

Trick Me 1911

Chapter 1911: you can't bear to part with it?

Our grandfather is old, and there are people around him who are slandering him. Many things are done too excessively, and it will attract a lot of enemies.

The new regime hasn't been completely established yet, and our Su family is too outstanding. In the end, we will only be hated by others, and it will be a matter of time before we are destroyed.

Huo Ting isn't wrong. The Huo family's hundred-year-old foundation can not be overstepped by us, but since he said that he was willing to balance the two families for you, then he will never go back on his word.

Let us men do the war matters. You go abroad and stay for a period of time. Big Brother promised you that when you come back, everything will be taken care of."

So many things had happened to the SU family recently. Although Su Zhihang and Su Zhilian didn't say anything on the surface, they had investigated the matter very clearly in private.

Grandfather doted on fourth aunt, and fourth aunt hated the Huo family. She was even more jealous that Xiang Xiang could marry Huo Ting, so she instigated grandfather to compete with the huο family.

It was right to strive for the upper hand, but one could not overestimate oneself.

The Huο family was on equal footing with the long family, and the Su family was once a subordinate of the long family. Over the years, in addition to the support of old general long, grandfather huο had also helped a lot.

Now that the Su family had some family assets, they wanted to turn their back and bite their benefactor?

What was grandfather thinking about such an ungrateful thing? He actually wanted to do this? ! !

To be fair, grandfather was so old, and he could live for another day. Now that things had turned out this way, it was likely that he would lose his integrity.

Su Zhihang didn't want to see him make one wrong step after another.

Therefore, he planned to reorganize the chaotic wind of the Su family from the inside.

He didn't want his pure-hearted sister to see such a bloody scene, nor did he want someone with a vicious heart to take the opportunity to attack his sister.

Sending her away for a short time was the wisest thing to do.

Su Xiangxiang still wanted to shake her head and refuse, but she saw an unprecedented firmness in her big brother's eyes... ..

She had reason to believe that if she didn't nod her head now, her big brother would probably knock her out and tie her up on the plane to send her away.

Her Big Brother always said that.

“then... What about mom and dad?” She asked with red eyes ...

“I’ll make the arrangements,” Su Zhihang answered without hesitation.

In fact, he had already made the arrangements two days ago. If Su Zhilian hadn’t said a few more words tonight, Su Xiangxiang wouldn’t have found out so quickly.

Once they sent Xiangxiang away, it would inevitably attract the attention of some people with good intentions. His plans couldn’t be hidden anymore.

Seeing that Su Xiangxiang didn’t speak for a long time, Su Zhihang asked again, “when has big brother ever lied to you?”

Naturally, he didn’t.

Since young, big brother had promised her and never went back on his word.

But... ...

She was still a little worried. “Can I go and say goodbye to Huo Ting?”

They had agreed before. They couldn’t just leave like this without saying a word, right?

Su Zhihang was slightly stunned. Then, he smiled and scratched the tip of her nose. “You can’t bear to leave? As expected, you’re a silly girl in love.”

“Big Brother!” Su Xiangxiang’s face was so red that it was about to bleed... ...

Even when she was so nervous, her big brother always made fun of her!

“Haha!” Su Zhihang laughed heartily. He was really happy for his sister.

Su Xiangxiang felt her head heat up from his laughter. She covered her face and disappeared.

Just as she ran to the door, she heard her big brother’s voice coming from behind. “I will arrange for you to meet these two days.”

There was still a thick smile in her voice. Su Xiangxiang was shy and anxious. She ran even faster... ...

Chapter 1912: scared her

After Su Xiangxiang left, the smile on Su Zhihang’s lips slowly disappeared.

The coffee in the cup had already bottomed out, but he was still as clear-headed as ever.

He called his second brother into the study, and the first thing he said was a cold question, “why did you say that in front of Xiangxiang? You scared her.”

Su Zhilian touched the back of his head. Without thinking, he knew that it must have been after he left, that girl Xiangxiang came to look for Big Brother... ...

“AHEM!” He coughed awkwardly, and Su Zhilian continued to wipe his nose, not daring to look directly into his big brother’s eyes.

In this family, he wasn’t afraid of his parents, but only his big brother... ..

“I accidentally let it slip... “

He found an excuse. Anyway, Xiang Xiang would find out about those words sooner or later. He told her earlier so that she could be mentally prepared.

Su Zhihang glanced at him indifferently and didn’t continue to blame him. He immediately changed the topic. “Xiang Xiang really likes Huo Ting. “

” ... ” Su Zhilian paused for a moment and said in a low voice, “how could it not be? The child is already pregnant... Sigh. “

His tone was very lonely, as if... .. He had been betrayed ...

His sister, who he had doted on since young, actually didn’t tell him that she was pregnant and only found out through the news media. It was really chilling!

“She’s not pregnant. ” Su Zhihang glared at him, hinting him not to say such words again.

Su Zhilian continued to be stunned. “Then what’s going on? “

If he wasn’t pregnant, then his nephew was gone?

SOB SOB SOB SOB!

Su Zhihang didn’t explain to him and only said, “since that’s the case, we’ll support Huo Ting. “

“Big Brother, you... gave up? ” Su Zhilian frowned and became serious ...

Unlike his life of waiting for death, big brother had great ambitions and revenge. He even had the position of the number one person in the military region.

But now, big brother said it so easily. Did it mean that he would no longer develop in that direction?

“En. ” Su Zhihang nodded. “Once the war starts, no matter which side of the Huo family is the loser, Xiang Xiang will be the victim. Zhihang, no matter what, we can not use Xiang Xiang’s happiness as a bet. “

Su Zhilian nodded slowly. Of course, he knew.

Since his big brother had said so, he would definitely support him to the end!

“Big Brother, what are you saying Xiangxiang has been our family’s princess since she was young. If we don’t spoil her, who will To be honest, the position of chief is really difficult to hold. Why do we have to fight for it Moreover, you and I both know the relationship between Huo Ting and Yan Jun. Huo ting must have been decided internally. If we don’t accept it, we will be going against Yan Jun.. If we go against the future president, WON’T WE BE ASKING FOR TROUBLE Moreover, the two of us are doing quite well now. There’s no need to risk our lives Moreover, when Huo Ting gets old, won’t our nephew take over It’s the same thing!”Su Zhilian was quite open-minded.

With his non-competitive personality, he lived a more carefree and happy life.

After listening to his second brother's long speech, Su Zhihang couldn't help but laugh. "You're right. "

The one who would take over in the future would also be Xiang Xiang's child. Wouldn't he still have half of the SU family's bloodline?

Moreover... ..

"Even you know such a simple truth. Why can't grandfather see through it?" Su Zhihang sighed lightly and frowned again.

The Huo family, Xia family, and Yan family were so close to each other. Judging from their hair, it was impossible for the position of military commander to fall to his family.

GRANDPA really made a mistake this time.

"THAT'S RIGHT!" Su Zhilian also said angrily, "If you ask me, the most detestable one is fourth aunt. She always talks about some evil wind in GRANDPA'S EAR! "

Chapter 1913 in this world, besides you, who else can make me tired?

After he finished speaking, he realized that something was wrong with Su Zhihang's words. Su Zhilian turned his head. "That's not right... what do you mean by 'even I know such a simple truth' ? ! "

Su Zhihang laughed out loud.

This silly younger brother.

"..."Su Zhilian stood on the spot with the corners of his eyes twitching. He felt that he had been belittled.

"Alright, it's getting late. Go back and rest. " Su Zhihang's expression did not change as he gave the order to leave.

Su Zhilian snorted and turned around to walk out of the door. However, when he stepped out of the door, he clearly heard an incomparably grave voice coming from behind him.

"The enemy this time is unprecedentedly powerful. Be careful in everything. "

Su Zhilian's body stiffened, and the blood on his face instantly disappeared.

He didn't turn around. He only gritted his teeth and finally walked away.

He knew who the 'enemy' his big brother spoke of was.

Since they didn't want to be enemies with Huo Ting, then... .. They could only become enemies with the SU clan ...

"..."

The Sky gradually brightened up.

Qingxin Garden.

Yan Jun did not sleep for a night.

It was rare for him to throw away all his work. He stayed up all night watching his wife and children.

He did not suffer from insomnia, nor did he have any other reason. He just wanted to quietly protect them and watch them. Who knew that the entire night would pass just like that.

The world in his heart had never been so peaceful before.

This was all a person could ask for in their life... ..

Perhaps it was because of Yan Jun's protection that Xia Jinqi had a good night's sleep. n--017e18In

When she woke up slightly, Yan Jun's kiss had already landed. Then, he asked softly, "you're awake? "

"En..." she answered in a daze. Xia Jinqi subconsciously crawled into his arms. "What time is it? "

"It's still early." Yan Jun smiled and kissed her forehead. He patted her shoulder lightly. "sleep a little longer? "

"En..." she answered again. She reached out and wrapped her arms around his waist, pretending to fall asleep again.

Knowing that he was beside her, she always slept so soundly.

Just before she was about to fall asleep, she suddenly thought of something and looked up at him. "Are you going to the City Hall? "

"not today." His tone was gentle. Seeing that she was as lazy as a cat, like a feather falling on her heart, it tickled her.

"Oh." She answered lazily and returned to his arms. She continued to squint her eyes. "That's great. You can rest for a day..." "

These days, she had never seen him rest.

During the day, he worked at the disaster area of the City Hall. He went home to accompany his parents and children with her. Sometimes in the middle of the night, when she was asleep, he would secretly get up to read documents.

Even though he had always been so careful to disturb her, every time she tidied up the study for him, she would see an extra coffee cup on the table. Perhaps, the position of many documents had been changed.

Yan Jun's gaze deepened, and he smiled as he whispered into her ear, "are you afraid that I'll be tired? In this world, besides you, who else can make me tired? "

A sentence full of profound meaning, coupled with his magnetic deep voice, exploded in her ear... ..

Xia Jinqi suddenly woke up. Her ears were flushed with embarrassment as she reached out to push him. "YOU'RE NOT SERIOUS! "

Naturally, this made him chuckle again. He hugged her tightly again. "My dear ah Jin, don't worry. In two years, everything will be fine. "

She struggled for a while, but she couldn't break free. Xia Jinqi didn't quite understand what he meant, so she asked, "why two years? "

Chapter 1914 are the two of you a repeater?

Yan Jun did not answer her. He just smiled, his smile full of meaning.

No matter what the reason was, he had agreed to become the president in the beginning of spring.

He could not give up halfway, so he planned to clean up the mess in Rao city within two years and create glory for Rao City again!

When everything was stable, he would retire with success. He would only be a free businessman, a man who would risk everything for his family at any time.

Xia Jinqi saw his warm smile and lost her sleepiness. Fortunately, she half sat up and asked him, "don't laugh. You haven't told me why it was two years. "

As soon as she said that, there was a sound coming from the crib next to her.

"Yiya... "

She seemed to have woken up.

Yan Jun immediately lifted the quilt and got off the bed. He walked to the crib and saw Xiao puff wake up yawning.

"You're awake? " He smiled and stroked her little face gently, afraid that he would hurt her if he used more force.

Xia Jinqi also hugged the blanket and sat up. She wanted to continue with the question that she didn't get the answer to, but Xiao puff attracted her attention.

She moved her body and seemed to have noticed Yu Han beside her. When she turned her head, she was stunned. Then, she smiled happily. "Big Brother! Big Brother! "

"..."Yu Han was already showing signs of waking up. When he was called by Xiao puff's weak voice, he woke up almost immediately.

When he opened his eyes, what he saw was a familiar little rice ball face that was about the same size as him. It was white and tender, and it had a pair of big eyes that were like pleasing black grapes.

It was his sister.

He smiled slightly, and it came from the bottom of his heart. "sister. "

"Brother! " He called out, and Xiao puff followed suit. The two of them spoke very clearly, and as they listened, it made people laugh!

“Are you two repeaters?” Xia Jinqi shook her head and got out of bed. She smiled naturally.

Yan Jun’s lips were also suffused with a smile. He looked at his daughter and felt that she was very cute, and he looked at his son and also felt that she was very cute.

The father and son changed the two children’s clothes together and fed them breakfast. Ji Xinyu and Yan Sheng came over excitedly and carried the two children away. They said that great-grandmother missed her great-grandson and wanted to bring them over to play.

Coincidentally, Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi still had things to do, so they left with the two elders.

About Twenty minutes later, Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi brought gifts and personally went to Liu Juan’s house.

Long Qingxin had always treated her subordinates well. She knew that Liu Juan’s family had several people, so she specially asked Butler Wu to arrange an independent courtyard for them. Although the area was not big, it was enough for Liu Juan’s family.

Yan Jun had informed Butler Wu in advance last night and gave Liu Juan’s family a day off. So at this time, Geng Zi and Liu Juan had been waiting early.

Seeing Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi come over with gifts, the couple panicked and didn’t know what to do. They quickly invited the two into the house. “Young Master, Young Madam, please come in! Our place is small and messy, please don’t take offense...”

Geng Zi had heard about the relationship between Yu Han and them from his wife last night. Now that he saw Yan Jun, he couldn’t help but take a second look... ..

Now he finally knew why Yan Jun looked so familiar!

Didn’t he look exactly like the kid he picked up from his house?

Why hadn’t he thought of this earlier?

Xia Jinqi placed the gift on the table and smiled. “sister-in-law Liu, this is a small gift from my husband and me.”

Chapter 1915: Thank you

Even though Liu Juan was very polite, Xia Jinqi could tell that although the room was small, it was very clean. From the clothes of the children in Liu Juan’s house, it could be seen that even though they were old, they were very clean and tidy.

“Young Madam, what are you...” Liujuan looked hesitant, as if she wanted to refuse, but she couldn’t say it out loud.

“This is to thank sister-in-law for taking care of Yu Han for such a long time. We don’t know what to give him...” Xia Jinqi shook Liu Juan’s hand and thanked her from the bottom of her heart.

If Liu Juan wasn’t so kind, if she had even the slightest bit of selfishness and sold Yu Han or simply took him far away, perhaps the outcome of the matter would have been very different from today.

“This is what we should do. Young Madam is too polite!” Liu Juan didn’t know what to say. She was in a hurry to invite Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi to sit down. “Young Master, Young Madam, please take a seat!”

As soon as Liu Juan said this, she obediently wiped a wooden bench and chuckled. She was very embarrassed. “The bench is a little old...”

“It’s fine.” Yan Jun’s dark eyes did not show the slightest bit of disdain. He held Xia Jinqi’s hand and sat down. “You two can sit down too.”

Liu Juan and Genzi looked at each other. Both of them were a little embarrassed, but they still sat down with a smile.

Who would have thought that with their status, they would one day be able to sit together with the master in such a friendly manner?

During the few days when they were helping the cook, they had often heard the elders inside talk about the matters in the courtyard. There were many old women who had never seen the master in their entire lives!

Liu Juan cherished and was very grateful to this family. Moreover, this young couple was Yu Han’s parents. In an invisible way, they had brought the relationship between the two families closer.

“We really didn’t expect that the child was actually the young master. Otherwise, why do you always talk about fate and fate “We brought him here. I wasn’t supposed to be the one to go to the Yan family to help yesterday, but there was no one at the moment, so they called me over At that time, they thought that he couldn’t take care of the four children by himself, so they brought two of them over “What a coincidence!” Liu Juan seemed to have grown bolder She spoke more, but even so, she still knew her limits.

Xia Jinqi also nodded. “We didn’t expect that Yu Han was not far away, but close at hand!”

After saying a few words to warm up the atmosphere, Xia Jinqi turned to look at Yan Jun, indicating that the time was right.

Yan Jun nodded slightly, then took out a brocade box and handed it to Geng Zi.

“This is a thank you gift for taking care of Yu Han for such a long time. We, husband and wife, are very grateful to you.”

Geng Zi did not take it. Instead, he looked hesitantly at Liu Juan.

Seeing that Liu Juan did not say anything, Geng Zi took the brocade box. He opened it and found a key and a bank card lying inside.

“This...” Geng Zi frowned, his eyes flashing with respect.

Xia Jinqi explained, “we also don’t know what you need. The key is for a villa in the city. The card doesn’t have a password.”

Perhaps some people would say that giving money was very vulgar, but for a family like Liu Juan’s, Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun thought it over and over again. This material gratitude was the most practical.

When Liu Juan heard this, her expression immediately changed.

However, she didn't say anything directly. Instead, she turned around and looked at the big tree in the back room, which was playing with her second brother. She called out to him, "Tree! Take your brother outside to play for a while! "

Chapter 1916. A person with a rich heart

"Oh!" DASHU agreed and ran out of the door with his second brother.

Their youngest daughter was sleeping quietly on the bed. At this age, she would eat when she woke up and sleep when she was full, without any worries.

Xia Jinqi was wondering why Liu Juan would do this when Liu Juan took the box from root and returned it to Xia Jinqi.

"Young Madam, we can't accept these things," Liu Juan said seriously, enunciating each word clearly.

"..."Xia Jinqi was slightly stunned, and Yan Jun frowned slightly as well. He looked indifferently at the couple in front of him, who were poor but didn't have any sense of inferiority.

Liu Juan also turned around and looked at her husband, then said with a smile, "It's our good fortune that the young master came to our house by accident. Old Madam Long arranged such a good place for us. Now, both of us have jobs and can support our children.

"Moreover, Dashu already knows about it. We don't want him to feel that he has to be repaid for helping others. "We don't have much to teach him, but we hope that he will be able to fend for himself and not enjoy the food given to him. He will be able to rely on his own hands to eat. That will be enough. "

As she spoke, Liu Juan smiled. Her smile was extremely silly, but it was also extremely sincere "We are people from a small place. We have no vision and don't know anything. To put it bluntly, even if we receive this money, we don't know how to spend it. Young Master and Young Madam, please take it back. "

When Geng Zi heard his wife's words, he also felt that it was extremely reasonable. He hurriedly nodded. "actually, we weren't able to do anything for young master. Instead, we brought him to Rao city and caused young master and young Madam to miss it. It is truly our fault..." "

If this had happened to someone with good intentions, they would have long taken the opportunity to extort more compensation.

However, Liu Juan and Geng Zi were both kind-hearted and wealthy people. They were steadfast, hardworking, and relied on their own hands to earn a living. They didn't ask for much, but as long as they had enough, it was good enough.

Perhaps some people would say that they had no ambition and were so stupid that they wouldn't even eat a duck that had been delivered to their mouths. However, they themselves felt that they didn't lack anything, so why did they need more?

Xia Jinqi had never expected that this couple would say something like this... ..

She felt a myriad of emotions in her heart. She suddenly felt that she had seen another kind of truth, kindness, and beauty in this world.

Yan Jun's pitch-black eyes were as deep as the night, and he immediately pursed his lips. "We were wrong. "

Upon hearing Yan Jun's words, Geng Zi hurriedly shook his head. "No, no, no. We understand young master and young Madam's intentions, but... these gifts are really too expensive. "

Liu Juan also echoed, "yeah, we didn't do anything. We really don't have the face to accept these things. "

Xia Jinqi turned to look at Yan Jun. she suddenly didn't know how to thank the couple.

Perhaps because she could see that the young master and young Madam were in a difficult position, Liu Juan thought of a compromise. "speaking of which, there's something that our family can't do right now. We'd like to ask young master and Young Madam for help... "

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi hurriedly turned back. "What is it? We'll definitely do our best! "

"That's right... ". "Our DASHU will be seven next year, which is also the age to go to primary school. However, he hasn't been to kindergarten, so he doesn't know anything. The number of school places in this city is too tight, and we can't get in. We really don't know what to do, " Liu Juan said about this matter She was so anxious that her brows were tightly knitted together.

Chapter 1917: the President personally meets!

It was different for children in the city to go to school in the countryside. The quota and household registration were troublesome.

She and Geng Zi had just arrived. They didn't know anything, so they could only be anxious.

Geng Zi was also anxious. "Why don't we send big tree back to the village... "

"NO WAY! " Liu Juan vehemently refused. "It's better to bring the child with you! "

"Sigh. " Geng Zi sighed. He must have been worried about this matter for a few days.

Xia Jinqi also turned her head to look at the big tree that was still in the courtyard with her little brother. Her black brows also furrowed "If he didn't go to school before, it might be a little troublesome, but I see that big tree is a smart child. It shouldn't be a problem to find a few teachers to systematically remedy it. As for the school... don't worry, we'll find it for him. We'll definitely satisfy you! "

Yan Jun also followed Xia Jinqi's line of sight and looked outside.

He was quite satisfied with the child called Wu Shu, especially with a pair of parents with such good character. With careful cultivation, he would definitely become a great asset in time.

When Liu Juan heard that she could help her child with tutoring and that she could find a school, she was immediately happy. "THAT'S GREAT! Thank you so much, Young Madam! You're like a living Bodhisattva! "

Xia Jinqi broke into a sweat when she heard that. Instead, she felt that Liu Juan was the truly kind person.

"You're welcome. This is what we should do. "

Yan Jun also turned around at this moment and looked at Liu Juan. "May I ask, which school do you want your son to attend? "

"It's fine as long as it's average. Our conditions aren't good, and the school we go to is too good. We're afraid that our child will be discriminated against. " Liu Juan had already thought it through. They didn't expect their son to have much success in the future. They just wanted to learn some knowledge, be a good person, and be healthy.

Yan Jun thought for a moment, then his lips curled up. "As you wish. "

He already had an idea.

After that, Liu Juan and her husband naturally thanked him profusely, because the problem of their son's education that they had been worried about all this time had finally been solved.

After leaving Liu Juan's house, Xia Jinqi said a few more words to Dashu. When she saw her younger brother, who was much shorter than her, she couldn't help but ask for his name.

"My name is Wu Wei! " The child's clear and pure answer. Xia Jinqi had walked out for a long time, but she still found it unbelievable.

"Wu Shu, Wu Wei... " murmuring the names of the two children, Xia Jinqi put on a thoughtful look and then nodded. "They are both very good children! "

Yan Jun nodded in agreement.

After walking quite a distance, Xia Jinqi asked him, "by the way, what school do you plan to send Dashu to? "

Judging from Liu Juan's tone, she didn't want her children to go to a high-class school.

"I'll discuss it with the director of the Education Bureau tomorrow, " Yan Jun answered.

" ... " Xia Jinqi blinked and then looked at him with a smile and nodded. "Okay! "

She didn't expect him to be so attentive. Just for the sake of a child's schooling, he actually wanted to meet with the director of the Bureau of Education?

For some reason, just thinking about that scene made Xia Jinqi feel amused In the end, she laughed out loud.

Yan Jun looked down at her. "What's wrong? "

“The director of the Bureau of Education must have been scared to death! The president-to-be is going to meet with him personally!” Xia Jinqi almost burst into tears.

“Will he?” Yan Jun raised his eyebrows. He didn’t think that he was that lethal. “But this child is a rare good seedling.”

“Yes!” Xia Jinqi came back to her senses. Thinking of the family she met just now, she couldn’t help but sigh. “They are really a good family! Yu Han is lucky to meet them!”

Chapter 1918 was worth remembering for a lifetime

When Yan Jun heard that, the smile in his eyes gradually deepened.

Yes, they were indeed a good family.

And Liu Juan’s family made Xia Jinqi sigh with emotion, and that was not all.

Ever since she and Yan Jun went to visit Liu Juan’s family, many people had gone to Liu Juan to inquire about the situation, but Liu Juan did not mention anything about Yu Han. She only said that the young master and Young Madam were kind and concerned about their lives. They also never announced to the outside world that they had raised Yu Han for a period of time. They had always been very low-key, diligent, and kind.

Xia Jinqi roughly knew what Liu Juan was thinking, and gradually did not disturb their lives. However, she never forgot about her children’s studies. During the New Year, apart from bringing a gift to Bi Yue’s parents.. Liu Juan’s family was also always there.

Some people and some things were worth remembering for a lifetime.

These two days, Xia Jinqi brought her two children to Long Qingxin’s place whenever she was free. Originally, Long Qingxin’s condition was already very bad, but she always saw the two cute little fellows calling her great-grandmother and great-grandmother.. Her spirits were also much better.

Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun discussed that this year, they would celebrate the New Year at Qingxin Garden.

After all, they didn’t know if long Qingxin would still be around in the coming year.

The New Year was approaching, and the reconstruction of the disaster area was nearing its end. All the departments had their blood changed, and Yan Jun had also become idle. He also spent more time at home.

That afternoon, the wind was gentle and the sun was warm.

Long Qingxin was taking an afternoon nap, and there were only a few juniors in the courtyard discussing.

Ji Xinyu hugged Xiao puff, Yan Sheng Hugged Yu Han, and sat around the stone table. Xia Jinqi took a pen and wrote down the festivals that needed to be sent for the New Year, with Yan Jun assisting from the side.

After she wrote down the relatives of the Yan and Xia families who needed to leave, Xia Jinqi began to write down the people close to Yan Jun..

“Shao’an is coming to celebrate the New Year with us. Wen Tao’s family is going, but the three Li brothers haven’t decided yet. When the time comes, ask them. I don’t know if Qu Yang can come back for the new year. Li Kun...” saying this, Xia Jinqi looked at Yan Jun. Xia Jinqi looked at Yan Jun. “why haven’t I seen Li Kun recently? “

Yan Jun was taking a small piece of fruit and feeding it to Xiao puff. “I gave him his annual leave and asked him to go back to his hometown for a walk. “

“where is his hometown?” Xia Jinqi asked curiously. In fact, she didn’t know much about Li Kun. Li Kun was very similar to the former Yan Jun in terms of reticence.

“around the Ice Lake, ” Yan Jun answered, and his dark eyes suddenly darkened.

Looking at the days, it had been three or four days since Li Kun went back. Did he get anything?

Qu Yang followed Lu Yiming and searched for a few days, but he didn’t even see Zhao Chongbin.

Yan Jun couldn’t feel at ease until this person was caught.

Xia Jinqi nodded and didn’t ask any more questions. She crossed out Li Kun’s name in the New Year’s arrangements.

Ji Xinyu wiped Xiao Puff’s mouth and turned to look at Xia Jinqi. “Jinqi, how are your parents doing? We’re going to your house on the second day of the New Year to send them off! “

“They’re doing well, ” Xia Jinqi replied with a smile. “My dad has been calling a lot recently, saying that he misses his two grandsons. “

Second sister and third brother had sent many children’s toys over. Even Hong Xianglin had sent two children a set of clothes each. Although they weren’t together every day, at least they were still in love.

Eldest sister had also returned home. She was probably still holding a grudge and had not paid any attention to Xia Jinqi.

However, this was also good, in case something happened again... ..

Chapter 1919 couldn’t have learned this as well, right?

On the surface, the Xia family appeared to be a harmonious family, but in reality, Xia Jinqi rarely went back.

“The old man from the Huo family also called yesterday. From his voice, he sounded very energetic. ” Yan Sheng also participated in the discussion and looked at Yan Jun. “Huo Ting is also a capable person. His grandfather and your grandfather are quite close. He knows that your grandmother is sick, so he sent a lot of supplements over during this period of time. “

The hidden meaning behind Yan Sheng’s words could be heard by anyone who understood it.

He was interceding on behalf of the Huo family, hoping that Yan Jun would still place a high value on the huο family.

Actually, to Yan Sheng, his son was too outstanding. Apart from his pride, he was also under a lot of pressure.

Yan Youcheng helped the Yan family open up new territory, while Yan Jun opened up a whole new era. In the middle, he was actually the most useless person. He had never done anything for the Yan family, and his words did not carry much weight.

A father knows his son better than his father. Yan Jun had always had his own opinions since he was young, and he knew that. But regarding the huο family... ..

Old Master Huο had brought down his face to look for him again and again, so he had to speak up for him.

Yan Jun did not speak. No one knew what he was thinking, but Ji Xinyu, who was beside him, continued Yan Sheng's words. "Mother has already returned the tonics. She said that she doesn't need them anymore. "

Long Qingxin's temper had not changed at all compared to when she was young. She had returned the things she did not want, and did not care whether old master huο would give her face or not.

"..."Yan Sheng choked.

However, Ji Xinyu began to sigh. "mother has been eating less and less recently. She can only eat some liquid food occasionally. "

Just like that, the topic was diverted. Yan Sheng's face was filled with helplessness, but Yan Jun secretly curled the corners of his lips.

This subtle action happened to be seen by Xia Jinqi... ..

She looked at Yan Sheng with great sympathy, then looked at Yan Jun and silently shook her head. BLACK-BELLIED, black-bellied... ..

Just as she finished lamenting, she saw her son staring at his father. His dark eyes were sparkling, and even the curve of his lips was exactly the same as his father's! !

She felt a chill in her heart, and an extremely ominous premonition welled up in her heart

Could this child have learned this as well?

Just as Xia Jinqi was feeling extremely worried, Yan Jun had already regained his senses and said to her, "I've already sent someone to pick up GRANDPA JI. He should be here in two days. "

"really? GRANDPA JI has agreed to come? " Xia Jinqi immediately became interested and asked excitedly.

Earlier, she had asked GRANDPA JI if he could come to Rao city to celebrate the New Year together, but GRANDPA JI said that he couldn't get away from Macau.

Moreover, he had lived in Berlin all year round, so he hadn't spent much time celebrating the New Year in his life.

He didn't expect that he would be persuaded by Yan Jun this time?

"Yes. Ji Yunxiang will come too." Yan Jun nodded. He knew that Xia Jinqi had been missing GRANDPA JI very much recently, so she had started to invite Grandpa Ji a few nights ago.

Ji Heng probably couldn't resist the junior's repeated invitations. Moreover, he also missed Xia Jinqi and the two little fellows.

"THAT'S GREAT!" Xia Jinqi was so happy that she almost jumped up. She hurriedly said, "then I have to hurry up and prepare!"

Yan Jun stopped her in time. "everything is ready. Just wait for them to come."

"Then I'll call GRANDPA JI and ask him when he will arrive!" Xia Jinqi couldn't sit still for even a moment... ..

It had been quite a while since she came back from Macau. She really missed GRANDPA JI HENG!

This time, Yan Jun didn't stop her. He just watched her leaving happily. His thin lips curved slightly, and a hint of a smile appeared in his black eyes.

Chapter 1920. In the future, would the JI family be handed over to Yu Han?

Ji Xinyu was curious. "Why isn't Jinqi so happy when I say I'm going to the Xia family to pay a New Year's visit?"

Yan Youcheng knew that Xia Jinqi was actually Ji Heng's granddaughter back then, but Ji Xinyu and Yan Sheng weren't particularly clear about it. Even though they vaguely guessed it, they had never heard of any official rumors. Thus, they had never suspected it.

Now that they were talking about it, Ji Xinyu wanted to ask her son about it seriously.

Yan Jun raised his eyebrows. He had always thought that his parents knew, but from the tone of his voice, it seemed like they didn't?

He immediately said, "Ah Jin is Ji Heng's granddaughter, the only bloodline in the JI family."

"Only bloodline? Isn't Ji Yunjing Ji Heng's grandson?" Yan Sheng was also curiously involved in this. Not to mention, he was still confused about these things and couldn't distinguish them at all! 0ve/1b/1n

"Ji Yunjing is a branch, and Ji Heng's lineage is the Orthodox lineage," Yan Jun answered again. Speaking of the strict branches between these families, the more mysterious the family, the clearer the division was. There was no need to overstep the boundaries.

Earlier, Xia Jinqi had mentioned to Yan Jun more than once that she wanted to hand over the entire JI family to Ji Yunjing, but Ji Heng had always disagreed. Even Ji Yunjing himself knew the difference in status, and he had never coveted anything in the JI family.

Even now, the Rothschild family was still the most mysterious family in the world.

As one of the branches of the branch, the internal workings of the JI family could be seen with great precision.

The more strict the rules were, and the hierarchy was clear, the more Xia Jinqi obtained, the more she would have to bear.

It wasn't that Yan Jun hadn't been worried before, which was why he had told Xia Jinqi to stay away from Lego.

The dark forces behind them, whether it was the underworld or the white forces, were all competing to chase after them.

Fortunately, now that power had been further concentrated in Yan Jun's hands, he would be more capable of protecting Xia Jinqi!

After listening to Yan Jun's words, Yan Sheng and Ji Xinyu were so shocked that they couldn't speak.

Originally, Xia Jinqi had entered because of the forces behind the Xia family and Xia Jitian's future.

Who knew that after Xia Jitian stepped down, Yan Jun would actually become the next presidential candidate... ..

Then, they heard that their daughter-in-law was actually the only legitimate descendant of the JI family?

Yan Sheng unconsciously looked down at Xiao Yuhan in his arms and asked, "in the future, will the JI family be handed over to Yu Han? "

Ji Heng even refused to entrust Ji Yunjing and Ji Yunjing to the future heir, so the heir would definitely be Xia Jinqi's child.

Regarding this question... ..

Yan Jun's gaze fell on Xiao puff. "Let's see which of the two siblings is qualified. "

He didn't have Yan Sheng's idea of not passing on the son to the daughter. Presumably, the JI family wouldn't have it either.

Xia Jinqi would decide who the JI family would hand over to in the future.

"Eh? " Xiao puff rolled her eyes and saw that her daddy was looking at her. She immediately stretched out her two short arms obediently, wanting to hug him. "Daddy! "

Yan Jun smiled and carried her into his arms. He used a tissue to wipe her hands that had just grabbed a biscuit.

At first, he had not paid much attention to it. Now that he had taken a careful look, Yan Jun realized that there were no red dots similar to Xia Jinqi's on Xiao puff's wrists.

Immediately, Yan Jun furrowed his brows and turned to look at Yu Han. He was reaching out to grab the pen that Xia Jinqi had just used on the table.

On his right wrist, there was surprisingly a speck of cinnabar red.
