

Triplets On SM 1291

Chapter 1291-ected her emotions, and went back to the box with Sean.

Others had almost finished their dinner by now. When they saw them coming back, they were ready to leave. Sean specially arranged several cars to take them home.

“Mr. Scott, take a good rest tonight. You must be very tired after such a long flight. Sean has already told them that if you need anything at the hotel, just ask the manager there.” Molly stood on the road and said very intimately.

Jadon smiled and said, “Thank you. See you at the engagement banquet!”

Molly nodded, waved to Jadon, and watched him get into the car. Eaton was standing beside her. He said goodbye to Molly and followed his father into the car.

Then Kara and Lynn got into another car and went to the hotel where they were staying.

On the way there, Jadon took the time to talk to Eaton, “What you did in the box tonight is wrong.”

His voice was a little harsh.

But Eaton didn’t take it seriously, “I don’t think there’s anything wrong with it.”

Jadon frowned and looked at him seriously, “When you spoke to Sean, you were impolite. You were targeting him. But Eaton, you have already lost! In the past few years, you have had many opportunities to express your feelings to Molly, but you missed them.

“Molly is getting engaged to another man. Even if you still have feelings for her, you should drop the idea. This is the least a man can do!” “I didn’t take action in the past because I thought that there was no one more suitable for Molly than me. Even now, I don’t think I’ve lost. That guy Sean is not a good match for her!”

Eaton was full of conceit, and he looked even a little arrogant.

Jadon frowned even deeper.

Looking at his son, Jadon suddenly found him very strange.

Jadon couldn't help but become more serious, "Eaton, as they say, nothing forcibly done is going to be agreeable. No matter what you think, this matter should end here. Besides, it doesn't matter whether you think Sean is a good match or not. What Molly thinks of him is most important. I hope you won't disappoint me." "Dad, I know what you mean." Eaton smiled gently, "Don't worry.

I won't mess around or do anything against Molly's wishes."

At best, I want her to choose me willingly! Eaton said to himself.

It was just that a strong sense of possessiveness almost overwhelmed him.

Jadon thought he had persuaded Eaton, and he finally breathed a sigh of relief.

At the same time, Molly and Sean returned home.

As soon as they entered the door, they saw Brycen's angry face.

"What's wrong? Why are you looking so angry? Who provoked you?" Molly asked with a confused face.

Brycen was full of anger, and glared at Sean, "Who else could it be? This guy sent some men to come to the house this afternoon, took away all your things, and said that you... were going to live together."

Molly was taken aback for a moment, feeling somehow embarrassed.

But she looked calm and said, "Isn't it normal for us to live together? We're getting married. Are we still going to live apart? What kind of husband and wife would that be?"

Sean was about to say something. But when he heard Molly's words, he immediately shut up.

He looked at Brycen with interest. Brycen was pissed off!

His sister was such a beautiful and gentle girl with excellent medical skills. She was perfect. The whole family loved Molly, but she was going to be taken away by Sean soon!

Chapter 1292-you accepted the reality?"

Before Brycen answered, the three children beside him interrupted, "Mr. Ballard, you don't understand. Uncle Brycen is annoyed probably because he has taken care of Mommy for so long and she's suddenly going to be taken away by Daddy. Of course, he's angry." "Yes, Mommy is going to be taken away by Daddy!" "Uncle Brycen is an over-protective brother!"

Three children said one after another. Hearing their childish voices, others immediately laughed.

Mr. Ballard couldn't help laughing, "He's indeed quite protective. Brycen puts on such a show every day. Those who don't know might think that his girlfriend has been taken away by Sean." "Brycen has always been like this. He always makes a fuss. Just get used to it." Grandpa Dave was also amused. He ignored Brycen, looked at Molly, and said, "Don't listen to Brycen. Since you've decided, then go there and live with Sean. After all, it's just next door, and it's not far. It's no different than at home."

Molly laughed and nodded, "Yes! Grandpa, you're right."

Brycen almost froze in place. It seemed he was the only one who couldn't bear to part with Molly.

"I'm disappointed in you!" He was heartbroken, but had to accept the reality!

Later, Molly and Sean went back to the next door to rest. Before leaving, they took three children with them. After all, with the children, it was a complete family of five.

After taking a bath, the three children huddled on Daddy and Mommy's bed, feeling excited and dreamy, "Since we first came back from abroad, we've always hoped that Daddy and Mommy could be together so that our whole family could be reunited sooner. Now it's coming true at last!" "I can't believe it's true. Alex, pinch me, and I'll see if I'm dreaming." Ben blinked, still in disbelief.

Alex raised his hand and pinched Ben's cheek. It was not very hard, but enough for Ben to feel the pain.

"How is it? Does it hurt?" Alex asked coolly.

Ben let out an exaggerated howl, "It hurts. It's true." "In the future, our family will not have to be separated anymore. It's so great." Claudia gently rubbed against Molly's arms and said in a sweet and soft tone.

When Molly saw her like this, her heart almost melted, and she couldn't help but look at Sean from the other side.

Sean looked at Molly with gentle eyes. He rubbed the heads of the three children, and said in a calm and firm tone, "Yes, we will never be separated again in the future! Go to sleep." "Well, good night, Mommy, and Daddy." The three children obediently agreed and came over to kiss them good night.

Then they fell asleep next to each other.

With such sweet company, Molly soon fell into a deep sleep, and the process was very peaceful.

Two days passed like this.

The engagement banquet finally arrived as scheduled. In the morning, luxury cars gathered at the five-star hotel owned by the Anderson Corporation.

The guests were from all walks of life in the upper class. They were either rich or powerful!

Alice and Ricky, dressed in very formal attire, were in charge of receiving guests.

Mr. Anderson Sr. was also present. He was an elderly man with a distinguished status, but he practiced his etiquette to the extreme.

It could be seen that the entire Anderson family attached great importance to this engagement banquet!

Chapter 1293-In the banquet hall, many young ladies were discussing, "Mr. Anderson's fiancée is so lucky. It's said that the Anderson family has spent a lot of effort to arrange the engagement banquet just to please her. Mrs.

Anderson personally supervised the work." "I heard that Mr. Anderson was also involved in the design! Can you imagine it? He's rumored to be cold and unreasonable. I can't believe he's so sweet." "Mr. Anderson's fiancée is such a lucky girl, isn't she?" "Indeed. But she is a well-known doctor herself! The lives she's saved and the charity she's done have benefited many people." "I heard from Mrs. Anderson that her future daughter-in-law's name is Joye and she's the genius doctor who caused a sensation a while ago! She sounded so proud!"

"That's right. She's excellent, so she's been favored by someone even better. I admire her so much. I once had a crush on Mr. Anderson. At that time, his legs were not in good condition. Now I heard that his legs have recovered." "I met him two days ago. To be honest, I just glanced at him and I almost fell in love with him. If it weren't for fear of implicating my family, I would have stolen him tonight..."

Just as everyone was talking enthusiastically, a tall figure suddenly appeared in the crowd.

It was Sean!

Tonight, he was wearing a well-tailored engagement dress, all in black, with a shirt inside and a red bow tie, making him look handsome, dignified, and elegant.

He was tall and straight, and the finely tailored pants perfectly showed his long legs, making him more abstinent and attractive.

He had exquisite and perfect facial features as if carefully crafted by God. His slightly indifferent expression revealed a natural sense of majesty and alienation.

After he arrived, he attracted everyone's attention almost instantly.

In the business world, those who had dealt with him both respected and feared him.

Many young ladies stared at him with admiration in their eyes, "I suddenly want to steal him too." "He's so tall. With his handsome face, he's impeccable!" "Mr.

Anderson is good in almost all aspects, but his biggest shortcoming is that he has a fiancée!"

Just when everyone was slightly regretful, Sean didn't realize it at all. He just lowered his eyes, talking with his parents about something.

Soon several members of the May family also arrived. Grandpa Dave was in a good state of mind today and he looked joyful.

Mr. Ballard next to him, after this period of recuperation, had become much stronger. Once dressed up, he no longer looked as sloppy as before, but more refined.

As for Brycen and his two brothers, they were good-looking and tall. So when they were dressed up, they were three rich and charming young men, which was very eye-catching.

When Sean saw them coming, the coldness on his face faded a little, and he said politely, "Grandpa Dave, you are all here." "Yes." Grandpa Dave nodded, and looked around the banquet hall, "It's quite lively."

Alice said with a smile, "Today, I'm going to officially introduce Molly to the outside world. It should be grand and lively, and I can't disappoint Molly."

Satisfied, Grandpa Dave told his three grandsons to stay and help entertain the guests and then took a seat in the front.

Not long after Grandpa Dave and the others arrived, Jadon also arrived.

Lynn came with him. Lynn supported Jadon and asked, "Why haven't Eaton and Kara come down?" Jadon said helplessly, "Last night, they seemed to work late, and they just got up. They're changing clothes. They will come down soon." "Is that so?" Lynn didn't think much about it and quickly accompanied him to congratulate Sean, "Sean, congratulations to you and Molly. I wish you a long and happy marriage."

Sean put a bigger smile on his face, "Thank you..."

At the same time, in the top suite upstairs, Kara carefully handed a thumbsized glass bottle to Eaton.

Eaton took it, looked at the powder in the glass bottle, and sneered.

Kara hesitated for a while, but couldn't help asking, "What do you want to do with this thing? This thing was developed by an ancient medical family a hundred years ago, and its formula has been lost now! If one takes a little bit of it, he will suffer from piercing pain for a long time and there is no cure for it. Who are you going to use it on?"

Chapter 1294-"I have my use. You don't have to ask so many questions." Eaton glanced at her lightly but didn't answer directly. He put the glass bottle in his pocket lightly.

Then he said coldly, "Let's go to the banquet hall."

Kara watched his back from behind. She was silent for a moment and said nothing.

For her, it had nothing to do with her who he was going to drug. As long as it was not her, she would turn a blind eye!

On the other side, in the lounge above the banquet hall, Molly and the three children were waiting for the party to start.

Today, she was wearing a pale pink engagement dress with a retro square neckline design, which looked a little sexy. The dress was grandly hand-embroidered. With her carefully crafted makeup and jewelry embellishment, she looked elegant and beautiful.

At this moment, the three children were surrounding Molly, praising, "Mommy, you're so beautiful tonight." "You're the most beautiful bride in the world." "If you put on a wedding dress, you will look more beautiful!"

Hearing the children's praises, Molly couldn't help laughing.

Today Alex and Ben were wearing black and white suits respectively. Their handsome little faces looked even more refined, and they looked like two little gentlemen, elegant and cute.

Beside them was Claudia in a little white dress. The little girl's hair had been specially taken care of by a hairstylist. She looked like a little princess in a castle, sweet and beautiful.

"You all look pretty too." Molly also praised them.

The children smiled happily.

While they were talking, Caitlyn knocked on the door, walked in, and said with a smile, "It's time to go to the banquet hall!"

Molly got up when she heard it, "Have all the guests arrived?" "Yes, there are a lot of people, and the party is quite grand."

Caitlyn came over, tidied Molly's hair carefully, and then asked, "Are you nervous?" "No," Molly responded with a smile.

She was just getting engaged! In these years, she had seen a lot, so there was nothing to be nervous about.

"That's great. Let's go, bride-to-be, Mr. Anderson is waiting for you in the banquet hall downstairs." Caitlyn made a gesture of invitation, "Go down the spiral staircase outside, and you will be the center of attention."

Molly couldn't help laughing when she heard this.

She had no interest in being the center of attention.

But when she thought of going on a happy journey with her beloved man tonight, her heart beat fast.

Soon, she walked out of the room in high heels.

Then she went through the corridor and arrived at the spiral staircase.

From this position, she could hear the noise from the banquet hall downstairs.

The master of ceremonies in charge of the engagement ceremony read a beautiful and sweet speech, and then made a grand announcement that the bride-to-be would appear on the stage.

Under everyone's expectant gaze, Molly slowly walked down the spiral staircase.

Sean was standing tall and waiting on the first step.

He looked calm, and his deep black eyes were firmly locked on the position above...

First of all, what caught his eye was a pale pink shadow.

Molly had seldom worn clothes of this color, but it didn't mean it was unsuitable for her. On the contrary, Molly looked amazing in pink!

She was like a flower blooming in the morning, with a sense of delicacy. Her fresh and natural makeup outlined her facial features more delicately and beautifully, and her bright and dazzling eyes revealed a deep feeling that only Sean could understand.

They looked at each other as if they were the only ones left in the world now

Chapter 1295-When the guests around saw Molly's face, they also looked amazed.

"The bride is so pretty. She and Mr. Anderson are a good match." "She's both pretty and smart. I'm so jealous. No wonder Mr. Anderson likes her." "She is a great person, but her family background is not that good." "It's true that there is a big disparity compared with the Anderson family. It's not a well-match marriage..." Several members of the May family had different expressions when they heard this. Grandpa Dave didn't take it seriously.

His granddaughter Molly found her happiness was the most important thing.

What others said didn't matter at all!

But Brycen next to him felt a little annoyed.

"What do they mean, not a well-matched marriage? Our May family's financial resources are not as good as the Anderson family's, but Molly is excellent enough to make up for all the shortcomings, okay? Besides, Sean should feel lucky to be even with her!"

Sawyer, who was next to him, agreed, which was rare. The Anderson family was indeed a top rich family with a lot of wealth, but their sister Molly was also a priceless treasure in their eyes!

“They’re jealous! It’s just sour grapes. Ignore them.” Nathan glanced at the several people who were talking in a low voice with a cold look.

When they were talking, Molly had already gone downstairs. Sean immediately greeted her and stretched out his hand to her tenderly. Molly gave him her hand with a smile.

The moment Sean held her hand, he felt as if he was holding the whole world.

He said to Molly in a voice that only they two could hear, “Honey, you are beautiful tonight!” Molly’s eyelashes fluttered, and she looked at him with soft eyes and responded, “You are handsome. You’re the best-looking groom I’ve ever seen.”

Sean smiled slightly with satisfaction and said softly, “Go and greet the elders of the two families first, and then toast the guests.”

Although the engagement ceremony was much simpler than the wedding ceremony, there were still many processes to go through.

In addition to greeting and toasting the elders, there were also ring exchange and toasting ceremonies.

Moreover, the Anderson family was planning to officially announce the existence of the three children today so that the children could truly recognize their ancestors and return to the family. Molly nodded in agreement and took his arm intimately.

Among the crowd, Lynn was very excited when she saw this scene, “Molly and Mr. Anderson are a match made in heaven. With their appearance and temperament, they’re eye-catching.”

Jadon smiled on the side, “Molly is very excellent herself, and Sean is not bad.

They’re a good match.”

Standing beside his father, Eaton sneered with a somewhat ambiguous expression.

His eyes were fixed on Molly, and his fingers in his pocket kept rubbing the glass bottle, thinking about something. Kara had been paying close attention to his situation.

At a certain moment, she suddenly saw a wicked smile on his face.

She froze! Could it be that Eaton was planning to attack Molly?

It was not impossible to control someone with drugs! Eaton was capable of anything!

When she was secretly suspicious, Lynn beside her also caught Eaton's expression.

She was startled. Eaton... looked so strange!

His eyes looked serious, aggressive, and vicious. They were scary to look at!

Molly didn't know this, and she followed Sean to greet the two elders. Alice and Ricky, with joyful smiles on their faces, nodded at the couple.

Then they gave Molly a big gift.

"We were planning to give it to you at the wedding ceremony. But as Sean's parents, we couldn't wait to have you as our daughter-in-law, so we've decided to give it to you today. We hope you don't mind it, Molly."

Molly was slightly surprised at first and soon realized something.

It was probably because she and Sean had gotten their marriage certificate, so they had to give it to her in advance.

Molly smiled a little coyly and said, "Of course not. Thank you, Alice and Ricky."

Chapter 1296-ith Sean.

Sean's eyes were gentle, and he said with a smile, "We will."

Mr. Anderson Sr. also looked happy on the side.

He put down the teacup in his hand and ordered someone to bring a brocade box, "Molly, this pair of bracelets was a wedding gift prepared by my wife for Sean and his future wife when she was alive. Please accept it. I also hope that you and Sean will be happy together."

While speaking, he opened the brocade box.

There was a pair of exquisite jade bracelets inside. Molly didn't know much about jade, but she knew that Mr. Anderson Sr.'s gift must be worth a lot!

There was a knowledgeable guest beside her who recognized this pair of bracelets.

"The texture is like top-grade glass jadeite. I have heard that the Anderson family has a pair of jade bracelets worth hundreds of millions. Is this pair?" "The Anderson family is indeed rich and generous! It seems that Mr.

Anderson Sr. is also very satisfied with his granddaughter-in-law." "Is it too late for me to replace the bride?" "You're insane..."

The guests chatted in low voices and joked. Molly was surprised when she heard it.

This gift was indeed precious! She suddenly didn't know whether to accept it or not.

Sean raised his hand to take it and said, "This is Grandma's wish, and we can't refuse. Thank you, Grandpa."

Molly heard his words and she had to follow suit, "Thank you, Grandpa."

Grandpa Dave looked happy. The fact that Mr. Anderson Sr. valued Molly meant that the whole Anderson family fully backed her.

Now he could finally rest assured!

Soon, after Molly toasted several elders, it was the ceremony of exchanging rings.

They had put rings on each other when Sean proposed to her and they got their marriage certificate, but Molly still felt something different...

Sean looked very serious when he put the ring on Molly's finger as if he was doing the most important thing in the world.

Being surrounded by the blessing eyes of relatives and friends, Molly felt that her whole body seemed to be wrapped in warm sunshine, and the feeling of happiness was indescribable.

The ring was put on quickly. Sean cherished it, took her hand, and kissed it gently. Molly looked at him with a smile, took the other ring, and put it on his finger carefully.

There was thunderous applause at the scene!

After the ceremony, the bride and the groom began to toast the guests. There were many branches of the Anderson family. Just to toast these people, they had to drink a lot. Molly had a low tolerance for alcohol. Sean had just recovered, so he couldn't drink too much wine.

In the end, Nathan, Chester, and Tony came out to help the couple. Merak was wearing a dress, a little gloating, "It is master who is engaged. But why are you the one who suffers, Mr. Merrick?"

Chester had deployed his subordinates to deal with the affairs of the Shepard family and the Grandset.

He also had to teach the three children martial arts, and now he was helping the couple deal with the wine problem.

"I was born to work hard, and there's nothing I can do." Chester pretended to sigh, and then joked, "Merak, why don't you help me drink a few glasses of wine?" "No, it tastes terrible." Merak frowned in disgust and turned to pick up the juice on the table.

Chester's eyes darkened and he tried to persuade, "You'd better practice now so that you won't get drunk when you get married in the future."

Chapter 1297-When Merak heard this, she couldn't help but roll her eyes at Chester, "Who says I'm going to get married? I won't marry. I'm going to serve the master for the rest of my life."

Sean and Molly happened to come over. When they heard this, they couldn't help but look at each other.

Molly patted Merak's head, and said with a smile, "It's too early to say this now.

If you meet someone you like in the future, you might change your mind. I didn't plan to get married at first, but I'm getting married now."

Merak refuted, "It's because the master is excellent. Once you miss him, you might not meet another man as good as him. Besides, I am still young and I won't think about it for the time being." "I think it's time to think about it properly.

We have to look at the long-term.

" Chester still persuaded patiently on the side.

Merak pursed her lips and glanced at him unhappily, "Are you despising me, Mr.

Merrick? Otherwise, why do you act like you can't wait to see me get married? I haven't done anything wrong recently, right? In Domster, I finished the task well and protected the madam!"

Chester choked, "I didn't mean that." "Then what do you mean?" Merak looked a little aggrieved.

Seeing her like this, Chester didn't know what to say and looked a little helpless.

Sean gave him a meaningful look, and said with a faint smile, "Maybe he wants to get married."

Hearing their conversation, Molly suddenly realized something. She couldn't help but look at Chester and then at Merak.

Could it be that Chester...

"What? Mr. Merrick wants to get married?" Merak was also surprised.

She didn't understand the meaning of Sean's words at all. She looked at Chester in confusion, and asked, "Does Mr. Merrick have someone he likes?"

Who is it? Why don't I know?"

She hadn't seen many women around him, and the only ones who were close to him were her and Alkaid.

"Could it be Alkaid?"

When Chester heard this, he almost choked on a mouthful of wine.

He barely suppressed himself and was about to deny it, but Merak said, "It's not right..."

She shook her head, 'Alkaid probably isn't your type... Could it be someone who has a good relationship with the Merrick family? Is it Miss King? Or Miss Anna, or Miss Long..."

Merak guessed a lot and mentioned all the female names she remembered.

Chester could feel the veins on his forehead twitching. Why did this girl have such a good memory?

Seeing that Chester didn't show much expression, Merak thought she had guessed wrong, so she continued to think.

After a moment, her face changed slightly, and she said, "It can't be that girl from the Martial Art Union. That's our enemy!"

Chester was mentally exhausted, "Stop guessing! None of them! Let's just go ahead."

Seeing Merak like this, he wondered when she would be able to guess correctly.

"What's the matter with the girl from the Martial Art Union?' Molly asked curiously.

Sean tilted his head, leaned closer to her ear, and explained in a low voice," She's a mercenary, a martial arts master from the Martial Art Union. She likes Chester and has repeatedly tried to get him. Everyone in the Unbounded Land knows about it."

Hearing this, Molly suddenly realized what was going on and then joked," So many girls like Chester."

Then she squinted her eyes and asked Sean in a low voice that only the two of them could hear, "But that's not surprising. The Grandset's number- two man is handsome and gentle. So what about you, number one? You are also handsome and powerful."

Chapter 1298-Sean immediately smelled danger.

This...was a tricky question. If his answer was not good enough, he probably would not be able to enter the bedroom door tonight!

He thought for a while with a calm face, and said, "No one likes me."

Molly looked at him with a faint smile and said, "Do you think I will believe this?"

The lie will be easily exposed when we go to the Grandset in the future."

Sean froze slightly.

Molly said, "You'd better think carefully about it before you answer it. Brycen has a stack of washboards that he hasn't found a use for."

Sean had no choice but to say, "Well, some girls like me, and there are many of them. But they are just like me in the legend. I rarely show up in the Grandset, and the only women I know are my subordinates, and I don't know any others."

"Really?" Molly looked at him suspiciously.

Sean nodded, "Of course..."

He put his arm around her waist and said, "Don't worry about it. You just need to know that I only like you in my life."

It was so sweet and sincere. Molly was full of satisfaction," Okay, I believe you.

Let's go to make a toast."

Sean secretly heaved a sigh of relief. He nodded and quickly took Molly to toast the other guests.

After a short while, the two came to Jadon.

"Mr. Scott," Molly said politely.

Before Jadon could say anything, Lynn beside him took the lead and praised, "Oh, Molly, you look so beautiful tonight. You and Sean are a perfect match!"

Molly couldn't help smiling, "You're so sweet."

"I'm just telling the truth. Both you and Sean are so goodlooking. You are the most beautiful couple I have ever seen." Lynn spared no effort to praise.

Lynn was telling the truth, but it was just flattery in the eyes of Kara on the side.

Kara snorted coldly, turned her head to the side, and didn't even bother to say a word to Molly.

Tonight, if it weren't for Jadon's presence, she would never have come to this engagement banquet!

"Congratulations, Molly," Jadon said kindly.

Although Molly was just his student, he had treated her like a daughter during the years they had spent together.

Seeing that Molly was engaged now, he was very happy.

“Once you get married, your responsibilities will be heavier in the future. But I believe in you, and you will be able to manage your family well. I wish you and Sean a happy marriage together.”

“Thank you, Mr. Scott.” Molly thanked her with a smile.

Sean followed suit, “Thank you.”

Eaton didn’t say a word on the side.

He had always liked Molly. Seeing Molly and Sean standing next to each other intimately, he felt annoyed.

But he didn’t show it, and he even looked very calm.

Only Kara next to him could feel the coldness and hostility hidden in his bones.

Molly didn’t notice this and didn’t care if they wished her well. She only talked to Jadon with a smile.

After chatting for a while, she and Sean went to talk to other guests. Eaton followed Molly closely with his eyes...

Under the light, she was dazzling.

He was amazed by her delicate and beautiful facial features, refined temperament, exquisite body, and sense of nobility revealed by her every frown, smile, and gesture.

She was stunningly good-looking and even mesmerizing.

No matter what outfit she was wearing, she could pull it off!

Chapter 1299-Eaton couldn't help thinking of the time when he first met Molly. He had met her in his father's research laboratory.

He saw a girl in a white dress, beautiful and refreshing like a fairy. Her long hair was fixed with a hairpin casually, and no makeup was applied on her face, but she still looked unforgettably beautiful.

He fell in love with her at first sight.

After getting along with her and seeing her ability, he loved her even more.

He had thought that this girl would be his in the future, and he had even regarded her as his future wife in his heart.

Unexpectedly, it had only been a little more than a year, and she had been with another man.

Eaton clenched his fists angrily.

He jerked his head up and took a sip of wine to cover up the madness in his eyes. Molly, you can only be mine!

Molly didn't notice his dark and terrifying gaze.

After she accompanied Sean for a round of toasting, she was almost tipsy.

She couldn't hold her liquor well. Even with Nathan and the others helping her, she still couldn't handle it.

"Are you okay?" Sensing her strangeness, Sean asked with concern.

Molly shook her head and said, "It's okay. I'm just a little dizzy, but I can still hold on for a while. What about you? You drank more than me tonight. Are you okay?"

"It's okay. Such little wine wouldn't put me down."

When he had been in good health before, he could drink even more.

Though he was recovering, he could be totally fine if he didn't drink too much wine.

Molly stared at him for a while and then nodded after confirming that he was fine.

But the helping trio behind them was not so good.

"Mr. Anderson, Mrs. Anderson, you two should look back at us. We've almost drunk all of the wine for you tonight. I think we will faint at any time." Tony smelled of alcohol and his face was flushed.

Nathan had a straight face, but he also looked a little drunk.

Chester's complexion was the same as usual and he looked fine, but his eyes were a little blurred.

Seeing them like this, Molly felt a little apologetic, 'Thank you for tonight.'

Nathan was the first to say, "You're welcome. You're my sister. Of course, I should help you."

"I should help Mr. Anderson too." Tony followed suit.

Chester looked at the two of them and felt he should say something too. He simply said, "Master, as your right-hand man, I will do anything for you."

Molly couldn't help chuckling and immediately said, "Thank you. If you feel uncomfortable, go to rest first."

The three nodded and did not refuse.

After they left, the toasting process was considered complete.

The scene became lively again.

In the middle of the engagement banquet, Mr. Anderson Sr. suddenly got up from his seat and walked onto the stage slowly.

Seeing this, the guests all looked over one after another.

Mr. Anderson Sr. took the microphone and delivered a solemn speech, "May I have your attention for a minute? My dear friends, partners, and relatives, thank you all for taking time out of your busy schedule to attend the engagement banquet of Sean and Molly. I'm going to announce something..."

When the guests heard this, they couldn't help being puzzled.

It should be something very important if it was announced at the engagement banquet.

At this moment, the old butler came onto the stage with three cute children.

The two boys looked exactly alike with unusually delicate facial features. The little girl next to them was pretty and cute. She was wearing a dress, looking very lovely.

Chapter 1300-"These three children are so cute. Which family are they from?"

"Needless to say, they're obviously from the Anderson family, but...why didn't I know that the Anderson family had such three children?"

"Could it be Mr. Anderson's? Impossible! I've never heard that Mr. Anderson has children!"

“But I think their facial features seem to be very similar to Mr. Anderson’s, especially the two boys. They look a little bit like Mrs. Anderson...”

While everyone was whispering and discussing, Mr.

Anderson Sr. answered their questions, “As you can see, these three children are indeed my grandson Sean’s children, and their mother is Molly.”

Hearing his words, the guests were in an uproar.

“Are they Mr. Anderson’s children?”

“Children? And already five years old? No way!”

“So, Dr. May is not only a doctor with great medical skills but also a lucky mother. She gave birth to three children at a time, and all of them are heirs-to-be!”

“These three children were born rich and privileged! They’re so enviable.”

“But why didn’t they disclose any information before?”

The people present had different reactions. Seeing it, Mr. Anderson Sr. cleared his throat immediately and continued, “As for my three precious great-grandchildren, we didn’t disclose anything because Sean and Molly had some misunderstandings. The children had been living abroad with their mother these years, and they didn’t come back to our family until recently.

“Now, the two of them are going to tie the knot, so the identity of the children can be disclosed to the public.”

Hearing his words, the guests finally realized what was going on.

However, some guests remembered that Molly was the true daughter of the May family.

If they remembered correctly, a few years ago, that scandal had ruined Molly's reputation in Northfolk.

Now, these children looked five or six years old...

After thinking about it carefully, some immediately felt that it coincided with that scandal.

It seemed that one of the parties involved in such a sensational incident was Mr.

Anderson.

They suddenly didn't know what to say.

Dr. May was something! She had accidentally slept with Mr. Anderson and had three children. What a strange destiny!

When everyone sighed secretly, the three children on the stage greeted them politely, "Hello, welcome to Mommy and Daddy's engagement banquet today.

Thank you for your blessings. You will stay young forever and live a long life!"

Hearing their childish voices, the guests were immediately amazed.

"Oh, they're so cute."

"Mr. Anderson is indeed awesome and his children are really cute. When they grow up, they will stun the world."

“I want to steal one of them...”

“You’re crazy!”

The guests did not suppress their voices at all, nor did they hide their affection for the three children. Hearing this, Molly couldn’t help chuckling.

The three children were adorable wherever they went.

Mr. Anderson Sr. was very satisfied.

Finally, his wish came true.

His three precious great-grandchildren finally recognized their ancestors and returned to the Anderson family!

Grandpa Dave in the audience was also very happy to see this scene. The three children should indeed have a legitimate identity!

After introducing the children, Mr. Anderson Sr. stepped down from the stage.

Some young ladies at the scene couldn’t wait to play with the three cute children. Alex was shy but calm. Facing so many young ladies, he was still extremely calm.

“He’s really like Mr. Anderson, practically a miniature version of him...”
