

Trick Me 1991

Chapter 1991 doing what she liked

Speaking of this, Xia Jinqi's hand that was holding the fork suddenly froze.

These past few days had been too carefree. She had almost forgotten that when they returned to Rao city, there was still an even heavier burden waiting for them... ..

"This is his ambition. He's always happy doing what he likes. "

Xia Jinqi smiled slowly. She didn't know if she was saying this to Wen Tao or herself.

Wen Tao thought about it carefully and seemed to agree with her logic. He laughed as well. "sister-in-law is right. This is second young master's lifelong wish. Even if he's tired, he's still happy. "

"Yes... " Xia Jinqi nodded. Then, she thought of another matter and asked, "Wen Tao, there is something I want to ask you for help with. "

"sister-in-law, please speak. " Wen Tao put down his knife and fork and waited carefully for Xia Jinqi's next words.

This was the first time Wen Tao had heard such a formal request.

Moreover, he also knew Xia Jinqi's identity. If she couldn't do it well even with her abilities, it was probably not a simple matter.

Xia Jinqi hesitated for a moment before saying, "I want to use Lego to establish a charitable consortium. "

"Charity Consortium? " Wen Tao raised his eyebrows, his amber eyes filled with doubt.

"Yes! " Xia Jinqi was a little excited, but her subsequent words were a little cautious "You know, Yan Jun is about to take office soon. When that time comes, there will definitely be a LOT OF VILLAINS JUMPING OUT TO CAUSE TROUBLE. I don't want to make things difficult for him because of my identity. "LEGO's identity can not be washed clean, and there's no need to wash it clean. However, as long as we set up a charity consortium and donate most of the money we earn to society, we will naturally be able to stop the public from talking. "

Although Yan Jun said that this matter was fine, Xia Jinqi had always taken it to heart.

She had previously asked Bai ran, and she heard that Quan Rui had helped to wash her family's reputation clean in the past. It was completely clean, once and for all.

But... Lego couldn't be washed clean ...

Unless she gave up all the casinos and abandoned Ji Yunjing.

And no matter what, she and Ji Yunjing would always be a family, so she wouldn't give up on anything.

Other than that, the only way was to start a charity.

In fact, everyone knew that light and darkness were dependent on each other. No one could live without each other.

So as long as they could divide the benefits, wouldn't things be easy to solve?

Wen Tao's face was full of curiosity after listening to Xia Jinqi's analysis. As if he had discovered a new continent, he also became excited. "This method is not impossible, but... sister-in-law, how much do you intend to donate? "

"Seventy percent, " Xia Jinqi replied.

"What? ! " This time, even Wen Tao was shocked. He stood up with a swoosh and almost knocked over the cup of water on the table!

However, he didn't have time to pay attention to these things. He pushed the sliding frame of his glasses and hurriedly asked, "seventy percent? Donate it all? "

"Yes! " Xia Jinqi nodded heavily and then smiled. "There's no choice. We have to make a big cake so that more people will come to eat it. "

As the saying goes, the one who eats the soft-spoken person will have to protect the existence of Lego.

"..."Wen Tao was completely shocked.

Although he didn't know how much Lego's annual revenue would be, it wasn't hard to guess how much money Lego could earn with its close cooperation with the bank for so many years. This family's income was second only to the Yan Corporation's... ..

Xia Jinqi actually donated so much money just like that, and she even wanted to donate 70% of the annual profits? ! !

Chapter 1992:, his gentleness

Xia Jinqi saw that he was stunned for a long time and couldn't say a complete sentence. Her Pink Lips curled slightly as she continued eating the pasta. "It's necessary to spend some money to buy people's hearts. "

These words... Were very direct ...

Wen Tao's eyes flickered for a moment, and he slowly sat back down on the chair. He still asked Xia Jinqi with some uncertainty, "sister-in-law, what you mean is... "

"You just said that second young master is about to leave and take up his post. You should at least give him a congratulatory gift! " Xia Jinqi imitated Wen Tao's previous tone and said some wisecracks, but her mood was already much better.

Since Wen Tao agreed, this meant that this method was feasible.

It was not in vain that she had pondered over this idea for a few days. At least it could help Yan Jun a little.

Wen Tao stared blankly at Xia Jinqi, who was leisurely eating pasta, and suddenly understood.

So Xia Jinqi suddenly said that she wanted to establish a charitable foundation and donate money, not just for herself, but also for Yan Jun? Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun were husband and wife. The Money Xia Jinqi donated and bought back the hearts of the people, weren't they all for Yan Jun?

At the thought of this, Wen Tao also smiled. "sister-in-law, don't worry. I'll definitely handle this matter for you! "

"Then I'll have to trouble you! " Xia Jinqi smiled and lowered her head to look at Wen Tao's plate. She signaled him with her eyes. "HURRY UP AND EAT! It's getting cold. "

Only then did Wen Tao put his attention on the delicious food in front of him.

He didn't know why, but he felt that the food tasted even better now?

After filling her stomach, Xia Jinqi lingered in the plane for a while.

Taking advantage of her boredom, she even took a look at the cockpit... ... Although she didn't understand anything, she still felt that it was very impressive ...

After digesting her food, she tiptoed back to bed.

She didn't want to wake Yan Jun up, but as soon as she laid back down, he hugged her and whispered in her ear, "where did you go? "

"where did you go? " He asked in a daze. His deep and hoarse voice sounded dreamy, extremely sexy.

Xia Jinqi snuggled into his arms and curled up into a ball. "I'm hungry. I went to eat something. It's so cold... "

When she was outside, she didn't feel it. When she crawled back into the blanket and found that his body was warm, she felt that it was a little cold just now.

Hearing her say that it was cold, Yan Jun directly reached out his hand and groped under the blanket. He accurately grabbed her hands and placed them in front of his chest to cover them.

It was indeed a little cold. Even his sleepiness had been somewhat dispelled.

The vast black eyes that were like the stars slowly opened. They held the light and elegant starlight that was like fog. They carried some kind of bewitchment as they looked straight into Xia Jinqi's eyes.

"Why is it so cold? "

Hearing his slightly displeased question, Xia Jinqi wrinkled her nose and smiled with a fawning expression. "Hehe, did I freeze you? "

Although she said it, she still didn't take her hand back. It was so warm... ...

"It's hot when you sleep. It's just nice to lower the temperature, " he said in a serious manner. He simply pulled open his nightgown and used the most direct warmth to warm her.

Xia Jinqi blinked. How was this hot? It was clearly warm. It was only because she had wandered around the cockpit and forgot to bring her coat that it was cold.

But he... .. Said such untruthful words for her ...

She felt the warmth that belonged to him.

Her body unconsciously leaned a little closer, and her voice became muffled. The tip of her nose was also sour. "Let's sleep together. "

"Okay. " He curved his lips and extended his long arm, pulling her into his embrace.

It had been a long time since she had slept so comfortably.

Chapter 1993: I can't find her... ..

Four hours later, the plane landed steadily in Rao city.

Yan Jun had just gotten off the plane when he received a call from Li Kun saying that something had happened to Fang Shaoan.

Before he could even return home, he brought Xia Jinqi to look for Fang Shaoan without stopping.

At this time, it was not yet dawn in Rao city. It was around three o'clock in the morning.

The car was parked outside a bar. Before Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi got out of the car, they saw Fang Shaoan lying on the ground not far away with a bruised face.

Beside him was Li Kun who had rushed over first. He was taking out a pile of money from his wallet and handing it to the strange man who was standing in front of him, swearing.

The man also had a face full of scars. He took the money that Li Kun handed over and left.

Before he left, he even spat at Fang Shaoan who was lying on the ground.

Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun looked at each other and both of them got out of the car.

Li Kun put away his wallet. When he saw Yan Jun and Xia Jinqi walking over, he told them what he knew "He was drunk and somehow got into a fight with that person. The two of them got into a fight. Fortunately, the other party didn't know his identity, so I paid him off. "

In fact, Fang Shaoan had already caused a big scene in the bar before this, but because of his current attire... .. He was so down and out that no one connected him to the head of the security department ...

Otherwise, if he made a scandal at this juncture, it would be a stain that he would never be able to erase from his career as a director.

For people in the officialdom, reputation was more important than anything else.

That was why Li Kun was so anxious to call Yan Jun when he received the news.

Fortunately, the situation had not escalated to the point where it could not be stopped.

Yan Jun nodded slightly, then lowered his eyes to look at Fang Shaoan, who was still lying on the ground like a dead body. His eyes were stern.

Li Kun took a step back and looked elsewhere. He kept a lookout for these people so that no one who was not involved could see it. It was better to avoid unnecessary trouble.

Xia Jinqi also saw Fang Shaoan's hopeless look and felt very uncomfortable.

"Get up." It was Yan Jun who opened his mouth first, his tone cold.

Fang Shaoan acted as if he didn't hear it. He still didn't move, his eyes staring blankly at a certain spot.

Xia Jinqi had never seen him like this before... .. The Fang Shaoan in her impression, although he was a bit careless, had always been the happiest and happiest one ...

Even if such a big thing happened to his family, he had survived it... ..

But was this Fang Shaoan still the same Fang Shaoan she knew in the past?

Time seemed to be able to change many things, and also change many people.

"Shaoan, get up first. If there's anything, we can talk about it at home," Xia Jinqi couldn't help but open her mouth as well. She knew that Fang Shaoan was like a brother to Yan Jun, so she definitely didn't want to see him like this.

And when Fang Shaoan, who was just like a corpse, heard Xia Jinqi's voice, he immediately perked up.

He turned his head and stared fixedly at Xia Jinqi for a long while before he flipped over and stood up. "sister-in-law, tell me, where is Xiao Ran? You must know where she is, right? ! "

"..."Xia Jinqi was stunned for a moment. She thought that she probably knew why Fang Shaoan would suddenly cause trouble here and even hit someone.

It should be related to Xiao Ran.

Seeing that Xia Jinqi did not speak, Fang Shaoan became anxious and could not help but ask loudly, "you know where she is, right? sister-in-law, I really can't find her... "

Chapter 1994: Did you really understand her heart?

He had asked Xia Jinqi this question before.

At that time, he did not receive an answer. He did not care because he knew that his information team would definitely have a way to find Zuo Xiaoran's whereabouts.

However, reality proved that he had overestimated himself and underestimated Zuo Xiaoran too much.

No matter what kind of connections he used, no matter how hard he searched, he could not find her whereabouts... .. there was not even the slightest trace of her ...

She must have been determined to leave. Along the way, she did not even use her ID card or credit card. Any information that could be connected to the Internet had been avoided by her.

In this era of rapid development of Internet information, finding a person could be very easy, but it could also be very difficult.

When a person completely cut off their social network, no matter how advanced information technology was, it would be useless.

Fang Shaoan had no other choice. His only hope now was to find out something from Xia Jinqi... ..

If there was no more news about Zuo Xiaoran, he really didn't know what he would become... ..

"sister-in-law, you and Xiao ran are such good friends. I'll definitely tell you where she went. Just tell me, please..." Fang Shaoan grabbed Xia Jinqi's shoulders and pleaded.

This time, Yan Jun didn't go forward to stop him. Instead, his gaze fell on Xia Jinqi.

Perhaps only Xia Jinqi would know something about Zuo Xiaoran.

Xia Jinqi couldn't say anything about the person who had high hopes, but when she saw Fang Shaoan in such pain, she felt pity for him.

"Why are you so determined to find her?" She suddenly asked.

Fang Shaoan frowned slightly and said without hesitation, "because I love her. I must find her!"

"... " Xia Jinqi didn't expect him to be so honest. After a pause, she asked again, "what happens after you find her?"

"MARRY HER!" Fang Shaoan had planned it all along. HE WAS READY TO PROPOSE However, the bride-to-be disappeared at this moment... ..

"What if her parents don't agree?" Xia Jinqi's next question instantly broke his belief. "Just like how your parents opposed you dating her back then. What would you do?"

Fang Shaoan was stunned by the question. It took him a long time to react. "Are you saying that Xiao ran left me because her parents didn't agree to her being with me?"

Seeing Fang Shaoan's surprised look, Xia Jinqi could only sigh "She didn't tell you anything, and you didn't ask anything? Before you went to the Ice Lake, her parents wanted to take her away, but she still hid it from her parents and stayed with you. She was worried that you wouldn't be able to hold on by yourself."

Xiao ran was a silly girl. She kept everything in her heart and bore all the hardships by herself.

Even when she left, she still left silently.

Fang Shaoan really never knew about this. He had once gone to meet Zuo Xiaoran's parents. At that time, her parents were quite satisfied with him. Why did he suddenly... ..

Suddenly remembering the things he had done after that, Fang Shaoan felt as if he had fallen into an ice cellar. It was bone-chilling.

"I... I didn't think so much..." he stammered, like a child who had done something wrong ...

Xia Jinqi stared at him quietly. "You said you loved her, but Shaoan, what have you done for her? Have you really understood her heart?"

These words might have been a little harsh, but since the pain had already been caused, he should explain it all at once.

Chapter 1995 was all about her

After all, Xia Jinqi really wanted to find out what kind of existence Zuo Xiaoran was in Fang Shaoan's heart.

If she were to casually tell him where Xiao ran was, not only would she destroy Xiao ran in the future, she would also destroy Fang Shaoan.

The two of them were her very precious friends... ..

Fang Shaoan was stumped by Xia Jinqi's question.

He lowered his eyes and covered his eyes that were shaking like an earthquake. There was a bitter feeling in his throat.

What had he done for Xiao Ran?

.. It seemed that there was really nothing that could be said.

Had he ever understood Xiao Ran's heart?

.. He had once thought that he understood her very well, but he did not even know when she had left or where she could have gone.

Only now did he realize that the so-called love he spoke of was so shallow... ..

His heart felt as if it was filled with lead, pressing down on him until his entire body trembled slightly.

Xia Jinqi had actually already made up her mind. As long as Fang Shaoan could give an explanation, she would tell him where Xiao ran had gone.

But now, he did not even have the courage to answer her two questions. How could she believe that he could give Xiao ran any future in the future?

Sighing secretly, Xia Jinqi lowered her eyes. "forget about her, Shaoan. You two are not suitable. "

As the old saying goes, it was better to destroy ten temples than to break up a marriage.

But in reality, only the right person could walk for the rest of their lives.

A melon that was forcefully twisted really would not be sweet.

Fang Shaoan did not expect Xia Jinqi to say such a thing. His heart was empty all of a sudden. He stepped on empty air, as if he had suffered a huge blow.

His eyes, which were bloodshot from being drunk, were even redder now.

The swirling fog instantly rose.

He laughed out loud, and his tears fell rapidly.

His heart felt as if it was being torn apart.

He had only fallen in love with someone, so why did everyone say that they weren't suitable?

His parents, her parents, and even their mutual friends had said the same thing.

So, were they really not suitable?

Fang Shaoan's lips twitched slightly, and he smiled painfully and helplessly "I can't forget... .. How can I forget .. Every time I close my eyes now, all I see is her voice, smile, and face. "When I go home, there are traces of her everywhere. The bed she slept in, the dressing table she used, the books she read, the dolls she played with... "I'm in the security department. Her photo is in the photo frame on my desk, and her name is embroidered on the pillow on my chair "... sister-in-law, tell me, how can I forget?"

He looked at Xia Jinqi in despair and pointed at his heart. "This place is filled with her. If I want to forget her, I'll have to DIG OUT MY HEART! "

With that, he did not stay any longer and turned around to leave.

He had just taken two steps when he was stopped by Yan Jun..

"You must be tired after all this time. I'll give you five days of vacation. Go out and take a walk, " Yan Jun patted his shoulder and said slowly.

Fang Shaoan paused. Just as he did not know how to answer, Xia Jinqi, who was behind him, finally opened her mouth.

A clear female voice sounded, as if it was from heaven.

"She's in Sanjiang City. "

Fang Shaoan was almost dumbfounded on the spot.

Xia Jinqi's attitude just now... .. He thought that she wouldn't tell him no matter what, but now.. ..

He turned around and looked at Xia Jinqi in surprise.

Xia Jinqi just sighed. "I don't know the exact address either. Whether or not you can find her depends on your luck. "

She didn't know much, so she could only help them here.

Chapter 1996 hit him a little

Fang Shaoan was already satisfied. His originally dim eyes shone brightly as if he had been revived.

"Thank you, sister-in-law! "

Then, he dashed out. After running for a long distance, he turned back to look at Yan Jun. “thank you, brother! I’ll definitely come back on the day you take office! “

He spoke extremely fast, and after he finished speaking, he completely disappeared into the night.

Yan Jun retracted his gaze and landed on Xia Jinqi’s slightly stunned face. “He knows what he’s doing. “

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi came back to her senses.

She took a step forward and held Yan Jun’s arm. Tilting her head, she asked with a smile, “how did you know that I would tell him? Could it be that you just happened to want to give him a holiday? “

Of course, it wouldn’t be such a coincidence.

Yan Jun lowered his eyes to look at her and lovingly scratched the tip of her delicate nose. “You’re also unwilling to let Xiao ran suffer. “

From the very beginning, Xia Jinqi had been very supportive of Zuo Xiaoran and Fang Shaoan being together, as well as Yan Youcheng and long Qingxin. She really hoped that a lover would end up together.

As for the vicious words that she had said just now, it was probably... .. She just wanted to give Fang Shaoan a beating ...

Xia Jinqi smiled slightly, and her large curved eyes flickered with a bright light. “You can’t bear to let Shaoan be sad either. “

After saying that, the two of them looked at each other and smiled. There was no need for them to say many things, as they already understood each other’s hearts.

This topic came to an end. Xia Jinqi turned around and looked around. It wasn’t even dawn yet!

“Then what about us? Are we going home?” She asked.

Yan Jun lowered his eyes and looked at his watch. His eyebrows raised slightly. “It’s still early. Do you want to watch the sunrise? “

“Sure!” Xia Jinqi nodded in surprise. After all, she had slept on the plane for so long, so she was in good spirits now!

Moreover, if they went back now, they would probably have to mobilize a lot of people to disturb a lot of people. Why not let them have a good rest and talk about it in the morning.

Seeing that she was happy, Yan Jun curled his lips and led her to the car parked by the roadside.

Just as they were about to get in the car, Yan Jun said something to the driver. He took the car keys and opened the door of the passenger seat for Xia Jinqi. “Get in the car. “

Xia Jinqi looked at him suspiciously, then looked at the driver who was walking towards the back of the car. She asked, “you drive? “

“Yes,” Yan Jun replied. He closed the car door for her, then walked around the front of the car and sat in the driver’s seat.

Xia Jinqi saw that he seemed to be in a good mood, so she didn't ask any more questions. She obediently sat beside him and looked out of the dark window for a while before turning back to look at him. Time seemed to pass very quickly.

When she reached the foot of the mountain, Xia Jinqi realized that there was already a car parked there. It was the car that Yan Jun had abandoned earlier... ..

Moreover, the driver was the same as before. When he saw that Yan Jun and the others had arrived, he immediately pulled out a few large bags from the car like magic.

"Young Master, Young Madam, the clothes and food are ready. "

Xia Jinqi raised her eyebrows. Just as she was about to ask something, she saw Yan Jun take out a light pink jacket from the bag and hand it to her. "It's cold on the mountain. "

Xia Jinqi reached out to take it embarrassedly. Now, she finally knew why Yan Jun wanted her to drive just now... .. So he had asked the driver to buy these things ...

While deep in thought, Yan Jun had already changed his clothes.

His jacket was dark brown, and it was a matching one with Xia Jinqi's.

After checking the food and water, he turned back to ask if Xia Jinqi still needed anything. However, he saw that she was just holding the jacket and staring at him in a daze. She had no intention of changing at all.

Her picturesque eyebrows immediately furrowed. "Why aren't you changing? Don't you like it? "

Chapter 1997, piglet's life was about to end

"No..." Xia Jinqi quickly came back to her senses. She lowered her head and was about to change, but he took her clothes. Then, he reached out with his slender hand and pretended to take off his clothes.

Xia Jinqi instinctively looked behind Yan Jun and found that the driver had already gone far away. Moreover, his back was facing them, so she couldn't see or hear anything. Only then did she sigh in relief.

When she looked down again, she found that her coat had already been taken off. Yan Jun had already put the light pink jacket on her.

"I'll do it myself. " She volunteered. After all, wearing clothes was a basic survival skill. She did not want to gradually lose it under Yan Jun's long and thoughtful care... ..

Unfortunately, when she said this, Yan Jun had already zipped it up for her — this was the precise speed that she had gained from long-term training.

And this outfit... .. was surprisingly fitting ...

Looking at what Yan Jun was wearing, even if it was a temporary mountain-climbing jacket, it still made him look high-end and custom-made!

“Did you often go to watch the sunrise?” She glanced at the bag in front of Yan Jun and asked.

There seemed to be a lot of things inside... ..

“The second time,” Yan Jun answered. He conveniently put the food and drinks into his black backpack.

“Oh...” Xia Jinqi nodded. Actually, she wanted to ask him who he went with for the first time, but she didn’t want to hear the answer that she didn’t want to hear, so she simply didn’t ask.

Everyone had a past. Logically, they were very clear, but emotionally... .. They would still be jealous ...

However, she didn’t even need to ask. Yan Jun was silent for a moment before he directly said, “the first time was when grandfather brought me here. It was this mountain.”

That year, Yan Jun had just turned ten years old. Yan Youcheng had said that he wanted to give him a birthday present, but in the end, he had come to climb the mountain... ..

At such a young age, he was carrying his own backpack. Yan Youcheng didn’t help him either. When he was tired, he let him rest. When he was thirsty, he drank his own water. The grandfather and grandson didn’t talk to each other on the way.

At that time, he had some complaints in his heart. Now that he thought about it, it felt like a lifetime ago.

Xia Jinqi was stunned for a moment. Before she could say anything, Yan Jun had already held her hand. “Let’s go. If We delay any longer, there won’t be anything left.”

“Okay.” Xia Jinqi nodded with a smile and followed his footsteps.

On the way, Yan Jun didn’t say much. Xia Jinqi guessed that he was probably thinking about something related to Yan Youcheng, so she tactfully remained silent.

However, after climbing all the way up, she slowly began to get tired, and the sky also faintly brightened up.

When they reached seventy percent of the way up, she finally couldn’t hold it in anymore... ..

“I can’t do it anymore, I can’t climb anymore...” Xia Jinqi waved her hands repeatedly, found a rock to lean against, and began to pant heavily.

Yan Jun also leaned over, opened a bottle of mineral water, and handed it to her. “drink some.”

Xia Jinqi took it and drank a big mouthful. Then, she turned back to look at him, feeling puzzled. “Aren’t you tired?”

He was still carrying something on his back, so why wasn’t his face red and he wasn’t panting?

“I’m not tired.” Yan Jun shook his head. He usually did exercise, so this bit of intensity was a piece of cake for him.

On the other hand, she... .. was panting so badly that she had to strengthen her exercise ...

He began to think about what exercise he would take her to do when he returned?

Swim Ride a bike Jog?

Xia Jinqi was completely unaware of this... ..

How would she know that her piglet life, where she slept until the sun was high, was about to end? After returning this time, Yan Jun would pick her up on time every morning to jog, rain or shine.

Chapter 1998 when you take office, won't I be able to do whatever I want? !

After panting for a while, her heart rate also dropped, and she wasn't so tired anymore.

Taking small sips of water, Xia Jinqi was enjoying the mountain breeze when she suddenly asked, "how old were you the last time you came here? "

"Ten years old, " Yan Jun answered. He casually took the water bottle that she was carrying and took a SIP himself.

"You climbed so high at such a young age... " Xia Jinqi was flabbergasted, and then she looked at herself... UH, people really can't be compared to each other ...

Yan Jun seemed to have fallen into deep thought. At first, the lines of his jaw were a little tense, but in the end, he slowly smiled and asked her, "can you still walk? "

"Yes! " Xia Jinqi nodded. She straightened her body and began to move forward with all her might.

When the two of them finally reached the top of the mountain, the sun had just risen from the horizon.

Tens of thousands of rays of light pierced through the clouds and sprinkled down bit by bit on the ground, awakening all living things in the world.

Xia Jinqi was so shocked by the beauty before her eyes that she even held her breath. When the first ray of light shone towards her, she subconsciously stretched out her hand, wanting to catch it... ..

The moment her hand, which had been slightly chilled by the mountain wind, came into contact with the light that was filled with warmth and power, Xia Jinqi seemed to feel some kind of power, some kind of mysterious and great power that was hidden in the world.

When she looked up again, the entire foot of the mountain had already been illuminated.

Even though it was separated by a thin layer of clouds and mist, the entire Rao city was completely within her sight.

It was truly a wonderful feeling to stand amidst the layers of mountains and look down on all the living beings below.

"It's so beautiful... " Xia Jinqi couldn't help but sigh. She took a deep breath and felt that the air was filled with a sweet smell.

Yan Jun looked at her from the side and smiled. "If you like it, we can come often in the future. "

“Sure!” Xia Jinqi was naturally happy to do so. As long as they were together, no matter where they went, it would be good.

After enjoying the sunrise, the two of them picked a spot and ate something. Then, they leaned against each other and enjoyed the grandeur and tranquility as if they were standing on the peak of Mount Tai.

Yan Jun stared at the city that was illuminated by the multicolored light. His eyes were as deep as the night.

“Ah Jin, five days from now, it will be the day I take office,” he suddenly said.

Xia Jinqi’s eyes paused for a moment, then she smiled and said, “congratulations!”

Hearing her excited tone, he smiled helplessly. “You’re so happy?”

“OF COURSE!” Xia Jinqi hugged his arm and said enthusiastically “You’ve reached the peak of your life! Many people can not do something in their lifetime, but you’ve easily done it. Moreover, after you take office, won’t I be able to do whatever I want? HMPH!”

Yan Jun couldn’t help but poke her forehead, but his gaze was filled with tenderness as he looked at her. “Are you a crab?”

Xia Jinqi chuckled. “I’m just joking!”

In fact, she knew very well in her heart that once Yan Jun took that position, no matter what they did, they would be more than ten times more restrained than before.

Because once something happened, it would be magnified by countless magnifying glasses.

Thinking of this, Xia Jinqi straightened her expression and asked him, “I heard that you didn’t deal with all the people who followed Lu Yiming before?”

“water is clear, but there are no fish,” Yan Jun answered.

He only picked a few birds to kill as a warning to others. The rest didn’t make a big fuss.

Firstly, it was practically impossible to replace all the people at once.

Secondly, with their existence, Yan Jun’s subordinates knew how to be more self-aware.

Chapter 1999: The days after would definitely get better and better.

Xia Jinqi nodded and looked down at the city under her feet.

She couldn’t see clearly from too far away, but she still remembered the news from before. Rao City was now in ruins.

Four regions had been destroyed to different degrees, and countless people had been affected.

But... Fortunately, Yan Jun was here ...

“when you become the president, everything will definitely get better.” She smiled faintly, her watery eyes filled with yearning and longing.

Yan Jun, however, fell silent.

He narrowed his long and narrow eyes and gazed at the city that was about to be controlled by him with a gloomy expression.

This city had tens of millions of people, and there was a lot of waste waiting to be done. Could he really do it well?

In the past, when he was learning to do business, his grandfather had taught him and helped him.

But now, there was no experience to be found.

Rao City had never suffered such a large area of damage. The buildings were repaired, but how were those hurt hearts to be repaired?

“If...” he lifted his lips, still somewhat hesitant.

Xia Jinqi interrupted him. “I know you will do well.”

As she spoke, she held his hand. “with me and the children accompanying you, our family will be together. What difficulties will we not be able to overcome?”

The trace of hesitation and hesitation in Yan Jun’s heart was instantly swept away when he heard Xia Jinqi’s words.

He turned his hand and held her warm little hand tightly. Yan Jun’s thin lips curved into a wanton smile. “Well said.”

Even if it was for her, the children, and the Yan family, he would definitely do it!

Xia Jinqi leaned over and rested her face on his broad shoulders. She also smiled. “The days in the future will definitely get better and better.”

At that time, the sky was already completely bright.

The colorful clouds witnessed this moment of clarity. Even the sky that was slowly turning blue was filled with joy.

The golden light sprinkled on the two figures who were leaning against each other on the mountain top. It was warm, and everything was as beautiful as the rising sun.

It was just eight o’clock when they returned to the Yan family after watching the sunrise.

The whole family woke up one after another. This was the time for them to gather together.

Xia Jinqi followed Yan Jun into the house and saw Yan Sheng, Ji Xinyu, and Quan Rui sitting at the dining table, talking and laughing as they ate breakfast. Little Quan Che, who was almost four years old, brought Yu Han and Xiao puff to play on the side of the coffee table. The floor was littered with their toys.

The moment she and Yan Jun walked in, everyone's eyes were on them, and everyone had smiles on their faces.

The feeling of going home was really good.

After having breakfast together, Yan Jun went out with Quan Rui. Yan Sheng and Ji Xinyu also went back to Qingxin Garden.

After Long Qingxin left, there were still many things that had not been settled.

These few days, Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun were not at home. Yan Sheng and Ji Xinyu were not willing to leave their two children. Now, they could finally be liberated.

On the other hand, Xia Jinqi had nothing to do, so she stayed at home to play with the children with Bai ran and share parenting tips!

“thank you so much for the past few days. If it weren't for you guys, we wouldn't have been able to go out with such ease.” Xia Jinqi held Bai ran's hand as the two of them sat together and chatted.

Bai Ran was turning on a music box and handing it to Xiao puff. The more she looked at the child, the more adorable she felt. She couldn't help but laugh. “Why are you being so polite with us? We're going to be in-laws in the future. It's only right to take care of our daughter-in-law in advance!”

These words were exactly the same as what Yan Jun had said before... ..

Chapter 2000: a little kindness

Xia Jinqi smiled embarrassedly and looked at Che Er, who was driving Yu Han's car by remote control. He seemed to have grown taller, and the outline of his face was more obvious.

When he grew up in the future, he would probably be an earth-shattering handsome man again.

On the other side, while Che Er was teaching Yu Han how to race, she skillfully picked up a piece of cut apple with a fork and fed it to Xiao puff, who was playing the music box. She even said in a serious tone, “ah...”

Xiao puff opened her mouth very cooperatively and bit off the thing that was brought to her mouth. She smashed it twice. It was so sweet!

Xia Jinqi and Bai ran looked at each other and couldn't help but laugh when they saw this!

“It seems that our in-laws are set in stone!” Xia Jinqi looked at Che er now and felt like a mother-in-law looking at her son-in-law. The more she looked at her, the more she liked her!

Xiao puff, who didn't know what the adults were thinking, fiddled with the music box for a long time, but it still didn't make any sound. She was very helpless. She frowned and stood up from the Mat Holding the music box, she rushed towards Bai ran with her short legs.

“Auntie, Auntie.”

Just as she was about to pounce into Bai ran's arms, she was intercepted by Xia Jinqi.

"Xiao Puff, you can't do this anymore, okay? Auntie has a little brother in her belly!" Holding Xiao puff in her arms, Xia Jinqi lectured her seriously.

Xiao puff frowned. She didn't understand what her mother was saying, but her gaze followed her mother's hand to Bai ran's belly. "little brother?"

Bai Ran was amused. "It could be a little sister?" After all... .. Her husband always wanted to have a daughter !!

Even though she said that, she still understood Xiao puff's meaning. She took the music box and adjusted it a few times before handing it back to Xiao puff.

Just as Xiao puff took the box, a simple piano tune slowly flowed out.

The little guy immediately laughed, looking very satisfied. He hugged the music box as if he was holding a precious treasure.

"Our Xiao puff has a new toy?" Xia Jinqi helped her tidy up her bangs. When she saw her intoxicated look, she couldn't help but laugh. "It seems that she really likes it this time!"

Bai Ran nodded as well. "She seems to like music very much."

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi quickly thought of all her and Yan Jun's direct blood relatives within three generations. It seemed like... .. Yes .. No one's hobby was music?

She was like Ji Xiaofu and had a little artistic talent when it came to drawing.

While she was deep in thought, the little guy in her arms climbed down from her lap and hugged the music box to play with her two brothers.

Actually, what Xia Jinqi didn't know was that Ji Heng had a special liking for the piano.

She didn't know if it was passed down from generation to generation, but since then, Xiao puff had quickly shown her sensitivity to music and an extraordinary understanding of music.

It wasn't until one day, when Xia Jinqi accidentally saw Xiao puff sitting next to Ji Heng and playing a complete 'happy birthday to you' on the piano, that she knew So it turned out that her sleepy little lazy pig was actually a little genius.

Speaking of this, she had to mention Ji Heng.

The first half of her life was full of ups and downs, and her wife and daughter died young. She didn't expect that in her later years, she would have the company of her granddaughter and Great-granddaughter.

Especially this great-granddaughter. Not only was she smart and cute, she looked almost identical to Xia Jinqi, and she even loved music!

Ji Heng really liked her a lot. He was afraid that she would melt in his mouth and fall if he held her in his hands.

Later on, Xia Jinqi found out that this was probably God's kindness to Grandpa Ji.

God had taken some things from him, so he had to compensate with some other things.
