

Triplets On SM 1231

Chapter 1231-“Then why are you looking at me like that?” Mr. Ballard said in disbelief.

Molly said angrily, “That’s because you tricked me into taking you as my teacher, but you didn’t teach me ancient medical techniques! Recognition of the words is just an excuse. There are no ancient medical books here, and I can’t read them even if I recognize the words! You are just too lazy to teach me!”

Mr. Ballard felt lightly guilty about being exposed, but he denied it, “There is no such a thing. I just want you to learn some basics.”

Molly wanted to say something, but Sean said in surprise, “Teacher? Did you take Mr. Ballard as your teacher? When did it happen?”

“Just now,” Molly replied truthfully.

Mr. Ballard said happily, “That is to say, from now on, you have to call me teacher with this girl.”

Sean raised his eyebrows, and said with a smile, “If you are always willing to teach her medical skills, I would love to.”

“Well, if I don’t teach her now, you won’t call me teacher?” Mr. Ballard stopped laughing and asked with his eyes wide open.

Sean had a faint smile, “Being a teacher, you naturally have to take practical actions to convince us. Don’t you think so?”

Mr. Ballard choked and didn’t know what to say for a while.

Seeing this, Molly immediately agreed, “Sean is right. A teacher must keep his word.”

“Okay, I’ll teach you.” Mr. Ballard reluctantly compromised.

Molly was satisfied and immediately glanced at Sean, praising him, “You did a good job. It can increase your credibility a little.”

“Just a little?” Sean said in a helpless voice, “What is the full credit score? What is my current basic credit score?”

“The full score is 100 points. Given your bad behavior last night, your basic score is now 30 points.” Molly replied calmly.

After saying that, she seemed to think of something, and added, “Oh, no, I added one point just now, and now it is thirty-one points. Keep up the good work, Mr. Anderson.”

Sean laughed. But as long as it made her happy, that was fine!

He simply put on an attitude of discussing business, and said, “Well, if I tell you that we’re heading home tomorrow, how much credit can I get?”

Molly’s eyes lit up, “Is everything on your side dealt with?”

“Yes. It’s over. There is no one and nothing to stop us from going back.” Sean smiled and nodded.

Molly’s expression showed a deep joy from the bottom of her heart, “We’re finally going back. That’s great!”

“Yes, we can go back and see the children.” Seeing her smiling happily, Sean smiled too, comforting her gently, “This news should be worth fifty points, right?” Hearing it, Molly was taken aback for a moment. She immediately recovered her emotions, and said with a faint smile, “Mr. Anderson, are you discussing business? You’re going too far.” Sean looked innocent, “Really? I think this news should be worth it.”

“Five points, no more.” Molly showed five slender fingers and said firmly without thinking about it.

Sean couldn't help laughing, "Who is going too far?"

Watching the whole process, Mr. Ballard finally came to his sense, "It turns out that you don't want to call me because you want to claim credit from this girl?"

"Isn't it the most important thing to make my fiancée happy?" "You boy..." Mr. Ballard was impressed. At the same time, he didn't understand why he still had to see the young couple showing off their love so often at such an old age.

Molly was in a good mood and asked, "Teacher, after this matter is over, what are your plans? Do you want to go home, or go back with me? Or do you have other arrangements?"

Chapter 1232-Mr. Ballard looked hesitant as if he hadn't made a decision.

Seeing this, Sean immediately suggested, "Why don't you go back with us? I sent someone to investigate the strongholds where the Ballard family members are kept, but there is no news yet. You can't rescue them even if you stay in this country. Besides, with the incident in Domster, I don't think the Martial Art Union will let you go easily. Staying with us will at least ensure your safety."

Molly also felt that this was better, and immediately persuaded him, "I also suggest that you go back with me. Apart from your family, the Martial Art Union is up to no good. As for the SRS in your body, it hasn't been completely resolved, so I will be worried if you're alone."

Mr. Ballard waved his hand, "My health is fine!"

Molly frowned with a worried expression and wanted to persuade him again.

But Mr. Ballard was already one step ahead and said, "But Sean is right. I won't be able to help my family even if I go back. If that's the case, then I'll go back with you. It just so happens that you are getting engaged. As your teacher, how can I be absent?"

Molly breathed a sigh of relief immediately and smiled, "That's great! My house is very lively. Apart from the three children and my two older brothers, there are also my grandfather and Sean's grandfather. The two of them drink tea, play chess, and bicker every day. It's very noisy!"

"Well, that's good. In this way, I won't feel bored anymore." Mr. Ballard readily agreed.

After the matter was settled, on the same day, they went to Ferro City after a little rest in Hurmante city.

They stayed at a hotel at night. Molly couldn't fall asleep.

Probably too many things happened during this period.

When she was finally able to go home, she couldn't help feeling excited.

She simply went to see Sean.

At this moment, Sean had just taken a shower, and his hair was still dripping wet. He was wearing a bathrobe, but the neckline was slightly open, and she could see his firm chest and beautiful collarbone inside.

The belt was tied loosely, looking casual yet alluring.

After seeing Molly, he smiled and asked, "Why did you come here so late?"

Molly withdrew her gaze and tried to sneak in through the door, "I'm too happy to fall asleep."

Hearing this, Sean raised his eyebrows, put his hand on the door, and stopped her.

Molly was taken aback, and looked up at him, "What are you doing? You don't want to let me in?"

Sean said, "It's not that I don't want to let you in! In normal times, I'd love to have you here! But right now the situation is special. You have banned me from kissing or hugging you, and I have to abide by it. But you are here... in the middle of the night. How can I control it? It will cause a serious burden on my body if you are here. So, I can only ask you to go back to your room."

Molly hadn't expected that she would be rejected by him. She couldn't help but widen her eyes, and said, "I said that you couldn't kiss or hug me, but I didn't say that we couldn't talk and hold hands."

Sean said seriously, "No. When you are by my side, my mood is messed up, and I can only think about doing a lot of intimate things with you. If we hold hands, it will make me want to hug you... You are encouraging me to commit a mistake!"

Molly was a little confused when she heard how eloquent he was.

Why did she feel that there was something wrong? Moreover, wasn't he getting better at sweet-talking?

"So, do you mean I can't come into your room tonight?"

"Not really. You can come in, but the ban can be lifted." Sean coaxed, "We are getting engaged after all. Something like chatting in bed only happens in movies."

Chapter 1233-Molly finally understood, "Is this the idea you came up with?" She squinted her beautiful eyes, and said calmly, "Your attitude of admitting mistakes is not correct and five credit points will be deducted. It's okay if you don't allow me to come in. I'll go to chat with Merak. I can chat with whoever I want, right?"

With that, she put on a charming smile, turned around, and was about to leave.

But how could Sean let her go so easily?

He immediately grabbed her wrist and dragged her into the door.

With a bang, the door closed. Molly leaned her back against the door and got trapped in Sean's arms.

He rested his hands on the door with a towel on his head, leaning slightly. His handsome face was close at hand.

He said, "Since you're here, don't even think about going to someone else's room."

Molly could feel the bath fragrance emanating from his body as well as his warm breath, and her heart skipped a beat.

She blinked and looked at him, "So, are you compromising?"

"Isn't it just chatting? I can chat." Suppressing the urge to kiss her, he straightened up, "I'll dry my hair first. Wait for me on the sofa."

With that, he held her hand and led her to the sofa. Molly smiled!

He said no. But even if he did something, she wouldn't be able to refuse.

But since he was such a gentleman, then she would give him some reward.

"I'll dry your hair for you!" She offered.

Naturally, Sean would not refuse, so he quickly went to get a hairdryer and asked Molly to dry his hair for him.

However, after a few minutes, he regretted it!

He found that even her drying his hair was a kind of torture and suffering.

Especially her fingertips shuttled through his hair from time to time, and occasionally touched the skin of his neck lightly. In addition, she was so close and he could smell the fragrance all over her body. Sean almost couldn't restrain himself.

After Molly finally dried his hair, he raised his eyes and asked her very sincerely, "How many credit points will be deducted once if I violate the ban?"

Hearing his words, Molly froze. Before she could react, Sean pulled her over and she sat on his lap. He kissed her hard.

"No matter how much, I'll accept it, and I'll pay it back slowly." He said in a hoarse voice, and then wholeheartedly plundered her sweet lips.

At first, Molly struggled symbolically. But after a while, she was dizzy from being kissed by him. In the end, apart from cooperation, there was no other consciousness...

After a while, Molly felt that the air in her lungs was about to be emptied, and she was almost out of breath. Sean let her go.

She breathed heavily. Before she could recover, she was picked up and brought to bed. Molly couldn't react at all, and only had time to see him leaning over.

A new round of kisses followed.

In a moment of passion, her pajamas were unbuttoned, and the atmosphere in the room became more and more ambiguous.

It was so passionate that Sean almost lost control.

But his last remaining sanity prevented him from taking it to the end. He just held her hand and ended the final step...

It was over an hour later. Sean got up to clean up, while Molly hid under the blanket, blushing, "Sean, your last thirty credit points are gone!"

Sean looked calm and lay back on the bed. He pulled her into his arms, and said, "Then just let it go! Consider it as an advance, and I'll make it up later."

Molly looked at his calm expression and suspected that his debt would pile up...Or he just wasn't going to pay it back at all.

Chapter 1234-With such doubts in her heart, Molly fell asleep in a daze.

Early the next morning, after breakfast, they went directly to the airport.

The moment she got on the plane, Molly finally had the real feeling of going home!

The trip to Domster was really dangerous. Fortunately, they all came back safely!

Ten hours later, the plane landed at Northfolk Airport.

"We're finally home!" Setting foot on this familiar land again and seeing the bustling scene of people coming and going, Molly sighed sincerely.

Sean could understand her complicated mood, raised his hand, and rubbed her head, "Everything is over."

"Yeah." Molly nodded and laughed.

Mr. Ballard looked around and sighed too, "I haven't seen such a peaceful scene for a long time."

During those days in captivity, the scope of his daily activities had been that small research lab.

After escaping, all he had seen was Domster filled with gunpowder.

For him, the current scene was like heaven, and he couldn't believe it!

After hearing this, Molly comforted him, "What you will see from now on will be all like this."

Mr. Ballard nodded with mixed feelings in his heart.

At this moment, three childish voices suddenly came from not far away.

These voices were full of excitement and joy, "Mommy, Mommy! Daddy..."

When Molly heard these voices, she trembled and hurriedly looked forward.

Not far away, her three children were waving their hands excitedly. The children looked very happy, and their delicate faces flushed with excitement.

Next to them were Brycen, Sawyer, and Caitlyn who came to pick them up.

The three of them also looked happy.

Molly was extremely pleasantly surprised, and looked at Sean beside her.

When she came back this time, she didn't inform her family in advance. She had planned to go back to surprise them, but unexpectedly they came to pick her up.

Molly asked, "Did you inform them to come?"

Sean looked at her with a gentle smile, "I know you missed the three children, so I told them in advance that we're coming back... Why don't you go hug them?"

Molly nodded.

Although she had only been away for a month, it had felt like a century. She had missed the children so much.

Seeing the children now, she naturally would not restrain herself. She stepped forward, ran over, and hugged them.

"Mommy, Mommy, you're finally back."

"We missed you so much! Mommy, it's great to have you back!"

"Mommy, you must have been very tired these days..."

The children hugged Molly affectionately with their little soft hands and told her how much they had missed her in her ear.

Molly's heart was about to melt, and she kissed them one by one, "Yeah, I'm finally back, and I missed you too! Were you good during my absence?"

"Yes, we were very good!"

"We studied and did our homework on time every day."

"We also went for a walk with Great-grandpa for exercises, supervised Uncle Brycen's fitness, and asked Uncle Sawyer to cooperate with Aunt Caitlyn's treatment. We didn't make trouble!"

The children nodded their heads and responded seriously.

Molly laughed and praised, "You guys are awesome."

When Molly and the children were talking intimately, Sean and others came over.

When the three children saw him, they looked surprised.

Alex asked, "Daddy, are your legs finally healed?"

Ben said sweetly, "Daddy, you're so tall. You look more handsome now."

"Daddy, hug me." Claudia stretched out her little hands and said softly.

Chapter 1235-Sean's eyes were gentle. He picked Claudia up, and responded to the two children beside him, "Well, they're almost healed."

"Great! Daddy, you're so amazing. You've brought Mommy back, and your legs are recovered!"

"Grandpa and Grandma will be very happy if they know." Alex and Ben heaved a sigh of relief. Claudia put her arms around Sean's neck and kissed him sweetly, "Daddy, you're awesome. I like you the most."

Sean's heart melted when he heard Claudia's sweet words.

The several people of the Grandset who had followed Sean back felt a little unreal when they saw this scene.

Sean had always been ruthless. They had never seen him with such an expression.

But it was undeniable that he looked very kind and gentle like this. This was probably the impact of love and family.

When Sean was getting intimate with the three children, Brycen couldn't hold back long ago and he pulled Molly over and looked her up and down.

His face was full of concern, and he asked, "Why did you lose so much weight?"

After you went there, you indeed didn't eat and sleep well. I said you shouldn't go. You went to that place and suffered so much. Did you get hurt?"

Seeing his concerned expression and hearing his nagging tone, Molly found it very heartwarming.

She quickly responded, "No, I'm fine, alive and kicking!"

Thank you, Brycen, for your concern."

"Thank me? Shouldn't I care about you? I'm glad you're fine. You don't even know. During this time, you've worried me to death." Brycen breathed a sigh of relief, came over, and hugged Molly, "Anyway, welcome home!"

Molly was stunned. She had rarely gotten so close to any other man except Sean.

She would feel uncomfortable in the past.

But at this moment, being hugged by her brother like this, she didn't feel disgusted at all. Instead, she felt warm and safe.

She smiled, hugged Brycen back, and said, "Well, I'm back."

Seeing her response, Brycen was immediately elated.

He finally hugged her sister, and he didn't want to let go!

Seeing this, Caitlyn next to him grabbed him by the back collar and said, "What are you doing? Mr. Anderson is watching from the side. Let go."

Brycen was pulled back and had to let go of his hand. He said with an angry face, "Well, don't you think it's a bit too much? My sister and I haven't seen each other for so long. What's wrong with us hugging for a while? Besides, Sean won't dare to say anything. I'm his future brother-in-law!"

Caitlyn ignored him, stepped forward to hug Molly, and said, "Oh, you're finally back! I missed you so much."

Molly smiled and patted her on the back, "Thank you for taking care of my family during this time. Is everything okay? N "You're welcome. Everything is fine! It's just that I occasionally wanted to kick someone's ass." Caitlyn squinted at Brycen next to her.

Brycen's eyes widened in disbelief and he said, "Damn, how could you have such a terrible thought? Indeed...as they say, all women are wicked!"

Speaking of this, he suddenly felt that the attack range was a bit wide, and added, "Except for my sister!"

Molly was amused. Brycen was still the same.

She shook her head, and then turned to look at Sawyer beside her, "Sawyer, are you okay?"

Compared to Brycen, Sawyer was much more reserved. He didn't come to hug his sister but just smiled at her gently, "I'm fine. I was just worried about you. But fortunately, you've returned safely."

Chapter 1236-Molly nodded, let go of Caitlyn, came over, and hugged him. "Sorry to have made you people so worried about me."

Sawyer froze but then said softly, "You don't have to apologize. Whatever you do, well support you. Go, go home. Grandpa is waiting at home!"

"Okay."

Molly nodded and let him go. Then she briefly introduced Mr. Ballard and those few people from the Grandset to the three people.

After that, these people left the airport and returned to Terahis Grove.

Now Grandpa Dave was walking to and fro in the yard at home.

So eager to see his dear granddaughter return, he looked out of the house from time to time.

Mr. Anderson Sr. was fiddling with the chessboard in the pavilion. Seeing that, he couldn't help but say, "Hey, Dave, is that necessary? The children have gone to the airport to pick them up. They'll be back in a while. You don't have to crane your neck to get a view, do you? Stop roaming around. Come play chess."

Grandpa Dave glared at him and said, "Sean will also be back today. He is at least your grandson. Don't you worry about him?"

"Why do I have to worry about him? When we were talking on the phone, he was fine, wasn't he? He could move around freely. He was not wounded," Mr.

Anderson Sr. said disapprovingly.

Grandpa Dave shouted, "So I say you don't care about them! Nowadays, young people just tell their elders the good news, but not the bad when they're away from home!

Especially my Molly. Every time something happens to her, she will face it alone because she is afraid I'll be worried!

“You’ve also read the world news reports. They say that many criminals appeared in Domster, and that some so- called killers and mercenaries even gathered there!

“Molly is a weak little girl, and Sean’s legs have just recovered. If they meet people like that, they won’t be able to deal with them... but you care about nothing. You’re still thinking about playing chess!”

Reproached, Mr. Anderson Sr. was inevitably a little embarrassed.”... yes, yes, yes, all you said is right. But they’re not back yet. There’s no need to worry. We might as well wait for them calmly. Besides... I don’t think my grandson can’t deal with those so-called killers.”

Grandpa Dave didn’t want to talk to him anymore.

In his eyes, Sean was just a regular businessman.

In the business sector, the man might be able to do everything he wanted. But when facing the danger of the kind in Domster, he might be no different from ordinary people!

He really didn’t know why this old ass could talk in such a tone!

Seeing that he didn’t believe him, Mr. Anderson Sr. was speechless.

Although he didn’t exactly know about his grandson’s forces abroad, he knew something.

The ordinary killers and mercenaries could never do anything to him...

Nowadays, some still didn’t believe in honest words!

While the two of them were arguing, the engines of cars were finally heard at the gate.

Soon Molly came in with the three kids.

Grandpa Dave went up excitedly and said, "Molly..."

"Grandpa, I'm back!"

Molly came up to help him with a deep smile.

Grandpa Dave took her hand and scrutinized her.

Only when he was sure she was safe and sound was his wrinkled face relaxed.

"Glad to see you back..."

Molly could sense her grandpa's mixed feelings. Her heart was warm, but she was guilty.

'Grandpa was so worried about me this time.

'He's already a man of great age. I really shouldn't have been so willful.' Molly immediately consoled the old man, "I won't leave anymore. Grandpa, I'll stay with you at home, okay?"

Chapter 1237-"Okay. Of course, okay!" Grandpa Dave answered with a smile.

While speaking, he noticed Sean, Chester, and Mr. Ballard.

"Molly, the two gentlemen are ...?"

Molly introduced solemnly, "Grandpa, this is Mr. Ballard, my teacher. He is from an ancient medical family with excellent medical skills. When I was in Domster, I happened to have saved him. He promised to teach me ancient medical techniques. When I came back this time, I brought him! As for this gentleman, his name is Chester Merrick. He is..."

Speaking of Chester, she paused and pondered how to introduce him properly.

Sean replaced her to introduce him, "He's my friend. He's here to attend my engagement ceremony with Molly."

"Oh, I see."

Grandpa Dave got it and immediately said, "Welcome."

Chester replied courteously, "Glad to meet you, sir."

Mr. Ballard was so outgoing. He held the old man's hands and shook them hard.

"You're Mr. May Sr., right? I'm Jordan Ballard. When I was in Domster, I had heard Molly speak about her grandpa many times. Good to finally meet you."

Let's get acquainted! Molly told me you like tea. To be honest, I also like tea very much. I'll stay here. I hope you don't mind."

"How could I?" Mr. May Sr. said amicably.

The two of them soon chatted like old friends, maybe because they were almost the same age and Mr. Ballard was talkative.

Seeing she was ignored, Molly said to Sean helplessly, "I was worried that he wouldn't get used to the new environment. Now it seems that my concern was misplaced. With this character, no matter where he goes, he will get food and drink."

Sean chuckled, "Your comment is accurate."

Molly also smiled but then looked back. "Where are Merak and her lot? It seems they didn't come, right?"

This time, the people of Stars Group had also come over. Only Blackrose had returned to the Grandset.

Sean said, "They've gone to the hotel. Chester and I will have something to discuss in a while. I'm going back to next door. You stay with our family and children at home. We will eat together a little late today."

Molly frowned and asked, "What to discuss? Did anything happen in the Grandset?"

Sean told her the truth in a low voice, "No. It's the follow-up matters in Domster.

The news media around the world have reported the incidents there these days.

The mercenaries and killers are already in the news. Since the Grandset is involved, we have to cool down the news reports. I have to talk to the government there."

"Got it." Molly nodded and said, "Then you go! Don't get too tired."

"Okay."

Sean nodded and bade goodbye to Mr. Anderson Sr. over there. Then he went next door with Chester.

As soon as he came in, Tony came to report, "Sir, the government of Domster hasn't exposed any news about the Grandset! The Martial Art Union hasn't been mentioned that much. But the news that the Shepard family and Madam went to rescue the people there has been hyped! Especially the Shepard family. Now the outsiders seem to view the family as the Savior."

Hearing the report, Sean turned on his phone to check the news.

In fact, only Selon, of the Shepard family, had contributed to the treatment.

The rest were all hands they hired!

Sean instantly narrowed his eyes and asked, "Jose has been sent back to the Shepard family, right?"

"Yes, he has!" Tony answered respectfully.

Sean snorted, "It seems the Shepard family has realized that I'll give them trouble when I get home, so they are hyping this to attract the public's attention.

Hah... good scheme!"

Chapter 1238-In the guestroom of the Shepards' house.

Selon's grandfather and father-Williams Sheperd and Anthony Sheperad, were also watching the news online.

Although many people praised the Shepard family as the Savior, the two men of the family didn't look happy at all.

Williams turned off the pad and said to Anthony, "Although you have temporarily pushed our family to the public's attention in this way, you can't keep us safe.

Sean is no ordinary person. This trick is just a children's game for him. He will weed our family out sooner or later.

"So, currently, the most important thing is to transfer our family properties and withdraw our family members! Only when we get to the territory of the Martial Art Union can we be sheltered."

Anthony nodded gravely and said, "I know. I've asked our men to do it! We'll leave the country as soon as possible."

Speaking of this, he seemed to have some concerns. "But Selon will be back soon. He knows nothing about this. How should I tell him about this then?"

"Do you have another way to tell? Of course, tell him everything in detail. Since he's the next family head, he naturally has the responsibility to shoulder all the burden of the family! He'll also have to face all what the family has done so far."

Williams said without second thoughts, "Besides, we haven't done anything bad to others. All this is for the sake of revitalizing ancient medical techniques!"

But Anthony was a little hesitant.

His son was upright. He wouldn't tolerate even the tiniest wrongdoing.

If he learned that in order to revitalize ancient medical techniques, his family assisted the Martial Art Union in developing the SRS, he would be so mad, presumably.

Seeming to know what he was thinking, Williams said severely, "We can make up stuff with our words. Can't you fool your own son?"

Of course, Anthony wouldn't admit he could not. He immediately said, "I got it."

Then he remembered something and asked, "How should we deal with Jose?"

Williams turned grave, looking at the man in bed.

It was Jose Shepard.

But he was worse than miserable now.

All his bones were broken, and he got severe nerve damage. He wouldn't be able to move in this life.

He could only spend the rest of his days in bed!

Even the medical techniques of the Shepard family couldn't save him!

Williams was clear that Sean did this to warn and threaten the Shepard family.

If someone dared to do something he shouldn't, then he would have to face such an unendurable fate!

Now it was Jose. Next time, it might be him or the other members of the Shepard family.

Williams exhaled deeply and said, "Take him somewhere else! Now he's a living corpse. He's useless to our family, and Sean won't have to do anything to him."

After that, he left the room without hesitation.

Anthony froze for a few moments, but didn't say anything. After glancing at Jose, he also turned and went out.

After hearing their talk, Jose, lying in bed, had a great shock in his eyes.

He was at least a collateral relative of the Shepard family. As these two's follower, he had been working hard these years.

He did everything in person and for the family. He was absolutely loyal.

But when his value was lost, he ended up like this, eh?

Jose was so sad!

If he had known this, he wouldn't have gone all out to kill Molly.

Then he wouldn't have ended up like this.

But it was too late to regret it!

He could only be a living corpse in this life, suffering an unendurable fate.

Chapter 1239-Because of this matter, the Shepard family was now in a sorry plight. But Sean and his men had worked out a series of solutions that targeted their current problem.

A few hours later, the popularity of praising the Shepard family was suppressed.

It was replaced by a new topic.

They have earned all the credit and honor. What is their intention#

After the two hot topics came up, numerous comments appeared on the internet.

"We can't deny the role of the Shepard family as the leader, but it's really disgusting to take all the credit!"

"Hidden families keep a low profile, don't they? Now the Shepard family keeps such a high profile I almost think it will immediately enter the earthly world."

“The Shepard family is indeed very important to Domster, especially the young master of the family-Selon Shepard. He went here and there to rescue people with his team, and he saved lots of lives. His action is really great, but I’m wondering why so many people attack him?”

“No one denies the credit of the Shepard family, but it’s a fact that they took all the credit! It is reported that the domestic government has sent rescue teams a few times and countless medical supplies. Why haven’t I heard the media praise it?”

“They all saved lives and did good deeds. Guys, don’t argue... N While people were fiercely arguing, the media of Domster released a long article titled “Domster’s Crisis For A Month.”

First, the article talked about the initial chaos in Domster and the details of the countries coming to the rescue.

Then, it focused on the slum crisis and the serious disruption of medical supplies at that time.

In the end, it mentioned that Anderson Corporation came to help under that severe condition. It transported large amounts of medical supplies from different channels to the area.

Because of that, the wounded finally had drugs.

Then they could persist until the supplies from different areas arrived!

All those who saw all this commented, “They are both families that did good deeds, but why didn’t the Anderson family say a word about it? But the Shepard family... Which one is better? It’s so clear!”

“Which one is better? It’s so clear! Anderson Corporation deserves its name!”

“The top rich family deserves its name. Anderson Corporation performs public services every year. Has it ever mentioned them?”

N It When it had been pushed to the spotlight's position, Anderson Corporation issued a public notice, asking everyone not to focus on the company.

Those who were worth admiring were all those medical volunteers.

The notice mentioned the number of rescue workers and medical supplies from the government.

Anderson Corporation's supplies were nothing, and the government's supplies were the most!

This statement successfully shifted everyone's attention.

And all the people began to praise the government!

In the evening, Alice and Ricky came over to see the son they hadn't seen for a long time and stayed to eat dinner.

Seeing the news, Ricky praised his son, "You did a good job in dealing with this.

In terms of the current situation, being too high profile is not good, and it's not necessary to enjoy such popularity."

Sean nodded.

He didn't expect that Domster would report this.

He never wished to mention all this Anderson Corporation had done.

The Shepard family's popularity had been suppressed, but such a result was unexpected.

But Brycen was a little dissatisfied.

“The Shepard family is really cheeky! My sister has also made a great contribution with the medical team! But the information online just mentioned a little of that. So shameless!”

Chapter 1240-In the afternoon, Mr. Ballard got familiar with Grandpa Dave through chatting and told him about a few things Molly had done in Domster.

The May family were frightened and proud to hear them.

Now, when they found that the news they were watching didn't mention her at all, they naturally began to complain.

Hearing these words, Molly immediately patted Brycen and said, “Don't complain unreasonably. What I did is not great credit at all. Others have also made contributions!

Especially those medical volunteers. Everyone suffered a lot! So don't say that again.

“And it's good I was not mentioned! Being too popular is easy to make me a target, okay?”

She still remembered the cyber violence she had gone through before going abroad. Now she didn't want to be the center of attention anymore.

Grandpa Dave thought his granddaughter's words were reasonable. He patted Brycen's head and said, I know you love your sister, but don't be so partial on such things. Look at Sean. He hasn't said a word about Molly's matter. His awareness of protecting her is much stronger than yours.”

Brycen was not convinced.

‘His awareness of protecting my sister is much stronger than mine?’

‘Mine is also very strong, okay?’ Before he could let that out, Sawyer, sitting beside him, pulled his clothes and said, “Brother, don't compare. You won't win!”

Brycen looked indignant.

‘Why do you also defend Sean?’ Seeing Brycen’s expression, everyone laughed.

Alice looked gentle and graceful. She took Molly’s hand and said, “Molly, you suffered this time. You’ve just been away for a month, but you’ve become so thin. No doubt, you haven’t eaten enough food or had a good sleep. But fortunately, you guys are all back safe and sound.”

“Yeah! And Sean’s legs have fully recovered. This is all your credit.”

Ricky echoed.

When it came to this, he said to Molly solemnly, “As Sean’s father, I should say ‘thank you’ to you. In the past, we were often worried about his legs. We didn’t expect him to stand up someday.”

“Yeah!”

Alice’s eyes turned a little red.

Remembering what she had done to Molly, she was so guilty of herself.

“Thank you very much, Molly.”

Molly said with a helpless smile, “Please, don’t mention it. We’ll be a family, and I’m glad to help, really.”

The three kids echoed, “Yes, right, grandpa, grandma. We’re family. There’s no need to stand on the ceremony!”

“Yes, you are right. We’ll be a family.”

Alice sniffed but then smiled, “Since you guys are back, I guess you don’t have other plans, right? We’ve almost finished the preparation for your engagement ceremony. In the days to come, you should focus on this!

“Especially costumes, rings, and things like that. You’ll have to try them yourselves!”

When this was brought up, the three kids became so excited. “Daddy, mommy, we also helped design your engagement venue!”

“And also me.”

Brycen also raised his hands, reminding the couple of his credit.

“I’ve been there, too. The venue is grand. It shows how much the Anderson family cares about you young couple. I think Molly will also like it,” Grandpa Dave smiled.

Alice was happy to hear that.

She had managed her son’s engagement ceremony preparation in person. With her work approved, of course, she was satisfied.
