

The Triplet Warriors And Their Pup Mate Chapter 31 - Tips

~Hunter's Point of View~

I could never have imagined anything so amazing. Any other she-wolf I'd ever been with suddenly faded away. I couldn't even remember them now they were so insignificant. Ellie was more than everything I could have ever wanted. She completed me. Even if I had to share her.

Go next, River said to me.

I didn't waste any time questioning him. I moved down toward Skyler and touched his shoulder just after Ellie came. He came up for air and growled at me and I waved him off. He reluctantly moved to her side, where I had been.

I started kissing up Ellie's legs, wanting to give her a minute to collect herself.

"Are you okay baby girl, do you need water or anything," Skyler asked, cooing in her ear.

"No, just kiss me," she said, out of breath.

Skyler immediately found her lips and she began moaning. I knew she was already soaking wet but I wanted to feel it. I put a finger inside her, making her thrust her hips into my hand. Hmm, she's going to be a little tease, I just know it. I kept my finger inside her and dove in. She was so soft and she tasted so sweet, almost a bit fruity. I remembered seeing her eat fruit at almost every meal and figured that was why.

I quickly found her clit and began to suck it, making her moan. I moaned right back, vibrating her, and she thrust herself into my face. I moaned even harder and for longer.

"Ohhhhhh, ohh Hunter, ohhh yes, I love that," she moaned.

I did it again and she screamed my name. Buck was losing it, getting louder in my head. Mate her Hunter, fucking*g do it! She needs our seed!

I did everything possible to block him out. I just focused on Ellie's responses to me, well to all of us since it was really unclear who was making her moan.

I added another finger and pulled my face away, wanting to watch her.

“Ohh Hunter, ohh yes, yes, ohhhhh,” she screamed.

I felt her tighten around me and her entire body shook. She went limp and the guys backed off for a second, letting her have a break.

Skyler jumped off the bed and grabbed her glass, returning with some more ice water for her. River jumped up and ran off, coming back a few seconds later with a couple ice cubes. I got up and moved to Ellie’s side, stroking her hair and kissing her cheek. Skyler and I helped sit her up and I got behind her, to give her support.

She drank some water and I nodded at River. He began tracing an ice cube up her thigh, making her squeal with delight.

~Skyler’s Point of View~

My little mate must have been so tired, but we just weren’t quite done with her yet. I did wonder if she would be able to keep up with us, satisfy all of us. This was a lot, but sex with three strong warriors who all liked it a bit rough? That would be a tall order.

I mean, River might take it nice and slow sometimes, but when it came down to it we all liked to be in control. We had never shared a she-wolf before and I had no idea how this was going to go. Even though we had never physically been in the same room together for sex, we all bragged to each other, especially when we were younger ... so we more than knew how we all were.

There were plenty of times she-wolves asked to take us all at once, but we could never bring ourselves to do it. That would be just for our mate.

Ellie was thoroughly enjoying being teased with an ice cube while River went down on her and my mind just raced with all the things I wanted to do once we could mate. My wolf wanted to mate with her wolf, while shifted, preferably by that little stream we took her to earlier. He was insatiable and I just needed to shut him up a couple more days hopefully.

I heard Ellie about to cum for the third time and I reached my hand down into my shorts and stroked myself, hearing her moaning in my ear as I kissed her neck. It was all too much, it was all somehow not enough though. I came in no time at all after all this foreplay and she let go right at the same time.

I dreamed that I was inside her, that I was the one making her scream. Soon, very soon baby.

Once she relaxed, Hunter and I both pulled back from her and she rolled onto her side, completely asleep. We looked at each other, both wanting a little more time to hold her, but what could we do? River got up and grabbed the comforter that had been thrown off earlier and covered her up.

Let's take the bunk beds apart and put two in here on either side so we can all sleep with her, River said.

I got up and ran into our room since I needed new shorts anyhow. There was no way I wasn't sleeping next to my little mate.

After a bit of back and forth, River agreed to be the unlucky one that didn't get to sleep next to Ellie. He had to leave early to go speak to Godfrey and see what he could find on Kai anyhow. Hunter and I snuggled up to Ellie with me being face to face with her. I rested her head on my chest and fell asleep surrounded by her hair, listening to her breathing. It was the best night of my life up to that point.

The Triplet Warriors And Their Pup Mate Chapter 32 - Tips

~River's Point of View~

Last night after Godfrey gave me the order to search for Kai, I knew I would need all the help I could get. I couldn't think about it much last night though, since we were all finally getting to be with Ellie intimately on some level.

I understood where Godfrey was coming from but it didn't help make me feel better about lying to her for so long and keeping that secret. I felt like we had a lot to make up for with Ellie.

I was super jealous that the guys got to stay behind with her all day but I was doing this for her. Well, it was my assignment anyhow but now it had turned into something so much more.

To owe a debt to a witch that you can't pay, is pretty bad. I don't even want to know what'll happen.

Kai was an extremely old and powerful fairy, probably far more reaching than Katrina and her family as far as witchcraft went. To marry him would be a huge honor. Now I had to not only find him, but convince him to marry her ... easy right?

There was literally no chatter as far as anyone bragging about having him, no big things happening that would indicate someone using his powers to their advantage. I was sure Kai would not cooperate with anyone looking to use him for evil, but why else would someone take him?

How could someone take him, was the bigger question? I couldn't help shake the idea that maybe he wanted to be missing.

I checked with Godfrey to see if there were any updates from Felix, but he had not checked in yet. I wasn't sure if that was good or bad.

Chance stepped in to help me with some tracking, he was training a couple of new recruits anyhow. I got them some of Kai's clothing and they teleported to various places, random spots where he was known to frequent and tried to sniff him out.

I had already long interviewed anyone who had seen or spoken to Kai the week before he went missing, but I had no real leads there. None of his family knew anything and I didn't get the impression they were holding back, they all seemed genuinely concerned.

If for some reason he did just want to be alone for a while, surely he would have told someone so his family didn't worry.

RING RING RING RING RING RING.

"Hello," I said.

"Hey it's Trevor, one of Chance's recruits and I can't mind-link yet so he told me to call you with any news," the voice said.

"Yeah, yeah what do you have," I said, anxiously.

"Well it could be nothing but I weirdly picked up the scent, very faint, in the Whisper Crescent pack. I followed it to an old outlying building. Seems like he may have been there awhile ago but he was definitely here. He must have teleported or something though, it's only kind of in one spot and literally nowhere else around," he said.

“I’ll be right there, stay where you are,” I said.

I ran to find Angel and got teleported to Trevor. I was suddenly standing in front of a broken down shed that looked as though it had caved in, I smelled around it ... lilacs very faintly. My heart skipped a beat. This was where Hunter found Ellie! Why in the hell would Kai have been here? And when was he here? The scents were about as equally dull, making me sweat out of nowhere.

I went to work showing everyone at the pack a picture of him, sharing the scent of his clothes with literally anyone I could find. No one knew him.

I thanked Trevor for his work and sent him on to the next location. I would surely write him a note of recommendation for this. I had barely picked the scent up and I considered myself very skilled, it was amazing he found it. I picked up Ellie’s scent just because of how familiar I was with it. I needed to see if Ellie recognized him.

~Ellie’s Point of View~

I felt so hot, not like on fire but just like I was stuck under ten blankets! I shifted and opened my eyes to see that I was a mere inch from Hunter’s face. He was sound asleep and looked so peaceful. How on earth did I get so lucky to have this man as my mate?

I immediately felt another source of the warmth behind me and realized it was Skyler. I wondered if this would be how I would wake up everyday now?

I had to use the bathroom in the worst way and I didn’t want to wake them up. My mind usually woke up about 6am everyday since I had to have breakfast ready for Tyson when he got out of his drills.

Both Hunter and Skyler had their arms around me and every time I tried to wiggle away they would just grab me back! I loved it though, it made me feel so safe and secure. My mind quickly went back to the events of last night. I was sure they were heartbroken they couldn’t mate me, but heck I was too!

But what they did do ... was beyond my wildest dreams. Beyond anything I could have ever imagined! I was the truly luckiest girl in the world.

“Hunter,” I said, stroking his face. “Hunter,” I said again after not getting any response.

Suddenly he grabbed me by my waist and pulled me into him, finding my lips and kissing me.

“Hmm,” I moaned as he began to playfully wrestle my tongue.

I felt Skyler stir behind me, and I felt his hard manhood hitting my butt. He began kissing my shoulder and I realized I was totally naked, and they didn't have shirts on which is probably why I felt their heat so strongly.

I pushed Hunter back.

“Guys I seriously have to pee. I didn't want to wake you up but I'm going to burst,” I said, with a giggle.

Hunter wrapped his arms around me and pulled me to the side of the bed, which seemed a whole lot bigger suddenly, but I'd have to inspect that when I got back.

I finished my business and went to look in the mirror at how crazy my hair probably looked.

“Ohh my god,” I mouthed at myself.

I had hickeys and bite marks all over my entire body. It didn't seem as if they left even an inch unclaimed. What if I had to see their mom?! I would be mortified!

I threw on a simple loose dress and wandered back into my room. Both guys were sitting on the side of the bed like they were waiting for me.

“Good morning beautiful,” Skyler said.

I grinned and he held out his arms for me, I sat in his lap.

“Morning yourself,” I said, kissing his lips.

Of course he wasn't going to let it be a simple kiss.

He pulled me tight to him and immediately wanted to find my tongue. I let him and we began to roughly make out. I absolutely loved it, I simply could not wait to see what Skyler was like in bed.

I finally came up for air and he pulled me into him so my head was resting on his chest.

“Good morning Hunter,” I said.

“Good morning Ellie, what would you like for breakfast? I suppose it’s my turn,” he said.

“I want french toast, bacon and eggs,” I said, greedy.

My stomach growled. We all got up and wandered to the kitchen. I glanced at the clock and it was 8:44 am! I never slept in this late.

All of a sudden, River appeared in the living room, making me jump!

I ran to him and he held his arms out for me.

“Good morning River,” I said, kissing his lips.

He returned the kiss with a slow response. I felt as if he was unsure how much of a kiss I wanted to give him. I held his face and kept the kiss a bit longer, wanting him to know how much I appreciated him. I knew he had to get up and go to work. I pulled back once I remembered that more fully.

“You’re back from work early, is everything okay,” I asked.

He smiled and took my hand, kissing the back of it. My tummy had butterflies and I felt like jumping up and down.

“Actually, we got a lead but it is very strange. I sent some tracker recruits out to a few dozen different locations. I’ve just come from Whisper Crescent and oddly enough, I picked up Kai’s scent outside the shed where Hunter found you. Here’s his picture. Have you ever seen him before,” he asked.

I studied the picture and recognized him as a fisherman I’d met when Valerie took me to a nearby village. She had bartered some vegetables with him. My eyes grew wide and I had a million questions. I told the guys what I remembered.

“Hmm, I don’t think I saw Valerie today, I showed his picture to everyone around,” River said.

“She goes out a lot to wash clothes or go to the market. You think ... you think he was following me, or looking for me,” I asked.

“Yes, but I have no idea why he would. I mean it makes no sense,” River said.

“Maybe you should share this with Dina, see if he was working on anything,” Hunter said.

“Yes, but he wasn’t a scout or investigator, he was just strictly a warrior or he helped if we needed magic,” River said.

Magic.

“You don’t think there is any way he was involved with the spells on me, do you,” I asked.

The guys looked at each other.

“Ellie I think we’ll take you to the packhouse for a little while. It’s safest there. I can talk to Dina and we’ll need to start making inquiries if anyone has seen him around Blood Claw. We’ll also need to speak with Angel and Katrina at once, to see if they know the extent of his capabilities, we all need to work on this ... it’s more than I can do myself,” River said.

“Let’s eat and we’ll go,” Hunter said.

~Ellie’s Point of View~

Godfrey began walking back to the bedroom and I followed him, after giving Hunter a kiss on the cheek.

I immediately heard the guys talking but I couldn’t tell what they were saying. I walked into my room and sat on the bed. Godfrey closed the door and stood in front of me.

“Now dear, I know we all realize what an usual situation we find ourselves in, and while I support you being with the mutts I am afraid we are still a society with rules. The council has decided that if your wolf has not surfaced after tomorrow night, they can proceed with the mating ritual,” he said.

I jumped to my feet, I think, taking him by surprise since he moved back from me.

“I understand the law, but this is my body and MY CHOICE! How can some people that don’t even know me decide for me! They are my mates and we know that I am of age, we know that I-”

The door burst open and my mates crowded in the doorway.

“Leave us,” Godfrey said, looking bored. He always looked bored.

The triplets looked pissed but nodded and closed the door. I guessed I had to spell out the obvious. I couldn’t see why he was so blind to my dilemma.

“There is no real reason to delay, every minute that I’m unmated, unmarked, is a chance for Tyson to get me,” I said, beginning to sob.

I sat back down on the bed and Godfrey came and sat beside me.

“Go outside tonight and try again. If you can shift, then after that, you can all do whatever you want. If you can’t, then you are ordered to try again tomorrow night. If you still can’t shift you can then be marked, to have a final push to your wolf. But you will not complete mating until you have shifted. That is the law. I don’t know how much the boys have told you but we are holding a mediation tomorrow at Gunner’s request,” he said.

My eyes grew wide and I scooted further back on the bed and crossed my legs.

“What is that? Are you arresting him,” I questioned.

“We hope to, yes. What he has done to you, is unspeakable. I’ve never seen anything like it, and that’s saying something. It would be like someone taking my fangs, I wouldn’t truly be able to live. That’s what he’s done to you, in suppressing your wolf,” he said.

Wow, Godfrey had never been ... like relatable. He almost seemed ... to have a sympathetic “feeling” one could say. I knew he had feelings, he just probably didn’t even know what they were anymore.

“I want to be there,” I said, holding my head high.

“Out of the question, it is no place for you,” he said, dismissing me.

“Imagine if I walked in there with the triplet’s marks, he would lose his mind. He would completely expose himself and you wouldn’t even need his confession,” I said, plainly.

Godfrey looked as if he was considering my request and I didn’t dare move or say anything else. It was quiet for a long two minutes or so.

“You might as well join the party ... hounds, I know you’re right there,” Godfrey finally said.

The door immediately opened and the guys filed in, standing around me.

“She has a hell of a point,” River said.

The other guys nodded.

“I’m not sure how I feel about it, I don’t want to use a pup as bait,” Godfrey said.

“If we can’t keep her safe with the entire council in the room then we are sh!t warriors,” Skyler said.

I looked back at Godfrey, hopeful.

“How is it going to be possible for you to mark her and not mate her? They kind of go together do they not,” Godfrey asked.

“Why can’t we do both? How do you know that I won’t shift as soon as they do it? Also, Gunner will immediately be able to tell I’ve been mated, he’ll be more furious at that. I mean he might still think only Tyson can get me pregnant though. I just feel like if we can push him, he’ll likely be so enraged he’ll expose himself,” I said.

“He thinks he’s coming because of the raids on the neighboring packs, he doesn’t know we have Ellie,” Hunter said.

Oh, duh!

“That’s even more perfect, he’ll be furious when he sees me there, marked and mated,” I said.

I fell to my knees and made a praying gesture, I didn’t care if I looked pathetic.

“You might have these dogs by the tail but you won’t pull that on me little one. The council is very clear on mating prior to having your wolf. I will allow them to mark you, but that’s it. Do it now, and we’ll all go outside,” Godfrey said.

Skyler reached down and helped me to my feet. I blinked back at all of them, unsure what to say.

The guys all looked at me with a lust in their eyes and I felt my stomach flip. I guessed I had to take what I could get for now.

“Ah-hem, Godfrey, this is uhm, a pretty ... intimate thing, how about some privacy,” Skyler said.

Godfrey sighed a very obvious fake and forced sigh.

“Go ahead and ask Angel to teleport you home, I’ll be outside there waiting for you, ten minutes mutts,” he said, just as he disappeared.

I was practically jumping out of my skin, I had never wanted anything so badly. I would have their mark and it would be forever. Even Alpha Gunner wouldn’t be able to change that. I would be theirs and they would be mine for the rest of our lives.

After a minute, we all joined hands and I felt a woosh! I had only been able to teleport with them a couple of times but it was so cool! We were suddenly back in my bedroom at the cabin and I had six eyes staring at me. They wasted no time.

Skyler put his hand on my leg, River took one of my hands and Hunter took the other. We had somewhat fooled around the last couple of days, touching and sneaking little kisses here and there, but nothing too serious. Nothing close to what we had done the first night I found out they were my mates. Our s*l tension was insane and as bad as it was for me, I knew it had to be killing them.

I quickly moved forward, surprising Hunter with a kiss. I was desperate to taste all of them, and I wasn’t taking no for an answer.

He put his hands on my face and returned it, moving his lips against mine, gently. I felt River move behind me and move my hair away from my neck. He began lightly kissing my shoulder and moved to my neck, looking for a spot he liked.

Skyler got on his knees and I saw him coming toward me out of the corner of my eye. Hunter broke our kiss and Skyler instantly came to my lips. I moaned and Hunter moved to the other side of my neck, looking for a spot as well. I had never felt anything so erotic, so intense, and this was only the beginning.

River was groping my hips and I knew it was taking all his restraint not to go under my clothes. I so desperately wanted him to! Skyler started demanding more and I felt his tongue in my mouth, it tasted like some kind of candy. I couldn't tell what it was, but it was sweet. I held his face with one hand since Hunter was now holding the other.

All these hands, all this warmth, all the sensations were just so overwhelming but all I wanted was more.

Mark me

I jumped, throwing everyone off me.

"What was that," I said, out of breath.

"Baby that was your wolf, we heard her too and we haven't even marked you yet," Skyler said, kissing my forehead.

"Really! I can't believe it," I said, feeling teary.

"Let's give her what she wants," River said in my ear.

His hands were now roaming my tummy, just under my breasts, and I couldn't stand it. I leaned back into him, allowing him more access to my neck. I felt the warmth from all three of them immediately surrounding me. Hunter was kissing my neck on the left and River and Skyler were sucking on the right.

"Are you ready sweet girl," Hunter said, in a deep growl that made me feel even more hot and bothered if that was even possible.

“Yes! Please, please make me yours,” I moaned, hardly being able to contain myself.

I heard them all growl just as I felt it, a sharp prick of pain that lasted barely a second. It disappeared just as I registered it and it was replaced by a flood of heat to my entire body. A wave of absolute ecstasy washed over me and I moaned, a deep guttural sound that came out as a growl.

Yes! It’s about damn time, I heard in my head.

Did the guys hear it?! Violet?

No, I’m only talking to you, silly.

The triplets were all still licking me, now sealing their bite marks with their saliva and it was so relaxing. I just absolutely was lost in the feeling, I felt like I was floating a wave of ecstasy.

Much to my horror and shock, this lasted only about a minute when a new sensation hit me. I had an intense sharp pain strike me. I felt like I was being broken into pieces.

“Ahhhhhhh! Ohhhh nooooo,” I screeched out.

What was happening to me?! The pain was unbearable, I felt like I was trying to rip through my skin.

“She’s shifting,” River said, frantic.

Hunter lunged at me and picked me up. He ran at lightning speed, it was so fast! I just knew I was in the bedroom one second and outside the next. He laid me on the grass and I felt every part of my body contorting, every part breaking.

I cried out in pain, why did it hurt so bad! I saw Godfrey hovering over me with a smile and just as I registered him, he disappeared.

It’ll get better, don’t fight me, just relax

“Relax! I can’t even breathe,” I yelled out loud.

My body moved on its own, I had no control anymore. I felt the wind nip at my skin as my clothes shredded and I felt the cool grass on my back. I blinked rapidly and everything looked so crisp, so clear and colorful. I tried to concentrate on it and to ignore the pain that was consuming me.

It probably went on for ten minutes, but it seemed like an eternity. I finally went to roll over but realized I was on my knees. No! I was on ... all fours?

I looked down, which wasn't too far since I was lower to the ground, and saw two white paws capping off light brown legs.

I did it!!! I shifted!!!

Ahem, we did it, you have no idea how much I've been fighting for this. Oh, and believe me ... we are going to chat about all of that later, a good long talk human!

I shook myself out and looked up to see what was around me. I immediately felt the warmth of my mates surrounding me. They had all shifted. I squealed with excitement and did what I'd always wanted to do ... I took off running!

"Are you ready sweet girl," Hunter said, in a deep growl that made me feel even more hot and bothered if that was even possible.

"Yes! Please, please make me yours," I moaned, hardly being able to contain myself.

I heard them all growl just as I felt it, a sharp prick of pain that lasted barely a second. It disappeared just as I registered it and it was replaced by a flood of heat to my entire body. A wave of absolute ecstasy washed over me and I moaned, a deep guttural sound that came out as a growl.

Yes! It's about damn time, I heard in my head.

Did the guys hear it?! Violet?

No, I'm only talking to you, silly.

The triplets were all still l!cking me, now sealing their bite marks with their saliva and it was so relaxing. I just absolutely was lost in the feeling, I felt like I was floating a wave of ecstasy.

Much to my horror and shock, this lasted only about a minute when a new sensation hit me. I had an intense sharp pain strike me. I felt like I was being broken into pieces.

“Ahhhhhhh! Ohhhh nooooo,” I screeched out.

What was happening to me?! The pain was unbearable, I felt like I was trying to rip through my skin.

“She’s shifting,” River said, frantic.

Hunter lunged at me and picked me up. He ran at lightning speed, it was so fast! I just knew I was in the bedroom one second and outside the next. He laid me on the grass and I felt every part of my body contorting, every part breaking.

I cried out in pain, why did it hurt so bad! I saw Godfrey hovering over me with a smile and just as I registered him, he disappeared.

It'll get better, don't fight me, just relax

“Relax! I can't even breathe,” I yelled out loud.

My body moved on it's own, I had no control anymore. I felt the wind nip at my skin as my clothes shredded and I felt the cool grass on my back. I blinked rapidly and everything looked so crisp, so clear and colorful. I tried to concentrate on it and to ignore the pain that was consuming me.

It probably went on for ten minutes, but it seemed like an eternity. I finally went to roll over but realized I was on my knees. No! I was on ... all fours?

I looked down, which wasn't too far since I was lower to the ground, and saw two white paws capping off light brown legs.

I did it!!! I shifted!!!

Ahem, we did it, you have no idea how much I've been fighting for this. Oh, and believe me ... we are going to chat about all of that later, a good long talk human!

I shook myself out and looked up to see what was around me. I immediately felt the warmth of my mates surrounding me. They had all shifted. I squealed with excitement and did what I'd always wanted to do ... I took off running!

The Triplet Warriors And Their Pup Mate Chapter 35 - Tips

~Skyler's Point of View~

What's the first thing Ellie does once she shifts? Takes off running so we'd have to chase her! That little minx. She was in for it! My wolf loved to chase she-wolf tail and we always won. She could run but she couldn't hide from me!

Dusk was absolutely elated and ready to pounce on our little mate. My brothers and I let her get a bit of a head start and immediately began throwing every dirty, naughty thing we wanted to do to Violet at her. Turns out, Violet was a little vixen, as I knew she would be. Our mate would have three horny as hell wolves to satisfy and I was giddy to find out she was as excited about it as we were.

Violet had waited so long, she wanted to make up for lost time. She quickly began telling us everything. She wanted a large family with a ton of pups and she wanted to start right away. My wolf purred at that, as did my brothers'. I felt like we'd waited so long for this night, and it couldn't be more perfect.

Violet finally stopped at a small creek for a drink and we surrounded her. She took her paw and splashed me, which was all I needed to jump on her.

She purred and fell on her back into the water, with Buck l!cking her face and Hawk nuzzling her. I took my paw and splashed at her, making her purr even more. My perfect little she-wolf, I loved how playful she was, it was so much foreplay for what I knew was finally to come.

After about two hours of running around, catching some rabbits and watching Violet stop to smell literally everything, I was ready to get down to business.

Let's go home and make pups, I said to everyone.

My brothers immediately began howling and I followed suit. Violet shook her head.

Catch me if you can, fluffy.

Fluffy!

What the heck? Dusk growled, he didn't want any cutesy little nickname. He was a warrior and he would let her know how rough he liked it.

She took off running back toward our little house and I was delighted to chase her. We chased her right to the porch and she laid down. She had light brown fur but little white boots on her paws. They were absolutely adorable. I hoped our pups would have little boots too.

Within seconds, my brothers and I had all shifted, and were standing around waiting for Ellie. It was going to be her first time shifting back so she might have a hard time, and she would likely have pain. But we would make it all better for her soon enough!

Hunter went to pick up all the shredded clothes in the yard and River squatted down next to Violet and stroked her head.

"Come on baby, you have to share, we want to properly mate," River cooed into her ear.

fvck yeah, I was already hard, and had no shame standing there with a full hard-on in front of my brothers. I didn't know how they weren't in the same state. I realized there could be other eyes on us right now, but I simply didn't care.

I squatted down and took her paw in my hand.

"See what you do to me baby, come on let's make some pups," I said, kissing her paw.

Violet shook her head and laid it over her other paw. What the hell?

I'm tired, she said.

River and I shot each other a stern look. Hunter came toward us and threw the clothes in a pile.

Enough of this! I reached under Violet and picked her up. Hunter took notice and opened the door. I walked her right into our room and laid her on the huge bed.

“Come on baby, let Ellie shift back,” I said, stroking her face.

She sighed and put her head down again, as if she couldn't be bothered with us. What was she up to? The three of us stared at her, and I realized my hard-on went down. This wasn't happening! I have waited my whole damn life for this moment!

River reached his hand to her head again and began to pet her, just as she lightly snored. She was asleep?!

We all looked at each other in horror.

“This is supposed to be our mating night, what the hell,” I said, annoyed.

“Not much we can do if she won't shift back. I guess she's pissed about having to be held back so long,” Hunter said.

This isn't happening, no, no, no! I want my little mate!

~Hunter's Point of View~

I opened my eyes to finally see the sun out. I stretched and turned to get a face full of fur. Violet's back was in my face. The three of us spent all night trying to get Violet to shift, but she refused. Our wolves were pissed off but there was nothing we could do.

We couldn't communicate with Ellie at all, and I was terrified of what she must be feeling or thinking. She would likely be horribly exhausted, it takes a lot out of you to stay shifted for this long. I'd actually never even done it overnight before so I couldn't even imagine.

I smelled food and looked around to see River missing. He must be making breakfast. Surely Violet would have to shift so Ellie could eat?

Just as I thought that, Violet began to stir, obviously taking up a good chunk of the bed in her wolf form. She quickly jumped off the bed and ran into the living room.

I followed her and she scratched at the door. Skyler shot out of the bedroom and ran up to her.

“Ohh no princess, if you need to use the bathroom you shift back and let Ellie—”

Just then we heard it ... Violet was peeing on the floor! What the hell!

“Bad girl! Bad Violet,” Skyler scolded.

“Not cool Violet, not cool at all,” River fussed.

She literally stuck out her tongue and made a grand gesture out of swaying her hips as she walked and went into the living room. sh!t, so what we were just going to live with a wolf in the house now? She was a sassy one and she wanted us to know it!

RING RING RING, RING RING RING!

Damn it was mine. I ran to the kitchen table and picked up my phone.

“Yeah?”

“It’s Angel I am checking when is a good time to teleport everyone. Godfrey said Ellie is coming to the mediation, but he wants me to mask her scent so Gunner isn’t tipped off that she’s in the building,” she said.

Just then I heard a crash and turned to see Violet eating ham off a broken plate on the floor. She’d knocked it off the table. Skyler was still cleaning up her other mess and just threw his hands in the air.

“Uhm, we need a bit of time, maybe two hours,” I said, frantic.

“Ohh va-va-voom huh probably didn’t get much sleep,” she laughed.

“It’s uh, it’s not exactly like that,” I said, trying to quickly get the broken dish pieces away from Violet’s tongue.

“What’s it like then, you didn’t mate her, Godfrey said she shifted,” she pressed.

“Yeah it’s not a good time okay, just pull us in two hours exactly, I’ll make sure we’re all standing together and ready, I gotta go,” I dropped the phone just as Violet tried clawing at me for shooing her away.

“What the hell are we going to do,” River said, annoyed.
