

Triplets On SM 1141

Chapter 1141-Hearing Molly's words, Alkaid couldn't help chuckling. "He must be afraid that there will be something wrong with you. Look at you. He hasn't arrived yet, but you become so anxious. It was the same with him, especially when he knew about the incident."

Molly fell silent and didn't know how to react to it.

Though moved, she felt guilty.

'When I insisted on coming here, I seemed to have neglected the feelings of Sean and my other family members. I must accompany them when I go back,' Molly thought.

"Well, let's set off. Merak, stay with Madam and protect her." After taking account of the situation, Dubhe made a decision.

Merak agreed and replied, "Okay, let me protect Madam!"

As arrangements had been made, Alkaid and Mizar went with Dubhe.

After they left, Molly couldn't fall asleep, as she was badly worried.

She was anxious about Sean as well as Dubhe and his men.

Sensing Molly's worry, Merak comforted her softly, "Madam, don't worry about them."

"Is that so?" Doubtful, Molly couldn't leave those thoughts behind.

Seeing Molly can't be persuaded, Merak had no choice but to let Molly temper herself slowly.

In a dense forest dozens of miles from the slum.

The men from the Shepard family took Jordan, who was tied up, out of a car.

A camp was in front of them.

Just in terms of security, there were seven or so big and strong guards, who looked frightening.

Several tall and burly people stepped out of a tent.

They wore arrogant expressions, giving people a strong murderous feeling.

When they walked out, the men from the Shepard family had stood before them.

At the head of the men were Byron and Jose.

The moment Jose met the people, he greeted their leader respectfully. "Hello, greeting indifferently. "Hello."

Then Soren asked directly, "Where's Jordan Ballard?"

Jose didn't dare to show the slightest annoyance about Soren's indifference. He quickly stepped aside and replied, "Jordan is here."

Soren looked at the old man who Jose was pointing at.

Jordan, whose legs and arms were bound, drooped his head. He looked downcast, and his face appeared bloodless in the moonlight.

Hearing the voice, he looked up and met Soren's gaze, an intense disgust emerging in Jordan's eyes.

But Soren laughed and uttered in gloat, "Hello, Jordan. Nice to meet you again!

I've said that you can't escape."

"Bah!" Jordan gave a disdainful snort, whose voice was very hoarse.

"You creeps are really disgusting," Jordan snapped.

The next second, he glared at Jose and scolded, "You're from an ancient medical family. How can you work with such creeps? You don't deserve to be a doctor."

Hearing these humiliating words, Jose kicked Jordan's leg." Shut up! What nonsense are you talking about?"

Jordan fell heavily to the ground, his face getting dirty. But he was still rebuking, "Am I wrong? You've been taught excellent medical skills, but now you help these creeps to do evil things. Aren't you afraid of being condemned by God?

"It's not clear whether we will be condemned by God. But your wonderful life will begin shortly," Soren spoke with a smile at this moment and gestured for his subordinate to take Jordan into the tent.

"Jose, you've done a good job this time. Go back and tell your patriarch that our president will definitely deliver on his commitment," Soren said

Chapter 1142-Meanwhile, Jordan was pulled up by Soren's men.

Jordan was struggling violently while coughing. "Let go of me! You bastards, I won't let you use me to develop SRS even if I die."

However, Soren, with an arrogant face, snorted and laughed, "That requires you to be able to die. Don't forget that your family is in our hands."

“You...!”

Jordan was so angry that his chest throbbed with pain.

His face suddenly looked even worse.

At this time, there was a noise from the side.

The patrolling men suddenly fell to the ground, and each was shot in the chest.

“There is an ambush!”

Soren’s reaction was very fast, and he immediately shouted.

Seeing this, the men beside him quickly pulled out their guns.

However, the forest was too dark, and even though there was some light on the camp, they were still in the dark.

In a short while, several people at Soren’s sides collapsed to the ground.

“Damn, you have been followed?”

Soren looked at Jose in anger.

Jose was a little shocked. “How ... how could that be possible? We were very careful on the way here.”

He looked at Byron. “Did you find anyone following us?”

“No.”

Byron shook his head and looked around warily.

Jose’s heart sank.

Byron was a professional mercenary, although not S-class, but was A-class.

Even Byron did not notice anything odd, then the other party could not be simple.

Soren obviously thought of it. He raised his voice. “Friends, since you are here, show your face. It’s shameful to hide and use a sneak attack.”

However, no one replied. And the only response he got was the sound of his men falling to the ground at his side.

Soren’s expression was very ugly.

The other party had used silenced guns, so Soren and his men could not find their positions.

“In that case, we have to force them out!”

At that moment, Soren looked at the men behind him.

His men nodded and waved their hands at the camp behind them, and instantly, many people rushed over.

And each of them had a weapon in their hands, and they began to fire indiscriminately in the forest.

Bang, bang, bang...

Heavy gunfire sounded in the dense forest.

Dubhe and Alkaid originally intended to take advantage of the darkness to kill as many enemies as possible first.

However, the counterattack forced them to expose their positions...

At this time, about a few kilometers away from this place.

Sean was leaning back in his seat, falling into a deep sleep.

When he heard the sound, he opened his eyes acutely.

“What’s going on?”

His voice was hoarse because he had just woken up.

Tony answered, “I’m not sure. There seems to be a fight ahead. Phecda has gone to take a look.”

Sean frowned and nodded, not thinking much about it.

Unexpectedly, after ten minutes, his subordinate ran back to report, “Master, Dubhe and the others are confronting the Martial Art Union. It is said that Mr. Ballard is there. They were ordered by Dr.

May to come to rescue him.”

Sean’s eyes darkened as he asked worriedly, “Is Molly there too?”

The subordinate shook his head. "Dr. May is still in the slums. I don't know the details, but the fight is already very fierce."

Sean breathed a sigh of relief and ordered, "Take all the men to help them!"

Tony, let's go find Molly first."

"Okay, Master."

Tony immediately assigned tasks and split the people into two groups.

Chapter 1143-Around three o'clock in the morning.

It had been more than two hours since Dubhe and Alkaid set off.

Molly still didn't feel sleepy at all.

However, overwhelmed by drowsiness, Merak had already fallen asleep beside her. She seemed to have no worries about the current situation at all.

Molly took a look at Merak and subconsciously tucked her in.

All of a sudden, there came a knock at the door!

It was late at night, and since there were still no updates from Dubhe, Molly couldn't help being nervous.

She looked out warily.

The knock on the door rang again, and it sounded a little urgent this time.

Meanwhile, a familiar voice sounded. “Dr. May, are you awake?”

It was Selon!

Molly immediately recognized the identity of the visitor. She got out of her bed at once to open the door.

Selon’s clothes had been wet by the rain, which made him look like a real mess.

“Dr. Shepard, it’s so late. What do you want with me?”

Molly looked at him in surprise.

Selon answered anxiously, “Dr. May, please pack your things and come with me.”

“What?”

Molly was in a complete daze. “Mr. Shepard, what happened? Are the wounded getting worse?” “No.”

Selon looked more urgent, and he subconsciously looked behind him.

Knowing that his appearance was a little abrupt and that his speech was confusing, he simply explained it.

“Dr. May, I was going to go to the basement tonight and release Mr. Ballard!

However, I found that Mr. Ballard was no longer there, so I went to Uncle Jose’s residence and planned to talk to him. As a result, I accidentally overheard some conversations...”

Speaking of which, Selon swallowed hard. "Uncle Jose has brought Mr. Ballard away, and he is going to hand him to the martial art families. Before leaving, he ordered his men to catch you if he didn't return at three o'clock in the morning.

Right now, they are on their way here."

When Molly heard this, her face changed slightly.

She didn't expect Jose to be so cautious and make such an arrangement.

However, what was his purpose in catching her?

Were they trying to get Mr. Ballard under control or to threaten Sean?

"Why should we believe you?"

Merak had woken up, and she suddenly appeared from behind Molly and asked Selon coldly.

Selon knew her identity, and he said seriously, "Dr. May is my friend, and I have no reason to harm her."

"You are from the Shepard family, which means you stand on their side naturally! Maybe you are just pretending to be kind, so that you can harm madam after she drops her guard!" Merak's words were extremely impolite.

Over the years, she had met various kinds of people, especially those who were duplicitous.

The Shepard family had done something shady in private.

Selon was the next heir of the Shepard family, so she had to guard against him!

Hearing this, Molly also subconsciously looked at Selon.

The latter was rather anxious at the moment. "I don't need to lie or to pretend!

Dr. May, we have known each other for so long, and you should know what kind of person I am!

Time is pressing, so it is inappropriate to delay. If you stay here for a little longer, I'm afraid you can't leave. Please believe me once."

"Do you think I am afraid of them?"

Merak sneered with disdain.

However, she still asked Molly, "What do you think, madam?"

Molly looked at Selon for a moment and said in a low voice, "I believe in Mr.

Shepard. Merak, please go pack your things, and well leave at once."

Merak had no objection to her decision, but she still warned Selon, "You'd better not play any tricks, or I won't let you off." She turned back to the room and started packing.

Chapter 1144-Molly didn't have many things, and it was done quickly.

After Merak took it and walked out, she was followed by Sillow who had been woken up.

Sillow seemed a little annoyed after he was woken up. He looked unhappy and his eyes were extremely fierce as if he wanted to tear someone to pieces.

This was the first time Selon had seen this big white tiger.

Seeing the tiger, Selon was so frightened that he took a few steps back, and looked astonished, “Dr. May, why is there a big tiger in your room?”

“Sorry to scare you, but Sillow is very obedient and won’t hurt anyone.” Molly stroked Sillow’s fur and said, “Mr.

Shepard, it’s not the time to talk about it now. Let’s go.”

“OK.” Selon managed to calm himself down and nodded in agreement.

Soon, the three of them and a ‘pet’ quickly left here.

Just a few minutes after they left, the door of Molly’s residence was suddenly knocked open.

A group of men in black broke in from outside, holding knives.

But unexpectedly, when they entered the door, they saw no one!

“Where is she?” The leading man asked in a deep voice.

One of his subordinates shook his head and said, “I don’t know! But Molly May is indeed on the day shift, so she should be resting at this hour.”

Another subordinate raised his hand to touch the bed and quilt, “Boss, the sheets are still warm. She probably left not long ago.”

The leading man’s eyes darkened when he heard it, “Go find her immediately!

Make sure to bring her back.”

“Okay.” The subordinates nodded and left soon.

Molly and Merak, led by Selon, left the slums all the way.

Selon didn’t stop until they reached the main road, “Dr. May, I’ve arranged for a car and asked Captain Green’s subordinates, Jason and Eric, to escort you two!

After leaving here, they will find a way to take you to go to Ferro City. When you get there, you should be able to meet Mr. Anderson, and then you can go back to Norlon directly.”

Molly was surprised and looked at Selon, “Go back to Norlon?”

Selon nodded at her, “That’s right. Go back to Norlon! Don’t ever come back here again.”

Molly was slightly taken aback. She felt that Selon’s behavior was a bit strange.

Jose was trying to catch her probably for some purpose. Yet it wouldn’t involve her safety.

But Selon’s reaction at this time was very wrong.

Molly couldn’t help narrowing her beautiful eyes, thought about it, and asked, “Mr. Shepard, you probably didn’t tell me the truth just now. The subordinate of your Uncle Jose probably has other purposes besides controlling me, right?”

Selon froze. He hadn’t expected that Molly was so sharp!

Seeing her sharp eyes, Selon pondered for a moment, and finally admitted, “Yes...they said they want your life. Sorry, Dr. May. I insisted on asking you to come, but I didn’t expect that it would put you in this situation. I’m so sorry.”

Molly's eyes turned cold. It seemed that Merak's guess was correct.

Maybe the Shepard family had participated in the siege back then, and they knew Sean's real identity.

So Jose wanted to kill her!

But she hadn't expected that Selon would help her.

She sincerely said to Selon, "Mr. Shepard, thank you for tonight!"

"Dr. May, you're welcome. I owe you this, but I'm afraid you can't read the ancient medical books as I promised." Selon was extremely sorry.

Molly nodded and said nothing. She knew that after leaving here, she and the Shepard family would be enemies.

She didn't know what would happen in the future!

Chapter 1145-Molly didn't say anything else. She took Merak and Sillow directly into the car arranged by Selon and drove away.

Selon stood where he was, blankly watching the car driving away, and murmured, "I hope we can still be friends when we meet again."

He quickly left.

Not long after he left, the group of men in black came! They soon drove the car and chased in the direction where Molly had left.

The night was getting darker. The black off-road was driving fast on the uneven road.

After driving for a while, Molly found cars following behind,” What’s going on? Is someone chasing us?”

“No, it’s our men,” Merak answered quickly.

Although Dubhe and the others took many people with them when they left, there was still a small team left just in case.

Hearing this, Molly breathed a sigh of relief.

But within a few minutes, there suddenly came a loud sound from behind.

‘The sound...Was that gunfire?’ Before Molly could react, Merak had already recognized it,” It seems that someone is chasing us!”

At this moment, several cars behind were approaching.

While driving, some people kept protruding from the car windows and shot at Molly’s cars.

This intense situation lasted for more than ten minutes. The tire of one of the cars behind was shot and they had to stop.

The rear window of the car Molly was in was also shot. Seeing that it was about to shatter, Merak made a quick decision and ordered Jason, “Find a place to park in front later and let me down. You’re leaving with Madam first.”

Molly’s heart sank. She dragged Merak and said, “Where are you going? Don’t get out of the car. It’s dangerous outside.”

Merak replied, “I know, but I will be fine. Don’t worry.”

But how could Molly feel at ease? In her opinion, Merak was just a teenage girl.

Facing the hail of bullets, even she broke out in a cold sweat.

How could she let Merak go down?

But Merak said, "If I don't go down, my subordinates can't deal with them. I can't stand by and watch them die."

With that, she said in a low voice, "Stop the car!"

Jason was so frightened by her serious tone that he stepped on the brakes subconsciously.

Molly was stunned for a moment. But before she could react, Merak took out two rifles from under her seat and put on a pair of night vision goggles. Then she got out of the car, pointed the guns at the back of the car, and sprayed bullets.

Molly had wanted to stop her. But seeing this scene, she was dumbfounded.

Jason and Eric were also dumbfounded.

Seeing that Merak took down an enemy with every single shot, they were even more frightened.

But the two quickly came to their sense.

They could not stay here for long! They had to take Dr. May to a safe place quickly!

Thus, Jason stepped on the gas, ready to leave this place quickly.

Unexpectedly, they just drove less than a few hundred meters away when they ran into several cars head-on.

This road was originally a one-way street. When two vehicles crossed, they had to slow down to barely pass.

With so many cars at the same time, the car Molly was in immediately slowed down.

Molly's heart tightened, "How could cars be passing by at this hour? Could it be that...Jose and his men are back?"

Molly's face changed when she thought of this.

Chapter 1146-s.

He was quite surprised, "But shouldn't Merak be protecting Mrs. Anderson?"

Sean said coldly, "Go down and have a look."

Tony nodded, got out of the car immediately, and walked quickly toward the opposite vehicle.

Watching a man approaching, Jason and Eric grabbed their weapons in the front of the car nervously, ready to deal with the situation at any time.

Soon, the man knocked on the car window.

Jason lowered the car window and heard the man outside asking, "Bro, what happened? Why are you fighting with them?"

When Jason and Eric heard this, before they could react, Molly in the back shuddered.

This voice... if she heard it right, it should be... Tony?

Molly couldn't sit still anymore. She leaned forward and looked out the window of the front seats.

As expected, in the next second, she saw Tony's familiar face!

"Tony, it's you!"

Tony was startled by the shout at first. After a second, he came to his sense and was shocked, "Holy crap! Mrs.

Anderson! Why are you here?"

"I..." Just as Molly was about to answer, Tony said urgently, "Wait a moment."

Then he turned around and ran back.

Watching him run away in a daze, Molly vaguely guessed something, and her heart suddenly tightened.

She fixed her eyes on the vehicle ahead.

In a few seconds, a tall and slender man hurriedly got down from the back of the vehicle.

He was dressed all in black, wearing a pair of military boots. His tall and straight body looked particularly conspicuous in the car headlights. In particular, his noble and compelling temperament was even more impossible to ignore!

As Molly watched, her body began to tremble uncontrollably. She was very emotional after she had experienced so much tiredness and fear.

Her eyes felt sore, and she wanted to cry.

Ever since she came here, she had been so busy every day that she had even lost track of time.

But at this moment, she deeply felt that it had been so long.

Especially after she narrowly escaped death, she felt more like a century.

She had been afraid... that she would never go back and see him and their children again!

She was finally overwhelmed with emotions because she had missed him so much.

She trembled even more. She reached out to open the car door and tried to get out of the car, but failed to hold the handle several times.

She forced herself to calm down and managed to hold onto it. Just as she was about to open it, the car door was opened by him.

Sean came to her.

He rested his one hand on the car door, bent slightly, looked down, and stared at her with deep black eyes...

Molly raised her eyes to meet his. She opened her mouth and wanted to say something, but burst into tears.

Sean was heartbroken when he saw it. He raised his hand to help her out and pulled her into his arms. His husky voice was as deep and gentle as ever, "Don't be afraid. I'm here..."

I'm here to see you!"

Molly cried so hard that her body was shaking.

Unable to say a word, she could only grab his clothes tightly and feel his body temperature.

Chapter 1147-Sean felt so sorry and he held her even more tightly.

He was also very emotional. He lowered his head and kissed Molly's hair as if he was looking at a lost treasure. He kept repeating, "It's all right. It's all right..."

When Tony and the others saw it, they immediately walked away to give them some privacy and asked Jason and Eric what had happened.

Then they did not dare to be negligent and quickly went to help Merak.

In the distance, the fighting became more and more intense. Molly cried for a while but soon calmed down.

Her emotions came and went quickly.

Especially Sean had kept comforting her in a steady voice in her ears.

She sniffed, and finally raised her teary eyes. She looked so pitiful yet lovely.

She choked up and said to Sean, "I missed you so much...I was worried that I wouldn't see you again. I'm glad...you came."

Sean's heart was about to melt, and his voice became gentler, "I missed you too! Fortunately, you're fine. Don't cry, okay? I'm here. I'll always be here for you."

He raised his hand and gently wiped away her tears.

Molly nodded with teary eyes.

Over these years, she had never cried when she encountered anything, and she had rarely shown weakness.

But the moment she saw him just now, she lost control of her emotions.

To her, the man in front of her was not only a soft spot in her heart but also a safe harbor for her.

With him here, she had nothing to fear!

Molly quickly put away her sensibility and withdrew from his embrace.

It wasn't until this moment that she realized that Sean was standing, and he seemed to have walked over by himself just now.

She froze for a moment, surprised, "You...can walk now?"

"I can't walk too fast! But walking normally is not a big problem. I have been practicing these days since you left." Sean nodded, brushing a lock of hair off her forehead.

Molly was very happy.

She had expected before going abroad that he would recover, but he had recovered even faster than she expected!

After thinking about it for a moment, she realized that Sean must have spent a lot of time practicing every day!

"It's hard work, isn't it?" Molly couldn't help but feel sorry for him. She leaned over to hug him again, looked at his handsome face, and said, "You've lost a lot of weight. Have not you eaten and slept well?"

"I've eaten and slept well. It may be that I have been busy recently." Sean lowered his eyes and stared at her, "Don't talk about me! Look at yourself.

You've only been here for half a month, and you've become so thin..."

His palm wandered around her waist, and then touched her face again. Her delicate face had become even smaller.

Sean couldn't help frowning and said unhappily, "If I had known, I would have stopped you from coming."

Molly knew that he felt sorry for her, so she quickly comforted him, "There were too many wounded in that place. I spent most of my time in the operating room, and the meals were irregular. And I was really busy and didn't sleep much... But don't worry. When I go back, I will take a good long rest. Don't be angry, okay?"

When Sean heard her slightly flattering tone, he wasn't angry anymore.

The two finally met again. Now he couldn't wait to love her and care about her!

Chapter 1148-n the end, he could only nod helplessly.

The two chatted for a while. Seeing that she had completely calmed down, Sean changed the subject, "Tell me, what happened and why are you here? I was planning to go the slums to pick you up."

Molly didn't hide anything and simply told him what had happened before.

“...The group of people that Merak and our men are dealing with should be sent by the Shepard family to kill me.” Molly was a little worried and hurriedly looked at where Merak and the others were, “I wonder what’s going on there now. Is anyone injured? What about Merak?”

Tony was on the other side. Hearing this, he immediately replied, “Mrs.

Anderson, don’t worry. I have sent my subordinates to help. As for Merak...she is on a killing spree there. She’s fine.”

While speaking, he pointed Molly in the direction.

Molly looked over, just in time to see Merak jumping up from the ground aggressively and kicking a man hard in the head.

It was a tall man, but he was thrown to the ground. Merak was unbelievably fierce.

Moreover, because of the reinforcements on her side, the men sent by the Shepard family had been losing ground. Presumably, it wouldn’t take her long to win.

Molly breathed a sigh of relief. She was also shocked. She hadn’t expected that Merak was such a good fighter.

Merak looked like a cute young girl with slender arms and legs, but what she did was beyond her imagination.

With Molly in his arms, Sean watched the scene from the side, but he wasn’t worried about his subordinates at all.

But there was a terrible hostility brewing in his eyes.

He was highly furious that the Shepard family dared to hurt Molly.

Today, if they hadn't met halfway, Merak and her team alone might not be able to handle it. He could hardly imagine what kind of danger Molly would face.

Sean shuddered to think of it, and subconsciously tightened his grip on Molly's waist. Fortunately, he had arrived in time!

Molly felt a little surprised when he hugged her more tightly. She couldn't help but turn to look at him and ask, "Sean, what's wrong with you?"

She saw the hostility in Sean's eyes before he could hide it.

He reluctantly restrained himself, and said in a gentle voice, "It's nothing. Let Merak and the others take care of them. Why don't you get in the car with me and tell me what has happened to you these days?"

Molly nodded without thinking.

Many things had indeed happened these days, especially the thing about the Shepard family. They might be working in collusion with the martial art families.

Sean probably didn't know the whole picture yet.

So, she quickly took his hand and got into the car.

In the back of the car, Molly roughly explained what had happened after she came to Domster.

She told the story about the Shepard family in detail, "On the day I went to the Shepard family to meet them, I heard from Beth that the Shepard family originally planned to cut me off the list. Later, when I came to Domster, Jose didn't like me and even targeted me... At first, I thought that Jose did this to me because he didn't want me to get close to Selon. But I didn't know until yesterday that it was probably because of you."

“Me?” Sean seemed a little puzzled, “What do you mean?”

Molly said, “At that time, when Selon and Jose were talking, Merak and I overheard something... On the surface, the Shepard family is a low-key hermit family. But in fact, they had been in close contact with martial art families for a long time in private. They also secretly forced Mr. Ballard to develop SRS!

“Because of this incident, Merak suspected that the Shepard family had refused to treat your legs probably because the martial art families ordered them to. And you were besieged and hunted at that time probably because of the martial arts families too!”

Chapter 1149-When Sean heard this, his eyes narrowed immediately. To hurry this time, he had not received some information immediately. Unexpectedly, there were so many things he didn’t know about.

His voice became deeper, “The siege back then was indeed secretly manipulated by the Martial Art Union! Later, when I returned to Norlon, I encountered several attacks. But the power of our Anderson family in the country could not be shaken by outsiders! So, the matter ended up with nothing definite... But I didn’t expect that the Shepard family would be involved.”

“Back then, they deliberately refused to treat your legs. Otherwise, your injury wouldn’t have been so serious!”

Molly’s face also turned a little cold, “Back in Norlon, they probably knew that I was your fiancée, so they wanted me off the list. After I came here, they even didn’t plan to let me go back!”

After Sean heard this, he blamed himself and felt sorry for Molly.

He hugged Molly and kissed her forehead lightly, “I’m sorry, this incident happened because of me, and it almost got you in trouble.”

“What are you talking about?” Molly patted him and complained softly, “We are one. Don’t say that. If you say that again in the future, I will be angry.”

“Okay, I said something wrong. Don’t be angry.” Sean pulled her hand over, kissed it, and comforted, “You’re right. We are one, and we’re inseparable.”

“That’s more like it!” Molly was barely satisfied and then changed the topic, “The Shepard family is very hateful, but I still have to thank Selon for my successful escape this time. If it weren’t for his secret help and arrangement for us to leave in advance, I’m afraid we wouldn’t have escaped tonight, let alone meet you so quickly.”

Speaking of Selon, she had a complicated expression on her face, “He is a good man. He’s also a man truly worthy of the profession of a doctor from the Shepard family!”

Sean could feel her emotions and understand her feelings.

Based on the current positions of both parties, she and the Shepard family would only be enemies.

But Selon was not bad, and he was completely ignorant of what the Shepard family had done. He was even more upright, and he treated her as a friend...

“Do you think it’s a pity to lose such a friend?” Sean pressed Molly’s head on his shoulder and asked in a low voice.

Molly was stunned for a while. She neither nodded nor shook her head, and just said, “Want to hear the truth?”

“Of course.”

Sean chuckled and then warned, “But you’d better choose your words carefully, and don’t say anything that will make me jealous.”

Molly paused and couldn’t help laughing, “What nonsense are you talking about? Nothing was going on between us.”

However, being teased by him made her feel a lot more relaxed, and she said slowly, "I think he is the future ruler of the Shepard family after all! From the standpoint of the Shepard family, I can understand it if he chooses to follow in the Shepard family's footsteps in the future. It's just that he may not be as upright as he is now.

"At that time, I may feel sorry! As for now, I don't, because he is still my friend!

After all, he just saved my life!"

After Sean heard her words, his eyes darkened a little, and he said in a low voice, "Since you said that, if I confront the Shepard family in the future, I will try not to hurt him for the sake of him helping you. But I'm not going easy on the rest of the Shepard family."

Chapter 1150-Sean said this not because the Shepard family had refused to treat his legs, nor because they had any collusion with the martial art families.

Instead, it was because they shouldn't have tried to kill Molly. This was intolerable to him!

Molly could guess what he was thinking, and she felt moved and warm. As long as she was by his side, she could feel protected all the time.

"Thank you, Sean." Molly couldn't help but raise her head and kiss him on the lips.

Sean was taken aback.

When they were outside the car just now, his subordinates were around, so they weren't very intimate.

At this moment, Molly took the initiative to come forward. How could he miss the opportunity?

He raised his hand, held the back of her head, and deepened the kiss.

Molly's mind went blank for a second. She neither pushed him away nor dodged, but obediently closed her eyes and leaned closer to him to respond.

Feeling her cooperation, Sean kissed more passionately. He kissed her lips domineeringly and affectionately.

Her warm breath was so close and every inch of her skin he explored was full of strong longing and lust.

Molly found her knees weak from his kisses. She subconsciously wrapped her arms around his neck and snuggled into his arms.

Seeing this, Sean directly supported her body with his big hands and held her tightly...

In the car, only their eager gasps and fast heartbeats could be heard.

After a while, when both of them could hardly breathe, Sean let go of Molly in his arms.

Molly's face was flushed. Her lips were even more gorgeous, and her eyes were watery and bright.

Seeing her seductive look, Sean almost lost control.

But the current situation was very special, and it was not suitable for them to do other things. In the end, reason prevailed.

He helped Molly adjust her messy clothes and then opened the car door slowly.

Tony was a sensible man. He had been standing guard not far away and didn't let the subordinates come over to disturb Sean.

At this moment, seeing the car door open, Tony walked over quickly, "Mr.

Anderson!”

“How’s it going?” Sean asked about Merak and the others in a calm voice.

Tony responded, “It’s all been resolved. A few subordinates got injured and they’ve been brought here.”

Hearing this, Molly immediately said, ‘TH go and have a look. M Sean had no objection and led her out of the car. The two quickly went to an open space nearby.

Several wounded men were lying on temporary mats. Merak was also there.

She didn’t look injured, but she looked a bit tired.

Seeing Molly and Sean approaching, she immediately greeted them respectfully, “Master, Madam!”

Sean nodded in response.

Molly glanced at the wounded on the ground and said, “Are they seriously injured?”

“These are all slightly injured, not serious! The one over there has a bullet in his leg. Madam, you may need to treat him yourself.” Merak quickly explained the situation.

Molly became serious and told Tony next to her, “Could you go bring the medicine box in the trunk for me?”

“OK.” Tony nodded and went to get it quickly.

Molly went to check the condition of the wounded!

That subordinate was indeed shot in the thigh, and the bullet was deeply buried in the flesh. He was bleeding profusely. Probably due to excessive blood loss, he had already fainted, and his face was very pale.

After Molly checked him, she said decisively, "I have to take out the bullet immediately, and stop the bleeding as soon as possible."
