

Trick Me 2191

Chapter 2191 had been waiting for a long time

In the blink of an eye, Yan Yusheng, who was wearing an apricot dress, walked in.

She wore a refreshing ponytail, her small face was fair, her eyes were clear, and there was a smile on the corner of her mouth. She took the initiative to beckon herself, “hello, you’ve been waiting for a long time, haven’t you?”

Qi Nian shook his head and suddenly felt a little apologetic. He didn’t even bother to beckon and rushed here so early in the morning.

It could be seen that Yan Yusheng was also in a hurry. Perhaps she didn’t even enjoy her morning exercise?

“I’m sorry to disturb you so early.” After thinking for a while, she still apologized.

After last night, she no longer had so much hostility towards Yan Yusheng and slowly began to calm down.

It was as if she was treating a friend she had just met.

Yan Yusheng was stunned for a moment. After last night, she roughly knew Qi Nian’s thoughts towards Quan Che. She was actually a little surprised to be here so early in the morning, but she did not expect Qi Nian’s attitude to be much better than she had imagined.

No matter what, the other party had already expressed their goodwill. As the host, she naturally could not be stingy.

The smile on her lips slowly spread. Yan Yusheng looked at the untouched breakfast on the table and pulled Qi Nian to sit down. “It’s not early anymore. You’re just in time. You haven’t eaten breakfast yet. Why don’t we eat together?”

“Sure.” Qi Nian nodded and sat next to Yan Yusheng.

Seeing that the eldest miss had taken her seat, aunt Liu brought another breakfast over.

Qi Nian had thought that it would be the same as her own, but she did not expect it to be baguette bread, jam, and some fruits. n.-o-(V.-E-(l-.b))l-/n

Aunt Liu could see the confusion in Qiannian’s eyes, so she explained with a smile, “I don’t know what miss will want to eat in the morning, so we usually prepare Chinese and western food.”

In fact, in the beginning, Xia Jinqi had instructed that whatever Yu Hanyu Sheng and her sister ate, they had to prepare the same for the three children of the Wu family.

However, aunt Liu declined tactfully. It was not until her youngest daughter slowly grew up that her body was not in good health. Xia Jinqi wanted to improve her food, so aunt Liu reluctantly accepted it.

She did not follow the eldest miss's standard. She only picked the remaining portion every day and gave it to her youngest daughter to eat.

By doing so, she did not waste any food and was also indebted to the Yan family. It was really the best of both worlds.

When Qi Nian heard her words, she was once again sure that Yan Yusheng must have grown up under the love of a family... ..

After saying that, aunt Liu turned around and left. Yan Yusheng and Qi Nian chatted as they ate.

"Miss Qi, why did you come to see me today?" Yan Yusheng asked as she drank a mouthful of fruit juice.

Qi Nian took a sip of the porridge and was savoring the aftertaste. "You can call me Xiao Nian. That's what brother Che and eldest cousin call me. "

Yan Yusheng nodded and suddenly frowned. "ELDEST COUSIN? "

"That's right... Bai Yuchen is brother Che's cousin. Didn't you know? I called him that following brother Che. " Qi Nian continued to drink the porridge with his head buried in his mouth. His tone sounded very normal, completely unlike the tense atmosphere last night ...

"I see... " Yan Yusheng couldn't think of the matter between Quan Che and Qi Nian for the time being. She was completely shocked by Bai Yuchen's identity.

She had been in school for so long, and she had always thought that teacher Bai was just teacher Bai. He was almost the same as a language, culture, chemistry, and physics teacher. Who knew that he was actually related to Quan Che?

This was also... .. A little too surreal ? ?

Moreover, why did she vaguely feel that something wasn't right?

If it was said that Bai Yuchen and Quan Che had known each other since the beginning, then... ..

Chapter 2192: he could not miss today's date

Yan Yusheng suddenly remembered that she was called to the office by Teacher Bai for no reason that day. She said that she suspected that she had cheated on her full marks exam paper. In the end, she left midway while she was doing the exam paper.

At that time, there was a teenager in the office.

Although she could not see clearly what the teenager looked like, she could vaguely remember that he was tall and handsome.

Now that she thought about it carefully, could it be that he was brother Che Er?

Qi Nian did not know what Yan Yusheng was thinking. Instead, he was secretly observing Yan Yusheng's every move while she was eating.

Seeing that her actions were slow and deliberate, even when she bit off the piece of bread that was covered with jam, the corners of her mouth did not have a single trace of it.

When she picked up the fruit with a fork, the utensils made the slightest sound of friction.

Although she drank the fruit juice in small mouthfuls, her actions did not appear pretentious at all. On the contrary, it made people feel very comfortable.

Every detail showed the upbringing and cultivation that she had received since she was young.

Such a person was indeed a match for brother Che.

After eating, Yan Yusheng told the school that she was on leave. She was prepared to accompany Qi Nian on a day trip to Rao city. Aunt Liu came in and said with a happy expression, "eldest Miss, Young Master Quan is here. "

"Why is he here? " Yan Yusheng was stunned for a moment. She saw the young man who walked in quickly with an anxious look on his face. His deep black eyes were filled with panic and worry that she had never seen before.

Clearly, he had rushed here in a hurry.

When his gaze fell on her, that panic was forcibly replaced by a brief moment of calmness.

There was no other reason for Quan Che to come early in the morning. The car that was supposed to send Qiannian back to Sanjiang City did not pick her up. Quan Che contacted the hotel and found out that she had left early in the morning.

He then asked the guards of the Yan family and found out that she had come here early in the morning.

Recalling what Qi Nian had said when he left last night, Quan Che immediately panicked and rushed over without thinking. He was afraid that Qi Nian would act impulsively and do something to hurt Yan Yusheng.

The person that he had protected in his hands for more than ten years was not allowed to be hurt, not even the slightest bit, not even by anyone!

His heart that was filled with worry was only half relieved when he saw that Yan Yusheng was intact.

He adjusted his breathing and quickly walked to Yan Yusheng and stopped in front of her. His sharp black eyes looked deeply into her eyes. "Are you okay? "

"I'm fine... " Yan Yusheng shook her head, not knowing why. She looked at him in puzzlement. "It's so early. Why are you here? "

Quan Che didn't answer, but Qi Nian, who was next to him, smiled. "You must have known that you were taking me out to play, so you came to join in the fun! "

When he said these words, Qi Nian's eyes turned slightly red.

She knew why brother Che had come to the Yan residence so early in the morning in a hurry.

He was afraid that she would hurt Yan Yusheng, right?

Ever since he came in, his eyes had never left Yan Yusheng.

His heart was only for Yan Yusheng.

If she didn't let go, wouldn't it be too boring?

At least, let her regain some of her last bit of dignity... ..

"That's good." Yan Yusheng smiled and turned to look at Quan Che. "You just came to Rao city. You haven't strolled around yet, right? If you have time, let's go together?"

Quan Che then turned to look at Qi Nian and nodded. "Okay."

In reality, his schedule for today was very tight.

He had just arrived in Rao city and had to start from scratch. There were too many things he needed to take care of.

But... .. He couldn't miss today's date ...

Chapter 2193: Take a look at something special

After discussing it, the three of them set off together.

Since they were going out for fun, they naturally wouldn't make a big fuss. The three of them sat in the same car.

The driver was Wu Shu.

Today, Yan Yuhuan had something to do and couldn't go with them, so he was allowed to come out together.

Qi Nian very consciously went to the front passenger seat. When she was fastening her seatbelt, she sneaked a glance at the backseat, her heart filled with mixed feelings.

But when she retracted her gaze, she was surprised to find that the man next door was also looking at the rearview mirror.

And he wasn't looking at anyone else, it was Yan Yusheng.

She couldn't be more familiar with that gaze... ..

She couldn't get it.

Could it be that he liked Yan Yusheng?

In her confusion, Yan Yusheng's voice came from the backseat, "brother Dashu, why didn't you accompany my brother to the company today?"

Yan Yusheng was also deeply surprised by Wu Shu's accompanying.

Because ever since he was young, Wu Shu had always been by Yan Yuhuan's side. Whether it was in the open or in the dark, today was suddenly an exception.

When Wu Shu heard this, he retracted his gaze as if he was fleeing. He turned around and started the car. At the same time, he replied, “young master asked me to protect miss. . “

Actually, he knew that this was a chance that young master had given him.

A chance to be by young miss. .

Yan Yusheng nodded. Then, she saw Qi Nian looking back at her in surprise. She quickly explained, “This is Wu Shu. He grew up with US brother and sister. I also call him brother. “

After saying that, she subconsciously looked at Quan Che who was beside her.

It seemed like he was introducing him.

Quan Che nodded slightly and looked at Wu Shu in the rearview mirror. “Mr. Wu, nice to meet you. “

Wu Shu looked at the rearview mirror and said calmly, “Young Master Quan, you’re too kind. “

This simple sentence was neither servile nor overbearing. It was reserved, but it also addressed Quan Che as young master, separating his identity from it.

This was the Wu family.

Just like Liu Juan and his wife back then, they were grateful for the Yan family’s kindness, but they had never climbed up the social ladder and knew their status.

Qi Nian saw that the two of them had greeted each other, and he was embarrassed to not say anything. He could only smile and say, “Hello, brother Wu. I’m Qi Nian. “

“Hello. ” Wu Shu nodded slightly and smiled back. Then, he drove seriously without any intention of chatting with them.

However, he would still subconsciously look at the rearview mirror when he ran into a red light occasionally.

First, they went to the city center for a stroll. At noon, they ate Rao city’s specialty dishes, and in the afternoon, they went to Qingxin Garden. n.-o-(V.-E-(l.-b))l-/n

Shopping malls were similar in every city. Yan Yusheng saw that Qi Nian was not interested in shopping, so he wanted to take her to see something special.

Speaking of special, it was the one and only Qingxin Garden.

“This is the house that great-grandmother left behind. It’s probably more than a hundred years old. It’s been carefully maintained and renovated, and it’s still antique. ” Yan Yusheng led the group into the courtyard and walked along the winding corridor.

There were a few framed landscape paintings hanging on the wall of the corridor that connected the Lotus pond to the inner courtyard. The inscription was written in calligraphy and was very sloppy. There were also many seals. Qiannian could not understand them, but she felt that the paintings were probably a little old.

Walking along the corridor, one could slowly feel that there seemed to be an indistinct sweet fragrance in the air, as well as a faint smell of green grass.

At the end of the corridor was an endless lotus pond.

This year, the Lotus flowers bloomed very luxuriantly, even squeezing the few pleasure boats that mother liked the most to the side. There was no room for action at all.

Chapter 2194: as long as you're willing

They walked along the long corridor to the center of the pool. A small attic was set up there. It was where long Qingxin used to make Qipao.

Yan Yusheng did not take the guests to great-grandma's room without permission. Instead, she brought them to the small pavilion downstairs for a short rest.

The servants served tea and snacks. She first went to offer incense to Great-grandma, and Wu Shu followed her.

Only Quan Che and Qi Nian were left sitting opposite each other.

The servants were also tactful. After the tea and snacks were served, they retreated to the side and lowered their heads to serve.

The atmosphere was a little awkward at first.

Qi Nian sighed and looked straight at Quan Che. "I know why you came. "

Quan Che furrowed his brows but did not speak. He heard her question again, "you're afraid that I'll hurt her, aren't you? "

Silence.

Quan Che did not refute.

After a long while, he lifted his thin lips. "Don't do anything stupid. "

"..."Qi Nian gritted her teeth. She thought that brother Che would say that Yan Yusheng was innocent, or that Yan Yusheng did not know anything at all. She thought that brother Che would only speak up for Yan Yusheng.

However, brother Che's words were directed at her.

Her eyes suddenly turned red.

The reason why she was able to live so peacefully in these ten years of living abroad was because brother Che had arranged everything for her behind her back.

Apart from her love life, brother Che had taken good care of her.

She should be grateful to such a person and not pester him endlessly.

There was also Yan Yusheng. She was also a good person, so good that people couldn't hate her at all.

Qi Nian let out a long sigh before lowering her eyes and looking at the plates of exquisite snacks on the table. It was something she had never seen before.

She unceremoniously picked up a piece of hibiscus cake and put it into her mouth. It was sweet and not greasy, and it made her appetite soar.

It was much better than the sandwiches and hamburgers she had eaten overseas.

And it was precisely this taste that made her completely make up her mind.

"Brother Che, don't worry. I'll treat her well." After swallowing the second piece of hibiscus cake, Qi Nian said with a little choked up voice, "I'll like the person you like too."

The person who was so stubborn yesterday that she wouldn't listen to a single word of his was suddenly enlightened today. It was as if she was a different person.

Quan Che looked at her, a hint of apology flashing in his eyes.

He handed her a tissue. "It's good that you've thought things through."

Qi Nian obediently took the tissue and wiped the corners of his eyes. He asked again, "can I still call you brother Che in the future?"

"Of course." Quan Che nodded. "As long as you're willing."

Hearing his answer, Qi Nian smiled happily. He picked out the largest piece of hibiscus cake and gave it to Quan Che. "Brother Che, try this. It's Super Delicious! Although it's not as good as the mutton skewers I ate last night!"

Quan Che took a look at the hibiscus cake that appeared in front of him and did not refuse. Instead, he took the opportunity to ask, "last night? Bai Yuchen brought you there?" novE(l)l.In

"Yeah! It's like opening the door to my new world!"

"..."

Inside the house.

Yan Yusheng offered incense to long Qingxin and carefully wiped her photo frame.

"great-grandma was so beautiful when she was young!" Looking at the bright smile of the young girl in horseback riding attire in the photo, Yan Yusheng sighed with some sadness.

When great-grandma left, she was still too young and could not remember anything. All she could hear about great-grandma was from her parents, grandparents, and the photos and old things left behind by great-grandma in Qingxin Park.

Wu Shu stood quietly behind her, watching her carefully wipe the photo frame and put it back in its original position.

Chapter 2195: It was not good to break the rules in

When he had first stepped into Qingxin garden with his parents, he had met the Great Madam once.

Although his memory was very blurry, he could vaguely remember that it was an old lady with a heroic face and a kind and kind smile.

In the silence, the sound of hurried footsteps came from outside the door.

Before he turned his head, he heard a familiar voice, “the eldest miss is here? Aiya! Why didn’t you inform me earlier? “

The latter half of the sentence was said to the servants under him, with a slight reprimand.

Yan Yusheng only turned around when she heard that, and a smile immediately appeared on her small face. “Uncle Wu! I’m also here at the last minute, so I thought I’d drop by to see you! “

“Alright, alright. There’s your favorite fish in the pond. I’ll fish a few for you in a while. Braised or soup? The tomatoes in the ground are just ripe, why don’t we still make tomato stewed fish?” Butler Wu said a lot of words excitedly He had watched Yan Yusheng grow up, and in addition, he was grateful to the Yan family. Naturally, he doted on this child even more. It was not an exaggeration to say that he treated her better than his own daughter.

“Let’s stew the fish with tomatoes! Uncle Wu’s fish with tomatoes is the best!” Yan Yusheng could not help but act coquettishly Originally, she had wanted to ask Quan Che and Qi Nian about where to eat lunch. After all, they were guests. But now that she saw uncle Wu’s enthusiasm, she was really embarrassed to refuse.

After saying that, she turned to look at Wu Shu, who had not spoken all this while, and said to uncle Wu, “uncle Wu, brother Dashu is here too. Make some of his favorite dishes as well. Let’s get together for lunch! “

Upon hearing that, Butler Wu turned back to look at his eldest son and said shyly, “this... lady still brought her friends over. We won’t eat together. It’s not good to let people know that we broke the rules!”

“It’s okay! They won’t mind these things. It’s settled then!” Yan Yusheng had never treated them as servants. Since young, they had been called brother and uncle. They were no different from a family.

Butler Wu could not be persuaded and could only nod. “okay, okay, okay. WE’LL LISTEN TO XIAO PUFF! “

Yan Yusheng then smiled and winked at Wu Shu. “brother Dashu, you haven’t seen uncle Wu for a long time, right? You guys have a good chat. I’LL BRING THEM FISHING! “

After saying that, he took the lead and left the room.

It was only at this moment that Wu Shu saw Yan Yusheng’s back as she left. Only then did he understand why she wanted to come to Qingxin Garden.

Other than bringing Quan Che and Qi Nian to play, perhaps... .. She just wanted to bring him back to see her elderly father ? ?

Sighing secretly, Wu Shu turned to look at his father. "Dad, I heard from third brother that your back pain has acted up again some time ago? "

"It's nothing! I've applied the ointment you sent me. It's much better now! " Butler Wu waved his hand. He did not take these things to heart. That was an old problem of his. In the past, he had fallen down from fishing in the winter. Now, as he got older, he became more and more incompetent. After a few consecutive rains, he became ill.

His minor illness and minor pain were nothing serious. However, he was worried about his children. "How about you? Stay by the young master's side and be careful in everything. You must protect the young master well, understand? "

"I understand. " Wu Shu nodded and helped his father out of the House.

Butler Wu was still worried. "and your brother who doesn't know the immensity of Heaven and earth, don't let him cause any more trouble! The Yan family has taken care of our family for so many years. Even if we were to be smashed to pieces, we wouldn't be able to repay them! "

Chapter 2196: was being teased to the point of no return

Wu Shu listened quietly. All these years, his parents did not often whisper in his ear. He could also feel that the Yan family was good.

When Yan Yusheng went downstairs, Qi Nian had already finished all the pastries on the table. Moreover, he looked like he had not finished yet. Seeing that she had come, he immediately sighed "Yu Sheng! The pastries in your house are too delicious! Is the chef a local? Can you let him teach me how to make them? "

No matter what, he had come to Rao city. Qi Nian could not bring these delicacies with him, so he thought that he might as well learn a thing or two so that he could cook them for his parents to taste.

Speaking of which, she had not seen her parents for many years. It was a little unfilial of her to go back empty-handed.

This was all brother Che's fault!

If he had not returned to the country without telling her, she would have rushed back after finding out about it. How could she have forgotten to buy a gift? ! !

Yan Yusheng did not know why, but Qiannian's attitude towards her had completely changed after just one night.

However, no matter what the reason was, Qiannian was now more likable.

"Alright, it should be quite easy to learn. Shall I bring you to the kitchen? " Yan Yusheng nodded and stood up enthusiastically, preparing to bring her there.

Qi Nian also stood up, but he shook his head, "just find someone to bring me there! You can talk to brother Che Together! " novE(l)l.In

After saying that, without waiting for Yan Yusheng's reply, he randomly picked a servant who was very close to him and said, "can I trouble you to bring me to the kitchen? "

The Servant immediately made an inviting gesture respectfully, "this way, please. "

Qi Nian turned around and smiled at Yan Yusheng, then left with the servant without hesitation.

The moment she turned around, she secretly sighed and told herself, "Qi Nian, you did well. ". That's it. If Brother Che is happy and Yu Sheng is happy, you... .. will also be happy ...

Yan Yusheng wanted to stop her, "little... "

"Let her go. " A familiar voice came from behind.

Yan Yusheng turned around and frowned at Quan Che, "what... happened to you guys just now? "

She could more or less guess Qi Nian's feelings towards Quan Che.

In this aspect, whether a girl had experience or not, her sixth sense was very sensitive.

"It's nothing. " Quan Che didn't intend to explain in detail. He only said, "little Nian said that she will treat you well in the future. "

"..."Yan Yusheng was stunned. She almost thought that the two of them were quarreling and quarreling. Who knew that they were actually talking about her?

Yan Yusheng did not intend to ask about the details of their conversation. After a daze, she smiled and said, "I will treat her well too. "

"Huh? " Quan Che looked at her with a faint smile, as if he did not hear her clearly.

Her small face immediately turned red. Yan Yusheng lowered her eyes and did not dare to look at him. After a while, she stammered, "because... because she is your cherished friend. "

Because she's the person you cherish, I will treat her well, unconditionally.

This... Should be considered a confession ? ?

If Shenjia Linxi were present at this moment, she would definitely drop her jaw in shock!

Who would have thought that Miss Yan Yusheng, who had never been in a relationship since she was young, would actually be so good at sweet-talking? ! !

And, she even said it so naturally? ! !

Look at the little flames jumping up and down in our aloof eldest young master Quan's pupils. It was obvious that he was being teased to the point of no return!

"She's my cherished friend, so you treat her well. Then..." Quan Che suddenly stood up and walked up to Yan Yusheng, stopping. "What about me? "

Chapter 2197: what was his identity

His tall figure pressed down, and his fiery gaze looked at her tenderly.

His unique masculine aura surrounded her in an instant.

Yan Yusheng blinked, her small face burning hot. After a long while, she squeezed out a few words, "i... I will treat you well too... "

"How well?" Quan Che narrowed his eyes slightly and continued to ask.

He would not give in on this issue.

Although they would spend a lot of time together in the future, when it came to matters of love, the sooner they were exposed, the sooner they could rest assured.

It was not that he did not notice the way Wu Shu looked at her... ..

They were all men, so they understood the meaning of it too well.

Yan Yusheng naturally did not know that Quan Che had thought so much. She only answered naively, "very good, very good! "

As she said that, she walked around him and walked towards the edge of the pool.

After temporarily getting out of the alert range, Yan Yusheng felt that she could breathe smoothly. Thus, she took the opportunity to change the topic, "Brother Che Er, do you want to go fishing? Let's have a good all-fish feast tonight! "

Quan Che turned his head to look at the girl with bright eyes and white teeth by the Lotus pond. He narrowed his phoenix-like eyes and nodded slightly. "Okay. "

Seeing that he had agreed, Yan Yusheng did not say anything else. She directly got someone to take the fishing rod and Bait, picked a cool and cool place, and started the fishing plan.

Seeing that Yan Yusheng did not ask the servants to help, he skillfully hung up the bait and picked a place to throw the bait. Quan Che smiled and asked, "do you like fishing? "

"I can kill time when I have nothing to do." Yan Yusheng smiled and said, "when I was young, I went to my grandfather's house to play. When he and Qingzhou were painting, he could sit for an afternoon. I would fish by the side. "

As time passed, he had actually come up with some techniques.

For example, on summer mornings, he had to bathe in places with sunlight. When the sun came out for one or two hours, he had to bathe in places with aquatic plants.

These were all life experiences!

When Quan Che heard this, he furrowed his brows slightly. "Old Master Xia likes to paint? "

Out of his true love for his family, Quan Che also got to know the members of the Xia family, including everyone's hobbies. However, he didn't know that Xia Jitian actually liked to paint?

When Yan Yusheng heard this, she was first stunned. Then, she shook her head and said with a smile, "I'm talking about my mother's Godfather, GRANDPA Qi. "

When she said this, Quan Che's slightly furrowed brows didn't relax. He didn't know that Yan Yusheng had another grandfather.

However, no matter who this person was, he wasn't interested. The only thing he wanted to know was... "Is he good to you? "

"very good! He's always lived in seclusion and rarely went out. Moreover, he always said that I look very similar to my mother. " As Yan Yusheng said this, she was also absent-minded for a moment.

Every time she went, grandpa Qi was very happy. He would bring her a lot of delicious food, tell her stories, and even let her be a model. But many times, she found that GRANDPA Qi would stare at her in a daze... ..

It was as if he saw someone else through her.

Later, when she asked her mother, she only smiled and said that it was because they looked too much like grandma.

GRANDPA, you Miss Grandma... ..

Thinking of this, Yan Yusheng looked back at Quan Che. "I'll bring you to see him another day! "

"okay. " Quan Che continued to nod. Then, he thought of a serious question and asked her, "in what capacity? "

"Ah? " Yan Yusheng was stunned for a moment and looked at him in confusion.

Quan Che was not in a hurry. He explained with a faint smile, "in what capacity will I visit your grandfather? "

Yan Yusheng," ..."

Chapter 2198: I'm here for you

It was normal for friends to come over to visit, but if it was to pay a visit to an elder in the family, then it wouldn't make sense if they didn't have any special connections.

Yan Yusheng immediately reacted to Quan Che's reminder.

Her face turned red without her noticing. She didn't dare to look at him, "just... just... "

After half a day, she didn't say anything. Instead, her ears turned completely red, and her whole body was on fire.

Quan Che's lips curled up slightly. Looking at the girl who had become so cute because of his words, a certain part of his heart became extremely soft.

He took a step forward, and his large, broad hand carefully held hers. "Do you still remember what I said when I left? "

Yan Yusheng looked up at him and nodded lightly.

Of course she remembered.

Even though more than ten years had passed, the scene of that night was still vivid in her mind.

He said that when she was twenty years old, he would come back. ~~noVe(lb~~-In

And He came back early.

"Do you know why I came back early? " He asked again.

Yan Yusheng looked into his handsome and deep eyes and tilted her head slightly, guessing, "did you finish your studies? "

"Yes, " Quan Che answered, a trace of gentleness gradually appearing in his eyes. "For twelve years, I didn't slack off at all, just so that I could come back to see you early. "

"..."Yan Yusheng was stunned. She only knew that he must have a reason for coming back early. She didn't expect that it was for her... ..

Her stunned look became the best words of love in his eyes.

His well-defined fingers lifted slightly and gently stroked the side of her face. He said to her word by word, "when we were young, my parents set a marriage contract for us. I have always taken it to heart. "

The matter that had not been made clear was finally exposed. Yan Yusheng's small hands that hung by her side quietly clenched and then quietly let go, repeating the same process.

After an unknown amount of time, she sighed softly, "but it has been so many years. You... don't even know me. Or, brother Che Er, if you only want to listen to your parents' arrangements, then we... "

It was one thing for the two of them to have a good impression of each other, but since they brought up the marriage engagement when they were young, it was a completely different matter.

When they were young, they didn't understand. They only thought that it was fun for their parents to talk about it, so they blindly joined in the fun.

But now that they had grown up and understood the meaning behind it, they had to explain things clearly.

"They are them, and I am me. I know the meaning of marriage. " Quan Che interrupted her hesitation and told her in an extremely firm tone, "Yusheng, I'm here for you. "

It was just a simple sentence, but it caused a huge wave in Yan Yusheng's heart.

She stared at him in a daze and suddenly felt like she was floating in the air. Her feet couldn't touch the ground, and her heart was beating extremely fast. There was something pleasant that was secreting rapidly, making her feel an indescribable happiness!

She thought, this was probably the feeling of being moved?

It was so real and so fast.

Her tightly clenched hands finally loosened at this moment.

She smiled and looked at him. Her bright eyes and white teeth were as bright as spring flowers.

“So, you went to the school to see me as soon as you came back?” Her tone was tinged with a hint of mischievous pride.

Quan Che furrowed his slender brows slightly and fell silent.

“The person who was reading behind the curtain that day was you, right?” The smile on Yan Yusheng’s lips slowly widened. “You even kept quiet on purpose, afraid that I would recognize you?”

Chapter 2199: what did I say last night?

She threw out a series of questions. Even though Quan Che did not say a word, she knew that she had guessed correctly!

Moreover, the person who knew that she had always cared about turned out to care about her. This feeling was really too wonderful... ..

Quan Che looked at the girl in front of him who was smiling brightly. The corners of his thin lips gradually rose. “When did you find out?”

Those carefully hidden actions were discovered just like that. He was actually not angry at all. Just seeing her happy was more important than anything else.

“I won’t tell you!” Yan Yusheng blinked her eyes. Suddenly, she was in a great mood. n((OVELb1n

Knowing that she wanted to keep him in suspense, Quan Che did not expose her. Instead, he continued the previous topic, “have you thought about my identity?”

After saying so much, he still had to figure out his ultimate goal first.

This time, Yan Yusheng did not hesitate. Instead, she whispered with a red face, “didn’t you say last night...”

“Last night, what did I say?” QuannChee raised his eyebrows and pretended to have amnesia. However, his dark eyes were filled with a warm smile.

“You... didn’t you say that you’re my fianc??... ” Yan Yusheng lowered her small head and said in a soft voice. Her face was so red that it was about to bleed ! !

She clearly knew it, yet she still insisted on saying it!

As the mastermind behind all of this, Quan Che finally heard his satisfactory answer.

Seeing her shy look, his heart moved and he pulled her into his arms.

“whose FIANC?? ” He leaned close to her ear, lowered his voice, and asked her in a deep voice.

A warm breath instantly blew into her ears. That strange feeling was tingled with numbness, as if she had been electrocuted. With a boom, all the rationality in Yan Yusheng’s mind disappeared completely, and she stammered, “my... “

Hearing this, the smile on Quan Che’s lips suddenly widened. That unconcealable joy turned into waves of deep laughter that drifted into her ears and crashed into her soul.

As if by some strange coincidence, she slowly raised her hands and carefully wrapped them around his waist.

At that moment, she thought that she was intoxicated... ..

However, before she could be intoxicated for a while, there was a clear splash sound from the pool behind her.

The two of them came back to their senses at the same time and looked into the pool. Only then did they realize that one of the fishing rods had been pulled into the pool!

It was likely that some fish had taken the bait, but the two of them were too... .. mm, they were immersed, so they did not notice that the fish had a chance to take advantage of them ! !

“Ah! My fishing Rod! ” Yan Yusheng hurriedly ran to the side of the pool and watched helplessly as the fishing rod was pulled further and further away. She wanted to catch it, but she was powerless.

In the next second, a powerful arm wrapped around her waist and wrapped around her whole body.

She subconsciously looked back and happened to meet Quan Che’s pitch-black eyes, which were full of worry.

“Be careful. “

After being stunned for a moment, Yan Yusheng finally smiled, “I’m fine. “

Was He afraid that she would fall into the pond in excitement?

Seeing this, the servants at the side immediately found someone to fish for the fishing rod.

In just a short while, a small boat that could only accommodate two people appeared in the originally Lush Lotus pond. It was effortless to fish the fishing rod back.

However, the fish that were originally hooked had already run away, leaving behind an empty fishing hook.

Hearing the commotion outside, Praying Mantis did not even have the time to wash her hands that were covered in flour. She hurriedly ran out and asked curiously, “what happened? What happened? “

Chapter 2200: was a little painful. She had to experience something

As soon as she finished speaking, the expression on her face froze.

By the pond.

Under the Golden Sunlight, the man and woman embracing each other looked so blissful and beautiful...

...

A trace of loneliness and sadness flashed through her heart.

Giving up was really not an easy thing to do.

But in the next second, Qiannian raised her smile again and walked towards them.

It was a little painful, but she had to experience something.

Seeing that it was Qiannian coming over, Yan Yusheng immediately came back to her senses and withdrew from Quan Che's arms. She said with some embarrassment, "the fishing rod was pulled into the water."

"Ah? What kind of fish are you two fishing for? How can such a small palm-sized fish snatch the fishing rod from your hands?" Qi Nian mumbled. She looked towards the center of the pond and was immediately attracted by the small boat. "Wow! This is too cool! This Lotus pond is so big that it can actually row a boat! Yu Sheng, can I go up there and play?!"

Ever since she had been enlightened by Bai Yuchen, Qi Nian had started to pay less attention to Quan Che.

Reality proved that when she shifted her gaze away from Quan Che, she realized that there were so many fun and delicious things around.

However, Yan Yusheng frowned. "that small boat isn't safe, and the range of activities is also small. If you like it, let's go to the pleasure boat to play?"

"pleasure boat?!" Qi Nian was completely stunned. "How big is this Lotus pond? ! No... Yu Sheng, how big is your great-grandmother's house exactly?"

"This... I don't know exactly how big it is, but there's a horse farm in the backyard and a small vegetable garden next to it. We'll go there to pick our food tonight." Yan Yusheng carefully calculated the area of Qingxin Garden and was also shocked ...

Upon hearing this, Qi Nian's mouth had already opened into an 'o' shape. He nodded like a chick pecking at rice, "I want to go, I want to go, I want to go!"

"Then let's go?" Yan Yusheng smiled and took her hand, then turned back to look at Quan Che who had been left to the side, "brother Che er, let's go!"

Quan Che then nodded helplessly and followed.

For the whole afternoon, Qi Nian rode horses and picked vegetables. He was very tired.

Yan Yusheng also accompanied her to play around. When it was time for dinner, her appetite was also surprisingly good. She ate two bowls of rice in a row. Uncle Wu was so happy that he didn't even close his mouth for a long time.

After dinner, they looked at the night scenery for a while before the four of them left together.

After sending Qi Nian back to the hotel, Quan Che and Yan Yusheng returned to the Yan family home.

The elders of the Yan family were not around, so Quan Che couldn't stay in the Yan family for long. So after he saw Yan Yusheng enter the Yan family's door, he turned around and was ready to leave.

However, when he turned around, he saw Yan Yuhan who had just returned from finishing his business.

Although he was only seventeen years old, the rich and noble aura on his body was already unusually steady, especially the arrogance that was exactly the same as Yan Jun's. He had the bearing of a King!

When Quan Che looked at Yan Yuhan, Yan Yuhan happened to be looking at him as well.

Separated by the thick darkness of the night, the two of them looked at each other from afar. Two powerful AURAS burst out at the same time, clashing silently!

Neither side won, and neither side lost!

The two of them maintained a calm expression from beginning to end. In their silent contest, they sized each other up carefully.

As for the person who was about to marry his sister, Yan Yuhan naturally had to personally watch over him.

Especially everything that had happened during the day. Wu Shu had reported everything in detail.

This included how many times Xiao Sheng had smiled at Quan Che today, and how many times she had furrowed her brows. She had known how the lunch and dinner had gone, whether or not she had sat next to Quan Che, and even how many times Quan Che had given Xiao Sheng food.
