

Trick Me 821

Chapter 821: was a path of light and righteousness that he had never seen before!

Wang Mang knew that Yan Jun had suffered a blow from Li Jie and his bones had been broken. Now, he saw Yan Jun walking towards Li Jie with narrowed eyes. He thought to himself that this was not good.

Was He going to settle old scores?

He quickly got up and followed Yan Jun..

If the two of them fought, he could at least help Yan Jun..

On the other side, when Li Jie saw Yan Jun getting up and walking towards him, he immediately furrowed his brows and his gaze became fierce. His empty hands had even touched the gun at the side...

He also thought that Yan Jun was here to settle the score. After all, the last time he worked for Yan Qing, he had caused the Yan family to be in a mess.

With the familiarity, Yan Jun only glanced at his injuries indifferently and said, "just now, thank you very much. "

Just now when Yan Jun was surrounded, it was Li Jie who rushed over and knocked down a group of people. Only then could Yan Jun successfully escape.

As for the previous feud, Yan Jun did not take it to heart.

But he remembered the favor of saving his life just now.

He did not stop. After he finished speaking, he walked to the side.

The rest of the dumbfounded Li Jie.

His body stiffened, and his face did not look too good. However, his eyes never left Yan Jun's back.

Wang Mang saw that this curious young man was quite pitiful, so he explained to him in an extremely good mood, "just get used to it. Our second young master Yan is not a narrow-minded person. He remembers favors and does not hold grudges. "

After saying that, Wang Mang felt that this sentence seemed a bit wrong.

Yan Jun also seemed to hold grudges. For example, the people who went against him in the business world in the past, either the company went bankrupt, or their annual income was negative.

It should be said, "the past is like a puff of smoke, and all grudges are forgotten with a smile! Since you helped us once, we will be friends in the future. It can be said that we won't get to know each other until we fight! "

Hearing that, Li Jie turned back to look at Wang Mang with a deep look in his eyes.

The people he had met in the past were either blinded by greed or cowardly rats. In short, there were all kinds of ugly faces.

However, it was the first time that he had met people like Huo Ting and Yan Jun..

When they were together, they could sacrifice themselves for their brothers, but they were not ruled by fear. They were protecting each other from the bottom of their hearts.

Such a person... .. was worthy of respect ! !

When Li Jie tried to follow Yan Jun's back with his eyes again, he found that he had already disappeared into the darkness.

The Bright Moon hanging high in the sky was the bright and righteous path that Li Jie had never seen before!

Perhaps, the path that he had chosen was not wrong.

It just so happened that he also wanted to see how far this group of people could go.

Their hearts, whether they could maintain the united will that they had today!

Wang Mang saw that Li Jie seemed to be in deep thought and ignored him. He immediately lost interest and walked away.

After a while, Li Kui and Li Hao ran over.

The two of them checked their elder brother's body from left to right. Seeing that he was fine and staring at a certain place in a daze, they asked curiously, "elder brother, what are you looking at?"

Li Jie didn't answer, as if he was deeply immersed in his own world, unable to extricate himself.

Li Kui and Li Hao looked at each other, feeling a little strange. Li Hao reached out his hand and waved it in front of Li Jie, calling him again, "elder brother? !"

Li Jie only came back to his senses when he called out. Seeing that his two younger brothers had come, the first thing he looked at was the injuries on their bodies.

"Are you all right? "

"I'm fine! "

"I'm fine! "

The two younger brothers answered in unison.

Big Brother had always protected them very well, and he did not want them to suffer even the slightest injury.

Seeing this, Li Jie said seriously, "in the past, when I accepted the employer's contract, I did everything. Are you guys tired of it? "

Chapter 822: the three of US brothers will never be separated!

Li Kui and Li Hao looked at each other and fell into silence.

To be honest, they had long been tired of that kind of monotonous life.

Seeing them like this, Li Jie also guessed it.

“In that case, do you want to change your way of life?”

When Li Jie said this, Li Hao was a little tempted, but he didn't say anything impulsively. Instead, he first looked at his second brother.

Li Kui received his brother's gaze and asked Li Jie, “big brother, for so many years, we have been living in the darkness. If we change our way of life, how can we survive?”

The three brothers knew very well in their hearts that they were actually low-level beings living in the darkest corners of society, like ants.

Although it was rumored that they killed as many people as they could and would do anything for money, in reality, the three brothers could not integrate into the lives of ordinary people because they had experienced the inhuman treatment when they were young.

They were autistic and were not good at talking. They were very guarded against people. No matter where they went to live, they would be ostracized by ordinary people.

Therefore, they could only choose to live alone, hiding in the darkest and dirtiest places to survive.

Li Jie frowned slightly when he heard that. It was not that he had not struggled with this problem in his heart... ..

However, the appearance of Huo Ting and Yan Jun suddenly gave him confidence.

“Follow Huo Ting. Go and see the kind of life he promised us.”

“brother, do you really believe him?” Li Hao was still a little doubtful. After all, Huo Ting was a member of the police, and the three brothers had committed all kinds of crimes... ..

“I want to believe him for once.” Li Jie thought for a long time before saying, “I'm afraid that such a good opportunity will never come again in this lifetime. If what Huo Ting said is true, I hope that the two of you can change your appearance in the future and live a fair and upright life.”

Li Jie was also thinking for his two brothers. If they lived in that kind of darkness for their entire lives, then their lives would be like this. There would be no happiness and hope, and they would forever fall into the abyss of darkness.

And now, Huo Ting had given them a chance to be redeemed.

As long as they seized this opportunity, they might be able to completely change the rest of their lives!

Li Kui and Li Hao heard this and looked at each other. They were both moved.

“Big Brother, we will listen to you! We will believe whoever you believe! Anyway, the three of US brothers will never be separated!”

Li Jie heard this and looked at his two brothers emotionally. He pulled them to the front, one on the left and one on the right.

The three brothers put their heads together and smiled. “Okay! The three of US brothers will never be separated!”

“...”

Tonight’s gunfight was very enjoyable.

Yan Jun went to take a look at pheasant. He was being pulled out from the jaw of a corpse by his underlings. His face was covered in blood and his hands were bleeding.

However, he did not care at all. Instead, when he saw Yan Jun, his eyes were full of excitement. “Benefactor! You saved me again! Pheasant will never forget your great kindness in this lifetime!”

Yan Jun’s attention was on his arm, where blood was flowing profusely. “Are you okay?”

“I’m fine!” Pheasant smiled and used his other hand to cover the wound. Although his face was a little pale, he still smiled and looked at Yan Jun like a little fan.

Seventh Master Chang’s body was also covered in blood, but he did not seem to be seriously injured. There was only a little scratch on his skin, so he did not bleed much.

Hearing Pheasant Call Yan Jun a benefactor, he also looked at Yan Jun curiously.

Chapter 823: makes you proud!

Anyway, the enemy had been dealt with, and Legō’s people knew about Yan Jun, so Yan Jun didn’t hide it anymore.

Master Chang Qi looked puzzled and asked, “where’s my young master?”

With such a careless tone, before Yan Jun could say anything, pheasant glared at Master Chang Qi fiercely. “Chang Qi Gou, show some respect! This is my pheasant’s benefactor!”

“That’s your benefactor, not my benefactor, so why should I be polite Moreover, didn’t you say before that my young Master Saved Your benefactor “If that’s the case, my young master is your benefactor’s benefactor, and you still dare to make such a big fuss about me?” Master Chang Qi’s logic was very smooth For a moment, the pheasant was speechless... ..

It seemed that this was really the case?

Yan Jun did not hide anything from them and directly lifted his lips. “She’s very safe now.”

There were people in the hospital who would protect her.

Moreover, after tonight's battle, the people hiding behind the scenes who wanted to harm huo ting could more or less stop for a period of time.

Moreover, looking at the time, it was time for him to go back.

Glancing at the scene that was filled with corpses and injured people, a scene that was borrowed by wolves, Yan Jun furrowed his brows and asked, "are there any survivors?"

Pheasant and Chang Qiye looked at each other but did not say a word.

In that intense scene just now, everyone's eyes were bloodshot from killing. If they had shown mercy, they would have died hundreds of times.

Therefore... He did not leave any survivors in his hands ...

Yan Jun only glanced at them indifferently and almost understood.

At this moment, someone leaned over to Wang Mang's side and said a few words. Wang Mang's expression suddenly changed as he walked to Yan Jun's side and said, "Huo Ting's adjutant caught a survivor."

Hearing this, Yan Jun's eyes lit up and he immediately said, "let's go take a look."

Pheasant did not follow him. His underling was treating his wound.

Master Chang Qi did not join in the fun. He just wanted to win a beautiful victory tonight. As for the complicated investigations and forensics, he had no interest in them at all. He might as well bicker with this pheasant head here!

"Pheasant is a pheasant. Its small body is so weak. Look at me, I'm fine!" Master Chang Qi originally wanted to mock this pheasant head. As he spoke, he raised his hands and made a standard movement to show off his muscles.

Who knew that when he raised his hands, he could only make a "Kacha!" Sound, and Chang Qiye's face turned green. His left hand hurriedly covered his right shoulder, and his teeth clenched so hard that they made a squeaking sound!

The pheasant was also prepared to be ridiculed. When it came to actual combat and ability, he was indeed not as good as Chang Qiye.

But who knew that Chang Qiye's own awesomeness did not finish showing off and was stuck in the middle. It was simply fatal!

"HAHAHAHAHA! I'LL LET YOU BE SMUG! DISLOCATED IT! AHAHAHA!" The pheasant did not hide its unbridled laughter, and felt that its eight-pack abs were about to laugh out loud!

Chang Qiye, who was already very embarrassed, felt even more embarrassed by pheasant's laughter. His face kept changing. One moment green, another white, and then purple. He could Summon Rainbow Now!

"..."

When Yan Jun saw the only survivor, he saw that his head was covered with a black cloth bag. His hands were tied behind his back and handcuffed. He fell to the ground, not daring to move at all.

At the same time that the two men in uniform pointed their guns at him, Huo Ting's adjutant stepped on the man's shoulder and neck. With just a little bit of force, the man's neck bone could be crushed.

Chapter 824: brought him home

When the adjutant saw that it was Yan Jun who had gone over, his expression immediately softened and he thanked him, "young master Yan, it's all thanks to you personally coming to support us this time. Otherwise, I'm afraid that none of us would have been able to escape."

At that time, seventh master Chang had also brought quite a number of people. If Yan Jun had not come, they might have been able to break out of the encirclement, but the casualties would have been more severe.

However, when Yan Jun came, not only did he increase their chances of winning, he also won so beautifully, reducing the casualties to the minimum!

Yan Jun nodded slightly to indicate that he did not stay on this topic for too long. Instead, he shifted his gaze to the captive on the ground, "how do you plan to deal with him?"

The adjutant wanted to say that he would bring this person back to be tortured, but since Yan Jun had asked, he knew the rules and asked, "young Master Yan, how do you think we should deal with him?"

Staring at the person on the ground for a moment, Yan Jun said, "leave it to huo ting to decide."

These people were here to kill Huo Ting, so huoting should be the one to interrogate them.

The adjutant was a little surprised, but he did not ask further. Instead, he said, "young Master Yan, how is the chief now?"

Huo Ting was the first to be sent away, so the adjutant knew.

Now that the situation had stabilized, he would definitely ask about the chief's condition first.

"He is in the hospital," Yan Jun answered simply. When he looked back, the originally dark night had now become somewhat bright and clear.

It was almost dawn.

It was time for him to go to the hospital to have a look.

Thinking of this, Yan Jun turned around and left in a carefree manner, not staying any longer.

Wang Mang also followed quickly.

The remaining mess would be cleaned up by someone else, so Yan Jun did not have to worry.

He first went to a hotel near the hospital, took a shower, changed into clean clothes, and treated his wound before he went to the hospital.

Huo Ting's surgery went very smoothly. The shock from before was because he had lost too much blood. Fortunately, he was sent over in time. In addition to his strong desire to survive, he finally came back from the jaws of death.

After leaving the operating room, Huo Ting woke up not long after.

Probably because he had lost a lot of blood, his face was not as pale as before. He looked much better.

Xia Jinqi had been guarding in front of his hospital bed. When she saw that he had woken up, she almost cried with joy. "Erhuo, YOU'RE AWAKE! That's great!"

Huo Ting opened his eyes and saw the girl's crying face. He immediately felt his heart ache. "Girl..."

When he opened his mouth to call her, he realized that his throat was dry and his voice was very hoarse.

Xia Jinqi saw that he was not feeling well and hurriedly brought him warm water. "drink it slowly. The doctor said that you were lucky that you did not suffer fatal injuries. You just lost too much blood. You were shot twice in the back, and one shot was only an inch away from your lungs!"

When she said this, Xia Jinqi still felt a lingering fear.

If it hadn't been for that inch of difference... .. Huo Ting would probably have died from massive bleeding in his lungs and suffocation ...

Huo Ting only took a small sip to moisten his throat before he slowly recalled what she said.

Not only was he shot twice, he was also seriously injured when the convoy exploded.

He thought that he would definitely die this time, but who knew that he would actually wake up?

Moreover, the first thing he saw when he woke up was the girl that he had been longing for.

"You came to save me?" He didn't tell her about himself, but instead asked about her.

Huo Ting knew about the girl's relationship with Lego, but he had always thought that she was just a hands-off boss. He did not expect that she would even dare to go to the battlefield. Even in the rain of bullets, she still held onto him and said that she wanted to bring him home... ..

Chapter 825: was only for the two of them. They belonged to each other

To be honest, her previous performance had completely exceeded Huo Ting's expectations.

In his impression, she had always been his little sister who needed his care and protection.

In the blink of an eye, she seemed to have grown up. Not only did she not need his protection, but on the contrary, she could also protect him.

"En!" Xia Jinqi nodded. She thought for a moment and said, "Yan Jun has also sent someone."

"thank you." Huo Ting looked at the tears in her eyes, and his heart was extremely soft.

Xia Jinqi broke into a smile. "Why are you being so polite with me? You've been protecting me since I was young. I can finally protect you this time."

Huo Ting's eyes reddened, and his throat choked with sobs. For a moment, he couldn't say a word. He just looked at her quietly, and tears fell silently.

At a life-and-death juncture, he would never have thought that she would save him at all costs.

If it weren't for her arrival and encouragement, perhaps he would have fainted long ago, and perhaps this day wouldn't have come to this... ..

Xia Jinqi saw that he was crying for no reason and thought that he was moved, so she teased him with a smile. "You're still crying? I'm the one WHO SHOULD BE CRYING! When I saw that you were covered in blood, I was almost scared to death by you!"

"..."Huo Ting gritted his teeth. He didn't want to cry either, but his tears were a little uncontrollable.

"Don't cry. We're still alive, we should laugh." Xia Jinqi wiped away his tears and said this very naturally.

After she finished speaking, her heart paused again.

Only then did she remember that this sentence was taught to her by Yan Jun..

Huo Ting held his hands and slowly sat up. He took two deep breaths to ease his emotions.

"I thought I was going to die too." He smiled helplessly. He had already lost face in front of the girl, so there was nothing to be embarrassed about. "It's just that before I die, I can see you one last time. I..."

Before Huo Ting could finish speaking, Xia Jinqi had already leaned over and hugged him tightly.

"stop talking! You can't die, Erhuo, you can't die..."

She gritted her teeth and tears flowed down her closed eyes.

In fact, the moment she saw Huo Ting's tears, she wanted to cry too.

She just held it in and wanted to cheer him up. Who knew that he would suddenly say something so sad. That was when her emotions completely collapsed. She also had all the worries and fears from last night. She finally couldn't take it anymore... ..

At this moment, Yan Jun, who had already changed his clothes at the hotel nearby, just happened to arrive at the inside and outside of the ward.

The door to the ward wasn't closed. Yan Jun's tall body just stood there stiffly.

His dark pupils reflected the two people hugging each other on the bed.

He did not say anything. Instead, he took a step back and leaned against the wall outside the ward.

His slanted bangs covered his lowered eyes.

He looked calm on the surface, and there was not much expression on his face.

It was just that his suddenly tense jaw and his tightly clenched fists had betrayed his heart at this moment.

The two people in the ward had not noticed Yan Jun's arrival.

Huo Ting could hear the heavy sobbing tone in the girl's voice. His heart was filled with joy and pain.

He was happy to see her cry for him, and sad for him.

He was sad to see her worry so much for no reason, even though he only wanted to protect her smile.

He gritted his teeth and suddenly raised his hand, wanting to hug her and hold her tightly... ..

This was a scene that only appeared in his dreams. She threw herself into his arms without hesitation...

What a great opportunity. Yan Jun was not here either. There were only the two of them, and they belonged to each other.

Chapter 826: cuddling with other men, he was not afraid that Yan Jun would be jealous!

But... ..

How could he do that.

He knew that the person she loved was Yan Jun, and he knew that she only had feelings for him as a brother and sister... ..

He had long made up his mind that he would never tell her his true feelings, right?

The feelings in his heart were so sincere and beautiful, how could he let his selfishness and selfish desires destroy it?

After a deep breath, his hand that was in the air tightened slightly and then loosened again.

Instead of hugging her, he patted her shoulder and scolded her like an older brother. "You're already a mother, yet you're still so unruly. Let go of me! Hugging another man, aren't you afraid that Yan Jun will get jealous?"

Xia Jinqi didn't listen to him at all. She hugged him again and said with a smile, "you're not another man. You're my family!"

Hearing that, Huo Ting's body froze. Her words of 'family' were like an Arrow smeared with honey, piercing his heart.

It was painful and sweet at the same time.

Coming back to his senses, Huo Ting pushed her again. "What family? What nonsense! We're not even blood-related!"

Xia Jinqi finally let go of him and said with a smile, "we weren't before, but we are now."

“What do you mean?” Huo Ting frowned, not understanding her logic.

What do you mean you weren't before, but you are now?

“because my blood is flowing in your body now.” Xia Jinqi was a little proud. She could finally help him a little.

Huo Ting was still in a daze and didn't come back to his senses for a moment.

Seeing this, Xia Jinqi kindly explained to him “The doctor said that you lost too much blood and needed to be transfused immediately, but there wasn't much left in the hospital, so I volunteered to go. Fortunately, our blood types are the same, or else it would be a little troublesome.”

Huo Ting didn't have a fatal injury, but he didn't have a source of blood. If he was a step late, something would happen.

Hearing this, Huo Ting suddenly understood. When he looked at Xia Jinqi again, he realized that she really didn't look good.

“How much blood did you take?” He asked her in a hoarse voice.

“about 400 cc...” Xia Jinqi was very carefree. “When you're better, you have to treat me to a big meal to make up for it, understand?”

As she said this, she got up and was about to get some water.

Perhaps she got up too quickly, or perhaps she didn't have a good rest last night. In addition, she took so much blood and didn't eat much. Her blood sugar was low, and her vision suddenly darkened. Her entire body swayed and she almost fell.

This gave Huo Ting a fright. “BE CAREFUL!”

Yan Jun, who had been frozen outside the door, suddenly heard Huo Ting's voice. He realized that something might have happened to Xia Jinqi, and the little bit of jealousy in his heart instantly disappeared.

He hurriedly rushed in and held Xia Jinqi, who was squatting next to the hospital bed. “Ah Jin!”

Xia Jinqi only felt a little dizzy for a moment, but she quickly recovered.

When she opened her eyes, she saw Yan Jun's shocked face. She immediately ignored everything else and shouted in surprise, “Yan Jun? Why are you here?”

Huo Ting, who was lying on the hospital bed next to him, noticed that Xia Jinqi's eyes lit up when she saw Yan Jun. he felt a little sad in his heart.

However, that was only a fleeting emotion. Soon, he shifted his gaze to Yan Jun..

He glanced up and down and found a bruise on Yan Jun's forehead, hidden under his slanted bangs.

Yan Jun did not look at Huo Ting at all. All his attention was on the pale-faced Xia Jinqi in front of him.

Chapter 827: I'll accompany you

“Are you alright?” He asked in a deep voice. His long brows were knitted tightly together, and his dark eyes, which were as deep as ice jade, stared at her without leaving her side for a moment.

Xia Jinqi shook her head slightly, and the corners of her eyes and brows were covered with a smile. “I’m fine. Don’t worry.”

She followed his strength and stood up. Her soft gaze seemed to be glued to his face, and she couldn’t move her gaze away.

Huo Ting, who was beside her, had already retracted his gaze and stopped looking at them. “The girl hasn’t eaten breakfast yet, right? Yan Jun, take her to eat first. The doctor will be here to make ward rounds in a while.”

He was already satisfied that the girl had been able to accompany him for such a long time.

As for other things... .. There was no need to think too much about it ...

The current situation was very good.

When Yan Jun heard this, he turned around and gave Huo Ting a deep look. He saw that Huo Ting had already closed his eyes and looked like he was exhausted.

Hence, he held Xia Jinqi’s hand. “Let’s go eat first.”

“Okay.” Xia Jinqi hurriedly nodded her head and looked at Huo Ting who was napping. “Er Huo, what do you want to eat? We’ll bring it back for you later.”

“Just some porridge.” Huo Ting turned his body sideways indifferently and did not dare to lie down. His wound was hurting badly.

In fact, he could not tell whether it was his wound or his heart that was hurting.

“Okay, then you have a good rest.” Xia Jinqi did not notice anything unusual and turned around to follow Yan Jun out.

Before going out, she did not forget to trouble the nurse to take care of Huo Ting.

The business of the porridge shop next to the hospital was so good that it was about to explode. Not only was it full of customers, but there was also a long line at the paying window.

Xia Jinqi took a look and very consciously turned to look at Yan Jun. “why don’t you go back first? I’ll buy it and bring it back.”

She did not dare to expect this King of Hell to line up here with her... ..

Who knew that Yan Jun would only turn his head and give her an indifferent glance before opening his mouth. “I’ll accompany you.”

His voice was clear and cold. It was really very pleasant to hear, and it instantly captured Xia Jinqi's heart.

She looked at him with tears in her eyes as she shed tears of gratitude.

Those who did not know might think that she was exaggerating. There was nothing wrong with her husband lining up with her, but only she herself knew that the man beside her... ..

It was no exaggeration to say that he was an immortal in the sky. He was spotless, high and mighty, and had everything he wanted... .. Uh, there seemed to be some strange adjective mixed in ...

In short, this was a man who could create hundreds of millions of dollars in financing in a minute.

Many people would kill for a minute of his time, but now, he was willing to stand in line with her in front of this unremarkable little porridge shop.

If this was in the past, it would be something that Xia Jinqi did not even dare to think about.

Why did it feel like a god had fallen into the mortal world?

However, even though he was standing in the long line, the extraordinary noble aura on his body still couldn't be hidden.

Soon, the surrounding people were attracted by Yan Jun's heroic bearing.

Not long after, everyone was secretly looking at him... ..

Xia Jinqi even heard someone whispering beside her

"Oh my God! That man is really handsome! Am I seeing things? "

"You're not seeing things... not only is he handsome, but he also has a great temperament. I suddenly thought of a word. He has an imposing bearing! "

"right, right, right, there's a super beautiful girl standing next to him! Are they a couple? "

"Ah... so they're already taken... but they look so good together! "

"Wait, why do I feel that they look a little familiar... "

Chapter 828: my eyes will always follow you

Hearing this, Xia Jinqi and the others also happened to line up at the window. Afraid that they would be recognized, she quickly ordered the food, paid for it, and ran away with Yan Jun..

Fortunately, the dumplings and porridge were ready-made. Otherwise, they would definitely be treated like giant pandas and continue to be watched!

TSK TSK Just thinking about it made people's Scalps go numb!

The two of them jogged all the way and found a wooden chair to sit on in the green belt under the inpatient department.

“Why are you running?” Yan Jun saw a row of fine beads of sweat on her forehead and a little breathless. He lightly reprimanded her and took out a tissue to wipe her sweat.

Xia Jinqi was like a lazy kitten, leaning over to enjoy his gentle service.

“Who told you to be so handsome? Everywhere you go, you’re the center of attention.” His tone was a little proud, but also a little sour.

“Is there?” He actually asked back in a serious manner.

“No?!” Xia Jinqi looked at him speechlessly. “just now, everyone in the small congee shop was looking at you! Even that little girl who was only a little more than a year old and held in her mother’s arms was staring at you!”

Did he not notice?

Then what was he thinking about Was He thinking so absentmindedly?

At that time, Yan Jun had already wiped her sweat away. The moment he took back the tissue, his gentle and loving gaze fell into her eyes. “I was looking at you. I didn’t notice anyone else.”

Wherever you exist, my gaze will always follow you.

You are the only one in my eyes. I have no time to pay attention to the people around me.

Xia Jinqi was easily attracted by his gaze that was like a deep pool. Her body was as soft as a pool of clear water. As she stared at him, her heartbeat sped up slightly.

He was always like this. A casual action and a word from him could make her sink deeply into him.

They had already been married for more than a year, and they had even given birth to a child. She would still be endlessly moved by him.

Perhaps, in this life, he was her calamity. In this life, she would never be able to escape.

She did not want to escape either.

As long as he was around, it seemed that any difficulty could be overcome. It was as if no pain existed anymore.

As they looked at each other, Yan Jun’s body began to slowly move closer to her.

Just as they were about to kiss, Xia Jinqi’s sharp eyes noticed the bruise on Yan Jun’s forehead.

“Are you injured here?” She immediately messed up the originally romantic atmosphere. Her scallion-like fingers brushed through his hair.

Yan Jun subconsciously hid for a moment, trying to muddle through. “I’m fine.”

However, Xia Jinqi refused to let him go. “What do you mean I’m fine! How did you get injured? Where else is there?”

Xia Jinqi frowned. She hurriedly checked Yan Jun’s body. He looked so anxious that if she found another wound on his body, he would immediately cry.

After last night's battle, Yan Jun naturally still had some wounds on his body. However, they were all superficial wounds. He would recover in a few days.

Now that she had searched him thoroughly, it was only a matter of time before she found him.

Yan Jun didn't want her to worry, so he simply pulled her over and sat her on his lap, trapping her hands.

"Let me hug you for a while." He leaned against her neck gently, and there was a hint of fatigue in his voice.

Xia Jinqi knew that he was trying to change the topic. She struggled a little. "Are you hurt somewhere else? Let me see..."

"Don't move." His voice suddenly became muffled, with a certain depth of forbearance.

Xia Jinqi, "..."

She seemed to sense a change in him somewhere, and it was... ..

AHEM!

Chapter 829: take her for a little while longer

Teng of a little red face, she immediately obediently did not move.

Stalemate for a moment, see he also no other action, Xia Jinqi just slightly relaxed.

She put an arm around the back of his neck and pressed her face to his forehead, enjoying the silence with him.

"What happened last night can not let me know?" For a long time, she asked a soft.

The injury on his forehead was new.

It wasn't there when they separated from the Xia family yesterday, but it was there this morning.

Obviously, it was added last night.

And he refused to let her examine him, which meant that he had other injuries on his body.

It was impossible for him to have so many injuries at home, unless... ..

However, Xia Jinqi knew that he was hiding the video from her and what Yan Jun and Ji Xinyu said last night.

The man who descended from the sky like a God to save her and Huo Ting was definitely him.

After hearing her question, Yan Jun opened his sharp black eyes.

He didn't answer her question. Instead, he said Sullenly, "I'm hungry."

"..."Xia Jinqi was stunned. She was very convinced that he would change the topic so directly.

She reached out and took a box of plain porridge from the side. She opened it and brought it to his side. She smiled fawningly. "Young Master Yan, please have some porridge."

Yan Jun took a sip from the box that she fed him. Before he could swallow it, he saw Xia Jinqi put the box away. She didn't change the place but took a sip from the same place that he had just eaten.

There wasn't the slightest bit of disdain, but complete acceptance and tolerance.

His thin lips curved slightly, and Yan Jun's eyes were filled with tenderness. His heart felt like it was touched by honey, and it was sweet everywhere.

After Xia Jinqi finished drinking, she turned around to feed him. Only then did she realize that he had been looking at her and smiling. She couldn't help but ask, "what's wrong?"

"Nothing." Yan Jun drank the porridge again. For the first time, he felt that this ordinary little white porridge would be so delicious that even the most precious delicacies couldn't compare to it.

The two of them took a SIP, and soon, the bowl of porridge was bottomless.

Tian Tian's stomach was warm, and his heart was sweet. Perhaps this was the so-called ordinary, but there was also happiness in it.

After finishing the porridge, Xia Jinqi wanted to get up and tidy up, but the moment she moved, she was pulled back by Yan Jun..

Xia Jinqi was helpless. She could only smile and say, "we should go back. Er Huo is still waiting for us!"

"Stay a little longer." He did not hesitate at all. After answering in a sullen tone, he leaned against her shoulder and pretended to sleep.

When he saw her hug Huo Ting just now, he was actually jealous.

Now that he was out, of course, he had to occupy her for a little longer so that he could get back what he had done just now... ..

Xia Jinqi naturally didn't know what he was thinking. Of course, she wouldn't have thought that this big shot would really accidentally fall into the mortal world. Occasionally, he would be a little jealous and act up.

However, seeing that he was indeed a little tired, she didn't wake him up.

As she watched, her gaze fell on the wound on his forehead.

It was slightly red and a little swollen.

Her heart ached as she looked at it. She leaned over and gently kissed his wound.

Then, she raised her hand and hugged his head. She mimicked his actions and smiled as she pretended to sleep.

Yan Jun was not sleeping at all. When he felt her kiss and hug, the corners of his lips unconsciously curved up.

There was nothing more reassuring than having her in his arms.

There was a breeze again, blowing the branches and leaves of an old locust tree behind the two of them.

“Swish, Swish, Swish...”

The light purple locust flowers that filled the sky fell with the wind and enveloped the two of them.

Chapter 830: was the Karma that Xia Jinqi planted

When she returned, the porridge was already cold. Xia Jinqi went to buy a new one.

Just as she sent it upstairs, Ling Yue’s phone call came in.

“You guys chat. I have to take this call.” Xia Jinqi placed the porridge in front of Huo Ting before she got up and went out of the ward.

After Xia Jinqi left, Huo Ting turned to look at Yan Jun. “I heard from the adjutant that you came to save me personally last night? The person who held me up last night was you?”

In just a short while, the adjutant had already arrived and told Huo Ting everything that happened last night in detail.

Yan Jun was leaning against the window, looking down at the people coming and going in the emergency department downstairs.

Hearing Huo Ting’s question, he nodded slightly. “It’s me.”

“...” Huo Ting just happened to pick up the bowl of porridge. He paused for a moment, then said, “thank you.”

After saying that, he took a sip of the porridge.

It was warm and very soft.

The two of them were silent for a moment before Yan Jun asked, “do you plan to put the three Li brothers in an important position?”

In the situation last night, the people that Huo Ting brought with him should be his trusted aides, and the three Li brothers were among them.

“MM.” Huo Ting nodded. “The Ji family is coming, you should know that, right? The girl is going to inherit the Ji family, and I don’t feel at ease without a ruthless character protecting her. The three Li brothers, I plan to train them well and send them to the girl’s side.”

Huo Ting naturally had to bring the people he chose for the girl with him first, strictly scrutinizing and training them.

Yan Jun didn’t say anything, but his eyes flickered.

Huo Ting had thought so thoroughly for Xia Jinqi, even choosing the people he would protect. This was a little out of Yan Jun’s expectations.

He thought that there would never be a man in this world who loved Xia Jinqi more than he did. However, Huo Ting's appearance... ..

Huo Ting continued to eat his porridge. He thought about it and raised his eyes to look at Yan Jun. "I heard from Yun Xiang that you saved the Ji family? And gave them an army?"

Huo Ting could not get involved in the Ji family's matters, so he could only be anxious. He did not expect that it would be a piece of cake for Yan Jun..

Speaking of this matter, a hint of a smile appeared in Yan Jun's eyes. He said leisurely, "speaking of which, this is the Karma that Xia Jinqi planted."

"Girl? Why do you say that?" Huo Ting also asked curiously.

"Back then, she went from Legao to the Yan corporation for 900 billion yuan. I used this money to invest in the Middle East. Who knew that the profits would be good? I also bought an army." Yan Jun reduced the complexity to simplicity and said it very simply.

Actually, there was a lot of knowledge behind this.

He still remembered that time when Xia Jinqi just found out about his background and was very dispirited. She was also caught in a rainstorm and fell ill. Naturally, Yan Jun had to accompany her.

Coincidentally, they met with the Yan Corporation's chairman election. Yan Jun forcefully threw away the corporation, even though he originally did not put that corporation in his eyes.

However, Xia Jinqi created a new corporation for him. He knew that this money would be messed up by Yan Qing even if it was placed in the Yan family, so he might as well invest it outside.

In the end, this investment directly established Yan Jun's position in the Middle East. Not only that, but he also extended his hand to Europe. Not only did he make friends with the powerful people in Europe, but he also got in touch with the political upper echelons.

When Xia Jinqi had just given birth and was brought to Berlin, Yan Jun had followed her there and also had contact with the powerful people in Europe.

The army had also been bought at that time, and it was legal.

Huo Ting was very proud when he heard this. "So the person with the most foresight is the girl... I even feel inferior to her."

When Yan Jun heard this, his dark eyes deepened. He suddenly remembered that time when Yan Qing had fought with him over the asia-pacific consortium.
