

Tick Me 231

Chapter 231: Xia Tianjiao

“Xia Tianjiao provoked me first.” Xia Jinqi thought that Yan Jun was here to interrogate her. She snorted slightly and didn’t seem to admit her mistake at all.

Who knew that not only did Yan Jun not educate her, he even praised her. “Well played.”

Xia Jinqi was speechless.”?”

She raised her eyebrows to look at him, only to see that his expression didn’t change as he said, “the next time something like this happens, you can ask your subordinates to do it for you so that you won’t hurt yourself.”

After carefully savoring the meaning in his words, Xia Jinqi couldn’t help but give him a thumbs up.

He was really black-bellied!

The car drove straight to Qingxin Garden.

The second time she came here, Xia Jinqi could be considered to be familiar with the road. In addition, Long Qingxin was not here, so she did not have so many restrictions.

However, just as she returned home, Yan Jun pulled her to do exercise, causing her to forget what she wanted to say to him!

After lying down in the middle of the night, Yan Jun fell asleep, but Xia Jinqi was awakened by a piece of news.

It was from Ling Yue.

[the monkey has gone up the mountain.]

This was a code word, meaning that the elders had appeared and wanted to meet her immediately.

Tiptoeing off the bed, Xia Jinqi held her aching waist and went into the changing room to change her clothes before leaving Qingxin Garden.

This place was not as crowded as the Yan family, so no one stopped her on her way out.

When she reached the door, an extended nanny van was already waiting for her.

As soon as she got into the van, Ling Yue handed her a set of clothes.

“Miss, this is a custom-made casual suit for you. The mask is also custom-made. It is embedded with the most advanced sound-changing system and is controlled by a microcomputer. It can restore the male voice to the greatest extent.”

Xia Jinqi picked up the mask and put it on. She used it according to Ling Yue’s instructions.

When she opened her mouth, it was indeed a steady and powerful male voice. She still felt a little unaccustomed to it!

“With this thing, no one can guess that I am Xia Jitian’s daughter...” Xia Jinqi muttered. She closed the curtain and began to change into casual clothes.

Ling Yue knew that Xia Jinqi was frightened by Yan Jun when she was in Las Vegas, so she thought of disguising her identity and asked her to prepare these things at the last minute.

“The eldest miss is really thoughtful.” Ling Yue smiled. Thinking of the blunder that day, she couldn’t help but smile.

While they were talking, Xia Jinqi had already changed her clothes and came out.

Her long black hair was tied up and hidden in a black cap. She wore a mask on her face, and her clothes were replaced by a wide man’s suit, which covered her well-developed breasts.

At first glance, she really looked like a handsome man.

With a low male voice, no one would have thought that her real body was actually a woman.

“How can I not be more thorough? I still have to meet Yan Jun next time. I can’t always have my back to him, right?” Xia Jinqi shook her head helplessly. Lying was really a skill!

Moreover, Yan Jun was too shrewd. She also knew that paper could not cover fire. If she could hide it for a day, then so be it.

Who asked the two of them to be business partners now?

“What about the name? Eldest miss can’t always be a nameless person, right?” Ling Yue frowned. Eldest miss wanted to conceal her name, so she had to come up with a new name.

“Xia Tian,” Xia Jinqi said lightly. She had thought of this long ago. “Her English name is summer.”

“Xia Tian?” Ling Yue couldn’t help but exclaim in admiration. “What a good name!”

Xia Jinqi only smiled when she heard it. Then, she took the document from Ling Yue’s hand and asked while flipping through it, “the elders suddenly want to see me. What’s so important?”

Ling Yue stopped smiling and answered seriously, “someone called a temporary board meeting. The content is to remove the current leader, you.”

Chapter 232: How could she stand it?

“DEPOSE ME?” Xia Jinqi’s interest was piqued. “Who’s the leader?”

Xia Jinqi furrowed her brows. “finally, someone can’t take it anymore.”

Chang Qiye, his real name was often said to be. He was the descendant of one of the original founders of Lego. It was said that his family had always been ranked seventh in Lego shares, so he was given the title of seventh master.

However, Ling Yue told Xia Jinqi privately that the reason Chang Qiye was given the title of seventh master was most likely because he despised his real name!

As the saying goes, if others didn't know, they would think that he was going to say something else!

These words could only be said in private. No one dared to say them in front of Chang Qiye.

Everyone in Lego knew that Chang Qiye was a person who walked in society all year round. He acted like a Mafia boss and no one dared to provoke him.

For many years, Chang Qiye had been leading people to deal with the black parts of the Lego arena.

Therefore, he still had a very high prestige in the board of directors. It was not impossible for him to lead a temporary board of directors meeting.

Ling Yue was also very clear about Chang Qiye's methods. At this moment, she was also very worried about Xia Jinqi "eldest miss, Chang Qiye has been coveting the position of leader for many years. A person with such seniority like him has not been able to take the position of leader. On the contrary, it is the younger you. He must be unhappy."

Xia Jinqi naturally knew what Chang Qiye was thinking.

Moreover, Chang Qiye was not the only one who thought this way in Lego. There were also many people who were not convinced by her.

Ever since she was informed on her wedding night that she had been chosen to be the leader of Lego, she had not really met the higher-ups of Lego. Since she could not sleep tonight, she might as well meet these people!

The more challenging things were, the more curious she was!

Thinking of this, Xia Jinqi turned around and instructed Ling Yue, "in the future, don't call me Miss Anymore."

This did not match her magnetic male voice at all, okay?

Ling Yue paused for a moment, then came to her senses. She hurriedly changed her address. "Okay, boss."

As Xia Jinqi nodded, the nanny van had already stopped.

Ling Yue was the first to open the door and get out of the car. She stood respectfully at the side.

Xia Jinqi took a deep breath. She lowered the nervousness and panic in her eyes and got out of the car resolutely.

The moment she stood still, she saw a team of at least fifty people in front of her bow to her in unison.

All of them were wearing black suits and white shirts. They were very uniform. At a glance, just by looking at them, it was a kind of enjoyment.

And these people were all high-ranking members of Lego.

Just like how she was sizing up these people, many people were also quietly sizing her up.

Xia Jinqi tried her best to suppress her slightly trembling heart. She took a deep breath without batting an eyelid and swept her gaze across everyone in front of her. Her gaze was cold and determined.

Those who were sizing her up all shrank back in fear, not daring to look at her again!

“I’ll have to trouble all of you to come out personally to welcome her. How can Xia Tian Bear it?” Xia Jinqi spoke, her every word calm and domineering.

At first, she was still a little unaccustomed to hearing that her voice was a man’s, but now that she heard it, she felt that it wasn’t too bad.

At the very least, these people in front of her had all been deceived by her.

None of the people below dared to make a sound. Only the leader of the elders walked over and patted Xia Jinqi’s shoulder. “How can you not bear it? You’re now our leader, LEGO’S LEADER! There will be many more such scenes in the future!”

Chapter 233: you are the person we have chosen

Xia Jinqi did not deny it. She glanced at the person in front of her again and asked casually, “Chang Qiye didn’t come?”

According to the rules, Chang Qiye should have come to welcome her, but Chang Qiye did not come. Xia Jinqi understood what he meant.

She deliberately asked this question because she wanted to hear the elders’ opinions and see how they would react to this matter.

When the elders heard this, they waved their hands and dismissed the people under them. They brought Xia Jinqi into the townhouse.

“He’s in the house. You should know about the temporary board of directors. What he did was nothing more than throwing a Tantrum. You’re the person we’ve chosen, so you should show him some of your abilities.”

Xia Jinqi understood what the elders meant. Did they want her to resolve this matter on her own?

In the end, she had been pushed to the position of leader at the last minute. She had the idea of quitting at any time. How was she going to convince Chang Qiye?

She didn’t want to see Chang Qiye standing at the door waiting for her with an extremely long watermelon knife the moment she walked in.

Her palms were sweaty, and the door had been pushed open.

The room was dazzlingly bright.

A circle of men sat around a rectangular desk.

The youngest was in his thirties, and the longest hair was completely white. It was hard to tell if he was in his seventies or eighties.

There were about a dozen people.

Although these people didn't look like much, all of them together accounted for more than eighty percent of Lego's shares.

The other twenty percent was scattered in the hands of more than twenty thousand people, and no one had real power.

Therefore, the people who appeared in this room today could be considered all the leaders of Lego.

Xia Jinqi looked at the atmosphere and could actually see the grandeur of the summit meeting.

Even though everyone here was above Xia Jinqi in seniority, the moment they saw her appear, everyone stood up to show respect.

Except for Chang Qi, who was sitting in the furthest corner.

He glanced at Xia Jinqi and snorted coldly. He was still sitting, looking very disdainful.

Xia Jinqi was not annoyed. She walked straight to her seat and waved to the other directors.

"everyone, take a seat." She waved her hand and took the lead to sit down.

Then, the directors followed and sat down.

Before the official business could begin, Chang Qiye's frivolous words were transmitted over.

"I heard from the elders earlier how young the new leader is. Why is it that when I see him today, he's just a guy who can't even reveal his true face?"

It was obvious that he was very dissatisfied with Xia Jinqi and was changing the way he picked on Xia Jinqi.

Before Xia Jinqi could speak, someone had already stood up to speak for her.

"Master Qi, your words are wrong. Everyone in the martial arts world knows that I, Lego, have always been mysterious. The previous leaders all had several identities. In order to avoid conflict, there is a precedent for not revealing their true faces to others."

Xia Jinqi had already asked the elders for their opinion regarding her attire today. The elders also understood that it was not appropriate for her identity to be exposed.

However, they did not expect that Master Chang Qi was such a calculative person.

Xia Jinqi raised her eyes and stared at him for a long time. The finger that landed on the table slowly began to tap.

This was a troublesome person. How was she going to convince him?

Master Chang Qi knew that he was being unreasonable. He shook his head and changed the topic. "But I heard that the collaboration with the Yan Corporation hasn't been finalized yet. I would like to ask the new leader what went wrong."

Xia Jinqi didn't know that her deliberate delay in not cooperating had become a reason for Master Chang Qi to attack her.

Chapter 234: What if I'm done with

And this was indeed a business issue. The elders could no longer defend Xia Jinqi. Instead, they all cast puzzled gazes at her.

"President Xia, master Qi's words are not without reason. Yan Jun took the initiative to find us to cooperate, and he offered 300 billion. This is a rare opportunity." An elder frowned.

When Master Chang Qi heard that someone was speaking up for him, he immediately crossed his arms arrogantly and looked down on Xia Jinqi. "could it be that you've offended President Yan? If such a big deal is ruined by you, do you still have the face to stay at Lego?"

Xia Jinqi raised her eyebrows slightly and looked coldly at Master Chang Qi. "300 billion is considered a big deal? What if I manage to settle 500 billion?"

"500 billion?" Even Master Chang Qi couldn't hold back the situation when he heard this number. His body, which was leaning against the chair, suddenly straightened up. With one hand on the conference table, he looked at Xia Jinqi in disbelief. "You can settle 500 billion?"

The various elders also looked at Xia Jinqi in surprise, both expectant and worried.

Although it was only 200 billion on the surface, in reality, it was almost double the original amount!

If Xia Jinqi could really settle this 500 billion, then Lego would be able to expand its grand plans and expand its industrial chain!

At that time, the value of the directors present would soar again, and it was not certain that it would increase by several times!

"whether it can be settled or not, master Qi, can't you just wait and see?" Xia Jinqi curled her lips into a smile. Fortunately, she had the foresight to raise Yan Jun's price. Otherwise, she really did not have the confidence to say these things here.

Moreover, she knew how to persuade Yan Jun to invest this 500 billion.

Master Chang Qi instantly frowned and glared at the SMELLY BRAT sitting opposite him!

If he really was that capable, then... ..

"HMPH! I'll just wait and see what method you have to settle 500 billion! Don't blame me for bullying you, a junior! I'll leave you here today. If you can't settle this 500 billion, then immediately pack up and leave!"

“What if I settle it?” Xia Jinqi leaned back in her chair and looked at the ashen-faced Master Chang Qi with interest.

Before she came, Ling Yue had told her that Master Chang Qi was the most difficult person to deal with. If she could subdue Master Chang Qi as well, then there would be no more objections from the board of directors.

Only then could she continue to sit in her position as the leader.

“Humph! If you’re done, I’ll acknowledge you as the leader for the SAKE OF THE ELDERS!” Master Chang Qi flung his sleeves and stood up. With a slap, he slammed his palm on the table and glared at Xia Jinqi. “If you dare to betray Lego in the future, I, Master Chang Qi, will not forgive you!”

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi was relieved, and even her voice became cheerful. “Then I’ll have to trouble you to teach me!”

Seeing this, the elders hurriedly stepped out to smooth things over. “Alright, alright, this matter ends here! Now it’s time to talk about business. We’ve been planning to expand our business in the mainland recently, but there’s a problem with the industry and Commerce. There’s a document that we can’t get down.”

“What document? Can’t we just walk the path?” Some people began to be puzzled. Lego had come this far, and the government and the government had joined forces. Ordinary small matters would not be a problem for them.

Why would they be stopped by a document?

“There was a way in the past, but that person has already left the stage. Recently, a new person has gone up, so we can’t infiltrate him for the time being.” The elders were also troubled.

Chapter 235: should he give it to her or not?

Xia Jinqi flipped through the contents of the document and her eyes darkened.

If she remembered correctly, this thing should be under Third Brother’s jurisdiction.

Third Brother had indeed been promoted recently, and his position was not small.

He was a person who would not budge. No wonder even the Lego elders could not do anything to him.

“I’ll think of a way to deal with this matter.” Xia Jinqi took the document and already had an idea in her mind.

Previously, Third Brother had said that he would look for him if he was wronged.

Now, it shouldn’t be difficult for her to look for him for help, but... .. Her identity might be exposed ...

The elders looked at each other. It was naturally good that someone had taken over this hot potato.

However, this made Chang Qiye’s face even darker... ..

He really didn't know where this kid came from!

He was so young, why did he seem to be able to settle everything?

It was truly infuriating!

After returning from Lego, Xia Jinqi changed into her usual clothes in the nanny van.

Ling Yue was helping her tidy up when she couldn't help but sigh. “Miss, you're really amazing! When you got out of the van just now, your aura came out naturally! The elders who used to be so fierce and fierce would smile a little when they saw you...”

Ling Yue was a calm person who handled everything well. It was rare for her to be so excited.

Today, seeing Xia Jinqi, who was like a little white rabbit and a big bad wolf switching back and forth, so handsome, she really admired her!

Xia Jinqi yawned and smiled wryly. “If this continues, I'M GOING TO LOSE MY VIRGINITY!”

She felt that she could become one of the big shots in men's clothing!

She had no choice. If she didn't show some momentum, how could she suppress those restless directors?

When Ling Yue was investigating Xia Jinqi, she also knew about the reputation of the fourth young miss of the Xia family. Now, when she heard Xia Jinqi's words, she thought that she was talking about the huge surprise in her personality.

As she thought about it, Ling Yue smiled in understanding. “outsiders only think that the eldest young miss is an idiot who is bullied by others. I think that the eldest young miss just doesn't want to be their enemy.”

Xia Jinqi did not admit that her worries had been exposed. Instead, she shook her head and smiled. “You're wrong about this. In the past, I really did not have the ability to resist.”

Just as she finished speaking, the car stopped. Xia Jinqi got out of the car and went straight into Qingxin Garden.

Looking at Xia Jinqi's back as she left, Ling Yue carefully thought about what she had said just now.

After a long while, she suddenly held her breath. “So... now that you have the ability, you want to start resisting?”

“...”

Tiptoeing, she picked up the blanket and retreated into Yan Jun's embrace. It was already 4:30 in the morning.

Xia Jinqi yawned sleepily and quickly fell asleep.

Recently, she had even forgotten about the existence of sleeping pills.

If she was not sleepy, she would wake up. If she was sleepy, she would snore and sleep. When she woke up the next day, she felt much better than before. She felt refreshed!

She did not know whether it was because she had recovered well recently and did not need to take any more pills, or because she had not taken any more pills recently, her spirit was slowly recovering... ..

After she fell asleep, Yan Jun woke up faintly.

His Black Eyes flickered in the dark night. He pulled the blanket over her shoulder and pursed his lips into a 'one' .

He went out again.

Lego's matter clearly made her somewhat worried.

However, this little girl's ambition was not small. Since she asked for the 500 billion yuan from him, would he give it or not?

Chapter 236: Whatever you want, I'll give it to you

Although investing in Lego was profitable, it wasn't the only way for him.

But since she wanted it... ..

Deep in thought, Yan Jun lowered his eyes again and stared at the girl lying in his arms.

"whatever you want, I'll give it to you. I just want you to be loyal to me. "

With that, he leaned over and planted a kiss on her forehead.

The kiss on her forehead represented forgiveness and tolerance.

He wouldn't bother about her and Yan Qing in the Xia family anymore.

In fact, even he was slightly surprised. He was not a petty person, but when it came to her and Yan Qing, he could not control his emotions.

Xia Jinqi slept very well.

In her dream, someone seemed to whisper something in her ear. Then, he kissed her forehead and finally hugged her into his arms... ..

The feeling of being protected in the palm of someone's hand was really wonderful.

She suddenly understood why so many people were willing to get married.

The next day, Xia Jinqi woke up late as usual.

The warm sunlight scattered into the spacious room. The air was actually filled with the faint fragrance of Lotus flowers, refreshing and pleasant.

Xia Jinqi couldn't wait to lift the quilt and walk to the balcony to look down. What entered her eyes was a huge Lotus pond!

It was already midsummer, and all the Lotus flowers had bloomed It was a time of endless beauty!

When she came last night, the sky was already dark, so she hadn't noticed. Now that she looked, even the place where she was living at the moment was a double-story Pavilion of water. It was built by the water, and lived on the Lotus pond.

No wonder in her sleep, she seemed to have heard the sound of water flowing... ..

She took a deep breath. Her heart was filled with the fragrance of the Lotus, and there was also this endless beautiful scenery. It was really a beautiful morning!

If she had known long Qingxin was a person who knew how to enjoy herself, Xia Jinqi couldn't help but exclaim in surprise when she saw this scene for real!

Xia Jinqi couldn't help but laugh even more when she recalled the enchanting mist she saw when she first came here.

It was a perfect resort... ..

After washing up and going downstairs, the servants had already prepared food.

"young mistress, these snacks are old madam's favorite in the past. We don't understand young mistress' taste. If you're not used to them, I'll order the kitchen to make some of your favorite dishes."

The servants' attitude was very humble and all of them were very powerful. From their words and actions, it was obvious that they were not ordinary servants.

Long Qingxin's rules must be very strict. Otherwise, she wouldn't be able to teach such a well-behaved servant.

Xia Jinqi looked at the small dishes in front of her and was very pleasing to the eye. "No need, I'll just eat these. But... what are these dishes made from?"

Although Xia Jinqi had been disliked since she was young, she had more or less seen the world with her parents. Now, the few small dishes in front of her had stumped her and she couldn't see through them at all.

Only then did the servant come forward and explain to her one by one.

"these dishes are all made from Lotus flowers. For example, this is a mixed fruit lotus flower pot, delicious and pleasing to the eye. This is a perfume Lotus Sashimi, fresh and refreshing. This is a stir-fried Lotus leaf stem, verdant and dripping..."

Xia Jinqi was flabbergasted when she heard this... ..

What a good guy.

Not only did he know how to appreciate the beautiful scenery of the Lotus flowers, he could also use them as natural ingredients.

He randomly picked a piece and tasted it. His mouth was filled with the delicate fragrance of the lotus flowers, naturally pure and beautiful.

"It's really delicious!" Xia Jinqi was not stingy in her praise. She could not help but taste a few more mouthfuls!

When the maid saw that she was eating happily, the worry on her face disappeared. She smiled and said, "when the young master left this morning, he specially instructed that the young mistress would definitely like these. The young master was indeed right!"

Chapter 237: the elephant is ready to accept your suggestion

Xia Jinqi couldn't help but blush. "Has he eaten yet?"

"The young master left after eating breakfast." The maid was getting on in age. When she smiled, the corners of her eyes were filled with vivid crow's feet wrinkles. She was extremely amiable.

Only then did Xia Jinqi feel at ease.

She didn't know when, but even the small matter of whether or not he had a good meal could easily move her heart.

While she was lost in thought, her phone rang.

Just as she was curious who was calling early in the morning, she saw two words on the phone screen.

Daddy.

Xia Jinqi was a little expectant when she saw these two words.

Daddy rarely took the initiative to look for her. What could it be?

She hurriedly picked up the call, only to hear her father's cold rebuke.

"You hit your mother and your sister?"

"..."Xia Jinqi's expression instantly turned bad.

So she was here to interrogate her.

She had waited for a whole day yesterday, but she still didn't get the call. She was still wondering why her second sister didn't complain. Could it be that she had changed her temper?

Looking at the current situation, it was likely that she had complained yesterday. It was just that her father wasn't free, so he stayed until today.

"They hit me too," Xia Jinqi defended herself.

In the end... "evil creature! GET YOUR ASS back here!"

Xia Jinqi, "..."

That was why sometimes she didn't want to explain, because no matter how much she explained, it was useless.

Anyway, no matter what happened, she would always be the one to be punished.

“Dad, I have something to do today, so I can’t go back. ” Her voice was also extremely cold. Xia Jinqi lowered her eyes and was about to hang up the phone.

If it didn’t make sense, then she wouldn’t say it.

But before she could hang up the phone, her father’s voice sounded again. “You have wings now? You’d better come back obediently before noon. Otherwise, don’t blame me for getting someone to kidnap you and bring you back! ”

As soon as she finished speaking, the phone was hung up as well.

Xia Jinqi clenched her teeth and put down the phone. She wasn’t in the mood to eat, so she frowned.

It made sense. As long as she went against her father’s wishes, no matter where she went, she would be captured by him.

Forget it, she’d better go back by herself.

If she was really kidnapped, it wouldn’t look good either.

After thinking for a while, she decided to give Yan Jun a call.

“Hello? ” A warm voice was soon heard.

Hearing his familiar voice, Xia Jinqi’s empty heart finally felt a little warm.

“Are you busy? ” As she spoke, she couldn’t help but curl her lips.

“I’m in the car. What’s the matter? ”

“Oh... I have to go back to the Xia family in a while. I just want to ask you, if anything happens to me, will it affect you? ”

The meaning was very simple. Xia Jinqi was afraid that if she went home and caused too much trouble, it would affect Yan Jun’s business. That wouldn’t be good.

Yan Jun raised his eyebrows and asked her with interest, “what do you want to do? ”

“The elephant is ready to take your suggestion. ” Xia Jinqi did not say it directly. Something deep in her heart was already beginning to stir.

She knew that it was something that had been suppressed for too long... ..

If it suddenly erupted, she did not know if she could control herself.

If she did not know her limits, it was best not to delay his business.

Hearing this, Yan Jun immediately understood.

He smiled knowingly and said in a jade-like voice, “it won’t affect me. ”

What he meant was: honey, don’t worry about me. Just do whatever you want to do! ! Come O n baby !

Xia Jinqi understood and said with a smile, “alright then. You can get back to work then! ”

As she said that, she was about to hang up the phone.

However, Yan Jun added, “the chips in your hands are not kept behind your back. How to use the chips to fight for more benefits is the true meaning of the existence of the chips. ”

Chapter 238: Her state of mind changed

She Hummed in gratitude and hung up the phone.

Xia Jinqi held her phone and thought for a long time, but she couldn't think of anything.

Chips... .. The chips in her hands ? ?

What exactly was Yan Jun referring to?

As she thought about it, Xia Jinqi drove back to the Xia family home.

It was just like how she had returned to this place countless times. The huge courtyard, the imposing villa, not even a blade of grass or a tree had changed.

However, Xia Jinqi knew that something had changed — her State of mind.

She took a deep breath, raised her head, and walked into the villa with determined steps.

Before she entered the living room, she heard a burst of crying.

“Dad, look at mom and me, we're both like pandas... fourth sister beat US UP! Look, her hands are covered in blood from the scratches she made! ”

Xia Jinqi looked in the direction of the voice and her eyebrows jumped!

This... ..

Although she knew that Zuo Xiaoran had hit her the hardest in the mall yesterday, she didn't expect Xia Tianjiao to really have panda eyes!

Both of her eyes were bruised, and there were bruises on the corners of her mouth.

No wonder when her father called her in the morning, he sounded so hungry.

Other than Xia Tianjiao's eloquent tongue, the bruise on her eyes had also helped a lot!

Just as she was trying to figure it out, Xia Tianjiao seemed to have noticed Xia Jinqi's arrival, and she immediately pointed in her direction and started crying “Dad! FOURTH SISTER IS HERE! is she going to hit me and mom again? If she hits me, it's fine, but she even hit mom. It's obvious that she doesn't care about you two! ”

Xia Tianjiao's words, especially the last sentence, instantly touched Xia Jitian.

As a father, his position in this family must not be shaken!

He immediately blew his beard and glared at Xia Jinqi, shouting, “hurry up and apologize to your mom and sister! ”

Xia Jinqi rubbed her temples. The helplessness in her heart was greater than the sadness.

Ever since she was young, this kind of scene would almost happen every few days.

Speaking of acting skills, if Xia Tianjiao said that she was the best, who could claim the second place?

That was why when they were in Las Vegas, Xia Jinqi could see through you Xi's little tricks at a glance.

At the end of the day, she still had to thank her second sister. She had used her own hands to create many examples for her since she was young.

Xia Jinqi had just walked over when Xia Jitian sternly berated her, "KNEEL DOWN!"

Xia Jinqi did not kneel down. Her brows were also tightly furrowed. She was no longer a young, ignorant, and powerless girl.

"Dad, I have injuries on my body too. It was also caused by second sister." As he spoke, he pulled up the hem of his skirt, exposing the injuries on his knees.

Xia Jitian's gaze froze when he saw it.

The crisscrossed bruises looked like they weren't light either... ..

But before Xia Jitian could say anything, Xia Tianjiao started crying again. "Dad, I didn't hit her! She fell on her own! If you don't believe me, you can ask mom! Look at the fingerprints on MOM's face. They're still there!"

As she spoke, Xia Tianjiao turned Hong Xianglin's face towards Xia Jitian.

The two red marks were still very obvious even now.

Xia Jinqi remembered that it was because Hong Xianglin had pulled Wen Jing's hair. Wen Jing had struggled to use her backpack strap to strangle her.

Hong Xianglin also sobbed. "Jitian, I'm useless. I didn't educate the child well..."

Second sister's sarcasm was far less damaging than her biological mother's accusation.

Xia Jinqi's heart finally turned cold. She asked Hong Xianglin in return, "mom, are you saying that you didn't educate me well, or did you not educate second sister well? Yesterday, I didn't even touch a single finger of yours."

Before Hong Xianglin could answer, Xia Jitian's rebuke came one after another. "B * Stard!"

As he shouted, he raised his hand and landed it on Xia Jinqi's cheek.

Chapter 239: what she should do was not escape, but change

This was clearly a very ordinary morning.

It was so ordinary that the temperature in the house was almost the same as before. Even the wind blowing in from outside the courtyard was as stuffy and hot as usual.

However, at this very second, everything seemed to be no longer ordinary.

Xia Jinqi looked at the hideous features standing in front of her, glaring at her angrily, shouting and scolding her. She was even prepared to hit her father. A certain part of her heart that she had been holding on to suddenly cracked.

She suddenly understood that she was really stupid.

She thought that once she got married, she would be able to completely leave this family and this disgusting environment.

But the truth was that regardless of whether she got married or not, the Xia family always had an unceasing connection with her.

Although Yan Jun was really protective of her, he could not be by her side every minute and every second.

Perhaps, what she should do was not run away, but change.

Change the situation in front of her, change her status in this family.

But, how could she change it?

Yan Jun said that he wanted her to use the chips in her hands to fight for more benefits for herself... ..

The chips in her hands... ..

She didn't know whether it was because the birds' chirping outside had become clearer, or because she had slept soundly last night and was in a good mood, but in that one second, Xia Jinqi suddenly felt a white light flash in her mind, and she suddenly understood.

She immediately understood what Yan Jun meant by what he said in the morning!

After regaining her senses, she quickly raised her hand to block the big slap that her father was about to give her. She curved her lips into a faint smile. "Dad, I have something to talk to you about. "

Xia Jitian's hand was blocked. He was supposed to be furious, but before he could vent his anger, he was attracted by Xia Jinqi's words.

"What do you want to discuss? "

"Let's go to the study. " Xia Jinqi put down her hand, turned around, and went upstairs with ease. She walked straight to her father's study.

Before she turned sideways, she deliberately glanced at Hong Xianglin and Xia Tianjiao, who were sitting on the Sofa at the side. The corners of her lips were slightly pursed.

Xia Jitian didn't know what was going on, but when he saw Xia Jinqi had already gone upstairs, he also followed her.

Was it his imagination?

Why did he feel that the person standing in front of him at that moment was not his little daughter who had been weak and incompetent since she was young?

On the contrary, he felt that her clear and shrewd eyes were bursting with a kind of brilliance that was difficult to ignore!

Seeing that Xia Jinqi and Xia Jitian had left in the blink of an eye, Xia Tianjiao immediately wiped the tears off her face and gloated, "see how daddy will teach you a good lesson! HMPH! "

In the study room.

Father and daughter sat opposite each other in front of the study table.

Although Xia Jitian was slightly impressed by his youngest daughter's glance just now, his attitude would not change in an instant.

"What do you want to talk about? With the injuries on your mother and sister, you..." his tone was still not good.

"Dad, do you know lego group?" Xia Jinqi bypassed the previous topic and went straight to the heart of the matter.

Xia Jitian still did not know what Xia Jinqi's sudden words meant, but he still nodded instinctively. "I know."

Xia Jinqi smiled and slowly said, "Lego recently elected a new young leader, do you know?"

"This..." Xia Jitian was suspicious. He frowned and looked at his daughter. "Why are you bringing this up?"

Of course, Xia Jitian knew.

After Xia Jinqi took over Lego, she had the top-secret right to know. Naturally, she knew about her father and had worked with Lego before.

Chapter 240: Erase the dark history

As mentioned before, the reason why some casinos were legal and protected by the state was because there was no more realistic and powerful cash flow channel than the casinos.

The cash that flowed into the casinos every day was secretly provided to the banks, and then the banks would lend it out to earn interest.

From this industrial chain, the huge amount of money in the casinos was the source.

No one was willing to cut off their chance to make a fortune, right?

Xia Jitian had also walked this path when he was young. Otherwise, how could he have risen so quickly and become what he was today?

After many people succeeded, they would think of ways to erase their dark history.

This wasn't considered hypocritical. Xia Jinqi saw this behavior as normal.

At the beginning, a person's nature was good. No one was willing to have their reputation tarnished for thousands of years after their death.

Therefore, she understood her father's desire to erase her dark history.

It was because of this that she had a bargaining chip.

"It's nothing. I just suddenly remembered that I forgot to tell you something." Xia Jinqi smiled faintly at her father. "My daughter isn't talented. She happens to be the new leader of LEGO."

"What?" Xia Jitian stood up as expected. His eyes were red as he stared at Xia Jinqi as if he had seen a ghost!

Xia Jinqi was mentally prepared, so she wasn't scared.

"No... impossible!" Xia Jitian almost instantly denied Xia Jinqi's words ...

This was simply a fantasy!

The most useless daughter in his family didn't even have any connection with Lego. How could she become the leader of Lego? ! !

He had worked with Lego before, so he knew how dark and mysterious it was.

The previous leaders of Lego were all formidable figures, so how could they choose his daughter?

It was absolutely impossible! ! !

Xia Jinqi looked at her father, who looked as if he had heard some nonsense and didn't trust her. She wasn't in a hurry to explain, and only opened her mouth to talk about what she had seen before.

"Dad, you've worked with Lego for eleven years. You suddenly got out a few years ago because you don't want to get involved in this mess anymore, right?"

Before he could finish his sentence, Xia Jitian's eyes were about to pop out of their sockets!

He had indeed been working with Lego for 11 years, but all of this... ..

"How did you know? Who told you?"

"I have the right to know everything about Lego," Xia Jinqi said calmly. She didn't want to beat around the bush anymore, so she directly said what she wanted "Dad, you know Lego's rules. If I don't want you to find out, you'll never find out who the new leader of Lego is. Of course, I know that you're smart enough not to touch Lego's bottom line. After all, you're now... in a high position of power."

Xia Jinqi deliberately emphasized the last four words.

She was reminding her father that no matter what he did, he had to consider his current status.

And she was now the leader of Lego. Once this point was exposed, it would definitely affect the Xia family's status.

A Pun. There was no need to say anything else.

Xia Jitian was suddenly choked. His eyes stared blankly at his daughter who was sitting in front of him...

...

He suddenly felt extremely unfamiliar!

"Who... who are you!" He even preferred to believe that she was really the leader of Lego and not his own daughter !!

Indeed, when he and Lego ended their collaboration, he had requested to erase everything from Lego.

Back then, the only people who had contacted him were Lego's leader and an elder.

Unless they were at the highest level, they would never know!
