

Trick Me 751

Chapter 751: wives are inferior to concubines, concubines are inferior to thieves, and concubines are inferior to thieves are inferior to thieves

However, Long Qingxin did not make things difficult for this young nurse. She just kept her head high and her chest puffed out when she walked into the ward, and her charm did not lose any of its previous charm.

After she brought long Qingxin to the ICU ward, the young nurse patted her chest and came out of the ward in a state of shock.

A colleague happened to come over, so they gossiped, "who was that who went in just now? He is so old, but his figure is still so good, and his temperament is so good!"

"She... She's Yan Youcheng's ex-wife..." the young nurse was still gasping for breath to calm her frightened little heart ...

"EX-WIFE? Wow, no wonder his charm is so good! When he was young, he must have been devastatingly beautiful!"

"WHO says so! I don't know what master Yan is thinking, leaving his beautiful wife like a fairy and not having a good life, insisting on going out to have a mistress..."

"Aren't all men like this? Wives are inferior to concubines, concubines are inferior to thieves, and concubines are inferior to thieves... Sigh, forget it, I'll go check on the ward."

Aunt Chen happened to hear the two nurses finish their discussion when she came out.

She looked a little embarrassed. After all, she had the same question as the young nurse in her heart.

When the master and Madam had just gotten a divorce, she indeed felt that it was not worth it for Madam. However, after all these years, there was no longer so much worth or not.

At least these years, madam had lived very peacefully. That was enough.

In the ICU intensive care unit.

Long Qingxin had also changed into a set of sterile clothes.

When she went in, Yan Youcheng had not woken up yet.

In short, when she saw Yan Youcheng, whose body was full of tubes and was on the verge of death, she still felt quite sad in her heart.

However, she could not help but snort coldly, "old thing, you also have this day!"

After scolding him, her heart was empty again.

Looking at his face full of wrinkles, Long Qingxin could not help but think of the past. He used to be a sarcastic and charming man, a famous handsome man in Rao city.

However, time did not spare people, and he was now old and frail.

Not only that, he also suffered retribution and almost died in the hands of his illegitimate son.

When she heard that the old man was about to die, Long Qingxin rushed over from her home without stopping.

She thought that after thirty years, she should have let go of the things that happened in the past, but when she saw this old man, she more or less still held a grudge.

After thinking for a long time, Long Qingxin turned around and walked to the side to sit down.

Once she sat down, it lasted for more than half an hour.

During this time, Yan Youcheng did not wake up, and Long Qingxin just stayed quietly in a daze.

Originally, visiting the patients in the intensive care unit was not allowed for such a long time, but a nurse did not dare to go in and call them, so she simply let them be.

They were all the elders of the Yan family, and they were juniors that they could not afford to offend.

Another half an hour passed, and Yan Youcheng, who was lying on the hospital bed, finally woke up.

He opened his eyes, and when he looked around, he almost immediately saw long Qingxin sitting by the bed.

At first, he thought that he was hallucinating, but after blinking hard and realizing that the hallucination did not disappear, he tentatively called out, "Qingxin..."

Her name was really nice to hear, but just saying it like that could make him happy.

Long Qingxin raised her eyes and glanced at him. Without much emotion, she sneered, "I thought you were dead."

Lying on the bed motionlessly, she was no different from a dead body.

Yan Youcheng was not angry. Instead, he smiled and looked at the ceiling. "Yeah, I thought I was dead too... I didn't expect that God still left me a breath."

After saying that, he turned back to look at Long Qingxin, tears welling up in his eyes.

He kept this breath because he wanted to see her again... ..

Chapter 752: do you think you can stop me if I really want to marry her?

However, Long Qingxin averted her eyes as if she didn't want to look him in the eye.

"I heard that your precious illegitimate son blew up half of the Yan family?" She picked his sore spot and said mercilessly.

This was his mistake in the past. Now that Karma had been reincarnated and retribution was unpleasant, wouldn't others be allowed to see it as a joke?

“...”Yan Youcheng froze and suddenly remembered everything that had happened before.

He knew that with Yan Jun around, there was no need to worry about the aftermath.

But when Long Qingxin brought it up, his heart still felt sad.

“Qingxin, I’ve let you down.” He looked deeply at long Qingxin again, and there was a hint of sobs in his voice.

“You don’t have to apologize to me.” Long Qingxin refuted his apology and sneered, “that woman’s child didn’t get any benefits either.”

In fact, Long Qingxin herself knew that with her stopping Yan Youcheng, not only was he unable to marry that Zhou, but he also couldn’t give Yan Qing a proper identity.

In short, what she, Long Qingxin, did not want, others did not even have the right to pick it up!

For the rest of this long life, he could not let her suffer alone, right?

Yan Youcheng naturally knew that when he was young, Long Qingxin was always like that. It was already a blessing in disguise that she did not attack Zhou Lingfang.

Today, he had no right to talk about what happened back then. He just wanted to take advantage of his last breath to say sorry to her.

“Qingxin, I didn’t expect you to come to see me. I really didn’t expect...”

Muttering softly, Yan Youcheng couldn’t help but cough twice.

The heart-wrenching pain came wave after wave.

His Angina was also an old problem.

All these years, whenever he thought of Long Qingxin, he would always suffer this kind of pain.

When it hurt, he would sometimes take medicine, and sometimes he would not take it. Because only by letting his body sink into a heavy pain could he temporarily forget the pain in his heart.

“You... do you still hate me?” Yan Youcheng asked again, his pair of muddy old eyes staring at long Qingxin with hope ...

She hadn’t changed much... ...

It was just that her hair had turned white, there were more wrinkles, and her skin wasn’t as exquisite as before.

Other than that, she was still exactly the same as he remembered.

Long Qingxin listened to him and also looked at him with a meaningful look. The smile that was frozen on her lips was full of bitterness.

“would you believe me if I said I didn’t hate you? Even I wouldn’t believe it myself.” Long Qingxin sneered Just now, she slowly told him about her purpose of coming here today “I should have come to see you, both emotionally and logically. After all, if I hadn’t stopped you from marrying that Zhou Guy, your precious illegitimate child wouldn't have caused such a Ruckus over a status and almost hurt my children and grandchildren. What a sin! "

It had been thirty years, thirty years, but she still couldn't let go of the hatred. In the end, it was just that she had loved him too deeply back then.

If she had known earlier, she wouldn't have disobeyed her father and insisted on going to Xiangshan temple to pray to Buddha. That way, she wouldn't have met him who happened to accompany her mother to pray to Buddha!

Grudges and grudges, right and wrong, wrong and right. After so many years, she still couldn't let go!

Yan Youcheng was silent for a moment and sighed faintly. "Qingxin, you were angry with me back then and insisted on getting a divorce. Both of us are stubborn people. Do you think you can stop me if I really want to marry her? "

"..."Long Qingxin's eyes paused slightly as she looked at him in confusion.

Could it be that there was something else going on?

Yan Youcheng happened to be looking at her as well. Their gazes intertwined for a long time.

Chapter 753: I only have one wife in my life

After a long time, he slowly opened his mouth and said word by word, "I only have one wife in my life. That person is you, Qingxin. "

Yan Youcheng only knew that he was a jerk and did not have any position to say such words.

But he had to tell her these words... ..

He had already died once. He was too clear about what he had not done and what he wanted to do.

Since he had survived until now and met long Qingxin, why did he care so much about his face?

What face, what backbone, could be more important than her?

It took him more than thirty years before he finally understood.

In the face of love, there was no need to care so much about face and chauvinism.

If he had understood this earlier, would it be... .. their fates would be rewritten ? ?

It was just that he did not have a second chance in life, so he could only live with such a regret for the rest of his life.

Long Qingxin was stunned on the spot for a moment.

Hearing Yan Youcheng say this, she was not unsurprised... ..

Not only was she surprised, but there was also grief and heartbreak... ..

However, in the end, all this unwillingness and heartbreak turned into something else.

So many years had passed. What was the point of being so calculative?

She was clearly relieved in her heart, but her words were unforgiving. "I don't care who you want to marry! You're like this now. If you want to marry, I'll ask you who's willing to marry you? You old pervert!"

After saying this, Long Qingxin got up and prepared to leave.

She had been here for a long time. She was not his wife, so there was no need for her to waste time with him.

Seeing that long Qingxin was about to leave, Yan Youcheng hurriedly stopped her. "Qingxin, sit for a while..."

Long Qingxin did not even look at him. "I can't stand the pungent smell of disinfectant."

After saying that in disgust, she left without looking back.

When she walked out of the door, Long Qingxin's tightly knitted brows finally relaxed a little.

Old thing, you're still old after all.

When you're old, you'll be afraid of loneliness, afraid of loneliness.

As soon as long Qingxin walked out, aunt Chen walked over, held her hand and asked, "how are you, old Madam?"

"I'm fine, let's go back." Long Qingxin smiled, the expression on her face was very relaxed, no longer as gloomy and depressed as when she came.

When Aunt Chen saw this, she also glanced behind long Qingxin before supporting her to walk out.

As they walked, she asked, "are you going to visit the young master?"

"No. That young couple is being sweet. If I go, wouldn't I be a third wheel?" Long Qingxin shook her head and refused.

In fact, when she went there just now, she gave that kid Yan Jun a good scolding. She reckoned that if she went now, they would probably stare at each other. It would be better to talk about it another day.

Aunt Chen did not mention it again, but she could not help but mutter, "the young master's twins are extremely obedient!"

Long Qingxin nodded as well. Suddenly, she remembered that as a grandmother, she had not prepared any gifts for the two children, and she was a little dispirited in an instant. "What do you think a grandmother like me should give them?"

"well... they don't seem to lack anything..." Aunt Chen herself had given her hand-sewn pure cotton clothes anyway. As for the old Madam, she would just... ..

Long Qingxin continued to be troubled. "Why don't we give them Qipao? But there's still a young man! Sigh, young men are really hard to please!"

Aunt Chen, "..."

Xiao Yuhan had already fainted from crying in the toilet.

Could it be that he was picked up by someone?

Chapter 754: was supposed to be a great thing

It was a dark and windy night.

Three camouflage military jeeps opened the road. A row of black cars with the same license plate number N 8 quietly drove out of the city along the ring highway.

The three Li brothers were divided into three different cars. Two armed police officers with machine guns sat next to each of them, ready to fight.

Huo Ting sat in the lead car, 88888.

The adjutant had just received a phone call and turned around to report to Huo Ting, "Yan Qing has been transferred to the military hospital. "

"Yes. " Huo Ting nodded lightly, "get someone to watch him and report the news at any time. "

"Yes, chief. " The adjutant nodded, then glanced at the few cars behind him and asked suspiciously, "chief, are those people behind really going to be secretly brought into the military area? "

These were huoting's trusted aides. Even if they knew some of the situation, it would not be a big deal.

"What? Are you afraid? " Huo Ting looked up from a few documents with military badges, glanced at the adjutant, and curled his lips into a smile.

"this... it's mainly wanted criminals. It wouldn't be good if they were found out. " The adjutant was at a loss for words. He was indeed a little scared ...

The presidential election was about to begin. With the transition of power between the old and new regimes, who knew how many people were watching this opening. If there was even the slightest mistake, it was really possible that tens of millions of people would drag him down from his horse.

Huo Ting closed the documents and pondered for a moment, but he still did not change his previous idea. "follow the top-secret procedures. Except for people of your level and mine, no one can come into direct contact with them. "

"Yes! " The adjutant was finally energized.

What he did not know was that Huo Ting actually trained these people for other purposes besides his own use... ..

Although Yan Qing was eliminated, the Ji family... ..

Looking at the distant night sky, Huo Ting and Ji Yunjing were in close contact. He knew that the Ji family would soon come to Rao city.

And this time, it was no longer in the sense of the past. They were just here to discuss cooperation and go through the motions.

It was said that the Ji family was going to migrate to Rao City to take root.

He had heard from Ji Yunjing how much Ji Heng doted on the girl. This way, Rao city would have another person to protect the girl.

This was originally a great thing, but... ..

There were pros and cons to this matter.

The Ji family had broken free from the Rothschild family. Could the Rothschild family easily bypass them?

At that time, if the Ji family was really handed over to the girl, then the girl would have to bear another layer of responsibility.

The Rothschild family would do anything. They could even send people to assassinate the Ji family, or even start a war. When that time came, they would... ..

Huo Ting had no choice but to make preparations in advance.

It would be best if he could subdue these three brothers of the Li family. At that time, he could train them and let them protect the girl.

If he could not subdue them, then... .. He could only find someone else ...

Three hours later, the army drove into the military district outside the city.

Huo Ting personally arranged for the three Li brothers to be imprisoned.

He starved them for three days, giving them only water, no food, and not even a bun.

There was nothing in the room where they were imprisoned. There were only empty walls and iron bars, as well as cameras in the four corners.

On the fourth day, Huo Ting finally remembered to visit them.

Before he went, he asked about the three people.

“Boss Li Jie was very calm. He didn’t say a word after he went in, but he drank the water that was sent in every day on time.

The second brother, Li Kui, started to make a fuss the next day. The third brother, Li Hao, seemed to be weak and fainted once.”

Chapter 755: the smell of death from Hell

Huo Ting pursed his lips and smiled in understanding.

Before this, he had already thoroughly investigated the background of these three people.

The second brother was born with a disability and only had three fingers. He had an inferiority complex and did not like to appear in a crowd. He was also not good at communicating with others.

Over time, he developed a lonely and dark personality.

However, God was always fair. When he took something away from you, he would use another method to return it to you.

The second brother was a genius. He had specialized in chemistry since he was young and had once received a world-class medal. He was best at creating neurotoxins and killing people without being noticed.

The third brother was a sickly man. It was not an exaggeration to describe him as skinny as a stick. He had been weak and sickly since he was young. Under the influence of the second brother, he was very interested in Chemistry and physics.

When he grew up, he was also very good at making all kinds of explosives.

With these two sickly brothers, as the eldest brother, Li Jie naturally had to train himself to be strong enough so that he could protect his brothers well.

Therefore, his physique was the strongest among the three brothers, and he also played a leading role among the three brothers.

It could be seen from the fact that he had been locked up for three days and still insisted on drinking water and exercising to prevent the loss of his muscles.

Therefore, in order to get the three brothers to submit, the first person who needed to be convinced was Li Jie.

After getting the adjutant to open the electric gate of the secret prison, Huo Ting was about to step in.

However, the adjutant subconsciously stopped him, "chief, why don't we stay outside?"

After all, Li Jie killed people without batting an eye and was an extremely dangerous person. The chief had a noble identity, and if something happened inside... ..

Moreover, even if he was talking outside, the people inside could hear him.

There was no need to take the risk to go in and communicate with him.

Huo Ting waved his hand. He didn't care much and directly stepped in.

There was almost no natural light in the secret prison. Only the incandescent light from all directions illuminated the entire room.

People who were exposed to such light for a long time would feel uncomfortable and even have a mental breakdown.

Li Hao, who was in poor health, had already fainted a few times.

However, when Huo Ting stepped into the secret prison, he realized that the light did not seem to have much effect on Li Jie.

He sat on the edge of the bed with his eyes closed. He was wearing chains and handcuffs on his hands and feet. They were all to restrict his movements.

He was also wearing a yellow and white prison uniform. Because of his tall and sturdy figure, this uniform looked a little small on him.

Huo Ting looked at him a few times before he said, “are you used to living here?”

Upon hearing this, Li Jie opened his eyes and looked at Huo Ting.

Almost in an instant, Huo Ting felt the aura of death from hell spurting out of Li Jie’s eyes.

The number one assassin on the dark flower list. Just this look alone was enough to prove that he was not undeserving of his reputation.

Moreover, when Huo Ting fought with him, he had already experienced it.

People who had such a look were definitely from the pile of death.

Huo Ting was inexplicably interested in his story.

Li Jie stared at the man in neat military uniform in front of him. His handcuffed hands clenched tightly!

He was the last person in his life to admit defeat. He had actually lost to this man that day!

His eyes immediately turned red. Li Jie quickly stood up and threw a Hook Punch at Huo Ting!

The adjutant who was still outside the secret prison was shocked and hurriedly shouted, “chief! BE CAREFUL!”

Chapter 756: in this chaotic world, who wouldn’t have a story to tell?

However, Huo Ting still stood there calmly, not even planning to hide. “Your two younger brothers are still next door.”

The moment he finished speaking, Li Jie’s fist stopped one centimeter away from Huo Ting’s face.

The wild wind blew across Huo Ting’s face, as if reminding him that if Li Jie didn’t stop, he would have already been beaten into a pulp!

Seeing this, the adjutant outside the electric gate swallowed hard and wiped the sweat from his forehead in fear.

Such a terrifying aura was like the arrival of death, it could take your life at any time!

The adjutant looked at Huo Ting suspiciously. Could such a person really be used by him?

At that time, Li Jie had already gnashed his teeth and said, “if you dare to touch them, I will kill you!”

His gaze was even more ruthless than before, cold and horrifying!

Huo Ting glanced at him, walked to the bedside and sat down without a care in the world.

“since you love your two brothers so much, you shouldn’t have led them on such a path.” Huo Ting cut to the point, as he spoke, he noticed the change in Li Jie’s expression.

Putting aside the things that Li Jie had committed, he could be said to be one of the few good brothers in the world.

Not only did he support his two younger brothers, but he also treated them as treasures in his hands.

And the two younger brothers also trusted him as a big brother. They practically listened to his every word.

From a certain perspective, the Yan family, which was high and mighty, was not as important as this family, which lived at the bottom of society and struggled in the mud.

As expected, God was fair.

“What do you know?” Li Jie snorted coldly and walked over to sit by the bed.

He knew the current situation.

The three brothers had been arrested. If they wanted to be killed or cut into pieces, they could only do as they were told.

But as long as there was a chance of survival, he wanted to send his two brothers out first!

Since this so-called chief came to find him, there must be some leeway!

“then... tell me your story.” Huo Ting looked at him calmly, his eyes rolling with determination ...

Li Jie was silent for a moment. “In this chaotic world, who doesn’t have a story? But I’m not interested in telling it to an outsider.” n.-0Vεlβ1n

“If I’m happy to hear it, maybe I’ll let the three of you go.”

Hearing Huo Ting’s words, Li Jie sneered again. “The so-called power holders, are they simply deciding life and death for people like us who live like ants?”

“You can say that.” Huo Ting nodded, and for the first time, he did not deny it.

People in high positions could indeed get whatever they wanted, whether they lived or died, it was all up to the decision.

Otherwise, the power itself would lose its meaning.

And in this way, what kind of person could hold a high position became even more important.

Huo Ting did not intend to explain this to him immediately, and continued to ask, “tell me your story first.”

Li Jie frowned, and his gaze, which was full of sizing up, fell on Huo Ting.

For so many years, no one had ever been interested in their past.

Most of the people who came to look for them only valued their ability, gave them money, and asked them to work their lives, and the silver and goods were settled.

Those who feared them only treated them like demon beasts. They cursed and despised them.

Huo Ting was the only one who wanted to hear their stories for the first time in all these years.

If that was the case... .. Forget it ...

“The three of us are not blood brothers.”

Chapter 757: one in a thousand chance of survival!

Huo Ting’s eyebrows twitched.

Not Biological Brothers?

But whether it was the rumors from the outside world or the information that had been found out, they all said that they were biological brothers... ..

Could there be another secret?

Li Jie did not look at Huo Ting anymore. He lowered his eyes and looked at a certain nothingness, as if he had entrusted his soul into it.

“We are all orphans. To be more precise, we are abducted children. We don’t even know who their parents are. The human trafficker is not an ordinary person. He keeps us in captivity and gives everyone a name, but everyone’s surname is Li.”

His words came and went as if he had sunk into a deep and distant memory. The murderous aura around him slowly dissipated and was replaced by a grief that seemed to be able to pierce through one’s soul.

“three hundred children. The oldest is only eight years old, and the youngest is only four years old. There is only a limited supply of 100 mantous every day. If you can snatch them, you will have something to eat. If you can not snatch them, you will only starve.”

Hearing this, Huo Ting’s heart was not only shocked... ..

He had always thought that the tragic story of the three Li brothers could only be that their parents had died, that they had been bullied since they were young, or that they had been persecuted even more severely.

However, he had never thought that they would have such an experience!

Li Jie paused for a moment, and his tone gradually became more serious.

“In the beginning, I was afraid of this unfamiliar environment, and I didn’t want to compete with others. I couldn’t even get a single steamed bun, and I was starving to death. Ah Kui and AH HAO risked their lives to snatch half of the steamed Bun, but they couldn’t bear to eat a single bite, so they gave it all to me.”

Speaking up to this point, Huo Ting couldn't help but recall that when he was young, he had secretly roasted sweet potatoes with the servant girl. He had also secretly hidden one away, but he couldn't bear to eat a single bite, so he kept all of it for the servant girl.

The world of children was so pure and kind.

He really didn't expect that in the other corner of the world, there was such darkness.

Huo Ting gritted his teeth. He couldn't imagine that while he and the girl were living a carefree childhood, these people were wandering at the edge of hell... ..

"from then on, I swore that I would stand up again and become a strong person!" Li Jie's emotions slowly became agitated.

He clenched his fists tightly, and his eyes almost popped out!

"Finally, I've become the strongest! Dozens of children can't beat me alone. I've snatched all the Mantou, and those who submit to me will have something to eat." Li Jie clenched his teeth Suddenly, he burst into laughter "Do you think this is the end Wrong This is just the beginning The 50 children who were lucky enough to survive were sent to an even bigger hunting ground There were not only children, but also adults Out of 3,000 people, only three could walk out alive in the end The survival rate is 1 in 1,000!"

"..."Huo Ting was shocked. How could such an organization exist?

Why did they keep these children in captivity and let them kill each other?

"I killed all those who tried to hurt Ah Kui and AH HAO WITHOUT MERCY! In that hellish place, there are no rules of survival, only survival!"

"Finally, I brought my brothers to become the final victor! And I saw the mastermind who kept us in captivity."

Huo Ting wanted to ask who the mastermind was, but then he heard Li Jie's cold voice, "I killed him. I smashed his heart with one punch. I was 15 years old that year."

His cold tone was full of contempt. When he talked about the past, his heart did not beat faster or feel uncomfortable at all... ..

Chapter 758: Protect a man, protect a city.

Huo Ting could not help but frown.

Li Jie was indeed very strong. Yan Jun's hand was fractured by his punch!

If Yan Jun had not used his hands to block it, perhaps... ..

"later, I escaped with my brothers. We had no parents, relatives, and no place to stay. We could only temporarily live in the abandoned unfinished building.

"I took jobs outside to provide for my brothers to go to school. "But the shadow of our childhood made us unable to integrate into society.

"As time passed, we got used to killing people and made a living from it.

"No matter who the other party is, as long as the price is high enough, we will work for him! "

Li Jie's memories ended here.

Huo Ting fell into a deep silence.

After a long time, Li Jie finally turned around to look at him. There was a disdainful smile at the end of his eyes as he mercilessly mocked Huo Ting, "a person as high and mighty as you naturally don't know how much suffering we have suffered! This is our story. How about it? Do you want to kill us? "

Indeed, Li Jie's experience was really inhuman.

According to his sins, dying ten thousand times wouldn't be enough!

But... ..

Huo Ting narrowed his eyes and slowly said, "do you want to wash away your sins and become a new person? "

His voice was very heavy and powerful. It didn't seem like he was joking at all!

And it was this seriousness that made Li Jie's heart tremble!

He looked at Huo Ting as if he had seen a ghost. "What do you mean? People like us, whose hands are stained with blood... "

"You didn't have a choice about what kind of life it was in the past. But now, you have a choice. " Huo Ting finally stood up He looked at him sideways. "You still have a choice whether you want to die a humiliating death in prison or choose to serve the country to offset your sins. "

"..."Li Jie froze on the spot, not knowing how to react for a moment.

The moment he was caught, he had already made up his mind to die!

But now, there was a chance to live in front of him, and he could even wash away his sins... ..

Huo Ting waited for a moment, but he didn't get an answer, so he walked away.

After Huo Ting left, Li Jie sat in his original position for a long time. He didn't change his position for several hours.

Huo Ting, who came out of the secret prison, had a gloomy face.

After listening to the story of the three Li brothers, his heart was always depressed, and he couldn't breathe.

His tightly clenched hands finally couldn't help but fall on the desk with a Bang!

The veins on his forehead popped out!

There was actually such a terrifying organization in this world!

It was fine if he didn't know about it in the past, but now that he knew about it, a person in a high position like him definitely had to do something!

In the midst of his frustration, the phone on the desk suddenly rang.

Huo Ting took it over and took a look. Seeing that it was a call from the girl, he instantly let go of his tightly furrowed brows. He let out a faint sigh and then picked up the call.

"Girl, What's wrong?"

The familiar voice of the girl soon reached his ears. It was sweet and clear. "nothing, I just wanted to ask how are your injuries?"

Hearing this, Huo Ting's gloomy heart suddenly brightened.

He smiled slightly and said in a light tone, "don't worry, I'm much better now."

"That's good. Take care not to work too hard!" The girl reminded him a few more times before hanging up.

Putting down the phone, Huo Ting walked to the window and looked at a city in the distance. He made a vow in his heart.

Protect a person.

Protect a city.

Chapter 759: the world's best love rival

The Yan family.

After Xia Jinqi put down her phone, she sighed again, still a little worried.

Previously, in order to save them, Huo Ting was injured, and later, he took Yan Qing and the three Li brothers with him. She didn't know if he was interrogating them day and night, so he didn't even care about their injuries.

Yan Jun walked over from behind and bent down to hug her. Seeing her face full of worry, he asked softly, "what's wrong?"

Xia Jinqi turned around, careful not to touch his hand, and then answered, "I'm a little worried about Er Huo."

She had treated huo ting as her own brother since she was young. Even after so many years of separation, she still treated him as before.

Therefore, in front of Yan Jun, there was nothing to hide. She was very magnanimous.

And this time, when Yan Jun heard that she cared about another man, it was rare that he was not jealous.

He carefully hugged her and said in a low voice, "he'll be fine."

Speaking of which, Yan Jun was well aware of Huo Ting's feelings towards Xia Jinqi.

He knew the way Huo Ting looked at Xia Jinqi, and he also knew the depression in his heart.

But... ..

Huo Ting was probably the best love rival in the world.

Not only did he help Yan Jun take away another love rival, but he also protected the Yan family and took away the three Li brothers.

He also swept away all of Yan Jun, Xia Jinqi, and Xia Jinqi's current predicament.

Seeing Xia Jinqi's unhappy look, Yan Jun finally let go. "If you're really worried, go and see him."

"He's in the military district. Ordinary people won't be able to see him at all." Xia Jinqi was also helpless. In the past, when Huo Ting was not a chief, it was still fine. All he did was wander around Rao city all day. If he wanted to find him, he could just go to the huos family and block him.

However, now, he spent most of his time outside. From time to time, he would even have a meeting. How could ordinary people see him?

Yan Jun naturally knew this, so there was a good opportunity right now.

"There's a post from the Xia family. Tomorrow is your father's birthday." Yan Jun opened his mouth faintly. His speed wasn't fast, but the moment he finished speaking, he could clearly feel the woman in his arms stiffen.

He could vaguely feel that she still had a knot in her heart towards Xia Jitian.

She had never said this knot in her heart, but tomorrow was also a good opportunity. It would be good if she could resolve it in one go.

The Moment Xia Jinqi heard the news, her black brows knitted tightly together.

Of course, she knew what day tomorrow was. In the past, every year, she had devoted herself to preparing birthday gifts for her father. Although her father did not have many people who would take a fancy to her, she was still very happy.

Only this year.

She had not prepared anything. Moreover, when the day was approaching, she was still indifferent.

She was not surprised that the Xia family would send the thread to Yan Jun, because she had no intention of going.

But now, Yan Jun told her that Huo Ting would also attend?

“Will Er Huo really go?” She was a little tempted.

“Of course.” Yan Jun nodded, his eyes deep. “Your father is the next president. Although the election hasn’t started yet, all the military and government officials are thinking about how to bribe him.”

The situation in Rao city was going to be completely stabilized soon.

The Xia family was in charge of the administration.

The Huo family was in charge of the military.

The Yan family was in charge of the money.

The three of them supported each other and formed a stable alliance.

Xia Jinqi was more or less aware of the cooperation between the three families. She also knew that the relationship between the Xia family and the Yan family needed to be maintained by herself. This was also the main purpose of her marriage to Yan Jun..

However, due to her individualism, she was very unwilling to return to the Xia family and was also unwilling to face Xia Jitian again.

Chapter 760: Help me take a bath

However, if she didn’t go, the outside world would probably spread rumors that the Yan and Xia families were on bad terms.

She didn’t want to affect the entire situation because of her selfishness.

After hesitating for a while, Xia Jinqi agreed. “Alright, I’ll go.”

Yan Jun could see that she was in a difficult position, but he didn’t stop her.

There were some things that could never be resolved if one didn’t face them.

If he kept them in his heart for a long time, even a small matter could turn into a deep hatred.

“that’s a good girl.” He instinctively wanted to reach out his hand to touch her cute nose tip, but when he reached out his hand, it froze in midair.

The plaster hadn’t been removed yet, and his two hands were wrapped into dumplings. It was really inconvenient!

Xia Jinqi took the opportunity to sense his intentions. When she saw his stiff face because of the two claws, she burst out laughing.

Amazing!

The cold-faced King of Hell, who used to come out with a murderous aura, now held up two dumplings with a Sullen look. It was simply too cute!

“Hahahaha!” Xia Jinqi almost laughed until she was out of breath!

Yan Jun's face turned black from her laughter. He was going to remove the plaster when he made a move!

He felt that this thing did not fit his cold and aloof temperament at all. It had to be removed!

Moreover, the children had been brought to sleep by Ji Xinyu for the past few nights. This was a great opportunity, but he could only keep the beauty in his arms and could not do anything!

Seeing that he was serious, Xia Jinqi quickly stopped laughing and pressed down on his small hands that were ready to move. "Don't remove it. The doctor said that the injured muscles and bones will take 100 days to heal. You have to take good care of yourself."

"100 days?" Yan Jun raised his eyebrows impatiently. He felt that he could not stand another day!
"Open it!"

Seeing that his eldest young master's temper was rising, Xia Jinqi could only patiently coax him. "Alright, I won't laugh at you anymore. You're still very handsome like this!"

"..."when Yan Jun heard her coaxing him like she was coaxing a child, the corner of his eyes twitched violently again!

There was no other way. Recently, Xia Jinqi had been spending a lot of time with the children. She was used to coaxing them, and then when she was with Yan Jun... .. They were treated equally !!

When Xia Jinqi saw that this method was not working, she changed her method. "As long as you don't open it, I'll agree to anything you say!"

In short, she had to convince him to give up on this idea first!

Little did she know that by saying this, she was basically digging a huge hole for herself!

Yan Jun raised his eyebrows and looked at her with great interest. A faint smile hung on the corner of his lips, and he was inexplicably black-bellied.

"You said that?"

"Uh..." Xia Jinqi had yet to recover from her shock. "I said that..."

Seeing this, Yan Jun's deep eyes are even darker, "help me take a bath."

"Ha?" Xia Jinqi simply big drop eyeglasses, just that one second, she has fantasized countless kinds of he will make the request.

I mean, you can't just look at the kid and not look at him, and you can't sneak back into Lego and stuff, and then, you know, he just... ..

"COUGH COUGH COUGH!" Heavy cough a few times, Xia Jinqi originally wanted to suppress her own brain out of the blue came out of the fantasy, but the face is more and more red up, how can not suppress.

Helping him take a bath... .. This, this, this, how could it not cause one's imagination to run wild !!

Yan Jun looked at her little face, which was so red that it was about to drip blood, and his smile deepened. "Are you shy?"

"I... I'M NOT!" Xia Jinqi turned her face away, trying to find an excuse to open her mouth. "I... I'm clumsy, I'd better... " find a man to serve you.

Before she could finish her sentence, the big shot in front of her opened his mouth with incomparable arrogance. "I've already helped you take a bath a few times. "

Xia Jinqi was speechless
