

Triplets on SM 171

Chapter 171 As for the triplets over here, they made the May Family pay by installing malware into the May Group's computer system and stopped bothering them since the malware was going to be terminated automatically on the next day anyway.

They only wanted to teach the May Family a lesson. They were not going to let anyone get away after bullying their mommy!

In the evening, Sean's driver took them to the hot spring resort for a holiday. The triplets were delighted.

They found out about this resort online, and it was located on top of a hill in the countryside.

A natural hot spring was discovered in this mountainous area a few years back, so it was transformed into a spot for resorts and hotels to operate in.

The hotel that Molly and the triplets stayed in was one of them.

The design of the buildings was very traditional and vintage. It had an antique charm to it. There was also a lot of natural scenery to look at around the resort because it was located on a mountain

The car stopped at the entrance of the hotel. Molly went to check in first. Considering the fact that Sean might have difficulty moving around and his treatment could not be stopped halfway, she told the front desk to get them two rooms next to each other.

Molly brought her kids to eat after they settled down with their luggage.

The main theme of the hotel was hot spring, so the food was not exceptionally delicious. All of them were not picky eaters, so they were fine with that. As for the kids, all they were thinking about was playing right after they reached the resort, so the food did not really bother them at all.

"Let's go to the observatory to look at the stars after we're done eating. That's one of the main attractions of this resort too."

Alex browsed through the tablet that Molly gave him as he planned their trip orderly.

Alex chimed in, "There's special equipment to look at the stars here, and we can even see a shooting star if we're lucky enough!"

"Isn't there a specific time to see shooting stars?" Tony would always watch the news, and he knew that shooting stars would normally only appear during summer. "Sigh. Uncle Tony, you're so foolish. There's no specific time to be lucky." Alex looked at Tony, who interrupted him in disdain.

"We can get in the hot spring after looking at the stars. The timing's going to be perfect." Alex swiped the tablet as he planned their activities for the night.

Tony was shocked by the triplets after he saw Molly keeping quiet. "How did you guys know about everything?" They even planned our activities too, and all their mom did was just sit there?"

"We did our research, of course!" The triplets looked at Tony scornfully without holding back. "Uncle Tony, don't you do your research before going on a trip?"

“That’s not good. Uncle Tony, you’re never going to get a girlfriend like that!” Claudia widened her huge eyes.

Tony was shocked as he started to beg the triplets for mercy, “My bosses, please stop cursing me. What if I really can’t get a girlfriend? Ms. Molly, would you please take a look at them?”

Tony shifted his plaintive gaze to Molly.

Molly was amused by their conversation. However, she had to be on her kid’s side since she was their mother, after all.

She cleared her throat and said with all seriousness, “Tony, I don’t think you could not get a . girlfriend because you were cursed. I think your job is a more convincing excuse.” He would be with Sean for three hundred and sixty–five days a year other than sleeping. He never encountered any person of the opposite sex too. It would be a miracle if he had a girlfriend!

Chapter 172

Sean lifted his brows and looked at Molly after he heard what she said, as if he suspected Molly calling him a capitalist that exploited the freedom of his employee.

Molly was not afraid to look back at him. She even asked with a smile, “Mr. Anderson, am I right?”

as

PT

P

Sean smiled but did not respond. Instead, he turned around and said to Tony, “I can introduce someone to you if you feel like marrying, and I can also hire another person to assist you.” Tony felt chills down his spine after hearing how considerate Sean was. “It’s okay, I’m good. My favorite thing to do is to be with you, boss. There’s nothing wrong. with staying with you all the time. Whoever said that must be jealous! Yes, that person has got to be jealous!” Tony’s survival instinct kicked in as he spoke. Molly and the triplets burst out laughing after seeing how sheepish Tony looked.

They finished their meal in a happy mood like that. After that, they moved and went to the observatory.

The observatory was located halfway up the mountain. There weren’t too many people there. Perhaps most of the tourists went to the hot spring instead. The mountain breeze could be felt on the open–air deck. The chilly feeling made everybody there feel relaxed.”

The triplets went straight to the telescope upon arriving. They did not need somebody else to teach them how to use it, but they already knew how it worked. They bowed their heads down, and they really saw the stars! “Mommy! Uncle! Get over here. You can really see the stars!” The triplets were both excited and thrilled, but they did not forget to share their joy with Molly and Sean. Molly and Sean saw how their faces were filled with joy, and they did not have the heart to let them down, so they went over to join them.

–

The triplets quickly stepped aside for them. Molly bowed down subconsciously, but she did not expect Sean to do the same too. So, their heads touched each other.

They were both shocked by each other's cool foreheads before looking up. They were very close to each other, and they could even feel one another's breath...

It was Molly's first time looking at Sean's flawless face at such a close distance. Her heart started thumping as she felt dizzy like she was drunk, and she even blushed. She stood up immediately, looking awkward and shy.

On the other hand, Sean looked very natural. However, only he knew he had a tingling and itchy feeling on his chest when he met Molly's eyes. He felt as if a feather swiped al. 'ss his chest...

Tony was standing not far away from them. He looked at Molly and then his boss. That strange feeling came up again. He just had a feeling that something special was going on between Molly and Sean...

Chapter 173 Sean smiled faintly as he looked at Molly covering her ears incredulously. After the triplets were done looking at the stars happily, they returned to their room to put away their things before they got ready to soak in the hot springs.

There were different hot springs for men and women, so Molly took Claudia along with her. As for Ben and Alex, they went together with Tony and Sean to the men's area.

Though there were separate hot springs for men and women, the hot springs hotel was a high end hotel. There was also a huge public hot spring for a group to soak in it together and a private hot spring, which was the one they were heading to. A private one was better and quieter, so they would not be disturbed. "This hot spring feels so good!" Alex and Ben were sitting at the shallow parts of the hot spring that are for children as they exclaimed comfortably.

Sean smiled as a response. He was soaking with Tony, and they were not far from the siblings, where they could still keep an eye on them.

Above the natural hot springs were heavy clouds of hot steam. The water was hot, and one could feel the warmth spreading throughout the body as they soaked in it. Anyone would feel relaxed and be able to take their minds off their worries.

It was already late when they were done. Molly was in a bathrobe when she took Claudia to a sauna room that she had booked. But when they arrived, she realized Sean and the rest of them were earlier than them.

There was a jug of water on the table. Both Alex and Ben were sitting in a corner, and their faces were flushed. On the other hand, Sean was sitting next to the table as he read the finance magazine quietly. Molly's gaze fell on Sean unknowingly. His hair was wet, and some of them were draping before the corners of his eyes, which were fixated on the magazine.

The long robe looked like a regular bathrobe on him. His robe was slightly opened at his chest, and his beauty was both wild and alluring. Sean seemed to have felt Molly's gaze, so he looked up at her. But Molly quickly looked away guiltily as if she had been caught committing a crime. 'I'm probably possessed. That's why I keep looking at Sean. Even my heart is racing unusually fast,' Molly wondered. Tony was making tea at a corner. When he saw Molly walking in with Claudia, he immediately called her over for some tea.

The triplets were each holding a cup of tea, and Molly poured a glass of water to exchange it with the cup of tea that was meant for Sean.

"Just drink some water. Scented teas like this aren't good for you." Molly passed him the glass of water while she was speaking.

"Alright." Sean nodded as he never bothered about these. Besides, Molly was treating him, so everything she says goes. He took the cup of water Molly was passing to him, and his fingertips touched hers. They were cold, and it took him back to the time when he looked at Molly in the observatory, where his heart was all tingly. Molly did not know what Sean was thinking about, but she felt slightly numb in her fingertips where they touched. She acted calm as she passed Sean the glass of water before walking away.

VV

But Molly did not see that Sean had subconsciously touched his fingertip as well. That area was where their fingers came into contact just now.

They stayed in the sauna room for another half an hour. When they saw that it was getting late, they packed their things and went back to their hotel room.

Chapter 174 It was already 9 pm at night when they went back to their room. The triplets rarely went out, so they were still extremely energized even when it was time for them to rest.

"Mommy, Uncle Sean, play a game with us!" The triplets invited them for a game eagerly, and both Sean and Molly were intrigued and curious about the game they were playing, so they agreed.

The triplets were extremely excited as they had already got it all planned in their head. They smiled mischievously as they invited them in.

They sat in a circle in the room, and Tony was standing next to Sean. The warm yellow light was shining on the adorable faces of the triplets, and the atmosphere was warm and wholesome.

"What are we playing?" Tony asked. "Heh, truth or dare poker, but just the dare!" Ben smiled cheekily. "The game is simple. You just have to draw a card and compare it with the other players to see whose card is the biggest," Alex explained, and he was looking thrilled.

Tony arched his brows as he thought about something. Then, he said, "Why don't we spice things up by adding chances or punishments? The player with the biggest card can tell the player with the smallest card what to do."

'If not, the game will not be as interesting,' Tony wondered.

However, Tony did not know that his suggestion was exactly the triplet's cup of tea. They were elated when Tony made that suggestion, so they agreed wholeheartedly. Molly and Sean did not mind either, so the game started after Tony had shuffled the deck of cards.

In the first round, each of them drew a card in order. They all had a natural expression after looking at their cards, so there was no way of telling who was suspicious. Needless to say, every one of them was sneaky. The old and young foxes were all gathered together.

"Show your cards." Everyone flipped their cards the minute Alex was done speaking.

Molly's card was the biggest, a red king of hearts. Everyone else had number cards, and Alex had the smallest card, a three of diamonds. Alex was speechless when he saw his card, but he still accepted his fate. 'Mommy's the winner. What is she going to make me do?'" Ben and Claudia were anticipating as well. 'Will mommy give Alex a punishment?'

"Let's see. Since you're always on your computer, why don't you spend an hour less on it?" Molly suggested as she looked at Alex.

Alex loved looking at his computer at such a young age, so Molly was gravely worried about his eyes. But when she saw her son being so fascinated and gifted at it, she figured she should not be too controlling. Now that she had a chance, she obviously wanted to let it out.

Alex admitted defeat, so he agreed with a nod. When the second round started, everyone seemed to be more in tune with one another. After they checked their cards, they just exchanged looks and flipped their cards without someone to instruct them.

Tony had the biggest card value, a black queen of spades, followed by Sean with a red ten of hearts. The triplets all had smaller cards than Sean and Tony, and Molly was the only one who had not shown her card. "What's yours, mommy?" Claudia asked curiously. "Haha, a three?! Mommy is afraid to show her card!" Ben guessed. His eyes were sparkling as he had the smallest card at that moment, a black four of spades. Sean looked at her faintly without saying anything. He seemed to have guessed her card by looking at her expression.

Molly smiled at him and flipped her card. 'A king of diamonds!' Ben covered his mouth shockingly. 'Shoot, mommy's the winner again!' 'Mommy had already taken an hour of computer time away from Alex. Does this mean that... I have to go through such a cruel punishment too?!' "You're not allowed to play games for a week," Molly said without hesitation as she looked at him amusingly Crack... Ben felt like his heart had shattered as he wailed, "Ah! No!! You're too cruel, mommy!"

Chapter 175 "You have to admit defeat," Molly reminded Ben nicely.

"Oh, alright..." Ben had a sour expression when he agreed, but everyone found him adorable.

Claudia cackled as she said sympathetically, "You're too unlucky!"

In the third round, everyone flipped their cards open. This time, Tony was the winner, and Claudia was the loser.

Tony was delighted as he looked at Claudia, who was blinking and smiling sweetly at him like an obedient kitten. Tony's heart melted in an instant..

He just could not withstand Claudia's cuteness.

Tony smiled and said, "Claudia, kiss boss on the cheek!"

A

.

'Boss wouldn't mind, and Claudia loves him. Nothing is inappropriate here.' Besides, Tony went easy on Claudia, so it was not considered a punishment. Claudia was thrilled as she immediately agreed and inched closer to Sean to peck him on the cheek.

Ben and Alex looked at her enviously. They wanted to be close to their father too!

.

Sean smiled with his eyes as his heart softened when he looked at Claudia's cute and energetic expression.

The game went on.

Molly won the most, and her luck was starting to wear off. She would lose a few rounds, but Sean was the most special player in the game. His luck was stable as he had never won nor lost.

When it was getting late, they decided to play the last game before they went to bed. Everyone looked at their cards and flipped them at the same time. Claudia was the winner with a black king of spades, and Molly was the loser with a black five of spades.

1

All of them looked at Claudia's sweet face. She looked around mischievously and remembered Tony's previous command. "Mommy, kiss Uncle Sean!" Claudia immediately said. Molly was stunned. "No, don't fool around, Claudia." Not only her but both Tony and Sean were also stunned, and they were starting to look slightly awkward. Claudia put on an innocent expression as she continued speaking clear-eyed. "I'm not! If I can kiss Uncle Sean, you can too!" She then asked suspiciously, "Isn't this what good friends do? Don't we do this all the time when we're overseas?"

Molly was at a loss for words and suddenly had no idea how to defend herself.

Alex and Ben did not join in. They knew that Claudia was the best person to talk to about this.

If they appeared pushy, the adults might feel that it was intentional.

Besides, Molly was slow to open up. If they started out too strongly, they might ruin Molly's relationship with Sean! When they were considering these, Alex felt nervous instead of anticipation when he looked at Molly. He wanted to know where his father stood in his mother's heart at the moment.

CA

Sean hesitated and thought, 'This is quite disrespectful to her. I should ask Claudia to change...'

While he was still thinking about how to put his thoughts into words, Molly suddenly took a deep breath. Behind everyone's back, a slim figure inched closer to him quickly.

–
–
–

Instantly, two shadows were seen leaning together and eventually becoming one on the pale yellow wall. The warm light filled the room and shone on their faces, one above another. The tall figure moved back, and the space next to Sean was filled with warm yellow light once again.

The wholesome room was filled with an unnoticeable flirtatious atmosphere in an instant. Molly put her hands behind her back as she gripped the ends of her shirt tightly. She forced herself to look at Sean directly with her clear eyes. “Sorry.” ‘D*mn it, what am I even doing?!’ Sean looked at her, who spoke politely with a distant and expressionless face. ‘My warmth is still lingering on those lips...’

Chapter 176 It was impossible for Sean to find Molly cold.

The triplets were surprised as they stared at the both of them with their mouths wide open as they had already prepared themselves mentally that Molly would reject them. ‘Who would’ve thought?!’ They were over the moon!

The triplets were so happy that they could not speak, but the joy on their faces was loud, and their hearts pounded happily.

Sean finally spoke after some time, “Don’t worry about it...” His palms were hot as if he was holding a lump of burning coal. He clenched his hands, and it just felt warmer, so he opened his hands.

He had never felt like this before.

“Don’t make such requests anymore.” If Sean continued staring at Molly, she felt that her face was going to be as red as a tomato! So, she turned and warned her kids.

She looked anything but expressionless.

The triplets chuckled, “If you don’t like it, we won’t do it again, mommy.”

The game was initially ending, but they played on after the triplets pestered them. The atmosphere was just too awkward!

They had to mend things between their father and mother. Furthermore, they just loved this game!

Molly continued playing for some time with her burning cheeks. When she saw that it was getting late, she said, “Okay, it’s about time for Uncle Sean’s treatment.”

The game ended. The triplets and Tony were self-aware enough to leave on their own. When Molly noticed, she immediately said, “You can stay.”

Sean looked up at her.

Molly just felt a little awkward and guilty if they were left alone. She felt like she had made a move on Sean...

However, the triplets suddenly became sensible and gave Sean some space. They were saying that they did not want to disturb their mother during the treatment. Tony obviously did not stay when he heard the triplets, so he insisted on bringing the triplets to bed and left with them.

So, Molly and Sean were the only ones left in the room. Molly looked at the closed door and pulled out her needle case. She turned and met Sean's gaze by accident, so she cleared her throat awkwardly and said, "Let's start." "Okay." Compared to her, Sean looked exceptionally natural.

When Molly started piercing the needle into his legs, her fingers touched his skin. The contact was more apparent than before, and Molly immediately wanted to pull her hand away sensitively and run away, but her professionalism kept her from doing so. Sean felt a tingle in his heart as he looked down subconsciously. A fair, delicate face came into sight immediately, and his breath stopped for a second as the weird feeling grew in his heart once again. He felt a little uneasy, so he looked away quietly. Molly pierced him precisely at certain areas with the needles. When she was taking another one, she stole a glance at Sean. "He looks extremely calm, so why should I be embarrassed? I wasn't the one who got kissed anyway. If I continue being so embarrassed, it's going to get weird.' So, Molly prepared herself and put away her thoughts as she continued the treatment steadily. "Alright, it's done." She kept her things when she was done with the treatment. "I'm going back."

*

S

Sean nodded and watched her leave/

When she got back to her room, she saw that the triplets were already asleep. Tony was slightly tired as he sat at the table with his head in his hand. He immediately got up when he saw the door opening. "Is the treatment over?" Tony rubbed his eyes as he asked. "Yeah, you should head back and get some rest too. Thanks for taking care of them," Molly thanked him "It's no big deal, so don't worry about it. Thank you for treating my boss, Miss Molly." Tony smiled as he yawned continuously. His eyes were already teary when he was done responding. He was getting embarrassed, so he just left as he rubbed his eyes. Molly closed the door and stared at the triplets while she thought to herself. Actually, she figured out what the triplets were up to.

Chapter 177 The triplets intentionally walked away to create some alone time for her and Sean. She would be too dense if she still had not noticed it.

The triplets were too obvious. When Molly thought about this, she felt resigned. After all, she could not question each of her children

The triplets were sleeping together as their soft cheeks lay on the sheets. They were sound asleep, and the whole picture of them sleeping made Molly's heart fuzzy.

Molly sat down and watched them as she pondered on a question for the first time.

Do they want a father?'

The next morning, after their breakfast.

They packed their stuff and got ready to leave the hot springs hotel and go home.

When they were almost home, they saw a luxury car parked right out of Sean's house from afar. Abigail was in the car, and she smiled when she saw Sean's car arriving. She then immediately got down the car to see him.

Tony parked the car and carried Sean down. It was like a routine, and Abigail was not needed to help him out.

At the same time, the rear door of the car opened, and Molly and the triplets got down. Abigail immediately frowned. This woman again?! She maintained a normal expression, but she was extremely upset. So, she asked curiously, "Why did... all of you come back together?" The triplets stood behind Molly as they stared at her alertly. Sean did not answer her as he felt that an outsider had no right to ask about his personal affairs. He just sat in the wheelchair elegantly and asked coldly. "What brings you here?"

"Something about the project our families are working on. I'm here to talk to you about it today," Abigail said as she looked at him. Sean nodded, and Tony pushed him to the frontmost position with Abigail, Molly, and the triplets behind them. Abigail looked at Sean's back and took the chance to walk next to Molly. "Our meeting short last time, so I didn't get to greet you properly." She then continued, "I heard you're Sean's doctor, am I right? Thank you for taking care of him." Abigail heard from Mrs. Anderson that this woman was Sean's doctor, and her name was Molly May. Molly immediately thought of Mrs. Anderson when she heard Abigail's tone. Mrs. Anderson had also used the same tone to talk to her that day and was saying the same thing as Abigail as well.

'Does this woman think she is Mr. Anderson's elder now?' Molly cursed in her head.

However, she was not a fool to stoop that low Molly smiled and responded, "Don't worry about it. Mr. Anderson thanked me himself already."

The triplets could sense that Abigail had ill intentions, so Alex immediately asked, "Uncle Sean, who is this woman?" "A friend," Sean answered without hesitation. To Sean, calling Abigail a friend was already being nice to her. His actual relationship with Abigail was just a stranger that he had met before. Abigail's expression froze, but she returned to her natural expression very quickly. "You're too polite, Miss May. Though I'm friends with Sean, our families are very close. Sean and I can even be considered childhood friends. It's only reasonable for me to thank you."

Usually, a woman who deliberately wanted to get closer to Sean would back off when she put her title out there. 'I don't believe Molly would be so shameless!'

Ben responded and walked next to Molly. "It's okay, ma'am. We're really close with Uncle Sean! We even went to watch shooting stars and soaked in the hot springs yesterday! There's really no need for us to be so formal with each other."

Chapter 178 "Uncle Sean doesn't even thank my mommy now. We're just like family!"

Claudia ran up to Sean and immediately held his hand as she pouted. "Isn't it, Uncle Sean?" she asked seriously.

Sean was amused as he held her hand to prevent her from falling.

He then nodded with a smile as he felt that Claudia would cry in the very next second if he did not do so.

CA

T

I

Thriller

110 il

oll

Claudia instantly grinned brightly and pecked him on the cheek. "You're the best, Uncle Sean!" They looked like a happy family to Abigail, and she felt like she was the only one who was an outsider.

Her expression darkened. 'Aren't they just a doctor and a patient? Why did they go to the hot springs together? Why are they getting closer to each other?!' Abigail looked at Molly subconsciously as she wondered. Her expression was hostile, and her gaze was dark.

.

.

CO

Molly noticed it with her sharp senses, so she looked back and stared back at Abigail coldly.

A

Y

Molly understood why Abigail was seeing her as a foe. 'Seems like Miss Nolan has already treated me as her love rival, huh?'

Abigail was about to say something, but a cold and distant gaze fell on her. "Miss Nolan, aren't you here to talk about a project? Come in." An upset voice was heard. Sean was being extremely cold. If it was not for the project, he would never be in contact with her.

Besides, Abigail used him for her own gain without any hesitation. Who knew how many times she had used what she said to Molly on other people?

Abigail was extremely upset, but she still nodded and walked over.

Tony was speechless. 'Why doesn't Miss Nolan give us a heads up before she comes? Doesn't she know boss rarely sees anyone in private?' 'At the end of the day, she's still the daughter of the Nolan family. She's really disrespectful for acting like this. Tony immediately felt repelled by Abigail.

When they got in, Sean said right away, "I'm busy, so let's start now." Abigail did not dare to delay any further, so she took the project plan from her bag and gave it to him. "I produced this myself. Hope you can give me some advice," Abigail said with a slightly nervous tone. She had shown this to her colleagues, and none of them found any issues with it, so she finally brought it to Sean. However, she suddenly lacked confidence when she saw how serious Sean looked as he scanned the pages carefully. Tony served two hot teas on the table, one in front of each of them. He then left, not wanting to bother them any further. Sean had the project plan in one hand as he frowned. He looked at the cup of tea and took a sip of it after blowing on it gently. Abigail was feeling a little uneasy. When she saw Sean drinking tea, she quickly took a sip out of her cup of tea. However, she immediately pulled herself back when the hot tea touched her lips.

‘Why is mine so hot? Isn’t Sean afraid of heat?’

But she was afraid to disturb Sean, so she just put the cup of tea back on the table. “The plan is not precise enough, and several areas lack details. The materials needed for the special project aren’t complete yet, so the upper management won’t distribute them to you.” Sean placed the plan on the table after he was done speaking. He looked serious and slightly unhappy as well. “This project plan is not good enough. If this continues, don’t bother wasting my time again,” Sean said harshly. “Sorry, Sean. I’ll be more mindful next time and change for the better. Thank you for the advice,” Abigail apologized with utmost sincerity.

Chapter 179 Abigail took back the project plan, but it was not easy for her to see Sean, so she was not satisfied if she just left like that.

Abigail then put away the project plan.

“On my birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson said you couldn’t show up because you were too busy. You have to take good care of yourself. Don’t overwork yourself,” Abigail said sincerely, and her expression was genuine. Her gaze on Sean was filled with concern as well.

Sean responded coldly with a “K” as he thought, ‘Why is she still here?’ For the sake of the relationship between their family, Sean did not express his frustration. “What are you busy with these days?” Abigail insisted on finding new topics to talk about. “I talk with Mrs. Anderson sometimes, and she told me that you haven’t been going home for some time. I’m just asking, don’t take it to heart.”

“Busy with work.” Sean’s answer was pithy as he was starting to feel irritated while he listened to Abigail’s cacophony.

Facing the man that had no intention of making her stay, Abigail felt utterly displeased, but she still asked through her teeth, “Then do you want to have lunch together later?” “No, I have work to do.” His tone remained cold. Abigail did not mind as she smiled and responded, “We can eat at home.”

Sean was upset as he looked down at the warm tea in his hands. Without even looking up, he said coldly, “It isn’t convenient for you to be here.” “Why not?”

Abigail was not having it as she had already lowered herself to that extent. ‘Why is he still so cold to me?’ ‘We’re even family friends that grew up together!’

Even Tony could not help but find Abigail shameless. 'Boss has already rejected her so many times, but she could still stay here so shamelessly. Doesn't she know she's an outsider?' Tony was annoyed. 'Who is the actual owner of this Terahis Grove mansion?' Sean did not respond as Chapter 180 'If it wasn't for that woman, would Sean be this cold to me?! As the daughter of the Nolan family, I've already lowered myself, yet he still didn't make me stay! This is all because of that woman, Molly May!!' Abigail was filled with disappointment and unwillingness when she looked at Sean's mansion from her car.

When she got back, she immediately got her assistant to check Molly's background in great detail.

She will never let anyone ruin her relationship with Sean. "Mrs. Anderson" is a title that she will never give to anyone.

On the other hand, the triplets leaned on the windowsill as they looked out.

'Did they cunning woman leave yet?'

'It was just inappropriate for a man and woman to be alone in a house!'

Though Uncle Tony and the butler were in there, the triplets were sure that that woman had feelings for their father!

Obviously, they had forgotten that they had purposely put Sean and Molly in a room. Honestly, it was rather inappropriate as well.

"Never. Uncle Sean only belongs to mommy!" Alex suddenly said affirmatively.

"Let's come up with something so they don't have the chance to be alone together anymore!" Ben chimed in.

"Why don't we just look for Uncle Sean? He will definitely let us in since he loves us." Claudia looked slightly worried as she wondered, 'How can our daddy be together with another woman?!'

The triplets thought hard of a reason for them to go to Sean's place.

Molly heard Claudia and stopped. "Don't fool around. The two of them are talking about work, so why do you want to disturb them?" Molly asked with a frown.

"But mommy..." Claudia wanted to continue, but Molly interrupted her. "No more 'buts'. Whoever leaves this house will not get any food!" The triplets stopped looking at Sean's house after Molly warned them. They pulled a long face as all they could do was end this with regret. In the afternoon, Sean and Tony went over to Molly's place to have lunch. "Where's that lady, Uncle Sean?" Alex asked. "She left," Tony answered Alex on behalf of Sean as he knew that his boss did not want to bring up Abigail anymore.

Then, Alex tried to pry by asking, "That lady looks pretty, and she's from a respectable family. Don't you fancy her one bit, Uncle Sean?" The triplets looked at Sean with a burning gaze.

Molly heard, but she did not interrupt them and stared at Sean as well. She also wanted to know how Sean would answer that question. |||

Tony had been with Sean for a long time, so he naturally knew what Sean was thinking, so he just continued enjoying the delicious food with his head lowered. Sean smiled faintly as he found it amusing. These kiddos are just young kids, but they're asking such mature questions. What a little grown-up.'

"You're all still little. Do you know how fancying someone feels like?" Molly chuckled and wanted to know how her children would answer his question as well. Their conversation that day was obviously making her intrigued. The triplets nodded in unison. "Of course, you'll want to be with that person for the rest of your life and grow old together," Alex answered. "Do you feel that way for that lady, Uncle Sean?" Claudia asked. Sean immediately denied, "Nope." The triplets were relieved in an instant. Thank God! Mommy still has a chance!!! After lunch, Tony left Molly's place with Sean. Molly got the triplets to read for some time before getting them to take a nap. When she left the triplet's room, she wanted to take a rest as well. But suddenly, the doorbell rang. 'Who would come at this time?' Molly wondered as she went down to open the door.