

Tick Me 381

Chapter 381: is there nothing you want to ask me?

Yan Sheng also put down the cutlery in his hands and picked up a Napkin to elegantly wipe his slender fingertips, a clear and faint sarcasm “Jun’ Er is not my father. You’d better put away those unspeakable thoughts of yours! Otherwise, what will Jun’ Er do? Even as a father, I can’t guarantee it. ”

The people of the Yan family were able to single-handedly create such a huge family, and stand firm in the rise and fall of a hundred years of history. There was naturally a reason behind it.

Yan Sheng did not dare to guarantee what Yan Jun would do.

But no matter what he did, the Yan family had the ability to take responsibility for it!

When Zhou Lingfang heard this, she gritted her teeth even harder, and her face was terrifyingly Pale!

Yan Qing had been supporting her the entire time, and spoke up against Yan Sheng. “What do you want? Don’t tell me that in broad daylight, you can still disregard human lives? ! ”

The worst that could happen was death.

That was why Yan Qing would ask such a question.

Yan Sheng laughed instead. “disregard human lives is not counted. ”

He immediately put down the Napkin in his hand.

Yan Qing heaved a sigh of relief when he heard that. Yan Sheng’s voice came from the front again, sneering and contemptuous. “But it’s more or less the same. ”

“You! ” Yan Qing’s face was livid with anger. His hands were clenched into fists.

Seeing that the atmosphere was heating up, Ji Xinyu finally sighed and patted Yan Sheng lightly. “Forget it. ”

Yan Sheng heard that and looked at Ji Xinyu just now. The darkness in his eyes seethed and slowly sank.

He did not say anything more. He only glanced coldly at the mother and son opposite him and then left with Ji Xinyu.

When everyone had left, Zhou Lingfang sobbed and pulled Yan Qing to complain “Son, look, mom has been living this life for so many years... .. They all looked down on mom and did not treat her as a human being .. If it was not for you, mom would not have had the cheek to come back and let them humiliate her... .. You have to help mom. You can’t let them bully mom like this anymore”

A mother knows her son like she was a mother. She knew very well that Yan Qing was a filial child, but at the same time, he was too soft-hearted and not vicious enough!

But no poison, no husband!

It was as if he was hanging up, soft-hearted, how could he achieve a career How could he push Yan Sheng and Yan Jun away?

So she could only use her role as a mother to sell her pity, to win his sympathy, to make use of his filial piety towards her, to ignite the hatred in his heart towards the Yan family!

The veins on Yan Qing's forehead were about to pop out... ..

Seeing his mother crying so sadly, how could he refuse?

"Mom, don't worry, I will let you come back and be the rightful mistress of the Yan family!"

A sinister look similar to Zhou Lingfang flashed across his black eyes. Yan Qing's aura also sank a lot!

The Yan family, he would get it one day!

"..."

The silver-white supercar sped through the quiet night.

Tonight, the dark clouds blocked out the moon. All directions were filled with impenetrable darkness, deep and oppressive.

Xia Jinqi sat in the passenger seat. Her hands hung in front of her, slightly clenching the corners of her clothes.

From time to time, she secretly glanced sideways, wanting to observe Yan Jun's current expression.

Ever since he left the Yan family, he had not said a word. His driving speed was also much faster than usual.

In the car, the atmosphere was strange.

After a long while, she tilted her head to look at him. "Don't you have anything you want to ask me?"

She opened her mouth, her tone very low, with a hint of caution.

His tightly furrowed brows relaxed a little, and he looked at her thoughtfully. Very quickly, he looked straight ahead and focused on driving. "What do you want to ask?"

Chapter 382: Was always suspicious of her?

"..."Xia Jinqi didn't expect him to ask such a question in return, so she didn't know what to say for a moment.

Zhou Lingfang's words during the banquet always made people take it to heart.

It was impossible for Xia Jinqi to be slandered like this for no reason, especially when it hurt her child. Of course, there was also Yan Jun... ..

Even she had to admit that Zhou Lingfang's move was very good.

Just a short sentence without any evidence could hurt three people invisibly.

Only at this moment did Xia Jinqi realize that Zhou Lingfang was no small character... ..

Back then, she had fought long Qingxin to the point of divorce.

Xia Jinqi claimed that she couldn't compete with long Qingxin, so she shouldn't let her guard down... ..

It seemed that she had to guard against this woman in the future.

She had to draw a clear line between herself and Yan Qing.

As for Yan Jun... ..

She felt that she had to make some things clear. If one day Zhou Lingfang came up with some tricks, she wouldn't be able to guard against it?

"What Zhou Lingfang said just now, you... "

Knowing what she was going to say, Yan Jun opened his mouth faintly and interrupted her speculation.

"I'm not stupid enough to believe her nonsense. "

What he meant was that he did not believe Zhou Lingfang's words at all.

Before Xia Jinqi could heave a sigh of relief, Yan Jun continued to say, "in the future, don't meet him in private anymore. "

Although Yan Jun did not say it explicitly, Xia Jinqi knew that this 'him' referred to Yan Qing.

Her expression changed slightly as she looked back at him in disbelief.

He used the word 'again' earlier. In other words, did he know that she had met Yan Qing in private?

"Yes, I understand. " Xia Jinqi nodded obediently, and there was already some uneasiness in her eyes.

So, was Yan Jun spying on Yan Qing or was he spying on her?

If he was spying on her, then what was his intention?

Was He suspecting her all along?

That's right. From the moment he heard her name, he had already suspected her and Yan Qing.

Then, did he also suspect her child?

The car immediately fell silent.

Xia Jinqi's face was pale. She bit her lower lip and took the initiative to suggest to Yan Jun, "I'm going to the hospital tomorrow to do a Tang's screening. Do you want to come along? "

It was said that Tang's screening was an important indicator of fetal 21 Trisomy Syndrome through blood tests.

Such a prenatal check-up, with aunt Chen accompanying her and going to the Yan family's private hospital, enjoyed VIP treatment. She could totally go by herself.

However, she took the initiative to bring it up at this time. It was deliberately said for Yan Jun to hear.

If he had any doubts about this child, then when he went to the hospital tomorrow, he only needed to instruct the doctor to take more blood for a check-up. He didn't even need to tell her.

She didn't want to know either.

When Yan Jun heard that, it was as if he had just recovered from his deep thoughts. He recalled that he had indeed heard her say that she would go for a prenatal checkup soon. He didn't expect that the time was set for tomorrow.

Although there were many things to do in the company, he still wanted to go with her.

"En, let's go together." After all, he was also the father of the child.

Hearing that he wanted to go together, Xia Jinqi should have been happy. However, for some reason, her heart felt a little sour.

It turned out that some things were not effective just because they were clearly stated.

Xia Jinqi leaned gently against the seat. She no longer looked at the man beside her. Instead, she turned her eyes to look at the scenery outside the car window.

When she came out of the Yan family's old mansion, she felt that the night breeze was very cold.

Not knowing if it was appropriate, it actually started to drizzle. The pattering of rain gradually covered the car window.

Chapter 383: tried his best to help huo ting get to the top

When the rain got a little heavier, Yan Jun turned on the windshield wiper.

"creak... creak..." the sound of tires rolling on the wet road suddenly lingered in her ears ...

Xia Jinqi listened quietly and slowly calmed herself down.

Maybe she was thinking too much.

Or maybe she didn't understand Yan Jun well enough.

After all, they were different from other couples. They didn't get married after falling in love.

Without the foundation of a relationship, some things were more difficult.

Moreover, the white ones wouldn't turn black, and the black ones couldn't be washed away.

She didn't do anything to let Yan Jun down. She had a clear conscience.

Xia Jinqi thought about it the whole way, and she actually fell asleep.

It was hard to imagine that an insomniac not only cured her insomnia after she got married, but also fell asleep from time to time, especially after she got pregnant.

Xia Jinqi thought that her marriage was really a good one.

It was good for her body and mind.

When they returned to Qingxin Garden, the rain was a little heavier.

Yan Jun drove the car into the underground parking garage. Seeing that Xia Jinqi was already asleep, he could not bear to wake her up. He only walked around the front of the car, carefully opened the car door, carried her, and carefully went upstairs.

There were still maids keeping watch upstairs. They were still chatting with each other, but when they saw the young master carrying the young mistress up, they immediately stopped talking and retreated to the side.

Xia Jinqi obediently nestled in Yan Jun's arms, having sweet dreams. Even when she was placed on the bed, she did not know it and just fell into a deep sleep.

Now, she was slowly beginning to fall asleep.

After squeezing the blanket for her, Yan Jun sat by the bed for a while. Seeing that she was sleeping soundly, he got up and went to the room next door to take a shower.

He changed into a dark gray bathrobe and came out. The maid had already served him tea.

After taking a SIP, Yan Jun turned on the computer and connected to Zhuge Wentao via video.

"I've finally waited for you to come online." Zhuge Wentao rarely complained. He took a document and stuck it close to the camera, almost covering half of his face "things are exactly as you expected. Yan Qing has indeed reached an agreement with Xia Mingzhu in private. Xia Mingzhu has promised to help Yan Qing in terms of political rights and interests. The prerequisite is that Yan Qing needs to divert the financial group's funds to help her canvass votes."

Yan Jun glanced at the document and did not look at it carefully. His brows were still as distant as a mountain. "To get the financial group, it is indeed a lot of opportunities for him."

With money in his hands, there were naturally more people who came to him to ask for cooperation.

Now that Xia Jitian had not been elected president, Xia Mingzhu and Xia Chuanxu, the sister and brother, had started to divide their forces. They planned to have their own forces.

Since Xia Mingzhu had chosen Yan Qing, Yan Jun would naturally do his best to help Xia Chuanxu.

"How has Xia Chuanxu been recently promoted?" Yan Jun took a sip of tea and asked.

"His position has already been moved too far, so there hasn't been any news recently. However, the Huo family's old master is going to retire. The number one person in the military region has yet to be chosen."

Hearing this, Yan Jun frowned slightly. "The huo family's old master didn't appoint Huo Ting?"

This surprised him.

“No. ” Wen Tao shook his head, his expression somewhat solemn. “I heard that someone from above wants to suppress the huo family. The Huo family’s old master naturally won’t expose his own grandson in this storm. ”

Yan Jun thought for a moment and came to a conclusion. “Do your best to help huo ting ascend the throne. ”

Chapter 384: The person who wanted to hide, no matter how hard he tried, he couldn’t hide

Regardless of whether it was for the sake of old master huo or Xia Jinqi, he had to help Huo Ting.

In addition, the number one position in the military had to be taken by someone. If his own people were to sit on it, it would be easier for him to do things in the future.

Wen Tao naturally understood what Yan Jun meant. He immediately nodded. “already making arrangements. Ji Yunjing seems to have secretly helped the huo family quite a bit. ”

“Has Ji Yunjing’s relationship with the Huo family been investigated? ” Speaking of this, Yan Jun couldn’t help but feel concerned.

It was already a miracle that the mysterious Ji family had taken the initiative to find him and cooperate with him. Now, they even had an unclear relationship with the huo family.

This truly made people suspicious.

“Not yet. ” Wen Tao had a troubled look on his face. Clearly, his methods of investigating people were not as good as Fang Shaoan’s, so he simply gave up. “Why don’t we leave this matter to Shaoan? His father is in charge of the security department. ”

This security guard wasn’t the guard of his family’s estate. He was the guard of the entire Rao city, and he was even at the national level.

The information of the people in the country was managed by the Ministry of Security. It was said that it had already been connected to the international level.

During the economic storm in the early years, the Fang family had dug out all their assets and bought an official position during the great era of reform. This position had been passed down and had not changed.

The Fang family was originally a technology-based company. It was indeed more than enough to do this.

“that’s good too. ” Yan Jun agreed. Recently, Fang Shaoan had been so free that he was almost moldy. It was just the right time to take it out and expose it to the sun.

After discussing serious matters, Wen Tao recounted his schedule for the next day to Yan Jun..

Yan Jun didn’t take it to heart and said directly, “cancel all of them. I have some private matters to deal with tomorrow, so I won’t go to the company. ”

“private matters?” Wen Tao asked in surprise. Did he hear wrong Second Young Master Yan, who had always been number one at work, had also started to put his private matters first?

Since he was asked, Yan Jun didn’t plan to hide it. “accompany Jinqi to the hospital for a prenatal checkup.”

However, perhaps he didn’t notice that when he mentioned Xia Jinqi, his cold and thin lips were always slightly curved. There was something called happiness in the corners of his eyes and brows.

However, Wen Tao saw it.

He was initially stunned for a moment before he helplessly shook his head and laughed. “The famous cold-faced King of hell actually knows how to smile? Is He that happy to be a father?”

The little happiness that Yan Jun hid in his heart seemed to have expanded infinitely after Wen Tao said that.

He no longer suppressed his emotions and laughed out loud. He even nodded solemnly. “Yes.”

He was just happy.

After receiving Yan Jun’s answer, Wen Tao could not help but laugh out loud again. “You’ve really changed a lot.”

Yan Jun felt that it was true. Whenever he thought about Jin Qi and the child in her belly, he couldn’t help but feel happy.

As if his thoughts were seen through, Yan Jun smiled helplessly.

Yeah, how did he become like this?

Just like that, the two men turned on a video call in the middle of the night. They looked at each other and smiled in tacit understanding... ..

A good night’s sleep.

The next morning, Xia Jinqi woke up in high spirits and received a message from Ling Yue.

Yan Qing handed over his name card to Lego and indicated that he wanted to see Summer.

Xia Jinqi’s brows were tightly knitted together. The Heavens always liked to joke around.

People who wanted to hide could never be hidden.

People who wanted to see could never be seen.

[not seen.]

Xia Jinqi replied to Ling Yue, lifted the blanket and got out of bed.

Chapter 385: benefits

Ever since she learned how to manage her financial affairs when she was a teenager, Xia Jinqi learned how to allocate her time rationally and do all the things that needed to be done.

During the day, she was an ordinary university student in school. Her studies were not considered top-notch, but she did not lag behind either.

Apart from perfecting her studies, she also had to find time to study the tasks that Lego handed down.

Of course, occasionally, there would be some necessary family gatherings, as well as... .. Her mother and second sister making things difficult for her ...

High efficiency and precision were the important guarantees for her to play both roles.

Therefore, she could easily switch from the fourth daughter of the Xia family to the leader of Lego.

She could still control the two identities, but now that she had a child, she still needed to cultivate the relationship between her and Yan Jun, so she was finally unable to be in two places at once.

From the looks of it, she had to finish her postgraduate examination as soon as possible at the school and put her focus on the child.

With this thought in mind, she had just turned the corner and was about to go downstairs when she heard Yan Jun talking on the phone with someone.

“everything is fine in Rao city. Yes, Jinqi and the child are also fine. ”

Xia Jinqi slowed down her footsteps and slowly went downstairs.

“Yes, she entered the house. Grandfather agreed. ”

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi could roughly guess who it was.

It should be grandmother’s call, right?

Grandmother was far away in Las Vegas, but she also knew about Yan Qing’s mother’s visit?

This... .. The news was quite well-informed ...

Xia Jinqi did not intend to eavesdrop. Instead, she openly walked to Yan Jun’s side and openly listened to him.

Yan Jun raised his eyes and saw that it was her. He extended his hand and gestured for her to sit beside him.

Xia Jinqi followed his instructions and walked over. She obediently sat by his side and allowed him to hold her hand as she quietly listened to the conversation between him and his grandmother.

“Yes, your grandson understands. ”

Yan Jun did not say much before the call was hung up.

Seeing that Yan Jun had put down the phone, Xia Jinqi could not wait to ask, “is it grandmother? Does she know that Zhou Lingfang has entered the house? ”

“Yes.” Yan Jun nodded and turned to look at her excited expression. He felt a little helpless. “The yan family’s matter can not be hidden from grandmother.”

“then... how DID GRANDMA REACT?” Long Qingxin would definitely not be too calm when her former enemy entered the Yan family’s gate ...

Xia Jinqi originally thought that long Qingxin would not be too much of a problem even if she directly rushed back from Las Vegas with a machete... ..

But now, looking at Yan Jun’s reaction, he seemed to be surprisingly calm?

Could it be that long Qingxin had really let it go Was she planning to wipe away the enmity with a smile when they met?

“Grandma said...” Yan Jun actually paused for a moment with a little difficulty... .. He looked at Xia Jinqi with a very unnatural expression, and his eyes were hesitant ...

The more he didn’t say it, the more curious Xia Jinqi became! “Hurry up and say it, WHAT DID GRANDMA SAY! !”

“nothing good?” He leaned against the SOFA with a faint smile, and his soul-stirring Phoenix eyes stared straight at her.

Xia Jinqi’s heart was shaken by his gaze, and she didn’t have the slightest bit of control. It was as if she had fallen into an endless wave, sinking into an endless abyss.

“annoying...” She snorted softly, revealing the bashfulness of a little girl. She quietly glanced around.

The servants were busy preparing breakfast in the dining room, so no one noticed the two of them.

After making sure that there was no alarm, she took the initiative to approach him. She lightly pecked his thin lips, then quickly backed away.

Just as she was about to continue asking what his grandmother had said, she didn’t expect that this fellow was addicted. His big hand grabbed her lower back, leaned forward, and kissed her lips.

“UGH...” Xia Jinqi maintained her position on top of him. She couldn’t avoid it, so she could only clench her pink fists and lightly pound his chest as she struggled.

Chapter 386: Wait for me to come back and kill that demoness!

However, he didn’t care. When she tried to hide, he would come over and kiss her again until she ran out of strength. She smiled weakly in his arms and allowed him to do whatever he wanted.

After a long while, the two of them quieted down.

Xia Jinqi took a deep breath and continued the topic. “You haven’t said it yet. What exactly did grandma say?”

Since she had betrayed her looks, she should at least get the answer back together, right?

A certain big gray wolf hugged her in satisfaction. It sighed and laughed gloomily. "Grandma said that we should stay out of it. She will come back and take care of that demoness."

Actually, Long Qingxin's original words at that time were —

[none of you should bother about it! Wait for me to come back and kill that demoness!]

Long Qingxin had cultivated her body and character over the years, and her temperament had changed quite a bit.

Thinking back, she was the daughter of the last generation general. When she was young, she was the famous little tyrant of Rao city. Who in the neighborhood wouldn't be scared of her?

It was only when she met Yan Youcheng later that she stopped her temper and became a good wife and mother.

As a result, when the incident with Zhou Lingfang happened, her temper became known throughout the entire city. Yan Youcheng couldn't keep his face, so the two of them could only divorce.

All these years, Long Qingxin didn't argue with Yan Youcheng on the premise that Yan Youcheng didn't bring Zhou Lingfang back. This more or less gave her some face.

Now, not only did that vixen enter the house, she actually started to act like a demon?

How could she endure it?

It was best to let go of the old and new grudges together!

The little tyrant's temper from back then was on the rise, and his words became much more domineering.

Xia Jinqi also smiled in surprise. "Grandma really said that?"

Yan Jun softly said, "I can hear it. Grandma is very angry."

Xia Jinqi could hear another meaning in Yan Jun's words. "So, after so many years, grandmother still hasn't let go of her feelings..."

Even though they had been divorced for so many years and her grandson had already set up a family, Long Qingxin still hadn't let go of the hatred in her heart.

Rather than saying that it was hatred, it should be said that she had never forgotten her feelings for Yan Youcheng.

Love is deep, but responsibility is deep.

Without love, how could there be hatred?

Yan Jun didn't answer again. His eyes were as dark as the night, incomparably dark.

How could he let it go so easily?

After all, he had once loved deeply.

The Servant just happened to come over to report that breakfast was already prepared.

Yan Jun came back to his senses and held Xia Jinqi's hand as they went to the dining table.

Today's prenatal check-up was just to do the Tang sieve alone. There was no need to have an empty stomach, but Xia Jinqi was a little nervous and only ate a few mouthfuls hastily.

After the two of them had breakfast, they went to the hospital together.

The person receiving them was the director of the obstetrics and Gynecology Department. His words were quite polite, especially when he saw Yan Jun personally arrive, calling him young master.

When they were extracting the serum, Yan Jun was waiting outside. Xia Jinqi watched as the nurse skillfully injected the needle, but her mind was on the director of the obstetrics department. "Doctor, I still want to do another check-up, is that okay?"

The director hurriedly replied, "of course! What kind of check-up Does Young Madam want to do?"

"I heard that medicine is very advanced nowadays. You only need venous blood to do DNA paternity tests, right?"

"This... can be..." the director looked at Xia Jinqi in confusion, then looked at the corridor outside, his expression hesitant ...

Xia Jinqi knew what he was worried about, so she smiled and said, "don't be nervous. I'm just doing a check-up. Also, it can be considered a small secret between us. I hope you can help me keep it a secret."

As soon as she finished speaking, she took out a bank card and pushed it in front of the director.

Chapter 387: meeting for the first time.

Zhou Lingfang's words last night made her have no choice but to be on guard.

If the matter were to blow up and everyone knew about it, she and the child would be pushed to the cusp of the storm.

Rather than waiting for such a dilemma to happen, it was better to be prepared in advance.

Compared to those women who were suspected of being the biological father of the child, who were stubborn and refused to do a paternity test, she knew better what she wanted.

She wanted to protect her family and her relationship with Yan Jun..

She didn't think that doing a test meant that she didn't believe it. On the contrary, she felt that the result of the test was an important safeguard and a powerful weapon for her.

She didn't care what others said. As long as Yan Jun believed in her, it would be fine.

The reason why she chose to do the test in a hospital under the Yan Corporation would be more convincing in the future.

She was also a smart person. She knew what it meant to take things one step at a time.

The director was silent for a long time before he reached out and accepted Xia Jinqi's bank card.

After all, it was just a paternity test, and it wasn't anything outrageous. There was still money to be taken, so she naturally had no reason to refuse.

"Young Madam, don't worry. This matter, you and I will know. Heaven and earth will know."

"That's good." Xia Jinqi curled her lips in satisfaction. She got up and followed the director to another examination room.

Yan Jun had been waiting outside for almost half an hour, but he still did not see anyone come out.

He was slightly anxious. He got up and went to the corridor.

His long body leaned against the wall. Out of boredom, he habitually reached out to touch the cigarette in his belt, but he missed it.

Half a second later, he laughed at himself. Ever since Xia Jinqi was pregnant, he had given up smoking.

He hadn't smoked for a long time, and he would occasionally think about it.

When Xia Jinqi came out of the surveillance room, she saw Yan Jun standing alone in the corridor. The corners of her mouth curled up naturally.

She was still holding two ultrasound images in her hands, and she handed them to Yan Jun as if she was presenting a treasure. "So you're here! Look at this!"

Yan Jun turned his head and saw her big black and white eyes curved. He then followed her line of sight.

The two black and white images in front of him seemed to see nothing at first glance. When he took a closer look, it seemed like there was a small jelly-like thing in it, flickering in and out of existence.

"This is..." for the first time, Yan Jun was a little cautious. He was even a little in disbelief.

"This is our child! He's only this big!" Xia Jinqi added excitedly. This was the first time she had seen this image. "It's so magical, like a little bean!"

When Yan Jun heard this, his pitch-black eyes suddenly shone with brilliance. He moved closer to look at the image seriously, and his expression became unbelievably gentle.

At the beginning of his life, just imagining that they were about to give birth to a new life had completely melted Yan Jun's heart... ..

Not to mention that he was currently holding such a photo.

"It's the first time we've met." His wide palm carefully touched the small dot on the image, as if he was touching some rare treasure.

Seeing this, Xia Jinqi could not help but laugh. She held his hand and placed it on her lower abdomen.

"He's here, he's really here!"

She could not suppress her excitement.

To be honest, when she first knew that she was pregnant, she actually did not feel much. She only knew that she was pregnant.

Now that she had undergone the examination, she slowly felt that there was really a small life growing in her belly bit by bit... ..

Yan Jun only felt a warmth and softness, but even so, his brows were still curved, and a smile that was like a spring breeze began to spread.

Chapter 388: or I won't marry you!

With what to maintain a relationship between a man and a woman?

Marriage Love Family Benefits?

All of this seems so realistic, but also so illusory.

None of it is as real as a real child.

Let this child's body flow belongs to you and me, then, this will be two people forever can not untie the bond.

Whether the future is divided or combined, is side by side, is far away, there is always such a child, called your mother, called his father.

Just thinking about it like that had already caused countless emotions to rise in his heart... ..

Yan Jun slightly reached out his hand and grabbed Xia Jinqi's lower back, gently pulling her into his embrace.

His Chin gently lowered her forehead, and he suddenly sighed. "Give birth to the child properly. "

"En. " Xia Jinqi nodded heavily, and her hands unconsciously wrapped around his waist, smiling contentedly and blissfully.

She would definitely give birth to this child properly, definitely... ..

The two of them embraced each other, completely oblivious to the two figures approaching at the corner of the corridor ahead.

The obstetrics and gynecology departments were so close that Xia Tianjiao had just finished her check-up and was walking down the stairs with Yan Qing when she saw the two embracing in the distance.

"What A NARROW ROAD! " Xia Tianjiao snorted coldly and clenched the examination report in her hands.

Yan Qing ignored her. In his eyes, there was only one girl named Xia Jinqi.

At this moment, seeing her nestled in the arms of his old enemy with a face full of happiness, his face turned pale and his jaw tightened.

He didn't intend to go forward. He wanted to turn around and leave, but Xia Tianjiao, who was beside him, spoke before him, "Oh! Who did I think it was! It's fourth sister!"

Xia Tianjiao's voice was quite loud, reverberating throughout the entire corridor. One could even hear a few echoes, inexplicably mournful.

Xia Jinqi and Yan Jun heard the voice and released each other. They looked at Yan Qing and Xia Tianjiao.

The four of them looked at each other. Past grudges surfaced like clouds and smoke.

Xia Jinqi glanced at Xia Tianjiao's disdainful expression. In the end, her gaze stopped at Xia Tianjiao's hand that was tightly hugging Yan Qing's arm.

The two of them looked so intimate, and they came to the hospital together. Could it be that they were really getting married?

No matter how she thought about it, she could not understand why Yan Qing would take a fancy to Xia Tianjiao?

At that moment, Xia Tianjiao had already walked up to Xia Jinqi with Yan Qing on her arm. She raised her chin slightly and said arrogantly, "you must be present at my wedding with Yan Qing!"

Hearing that, Xia Jinqi finally understood that she was here to show off her wedding.

She immediately smiled and said, "of course I will be there."

She had not forgotten that on the day of her wedding, Xia Tianjiao had given her a huge gift that she would never forget for the rest of her life... ..

Ever since she was young, her teachers and parents had taught her to return the favor.

This was the fine tradition of the Huaxia nation for thousands of years, and she should inherit it.

Xia Tianjiao was still humming arrogantly, and she turned to Yan Qing and said coquettishly, "Yan Qing, you have to come and pick me up personally on the day of your wedding, or else I won't marry you!"

After saying that, she even reached out and pinched Yan Qing's chin, pretending to be ambiguous for Xia Jinqi to see.

She had also heard about the incident between Yan Qing and Xia Jinqi, and it would be a lie to say that she was not jealous.

In addition, when Xia Jinqi got married, it was Yan Qing who went to greet her... ..

A simple sentence instantly froze the other three people present.

Xia Jinqi frowned slightly, and her hands were a little cold.

Chapter 389: coveting others

When she and Yan Jun were married, they had made a lot of mistakes. Although the relationship between them had eased up since they were pregnant, there were some scars that could not be touched.

Yan Jun's expression was also very bad. He lowered his head and glanced at Xia Jinqi. There was actually a hint of apology in his deep eyes.

He held her hand slightly tighter.

Xia Jinqi felt it. She raised her head and gave him a bright smile, indicating that he was fine.

When Yan Qing saw this scene, his heart ached.

In a vengeful manner, he turned around and hugged Xia Tianjiao. He replied, "don't worry, I'll definitely come and pick you up personally."

"That's more like it!" Xia Tianjiao instantly laughed until her flowers trembled. She was so satisfied!

Xia Jinqi was a little speechless. She didn't know what kind of show these two were putting on in front of her. Did she think she would be jealous?

Just as she was puzzled, Xia Jinqi raised her eyes and saw the huge words behind Yan Qing — obstetrics and gynecology.

Seeing these two appear here at the same time, could it be?

Her gaze fixed on Xia Tianjiao's stomach, Xia Jinqi boldly speculated, "you two... could it be that you're getting married with a child?"

This was too much of a coincidence, and one couldn't help but suspect it.

As soon as Xia Jinqi said this, the two people opposite her were stunned for a moment, and their faces turned a little pale.

Yan Qing was unhappy because when Xia Jinqi knew that they were getting married, not only was she not sad, but when she said that they were getting married with a child, she was even a little excited!

As for Xia Tianjiao... ..

She had a gynecological disease, and it was still a little early for her to conceive a child.

Moreover, Yan Qing had never touched her at all!

At most, he would only give her a hug. He wouldn't even give her a kiss!

Yan Jun immediately understood when he saw the different expressions on their faces.

There was no such thing as a child. If Yan Qing really had a son, Zhou Lingfang wouldn't have said such things last night.

His thin lips curved slightly. He raised his eyebrows and his dark eyes locked onto Yan Qing. He said unceremoniously, "you don't have a child yourself, yet you're planning to covet someone else's?"

These words were obviously mocking Zhou Lingfang's actions last night.

Yan Qing's already pale face instantly sank to the bottom.

He did not look at Xia Jinqi again. He was just angered by Yan Jun's words and lost control. "Covet? It should have belonged to me, but it was snatched away by you!"

His words were referring to Xia Jinqi.

If Xia Jinqi was not snatched away, then she should marry Yan Qing and be pregnant with Yan Qing's child!

But in the ears of others, it was ambiguous.

Xia Tianjiao was momentarily stunned. She questioned Yan Qing in disbelief, "what? Fourth Sister's child is yours?"

The moment these words were said, the rhythm of the entire scene was thrown into chaos.

Yan Junmeng's eyes darkened, and the aura around her body plummeted!

Xia Jinqi also recalled what happened last night. She subconsciously furrowed her brows and looked at Yan Qing warily.

She didn't believe that like mother, like son. Now she believed it. One who gets close to the enemy will be blackened.

She clenched her teeth slightly. It seemed that her paternity test was very necessary!

These people wouldn't let her and the child in her belly off so easily... ..

Yan Qing didn't explain anything. Instead, he pulled Xia Tianjiao and was about to leave. "Are you crazy?!"

"You're hurting me! Yan Qing! What is your relationship with her? You two..."

The voice grew further and further until it was so far that not a single sound could be heard.

Xia Jinqi clenched her cold hands tightly and turned to look at the man beside her.

Rumors were spreading everywhere outside of the situation. It was as if a hole had been opened between her and Yan Jun, and blood was destined to drip out.

Yan Jun stood rooted to the ground for a long time without saying a word. His expression was terrifyingly gloomy.

Chapter 390: I love you

The Aura on his body returned to the cold and distant feeling she had when she first met him.

Cold, indifferent, and distant.

No Man could endure such gossip.

Xia Jinqi did not blame him for having such a reaction. She took the initiative to step forward and pulled on the corner of his sleeve. "before I met you, I did have a confused feeling towards Yan Qing.

"I used to think that it was the love that I yearned for, but after meeting you, I finally knew what true love was.

"Yan Jun, I have never done anything to let you down.

"whether you believe it or not, my child is yours, my person is yours, and my heart is yours. "Give me some time, I will prove it to you."

This was originally a disaster brought about by her and Yan Qing's past. Yan Jun was innocent, and she did not want him to suffer such pain and pressure.

This was the first time that Xia Jinqi took the initiative to express her relationship with Yan Qing in front of Yan Jun. .

Without the anger from before, as well as the face that she could not bring down to the surface, she calmly told him all this.

As for Yan Jun, his overwhelming anger could not be compared to her soft words and a small gesture of goodwill.

He sighed and turned around to look at her. His black eyes sparkled. "Say it again. "

Xia Jinqi paused for a moment, not understanding what he meant.

Should she repeat everything that she had just said?

It was too long... ..

She was very lazy.

Her beautiful lips curled into a shrewd smile. She raised her head to look at him. Her big eyes narrowed slightly as she said slyly, "I love you. "

Wasn't that what she meant after saying so much?

This black-bellied guy even made her repeat it on purpose.

Who knew that she would say that?

Before he could finish his sentence, his boiling hot lips had already fallen.

Silly woman.

How could he not know that the child was his?

He was angry that some random person would use his child to make a big deal out of it?

However... ..

Being able to receive such a confession was also out of his expectations.

As expected, there were two sides to everything. Good and bad depended on each other.

Perhaps, he should thank those two idiots who appeared just now.

If they hadn't interfered, he didn't know when he would have heard her true words... ..

Love.

What a wonderful word... ..

It was as if he had traveled through several centuries in exchange for the words, "I love you. ".

It was extremely precious.

After leaving the hospital, Yan Jun went to the company on the way.

Xia Jinqi returned to Qingxin Garden. Just as she took the book and prepared to review the content of the postgraduate entrance examination as soon as possible, Zuo Xiaoran's phone call came in.

"Xiao Qi, what are you doing? I haven't seen you come to school for a few days. I Miss You... " lazily acting coquettishly, Zuo Xiaoran yawned, moved her body, and changed directions to lie on the desk to continue sleeping.

"I'm at home. I just went for a prenatal check-up. Did you sleep during class again?" Xia Jinqi guessed that Xiao ran must have played games all night again. It was a good time to catch up on sleep during the day.

When Zuo Xiaoran heard that Xia Jinqi had gone for a prenatal check-up, she immediately perked up and stopped sleeping. She asked, "how is it? Is My Godson okay?"

Xia Jinqi burst out laughing. "very good! I just don't know if it's a boy or a girl! "

Xiao ran was even more anxious than her. Did she want a son so badly?

"It's definitely a big fat boy!" Zuo Xiaoran started to pack up her textbooks excitedly. "Xiao Qi, wait for me. I'll come to see my Godson right away!"

"Okay, I'll wait for you." Xia Jinqi hung up the phone with a smile.

She lowered her head and unconsciously stroked her belly.

She couldn't help but smile.

Baby, are you a boy or a girl?
