

Trick Me 1961

Chapter 1961: Don't read

Even after two years, she still liked to ask him this.

In the past, she didn't know what to do and wanted to seek his opinion. After all, he was so smart and had different opinions on many things. It was good to hear more.

Now that she had grown up enough to make her own decisions, she wanted to take care of his thoughts.

She didn't want her decision to hurt him.

In fact, as long as couples were willing to discuss many things, many problems could be solved easily.

Yan Jun lowered his eyes to look at her. A faint smile appeared in his deep eyes. "Are you afraid that I'll be unhappy?"

After spending so much time together, she wasn't the only one taking care of his heart. He could see through her thoughts and concerns with a single glance.

"En... perhaps my thoughts are different from yours. After all, we used to be a big family. I think... We should coexist peacefully," Xia Jinqi said her thoughts in a gentle voice.

Men and women looked at problems from different angles, and their ways of thinking were also different. In the end, Xia Jinqi's heart was still soft.

"I understand." Yan Jun nodded. He had already begun to think about how to follow the path she had chosen.

"What do you think?" Xia Jinqi continued to look at him, wanting to know what he was thinking.

Yan Jun could not help but laugh when he saw her nervous look. "I've said it before. As long as it's your decision, I'll respect it."

If he was asked to do this, he would definitely choose to do it in a thunderous manner without any surprise. However, he had already said that he would leave the decision to her.

Xia Jinqi opened her mouth. Just as she was about to say something, she heard a sharp sound of friction. The car came to a sudden stop.

An ominous premonition suddenly rushed into her mind. Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun lowered their eyes at the same time and looked forward.

They saw a group of cars suddenly appear out of nowhere in front of them, blocking the road.

The driver immediately learned from the Bluetooth headset he was wearing that the road ahead was blocked by someone. He turned to look at the rearview mirror. "Sir, the other party has the advantage in numbers."

"Go." Yan Jun did not hesitate for a moment and ordered in a low voice.

“Yes!” The driver immediately began to reverse the car at an extremely fast speed!

There were a total of ten cars in their convoy. No one would have thought that Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi would be sitting in the ninth car.

Therefore, although the unknown person in front stopped five cars, he missed the five cars behind.

After the car turned around, Xia Jinqi could clearly feel that the speed of the car had increased by several levels.

She frowned and could not help but turn her head to look behind her.

A few cars had already caught up impatiently.

Yan Jun did not turn his head. He only held Xia Jinqi’s hand and felt a little wet. He turned his eyes to look at her. “Don’t panic. “

However, Xia Jinqi could not calm herself down. She asked, “Do you have any enemies here? “

Judging from the way those people chased after them, they did not come with good intentions.

At the very least, they had to figure out who they were first.

“There are quite a number of them, ” Yan Jun answered steadily like Mount Tai.

“...”Xia Jinqi finally understood why their bodyguards immediately increased by five times when they arrived here.

In the silence, the sound of gunfire came from behind. There was even the sound of a car exploding.

She wanted to turn her head back to look, but Yan Jun pulled her into his arms. His deep and hoarse voice sounded above her head. “Don’t look. “

Xia Jinqi froze for a moment. It wasn’t because of his words, but because she heard a sound that was right in front of her. “Bang! “

The car behind them exploded from the impact of the rocket launcher. The wreckage flew into the air, bringing with it burning flames.

Chapter 1962: As long as I’m here, nothing will happen to you

Without the shield, the hail of bullets from the rear all rushed towards Yan Jun’s car!

“Bang Bang Bang! “

The bullets hit the car, making a dull and terrifying sound, like the sound of death knocking on the door.

Xia Jinqi’s palms were sweating. Fortunately, Yan Jun’s car, whether it was a supercar or a business car, was bulletproof.

The small bullets behind were nothing to be afraid of!

But if the next rocket hit them... ...

“Are you afraid?” His deep and seductive voice suddenly came from above.

Xia Jinqi instinctively raised her head, only to see a dark smile hanging on his thin lips.

Yes, how could she have forgotten that he never did anything that he wasn't confident in.

Since he had brought her here, he had naturally made full preparations. There was no way he would bring her here to die in vain.

Therefore, she took a deep breath and met his deep black eyes again. “I'M NOT AFRAID!”

As soon as she said that, a swoosh came from the sky, which sounded like a missile flying through the air... ..

Before Xia Jinqi had time to be confused, an even more powerful explosion sounded behind her!

A huge airflow spread out in an instant, like a booster, pushing Yan Jun's car forward a lot!

Xia Jinqi's heart suddenly thumped. She looked back and saw that a huge mushroom cloud suddenly flew out from the dark night sky under the illumination of the fire!

A few fighter jets had unknowingly circled in the night sky. The missile sound just now should be their masterpiece.

With the protection of these fighter jets, who would dare to approach?

After that, no other cars followed.

And Yan Jun, who was sitting by her side, did not even turn his head to look back.

He maintained his position of hugging her, as if nothing had happened. That formation, even if Mount Tai was pressing down on him, did not move the slightest bit!

For some reason, when she saw him like this, she suddenly laughed out loud when she recalled the moment of panic just now.

He lowered his eyes when he heard the sound and was about to ask her what she was laughing about, but she had already opened her mouth. “You've already arranged it?”

He raised his eyebrows and asked in return, “otherwise, do you think I would put you in danger?”

This question, which couldn't have been any more ordinary, made Xia Jinqi's heart skip a beat.

“I should have guessed it long ago...” she sighed and muttered.

Yan Jun held her hand tightly at the right time. “with me here, nothing will happen to you.”

His deep voice was slightly hoarse. The words he said seemed like the most precious promise he had made in front of the Gods and Buddhas.

Xia Jinqi knew what he meant. She nodded heavily. “With you here, I'm not afraid of anything.”

Only then did the two of them look at each other and smile. They held each other's hands and sped forward in the dark night.

No matter how dark the road was, they would not get lost.

Because, both of their hearts were so bright and calm.

In the distance.

Two sand carts were parked in the desert.

Beside the car, Zhao Chongbin, who was dressed casually, was holding a pair of binoculars and looking at the place where a mushroom cloud had exploded in the distance. He sneered and said, "I really underestimated you. "

Monkey was still following beside him. He did not have binoculars, so he could not see very clearly. However, from the phone call just now, he already knew the situation there.

Yan Jun had quite a number of people. There were even fighter jets. After a few missiles were fired, no one could keep up.

But... Monkey was very curious. "This is the Middle East. How can he mobilize so many people? "

"people with ability are the same no matter where they go. "

Chapter 1963: Yan Jun's counterattack

Monkey's eyes twitched. He did not understand why Zhao Chongbin could still praise Yan Jun at this time... ..

Just as he was puzzled, he suddenly felt that there seemed to be some unusual sounds coming from above his head.

Just as he raised his eyes, before he could see clearly, Zhao Chongbin in front of him had already shouted loudly, "it's a missile! QUICKLY LEAVE! ! "

After hearing this, monkey did not have the time to think any further. His desire to survive prompted him to quickly turn around and directly jump onto the SAND CART!

"Boom! " The engine sounded and the cart almost jumped out in an instant!

Zhao Chongbin also got onto another cart. His reaction was much faster than monkey's and at this moment, he had already pulled some distance away from monkey.

The few missiles that had caused the strange sound earlier had already fallen rapidly from the sky and landed on the spot where he and monkey were originally at.

The fighter planes that were originally in charge of protecting Yan Jun had unknowingly split up into two. After circling twice in the air, it was very easy to discover the two sand carts that were particularly eye-catching in the desert.

"F * CK! Have we been discovered? ! " Zhao Chongbin cursed and stepped on the accelerator to the bottom!

However, at this moment, a missile exploded eight meters in front of him. He was so scared that his hand shook and the car immediately took a detour!

Cold sweat broke out all over his body. If it was not for his quick reaction, that blow just now... .. He would have lost his life ! !

“What a good Yan Jun! You Win! !” After another fierce spit, Zhao Chongbin did not dare to be distracted and quickly ran away with his tail between his legs.

Monkey was even worse off. He had never come into close contact with these things on a fighter jet. Now that he was being chased by these missiles, it would not be an exaggeration to say that Meng Han was scared to tears!

At the same time, Yan Jun was sitting in a luxurious Maybach.

Xia Jinqi turned her eyes to look at a place not far away where the missiles had created sparks. Yan Jun picked up a phone call.

Xia Jinqi heard the content. It was probably about the person running away or something like that.

Then, she heard Yan Jun say in a deep voice, “let him go. “

Then, he hung up the phone.

Xia Jinqi turned around and looked at him in confusion. “Who is it? “

“Zhao Chongbin,” Yan Jun answered.

Just as Qu Yang said, no matter when or where, Yan Jun always had a way to get first-hand information.

Xia Jinqi was stunned. After all, when they came out from Merlin’s place, they did not know Zhao Chongbin’s whereabouts, but there was news so soon?

After a moment of silence, she came to a realization.

“So you deliberately brought me out to play cards with friends in such a high-profile manner? Just to attract Zhao Chongbin’s attention? So that he can show himself? “

No wonder she felt that Yan Jun’s style of doing things tonight was a little high-profile. It didn’t seem like him at all.

He had brought so many bodyguards out. It turned out that it wasn’t just to protect himself, but also to show others.

As for this Zhao Chongbin, when he heard the news about Yan Jun, he couldn’t hold back his restless little heart and immediately brought people to kill him.

He just didn’t expect that Yan Jun had already made arrangements early on and was waiting for him to show himself.

After hearing Xia Jinqi's words, he lowered his eyes to meet her bright, watery eyes. Yan Jun curled his lips. "You're getting smarter and smarter. "

"But we waited so long for him to show up, and he just left like that?" Xia Jinqi asked again.

"There's no rush." Yan Jun smiled coldly. There was a hint of wickedness between his brows. "It's not too late for him to spit out what he swallowed. "

The money that was stolen from the Central Bank of Rao city should have been secretly transferred by Zhao Chongbin.

He didn't care what methods Zhao Chongbin used to transport the money out, but since it was the people's property, he naturally had the obligation to return it.

Chapter 1964: the unfettered hunting grounds

Seeing the confidence in Yan Jun's eyes, Xia Jinqi could not help but pity Zhao Chongbin. She clicked her tongue and said, "he thought that he would be safe once he escaped from Rao city. Little did he know that the outside world is even more terrifying..."

In the city, no matter what Yan Jun did, he followed the procedure.

But in the Middle East... ..

In this boundless desert, no one would care even if they sent a few fighter jets. One could only imagine what would happen in the future.

Hearing her cheerful tone, Yan Jun's sexy lips curved up. His deep black eyes reflected the stars in the sky, shining brightly.

This place was more like his territory.

A hunting ground with no scruples and no restraints at all.

"..."

Zhao Chongbin ran wildly with monkey and finally escaped the range of the fighter jets.

He burrowed back to the city district in a puff of smoke and hid in an unknown corner.

But before he could catch his breath, a cold voice suddenly entered his ears.

"In all these years, this is the first time I've seen you run away like this. "

Zhao Chongbin's throat tightened. He turned around and saw Lu Yiming in a brown jacket walking out of the darkness.

Before he could speak, Lu Yiming continued, "you're as dumb as a dead dog on the street. "

Zhao Chongbin," ..."

Monkey had already raised his gun. The muzzle of the gun was pointed straight at Lu Yiming's head.

In that instant, four people suddenly stood behind Lu Yiming. Each of them held a gatling gun and aimed at Zhao Chongbin and monkey.

From the perspective of firepower, Lu Yiming was absolutely overpowered.

Monkey was stunned for a moment and subconsciously turned his head to look at Zhao Chongbin.

The latter's expression did not look too good either.

Just as he was being bombarded by Yan Jun, his old friend stuck to him like a dog skin plaster that could not be shaken off.

But even so, he still squeezed out a smile on his face that was full of vicissitudes. "Ah Ming, long time no see. "

Lu Yiming raised his eyebrows slightly and sneered. "indeed, long time no see. You've been hiding from me quite hard. You've come all the way to the Middle East? "

He didn't know it before, but after hearing everything from Bi Yue, Lu Yiming knew that he had been a thief for so many years. Now that he had met Zhao Chongbin for the first time, his heart was filled with murderous intent!

"The Middle East is a good place, especially here. " It wasn't that Zhao Chongbin couldn't tell that Lu Yiming was different from before, but he pretended not to know anything and tried to change the topic.. "How is it? Do you want to follow me again and make a comeback? We have so many years of tacit understanding, we can definitely become the best partner! "

"..."LU YIMING GRITTED HIS TEETH!

Bi Yue was gone, his child was gone, and his life was completely ruined!

And the person who caused all of this, now standing in front of him, could still say such words without any shame or guilt? ! !

The boiling anger in his chest could no longer be endured. Lu Yiming took two steps forward, grabbed Zhao Chongbin by the collar, and threw a punch at the side of his face!

The Punch was hard enough, directly hitting Zhao Chongbin so hard that he staggered a few steps back. He spat out a mouthful of blood, mixed with two big teeth, and the corner of his mouth that quickly swelled up.

"You're F * CKING CRAZY! " Zhao Chongbin wiped the corner of his mouth and quickly cursed.

Monkey wanted to go up and help, but Lu Yiming turned around and glared at him fiercely.

His eyes were red, and his hands were making creaking sounds. He was like an Asura that had walked out of hell, full of killing intent!

Chapter 1965: happened to be... .. You were not by her side

Monkey was still a little inexperienced. After being stared at like that, he immediately froze and did not dare to take another step forward. There was also some hesitation in his eyes.

In order to protect Zhao Chongbin, he had lost his life. Clearly, monkey would not do such a thing.

Lu Yiming completely ignored him. Instead, he took a step forward and forcefully grabbed Zhao Chongbin's collar again.

Zhao Chongbin had no ability to resist at all. He mingled in the inpatient department and the operating theater all year round. He held a scalpel and a western-style knife every day. He never did any strength training because even if it was a simple lift of a dumbbell.. It was also possible that his hands would tremble when he picked up the scalpel again after training.

During the surgery, he could not afford to make even the slightest mistake.

Therefore, compared to Lu Yiming, who trained all year round to maintain perfect physical strength, he was basically equivalent to a piece of trash.

"Let go!" Zhao Chongbin shouted. He did not like this kind of rude and rude action!

Not only did Lu Yiming not let go, but he tightened the strength in his hands. The veins on his forehead suddenly popped out. "You killed my child. You Killed Bi Yue? ! "

This questioning almost used up all of his strength!

"..."Zhao Chongbin paused. Actually, he was still hoping for a fluke. What if Lu Yiming was still as stupid as before and didn't know the truth?

But now that he heard it, he already knew.

But... .. It was just a moment of shock Then, Zhao Chongbin sorted out his thoughts and raised his eyebrows to look at Lu Yiming "Who told you Ah Ming, did Yan Jun tell you that He wants to frame me and sow discord between you and me so that he can reap the benefits of the fisherman. DON'T BE DECEIVED BY HIM "You should know that if I hadn't saved your wife at the scene, she would have died long ago "Not to mention that I helped you resurrect her after so many years! "

Facing Zhao Chongbin who could still make up stories without changing his expression, Lu Yiming had no interest in continuing to play along with him.

"I really have to thank you," Lu Yiming said coldly.

"right..." Zhao Chongbin thought that his evil plan had succeeded again, so he immediately laughed. "I knew it..." "

But this time, before he could finish, he was interrupted by Lu Yiming. "If bi Yue didn't wake up in Xia Jinqi's body, I wouldn't have heard her tell me that you were the one who cut open her stomach to extract her child back then! "

Zhao Chongbin," ..."

"Why, why did you do this? ! Why her? Why US! ! " Lu Yiming seemed to have gone mad as he gripped Zhao Chongbin's throat tightly. His red eyes were almost bleeding ! ! !

God knows how much he wanted to break this person's neck!

Zhao Chongbin blinked. He probably knew that this matter could no longer be hidden, so he did not continue to quibble.

He frowned slightly. His gaze was unfocused for a moment, as if he was really reminiscing about the past.

As he thought about it, he said, "there's no why. It was just a coincidence. Coincidentally, I wanted to practice and coincidentally saw that she was pregnant. Coincidentally... You were not by her side. "

That day, what he had planned was just a riot.

But who knew that the security there was so bad that he was bored. As he was walking in the alley, he suddenly saw that woman who looked like she was easy to bully.

Malice was born at that moment.

He didn't plan to take out the child in her stomach at first.

Chapter 1966: You exist for her

Later... .. He suddenly felt that it would be very interesting to do so ...

And reality proved that he was indeed not bored.

Especially after Lu Yiming appeared.

After so many years, Lu Yiming could be said to have single-handedly helped him get to where he was today.

This work could not be considered perfect because Lu Yiming failed in the end.

However, to Zhao Chongbin, it was still a work that could not be replaced.

After all, spending fifteen years to transform a person and making the brain wave transplant technique achieve great success was indeed unique.

Thinking of this, Zhao Chongbin shamelessly asked again, "you said that Bi Yue told you? Then how is she now? is she still in Bi Yue's body? "

"..."Lu Yiming's hand that was pinching his collar suddenly froze.

He stared blankly at the man in front of him who made him gnash his teeth in hatred, and his pupils suddenly constricted... ..

These 15 years, he had been through so much suffering, so much pain. His family, his loved ones, all of them had left him.

And when he questioned the executioner who had caused all of this, the other party was actually so nonchalant, not taking the pain in his heart seriously at all. It was as if the injuries he had suffered and everything he had experienced were not worth mentioning... ..

This kind of understanding was like a sharp steel knife, RUTHLESSLY SMASHING INTO HIS BODY!

He had once not known what kind of person he was or what kind of things he had done. Now that he saw Zhao Chongbin like this, it was as if he was looking at himself in a mirror. Lu Yiming suddenly came to a realization... ..

Putting his heart into his heart, wasn't he also like this when he treated Yan Youcheng, Yan Qing, and Xia Jinqi like this?

Evil and conceited. He would do anything for himself, never considering the feelings of others.

He swallowed hard and let go of Zhao Chongbin. He took a few steps back, his whole body trembling.

So, so he was also such a person... ..

Bi Yue's words that had once scolded him echoed in his ears... ..

"Your hands are stained with blood, you do all kinds of evil, you kill people like numbness! "

"What's the difference between you and those violent people back then? ! "

He finally understood why Bi Yue was so heartbroken when she woke up and saw him.

Even at the last moment, she was still trying to persuade him, "Ah Ming, promise me that you won't hate me anymore, okay? "

Zhao Chongbin straightened his collar. When he saw Lu Yiming's absent-minded look after he suddenly let go of him, he thought that he was thinking of Bi Yue again.

In the past 15 years, if it was not for his obsession with Bi Yue, Zhao Chongbin would not have been able to control Lu Yiming so easily.

And once a person's obsession was planted, it could not be easily removed.

Therefore, Zhao Chongbin planned to continue using this to bewitch Lu Yiming's heart.

After all, it was better to have an ally than an enemy.

Especially now that he was being chased and beaten by Yan Jun..

"I thought about it. Since you've come here, it means that Xia Jinqi has returned to normal. But don't worry, I've kept Bi Yue's brainwaves well. When we find another test subject, Bi Yue will be able to come back to life.

"although the duration isn't long enough, as long as we continue to search for test subjects, Bi Yue will be able to continue to be reborn. This way, the two of you can still be together.

"Didn't you say that "Bi Yue is your life. You exist for her. "

Chapter 1967 was the only thing that was more precious!

To Lu Yiming, these words were probably the most fatal weakness in his life.

If it was in the past, Lu Yiming would have agreed without hesitation. As long as he could resurrect Bi Yue, he would not hesitate to make a deal with the devil!

But... ..

The current him did not have the slightest fluctuation or joy in his heart.

It was not that he had not seen Bi Yue after she was resurrected. He would not forget the look of pain and despair in her eyes when she looked at him. It was filled with intense grief. Even if the sky collapsed and the earth cracked, it was nothing more than that.

She had said that she did not want to be resurrected again, that she did not want to hurt Xia Jinqi again, and that she did not want to hurt any innocent people.

She had said that she would bring her child and wait for him on the bridge of helplessness.

And before he went to look for her, he would at least erase the sins he had committed, the wrongs he had done, and the people he had hurt. He would tell them everything.

Only then would he have the face to see her and their child.

Of course, there was also the most important point — seeing that their enemy would not end well, he would be able to let go of everything.

After thinking through all this, Lu Yiming looked up again and looked at Zhao Chongbin, who was standing in front of him like a dog. The anger that filled the sky had been completely suppressed, leaving only calmness.

“You’re right. Bi Yue is my life. As long as you can bring her back to life, I’m willing to do anything you want me to do.” He pretended to believe Zhao Chongbin’s words because this was the only way to make Zhao Chongbin trust him again.

As for the conceited Zhao Chongbin, he immediately laughed happily when he heard this. “Don’t worry! I’ll definitely let Bi Yue stay with you forever!”

He did not even suspect Lu Yiming’s motive. This work that was created by him, could it still be out of his control?

“But there is one thing, we have to think of a way to get the USB drive that contains Bi Yue’s brainwaves from Yan Jun. Only then can Bi Yue be reborn.” Zhao Chongbin frowned, walked over and put his arm around Lu Yiming’s shoulder. They were so intimate as if the two of them were good brothers.

Lu Yiming did not dodge. He looked back coldly at Zhao Chongbin, “you don’t have a backup?”

“A unique thing is more precious! You know, I have never liked the exact same thing.” Zhao Chongbin said casually. He did not have a backup, but he did not expect that the USB drive would fall into Yan Jun’s hands.

Until now, he did not regret why he did not have a backup.

The only thing was in Yan Jun’s hands, which made him have the desire to snatch it back... ..

Lu Yiming did not ask further. He slowly withdrew his gaze and secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

Qu Yang had already told him about the USB drive. Now that he knew that Zhao Chongbin did not have a backup, Yan Jun should be able to rest easy.

After taking a few steps forward, Zhao Chongbin slowly asked Lu Yiming, “by the way, how did you escape? You Killed Yan Youcheng. Why didn’t Yan Jun Kill you? “

In fact, Zhao Chongbin had always thought that Lu Yiming would definitely die if he fell into Yan Jun’s hands.

Therefore, he never thought that Lu Yiming would know the truth of fifteen years ago, much less that he would be avenged.

Lu Yiming snorted coldly and asked instead of answering, “didn’t you also escape? “

“Humph! It seems that Yan Jun is still too soft-hearted! ” Zhao Chongbin revealed a murderous look. Of course, he would not say that he was locked in a secret room and almost starved to death, and that he was already on the verge of death when he was rescued.

Chapter 1968: The end of an era

After listening to Zhao Chongbin’s words, Lu Yiming’s lips curled into a mocking smile. His tone was filled with disdain and helplessness. “I’m afraid he let you and I go on purpose. “

Sometimes, a person’s thoughts would change in an instant. After that, regardless of whether it was the angle of view or the way of thinking, there would be an earth-shattering change.

Currently, in Lu Yiming’s heart, he no longer had any obsession with Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi.

It was said that those who were in the middle of the matter were confused, while those who were watching from the sidelines were clear.

When one jumped out of the question, one would naturally find a problem that they did not realize.

If Yan Jun disliked someone, there were many ways to deal with him.

However, he allowed these two people to run to the Middle East, and he followed them here.

In Lu Yiming’s opinion, this was completely unnecessary.

But since he did this, then what was the reason?

Other than being able to further ravage him and Zhao Chongbin, Lu Yiming could not think of any other reason.

And the bombing earlier had also confirmed his thoughts, right?

At this moment, Zhao Chongbin furrowed his brows, and a cold glint flashed in his eyes.

“What do you mean? Are you saying that Yan Jun deliberately let you and I escape from Rao city?” Zhao Chongbin was skeptical. He had always been conceited, how could he admit that his actions had always been within Yan Jun’s control?

Lu Yiming did not want to continue this topic. They were now people from two different worlds. They did not get along well, and he only needed to gain Zhao Chongbin’s trust.

“Let’s go. Go back and think of a way to get the USB back from Yan Jun.” after saying that, he waved his hand at the few people he brought over, indicating for them to put down their guns. The crisis was over.

Seeing that Lu Yiming was walking out, Zhao Chongbin had no choice but to follow him.

Now in the Middle East, if he did not want to be completely crushed by Yan Jun, he had to rope Lu Yiming in first.

“Okay, whatever you say!” Zhao Chongbin smiled apologetically and followed him.

Lu Yiming did not even turn his head, as if he did not hear what he said.

From this moment on, the era where the two of them were completely led by Zhao Chongbin was completely over.

Su Zhishui

There was only one way to not be controlled by anyone, to not be anyone’s puppet.

To make himself stronger.

Be It physically or mentally.

Su Zhishui.

Qu Yang disguised himself as Lu Yiming’s bodyguard and silently followed behind the two of them. When the two of them had settled down, he used the excuse of going out to smoke and dialed Yan Jun’s cell phone.

As usual, he reported everything that he had seen and heard to Yan Jun..

“That’s all I know for now, but Zhao Chongbin should be bringing Lu Yiming to introduce his organization in the next two days. “

Zhao Chongbin didn’t say much tonight. No one knew if he was being vigilant or what, but he basically didn’t reveal much about his henchmen, not to mention where he put the cash that he had stolen from the central bank.

At that time, Yan Jun was on the balcony answering a phone call.

He turned his head to look at Xia Jinqi, who was sleeping soundly on the big bed, and his dark eyes were filled with tenderness. However, when he turned around to look at the misty night, that gentleness was put away. It was replaced by the deepest indifference and strategy.

“Tell Lu Yiming that I will go to the entertainment city tomorrow night. “

His tone was neither too warm nor too hot. It contained a natural king's aura, making people unconsciously want to submit.

Qu Yang didn't even have a reason. He directly answered, "Yes, chairman. "

Chapter 1969: I will accompany you

If it was in the past, he might have had some doubts, but after such a long time, he knew very well what kind of person Yan Jun was.

He was a man of his word, or he would not do it. Once he did it, it would definitely be the result of careful consideration.

Therefore, he had nothing to doubt. As long as it was an order from Yan Jun, he would do it.

"Also, the Ice Lake Zhao family rescued a little girl named Zhao Ke'er. Think of a way to leak it to Zhao Chongbin. "

"There are still survivors?" Qu Yang was stunned for a moment. In his mind, he recalled the tragic scene of the fire soaring to the sky that night and the mountain of corpses filling the courtyard. It was that kind of tragedy. He thought that his family had been exterminated.

Yan Jun was silent for a long time before he said, "Li Kun saved them. "

It could also be considered an unexpected gain. Back then, he had let Li Kun go back because he wanted him to see if he could find any clues related to Zhao Chongbin. Who would have thought that he had actually accidentally saved the only survivor of the Zhao family extermination case.

In other words, this Zhao Ke'er was the only witness who survived that night. Her testimony would be directly used to convict Zhao Chongbin.

"Okay, I will think of a way to let him know." Qu Yang continued to nod, and his mood gradually became less heavy.

Previously, he had been worried, but from Yan Jun's tone and the fact that there were still surviving witnesses, the goddess of victory seemed to be slowly standing on their side.

After a few more words, both sides withdrew their lines.

The wind on the balcony grew stronger and stronger.

Yan Jun narrowed his black eyes and stared at the distant starry sky for a moment before returning to his room.

He slowly lifted the blanket. Just as he lay down, the person beside him subconsciously leaned over.

Even in his sleep, he accurately snuggled into his embrace.

A certain part of his heart immediately softened.

Yan Jun slightly curved his lips, extended his long arm, and wrapped it around her round shoulders.

They sucked each other in and slept for a night.

After throwing away all the complicated matters in Rao city, the two of them were very relaxed. The next morning, they lazily slept until more than ten o'clock before getting up together.

They deliberately found a restaurant with a beautiful scenery. While admiring the emerald-like sea in front of them, they leisurely ate lunch.

"Is there anywhere you want to go? I'll accompany you." Yan Jun slightly shook the red wine in the goblet, and his gentle gaze fell on Xia Jinqi's fair face.

Xia Jinqi looked at him suspiciously, then lowered her eyes to look at the cell phone that he had thrown aside. "You're not busy anymore?"

Since he woke up in the morning, his cell phone had not rung once.

Compared to the time when he was so busy that he did not even have time to eat, at this moment, he was really a little too free.

"A vacation should be like a vacation." Yan Jun smiled faintly. Naturally, he would not tell her that in order to accompany her, he had specially instructed his secretary to postpone all work arrangements.

Since he had already said so, Xia Jinqi naturally would not refuse.

Thinking carefully, many places that she had never been before appeared in her mind.

"Let's go to the Louvre in the afternoon? Abu Dhabi and France are jointly organized. I read the tour guide yesterday that there will be a rain of light under the Dome there. I don't know what it will look like." Xia Jinqi chose a place that she was more interested in.

"Okay." Yan Jun immediately nodded. His gaze was gentle and doting, as if no matter where Xia Jinqi said she was going, he would accompany her.

Xia Jinqi blinked and lowered her head to eat a mouthful of beef. She said casually, "let's go to Fu Shaozhong's entertainment city tonight and take a look."

Yan Jun's hand that was shaking the wine glass suddenly paused. His gaze deepened. "Why do you want to go there?"

Chapter 1970: for the rest of his life, please take good care of him!

Regarding the itinerary, he was indeed going to the entertainment city tonight.

But... .. He hadn't told Xia Jinqi, so she shouldn't have known. But now, she had taken the initiative to bring it up ...

Xia Jinqi's pink lips curled slightly, and she raised her eyes to meet his deep gaze. "You accompany me in the afternoon, and I'll accompany you in the evening."

She already knew what he meant.

Yan Jun scrutinized her for a moment and asked, "Merlin told you that? "

In this place, the only person who could keep track of his whereabouts was probably Merlin.

The power of the Rothschild family for so many years was indeed not to be underestimated.

"mm, he also said that Zhao Chongbin will go to entertainment city tonight. " Xia Jinqi put down her knife and fork, picked up her wine glass, and gently shook it.

She had contacted Merlin and promised to help the remaining bloodline of the Rothschild family out of danger. Merlin had also promised to give her the greatest share of resources in Abu Dhabi and help as much as he could.

She might not necessarily need help, but this sharing of resources... .. She did not know how vast Merlin's information network was, but since he could find out Yan Jun's schedule, he must not be simple ...

Fortunately, this person was an ally and not an enemy, otherwise... ..

Yan Jun narrowed his long and narrow Phoenix Eyes, and his deep gaze did not shift away from Xia Jinqi in front of him for a moment.

"It seems that you're doing quite well as a leader. " His tone was light with a hint of a smile, but of course, it was more of a compliment.

"Then, I have to thank you for escorting me all the way. " Xia Jinqi smiled slightly and raised her glass at him. "please take care of me for the rest of my life! "

It seemed like a joke, but it contained too much.

Yan Jun looked at her for a long time. A smile naturally appeared in his black eyes. He also raised his glass. The two crystal cups collided in the air, giving off a crisp and melodious sound.

The two of them looked at each other and smiled. They had a great understanding of each other.

In this life, to be able to find a person who understood her like this, wasn't that already perfect?

However, Xia Jinqi was a little greedy. Not only was it perfect, but she also wanted to be with him for a long, long time.

Therefore, she made some extra arrangements for the night trip to the entertainment city.

However, she didn't tell Yan Jun about this, so that he wouldn't have to worry about it again.

After dinner, Yan Jun really took her to the Louvre.

She had never been to France, nor had she seen the real person. But Abu Dhabi was already amazing enough.

It cost 1.1 billion US dollars and took ten years to build an Arabian style sea building. The Dome Pattern formed 7,850 stars. The Sun's light shone through the gaps in the ceiling and fell on the white walls. As time passed, it formed

It was a beautiful and moving light spot, which was also known as the rain of light.

“Wow, the master design is indeed extraordinary!” Xia Jinqi let go of Yan Jun’s hand and turned in a circle, looking at the rain of light around her.

Yan Jun was not particularly interested in these things. His gentle gaze never left her. Seeing her happy like a child, a smile naturally appeared on his lips.

They had been married for two years, but this was the first time they had gone out to play so easily.

They had not returned to the country yet, but he had already begun to plan in his heart. When would they come out next time, and where should he bring her?

While he was deep in thought, he was suddenly interrupted by a female voice. “Hi! Did you come alone?”

“

Yan Jun looked up and saw an unfamiliar foreign woman. His little wife was already as cheerful as a little bird. She ran in front of Da Vinci’s famous painting, “the Savior” , and was in a daze.
