

Triplets On SM 1381

Chapter 1381-Finally, Molly gave up and turned off the web page directly. Then she took out her mobile phone and looked at the photo of Sean suffering from Venomous Insect yesterday.

It was just a picture, but the weird blood streaks were still very scary.

Molly frowned, 'The blood streaks spread from the heart to the neck... Neck?

Suddenly, her eyes sank, and she realized that she seemed to be ignoring something...

Last night, when she saw Sean suffer from Venomous Insect, she felt angry and also worried. She was so excited that her mind was completely blank.

Now she was calm. She suddenly remembered that it was not the first time she had seen such blood streaks.

She said to herself, 'I've seen them before! They look familiar!' "You'd better care more about your fiancé," Kara's voice suddenly sounded.

Molly got up quickly, making a little noise.

Caitlyn put her head in and asked, 'What's the matter?'

Molly did not look back but just shook her head and said, "I'm okay. Don't worry."

Her tone was unconsciously gloomy as she spoke.

She finally remembered that she happened to see something on Kara's neck in the research laboratory a few days ago.

They were exactly the same blood streaks as the ones on Sean's body.

Kara reacted strangely and spoke strangely at that time.

Kara had been hating Molly all the time, hoping that Molly had a bad life, and that day Kara suddenly mentioned Sean.

Molly couldn't help thinking, 'Is there a connection between these two matters?

There should not be such a coincidence in this world, right?

Her eyes went cold, and then she asked in her heart, 'Kara, what exactly did you mean at that time? Did you frame Sean, or did you have something to hide? If you really did that, I would never let you go!' After a while, Sean arrived.

Molly stopped thinking and got in the car, showing nothing.

After they got home, Molly seemed to say casually, "I'm done with the data. I will go to Xesxia tomorrow to apologize to the school myself and meet the students.

Then I will come back in the afternoon."

Sean told Tony behind him, "Book two air tickets to Xesxia tomorrow." "No," Molly hurriedly stopped him, Book one. I can go by myself."

Sean was slightly surprised and looked at her, "What's wrong? You don't want me to go with you?"

"No," Molly looked natural and said to him gently, "I want you to stay with me all the time, but we are going to leave for the Grandset, so there must be a lot of things that need to be dealt with. I don't want you to be tired, so I'll go to Xesxia alone tomorrow. Wait for me. I'll be back as soon as I'm done."

Her tone was so soft that Sean's heart was about to melt, so Sean immediately agreed, "OK, I do have a lot of things to deal with. I won't go with you tomorrow."

"Hmm," Molly nodded, lowered her eyes, and entered the gate of the villa.

After taking a bath, Molly and Sean hugged each other and slept.

In the middle of the night, Molly had a bad dream.

In the dream, Sean was in the hazy fog and was very close to her, but when she reached out to touch him, he suddenly left her.

She chased him, but she couldn't catch up with him. In the end, she could only watch him disappear.

When Molly woke up, Sean was still asleep.

He could vaguely feel her movement and instinctively put her in his arms.

However, Molly couldn't fall asleep again, so she watched his beautiful sleeping face until dawn.

Chapter 1382-The next morning, Molly went to Xesxia alone.

Sean sent her to the airport. Although she was going and returning on the same day, he was still a little worried.

"Come back after you take care of the school matters."

Sean softly reminded her, taking her hand in his.

"I know."

Molly looked at him with amusement. "I wasn't born yesterday. Don't worry."

'Til wait for you to come back."

Sean didn't leave until he watched her pass the security check.

After arriving in Xesxia, Molly went to the school to see Wayne and the principal first.

Once they met, she got straight to the point and explained the purpose of her trip.

She was full of apologies, "I'm really sorry. You guys have taken care of me since I joined, but I kept going beyond my means. I'm here today to tell you guys that I may not be able to continue with my lectures now. I want to resign from my position as a visiting professor."

Both Wayne and the principal were stunned when they heard that.

Wayne frowned, asking, "What happened?"

Molly did not hide it but replied truthfully, "My husband has a health issue. If he is not treated in time, his life will be in danger."

She explained it briefly without specifying Sean's condition.

Both men turned serious when they heard that.

I see.

Wayne sighed and said regretfully, "But your resignation will be a great loss for the students of this school. Is there no other way? The medical level in our country is advanced nowadays." "Well, just because it doesn't work out, I have to make the decision. I hope you'll understand."

Wayne and the principal both fell silent.

After a long time, Wayne said, "Well, alright! We can understand your decision and feelings. We hope that Mr. Anderson will recover soon."

"Yeah, the health of your family matters more."

The principal echoed.

They were so sensible, which relieved Molly. At the same time, she felt sorry for them.

So, she took out a hard drive from her bag and handed it to Wayne. "Thank you both for your understanding. I know it's inappropriate for me to leave like this, so I want to give this to the school. It's the research data I have collected in the past two years. I hope it will be beneficial to the students."

Wayne was shocked. "Your research data? I don't think that's appropriate."

As a researcher himself, he knew well how valuable these data were.

"It's okay. Take it as a token of my regard."

Molly put the hard drive in his hand and forced a smile. "I hope the students won't blame me."

Wayne comforted her, "No, they won't. The research data means a lot to the school."

Molly smiled in response.

“Such being the case, why don’t you have a meal with the faculty before leaving?” proposed the principal.

“I’m sorry, but there is something urgent for me to do. I’m afraid I can’t eat with you guys today. After I take care of everything, I’ll invite everyone to dinner.”

Molly bowed apologetically to Wayne and the principal before continuing, “In addition, I will donate a sum of research funds to the medical school in my name.”

With that, she handed over a check.

“Ah, we can’t take it.”

The principal hurriedly refused, “The data you give us is priceless. How can we take more from you?”

Wayne chimed in, “Yeah, I know you’re feeling bad about this, but you really don’t have to do this.”

Chapter 1383-But Molly insisted on giving them the money.

The principal could only accept it finally.

“Doctor Joye, thank you very much. They’re so lucky that you’re their teacher.”

She smiled. “This is the only thing that I can do for them.”

After she talked with the principal and others, she left the school immediately.

As soon as she walked out of the school, she called Lynn, “Lynn, is Kara in the lab?”

“She hasn’t come to the research laboratory today. What’s the matter?”

Lynn felt surprised that Molly asked about Kara. After all, Molly didn’t get along well with Kara all the time.

Molly didn’t explain. She said, “Please give her address to me. I have something to go to see her.”

“OK.”

Not long after Molly hung up, she received Kara’s address from Lynn.

Molly went to Kara’s home by taxi.

After twenty minutes, Molly arrived and rang the bell.

But no one opened the door for a long time.

Molly was reluctant to give up. She continued to ring the bell.

After a while, the door was finally opened, and Kara walked out.

She didn’t look well, and her face looked pale.

“Who is it? Don’t you know that it’s noisy?”

Her tone was filled with impatience.

She said as she raised her head and saw Molly.

'Why does she come here?!' Instantly, Kara pulled a long face and asked angrily, "Why do you come here?"

They rarely contacted each other and tried not to meet each other, so it was strange that Molly went to Kara's home to see her.

Kara's gaze became gloomy. Obviously, Molly didn't come here for renewing acquaintance.

Molly glanced at Kara coldly, ignored her and walked into her apartment.

Seeing that, Kara felt annoyed, grabbed Molly's arm and shouted sharply, "I didn't invite you to come in. Get out!"

She said as she pulled Molly out.

Molly broke free, ignored Kara's anger and shut down the door.

"What do you want? If you don't leave my home, I will call the police!"

Molly ignored Kara's threat and pulled her into the house.

"Let go of me!"

Kara struggled.

After they arrived at the couch, Molly let go.

Kara lost her balance and fell backward on the couch.

"Are you out of your mind?"

Kara raised her head and glared at Molly. Kara's eyes smoldered with anger.

Molly narrowed her eyes, looked down at Kara sharply and asked in a deep voice, 'Tell me! What were the blood streaks on your neck when I met you in the restroom last time? Why did you have them?'

Molly asked Kara the questions directly!

Kara fell into a trance, but soon she reacted to why Molly was so angry.

Kara laughed arrogantly.

"It seems that you have seen the blood streaks on Sean's body.' Thinking of how worried Molly was when she saw the blood streaks on Sean's body, Kara gloated.

Molly's face clouded over. She leaned forward, stared at Kara and asked word by word, "So it's you who put Venomous Insect into Sean's body?"

Kara was surprised. "You know that it's Venomous Insect!"

Molly asked angrily, "I'm asking you! Is it you?' Seeing that Molly became furious and lost her cool, Kara burst into laughter.

"What can you do if it's me?"

Chapter 1384-During this period, she had been tortured because of the Venomous Insect. But seeing Molly like this, she suddenly felt that the torture was nothing.

"Molly, look at you. You are so crazy because of a man, haha..."

The whole room was filled with her wild laughter. Seeing that Kara was hiding her secrets and was unwilling to face her question directly, Molly immediately became angry.

The next second, Molly took a step forward, slammed down Kara's shoulder, and pushed her down on the sofa.

Molly's face turned cold and she gritted her teeth, "Kara, if you hate me, just go after me! Why do you use such despicable means to harm other people? As a doctor, don't you have even the most basic professional ethics?

"Where is your self-esteem, your pride?"

Hearing Molly's words, Kara was annoyed.

Her face suddenly turned ferocious, and she said bitterly, "Self-esteem? Pride?

Molly, how can you have the nerve to ask me this? If it weren't for you, how could I have become like this?"

Kara suddenly clasped Molly's wrist forcefully, pushing her away hard.

She was so strong. Molly was surprised.

It felt like Kara was exerting all her strength. Molly lost her footing and fell to the floor.

Fortunately, it was covered with a carpet, or Molly would have gotten hurt when she fell so hard.

Before she could react, Kara rushed forward and grabbed her neck with both hands.

"Molly, it's all thanks to you that I've become like this!" Kara's facial features, which were originally pretty, were now tainted with hatred, distorted and hideous.

She stared at Molly firmly with red eyes, like a wild beast, as if she was about to open her mouth to bite Molly in the next second. Molly grabbed her hands and tried to break free.

But at this moment, Kara's strength was terrifying. Kara recalled the scene of being forced to take the Mother Insect that night, and the feeling of helplessness and fear coming all over her in an instant.

It was all because of this bitch in front of her!

Kara lowered her head and said word by word through gritted teeth, "If it weren't for you, how could I have been under the control of these evil things?

"If it weren't for you, how could I have become a container for the Mother Insect? It's all because of you. It's all because of you!"

Molly looked at the crazy woman in front of her and frowned deeply. A container of Mother Insect?

After Kara roared angrily, her voice became more and more piercing," Why...

why?! You've never liked him. Why is he so obsessed with you? And I..."

She showed a self-deprecating and sad expression, "I followed him for so long from the beginning to the end, but he ended up doing this to me!"

Thinking of Eaton's ruthlessness and coldness, Kara completely collapsed. She stared at Molly with fierce eyes, muttering, "It's all because of you, bitch. If you die, everything will be settled.' "Right." She nodded and smiled sinisterly, "If you die, he will see me."

With that, she tightened her grip on Molly's neck.

Fortunately, Molly reacted quickly. While Kara was in a trance, Molly tried to push her hands away.

But it was not so easy for Molly to break free in this posture.

They fell into a stalemate.

However, from Kara's words just now, Molly captured some important information. The Venomous Insect was not done by Kara.

Kara was just a container for Mother Insect, and she was controlled by others.

And "followed him for so long"?

Chapter 1385-Molly narrowed her eyes and suddenly thought of someone.

Eaton!

Kara liked Eaton and she had followed him all the time.

But how come...

Molly was greatly shocked. How could it be Eaton?

With all her strength, Molly finally pushed Kara away.

Kara fell backward, and her back directly hit the coffee table, causing her to lose strength and collapse on the floor in pain.

Seeing this, Molly immediately sat up and distanced herself from Kara.

After she calmed down, she asked tentatively, "So Eaton did it? How could he..."

Kara was probably in too much pain, so she didn't make a sound.

Molly shook her head and found it a little unbelievable. She hadn't expected the truth to be like this.

Eaton had always looked polite and gentle. He had been persistent and hard-working in the medical field.

"How could Eaton do such a thing?" There was a hint of suspicion in Molly's voice.

At this time, Kara calmed down. When she heard that Molly still believed him, she was immediately annoyed, "If it weren't him, could I have drugged myself?"

Then she took a deep breath, and continued bitterly, "Since you know what it is, you should also know what harm it can cause. Would I be stupid enough to drug myself?"

"If he hadn't forced me, would I have become like this? Would I have been tortured by this kind of thing?" Kara raised her voice and became agitated again.

When she thought of what Eaton had done to her, outrageous hatred instantly overwhelmed her.

Molly got up slowly, looking down at her, and quickly suppressed the suspicion in her heart because she believed that Kara would not do such a thing!

Having known Kara for so many years, Molly knew that Kara was always an egoist. How could Kara do something to hurt herself?

As for Eaton...

Even though she couldn't believe it, she had to accept the fact now!

Eaton had hidden it too deeply, and his gentleness was just a show.

He had fooled everyone!

Molly's face darkened when she thought of it. She turned and was about to leave.

At this time, she heard Kara's voice behind her, "Where are you going?"

Molly paused, turned her head, and stared at Kara coldly.

Kara was smart enough to read her mind immediately, and sneered, "Don't tell me that you are going to see Eaton."

Hearing this, Molly clenched her fists tightly, then let go, and gritted her teeth, "Since it was him, I'll go to him for the antidote. What's the problem?"

"Well." Kara smiled coldly, and looked at her sarcastically, "I'm surprised you are so naive."

Molly's eyes darkened slightly.

Kara went on, "His target was you from the beginning, but there was an accident. So this Venomous Insect was planted in my body and Sean's respectively.

"And in a curious twist, this happened to be what he wanted because he can get rid of me and Sean at the same time. So...*" Kara suddenly laughed loudly and shook her head, "He will never give you the antidote!"

Molly knew what she meant.

But since things had come to this point, she had to give it a try.

So, without even thinking about it, she said, "I'm going to see him anyway.

He hurt the person I love. How can I pretend that nothing happened?

Chapter 1386-Kara's expression changed a little when she heard Molly's words. She slowly clenched the carpet under her body.

The person she loved? Molly was going to fight for a chance for the person she loved.

But the person she loved hurt her so deeply! After Molly finished it, she turned and walked out.

After walking a few steps, Molly paused and asked without turning her head, 'Kara, since you have seen what Eaton is like, why don't you run away, but stay by his side? If you don't wake up from your stupidity, don't point the finger at me!"

Then, she turned her head and cast a cold glance at Kara who was still sitting on the floor, "I think that I have never given Eaton the wrong idea or flirted with him. It is his own business that he likes me. My rejection wouldn't have worked.

"I can only control my behaviors, not those of others. I only love Sean in this life.

The others don't matter to me! So don't target me anymore! I'm not interested, and I don't bother to pay attention, understand?' Then Molly walked away without giving Kara a chance to speak.

As soon as Molly walked out of the community, she immediately stopped a taxi by the side of the road and gave the address of the research lab to the driver.

On the way, her cell phone rang.

It was Sean.

Her eyes softened instantly. She took a deep breath, barely suppressed the emotions in her heart, and answered the phone.

"Sean." She tried her best to sound natural so as not to let Sean notice anything wrong on the other end of the phone.

"How's it going?" Sean asked in a gentle voice.

Hearing his words, Molly couldn't help feeling sad.

"I have to do some handover and say goodbye to the students." She forced a smile.

The driver looked in the rearview mirror and saw her sad smile. He was a little startled.

What happened to this girl?

Not daring to chat anymore, Molly hurriedly said, "I still have work to do. I'll tell you when it's over."

"Okay." Sean didn't suspect anything.

After hanging up the phone, the taxi arrived outside the lab ten minutes later.

After getting out of the car, Molly went straight in.

"Dr. Joye, why are you here?" When the receptionist saw Molly, she was very surprised.

Molly approached and asked bluntly, "Where is Dr. Scott?"

The receptionist froze. She pointed to the direction of Eaton's office, and replied truthfully, "Dr. Scott seems to have just come out of the laboratory, so he should be back in the office." "Thank you." Molly nodded, turned, and headed towards Eaton's office.

She didn't knock on the door, and just pushed the door open and walked in.

Eaton had just come back from the experiment and was washing his hands.

When he heard the door open, he thought it was his assistant, and he said without looking back, "Put the coffee on the table."

As soon as Molly saw him, her anger surged up instantly, and she clenched her fists tightly!

The man in front of her had drugged Sean with Venomous Insect!

At this time, Eaton realized that something was wrong. When he turned around and saw that it was Molly, he immediately beamed with surprise.

"Molly, why are you here?" He hurriedly dried his hands, walked over, and greeted her politely as always, "Sit down please."

Molly stared at him with a gloomy expression. Eaton was confused and asked, "What... what's wrong?" "Where is the antidote? Give it to me immediately!" Molly said coldly.

Eaton was taken aback by her cold tone.

Then he reacted. His eyes drifted, and he smiled, "What antidote?"

Chapter 1387-7 "Stop pretending!" Molly gritted her teeth and revealed the scandalous things he had done, "I already know about the fact that you drugged Sean and you also coerced Kara! Eaton, I've underestimated you!’ Hearing this, Eaton tried to play dumb, “Molly, what you are talking about? I don’t understand.”

But Molly didn’t listen at all, and interrupted directly, “Eaton, I think I have respected you a lot these years, but you did this to Sean. Don’t you think it’s a nasty thing to do?”

Molly was so angry that her body was trembling.

Eaton felt upset when he saw her so cold.

He was silent for a long time before he said slowly, “This method...is indeed a bit nasty, but I did it for you. Molly, you should know my feelings for you. But all these years, you always turned a blind eye, so I had no choice but to make this move...”

“Enough!” Molly sneered, “Eaton, we are both adults, and we know that feelings can’t be forced. I don’t like you!”

Eaton clenched his fists, and a gloomy look appeared in his eyes.

His feelings for so many years sounded like such an understatement.

She didn’t like him!

Molly took a deep breath and continued, ‘ No matter what, this is not a reason for you to give up your professional ethics! It’s not the right thing to do! I’m not here to talk nonsense with you. Give me the antidote!’

Eaton’s eyes darkened when he saw Molly so aggressive, and he smiled suddenly, “Sorry, Molly, I’m sorry to tell you that there is no antidote! Even if there is, I wouldn’t give it to you.”

No antidote?

Molly didn't believe him, "Eaton, don't try to lie to me!"

Eaton said calmly, "I'm not lying to you. Since you know it's Venomous Insect, you should know how tricky Venomous Insect is. I..."

He paused, 'It's very lucky enough to be able to find the Venomous Insect. But there is no way to undo it!"

Bang!

Molly pounded Eaton's desk angrily when she heard it. She said furiously," Eaton Scott, are you kidding?"

He was the one who had planted the Venomous Insect., yet he said there was nothing he could do!

At this time, Molly wanted to kill him directly!

Facing her anger, Eaton smiled softly and shrugged, "I'm not joking. What I said is true."

If Molly hadn't seen it with her own eyes, she really wouldn't have been able to connect him with the previous Eaton.

At this moment, Eaton simply looked like an unscrupulous villain.

Molly was so angry that her whole body was trembling. She clenched her fists tightly, and she felt no pain when her fingertips sank into her palms.

She held back her anger and asked through gritted teeth, "What do you want before you are willing to hand over the antidote? As long as you put forward a condition, I can satisfy you.' "Really?" Eaton raised his eyebrows and locked his eye on her pretty face, and he smiled mysteriously, “Molly, you know what I want. From beginning to end, it has always been you.”

Hearing his words, Molly froze and she said angrily, “Dont even think about it, Eaton! Sean and I are already engaged. Why do you trying to break us up like this?”

“I do not mind.’ Eaton smiled even more, “If you are engaged, you can break off your engagement. Molly, can you agree?”

Chapter 1388-When Molly heard this, she found it extremely absurd.

Of course, more importantly, she found the person in front of her strange.

They had known each other for so many years. She had thought she knew Eaton fairly well.

But at this moment, Molly realized how wrong her previous understanding of him was.

“Eaton, you are so shameless! You wouldn’t hesitate to use any means to achieve your goals. You are simply too terrifying.” Molly said coldly, and she looked into his eyes in disgust. Eaton could see it. His eyes, which had been pretending to be gentle, darkened little by little.

This was not what he had wanted to see!

“Molly, I know you’re angry. But are you not thinking about it? I think I’m more suitable for you than Sean. We have the same profession and we have a lot in common. I’ve treated you no worse than him...”

“Shut up!” Molly interrupted him, and said coldly, “Eaton, don’t compare yourself to Sean. You are not worthy! Sean will never use such despicable means like you!

“Moreover, he is the kind of person who would rather die than watch me suffer any grievances and injuries. In my heart, he is the most suitable person in the world for me. As for you...”

She sneered, 'I never liked you before, and I won't like you in the future. Stop daydreaming.'

With that, she didn't want to stay any longer and turned to leave. Seeing how resolute she was, Eaton turned completely cold.

He suddenly raised his voice and said, "What if I want to dream? Not only that, but I also want to make my dream come true! Molly, if you want to see Sean's life shortened faster, just go ahead and leave this place."

Molly suddenly stopped in her tracks and stared at Eaton fiercely. Seeing this, Eaton looked a little smug, "Molly, I don't have the medicine to cure Venomous Insect, but I can let Sean have more seizures by stimulating the Mother Insect.

"You may not know. But the more seizures, the faster Sean's mind will be destroyed! Gradually, he will no longer love you... He may develop feelings for Kara, the Mother Insect container, and he may even become more and more indifferent towards you."

Molly's face became extremely cold when she heard this.

Mr. Ballard had talked about this situation last night. The more seizures, the more serious the damage to Sean's body would be.

But Mr. Ballard didn't say that it would divert his feelings!

Be that as it may, Molly wanted to believe Sean. Even if Sean was controlled by drugs, his feelings for her would never change!

Molly suppressed her inner emotions, and replied, "Eaton, you don't understand what love is at all. Love will not change no matter what factors happen. Sean said that he would not marry any other woman but me. I feel the same way about him. I wouldn't marry any other man but him in this life! I will remember what you've done this time, and I will get it back for Sean."

With that, she left without looking back. Eaton hadn't expected that she would leave under such circumstances, and even say something like this.

His eyes instantly darkened and he said, "Molly, I will make you change your mind! Let's wait and see!"

...When Molly came out of the office, she looked very angry.

Molly only took a few steps when she ran into Lynn at the corner. Lynn looked extremely angry, and said, "Molly..."

Molly guessed that Lynn might have heard something, and subconsciously pulled her aside.

After leaving Eaton's office, Molly asked, "Did you hear my conversation with him just now?"

Chapter 1389-Lynn nodded, and said angrily, "How could Eaton do this? He's gone too far!

How could he forget his professional ethics and do such a shameless thing?' Molly's eyes were cold, "Maybe he was like this from the beginning, but we didn't see it."

"No, I think I have to tell Mr. Scott about this." Lynn couldn't bear it anymore.

This was a matter of human life. If Eaton was left unpunished, he probably would do something even more terrifying in the future.

However, Molly stopped her, "It's useless, Lynn. Mr. Scott can't control what Eaton wants to do. Even if Mr. Scott knows, he can't change Eaton's thoughts.

Besides, he is getting old and will get traumatized. There is no point in worrying him."

"What about Sean?" Lynn asked worriedly.

Molly frowned, 'I will leave the country and take Sean abroad for treatment. I will find a way to get rid of the Venomous Insect in his body.'

Lynn frowned, "Is there a solution? Molly, is there anything I can help with? If there is, just tell me."

Molly had been pissed off by Eaton just now. Now hearing Lynn's words, she felt warm.

But she shook her head and said, "Thanks, but not for now. After all, you don't know much about this. If there is a need later, I will call you."

"Okay." Lynn nodded.

After they talked for a while, Molly was about to leave.

Staying in this place for another moment would disgust her.

Before leaving, she solemnly told Lynn, "After I leave, you should act as if you don't know what happened today. Eaton is no longer the person you and I knew.

Don't reveal the secret, or he might hurt you."

"Molly, don't worry. I will be careful." Lynn nodded.

After leaving the lab, Molly went straight to the airport.

On the way, she sent a message to Sean, saying that she was going back.

Sean replied quickly, "I'll pick you up."

Molly replied, "Okay."

Just before boarding the plane, she received a message from Eaton," Molly, you will change your mind tonight."

Molly blocked his phone number with a gloomy face.

More than two hours later, the plane landed in Northfolk. When Molly came out of the airport, she saw Sean standing by the roadside waiting.

Sean was wearing a simple white shirt and black trousers, leaning against the front of the car. His superior posture caught the eyes of people on the side of the road.

There was a sexy girl who pretended to ask for directions but was blocked by Tony.

Sean simply ignored it. His handsome face was full of indifference.

However, his expression suddenly melted when he saw Molly.

He showed a gentle smile, and his eyes were full of affection, "Welcome back."

Seeing this scene, Molly was stunned for a moment.

Soon her unhappiness was gone.

How could such a man fall in love with someone else? No matter what, she had to trust him!

Thinking of this, she trotted over and threw herself into his arms. Sean raised his eyebrows in surprise, laughed warmly, and said, "Why are you so proactive all of a sudden?"

Molly buried her head in his arms, and said, "No, I just missed you so much. I haven't seen you for only half day, but it feels so long..."

When Sean heard it, his heart was about to melt. He kissed her hair, and said, "I feel the same way.

Chapter 1390-They enjoyed the sweet moment for a while before getting into the car and going home.

On the way, Sean asked about the school and Molly answered truthfully. But she didn't mention anything about the Venomous Insect.

She didn't intend to let him know about these dirty things.

Since the matter was caused by her, then she would solve it by herself.

After dinner, Molly practiced calligraphy with the three children for a while.

Seeing the three children so serious and focused, Molly smiled gently.

Later, she got up and went to the study to see Sean.

As soon as she opened the door, she saw Sean's pale face.

"What's wrong?" Molly quickly walked over.

When she got closer, she realized that he seemed to be enduring great pain, and he was frowning deeply.

Her heart tensed instantly.

Before Sean could make a sound, she keenly noticed the blood streaks on his wrists and some faintly appeared on his neck.

The Venomous Insect struck again!

Molly immediately unbuttoned Sean's shirt.

As expected, his chest was covered with dense blood streaks like a web.

"Sean..." Seeing that he was enduring the pain, Molly was very distressed.

She couldn't help crying a little.

Sean forced a smile and moved his lips, wanting to comfort her, but the pain hit him and he almost fainted.

Seeing this, Molly calmed down immediately and quickly helped him into the room to lie down.

Then she found some painkillers for him to take.

Back in the research lab, the pain would gradually subside after some painkillers were taken.

But this time, as time passed, Sean didn't seem to relieve the pain at all.

Instead, his face became paler, and thin beads of sweat appeared on his forehead.

Molly wiped his sweat while feeling his pulse.

His pulse condition was a mess.

At this time, Sean suddenly let out a muffled groan and curled up in pain.

His shirt was soaked with sweat.

Molly turned pale with fright, and immediately raised her voice and shouted, 'Tony, Tony!'

Soon, Tony rushed in upon hearing the sound.

"Mrs. Anderson, what's the matter?"

"Quick, go to the next door and get Mr. Ballard.' Seeing that Sean was ill again, Tony didn't dare to delay. He nodded, quickly turned around, and ran out.

At this time, Molly was already panicking. Looking at Sean who was in great pain on the bed, she felt useless for the first time.

She couldn't save him, and couldn't even find a way to relieve his pain.

Thinking of it, she burst into tears.

After about a few minutes, Mr. Ballard hurried in.

"Molly, what's the matter?" As soon as he asked, he saw Sean who was suffering from the Venomous Insect and couldn't help but frown.

"Mr. Ballard, help Sean quickly. I don't know how to relieve his pain." As soon as Molly saw Mr. Ballard, she grabbed his hand and begged eagerly, as if he was a life-saving straw.

It was the first time Mr. Ballard had seen her so flustered, and he immediately said, "Give me the silver needles."

Then he said, "Molly, you and Tony hold down Sean's hands and feet."

"OK." Molly and Tony did as he said.

Mr. Ballard quickly sterilized the silver needles and began to inject the needles for Sean with a serious expression.

During the process, Sean was so painful that blue veins appeared on his forehead.

Molly was very anxious and worried. She suddenly thought of Eaton's words during the day, "Molly, you will change your mind tonight."

Her face instantly darkened. Could it be that Sean's sudden attack on Venomous Insect had something to do with him?
