

Triplets On SM 1281

Chapter 1281-After Sean finished talking to the kids, Molly went over and said to the phone, "Try your best, babies! You're the best! When I get back, I'll cook your favorite food."

"Okay! Mommy, you guys try your best, too." The kids responded.

Molly was puzzled. "Why do we need to try our best?"

Alex answered seriously, "You guys have to try your best to have more babies.

Daddy asked us if we wanted to have siblings and he asked us to behave ourselves."

"Yes. Daddy probably wants to have more time alone with you." Ben and Claudia added.

After that, before Molly could say anything, Alex said, "We're going to take a bath. Bye, Mommy and Daddy." Abruptly, the phone was hung up.

Sean was speechless.

Molly froze on the hung-up phone.

After a moment, she turned to Sean with narrowed eyes and asked, "What did they just mean?"

Sean gave a calm look and responded, "Like they said, they want us to spend more time alone together and have more babies. These kids are so considerate."

"Come on!" Molly was amused, "You think I'm stupid? They said you told them that." Molly was smart. She immediately understood what was going on. "That's why you let Chester take care of them while you stay here with me. Right?"

Sean frowned. He wanted to deny it.

But what Molly had said about him was true.

He hadn't expected the kids to give him away so quickly.

Finally, he sighed, "When I see them, I'll have to teach them what a deal means!"

Molly bantered, "How can you blame the kids? You're here having fun, while the kids are working so hard. You can't blame them for giving you away. You need to think about it, Mr. Anderson."

Sean pulled Molly into his arms and whispered in her ear, "Am I the only one having fun here?"

Molly immediately blushed. She tried to push him away and claimed, "I'm going back to Terahis Grove. Then she tried to get out of Sean's arms. But how could Sean allow it?"

He immediately wrapped his arm around her waist more tightly and carried her up.

"What are you doing?" Molly yelled. She subconsciously wrapped her arms around his neck.

She felt embarrassed and annoyed. She glanced around the hall and complained, "There are so many people here."

Tony and the security guards immediately lowered their heads and pretended not to notice them.

Sean headed upstairs and asked, "Is there anyone around?"

Molly's face was burning. "We just finished dinner!"

Sean replied seriously, "Good. We can work out..."

Soon, Sean brought Molly to the bedroom.

After entering into the room, Sean kicked the door shut.

Molly was stunned and she argued, "We... We haven't showered."

Sean paused in his tracks. He thought Molly was right.

But they'd just finished dinner, and he didn't feel like taking a shower right now.

He furrowed his eyebrows and gave a frustrated look. 'I'm missing such a great opportunity.' After a few moments of thought, Sean took Molly to the couch and said, "Okay.

I'm going to take care of some paperwork and you're going to stay with me."

Then he pulled Molly to sit on his lap and put an arm around her waist as if he was afraid she would leave.

Chapter 1282-her and replied, "Absolutely! It's for our own happiness."

When he said this, a hint of erotic desire was in his tone.

Molly immediately blushed again.

She wondered why Sean had become so needy after their first lovemaking.

'Is it because he waited too long?' While Sean was working on the papers, Molly got bored, so she leaned into his arms and scrolled through her phone.

Just then, Brycen was sending messages to their family chat group.

Brycen Who Loves Molly The Most: [What's Sean's plan? They haven't shown up since he took Molly away yesterday! He's not taking Molly to elope, is he?] Nathan: [?] S. May: [You are over concerned! Only couples who are not blessed by their families need to elope. Molly and Sean are getting engaged in two days. Why are they eloping?"]

Brycen Who Loves Molly The Most: [Why aren't they back yet? What's taking them so long? Even if they want to relax, they don't need to leave home for two days, right? And what could be stressing Molly out?"]

S. May: [Uh... I'm guessing they're not stressed. When I walked by the kids' room earlier, I heard them talking about having more babies.] Nathan: [?] Brycen Who Loves Molly The Most: [?] Alex Who Loves Mommy The Most: [...] Ben Who Loves Mommy The Most: [...] Claudia Who Loves Mommy The Most: [...] Brycen was pissed off: [...] I told you Sean is not a good guy!

@JoyeLoveMyBabes Molly, come home! Stay away from Sean.] Molly was amused and she showed her phone to Sean." Brycen says you're not a good guy."

Sean glanced at the phone indifferently.

After he read the chat, he gave a sneer. He put down the papers and took the phone.

Molly thought Sean would reply to something in the chat group.

However, Sean calmly turned on the phone camera and suddenly clutched Molly's head closer...

Molly was unprepared and she accidentally kissed Sean on the lips.

Click— The camera caught a shot of the two kissing.

Sean looked at the photo.

It was a random shot, but with their pretty faces and the lighting, it looked romantic and nice.

Sean was happy. He posted the photo to the chat group and added: [When did I say I was a good guy?]
Sean was clearly challenging Brycen.

Molly felt so ashamed.

Although everyone knew they were a couple, they had never done anything intimate in front of others.

And it was the first time their kissing picture was posted.

She immediately slapped Sean on the chest and complained, "My grandpa and kids can see the picture."

Sean replied absent-mindedly, "Grandpa will understand. As for our kids, they should be happy to see their Mommy and Daddy kissing."

Molly was choked.

Although Sean had a point, she felt so ashamed.

When Brycen saw the photo, he fumed: [Sean, are you crazy? Even though you're the CEO of the Anderson Group, don't you think you can do whatever you want!"]

Sean ignored him.

His deep eyes looked into Molly's eyes and he whispered, "Brycen is right. I can't do whatever I want, but I can do whatever I want to my wife! Right?"

Just as Molly tried to retort to him, he kissed her on the lips.

Chapter 1283-The kiss was different from last night's. Sean was extremely tender, as if he was treating her as a fragile treasure.

Molly tried to resist, but she was intoxicated by his tenderness.

By the time she realized it, Sean had taken her to the bathroom.

Water drizzled over their bodies.

Molly winced and she came back to her senses. She looked at Sean.

His hair was drenched. His shirt was wet and clinging to his body, showing off his muscles. He looked at her with passionate eyes, and a wave of desire welled up under his eyes.

"What..."

Molly tensed and shivered.

Sean propped one of his arms against the wall and unbuttoned his shirt with his other hand. In a lowered voice, he said, "We shower together. And then well...."

Molly's heart thumped. She wanted to say something, but just then Sean kissed her on the lips.

The water in the shower turned warm. And she felt a burning heat inside her.

Gradually, the steam rose in the bathroom and it became warm.

That night, Molly was exhausted. She fell asleep without moving her limbs.

When she woke up the next day at noon, she wanted to go back to Terahis Grove without lunch.

She guessed that if she stayed here, Sean would exhaust her again.

Sean stopped her and coaxed, "I'll take you back after lunch. My mom called this morning and asked us to go back. I guess they want to talk to us about something."

Molly was skeptical, "You're not lying to me?"

"No, why don't you believe me?" Sean said with a frustrated look.

Molly snorted, "You should know that."

Although Molly said that, she was in no hurry to go back any more.

After lunch, Sean would drive her back.

When they got to Terahis Grove, both the two families were there.

Sean let go of Molly's hand and turned to his mother. "Mom, why did you ask us back? What's so urgent?"

"What's so urgent?" Alice lashed out, "What did you do? You two got married without telling us. You haven't had your engagement ceremony.

All my dedication last month has been in vain. You've gone too far!"

Sean froze. He was surprised his parents would learn about it.

Molly felt guilty, too.

She glanced quietly at her family.

Her family looked fine, but Sean's family all looked angry, especially Sean's grandfather.

Sean calmly explained, "It's my fault. I couldn't wait."

"Of course, it's your fault! Molly wouldn't be so inconsiderate.

Alice glared at Sean, and then she turned to Molly. "Molly, you shouldn't listen to Sean! If you listen to him on everything now, he'll be spoiled."

Alice obviously didn't blame Molly, so Molly responded, "Yes, you're right. I shouldn't have listened to Sean."

Sean raised an eyebrow. He was amused.

'Since when did she learn to pass the buck?' But instead of arguing, Sean said, "Even though we're married, I'll give Molly a perfect engagement ceremony and wedding. Your efforts will not be in vain."

Chapter 1284-know the rules.

"I'll have the wedding date reselected and do my best to advance it."

Although two old men often quarreled with each other, Mr. Anderson Sr. didn't joke about serious things.

Dave saw his sincerity.

His granddaughter got her marriage certificate without telling him.

But he didn't blame Sean.

"There is no need to be so serious. I know my granddaughter. No one can force her to do anything. Since she voluntarily got her marriage certificate with Sean, it means that she wants to spend the rest of her life with him.

"Besides, they're both grownups, and we're a family before this."

"Makes sense."

Ricky echoed his words.

They let it pass.

Soon, these elders started to discuss the details of the engagement party.

Molly overheard it and learned that except for showing up, Sean and she didn't have to worry about anything.

Unable to cut in, she chose to talk to Caitlyn.

Caitlyn teased her, "Wow, you two are fast!"

"I didn't want to miss him," Molly reasoned.

"That's not what you said just now."

Caitlyn laughed and then put on a serious face. "Did you read the news today?"

Those going to Domster with you all came back, Lynn and Eaton included. I saw it on Lynn's tweet."

"Really? So soon?"

Molly was surprised.

She got up too late today to read the news.

"It's good they're back! Domster is in chaos, and I have been worried about Lynn."

Caitlyn nodded and added, "They'll land in Northfolk, and Jadon is coming back from abroad to attend the engagement ceremony too. He'll arrive tonight."

"Hmm, it looks like I'll have work to do."

Molly exclaimed and added, "Entertain our teacher and others with me tonight."

"Sure."

Caitlyn had no problem with it.

While they were chatting, Molly thought of Selon.

It had been a while since they met.

Now they were incompatible with the Shepard family. She didn't know what it would be like when they met again.

She didn't want to become Selon's enemy.

After all, he had helped her and saved her life.

At that, she went to see Sean and asked about the situation with the Shepard family.

Sean didn't hide anything from her.

"I kept them in the country, but there is something you should psych up for."

"What is it?"

Molly blurted out.

The Shepard family has a deep connection with the Martial Art Union, while Selon is the heir of the Shepard family. If he chose to side with the union, he would be our enemy.

Because he saved your life, I promised you not to hurt him, but it doesn't mean he won't hurt us. If that happens, I will not hold back," Sean said.

Chapter 1285-Molly didn't say anything after hearing these words.

She understood that some things would not go as she wished.

If Selon really chose that path in the future, it would mean that they could no longer be friends.

She nodded her head and answered in a muffled voice, "Got it."

When Sean saw her like this, he raised his hand to pinch her cheek and said with a smile, "Is it proper to show this expression because of another man in front of me?"

Molly was stunned. She looked up at him and responded, "So are you jealous?"

"Should I not be jealous?"

Sean raised his eyebrows and pinched her cheek even harder.

However, it didn't hurt.

Molly pretended to be in pain and exclaimed, "Grandpa, Sean is bullying me.

Look, he is laying his fingers on me."

Hearing this, the few people over there looked at them.

Sean didn't have time to retract his hand, so he was caught in the act.

"You brat, what are you doing?"

Mr. Anderson Sr. immediately asked.

Alice looked nervous. "What's going on? Why are you bullying Molly?"

Grandpa Dave was calm, looking at the two without saying anything.

Sean was amused, and he did not let go of Molly. Instead, he lightly replied to the elders, "We're just flirting, but I will do something else to her soon."

After saying that, before the rest of the people could react, Sean picked Molly up and went outside.

Molly was so embarrassed that she hurriedly struggled. "Put me down."

Sean carried her steadily, and he even said meaningfully, "Let's talk..."

After that, they disappeared outside the door.

Downstairs, the several elders finally returned to their senses.

"Ahem..."

Mr. Anderson Sr. awkwardly cleared his throat and said, "Then let's... continue the discussion."

Mr. May Sr. coughed quietly and responded, "OK."

Mr. Ballard, who was holding his teacup, muttered with a smile, "I guess you'll have more great-grandchildren in less than a year, right?"

The three Anderson family members were speechless.

It seemed that flirting was not bad.

After Molly was carried to the next house, she was taken to Sean's room, pinned to the door, and punished with a kiss.

Only when she was out of breath did he let go of her.

Molly panted and warned him, "If you do anything right now, I'm not going to talk to you."

It would be okay if it were at night. She was too shy to do that in the daytime.

Sean wanted to make love to her right now, but considering her shyness, he didn't do so.

He nibbled on her lips and said, "I'll listen to you. Let's do it at night."

Molly blushed.

She thought, 'What does he mean by this?

'We won't sleep together at night.' Seemingly guessing what she was thinking, Sean released her and said, "We're married. Pack up all your things and bring them over later. I have no intention of separating from my wife."

Molly wanted to retort, but she felt his words made sense.

Now that her family knew it, there was no need for separation.

It was then that she noticed that the arrangement of the house seemed to have changed.

In the past, Sean's room was dominated by cold colors, so it didn't look cozy.

But this time, the curtains and covers had been changed. Beige and light blue were added to the room, so it was not so cold or serious. On the contrary, it was a little gentler.

"Why did you suddenly change your room style?" Molly took a look around, feeling quite satisfied.

Chapter 1286-Sean replied, "I thought you might not like the previous style. Although we will live in the new house after the wedding, we should also come back to live here frequently. So I simply let people redecorate it."

Then she paused, “But I may not have time to tidy up later. Professor will arrive in Northfolk in the evening, and I need to go to receive him.”

Sean asked, “Is it Mr. Scott?”

Molly nodded, “Yes. And Eaton and others are also returning together by the way.”

“That’s okay. Let the maids help you sort the room out. You just need to come and live here directly.”

Sean didn’t take it seriously, and then his eyes were quite meaningful, “I’ll go with you tonight. After all, Mr. Scott is your mentor, so I should also go to receive him.”

Molly naturally would not refuse.

She already had this idea!

“OK. I also just wanted to tell you that. Mr. Scott helped me a lot when I was abroad. He also gave me lots of advice and guidance academically. It’s not too much to say that he is my saviour. So I also want to formally introduce you to him.”

Sean was in a happy mood after hearing this.

This feeling of being valued by his beloved made him feel satisfied.

He asked at once, “What does Mr. Scott like? I need to bring him some gifts for it’s the first time we meet formally.”

“Tea. Like grandpa, he likes tea very much.”

Molly answered without any hesitation.

Sean got it. He immediately took her hand and said, "There is nothing more than tea in our house, and all of it is rare and precious. Let's go and choose some."

Molly couldn't help but smile, "Mm-hm, Mr. Anderson, you are so generous."

They two talked and went to the collection room.

At seven o'clock in the evening, Molly changed into a simple and decent dress and went out with Sean and Caitlyn.

The place was a well-known restaurant in Northfolk.

The restaurant was decorated in an antique and quaint style, and the interior was also built with reference to ancient buildings, just like a palace.

The restaurant was full of luxurious and elegant boxes, and the dishes were all at the royal banquet level.

The Molly party arrived first. Soon the Jadon party also arrived.

Jadon was accompanied by Eaton, Kara, and Lynn tonight.

The four entered the box in turn. Molly immediately stood up, "Hello, Mr. Scott.

Long time no see."

She greeted Jadon happily.

Jadon had a literati temperament. Although he was got on in years, he was quite youthful-looking because of his good maintenance.

As soon as he saw Molly, joy appeared on his face, "Long time no see, Molly."

Molly gave him an embrace and put down her arms quickly.

At this time, Lynn came forward and hugged Molly, "Molly, I finally see you again! I'm glad you are all right. I was really worried about you."

While she was in Domster, she was worried about Molly for a long time because of Molly's sudden disappearance.

Later, when she heard that Molly seemed to have met some danger, she was even more worried, fearing that something happened to Molly.

She was still a bit on edge till she saw Molly with her own eyes now.

Molly was warmed by her sincere concern. She patted Lynn with a smile, "I am fine. It's okay. It's all over now.

Fortunately, you guys also came back safely..."

Speaking of this, she looked at Eaton and Kara next to her.

Kara was still a cold face with an expression that someone owed her a fortune.

Eaton was bland and gentle, "Molly, I'm relieved to see that you're fine. I was thinking about going to look for you when I was in Domster, but then I got caught up in various things and couldn't get away. Thankfully, you finally returned home safely!"

Chapter 1287-ed down.

Then, Jadon looked at Sean and smiled, "Glad to officially see you, Sean."

"It's my honor. Nice to meet you, Mr. Scott."

Sean held the chair out for Molly and helped her sit. "Mr. Scott, I'm really thank you for going out of your way to attend my engagement with Molly."

"It's no trouble at all. And it's my pleasure. Molly and I scarcely ever meet. How could I miss my student's engagement?" Jadon laughed.

Jadon was quite a chatty person. And Sean, as a man of great knowledge, covered a wide range of subjects, including medical science.

Later, they were deep in conversation.

Sean was thoughtful. He took care of Molly, though he was absorbed in the conversation.

Jadon was quite critical, but Sean happened to hit his fancy.

'This guy is excellent indeed. He deserves his fame!

'No wonder he can capture my best student's heart.' "You're really something, Mr. Anderson. What a professional opinion you have! I almost thought you were a medical expert!"

Lynn praised as she ate.

Actually, she already regarded him as Molly's husband.

Sean smiled and touched Molly's head, "Probably because I spent so much time with Dr. May."

Molly looked at Sean and smiled, her eyes crinkling.

Everyone saw their saccharine moves.

When Eaton saw this, a surge of hatred flowed through his blood.

Instead of showing it, he tried to be urbane, "Rumour has it that Mr. Anderson is a genius. If you were in the medical profession, you'd be great too."

Then his tone shifted, "Unfortunately, you're not. As the saying goes, the difference in the profession makes one feel worlds apart. Mr. Anderson's opinion is actually far from professional."

Suddenly, there was some serious tension in the air.

Everyone understood Eaton's implicature.

Lynn and Caitlyn were astonished.

And surprise registered on their face.

They didn't understand why the normally mild-mannered Eaton could be so aggressive!

Kara, on the contrary, was not surprised at that. And a faint sneer hung on the lips.

'Humph, this guy used to pretend. But now, he even did not bother to disguise himself!' Jadon's forehead was bunched in a frown. He looked at Eaton and reprimanded, "Don't be vulgar, Eaton!"

Sean, however, didn't give it a second thought. "Mr. Scott's right. I'm not a medical expert. I learned all this to understand Molly's work better, and I didn't plan to be an expert. Besides, one expert is enough for our family. And it's not easy to urge Molly to take a rest. If I am engaged in this industry, it may be difficult for me to take care of her health." Sean replied flatly.

Molly was annoyed at what Eaton said, and her eyebrows knitted together in a little frown.

But Sean's words finally stemmed the tide of her anger.

Chapter 1288-Molly's eyes lit up. Then she turned to look at Sean and felt a warmth and a sweetness almost flowing out of her heart.

Lynn hurriedly said, "What Sean said is right. Molly, every time you enter the research laboratory, we all feel that you will live there for a long time, so you really need someone to keep an eye on you."

"Now she is not as bad as before. Only Sean can persuade her." Caitlyn wisecracked.

Sean smiled, "After all, she has a family. Molly cares about our family very much, and she probably doesn't want me to worry about her."

"Wow, you two are too sweet. I still don't have a boyfriend. Please care a little about my fragile heart." Lynn could no longer bear their intimate words.

The atmosphere was relieved a lot.

Molly took the opportunity to say, "After I started studying medicine, I finally knew how hard it was. I don't want my lover to be so tired. Besides, it's okay that he doesn't know how to cure diseases. He is the best in other fields, and that's enough!"

When she spoke, she looked at Sean with deep feelings in her eyes.

Sean also smiled at her gently.

Seeing this sweet scene, Lynn made a face as if she had a toothache.

Having seen similar scenes many times, Caitlyn was no longer surprised.

Jadon said with a light smile, "I can see that you really care about Joye. It's not easy for her to say that, so she must trust you very much. Anyway, I hope that you two can live together happily all your life."

"Thank you. We will." Molly responded with a smile.

When Eaton saw this scene, he still showed a calm face, but in fact, he had a lot of emotions in his heart. There was even hostility that kept growing in his heart.

The sweeter Molly and Sean were, the more Eaton wanted to destroy their family!

After a while, they were almost full.

Molly got up and went to the bathroom.

When she came out, she saw Eaton.

He seemed to be waiting for her. When he saw her, he said gently, "Molly, shall we talk?"

Molly wanted to ask him why he said that tonight, so she nodded, "Okay."

The two of them quickly walked to the corridor.

Molly came straight to the point and asked, "Eaton, why did you talk to Sean like that? You seem hostile to him? He hasn't offended you, has he?"

Eaton did not expect that she would speak for Sean, so a touch of coldness flashed in his eyes.

“I just told the truth! Does it make you feel bad?” Eaton’s face didn’t change, and his tone also didn’t show his feelings.

Molly’s face was cold, “I do feel bad! Sean is not a medical professional. Even if he talks to Mr. Scott, he just says some simple medical knowledge, and most of the time, it’s the teacher who is talking and he just listens. But you attack him with professional knowledge, and I don’t understand your behavior!”

When Eaton heard that every word she said was to speak for Sean, he felt unspeakably irritable.

“You can think that I don’t like him.”

Molly frowned, and soon her face sank.

When she was about to say something, Eaton said first.” Forget about this. I want to ask you, do you really decide to get engaged to Sean? I know something about what happened in Domster. I heard that you were in danger in Domster because of the Shepard family, and I know that the Shepard family has a feud with Sean. You should know about the chaos in Domster, right? Sean is actually involved with those messy forces. He is a dangerous person.”

Chapter 1289-Hearing it, Molly became startled.

Then she frowned and uttered, “Does Sean have anything to do with that matter? It is not he who caused the upheaval in Domster.”

Eaton’s face hardened. “You should be very clear whether he caused the upheaval. Don’t put in a good word for him.”

Molly kept detached. “I don’t say it for him. The upheaval has nothing to do with him in the first place!”

She furrowed her eyebrows tighter. “That’s why you target Sean?”

Eaton replied seriously, "Yes! Shouldn't I target him? I'm worrying about you."

"Don't bother, Eaton. I know what kind of person Sean is. I also know whether he is a dangerous person. He and I have been engaged, and nothing will change it. He is my one and only in my life," Molly said firmly, staring at Eaton. ' Don't say these words to me in the future. I don't want others to defame him."

When Eaton heard it, his face turned dark. He almost couldn't suppress his wrath and was about to fly into a temper.

He tried very hard to narrowly hold back his wrath. "You... Do you trust him that much?"

"Certainly!" Molly answered firmly without the slightest hesitation. "He is the man I want to be with for the rest of my life. If I don't trust him, who can I trust?"

Eaton clenched his fists, a cold expression flickering across his face.

He lowered his eyes and asked, "How about me? Am I not worth your trust?"

We've known each other for so long." When Eaton said it, he took a deep breath.

When he looked up later, he put on a resigned expression." I'm really worried about you."

Molly didn't notice the change in his mood, and she just responded, "I know you're worried about me. But this matter has nothing to do with Sean. Besides, even if something unexpected happens, I still believe that he can protect me well."

The next second, she looked away and added, "Go back. Don't let them wait for us for long."

Then she turned around and left the stairwell without awaiting Eaton's answer.

The moment she walked out, she saw Sean, who was leaning against the wall and waiting for her.

At the sight of him, she was taken aback. "Why are you here? If Sean explained with a smile, "When I went to the washroom, I saw you walk here, so I wait for you to go back together."

"Well..." Molly nodded and then felt slightly embarrassed. "Did you hear me talk with Eaton just now?"

"Yes. I heard you say that I'm your one and only in your life and that you also believe I can protect you well."

Sean said in a very gentle tone and walked to take her hand.

Eaton stepped out several minutes later and happened to see Molly and Sean.

He narrowed his eyes, looking expressionless. "I didn't expect you to like eavesdropping."

Sean looked up and met Eaton's eyes with a cold expression. "I didn't expect that you would like defaming me in front of my fiancée. Though you spent much effort, it seems that you failed to achieve your aim, right?"

Eaton gave a snort. "I just hope Molly can be happy."

"Don't need to worry. She is happy with me!" Sean loosened his hold on Molly's hand and encircled her waist.

As he put his arm around Molly's waist, Molly subconsciously leaned toward him.

The two of them looked very close.

Noticing Sean's arm, Eaton got cross, and his expression became angry.

Chapter 1290-Sean raised his eyebrows. The air around him was intimidating.

There seemed to be a storm forming between Sean and Eaton.

Thankfully, Molly spoke, "Eaton, we're fine, really! Thank you for your concern!

Your dad is waiting for you. Don't keep him waiting."

Eaton came back to his senses and stopped staring at Sean. He nodded slightly.

Then he walked away and went back to their room.

Sean stood still and narrowed his eyes with a dangerous scowl.

Seeing the look on his face, Molly gently asked, "Are you angry?"

She then leaned into his arms and said soothingly, "Don't take Eaton's words seriously. You're perfect for me."

Sean smiled, "No, I didn't take his words seriously. Don't worry. I know you were defending me. Why should I be angry?"

Although Sean could clearly see that Eaton was interested in Molly, he didn't feel threatened.

However, he was surprised that Eaton knew so much about what was going on in Domster!

Domster had never officially reported anything about the Martial Art Union or the Grandset. They were always mentioned as killers, mercenaries, outlaws, and the like. And no one knew Sean was the master of Grandset. Words wouldn't go out unless the Martial Art Union spread them around...

But Sean had never heard of anything since they came back from Domster.

‘How did Eaton know about it?

‘ Does he have any connection to the Martial Art Union?’ Just then, Molly looked up at Sean and asked, How did Eaton know you have connections with the people who started the riot in Domster?”

Sean froze. He looked down at Molly in his arms. “Why do you ask?”

Molly frowned. She glanced around. Seeing no one was around, she whispered, “The Shepard family wanted to kill me, but they carried out their plan in secret.

Selon also wouldn’t tell other people he had helped me. So how could Eaton know I was in danger?

“Eaton also said you had something to do with the riot in Domster and that you had connections with a lot of gangs...

“No one knew you went to Domster to look for me, except our own people.

How did he know you were in Domster... That’s weird!”

Sean was impressed by Molly’s intelligence.

‘It’s really weird! Looks like I need to investigate Eaton.’ Sean gently patted Molly’s head and responded, “I’m not sure about that at the moment, but Eaton is suspicious.” “Does he have anything to do with the Martial Art Union?” Molly’s face became grave. Some disturbing association flashed through her mind.

She continued, “If I remember correctly, Mr. Scott’s family is also one of the ancient medical families. The Shepard family and the Martial Art Union have such a close relationship. Maybe the Scott family...”

Suddenly, she paused, "But Mr. Scott has long since broken away from his family, and Eaton shouldn't have any connection with the Scott family."

This was something Sean didn't know.

'If Eaton still has interactions with the Scott family, then perhaps the Scott family is also connected to the Martial Art Union as the Shepard family is.

'But it's not for sure. I need to have someone investigate about it.' Sean gathered his thoughts and said, 'It's not certain. Maybe Eaton has his own connections. Don't worry about it. I'll look into it. I'll let you know when I have something. Let's go back. Don't keep the guests waiting.'
