

Tick Me 601

Chapter 601: he had three broken ribs

The director was already in a dilemma. Who knew that he would suddenly hear the words “chief Huo” again? His teeth trembled. “You mean... Chief Huo Ting?”

“Who else could it be?” Fang Shaoan smiled coldly. Power was a good thing.

No Wonder Yan Jun wanted to help huoting rise to the top.

With such great power, it was naturally more convenient to have it in the hands of his own people.

As he spoke, he dialed Huo Ting’s cell phone and handed it to the director.

Fang Shaoan did not know what Huo Ting had said to him, but when he saw the director, he was immediately drenched in sweat and his face turned pale. He nodded repeatedly and said, “yes, yes, yes. Don’t worry, don’t worry...”

Then, he returned the cell phone to Fang Shaoan.

“How is it? Are you willing to let him go now?” Fang Shaoan wiped his cell phone and put it into his pocket.

“Let him go, let him go, of course...” the director was sweating profusely. He immediately got someone to open the cell and respectfully invited Zhuge Wentao out.

Wen Tao patted the dust off his sleeves and frowned slightly. He asked, “where did Yan Qing go?”

“He was taken away by Secretary Xia. He should have gone to the hospital. After all... He has three broken ribs.” When the bureau chief said the last sentence, he silently glanced at Wen Tao ...

Obviously, who was the one who did Yan Qing’s three broken ribs.

Fang Shaoan suddenly felt that Zhuge Wentao’s one-day trip to the prison for half a day did not seem to be a loss.

Where was it not good to hit someone? Why did he have to fight at the police station? Wasn’t this an obvious provocation.

Fang Shaoan did not continue to stay at the police station. He drove Zhuge Wentao home.

On the way, he could not help but give Wen Tao a ‘concerned’ look, as well as an undisguised ridicule.

Zhuge Wentao knew what he was laughing at, but he was not angry. He just slowly took off his glasses and gently wiped them with a cloth.

“How is second young Master Yan?” He asked.

“I’m afraid he’s already on his way to Berlin. The emperor is not in a hurry, but the eunuch is.” Fang Shaoan held the steering wheel with one hand and laughed.

They were in a hurry to teach Yan Qing a lesson, but Yan Jun didn't seem to be paying any attention to it.

Wen Tao's glasses were almost wiped clean. After he put them back on, he felt that the world in front of him was clear again.

"Second Young Master Yan has never made a move easily. Once he makes a move, the other party will never have the chance to stand up again." As he spoke slowly, Wen Tao put away his glasses
"Moreover, from what I see, it's not that second young master Yan doesn't want to make a move, but it's Yan Youcheng who is causing trouble."

"Are you saying that the old master of the Yan family is protecting Yan Qing?" Fang Shaoan frowned. Why didn't he think of this?

"Most likely." Wen Tao was very certain. According to Yan Jun's fiery temper, it would be strange if he didn't kidnap Yan Qing and throw him into the sea.

However, he only sent Yan Qing to prison and did nothing else.

This was not like his style at all.

Fang Shaoan was silent for a moment and sighed softly. "actually, it's understandable that the old master of the Yan family would do this. After all, the palm and the back of the hand are all flesh."

Regardless of which one he gave up, it was the same as forcefully digging out a piece of flesh from his own body. It was destined to be dripping with blood.

Fortunately, Zhuge Wentao's skills were not bad. He broke three of Yan Qing's ribs. It could also be considered as avenging Yan Jun's Arrow. Let's see if he still dared to stir up trouble in the future?

Wen Tao, however, smiled, as if he did not agree with Fang Shaoan's words. "The bigger the family, the more cold-blooded it is. Shaoan, just you wait. Yan Qing will come back again."

Chapter 602: was especially fatal to men

Fang Shaoan was shocked and didn't say anything for a long time. He only sighed, "we're originally from the same root, why are we so anxious to fight each other?"

After that, no one said anything else. The car was quiet, or rather, it was more of a kind of helplessness and sadness.

Otherwise, why would people say that it was the most ruthless, the royal family.

It was exactly the same for such a big family.

In the rare few days, Fang Shaoan didn't drag Zhuge Wentao to fool around anymore. Tonight, he even sent him home obediently.

The zhuge family had always kept a low profile. Although they occupied the best seats in the wealthy district, there were rarely groups of servants waiting inside.

Zhuge Wentao preferred a quieter environment.

Therefore, when he pushed open the door, the living room was as dark as usual.

His parents were away from home all year round. Most of the time, there was only him and... ..

The sound of porcelain falling to the ground came from the kitchen. There was also the sound of a girl screaming, "AH!"

Zhuge Wentao immediately frowned and walked quickly to the kitchen.

He saw the white porcelain on the ground, and the little girl in pajamas standing next to him had a terrified look on her face.

"stand still." He only said one sentence, then turned around and took the broom to remove the residue.

The girl in the kitchen was wearing a ginger pajamas with some cartoon patterns on it. Her short hair was just shoulder-length, and her small face was very young and immature. She looked like she was only seventeen or eighteen years old.

She stood in the same place obediently and looked at the man who was still working. She asked in a small voice, "brother, where have you been these days?"

Her voice was very soft, like a kitten's meowing. It scratched at the heart of a person, and to a man, it was especially fatal.

Zhuge Wentao's gaze deepened. "I have something to do."

As he spoke, he had already put down the broom and turned to look at her. "Why are you still awake? Have you finished your homework?"

When she said this, the girl was discouraged and very pessimistic. "I can't finish it... mathematics is really a disaster for me for the rest of my life!"

However, Zhuge Wentao laughed and reached out to rub her head. He said dotingly, "I'll teach you."

"Yes!" The girl happily rushed over and hugged Zhuge Wentao's arm. Her young face was full of smiles.

Her name was Rosette. She was Zhuge Wentao's younger sister. She was not related by blood at all.

When she was five years old, she was brought home by Mrs. Zhuge. Then, she placed her hand in the twelve-year-old Zhuge Wentao's hand.

When she came, there was nothing but a Rosette picked from the roadside in her hand.

Zhuge Wentao looked at her seriously then took the Rosette from her hand and placed it on her head. He told her that she would be called Rosette from now on.

A girl who was as pure as a flower.

When she was young, she did not think much of it. After she grew up, Rosette constantly reminded herself to be content.

Rosette was already a very nice name. At least back then, Zhuge Wentao did not randomly give her any Zhuge Wentao. She should be burning incense... ..

The brother and sister went upstairs.

On the way, Rosette hugged Zhuge Wentao's hand and shook it. Her soft chest unconsciously brushed past his strong arm, again and again.

Rosette did not understand, but Zhuge Wentao was already an adult man. To a girl, the softest part... ..

He had a strange expression on his face. He quietly pulled his arm out of her embrace and asked seriously, "which question do you not know?"

"This is a big question!" As she spoke, Rosette took the exercise book and placed it in front of Zhuge Wentao.

Because of her bending over to approach him, a fragrance unique to girls immediately entered Zhuge Wentao's heart and lungs.

Chapter 603: Xiao Qi, welcome home

There were some things that one could not control for too long, and one really did not know when they would explode.

Zhuce Wentao took a deep breath and tried his best to suppress the flood beast in his heart. He tried his best to focus on the question in front of him.

However, he could not even see the question clearly no matter how hard he tried. It was a piece of cake in the past.

His mind was a mess, and his body was also hot.

However, there was a little girl beside him who was dawdling non-stop. "I clearly studied hard too, but I just can't understand it!"

Zhuce Wentao, "..."

Before he could calm down, she had already put her head on his shoulder and sighed. "If only I was half as smart as you, brother..."

Zhuce Wentao reached out and pinched the bridge of his nose. After countless deep breaths, he pushed her away. "Sit properly!"

Rosette pursed her lips and had no choice but to sit properly.

After finally solving the problem and explaining it to her seriously again, Zhuce Wentao finally had the time to wipe the beads of sweat off his forehead.

One day, he would die at the hands of this girl!

Rosette did not notice the change in her brother at all. She only looked at the problem seriously and could not help but be happy. "brother, you're really amazing! You only taught me once and I already know how to do it! It's much better than the bald math teacher in our school!"

Hearing her praise, Zhuge Wentao could not help but smile. He earnestly helped her to finish the problem and helped her tidy up the table before returning to his room to wash up.

No matter how many things there were outside, he would always find time to teach her homework.

All these years, he had never changed.

Because back then, when his mother brought that cute little dress in front of him, she had said, "Wen Tao, this is your future bride. You have to take good care of her, understand?"

Then, he remembered it in his heart.

All these years, he didn't get married, nor did he go on blind dates, all for the sake of waiting for her to grow up.

Moreover, he knew that he didn't have to wait for much longer.

Berlin.

After a long flight, Xia Jinqi was finally brought back to the Ji family.

The Ji family, which she had only heard about in books or by others, was about to be displayed in front of her eyes.

Before the plane landed, Yan Jun had already hidden himself among the bodyguards. There was not a single trace left behind, and Ji Yunjing did not even discover a single trace.

He would never have thought that on the third day after he kidnapped Xia Jinqi, Yan Jun would discover his tracks and successfully sneak into his private plane.

Ji Yunjing's plan could already be considered thorough. Xia Jitian and Huo Ting still had not found any clues, but Yan Jun had already met with Xia Jinqi.

He was always one step ahead of others.

The plane landed on the huge apron.

The moment the cabin opened, a gust of cold air blew against their faces.

It was still winter here, and it was in the same hemisphere as Rao city, but it seemed to be colder.

Xia Jinqi lay on the hospital bed, and someone pushed her off the plane.

Xiao Yuhan was also brought along by someone to follow Ji Yunjing's side.

Xia Jinqi glanced at it briefly and saw that behind the huge green lawn was a castle-like building. It was very grand and carried a sense of historical gravity, instantly causing people to respect it.

The people beside her spoke German that they could not understand, but it could be seen that everyone was extremely respectful to her.

However, all of this was so strange that it made people feel a little afraid.

While her thoughts were running wild, Ji Yunjing took a deep breath and turned around to look at her. The smile on her face was relaxed and at ease that Xia Jinqi had never seen before.

“Xiao Qi, welcome home. ”

Chapter 604: addressed her as Miss

Xia Jinqi didn't know why, but at this moment, she suddenly felt that Ji Yunjing was born to belong here.

He should be the heir that the Ji family expected.

God always liked to make such jokes. No matter how hard they worked, they couldn't have the person they wanted, but the person they didn't want was destined to be unable to escape from the moment they were born.

“where's grandfather? ” Xia Jinqi asked. She didn't see the person Ji Yunjing described among the people who picked her up.

“You'll see him in a while, ” Ji Yunjing replied, but she didn't explain. Instead, she made a gesture for the bodyguards to move faster and put Xia Jinqi's hospital bed into a seven-person car that was similar to an ambulance.

The moment the car door closed, Xia Jinqi saw a familiar figure coming out of the boarding gate.

Yan Jun was still among the bodyguards. She hoped that he wouldn't be stopped by Ji Yunjing... ..

Moreover, Xia Jinqi was a little worried. Could it be that Yan Jun would always be here as a bodyguard?

However, on second thought, he was Yan Jun. nothing could stop him.

On the other hand, how should she face everything in the Ji family?

The hand hidden under the blanket unconsciously tightened.

Xia Jinqi turned her head to look at Xiao Yuhan who was lying beside her. Courage and faith surged from the bottom of her heart.

No matter how difficult it was, she couldn't give up!

Otherwise, twenty years later, perhaps her child would experience the same pain as she did today... ..

After getting off the plane, Xia Jinqi drove for about ten minutes before she was transferred into the castle-like building that she had seen before.

The Room prepared for her was very large. The ceiling was at least seven meters high. At a glance, the room was at least a hundred square meters. The furnishings inside were modern, but the big bed was pink. It was unknown if it was to take care of her young girl heart.. It made people not know whether to laugh or cry.

After settling in, many doctors came to check on her body. They spoke in German and could not understand her. Occasionally, there would be one or two who spoke English and could understand a little.

It was said that her wound healed a little slowly, but it was not infected. Her body was in good condition.

There were also some people who were discussing whether or not to let her go through confinement according to Rao city's custom.

Xia Jinqi lay on the bed the whole time with a helpless expression.

She wanted to go through confinement, but after being tormented by Ji Yunjing, why would she go through confinement... ..

Forget it. Anyway, Western countries did not have the rule of going through confinement. As long as she listened to the doctor's words and recovered her body, she would do it first.

After a room full of doctors finished discussing, they went out again. It was unknown who they reported to, but Ji Yunjing came in after that.

He had already changed into a traditional three-piece suit with light gray diagonal patterns. It was clean and stylish, making him look even more presentable.

He walked to Xia Jinqi's bedside, but he did not sit down. Instead, he stood by the side obediently. "Miss, your body is recovering very well. Don't worry. Yu Han is also very healthy. "

Xia Jinqi was a little baffled when she heard this. Didn't he call her Xiao Qi before? Why did he call her miss when he came here?

And he even needed you... ..

Xia Jinqi frowned and looked at him. "Is this also a rule of the Ji family? "

Ji Yunxiang nodded. Seeing Xia Jinqi's unaccustomed expression, he couldn't help but smile. "There are many rules in the Ji family. Miss will slowly get used to it. "

"You should call me Xiao Qi. " Xia Jinqi waved her hand and interrupted him. Hearing him call her miss, she felt like there was nothing wrong with her.

Chapter 605: rules can not be broken

Before Ji Yunjing could say anything, a deep, slightly weathered male voice came from outside the door. It was rich and domineering, with a hint of age.

"This is a rule. Rules can not be broken. "

A sentence that did not have too many tones entered Xia Jinqi's ears, making her inexplicably nervous.

Xia Jinqi looked in the direction of the voice and saw an old man who looked to be in his 70s or 80s sitting in a wheelchair.

He had a typical Asian skin color, but his pupils were slightly blue. When he looked at Xia Jinqi, there was an indescribable sternness and majesty.

Just like what he said when he first appeared, he was an extremely obedient person, and because of this, he was extremely stubborn.

When Xia Jinqi sized up this old grandfather who had suddenly appeared, Ji Yunjing had already introduced him by the side. "Miss, this is your grandfather, Ji Heng."

Her grandfather Xia Jinqi's expression was calm, but her heart had already stirred up waves.

He wasn't as cruel as she had imagined. On the contrary, at such an age, she could already tell that he had a delicate and pretty appearance back then. He should be a rare handsome man, right?

"Grandfather," Xia Jinqi tried to call him. No matter what, he was still her family.

Although she felt that she should call him grandfather, since Ji Yunjing had introduced him like this, there was nothing for her to fuss about.

Ji Heng gave an undetectable grunt of gratitude and then said, "you've been on the plane for more than ten hours. Are you tired? Have a good rest."

After saying that, he controlled the electric wheelchair and went out.

Before he left, he glanced at Ji Yunjing. "come out."

He didn't give Xia Jinqi a smile the entire time, or rather, his expression was very calm and there weren't too many emotions.

Xia Jinqi looked at his back as he left. She didn't know why, but she could actually see some loneliness.

After he left, Xia Jinqi turned around to look at Ji Yunjing. "cousin, what happened to grandfather's leg?"

"In winter, the rheumatism is more serious and he can't move, so he needs a wheelchair," Ji Yunjing explained. He didn't say much and turned around to follow Ji Heng Out.

Xia Jinqi was left lying on the big bed alone, staring at the ceiling in a daze... ..

So, did grandfather like her or not?

She felt that they were not very close, and they were not easy to get along with.

Looking back at the empty big room, emptiness and loneliness suddenly surged into her heart.

It seemed that it would take some time to change the rules here.

Fortunately, after the doctor had fed Yu Han, he sent the little guy back to her side.

Even if he was asleep, seeing that he was healthy, her heart was unbelievably warm.

After lying down for a while, a maid came in to bring her hot water. When Xia Jinqi took the cup of water, the maid secretly handed her a note.

Xia Jinqi took the note in surprise. When she looked up at the maid, she turned around and left without saying a word. Like a puppet, she sat stiffly doing her own things.

Xia Jinqi unfolded the note, and a vigorous and powerful line of words jumped onto the paper.

[ take care of your body. Don't think too much first. ]

Xia Jinqi recognized this handwriting.

It was Yan Jun's.

When she was pregnant, Yan Jun would take time out to accompany her every day. Most of the time, it was in the afternoon. She lazily leaned against his chest and basked in the sun. She watched as he signed the documents one by one with just a simple glance. It was a name that could make her smile unconsciously.

Presumably, he had already arranged it so that he could deliver the message to her so conveniently.

Chapter 606: Why didn't you bring the two children back together? ! !

Xia Jinqi's anxious heart suddenly relaxed.

Xia Jinqi carefully put away the note, a smile hanging on her lips.

This feeling was really good.

Even though they were separated for a short time, she still knew that he would always be by her side and would never go away.

Outside.

Ji Heng was sitting in a wheelchair with a cup of steaming hot coffee in front of him. His expression was very solemn.

Ji Yunjing stood by the side obediently. His jaw was tense, as if he was facing a great enemy.

After a long while, Ji Heng finally spoke, his voice extremely displeased. “Why didn't you bring the two children back together? ! ”

Ji Heng already knew that Xia Jinqi had given birth to the dragon and Phoenix twins, but Ji Yunjing only brought Yu Han back, leaving Xiao puff behind.

This made Ji Heng extremely dissatisfied.

When Ji Yunjing decided to bring only one child back, he knew that this day would come. He did not explain much, only saying, “the Yan Family should have this child too. ”

Leaving Xiao puff behind for Yan Jun was Ji Yunjing's own decision.

Ji Heng had originally intended to bring back the two children, but Ji Yunjing could not bear to do so.

Breaking the rules privately, he knew that it would definitely anger Ji Heng, but he still did it without hesitation.

If he had not insisted on doing it and followed Ji Heng's instructions, then without Xiao puff by his side, Yan Jun might not have woken up so quickly Nor could he have accidentally saved Yan Jun's life when Yan Qing went to the hospital to poison Yan Jun to death.

Many seemingly coincidental things, in fact, had already been arranged by fate.

What goes around comes around.

"What did you say?" Ji Heng thought he had heard wrong. He raised his eyes and stared at Ji Yunjing, because he dared to openly go against his wishes.

"... " Ji Yunjing pinched his hands that were hanging by his side, and his expression was unsightly. "Yan Jun, he..."

"Enough! The Ji family can not tolerate people who don't know the rules! You know where to go." Ji Heng furrowed his brows, and flames danced in his eyes.

Ji Yunjing nodded. He did not resist, nor did he explain anything to him. He turned around and walked out.

He knew what his grandfather meant. He wanted him to receive the punishment himself.

His two sentences just now had won him a three-day tour of the luxurious dark room. Moreover, there was no food provided.

The so-called dark room was a small dark room. There was no light around and no sound. It was just you alone in the room for three whole days.

Ji Yunjing had been locked in there once. He knew the feeling that every minute and every second felt like an entire century.

It was a fate worse than death.

But this time, even though he knew that there would be such a punishment, he still did it without hesitation.

For the next three days, Xia Jinqi did not see Ji Yunjing. She thought that he had gone to do something else, so she did not care.

According to Yan Jun, she had not done much in the past few days when she returned to the Ji family. She only worked hard to eat and drink. Finally, she welcomed the day when her stitches were removed.

The wound healed very well. Xia Jinqi could finally escape the confinement of the big bed and walk around the huge castle.

In a few days, she had familiarized herself with the terrain here. Then, Xia Jinqi discovered that the people living in the castle, whether it was the maids or the bodyguards, did not like to talk much and did not have any expression on their faces.

They were all doing their own things, communicating with each other almost zero. They were all lifeless. They were typical of Ji Heng's rules, right?

Speaking of Ji Heng, Xia Jinqi was really a little speechless.

Chapter 607: Find Yourself a new husband

He would come to see her every day. The time was fixed at 10:30 in the morning. He would only speak to her a few times, and he would definitely leave before 10:45 without any deviation.

When she was able to walk around, she realized that Ji Heng had strict rules about when he woke up, when he ate, and how much he ate.

This kind of life seemed to be organized, but wasn't it tiring?

It was just like tonight, when Xia Jinqi was called over by Ji Heng for dinner for the first time.

In the huge dining room, there were flowers and white tablecloths on the rectangular table.

The servants and waiters served the appetizers, soup, appetizers, and main dishes in turn. There were many rules, but they were also extremely complicated.

Moreover, after serving so many dishes, Ji Heng only ate three mouthfuls of each dish. There was no way he would eat more.

Xia Jinqi's eyes twitched as she thought to herself, this is probably the true nobility... ..

She was indeed not suitable for this place.

Thinking about how she had been here for so long, Ji Heng had never talked to her or the Ji family directly.

Tonight was a good opportunity.

Putting down the cutlery, Xia Jinqi turned to look at Ji Heng. "GRANDPA, I want to talk to you."

"... " Ji Heng didn't say anything. He just moved his hand that was holding the cutlery slightly, and a waiter immediately came up to him. "Miss, you can't talk when you eat."

Xia Jinqi said, "... I've finished eating."

The waiter looked at her and then at Ji Heng, speechless.

Ji Heng wiped the corner of his mouth, put down the cutlery, and raised his eyes to look at Xia Jinqi.

"Have you almost recovered?"

“Yes.” Xia Jinqi nodded. So grandfather didn’t want to talk to her because he was worried that she wouldn’t recover?

However, before she could finish thinking, Ji Heng’s words hit her head again. “We’ll start learning the rules tomorrow.”

“...”Xia Jinqi’s heart ached. As expected, she was overthinking things.

How was she worried that she wouldn’t be able to talk without recovering? She was clearly waiting for her body to recover so she could learn the rules, right?

And what rules did she have to learn Was she planning to turn her into a wooden figure like them?

She refused!

Immediately, she frowned. Xia Jinqi resisted and said, “grandfather, I don’t belong here. I came back with cousin this time just to visit you and see the place where my mother used to live. After a while, I will return to Rao city.”

Xia Jinqi finally found an opportunity to say what she had been holding back for half a month. She felt more or less at ease.

However, Ji Heng’s expression clearly darkened.

He looked straight at her, his eyes filled with depression. “This is your home. It’s just Rao city. What’s there to be reluctant about?”

“My husband is there,” Xia Jinqi replied quickly, almost without hesitation.

She thought, Grandfather shouldn’t be able to stop this reason, right?

Who knew that in the next second, Ji Heng would open his mouth. “If that’s the case, I’ll find you a new husband here.”

“Ah?” Xia Jinqi’s mouth had already grown to a size 0. Her mind was a little muddled for a moment, unable to keep up with Ji Heng’s train of thought. “find another one? He’ll commit the crime of bigamy...”

“I’m not interested in knowing Rao city’s laws,” Ji Heng replied very domineeringly. Then, he turned his head and ordered the attendant, “go and find all the information on outstanding unmarried men in famous families who are around the same age as Xiao Qi.”

“Yes, master.” The attendant actually accepted the order and left.

The remaining Xia Jinqi was petrified.

Why... ... Why did the topic suddenly turn to finding a husband for her ? ?

This, this, this, if Yan Jun knew about this, wouldn’t he chop her up?

Chapter 608: I’M MARRIED Don’t you know?

Xia Jinqi held her forehead and explained, “grandfather, I don’t need to find another husband... what I mean is...”

“I’m tired.” Clearly, Ji Heng had no intention of listening to Xia Jinqi. He pressed the button on the electric wheelchair, turned around, and disappeared in front of Xia Jinqi’s eyes.

As for what Xia Jinqi said, he completely adopted an evasive policy. Either he pretended not to hear it, or he used a new topic to prevaricate.

After standing alone in the same spot for a long time, Xia Jinqi suddenly thought of something. Her originally gloomy face suddenly brightened up.

Although she didn’t have a pleasant chat with Ji Heng, she noticed that when Ji Heng called her, he called her... .. Xiao Qi ? ?

She couldn’t help but smile. Xia Jinqi looked in the direction where Ji Heng had left.

Her grandfather’s heart might not be as cold as she imagined... ..

Ji Heng returned to the study room alone.

The stove in the room was very warm, but his heart still felt a little cold.

On the desk is a row of picture frames, is Ji Xiaofu from small to big picture.

He stared at the photos for a long time, sitting alone for a long time, the back lonely and lonely.

The granddaughter he finally found, he must let her stay.

In just one night, the news that grandfather Ji was looking for a husband for his granddaughter spread all over Berlin.

Many people have taken the initiative to recommend themselves, for a time the threshold of the Ji family was almost broken!

Xia Jinqi woke up early in the morning and was teasing Xiao Yuhan who had already come out of the incubator when the attendant came over with a stack of photos.

Staring blankly at the handsome man who had covered the entire table in front of her, Xia Jinqi raised her eyebrows. “What is this for?”

“This is the outstanding unmarried man that master has chosen for eldest miss. Eldest Miss, see if you like him. Master said that he will arrange for you to meet immediately,” the attendant said seriously.

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi finally remembered what Ji Heng had said last night... ..

She thought it was a joke, but who would have thought that she was really looking for him?

And he was so fast?

“where’s grandfather?” Xia Jinqi tried her best to calm herself down. “I want to see him.”

This was going too far.

“Master is in the study,” the attendant replied respectfully.

As soon as she finished speaking, Xia Jinqi had already walked towards the study.

Without knocking on the door, Xia Jinqi directly rushed in.

Seeing that Ji Heng was flipping through something, she couldn’t care less and directly said, “grandfather, why did you take the initiative to find a husband for me? I’M ALREADY MARRIED!”

Ji Heng raised his eyes indifferently and glanced at her. He frowned slightly. “which family’s young master do you fancy?”

Xia Jinqi, “...”

She looked at Ji Heng in disbelief. Could it be that he didn’t understand her words?

She had no choice but to repeat herself. “Grandfather, I’m already married! Don’t you know?”

Ji Heng still acted as if he hadn’t heard anything. He stubbornly followed his own thoughts and said, “this is the Wilson family’s heir. He’s five years older than you and is young and promising. I’ll let him meet you later.”

“? ?”Xia Jinqi felt a stifling feeling in her chest. She couldn’t get up or down!

Why didn’t her grandfather seem to hear anything she said?

No, it wasn’t that he didn’t hear it.

He clearly heard it, but he didn’t take it to heart at all. He didn’t care about her intentions at all, and he still made a life plan for her.

She finally understood why her mother wanted to escape the Ji family back then... ..

Not only was her words and actions restricted, she was also unable to make decisions about her own matters!

Chapter 609: I heard that you want to recruit a husband for the entire city Hmm?

Is the Ji family’s rule to wear down a person’s consciousness, completely imprison their soul, and turn them into walking corpses?

“I won’t meet with that so-called heir. Grandfather, why can’t you listen to my thoughts?” Xia Jinqi shook her head.

“Your thoughts aren’t important.” Ji Heng didn’t seem to be in a daze and answered quickly.

“...”being completely ignored to this extent, Xia Jinqi was suddenly filled with a sense of defeat.

Not to mention changing the rules of the Ji family, she couldn't even deal with this grandfather now. Instead, she was completely led by the nose.

What should she do?

What should she do to make grandfather change?

What her mother couldn't even do back then, she... .. could she really do it ? ?

Before Xia Jinqi could think of a solution, Ji Heng had already called the attendant and invited her out.

After that, under Ji Heng's arrangements, the heir of the Wilson family came.

"Miss, young master Xing has already arrived," the attendant reminded from the side.

"I'm not going to see him." Xia Jinqi turned her back in anger and curled up on the SOFA, unwilling to go out.

She was already married, so how could she still go on a blind date?

"This..." the attendant hesitated for a moment and didn't try to persuade her again. Instead, she turned around and left.

After a while, the door was pushed open again. "creak..." the sound of the door was heard, angering Xia Jinqi. She raised her voice and said impatiently, "I said I'm not going to see him!"

She kept her back facing the door, thinking that the attendant had come again.

She was still angry at herself. She had been here for the past few days, but she hadn't done anything. Instead, she had put herself in such a situation.

After waiting for a while, she didn't hear the waiter's voice. Xia Jinqi turned around with a frown, but she suddenly bumped into a pair of starry eyes that were as deep as the ocean.

"Yan Jun? !" She gasped in disbelief. Her eyebrows and eyes flew up. "Why are you here?"

He was always able to surprise her.

The slender man in front of her narrowed his eyes. His handsome face was a little tense, and his tall figure enveloped her in an instant. His tone was dangerous and charming. "I heard that you want to hire a husband all over the city? HMM?"

Xia Jinqi saw his slightly dark eyes. After a moment of thought, she smiled and climbed onto his neck. "Are you jealous?"

However, Yan Jun didn't let her get away with it. He put one hand on her lower back and pressed her body closer to his. He leaned over and kissed her Red Lips.

"Oh... wait..." Xia Jinqi pushed him and hurriedly went to look at the door ...

Fortunately, it was closed.

The breath that was finally relieved was lifted again in an instant.

After a moment of absent-mindedness, Yan Jun had already unbuttoned her shirt. The hot kiss had already reached her collarbone.

After not seeing him for half a month, he was much more anxious. The kiss was also accompanied by punishment. He Gnawed and bit. "You want to get out of the wall? Huh?"

Xia Jinqi didn't know whether to laugh or cry. She hurriedly surrendered and explained, "it was GRANDPA's idea. I WOULD RATHER DIE THAN SURRENDER!"

"You chose Xing Chen from the Wilson Family? En?" He seemed to be really angry. He kissed her crazily while interrogating her.

This was clearly GRANDPA's choice. She had never even heard of that Wilson family, alright... ..

Xia Jinqi wanted to explain further, but he had already bent over.

"En!"

Yan Jun's body stiffened.

This was the first time the two of them had been intimate since she gave birth.

Chapter 610: Ah Jin, you are mine'

After a short pause, not only did his enthusiasm not decrease, it was even stronger than before.

It was as if he had discovered a new world... ..

Xia Jinqi was so embarrassed that her face was flushed red. She wanted to push him away, but he kissed her until she had no strength left.

Her small hands pressed against his burning chest, in a posture of wanting to reject him but also welcoming him.

Xiao Yuhan, who was lying in the CRIB, had woken up for a while. He was staring at the ceiling with his big eyes wide open. His small hands moved about, wanting to grab something, but he could not grab it.

His short legs also swayed, as if he wanted to kick something, but he didn't have enough strength.

He really wanted to grow up quickly... ..

On the other side, Yan Jun happily repeated the sucking action, causing Xia Jinqi's entire body to become a puddle of water. She snuggled into his arms and gave up struggling.

"You... don't do it. Xiao Yuhan doesn't even have enough to eat..." God knew how much courage she had mustered to say this !!

Her delicate little face was so red that it was about to drip blood... ..

How could she have known that he would be so sudden... ..

Yan Jun came back to his senses and reluctantly let go of her. He leaned over to kiss her lips, earlobes, and neck again and again, announcing his strong possessiveness.

After an unknown amount of time, he was only willing to let her go when the two of them were tired from torturing her. His breath was heavy as he whispered in her ear, "Ah Jin, you are mine."

Xia Jinqi had long been tormented into being obedient. She blinked her large elk-like eyes and looked at him pitifully. "It was really GRANDPA who acted on his own initiative..."

She felt that she had suffered innocently!!!

Yan Jun's heart had long been softened by her pair of clear and beautiful eyes. How could he still have the heart to blame her?

He leaned over and carefully kissed the space between her brows. Then, he personally helped her button her clothes one by one.

"Do you need an army? I can lend it to you," he suddenly said without any reason while he was buttoning her clothes.

"An army?" Xia Jinqi was stunned. It took her a long time to react, but she asked him in disbelief, "you want me to use an army to deal with the Ji family?"

"Why not?" Yan Jun looked back at her, his face full of arrogance.

Initially, he thought that since Xia Jinqi wanted to resolve this matter herself, he could just watch from the side.

But the old master of the Ji family actually wanted to find another husband for his daughter-in-law?

This was going too far.

Which man could take it?

It was so troublesome. He might as well fight a war and be obedient.

Xia Jinqi burst out laughing when she saw how serious he was.

Yan Jun, who had always been serious, was forced to say such words. It seemed that this matter had really stimulated him greatly.

"He's my grandfather. Isn't it disloyal and unfilial for me to fight with him? You dare to have such a woman?" She smiled and wrinkled her nose cutely. "Besides, where did you get the army?"

However, he pulled her into his arms and said seriously, "besides me, who else dares to have my woman?"

Xia Jinqi obediently rested on his shoulder and listened to his overbearing tone. She smiled in satisfaction and turned to talk about serious matters. "But, how did you get in? Didn't they say that they would let the Wilson Family Come?"

Yan Jun picked up a strand of her hair and twirled it around his fingertips. "Xing Chen is my partner. He just happened to have his name card and came to attend the appointment."

“Oh...” Xia Jinqi nodded. Then, she couldn’t help but look at him with a smug smile. “So, you rushed here because you heard that I was looking for a husband all over the city?”

Thinking of his enthusiasm just now, Xia Jinqi smiled even more cheerfully.
