

Tick Me 281

Chapter 281: tried to coax him

“Has it reached such a serious stage?” Xia Jinqi’s throat tightened. She was so immersed in the grief of her past life that she didn’t notice that such a big thing had also happened to him.

“Yeah...” Wang Mang stole a glance at Xia Jinqi. Seeing her furrowed brows and her stance of locking the river with an iron chain, he felt slightly relieved.

He was not only Yan Jun’s confidant, but also Yan Jun’s brother. At times like this, if he refused to say anything, he would naturally have his brother do it for him.

He knew that Yan Jun’s power had already jumped out of the Yan family a few years ago, so the influence of this financial group on Yan Jun was not particularly great. It was just that it was not worth it for Yan Jun!

After working so hard for so many years, was he really going to hand over the territory to someone like this?

He deliberately made it sound so serious because he hoped to attract Xia Jinqi’s attention and be grateful to Yan Jun... ..

Xia Jinqi did not understand how Yan Jun’s business empire was planned. However, when she heard Wang Mang say this, her heart felt as if a mountain had suddenly piled up.

The thing she was most unwilling to do was to delay others because of her.

Now, Yan Jun had delayed such an important matter for her. How could she repay him?

Seeing that Xia Jinqi did not speak for a long time, Wang Mang did not dare to say anything more. He rubbed the back of his head in embarrassment and found an excuse to open the door. “sister-in-law, then I... WILL LEAVE FIRST!”

After Wang Mang left, Xia Jinqi did not return to the living room to continue eavesdropping. Instead, she went around to a quiet place in the courtyard and sat down.

She waited until Yan Youcheng left before she slowly returned to the living room.

Just as she entered the door, she saw Yan Jun leaning against the Thick Sofa alone.

He lowered his eyes and crossed his hands over his long and slender legs. His entire body was exuding a cold and distant aura.

Xia Jinqi could not imagine that he had been so lonely all these years. Was He enduring everything alone?

She did not know why, but looking at him who was so silent, she felt an inexplicable heartache in her heart.

She wanted to go over to his side, hug him, and coax him... ..

In fact, she did the same thing.

She couldn't care less about her own matters. She took a deep breath and tried her best to walk towards him with a smile on her face.

"You're back? I heard that grandfather came just now. Is there something important?" With a light tone and Xia Jinqi's big, curved eyes, anyone who saw her would be happy.

She was like a lark dancing and singing on the branches of a tree in spring. With the breath of spring, she jumped to his side.

Naturally, she sat on the Sofa with him. Xia Jinqi ingratiatingly held onto his arm with a big smile on her face.

Just like how he accompanied her when she was sad and sad, she also wanted to appease his heart.

When Yan Jun returned to his senses, she was already sitting beside him with an unusually sweet smile.

At first glance, he saw the smile in her eyes. He raised his straight eyebrows slightly and smiled leisurely with her. "It's nothing."

"Alright..." Xia Jinqi was obviously a little disappointed. He was still unwilling to tell her the truth.

But it didn't matter. She already knew everything he had done for her.

She held his arm and refused to let go. "Just now, Wang Mang came over. He said that he wanted to inform you that there seems to be an important meeting tomorrow. He told you not to be late."

Hearing this, Yan Jun's face darkened as expected. He had been hiding these things from Xia Jinqi, that Wang Mang... ..

"tomorrow..." it was fine if he didn't go to the meeting.

Yan Jun originally wanted to answer like this.

Chapter 282: How can I repay you for letting me do this?

However, before she could finish her sentence, she was interrupted by Xia Jinqi.

"I have to go to school early in the morning tomorrow, so I won't have breakfast with you." One sentence blocked all of Yan Jun's thoughts.

Xia Jinqi didn't give him a chance to refute and took the initiative to explain her emotions "You don't have to worry about me anymore! I've cried and made a scene, and everything is in the past! If you're not biological, then you're not biological. This way, you don't have to worry too much! Next time, if they provoke me again, I'll show them how righteous I am and teach them a good lesson!"

As she spoke, Xia Jinqi had already clenched her cute little fists and waved at the air as if she was expressing her determination!

When Yan Jun saw her like this, he knew that she had already returned to normal.

When he saw the way she clenched her little fists, he couldn't help but laugh at her. His big palm smoothed her long hair and said with a smile, "I've found a good excuse for you."

"Hehe..." Xia Jinqi pretended to be dumb and laughed twice. Then, she quickly found a lot of topics to talk about and said a lot of things to Yan Jun..

Although he was still the same as before, a man of few words. She said a lot of things, but he only said one or two. However, when she saw the faint smile on his lips, Xia Jinqi felt satisfied.

He was not a talkative person. It was not easy for him to sit with her and talk so much.

The night seemed to pass very quickly.

Last night, Xia Jinqi was caught in the rain and had a high fever. She hummed the whole night. Yan Jun took care of her the whole night without sleeping.

Today, seeing that her body and spirit had recovered well, she slowly relaxed and soon fell asleep.

After he fell asleep, Xia Jinqi did not feel sleepy at all.

She slept soundly yesterday and was not sleepy at all.

Moreover... ..

While Yan Jun went to take a shower, she secretly went online and found the ambiguous photos of her and Yan Qing that Wang Mang had mentioned.

It turned out that she had been secretly photographed at the Asia-Pacific Banquet!

She did not even know when she had become the subject of Paparazzi's follow-up photos?

There were also rumors on the Internet about her, Yan Jun, and Yan Qing. There were also quite a number of people's follow-ups.

Some scolded her for being promiscuous, some sympathized with Yan Jun, and some clapped their hands to watch a good show.

All of this caused a commotion... .. But Yan Jun hid this matter from her and didn't tell her ...

She thought that with his personality, he would definitely fly into a rage when he saw this photo, but he didn't.

He carefully hid her phone and turned off all the communication devices in the house.

The television was broken, the Internet was cut off, and all news was blocked.

He did this... .. because he was afraid that she would feel uncomfortable watching it ? ?

Sigh... .. With a soft sigh, Xia Jinqi turned her body sideways and used her right hand to support her body. She looked at Yan Jun, who was sleeping peacefully on her side ...

The lights were not turned on, but the moonlight outside the room was very bright. When it fell on his handsome and extraordinary face, it actually revealed a different kind of hazy and beautiful feeling.

As she looked at him, Xia Jinqi could not help but stretch out her hand to point at his brows, nose bridge, lips, and Chin... ..

“When did you know my identity? You actually kept it a secret... you also kept the matter of the Chamber of commerce a secret and buried everything in your heart.

“everyone says that you are the cold-faced Yama king who is decisive in killing and never shows mercy.

“But I see that you’re cold-faced but warm-hearted. You’re a woman of mercy... “...

“Even if it’s for me, even if it’s for me... “... you shouldn’t give up on your great career.”

Xia Jinqi’s eyes were already red as she muttered to herself. Her voice was a little choked up.

“Yan Jun, what right do I have for you to treat me so well.

“How can I repay you for letting me?

Chapter 283: how can I live without you?

I really want to tell you, you really touched me very touched... ..

But I’m afraid I’M GONNA get addicted to you.

If one day, I do not have you, how to live?

Buried in his chest, Xia Jinqi tightly clutched the corner of his robe, teeth clenched.

I won’t let you lose the Yan family, Yan Jun..

Trust me.

The next morning.

When Yan Jun woke up, there was no shadow of Xia Jinqi by his side.

When he went downstairs to ask the servants, he was indeed informed that she had left early in the morning. She had even instructed him to prepare a sumptuous breakfast so that he could eat properly.

Seeing that Xia Jinqi had regained her usual vigor, he felt slightly relieved.

As he ate breakfast, he could not help but feel his heart warm up when he thought of the instructions she had given him before she left.

In such a large restaurant, he could actually laugh out loud while eating alone... ..

When the servants who were guarding outside heard this, they looked at each other in surprise, their faces filled with fear.

Little... .. Little Master, what are you laughing at ? ?

The breakfast they prepared, is it that funny?

Yan Jun had not finished his breakfast when Zhuge Wentao and Fang Shaoan came to the door in a hurry.

Seeing that Yan Jun was still leisurely eating his breakfast here, the two brothers' eyes were different.

Zhuge Wentao only frowned slightly, habitually holding the glasses frame on the bridge of his nose and looking at Yan Jun with a slightly deep gaze.

Fang Shaoan was not so calm.

He had wanted to rush over when he saw the news early yesterday morning, but who knew that Yan Jun did not pick up the phone and did not see any guests.

When he woke up this morning, he saw that the Yan Corporation had announced that they had confirmed the new president of Asia Pacific, and the candidate was not Yan Jun!

Fang Shaoan could not sit still anymore. He immediately raised his big knife and charged over!

It was originally such a world-shaking event. Everyone was extremely anxious for Yan Jun, but now it seemed like... ..

Well, he was not anxious at all and was not nervous at all. He was still sitting here leisurely eating breakfast?

If you say that you are eating, then so be it. But what's with the silly smile while eating?

"Second Young Master Yan, don't tell me you've lost your mind because you've suffered a great blow? How did you let that kid Yan Qing rise to the top? I heard that he's already used his position as the president to gather the directors in the Yan Corporation to remove your position as the President!"

Fang Shaoan looked at Yan Jun at this moment, just like his old father who hated the fact that he didn't live up to his expectations... ..

Yan Jun just picked up a Napkin at the side and elegantly wiped the corner of his mouth. "You've already eaten?"

"How can I still have time to eat at this time! Hurry up and tell me, what exactly are you thinking?!"
Fang Shaoan was about to go crazy from anxiety. Seeing that his words were useless, he turned back and winked at Zhuge Wentao. "Say something!"

Being reminded like this, Zhuge Wentao coughed lightly and frowned as he explained a fact, "as far as I know, more than 80% of the directors have defected and sided with Yan Qing. Today's dismissal case will definitely be passed."

"Ah?" Fang Shaoan did not know about this yet. After hearing Zhuge Wentao's words, his head became even more dizzy. He opened his mouth and asked Yan Jun, "then if you're not going to be the president, do you still have my double investment?"

Outspoken, outspoken... ..

As soon as Fang Shaoan said this, Yan Jun's side immediately shot him two cold gazes.

Fang Shaoan felt his scalp go numb and hurriedly changed his words, "Oh no, what I mean is... what I mean is, those directors are really bold! How could they do such an unforgivable thing to our second young master Yan!"

Chapter 284: The man in the photo in was Yan Qing

After saying that, Fang Shaoan didn't dare to meet Yan Jun's eyes again. He turned his head and whistled twice to ease his mood.

Zhuge Wentao's lips curled up slightly. He was used to Fang Shaoan's stubborn and stubborn personality.

Looking at Yan Jun again, he straightened his expression. "Let's go to the company."

After saying those simple words, Yan Jun stood up elegantly and took the lead to walk out of the door.

Fang Shaoan looked at Yan Jun's back and turned back to look at Zhuge Wentao. "What will happen if he is really deposed as the CEO?"

Zhuge Wentao pondered for a moment. "without the constraints and trivial matters of the Yan group, he will have more energy to develop his business in Asia. It might not be a bad thing."

An hour later.

Yan Group headquarters.

37th floor, Temporary Board of directors.

The host was the new president of Asia Pacific. Yan Youcheng was present, as well as the main shareholders and upper management of the Yan Group.

When Yan Jun arrived, everyone present was slightly surprised. After all, he did not attend the meeting yesterday. Everyone thought that he would not come today and would be able to handle the matter quietly... ..

The moment Yan Qing, who had obtained the position of president, appeared today, he was filled with pride. Everyone surrounded him like stars surrounding the Moon.

When they saw that Yan Jun was actually here, they could not help but tease him, "Jun' Er is also here? Looks like today's meeting can finally make you pay more attention."

When these words came out, the few shareholders behind him all sneered a few times.

Yan Qing's words of 'Jun' put on the airs of an elder in front of everyone, forcefully suppressing Yan Jun's seniority.

The last sentence, 'I'm asking you to pay more attention', was directed at Yan Jun's failure and failure yesterday.

On the surface, it seemed that Yan Qing already had the upper hand.

Many people thought that Yan Jun would definitely lose this time... ..

But as the person involved, Yan Jun did not think so.

He narrowed his eyes and only glanced at Yan Qing indifferently. After that, he turned around and sat in the CEO's seat.

During this time, he did not even say a word to Yan Qing. He completely ignored him, as if this person's existence was not even comparable to air, so there was no need to care at all.

Yan Qing was instantly defeated. His face instantly darkened. He clenched his fists, gritted his teeth, and turned around to sit opposite Yan Jun..

After that, everyone took their seats and the meeting began.

Yan Qing's trusted aide, Li Dongwen, was the first to stand up. He announced the theme of today's meeting in a clear voice, "as everyone knows, today's meeting is about the dismissal of the current president. There will be a secret vote in a while, everyone..."

Li Dongwen had not finished speaking when he was interrupted by a dull knocking sound coming from the opposite side.

Everyone looked towards the source of the sound and saw that it was Yan Jun who was bending his well-defined fingers and knocking on the table.

"DEPOSE ME? Why?" Yan Jun raised the tip of his brows, his gaze penetrating, falling straight into Yan Qing's eyes.

When Li Dongwen heard this, a disdainful smile instantly appeared on his face. He thought to himself, asking such a simple thing is really stupid!

As he thought so in his heart, the words that came out of his mouth were still a little more polite. He patiently explained, "President Yan, yesterday because of your mistake, the stock price of the group plummeted. This has already severely damaged the interests of the shareholders."

"My mistake?" Yan Jun repeated. The corners of his thin lips curled into a faint smile. "If I remember correctly, the man in the photo is Yan Qing."

Chapter 285: made such an indecent act

And as the person who was named, Yan Qing's brows also furrowed tightly.

Li Dongwen's complexion was also a little bad, and he hurriedly changed the topic "Is President Yan unwilling to take responsibility? If a group's leader doesn't even have this bit of responsibility, we seriously doubt if he even has a problem with his character! May I ask everyone, is such a person really suitable to be our leader? ”

Once these words were said, they once again got the vested interests of the shareholders present. For this most realistic question, everyone looked at Yan Jun with a somewhat stern gaze, as if they could not wait to get rid of him immediately.

Yan Jun narrowed his eyes and sized up this man called Li Dongwen. The depths of his eyes were dark, bursting with an indescribable killing intent!

It had to be said that Yan Qing’s taste was not bad. This confidant that he had found had a bit of eloquence and was used to spouting nonsense.

But Zhuge Wentao beside him was not bad either.

Looking back at Wen Tao, who had followed him into the meeting room, Yan Jun faintly said, “you come and explain to them. ”

Zhuge Wentao nodded and also stood up. He glanced at everyone present and slowly said, “everyone may have forgotten that the main reason that caused the stock price to plummet was because of a photo that was exposed yesterday morning. ”

After saying that, he pressed the remote control in his hand that he did not know when he had taken it.

The light in the meeting room instantly dimmed. With a swoosh, a photo appeared on the huge projection screen.

It was the photo of Yan Qing Holding Xia Jinqi’s hand with a sorrowful look on his face.

All the shareholders’ gazes were attracted over, and the meeting room suddenly became completely silent.

Zhuge Wentao was very satisfied with such an effect. Then, he began to reveal his trump card, relentlessly charging straight at Yan Qing “I think it’s time for our new president to explain. When and where were you secretly taken such a photo?

Because of your MISSTEP, the company’s shares closed down three percent at six o’clock yesterday. The company’s market value disappeared for no reason. How do you plan to take responsibility for this?

Of course, other than that, I also hope that you can explain. You clearly know that Miss Xia Jinqi is the wife of our President Yan, which is also your niece-in-law.

“before you did such an indecent act, did you think about it carefully “Did you consider the consequences similar to today? ”

Zhuge Wentao’s words were one after another, and every sentence was reasonable, so that no one could find any loopholes at all.

The shareholders all turned their heads to look in Yan Qing’s direction at the same time, and their gazes were somewhat unfriendly... ..

Now that he said it, it seemed to be true.

Yan Qing's scalp was numb from being stared at by more than ten pairs of eyes. He hurriedly looked at Li Dongwen, indicating for him to fight back!

Li Dongwen understood and coughed lightly before saying, "our president and President Yan's wife definitely do not have any love affairs that are written in the newspapers!"

"Of course I believe that the president would not do such a thing that has no morals and is worse than a pig or dog." Zhuge Wentao smiled and continued the topic, as if the reason why he had said so much just now was to wait for this sentence... ..

Li Dongwen and Yan Qing did not know what was going on in Zhuge Wentao's heart, but hearing him say this, they were slightly relieved in their hearts.

But very soon, Zhuge Wentao's questions came one after another "since there is no private affair, then a more serious problem has come. "President, did you arrange for the Paparazzi in advance, and then deliberately lure President Yan's wife to make an intimate move, and then release the photo after the matter is done, so as to help you smoothly take the position of President?"

Chapter 286: was nothing special

When it came to business negotiations, Zhuge Wentao had always been outstanding.

When he was in university, he was still the president of the debate club. One could imagine his skills.

All these years, he had been working by Yan Jun's side. He had long trained himself to be invincible.

Whether or not the matter of the photo gate was really arranged by Yan Qing was not important. What was important was that it was a good direction to draw all the flames of war on Yan Qing.

As soon as Zhuge Wentao finished speaking, the originally quiet memory room immediately erupted into a commotion.

Many directors began to whisper in each other's ears. The object of condemnation had suddenly become Yan Qing.

Since ancient times, when something like the photo gate had appeared, the first person to be condemned and reprimanded would always be a woman.

In addition, Yan Qing had deliberately bribed the hearts of the people and diverted everyone's attention. That was why many people did not pay attention to the main point of the photo at all. They had taken the lead and blamed all the mistakes on Yan Jun..

It had to be said that at the beginning, Yan Qing's public relations indeed had some strength.

But now that his deception had been exposed, he could only turn Pale and frown as he stared at Yan Jun opposite him!

He really lived up to his reputation as the cold-faced King of Hell, resourceful and resourceful!

He actually thought of using such a method to turn the tables... ..

If he had known earlier, he would have released the photo of Yan Jun that was secretly taken!

Clenching his teeth slightly, Yan Qing took a deep breath and took the initiative to explain, "I didn't do such a thing. Before I returned to China, I was a professor in a university, and Jin Qi was one of my many students, nothing special."

This explanation could be considered to prove his innocence, and at the same time, it also helped Yan Jun to be cuckolded.

Yan Jun curled his lips in satisfaction, and his slender body leaned back. He looked at Yan Qing with interest, who was gritting his teeth. "I naturally know about this. But how do you plan to make up for the losses the company suffered because of you?"

The limelight seemed to have been turned around all of a sudden.

Yan Qing became the main culprit of the photo agency.

Li Dongwen saw that the momentum was not right, and knew that they could no longer gain anything from this matter, so he immediately changed tactics. "The photo matter has been suppressed, and our president is also innocent. Let's end it here."

Quickly bypassing this topic, Li Dongwen sped up the pace of the meeting. "today's main content is the president's dismissal case. Everyone, please start voting!"

After saying that, a secretary came forward and handed out a small card in front of each shareholder. It was wordless and did not have any marks.

Everyone only needed to draw a circle or a cross on the card.

The circle represented that they agreed to dismiss Yan Jun, and the cross represented that they disagreed to dismiss Yan Jun..

This kind of secret vote allowed a person to make the decision that followed his heart the most, and also avoided the embarrassment of being hated and avenged in the future.

When the card was sent in front of Zhuge Wentao, he weighed the card in his hand and frowned at Yan Jun beside him.

His words just now could only expose Yan Qing's mistake and help his sister-in-law to clear her name, but it could not change the fact that Yan Qing had become the president.

In theory, the power of the controller of the consortium was equal to that of the president, which was Yan Youcheng.

They all had the right to hire and judge the president.

Yan Jun did not care too much about the shareholders present. These people were like the wind blowing at them. It was estimated that more than 90% of them had received benefits from Yan Qing and worked for Yan Qing.

Chapter 287: established a brand new financial group for him

In fact, it was no longer important who was at fault.

What was important was the current Yan Qing, who held the financial group in his hands. In the Yan Corporation, he was only below Yan Youcheng and above tens of thousands of people.

A round of voting was quickly completed. The secretary took back all the small cards and handed them to Li Dongwen.

Li Dongwen was full of confidence as he arranged the small cards. Just as he was about to open them and record and announce the votes one by one, the door of the conference room was forcefully pushed open at this moment!

“Clang!” Everyone’s eyes and attention were attracted over, including Yan Jun!

This was a high-level meeting within the Yan Corporation. It was an absolute secret and outsiders would not be able to enter easily.

On the other hand, someone who could enter at this time must have an extraordinary status!

When Yan Jun saw who it was, his deep black eyes suddenly narrowed!

It was actually... Her ??

Why was she here?

A group of three people pushed open the door and entered.

The person in the lead wore a white baseball cap. The Brim of the CAP was very low, almost covering the person’s eyebrows.

Under the big black and white eyes, a white mask covered the entire face.

The Wide Men’s clothing wrapped around the body that was not very sturdy. He did not look very tall either. With a height of 1.6 meters, he looked like a boy who was still in puberty.

There was a man and a woman following behind her. They were holding laptops and documents in their hands, as if they were playing the role of secretaries.

Just when everyone was surprised by her identity, she had already taken the initiative to greet everyone with a faint smile.

“Hello, everyone. I’m Xia Tian. I represent Dong Xing and I’m here to discuss something with Director Yan.”

The crisp male voice made everyone feel very comfortable.

The people present were not very interested in Xia Tian’s name. Such a name had never been spread in the martial arts world. However, when they heard the word Dong Xing, their expressions instantly became solemn.

The number one private bank in the country only worked with the world’s top leading companies!

It was rumored that Xia Tian was as rich as a country, had the largest capital chain, and was backed by the mysterious company Lego... ..

After Xia Jinqi finished her self-introduction, she even playfully winked at Yan Jun with her right eye, as if to say, "how is it? I came in time, right? "

"..."Yan Jun was silent. no ve(lB-In

Didn't she say that she had something to do at school today?

Why would she suddenly appear here?

And she just said that she represented the east bound. Could it be... ..

Just as Yan Jun had expected, Xia Jinqi turned her head and revealed herself in a male outfit. With the most mysterious identity, she arrogantly and confidently announced to everyone.. "We will enter the Yan Corporation with 900 billion and form a strategic partnership with President Yan. In the future, we will establish an independent consortium with full authority under President Yan's command. "

Once these words were said, the entire venue was in an uproar... ..

900 billion... ..

This order of magnitude completely crushed the consortium in Yan Qing's hands!

The consortium's funds would also move 70% into the company's industrial chain. In addition to the soaring Dragon Square which had just been completed this year, in reality, the consortium's reserve funds were only left with less than 30%

If Dong Xing could really inject this amount of funds at this time, then the Yan Corporation's future development could really be said to be boundless!

All the shareholders were instantly moved. They stared at the young man who had just entered with stars in their eyes. They almost drooled and worshipped him!

However, Yan Jun frowned when he heard that.

900 billion, to establish a brand new financial group for him.

Did she mean that she knew that he had lost one, so she would make up for it for him?

Then, she already knew about yesterday's matter?

Chapter 288: announced the results of the voting!

Without waiting for Yan Jun to speak, Xia Jinqi threw out a mountain of candy that everyone coveted. Then, she changed the topic and narrowed her eyes at the small card in Li Dongwen's hand. She raised her eyebrows thoughtfully "But I heard that the content of today's meeting is to remove the position of President Yan's CEO? What a pity. If President Yan is removed, then our cooperation will only be... "

Before Xia Jinqi could finish her words, many of the shareholders sitting at the next table were already ready to make a move. They switched sides at the last minute to Yan Jun's side. "There's no such thing! President Yan is wise and wise. We believe that under his leadership, the Yan Corporation will definitely become better and better!"

After saying that, they even actively encouraged others. "Don't you think so?"

The other confidants of Yan Qing also looked at each other. Although they did not agree, they did not oppose it anymore.

After all, it was 900 billion. With so much silver in front of them, who would not want it?

As for the consortium that Yan Qing had just obtained, in front of this 900 billion, it was almost negligible!

At that time, Yan Qing's expression was already uglier than a pig's liver... ..

He thought that once he obtained the consortium, he would be able to completely defeat Yan Jun!

But who knew that a summer would suddenly appear?

Injecting so much money in one go, it was practically giving Yan Jun a pair of wings!

Gritting his teeth slightly, Yan Qing's eyes turned red and he did not show any signs of weakness as he said loudly, "Mr. Xia is right. The main content of this meeting is to remove the current President! The voting has just ended. Dongwen, announce the results!"

As soon as Yan Qing finished speaking, the directors present all stiffened their necks and wanted to say something but stopped.

Now that the financial group was still in Yan Qing's hands, he indeed had the right to make decisions... ..

However, in the face of 900 billion such a huge financial cooperation, Yan Qing was determined to bring Yan Jun down because of his own selfish desires.

From here, most of the people were already beginning to be disappointed with Yan Qing... ..

He was just a person who only cared about his own selfish desires. Such a person obviously could not become the highest leader of the Yan Corporation.

One or two of the directors were dissatisfied. They stood up and organized Yan Qing, "president, we all agree with President Yan's leadership now. The vote just now should be nullified, right?"

When they spoke, their tone was already a little unpleasant.

Many of the directors present were around the same age as Yan Youcheng. They were also elders who had worked together with Yan Youcheng to fight for the world back then. In front of Yan Qing, they all had the airs of Elders.

Even if Yan Qing held the power of the financial group at this moment, he had lost the hearts of the people.

Yan Qing did not care about these things. He had endured for so many years. He had endured humiliation and placed himself under someone else's roof. Wasn't it all for today?

It was not easy to get the chance to take down Yan Jun. How could he give it up so easily?

He was just one step away, just one last step.

As long as the results of the vote were announced and Yan Jun was completely driven out of the Yan Corporation, he would be able to take back everything that originally belonged to him!

"since I am the president, then I have the right to let this dismissal case continue! DONGWEN!" The veins on Yan Qing's forehead were popping out. When he finally called out to Li Dongwen, he almost shouted out loud!

What on Earth was he doing So much time had passed, didn't he know how to announce it? !

Li Dongwen took a look at Yan Qing, and then looked at the furrowed brows of the group of directors in front of him. He was also a little hesitant.

Under such circumstances, even he knew that he could not go against the directors... ..

Chapter 289: the divine twist

If one wanted to gain a foothold here, one first had to win the hearts of the people.

But Yan Qing... ..

At the moment when both sides were in a stalemate, Yan Jun, who had been watching the show silently, suddenly became interested.

He leaned forward and looked at the director who was speaking for him. After nodding slightly, his gaze fell on Yan Qing. He lifted his thin lips in a tepid manner and said, "since you're already here, why don't you take a look at the voting result? "

Once these words were said, not only were the directors who were standing on Yan Jun's side stunned, even Xia Jinqi couldn't help but turn her head and stare at Yan Jun in puzzlement.

She had already used this method of funding to block the vote, so why was he still... ..

She really did not understand. Why did he always seem so relaxed when facing Yan Qing's provocations?

Did he really not put everything in the Yan family in his eyes?

Xia Jinqi was at a loss for words, while Yan Qing and Li Dongwen were the two happiest people in the entire venue.

She originally thought that it would be a little difficult, but who knew that Yan Jun would take the initiative to agree to announce the results of the vote?

He was willing to take the initiative to seek death, so Yan Qing was naturally more than happy!

He turned around to signal to Li Dongwen, and Yan Qing smiled smugly, waiting for Yan Jun to be chased away.

Li Dongwen also opened the small card with confidence... ..

The originally proud face slowly froze with the action of opening the card... ..

The first card was, the second was, and the third was the same!

Li Dongwen was stunned. He raised his hand and rubbed his eyes hard. After making sure that he was not seeing things, he continued to flip the card.

After flipping through seventeen cards, eleven were all, only five were 0, and there was still a blank card, which was considered to be a forfeit.

This result meant that the president's dismissal case had not been passed.

This... This was different from what they had expected ! !

Li Dongwen's hand that was holding the card began to tremble.

His face was also pale, and he did not dare to announce the result for a long time.

The people in the meeting room were waiting anxiously. Yan Qing was also impatient. He looked sideways at Li Dongwen and used his eyes to signal for him to quickly announce the result!

Li Dongwen understood what Yan Qing meant, but his hands were trembling even more, and his forehead was covered with bean-sized beads of sweat.

Even though the card was still in his hands, he still couldn't believe it. They had clearly confirmed with 80% of the shareholders last night that they had agreed to vote out Yan Jun on today's recall case. How could it be that it was time for the real vote.. They had changed their minds at the last minute?

And the worst part was that because the vote was anonymous, there was no way to know who was the one who was the traitor!

Li Dongwen's hesitation also made Xia Jinqi suspicious.

Why didn't they announce the result after such a long time?

Turning back to look at Yan Jun, she finally saw the faint smile on his lips, full of confidence... ..

Could it be that he had already expected this result?

On the other side, Yan Qing finally could not wait any longer. He simply stood up and snatched the form from Li Dongwen's hand to read it.

When he saw some numbers, he instinctively frowned and asked in return, "eleven votes against, five votes in favor, and one abstention? "

Yan Qing's voice was not soft, and everyone in the meeting room heard it clearly.

A few of the directors finally showed a smile on their faces. They took the lead in clapping and turned around to flatter Yan Jun, “the dismissal case has not been passed! Congratulations, President Yan, congratulations, President Yan...”

Slowly, the people beside them also clapped with smiles on their faces.

Even the few trusted aides of Yan Qing could only keep a straight face and clap their hands... ..

Chapter 290: Men’s clothing addiction

If he showed his disagreeableness at this time, he would probably get himself killed in the future.

The name of the cold-faced King of Hell didn’t come so easily.

Yan Jun never paid any attention to these guys who acted according to the wind.

His gaze passed through the crowd and stared at Yan Qing.

“Put away your little tricks. Since you got what you wanted, you should be content.”

Yan Jun’s tone was cold as he said straightforwardly.

The consortium had already been in Yan Qing’s hands, but he still didn’t know how to be content. did he still want to swallow the entire Yan family?

Ha... ..

He revealed his true colors so quickly?

Power and wealth could indeed draw out the hidden desires and greed of human nature.

Yan Qing was so angry that his entire body trembled slightly... ..

Li Dongwen looked at Yan Qing’s Ashen face and lowered his voice, “president, as long as there is a green mountain, there is no need to be afraid of having no firewood. There is still time in the future, why don’t we just forget about it this time?”

Since things had already come to this point, if he did not take a step back, he was afraid that he would die an even uglier death.

Yan Qing, who originally thought that he had obtained the right timing and geographical advantage, and had the upper hand, had been utterly defeated in the blink of an eye!

The photo agency did not gain any benefits, nor did they chase Yan Jun away... .. The financial group that they had fought so hard for seemed insignificant in the face of the 900 billion that Yan Jun was about to obtain !!

A Gush of air rushed up to his throat, bringing with it a fishy and sweet taste!

Yan Qing gritted his teeth and forcefully forced that GUSH OF AIR BACK!

He stared with his pair of Crimson eyes at the smiling and calm Yan Jun in front of him. He clenched his hands tightly by his side!

Yan Jun, YOU'RE RUTHLESS! ! !

"Let's go!" Yan Qing said coldly and turned around to leave.

Li Dongwen quickly grabbed his briefcase and followed... ..

Xia Jinqi stood at the same spot, watching Yan Qing's back from afar.

Her black brows furrowed slightly. Her large watery eyes were filled with surprise and helplessness.

Today, she had seen a Yan Qing she had never seen before... ..

In her impression, whenever she thought of Yan Qing, the scenes that appeared in her mind were all the days she spent in university.

He wore a clean white shirt and black trousers. He sat on the grass on the field with his hands behind his back. His eyes were slightly closed, enjoying the spring morning sun... ..

He should have looked like that, gentle and elegant, with a warm smile at the corner of his mouth.

He should not have been so flustered and flustered like today... ..

He was like a wild beast that had been thrown into the valley and starved for centuries. One day, he would be able to leave the valley, and the moment he saw food, his eyes would glow green, and he would pounce on it and bite like a madman, not caring about anything else.

Could a person change so quickly?

Xia Jinqi bit her lower lip slightly, but she soon felt relieved.

Maybe it was.

People Change.

Yan Qing had changed so much, and she had changed so much... ..

In the following period of time, Yan Jun ordered the guests to leave with a cold face. Soon, all the directors present left, including the secretary.

In the huge meeting room, only Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun were left.

Xia Jinqi turned around to look at him. Her big eyes were filled with curiosity, waiting for him to solve them one by one.

"You knew that today's recall case wouldn't be passed?" Xia Jinqi didn't care whether her current identity was Xia Tian in a male outfit or not, and directly asked Yan Jun..

His confident look just now clearly showed that he had already expected such an outcome!

He had been seriously waiting for an answer, but who knew that in the next second, Yan Jun would suddenly pounce over and hug her, pressing her onto the office desk and looking down at her from above... ..
