

His years of sincerity had been fed to the F * * King Dog!

“You came here just to say these things?” He was a little impatient, but he did not say anything to hurt her. “stand up for FAT UNCLE HUA?”

Even if he did not love her anymore, he should still have the last bit of respect.

When she said this, Julie’s eyes darkened. “Uncle Hua is no longer here. He provoked someone he should not have provoked.”

No one told her about uncle Hua’s final fate, but she had already guessed it.

Qi Maolin had looked for her. He said that he would let her live on account of Fang Shaoan, but he wanted her to get out of Las Vegas from now on. Moreover, whenever Xia Jinqi appeared in the future, she had to avoid her!

Only now did she know why even Fang Shaoan had to be polite to that woman!

So it turned out that she was from the Yan family... ..

Even though she had lived abroad all year round, she still knew about the Yan family's famous reputation!

Fang Shaoan did not know about Fatty Hua, but after hearing what Julie said, he immediately understood.

That was true. Those who dared to provoke Yan Jun were looking for death.

But... ..

Fang Shaoan looked up at Julie and said indifferently, "you can go. I'll plead for you. They won't do anything to you."

He could roughly guess why Julie would suddenly come looking for him.

Fatty Hua was no longer around, so she probably would not have a good time.

Julie did not expect him to say such words. Even though she had been so resolute towards him, he was still... .. Willing to protect her ...

She couldn't help but tear up.

Enough, enough, that was enough.

"thank you." She took a deep breath and tried her best to maintain her charm. She took a step forward and hugged Fang Shaoan. "thank you for loving me. Shaoan, forget about me. You're suitable for a better girl."

After saying that, she stopped looking at Fang Shaoan. She turned around and left the room in her high heels.

The moment she closed the door behind her, she cried.

This man made her heart hurt so much... ..

She left her hometown at the age of 13 and sneaked into Las Vegas. First, she washed dishes in the kitchen, then she met her first boyfriend.

She thought she had the whole world, but that man had tricked her into the yan ballroom.

After that, the fall and depravity made her numb and empty her heart.

She swore that she would never fall in love with anyone again.

And she had done it.

That was why when Fang Shaoan chased her and begged her back then, she never put her heart into it...

...

Chapter 192: focused peeping

It was fake not to be tempted.

But she knew that with her status and experience, how could she be worthy of the elegant Fang Shaoan?

From the beginning, she knew that a lowly person like her was not qualified to stay by Fang Shaoan's side.

Since it was destined that there would be no good result, she would rather choose to never have it!

Raising her hand to wipe away the tears at the corner of her eyes, Julie took a deep breath and tried hard to smile.

Goodbye, Shaoan.

This time, it's really goodbye... ..

I wish you happiness.

Silently praying, Julie once again opened her straight legs and continued walking on the path she should have taken.

The gorgeous light shone on her body, and for a moment, it was incomparably resplendent... ..

She knew that no matter how Fang Shaoan looked at her, she knew that this matter was the best decision she had ever made in her life.

She would not deceive herself or delay others.

But this man called Fang Shaoan would forever be engraved in the depths of her heart.

He would never be forgotten.

"..."

The sound of footsteps gradually getting further and further away from the door stimulated Fang Shaoan's eardrums.

He gritted his teeth and chased after Fang Shaoan for two steps. He quickly put one hand on the door handle and forcefully twisted it down!

"CLICK!" The door lock was opened.

However, a long time had passed, but the door had never been pushed open.

Fang Shaoan was like a stone statue, petrified on the spot.

His hand lost strength, and the door was locked again.

He clenched his teeth slightly, and even his breathing became heavy... ..

What did he want to do after he chased her out?

He didn't even know himself.

Was He going to repeat the humbleness from three years ago, or was he going to repeat the indifference from three years later?

So what if he was deeply in love?

He was destined to have no fate, and there was no result.

His back pressed against the hard and cold door as it slowly slid down.

He closed his eyes, and a line of clear tears streaked across his face.

It was time to move on.

Fang Shaoan, let yourself go.

You still have a long way to go in the future... ..

..

The Sun rose very high, and Xia Jinqi woke up leisurely from the conversation.

“okay, I’ll bring her over later. ”

“We’ll return to Rao city later. ”

“Yes, we’ll go straight to the Xia family’s house. ”

Xia Jinqi was confused by the content of the conversation. After all, she had just woken up.

Subconsciously, she opened her bright eyes and looked in the direction of the voice.

She saw Yan Jun standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling glass window with a 120-degree view. He was naked and his back was facing her. There was only a white towel wrapped around his slim waist.

Obviously, he had just showered and seemed to be on the phone with someone.

The golden sunlight shone on his body through the glass. He was indescribably tall and strong.

Xia Jinqi blinked. She didn’t intend to get up immediately. Instead, she took advantage of the time when she slowly regained consciousness to carefully admire the picture of a handsome man getting out of the shower in front of her.

Although this guy looked quite thin on the outside, he was actually lean and lean. When he took off his clothes, he was quite handsome!

Moreover, his arm strength was also very strong. He actually carried her directly last night... ..

Cough, cough, what are you thinking about?

Xia Jinqi hurriedly interrupted the picture in the mind that children should not, concentrate on peeping.

Yan Jun hung up the phone and stood by the window for a while.

Body, just met Xia Jinqi some absent-minded eyes.

He softened his eyes, went to the bedside, leaned over and kissed her forehead, "awake?"

With a smile on his lips, he just looked at her quietly, doing nothing and feeling better unconsciously.

"En." Xia Jinqi hurriedly nods, can not help blushing, "I seem to hear you say, want to go out later?"

Chapter 193: how lonely it was to be alone

Author: Su Zhishui MACHINE TRANSLATION

"I'll take you to see a psychologist. He was my classmate when I was studying abroad," Yan Jun replied quickly. They had been out for quite some time. Before returning to Rao city, he had to take her to see if her insomnia had really recovered.

What was going on with the small bottle of vitamin C that she had brought with her as sleeping pills.

Xia Jinqi, "..."

They had actually arranged for a doctor for her?

"actually, I don't have much insomnia these days. I feel like I sleep very soundly every day!" Xia Jinqi quickly opened her mouth, wanting to prove her health.

She felt that she had recovered very well recently.

"There's no harm in going to take a look." Yan Jun firmly denied her escape and pulled her out of bed.

The two of them changed their clothes and had breakfast. Then, they set off for Carson City, the capital of Nevada.

Fang Shaoan also had two huge dark circles under his eyes as he shamelessly followed them.

He originally wanted to share a car with Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun, but before he could get in the car, he was driven to another car by Yan Jun... ..

"Second Young Master Yan, can you still have some brotherly love? How lonely would it be for me to sit alone?" Fang Shaoan pinched the space between his brows, his face haggard.

Wasn't he the one who needed comfort and care now?

When Yan Jun heard that, his dark eyes stopped at his pale face for a moment, his brows slightly furrowed.

Indeed, after not seeing him for a night, Fang Shaoan had become much more haggard.

Fang Shaoan saw that he was looking at him fixedly, thinking that he finally knew how much he cared for him, so he quickly moved his handsome face forward. "Look at me, I'm so weak, it's the time when I need humane care, you..."

"Go to sleep if you're tired." Yan Jun only threw a cold sentence over, then got into the car and closed the door with a bang.

The rest of Fang Shaoan was petrified.

Damn, he knew it. Second Young Master Yan had always valued relationships over friends!

Shaking his head, he yawned and went to the car behind obediently.

Sigh, a lonely young man... ..

When Xia Jinqi turned around, she happened to see Fang Shaoan getting into the car helplessly.

“What’s wrong with him? Why does he look so miserable? He doesn’t have much energy left...” Xia Jinqi was a little worried about Fang Shaoan. She had never seen him in such a depressed state.

However, Yan Jun seemed to have seen through everything. “I didn’t sleep well last night. ”

“Oh...” Xia Jinqi nodded just now and didn’t ask any more questions.

Yan Jun knew that Julie had gone to look for Fang Shaoan last night.

Ever since Xia Jinqi wreaked havoc in the casino, he had an extra thought. He got someone to keep an eye on fatty Hua and Julie.

Fatty Hua’s fate was needless to say, but Julie didn’t move an inch.

It was all for the sake of Fang Shaoan.

According to the person who followed him, Julie came out of Fang Shaoan’s room less than three minutes after Fang Shaoan returned to the hotel.

When she left, she first cried for a while, then she recovered her confident and arrogant smile and left arrogantly.

Fang Shaoan did not chase after her.

Three years ago, the image of Fang Shaoan Dying for Julie was still vivid in his mind... ..

But this time, he just did not look good.

If that was the case, that kid should have really let go.

Bringing him out this time was indeed worth it.

..

Yan Jun’s psychologist classmate happened to be teaching at the school recently. After Fang Shaoan got off the car, he did not want to go with her, so he simply stayed at the school gate and watched the beautiful women from various countries coming and going. It was a joy!

This was the life that he should have.

Yan Jun brought Xia Jinqi to the psychological treatment room.

Chapter 194: was too tiring recently

The assistant said that the professor had gone to class and class was over soon. Xia Jinqi waited in the treatment room.

Out of boredom, she took the opportunity to visit this not-so-small treatment room.

The scale and layout were similar to those in the country, but the equipment was more numerous and more novel.

In particular, there were two photo frames placed on a desk in the center of the treatment room.

One photo was of a single man.

A fair and clean boy with blue pupils like the sky and dazzling golden hair.

It was not difficult to tell that he was a Caucasian.

In the other photo frame was a photo of three people.

On the left was the handsome Caucasian boy, and in the middle was a beautiful Asian girl with pure and charming skin.

The person standing on the right was actually Yan Jun... ..

It should be a photo from high school, right?

He looked like he was in his teens.

At that time, Yan Jun looked tender and tender, the kind that could come out of water with a pinch!

“Are these two your good friends?” Xia Jinqi pointed at the photo frame and hurriedly asked Yan Jun as if she had discovered a new continent.

Suddenly, she was so attentive and surprised about everything related to Yan Jun... ..

Yan Jun heard this and turned around to take a look. He nodded slightly and said, “yes.”

As the two of them were talking, a man in a neat suit walked in from outside the treatment room.

He had handsome features, Deep Blue Eyes, and a tall and well-proportioned figure.

One could still vaguely find the immature mark on the photo between his brows and eyes.

The moment the man entered the room and saw Yan Jun, he immediately smiled and went forward to shake hands with Yan Jun. “Hey, man!”

Yan Jun also smiled. After shaking hands with him, they even lightly bumped on each other’s shoulders.

The way men exchanged blows was sometimes quite simple and crude.

Xia Jinqi watched from the side and couldn’t help but be a little curious.

She thought that Yan Jun had always been this high and mighty since he was young... ..

She didn’t expect that when he met his old classmates, he would also act so amiably.

At this moment, Yan Jun turned around and introduced the blond man in front of her.

“This is Ben. ”

“Hello. ” Xia Jinqi greeted Ben with a smile. She did not shake his hand or hug him.

Ben sized Xia Jinqi up and down and could not help but exclaim, “How beautiful! ”

Xia Jinqi was a little embarrassed by his words. “thank you. ”

Seeing this, Yan Jun’s eyes also contained a smile and he was very proud.

His wife was naturally beautiful!

“You guys chat. I’ll go out first. ” Yan Jun did not disturb her anymore and turned around to leave.

Before coming, he had carefully talked to Ben about Xia Jinqi’s situation. She was actually here for treatment, so he naturally could not be present to watch.

After Yan Jun left, Ben invited Xia Jinqi to sit down on an extremely comfortable chair and began a conversation.

“I heard that you take sleeping pills all year round? Can you show me what kind of medicine it is? ” Ben spoke fluent English, coupled with his handsome British face, just looking at it was very pleasing to the eye!

Xia Jinqi took out the small medicine that she carried with her and handed it to Ben. “I started taking the medicine three years ago, but I stopped recently, and I slept very well. ”

Fortunately, she had studied hard these years, so it was not a problem for her to talk to him.

“Did anything special happen recently? ” Ben quietly poured out the pills in the small medicine. From the surface, they looked similar to ordinary sleeping pills.

The main ingredient of these pills was vitamin C, and Yan Jun had told him about it.

The key was that they were still not sure if Xia Jinqi knew about this.

Xia Jinqi was stumped by the question. She thought about it and could only answer awkwardly, “maybe... I’ve been too tired recently...”

Chapter 195: had been hypnotized by someone before

“Is that so? ” Ben smiled faintly and did not refute Xia Jinqi.

If an INSOMNIAC could fall asleep just because she was tired, then the world would not have produced sleeping pills, right?

To be able to fall asleep normally meant that she did not have insomnia at all.

However, she needed to take this kind of medicine to maintain a healthy and normal state for a long time... ..

Xia Jinqi looked at Ben's half-smiling expression and frowned slightly.

When she was wandering around the treatment room just now, she found that there were all sorts of trophies and certificates of honor on two walls. They should all be Ben's, right?

This meant that he was very capable personally. Otherwise, Yan Jun wouldn't have brought her here.

But... .. From the looks of it, Ben didn't seem to be asking any specific questions. Instead, he was paying more attention to the small medicine that she had brought ? ?

Just as she was feeling surprised, Ben suddenly picked up a spoon and lightly touched the belly of the Porcelain Coffee Cup. A clear and melodious sound suddenly rang out.

Xia Jinqi's ears buzzed, and her eyes flickered.

Only then did Ben speak thoughtfully, "can you tell me about your family? Are GRANDPA and grandma still around? "

The topic seemed to have diverged far away.

Xia Jinqi thought for a moment before replying, "my grandparents have passed away. "

"What about your parents? Who Do you like better? "

"..."Xia Jinqi didn't speak for a long time.

Both of them were the same to her.

When she was a child, she could only see her father a few times a year. He would always leave early and return late, and even more often, he wouldn't return home for a few months.

Her mother spent a lot of time at home, but she was unusually strict with her.

Ben Waited for a while but didn't get an answer from Xia Jinqi. He directly skipped the topic and asked, "why did you suddenly start taking sleeping pills three years ago? Is your illness getting worse? "

Xia Jinqi, "..."

Hearing this question, she suddenly shut her lips tightly and didn't want to say another word.

Ben Frowned and looked at her. He raised the spoon again and knocked on the Coffee Cup.

"Ding Ling..." after a sound, Xia Jinqi suddenly closed her eyes like a doll and lay on the sofa.

Her consciousness was completely sealed. Her subconscious had long been controlled by Ben.

Ben Put down the spoon and took out a notebook. As he flipped through it, he asked Xia Jinqi a question.

"Tell me, what important thing happened three years ago? "

"... three years ago, I..."Xia Jinqi closed her eyes, but she began to speak clearly ...

And she herself was completely unaware of these conversations.

What she didn't know was that when Ben knocked on the Coffee Cup with the spoon for the first time, she had already been forced into the hypnosis stage.

Ben was good at Lucid hypnosis. He could hypnotize a completely awake person in simple conversations or even in daily life.

Ben Had discussed this treatment method with Yan Jun early in the morning. If he wanted to know Xia Jinqi's heart, he had to use hypnosis.

"..."

Yan Jun waited outside the door for about an hour before Ben pushed the door open and walked out.

"How is it?" Yan Jun frowned. When he asked Ben about the results, he glanced at the treatment room.

Ben closed the door directly and held a notebook. With a dark expression, he pulled Yan Jun to the corridor in the distance. "The situation isn't too optimistic."

"What do you mean?" YannJunn immediately became anxious.

It didn't look like Ben was joking.

Ben was silent for a moment, but he still spoke in disbelief "She was hypnotized before. And I need time to identify the pills she brought. I've read the report you brought, but it's not perfect. In other words, the composition of the medicine is not just vitamin C."

Chapter 196: "I'm sorry, I should have found you earlier."

Ben Was the authority in this area, so Yan Jun didn't have any doubts.

Moreover, the ingredient identification he had done in the country at that time might not have been perfect for the sake of efficiency.

Since that was the case, it wasn't a big deal to let Ben examine it more carefully.

However... ..

"She was hypnotized before?" Yan Jun was more concerned about this now. "She's also a psychotherapist?"

If that was the case, then there was nothing wrong with it.

Before this, Xia Jinqi must have received other treatments. Otherwise, she wouldn't have gotten so many prescription drugs.

"No." Ben Shook his head with unusual determination. "A normal therapist wouldn't use hypnosis to tell her that she has insomnia."

In other words, Xia Jinqi herself wasn't sick. After she was hypnotized, she used her subconscious mind to tell her that she had insomnia.

Then, her subconscious mind constantly transmitted this command to her brain: You have insomnia, so you can't sleep. After taking the medicine, you will fall asleep.

That's why Xia Jinqi became dependent on the medicine... ..

From this point of view, the medicine she took shouldn't be sleeping pills.

In that case, the medicine must have other uses.

Hearing this, Yan Jun was silent for a long time.

He did not expect things to be so complicated.

Ben's voice sounded again, "perhaps, you should first find out who gave her this medicine."

"I know." Yan Jun's face darkened. He would naturally investigate.

Who Was it that hid behind the scenes and used such dirty tricks to hurt his wife... ..

Seeing Yan Jun's frown and worried look, Ben suddenly sighed, "now I know why you suddenly got married. You must love her very much, right? At that time, I thought you would marry Wen Qing. Do you still have contact with her now?"

Wen Qing used to be Ben's schoolmate.

In the photo of the three of them that Xia Jinqi saw in the treatment room, the girl standing in the middle was Wen Qing.

Yan Jun shook his head slightly. It had been a long time since he had heard that person's name, and he was still not used to it.

Seeing this, Ben did not ask any more questions. He changed the topic to Xia Jinqi. "She should be waking up soon. You should go in and take a look. I won't send you guys off. I'll tell you immediately after I've researched the composition of the drug."

After saying that, Ben Patted Yan Jun's shoulder and turned around to leave.

He had a class in a while, so he had no choice but to leave first.

After Ben Left, Yan Jun regained his composure and walked into the treatment room.

The Room was unusually quiet.

When he walked in, he unconsciously glanced at Ben's desk.

The picture of the three of them was still standing there quietly.

Too much time had passed. It was so long that he almost couldn't remember what he had experienced in high school?

"UGH..." a Moan came from the SOFA, waking up Yan Jun's lost consciousness.

He quickly turned around and walked to Xia Jinqi's side.

She was still lying on the SOFA, sleeping with her eyes closed.

She did not know if she had dreamt of something, but her eyebrows were furrowed, and her expression was slightly pained.

Yan Jun looked at her, and a trace of pity flashed through his eyes.

He half knelt down, and his warm and wide palm covered her slightly cold little hand that was tightly holding onto the corner of her clothes.

The Yan family's crown prince, who was usually high and mighty like an emperor, at this moment, did not put on any airs at all. He just quietly stood by Xia Jinqi's side.

The sunlight outside the house shone in, coincidentally enveloping the two figures together.

"during these years when I wasn't around, what exactly did you experience?"

His heavy tone contained an indescribable sense of self-blame and love.

I'm sorry. I should have found you earlier.

Chapter 197: how much more are you hiding from me?

Everything about her is so mysterious.

And behind this mystery, is it purely a coincidence, or is someone deliberately arranging it?

No matter who it is, whoever dares to secretly plot against his wife behind his back must be prepared to pay the most severe price!

At that moment, Yan Jun's face was gloomy, and his bloodthirsty eyes were as cold as an ice cellar!

Xia Jinqi seemed to have sensed something. She rolled her eyes and slowly woke up.

In her confusion, she saw Yan Jun's familiar handsome face.

"Yan Jun?" Xia Jinqi sat up. At first glance, she saw the man's taut jaw and the sadness in his eyes. Suddenly, she reached out and gently caressed his cheek. "What's wrong?"

Yan Jun conveniently covered her hand that was caressing her cheek. His phoenix-like eyes were as deep as pools, and they were filled with tenderness. "How much more are you hiding from me?"

"Ah?" Xia Jinqi didn't know what was happening in front of her, nor did she know what Yan Jun meant by saying this suddenly?

What was she hiding from him?

This... ..

There were so many things that could be said. The problem was that after she said it, she would lose her little life, right?

She could only smile sheepishly and pretend to be confused. "What's wrong with you? Why did you become so strange?"

Hearing this, Yan Jun realized that he had lost his composure. He lowered his eyes and stood up. "It's nothing."

When he opened his mouth, his voice was a little hoarse.

It was rare for him to be so emotional... ..

But unknowingly, he always revealed his true nature in front of her.

When Xia Jinqi heard this, she let out an 'oh' and looked around. Ben's figure was long gone.

"I. . . Could it be that I fell asleep while receiving treatment?" Rubbing her temples, Xia Jinqi thought for a long time, but she really couldn't remember anything ...

"En," Yan Jun answered and pulled her up. "since you're awake, let's go."

"Oh..." Xia Jinqi followed obediently and looked around. After making sure that she didn't see Ben, she smiled awkwardly and said, "I feel a little sorry for your friend. I didn't expect that I actually fell asleep!"

Xia Jinqi blamed herself. She had no idea that she was hypnotized and fell asleep. She thought that she was in a daze.

When Yan Jun turned his eyes to look at her, he happened to see her drooping her little head. Her face was full of self-blame.

"There's a flight back to Rao city at night. Do you have any other places that you particularly want to go?" Yan Jun suddenly asked.

Even he himself didn't notice that his tone of voice had become more gentle.

When Xia Jinqi heard this, she remembered that it was supposed to be their honeymoon. In the end, Yan Jun didn't spend much time with her, and he had to go back so soon... ..

"Have you finished your business?" She suddenly remembered that Yan Jun didn't come to Las Vegas to discuss business with Lego, right?

No wonder when he heard Ji Xinyu's suggestion to come here for their honeymoon, he agreed without saying anything.

"that depends on your opinion, Madam." Yan Jun curled his lips and looked at her with a meaningful smile.

What he had done before was to cooperate with Lego.

Now that he knew that the big boss of Lego was by his side, he naturally had to coax this little girl first.

Otherwise, who knew how much she would have to raise the financing price by the next time they met!

She was really a difficult woman to deal with.

Xia Jinqi, on the other hand, felt goosebumps all over her body from his laughter... ..

Ever since last night, she had felt that there was something wrong with this guy.

Could it be that he had noticed something?

That was impossible... ..

Yesterday, she had clearly hidden it so perfectly!

Chapter 198: Even if you like it, you don't have to have it

She cleared her throat and looked around. She suggested, "why don't we walk around here?"

She wasn't familiar with other places. The university was in Rao city, so she couldn't help but be curious about other countries' universities.

"That's fine too." Yan Jun nodded. He thought that since she didn't want to go too far, it wouldn't be too bad to walk around here.

It was time for a break. Young faces came and went on campus. Their skin colors were different. Some were in groups of twos and threes, and some were alone... ..

It was a typical North American building with strong ethnic colors.

Xia Jinqi chose a good place with green trees and looked at it with great interest.

"Wen Jing once had the chance to visit Harvard for a few days. When I heard her talk about it, I was so envious!"

"Do you want to go?" Yan Jun saw the obvious expectation and desire between her brows.

There was rarely anything that could make her show such an expression.

Except for the last time in Grandma's courtyard... .. When she saw Qingxin Garden surrounded by clouds, she was also so envious ...

However, Xia Jinqi shook her head. She turned around and walked backward, shaking her head at Yan Jun. "sometimes, you don't have to have someone you like! It's just a simple yearning! I'm still suitable to stay in Rao city. There are my friends and my home there... "

As she spoke, she walked cheerfully, jumping up and down in joy.

When Yan Jun saw how happy she was, his thin lips curled into a faint smile.

"You've improved. You can talk sense now. "

Xia Jinqi resisted the urge to roll her eyes. She turned around and no longer looked at him. "TCH! "

This man!

IT'S SO UNROMANTIC!

POUTING, Xia Jinqi no longer talked to him, but focused on appreciating the surrounding scenery.

Yan Jun also smiled, see and her side by side and walk, suddenly moved, stretched out his hand, want to hold her.

But Xia Jinqi just turned to look at the grass side of the couple sitting, staggered away from Yan Jun's hand.

The two people next to the grass are head to head, do not know what to look at fun things, the two faces are full of smiles... ..

What a blessing. They must be in love?

Yan Jun's hand hanging in the air, slightly stiff, had to take back.

He gave a dry cough with an unnatural expression.

Ben is his wife, they have the most intimate relationship in the world, holding hands is the most normal thing.

How come at this point, he is like a young boy in love, do not know where to start?

Heartbeat, slow some acceleration, dopamine quietly began to secrete... ..

After hesitating for a moment, he stretched out his hand again. However, due to the angle, Xia Jinqi just happened to raise her hand, so she only touched the back of her hand lightly.

However, it was only a light touch, and Xia Jinqi immediately felt as if she had been electrocuted... ..

She withdrew her gaze and quietly looked at him beside her.

Just now... .. could it be that he wanted to hold her hand ? ?

HMM... .. Or perhaps, she felt wrong ? If she thought too much, she would be laughed at again ...

Even though she thought about it, Xia Jinqi still lowered her hand and stopped looking around. She focused on waiting for Yan Jun's action.

Because of their attention, the two people's footsteps also overlapped.

Yan Jun clenched his fists. Then, without hesitation, he directly held the small hand hanging by his side.

It was slightly cold.

His wide palm wrapped around the unbelievably soft small hand. Only then was a certain part of his heart completely filled.

Xia Jinqi lowered her head shyly and didn't resist. She let him hold her hand and didn't even need to look at the road. It was as if as long as she was by his side, she didn't have to be afraid of anything.

Chapter 199: when I fell in love with you

He was always like this. He approached her little by little, and even a little skin-to-skin contact could easily make her heart beat faster and dazzle her.

When she looked down, she just happened to see his broad hand holding hers... ..

The palms were facing each other. The warmth and firmness seemed to warm her heart along with the flowing blood.

As she looked at it, she couldn't help but laugh.

It came from the bottom of her heart, but even she didn't notice it. Unconsciously, she laughed so blissfully.

This was a feeling that she had never experienced before. It was like getting the candy that she wanted most when she was young. When she put it in her mouth, her heart almost melted.

The edge of Yan Jun's lips, which had always been cold and thin, was also overflowing with a smile that was like a spring breeze.

At this moment, he was no longer the cold and ruthless King of Hell in the eyes of the world.

He was just an ordinary person who had his heart moved. He was holding the hand of the girl he loved and strolling around the lush campus, enjoying the joy of his heartbeat and abnormal excitement.

It was the beginning of summer. The campus was surrounded by greenery, and it had an irresistible beauty.

The warm sunlight passed through the dense branches, casting spots of light on the shoulders, faces, and hair of the students who were walking back and forth under the trees. ...

Occasionally, a breeze would lead the leaves to dance, and the music of "Sha Sha..." would be born spontaneously.

Even though no one spoke during the journey, as if they were only concerned about the road under their feet, both of them were immersed in this incomparable beautiful feeling.

It was as if this road would never end, as if time would end at this moment. They would hold each other's hands like this, forever walking on forever... ..

How lucky.

When I fell in love with you, you just happened to fall in love with me.

..

Fang Shaoan was exhausted from waiting at the school gate.

At first, he was busy admiring the various beauties, but looking at them made him feel hungry!

He was in no mood to eat when he woke up in the morning. It was already afternoon, but he still hadn't eaten anything!

He did not know what the two of them were doing in school. The old man had not come out for a long time!

He was hungry... ..

When he came out, he did not bring his wallet. This place was not like Rao Cheng. There was no one who could rush over to help him clean up his mess with just a phone call!

Out of boredom, he simply found a shady and quiet place and opened the game.

His best teammates were not online. Thinking about how often it was, Rao Cheng should still be in the middle of the night at this time, right?

He directly clicked on a match, a four-person Group.

Just as he entered the game, Fang Shaoan glanced at the name of the matched teammate.

First floor: Wandering Leaf. This was Fang Shaoan's online name, pretending to be awesome

Second floor: Young Man.

Third Floor: Ran Ran loves to laugh.

Fourth Floor: The Panting S.

Seeing the name on the fourth floor, Fang Shaoan could not help but tremble!

This... Wasn't this the teammate who called him trash yesterday? The one in the double row??

F*CK It was really fate, and he was matched again today?!!

Fang Shaoan rubbed his fists and immediately focused!

"HMPH! If second young master Yan hadn't gone crazy that day, would I have lost? Today, I have to show my true strength and dazzle your eyes, okay!"

However, it seemed that the whimpering s did not recognize that the first floor was the cheat from yesterday!

She still felt strange. Why was this [wandering leaf] always following behind her?

Then, an even stranger thing happened... ..

She searched her equipment properly. Not long after, [wandering leaf] ran over and gave her the survival supplies that he had picked up.

She picked them up inexplicably and thought to herself, is this guy so rich Is he giving the extra stuff to his teammates?

Chapter 200: was scolded twice by the same woman

But after a while, he ran over again and threw a bunch of things to her.

Opening it, she saw that they were all superior goods!

What did this kid mean?

You said you didn't want to pick them up, but it would be a waste to leave them here!

You said you wanted to pick them up... .. Why does it feel weird ? ?

Taking advantage of his teammates?

After thinking about it, the panting s gave the sniper rifle he had just found to that [ wandering leaf ] .

Their game was a shooting game. 100 people were online at the same time, searching for goods in different areas on a map, including guns and medicine. They defeated their opponents, and the last survivor won.

It was easy to imagine how important guns were, not to mention the sniper rifle, which was already scarce.

Fang Shaoan glanced at it, but did not take it. He carried a rifle on his back and walked around happily.

Panting, S: Is this a fool?

Soon, 20 minutes passed, and only 15 of the 100 people were left. It was about to be a showdown!

Fang Shaoan rolled up his sleeves, ready to perform well in front of this girl and redeem himself!

Originally, no one turned on the microphone to speak, but at the moment of the decisive battle, there were at least two groups of people surrounding them. On the second floor, [ Kongfu ] suggested that everyone turn on the microphone to communicate.

Soon, a system notification popped up: [ Ran Ai Xiao ] had turned on the microphone, and [ Moaning S ] had turned on the microphone.

Fang Shaoan did not move. He was making a racket here and did not bring earplugs when he came out.

Ran Ai Xiao said, "be careful, the people on the left are coming. "

Kongfu said, "you follow the first floor on the fourth floor. We will go over immediately to provide support! "

Moaning s said, "okay, I will go look for the first floor. "

Fang Shaoan was on the roof and quietly killed the enemy that was attacking from afar.

Not long after, moaning s ran over and hid in the house with Fang Shaoan.

Who knew that an enemy would run over with the panting s? Fang Shaoan saw it and fired a few shots, accidentally injuring the panting S.

The enemy was dead, and the panting s also fell.

Fang Shaoan quickly went to save her. When he did, the panting s opened her mouth and asked, "why did you hit me? "

"I wasn't careful! " Fang Shaoan blurted out. Then he realized that he didn't turn on the microphone, so he turned on the microphone.

He was about to explain his mistake just now when a couple who were quarreling passed by him. The boy shook off the girl's hand and yelled, "SHUT UP BITCH! " SHUT UP BITCH

Fang Shaoan was slightly stunned. Before he could react, a crisp female voice came from the game mic, "are you crazy? F * CK! "

After saying that, the female character in the game stood up and shot at Fang Shaoan!

Then, the screen in front of Fang Shaoan turned gray!

System notification: YOU HAVE DIED IN BATTLE 5 seconds later, Watch your teammate's screen!

Fang Shaoan,"..."

He was killed by his teammate?

Moreover, he was scolded twice by the same woman?

Excuse me?

The other two teammates were also dumbfounded. What was going on?

Ran Ran loved to laugh. "sister from the fourth floor, don't be angry. The three of us are having fun! "

"He deserves to be beaten to death. "

Everyone heard that it was Fang Shaoan's Mai who had scolded him first, so Fang Shaoan naturally did not care.

Fang Shaoan's hand, which was holding his phone, trembled!

The corner of his eyes twitched violently twice... ..

He just wanted to ask, who had he offended?

He looked up with tears in his eyes at the Caucasian young man who was still arguing with his girlfriend in the distance. He felt like crying, but no tears came out.

Dude, can you come back and explain it to me?

I'M INNOCENT!!!
