

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 441-500

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 441-All the unpleasant things were eliminated by the man in front of Molly. Even the mess created by the Grants did not matter to Molly anymore.

Only the best things in the world were left.

Sean's face was full of smiles. If it was a smile of the CEO of the Anderson Corporation or the eldest son of the Andersons who had no shrewdness , it would be a lethal smile!

The cold and fierce expression had instantly melted away, leaving only the tenderness of smiles.

Molly's breathing slowed down. Her heartbeat went out of control, and a warm feeling flowed into her chest. This gift and the man who was completely different from his usual self.

It was as though Sean was hinting at something to Molly.

Molly wanted to ask some questions. She wanted to know if the sudden behavior meant anything.

Molly opened her mouth slightly and looked at Sean. But her mouth closed again, and the words in her mind slipped away.

This was the first time Molly had cold feet.

Molly quickly cleared her mind and said with a smile," Thank you. I like this gift very much." "You're welcome. I'm glad you like it." Molly got up and began the treatment for Sean. The bracelet shone magnificently under the light. She could not help but glance at it.

Sean looked at Molly quietly.. He saw how she was about to talk but stopped, and her eyelids twitched.

Molly still did not say it, and Sean was not in a hurry to point it out.

Sean had plenty of time and enough patience to let Molly feel his sincere intention.

No matter what, Sean wanted to keep Molly by his side. He wanted to wholly own her, and she belonged to him alone.

However, Sean knew very well that this behavior was not desirable and was not what Molly wanted.

Sean would not do that. He hoped his love could make Molly happy, and he would be content. “What was it like when you lived in the countryside?” Sean asked.

Sean wanted to know all of Molly’s past and not hear it from someone else. That way, he could figure out what she really needed.

‘Huh? Why did he suddenly ask that?’ Molly thought. Molly was silent, but she replied after a while, “The countryside is naturally not as good as the city. The expenses on food and clothing were relatively less, and the environment was difficult.

“In addition, they preferred sons over daughters. I have to do a lot of heavy work at home. At that time, I wondered why the work was endless every day.

“For example, in all seasons, no matter how hot or cold it was. I had to work in the fields and wash my family’s clothes by the river. I can’t be lazy because I have to rush home to cook. It was a very, very harsh and tiring life.” “Don’t you feel wronged?” Sean asked softly, feeling bad for a person for the first time. Molly sighed helplessly and stopped her movements for a while. “Of course, I felt wronged. Sometimes I wonder, the other children did not work as hard as me, so why do I have to do so much? I didn’t have enough food, and I couldn’t wear warm clothes. I was just a kid back then. Of course, I felt it was unfair.

“Also, I didn’t look good before. I worked under the sun all day, and my skin was very tanned. At that time, I didn’t have the chance to dress up or care for myself.” Molly curled her lips, looking a little indifferent. She continued, “You should know this. Many people look at others’ outer appearances first. I wasn’t good-looking back then, so everyone ignored me.” Just like back then, when Molly was brought home by the Mays, she received a lot of cold eyes.

Ultimately, everyone disregarded the truth, the right, and the wrong and blamed everything on Molly, Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 442-Molly did not want to experience those dark days anymore.

"You don't look ugly," Sean said. A halo of light fell on Molly's head from the light. It made her hair look very soft, and it made people want to touch it.

"Well, my skin got better after I went abroad," said Molly as she nodded. After turning the needle firmly, she raised her head and continued, "Although those days were harsh and tiring, Caden was the only one who cared about me." At that time, Caden was the only one who was good to Molly in the whole countryside.

L Sean noticed the perseverance in Molly's gaze, and her tone was extremely positive. He acknowledged Caden in his heart.

12 "So, now that I had shed a wretched plight, I had to be nice to him." Molly sat back in that position again and rubbed her waist.

Sean nodded in agreement and comforted her with concern. "It's okay.

Everything is in the past now." Sean had not experienced that kind of life before, and he had no idea how hard it was to endure it.

Sean felt sorry for Molly in his heart. As the daughter of the May family, she should have been pampered, yet she suffered all this by accident instead.' She's such an innocent and wronged girl.

'Fortunately, Molly has always been so kind because of Caden.

'It was because someone had once given warmth to Molly that she knew the right direction and didn't go astray.' Sean did not think about it much. He decided secretly that he would not let Molly suffer those hardships again.

After a while, Molly left immediately after extracting the needles.

The next day. Sean brought Molly to look for Caden. A child still had to go to school. Being angry was okay, but he could not delay his studies. He should not save a little only to lose a lot.

"Caden, it's time for you to go home." Sean looked at the stubborn boy's back and tried to persuade him. Molly did not say a word. She looked at her brother and thought.

'Since they are of the same sex, they should have the same thoughts in their hearts. So, it may be better to let Sean persuade Caden.

Caden turned around and looked at Molly and Sean.

When Caden recalled what happened yesterday, he felt pain in his heart, which was extremely uncomfortable. “Home? That place is not a home anymore!” said Caden as he gulped. He endured the grief that welled up in his heart and continued, “Even though the living conditions were harsh in the past, I felt that everything was fine when Molly was there.” Caden treats Molly as his own sister, which had not changed since he was a child.

Molly felt that Caden was someone who treated her well at that time.

Similarly, Caden thought so too.

In the darkness, the two were each other’s only source of light. So, they cherished it very much.

“Now they wanted me to treat Diana as my sister? Does she even deserve it?

She is a selfish, hypocritical, and vain woman. I really don’t know what my parents were thinking.” Caden looked at Molly and softly said, “It was obvious that you are the kind one, Molly. Why can’t they see that?

“They even insulted and resented you! What have you done to deserve their ill– treatment for so many years? I really don’t understand!” “That’s not my home, and I don’t want to stay there!” Caden growled as though he was pouring out all the grievances in his heart.

Staying in that house had made Caden feel extremely cold, and there was no trace of family affection at all.

Sometimes, the Grants said something toxic to Caden and even punched and kicked him.

Caden felt that his existence was like a tool. A tool used to meet the needs of parents. The ignorant and backward country places were proud of having boys.

The Grants treated Caden very well so that they could feel as proud as those in the countryside.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 443-Caden just lived his life like that, step by step. Whenever his parents did something for him, they were already thinking about how Caden had to repay them...

Caden's eyes were full of tears. He looked at Molly as though he was looking at his lifesaver. The hardships and grievances that Molly suffered in those years were seen in Caden's eyes and remembered in his heart. IL Whenever Molly went to work, Caden secretly found an excuse to sneak out and help her in the fields. Caden was still young and did not understand why his parents treated Molly like that. He fought with his parents many times, but he was severely beaten in the end. However, Caden did not care about all that at that time. He only knew that Molly was the best sister in the world, and no one could bully her. When Molly heard his brother's words, she was very touched. Her eyes flashed, and she called out softly, "Caden..." Molly had been relieved from the past. It did not matter to Molly whether the Grants understood her.

She had her own life, and there was no need to entangle them anymore. To Molly, Caden was still young, and he still needed time to grow up. It was customary for him to not be able to let go at this moment Caden heard Molly's voice. Like a balloon punctured by a needle, his tears flowed down immediately. Caden bit his lip stubbornly. He raised his arm and kept wiping away the tears. He did it so quickly as if he did not want to be seen by them. Sean looked at them with a heavy heart. He knew that it was not easy for both of them. Sean exhaled gently, "You are still young, and no one has taught you most of the things in this world." "I'll tell you this now. As long as you grow up and become strong enough, you can dominate everything."

Sean's eyes shot out a force that was directly embedded in Caden's heart. He added a sentence with certainty. "Including your parents." Caden looked at Sean blankly, and his tears stopped falling, leaving only two evident traces of tears. Caden's mind went blank for a moment. It was as if he was hit by a force, and his mind had suddenly shut off. Caden was silent for a long time. He was pondering on what Sean had just said.

Finally, the young man lowered his head slowly. He looked at his palm and then clenched it into a fist. It was as though he was learning to grasp that power into his hand. 'It's true. I'm not strong enough to protect Molly. That's why Molly got hurt, and he couldn't do anything.' Caden thought to himself. Caden figured out the most fundamental problem and suddenly raised his head. Caden walked toward Sean. He had pulled himself together, and his eyes were filled with determination. He said, "I will definitely become stronger."

Thank you, brother-in-law!” “Cough...” Molly’s expression changed. She was startled by the sudden call from Caden. Molly felt that she was choked. She stared at her brother faintly and warned, “Don’t simply say it.” “What brother-in-law? We aren’t even officially a couple yet. Why did Caden call Sean that?

That title is called only after we’re married... ‘No! It’s not about getting married!’ Molly’s mind was stunned for a second. She was feeling ashamed of her own thoughts. ‘What was I even thinking about?’ Caden glanced at the two people standing together before him, and he thoughtfully said. “But Molly, you and Sean are really made for each other. Better get together sooner rather than later.” Caden did not know why, but he always thought the two were meant for each other. They even seem to have an indescribable harmony. ‘Could this be the legendary husband-wife look?’ Caden still did not understand these things. He just simply expressed his inner thoughts.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 444-Molly’s cheeks blushed slightly. She pursed her lips and glanced at the person behind her. She embarrassedly said, “I’m sorry about that.

Please disregard what he just said.” Sean just smiled and did not say anything. But he calmly cast an appreciative look at Caden. Caden looked at Sean and understood it instantly. He could not hold back and laugh, which made Molly even more embarrassed. ‘I shouldn’t have come if I knew this would happen! Molly was indignant. At that moment, the atmosphere in the house was not so stiff. However, having said that, Sean admired the fact that Caden was able to regain his strength. A child-like Caden who was knowledgeable and sensible. If he did not go astray, he would definitely be able to achieve greatness in the future. It was just a matter of time.

The Grants’ couple were fortunate to have such a promising son and such an excellent adopted daughter like Molly. It was a pity that the Grants did not see their children’s goodness! After chatting with Caden for a while and enlightening him, he was willing to say goodbye and leave. Before Caden left, he suddenly thought of something. He took out a box from his pocket and held it in front of Molly. “Molly, this is for you. I wanted to give it to you after your birthday celebration yesterday. But I didn’t expect...” Caden did not expect his parents would suddenly appear, and he suddenly ran away. His actions had indirectly ruined Molly’s birthday party. Molly patted Caden’s shoulder and reached out to take what Caden gave her. After opening it, Molly found that there was a silver necklace lying inside. Molly opened her mouth slightly in surprise. ‘I remember this necklace!’ Molly thought. Back in junior high, there was a time when Molly wished to have a beautiful necklace for her birthday.

After Caden learned about it, he decided to save all his money. It took him a long time to buy Molly that necklace. Molly teared up because she thought that the necklace was long gone. However, Caden had kept it for her this whole time. "Caden, thank you. This is the gift I like the most!" Seeing Molly happy, Caden was also delighted.

Tony then sent Caden home. Since the car could not get in outside the alley, Caden asked Tony to go back first, and he walked home alone. At the Grants' residence, Samson and Linda were both there. Their expressions did not look good. Caden was still bitter about what happened yesterday. When he was about to pass by them, he heard a breaking wind behind him, and he subconsciously avoided it. An object landed on his previous position in just one second and shattered instantly. It was the cup Samson threw. "You little punk, shouldn't you apologize for what you had pulled?"

Samson and Linda searched for him the whole night and have not had much rest until now. Seeing that Caden came back intact, Samson became enraged. Since the cup did not hit Caden, Samson wanted to come over and hit Caden himself. Fortunately, Linda made her move in time and held Samson back. "My dear, calm down. It's alright since our son is back. He returns to show that he still knows that this is his home and that we are his parents." Linda tried to calm Samson down, but Caden ignored them and returned to his room to continue his studies. 'Knowledge is power and wealth, and knowledge can change destiny!' Caden's mind was filled with what Sean had said to him. He looked at the pile of books on the table. His heart was full of determination more than ever.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 445-Tm grateful for what you and Mr. Hill did for Caden,"said Molly.

After she had said goodbye to Caden, she and Sean took a walk outside.

If Sean had not asked Tony to chase after Caden last night, Molly would not have been able to find Caden today. After being away from the Grants for so long, Molly only now understood how deeply the Grants resented her. Not only had Molly severed ties with the Grants, but even their son, who used to love them the most, wanted to leave them. = Sean said with a smile, "This is what friends are for. You don't need to thank me for such a trivial thing. If you did that, you are treating me as a stranger. If you want to thank me, you could always treat me to a meal at noon." "Sure!" Molly smiled and said without hesitation. Since they were friends, being too courteous would make them seem like strangers. So, the two went out for lunch together at noon. The location was chosen by Sean, which was a high-end Kalosan restaurant with authentic Kalosan food. Since Sean could not take alcohol, Molly ordered the drinks for each other. After they had finished their meal, Molly went to pay the bill. When she returned, Sean asked, "Are you free this afternoon? I'd like to take you to a place."

"I'm free. Where are we going?" Molly asked. "It's a secret," Sean said mysteriously.

Molly looked at the rarely mysterious Sean and did not refuse to go with him. But Molly did not expect Sean to take her out to the sea. They hopped on the private yacht they were on together before. Molly listened to the whistles of the sea breeze and went out to the sea with Sean. "Where are we going this time?" Molly asked in a pleasant tone. Sean silently gestured to her and said, "You'll know soon enough."

Molly looked at the endless sea with the salty sea breeze blowing on her face. She did not have a clue about how far the yacht went. Suddenly, the yacht slowed down.

When Molly turned around, she saw something suddenly jump out from the calm sea.

"It's a dolphin!" Molly shouted in surprise. She looked at Sean, who just looked at her with a smile. An uncontrollable feeling of joy spread to Molly's heart, and a big bright smile appeared on her face. "This is what you want to show me?" Molly asked Sean.

The latter nodded. "Last night's birthday party wasn't perfect. Consider this as compensation. Do you like it?" "I like it!" Molly nodded. This was the first time Molly saw dolphins, not in the aquarium. She felt lighthearted as she felt the dolphins' freedom. After watching the dolphins, she and Sean went for a ride at sea again. It was already night when they returned home. Several people in the house saw Molly come back and looked at her resentfully. "Mommy, where did you and uncle go for so long and didn't come home at noon?" Molly did not come home at noon, and they waited all afternoon. "Molly, it doesn't matter if you come back late. But you should leave us a message. We've been waiting for you for lunch for a long time," said Brycen. His grievance was more because no one cooks at home today. In the end, they ordered takeout, but the takeout could not compare with the delicious food made by Molly! Molly patted Brycen's head and recalled. She said, "Sorry, I forgot about that."

Molly thought she had already informed them, but it must have slipped her mind.

“After seeing Caden this morning, I went for a ride at sea with Mr. Anderson. Have you all eaten?” “I haven’t eaten dinner yet,” Alex replied.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 446-The triplets had smiles on their little faces, and only the three knew what each other was thinking. ‘Mommy actually went out with Daddy.

Does that mean Mommy and Daddy are getting closer in their relationship?’ This was great news for the triplets! “Molly, the birthday party was ruined last night. So, should we do it again when our family celebrates another birthday? Next time we can do it-“.

“NO!” Molly made a refusal gesture to stop Brycen’s nagging. “Just go with the flow for the next birthday. No need to bother about it.” Molly was not a diligent person.

Sometimes, she was lazy but also a bit obsessive- compulsive. The birthday streamers decorated at home last night were all cleaned up by her after her birthday party. Molly was very tired after she finished cleaning up everything. She did not plan to do it again. But she overlooked it because it was everyone’s effort to put up the decoration and make the house lively. On Molly’s birthday, the Newman family suffered a heavy blow and met some complications. After being busy those days, the Newman family had just finished resolving their financial losses abroad, and they breathed a sigh of relief. Unexpectedly, the news of the Newman family’s debt spread like wildfire. Like a broken window being flooded by the cold wind. Royce was in his office. He stared at a straight red line on the computer screen. It was the Newman Group’s stock that plummeted to the bottom. No matter how hard they tried to improve the situation, there was no improvement. Just like Royce’s face, it was lifeless.

“Dad...” Sharon gritted her teeth and could not bear to call out loud. Sharon felt all kinds of discomfort in her heart. Not to mention seeing her father like that. It felt like cramps. Sharon and Royce thought they could finally have some peace. However, they did not know why! The news about their debt was leaked, causing many companies that wanted to cooperate with them to abstain from voting. The hope of turning the tide was dashed in an instant, which made them even more desperate than facing the risk of huge debts abroad! Sharon was helpless at that moment, even though she was a bit more mature than her peers and could handle most of the company's affairs. One storm after another fell on their heads. It almost hit the Newman Group to the bottom and left them with nowhere to go. The heavy and bleak atmosphere roamed the office. It floated out the door from the crack and ran through the entire Newman Group. Sharon looked at her father worriedly. 'Dad is getting old, and he has been working hard for the past few months. He finally got the time to rest for a while, and now he had to face another huge blow.' Sharon thought. Even a mature and experienced elder might not be able to withstand it. Sharon could lose, but she did not want anything to happen to her father. After all, as long as people persisted, there was still hope. "Sharon, thank you for all the hard work these days."

Royce's voice was a little hoarse. He turned and slowly looked at his daughter. As a father, Royce felt that he did not provide a good life for Sharon. Everyone else's daughters at Sharon's age worked happily and went shopping as they liked. They would have tea and chat with their friends outside when they had nothing to do. It was a relaxed and comfortable life for them. Not to mention, Sharon was a brilliant daughter. She graduated from a prestigious school, and her future was bright. But Sharon had to follow Royce around all day. She had to handle the company's affairs, run around various departments and banks, and become dejected and depressed. On the other hand, as the CEO of Newman Group, Royce did not take good care of the company. He had led his employees to fall into such a desperate situation. Although it was not as reputable as the Anderson Corporation, the Newman Group once had a respectable position in Northfolk! Royce was full of unwillingness. The stock market on the screen in front of him was still falling. The smooth downward arc was crushing his heart little by little.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 447-7 The Newman Group's situation in Norlon was in bad shape. They were struggling to support themselves now.

Sharon bit her lip and was not willing to accept this. She thought, 'Why should our family suffer this ill fate? 'Was it strength that the Newman Group lacked?

'Why is God so unfair to us!' One who was high and mighty may be bullied by a coward. Sharon was trying to help the Newman Group establish connections and support the company.

But now, Sharon got stepped on by everyone , and they ignored her.

The glory and arrogance of the past were vulnerable in the face of reality!

"It's okay, Dad," said Sharon while standing up straight. No matter the situation, Sharon felt that she must maintain the dignity of the Newman family and would rather die than give in.

"Okay. If you have nothing else in hand, just go back and get some rest." Royce supported his head in his hands. His shoulders were heavily loaded, and his back was bent.

Royce's temples throbbed. His hands were on both sides of his head. His elbows were on the table, and he gazed at the tabletop.

Looking at the computer one more time would make Royce feel like he would die.

"Okay, Dad. You don't overwork yourself." Sharon softened her voice, and she returned to her office. The atmosphere in the company was very depressing while she was on her way out.

As Sharon sat on the soft chair and exhaled, someone sent a message to her.

'What is it now? Did someone want to terminate the contract with the Newman Group?' Sharon thought.

Sharon opened her eyes impatiently. She sat up straight and sat closer to the computer. She clicked on the message and found that it was sent by a friend.

Sharon's friend had a relative living in Terahis Grove. She had contacted this friend long ago to get closer to Sean. She even asked this friend to help keep an eye on Sean. Sharon moved the mouse and slid it down. She gasped, her face completely sank, and she felt that her whole body was cold. Sharon's eyes kept flicking across the photos as if she was examining the contract document.

"A birthday party ..." Sharon looked at the pomp in the photo, She could guess it was a birthday party and it was Molly's.

Because there was also a photo of the moment when Caden entered the door, and Molly welcomed him.

Sharon discovered that the boy was Molly's younger brother after asking around.

However, it was not known who the host of the party was.

A beautiful and homely birthday party, a delighted group of people, and Sean's smiling face.

At that moment, all that turned into countless sharp blades deeply rooted in Sharon's tired heart.

"Hmph..." Sharon raised her hand and pushed the keyboard away. She let out a sullen breath. 'What should I say to her? Happy birthday to Molly? Urgh! I just don't understand why Sean preferred that woman over me. Am I inferior to Molly?' Sharon clenched her fist tightly. She was extremely displeased, and the content of those photos flashed through her mind again.

Sharon closed her eyes and leaned against the back of the chair. She thought, 'If only I was by Sean's side, that would be great.' 'The Anderson Corporation's help will resolve the Newman Group's crisis. There would be no situation like today's plummeting stock market and contract termination.' "Haha..." Sharon laughed at herself. She was too tired and even began to daydream. Sharon could not understand how she could end up in a position like this.

After struggling, again and again, Sharon opened her eyes and looked at the familiar environment. Her heart was already calm.

Sharon wished to get away from the Anderson Corporation and Molly, as far away as she could!

Doing that would allow Sharon to save herself from being humiliated and ignored every time.

As for now, she had to endure all of it. She had to take it no matter what.

For the sake of the Newman Group, she had to.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 448-Fortunately, Mrs. Anderson had not given up on Sharon, and this is the only chance at present.

Sharon took out the cell phone and texted Alice, saying that Sharon would visit her this weekend.

The villa was luxurious and atmospheric . Even the gate was so high that it seemed to be soaring to the clouds.

It was not Sharon's first time coming to the Anderson residence.

Since the last time Sharon was angry with Sean and returned to Norlon, Alice would call Sharon to come over from time to time. One reason was that Alice apologized for Sean's behavior, and the other was to show that Alice had no intention of giving up on Sharon.

Sharon took a deep breath and walked toward the gate. She had informed Alice earlier, and with her permission, the guard would not stop her. "Sharon, it's been a while since you came." Alice had an elegant demeanor and smiled at Sharon. She was wearing a dark red dress that looked extremely elegant.

Alice had a mature temperament and was very charming, which was what a reputable family should look like.

Although Sharon's style was simple and elegant. Every time she stood by Alice's side, she still felt a sense of inferiority. "Good afternoon , Mrs. Anderson. I was busy before and have only freed up some time recently." Sharon was sitting on the soft couch next to Alice.

"I'm sorry to make you come all the way here to see an old lady like me in your free time. I'm not delaying you, am I?" Alice had known about the Newman family's lie from before.

However, the project was completely taken over by Sean. Alice was not a naive fool. No one in the world would not want money.

The Andersons were a big family, and they did not need to be angry about it. Just being completely isolated from each other for the rest of their lives would do.

"Nonsense, Mrs. Anderson. You're still as beautiful as ever." Sharon's eyes fell on Alice, and there was a hint of coldness in her eyes. "I have nothing else to do, so it didn't matter." If it was before, there was no need for Sharon to please Alice so eagerly!

"Goodness me, I'm really getting old. I've been having a bit of a migraine for the past two days," said Alice. She put one hand on the arm of the couch and stroked her temples with two fingers. She looked a little melancholy.

Alice felt that her body was not what it used to be anymore.

‘That Sean. When is he going to get married? Is it only after I die that he will only start a family?’ When Alice thought of her son, she could not help but feel a little angry. ‘There is such a good lady was by his side. Yet, he picked up some trashy women.

‘What’s the point of Molly being so beautiful?

‘None of these women who married into the Anderson family were because of appearances. But rather, the match of the family status.

‘My boy, Sean. I must have given too much freedom to you!’ Sharon saw through Alice’s thoughts and smiled lightly. She said, “Don’t worry, Mrs. Anderson.” Sharon reached out and pulled Alice’s arm. She leaned close to Alice and said, “It’s not too late for someone to be ready now, right?” Sharon raised her eyebrows and smiled. She tried to restrain the discomfort in her heart. It was obvious that she seldom approached others so proactively.

Alice glanced at the pretty girl, and her mood naturally improved. She said nothing and just smiled. She did not push Sharon away either.

Sharon immediately understood what the other party meant and smiled.

Sharon’s accumulated fatigue in her heart from the past few days had subsided a little. She sat straight and said,” Let me diagnose you.” Sharon did a set of examinations for Alice. Sharon’s action was trying to prove that she was not a worthless medical student.

After that, Sharon prescribed some medicine for Alice. The dosage suited Alice’s condition, and there were no side effects.

Half an hour later, the housekeeper went upstairs and took the medicine down.

Recently, Mrs. Anderson had migraines, and the housekeeper instructed the servants to prepare all the medicines for migraine. Regardless of western or alternative medication.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 449-Needless to say, the cost of the medication was nothing to them.

The Anderson family was filthy rich and had a strong background. It was the first time Sharon had witnessed it.

‘Are you serious...? ‘It’s nothing but a minor headache.’ Sharon suppressed her surprise and thanked the butler before preparing the medication for Alice.

She had always thought that she was living lavishly, but she never expected the Andersons to take lavish living to this extent, which was the norm for them!

She boiled the herbs and waited for the dregs to float before she took them out.

Sharon could not imagine how she would live if she married into the Anderson family.

Compared to the Andersons, she honestly found her life in her family exceedingly challenging.

It was easy for the poor to live like the rich, but it was hard for the rich to live like the poor!

In an instant, Sharon decided that she had to put in more effort to win Alice’s heart. 1 After the medication was done, she personally served the bowl of herbal tonic to Alice in the living room. “Mrs. Anderson, it’s ready.” Alice looked over and noticed the steam that was coming from the bowl. It did not look like it was boiling hot, so she looked up at Sharon and smiled. “Thank you very much.” ‘Sharon did not serve me right after it was done. She waited for it to cool down so it wouldn’t burn me, and I could drink it right away.

‘What a thoughtful young lady,’ Alice thought.

Alice took the bowl and as expected, it did not burn her hands, which made her more impressed with Sharon.

She still felt uneasy when she saw Sharon working herself to the bone. After all, Sharon was the baby daughter of the Newman family. How could she be treated as a servant?

However, Alice found Sharon to be really considerate, which made her feel comfortable around Sharon. So, she naturally allowed Sharon to personally take care of her.

“Don’t worry about it.” Sharon waved as she watched Alice drink the herbal tonic.

“If you don’t mind, Mrs. Anderson, I’ll come and prepare this for you for the next few days. Besides, I know massage therapy, and I can guarantee that you’ll bounce back in about 10 days!” “Sure, I happen to want somebody to talk to. I only have one son, and oh, how I wish I had another daughter too!” Alice took a sip before putting down the bowl.

She had a very good impression of Sharon, so she agreed to it immediately.

Although she sounded like she was lamenting, she could not hide her grin when she was talking about her son.

The next afternoon, Sharon watched Alice finish her herbal tonic as usual. She then stood behind Alice and pressed on her temples to give her a massage. “Hey, mom.” Sean entered from the main entrance with Tony behind him. He saw both of them in the living room from miles away.

‘Why is Sharon here?’ Sean did not show his confusion and greeted Sharon coldly, “Ms. Newman.” “Good afternoon, Mr. Anderson,” Sharon responded formally.

“You’re back!” Alice placed Sharon’s hands aside and smiled.

“Aren’t you busy with work today?” She asked. “No, I’m not,” Sean responded. He knew that his mother was unwell in the morning, so he rushed over as soon as he was done with work.

But he did not expect another visitor to be in his home.

He looked down slightly at the bowls on the table. He could identify the dregs in the bowl. “Mom, if you’re sick and unwell, you should head to the hospital for a check-up.” Sean looked back at his mother and reminded her.

Alice smiled with her eyes as if she did not mind. “It’s fine. I have Sharon with me!” She then pulled Sharon to her side and said to Sean with a trustful look, “Sharon can treat me, no?”

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 450-After spending so much time together with Sharon for the past few days, Alice was pretty satisfied with her.

Compared to Abigail who only knew how to shop, Sharon was much more useful.

Sharon was considerate, meticulous, talked with manners, and was really pretty.

Alice even heard that she had impressive workability.

‘Unfortunately, Sean has no taste!

Sean frowned slightly as he looked at them. He did not know what was Sharon’s intentions, but he knew that the Newman Group was under a lot of pressure.

‘Why would this woman have the mood to chit-chat with my mom?

‘Isn’t she worried that her family’s company would go bankrupt?’ He glanced over at Sharon and looked extremely distant as he said to Alice, “It’s up to you.

“But I heard that you were unwell, so you should really be more mindful.” Alice could feel that he cared for her.

She smiled and said, “I’m glad that you’re concerned.” After visiting Alice and seeing that she was doing so fine that she could still joke around with Sharon, Sean did not stay for long. He then asked Tony to send him home.

In the car, Tony received a call and started reporting to Sean after.

“Boss, there are updates on the bast*rd who was hired to mess with Ms. May back when you went abroad with her.” Tony was stupefied after listening to the latest update.

“That man used to work for the Nolan family. He was their bodyguard, and he worked for Ms. Nolan.” The man had never met Molly, so he definitely did not hold a personal grudge against Molly.

Speaking of a personal grudge, the only possible person who bore a grudge against Molly was Abigail.

As for the reason behind the grudge, Tony figured that it was purely because of Sean. Before Molly came into the picture, Abigail was widely known as Mrs.

Anderson.

Although it was not legitimate, the Anderson family really had the intention of making Abigail Sean's wife before Molly came along. "The Nolan family is involved?" Sean frowned. Sean obviously did not expect them to make such a bold move.

He thought that canceling the partnership contract with them was enough to teach Abigail a lesson.

Sadly, Abigail was a stubborn woman!

"I'm almost certain that Ms. May doesn't have any bad blood with that bodyguard," Tony explained.

When Tony first started investigating this matter, he had already run a background check on Molly to see who she had contact with.

"Where is the guy?" Sean asked.

"There's no trace of him. That piece of sh*t is too good at hiding. He is untrackable ever since he returned to Northfolk. My guess is that someone is protecting him." Tony was basically saying that the Nolan family was keeping him safe. Every time they were close to finding a clue, something would disrupt their progress.

This had made things difficult for Tony.

"Get to the bottom of this at all costs. If you're certain that the Nolan family is involved, get some proof!" Sean's expression immediately darkened.

Sean had to possess definitive evidence to prove that the Nolan family was tied to this case so they would have no grounds to fight back. Furthermore, he would definitely not spare the Nolan family any mercy when he got the evidence.

He would not change his mind even if they talked to his grandfather!

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 451-At night, Sean sat next to the window in his study after he was done with work. The moon was casting cold, silver rays on him, and he was engulfed in its luminosity.

The contrast between light and darkness revealed his well-defined side profile and his sharp nose.

When Molly entered the room, she was stunned by the scene. Sean was a beauty under the moon. If Molly was not compelled to treat Sean, she would not want to disrupt that scene. "Let's get started with the treatment." Molly closed the door behind her and walked up to him, speaking in a softer voice. Sean rested his arms on the armrests of his wheelchair as he turned and nodded to Molly. "Sure," he responded. "Aren't you busy today?" Molly went behind him and pushed him to the couch as she asked. "Not really, I'm done with everything that I have to do." Sean looked at what she was doing and smiled subconsciously. Molly squatted down to check on his legs when she replied, "Good, you should rest more now that you're done with work." Her head was hanging down before Sean like a gentle kitten and her lips were pink and tempting.

Sean quickly looked back up to avoid staring at them. But, Molly was unaware of this as she was focusing on the inspection. After 5 minutes, she looked back up and said, "Done. There's nothing much to worry about.

Let's start the treatment." "Alright." "I believe your condition is better now, so we can tweak the treatment plan a little." The spots where Molly jabbed the needles were different from the areas before. Sean stared at her actions and said, "Yeah? I'm fine with anything." "The nerves are recovering, so you can start training them when you're free. However, you should really watch out for your own safety. Don't persist and stop when you're at your limits. It'll only backfire on you." Molly placed the needles carefully and reminded him, Moderate exercises. Keep that in mind." "Don't worry, I'll do it," Sean replied steadily as he had also noticed that he was getting better, which was making him rather delighted. Molly looked up to glance over at him. She was happy about it too. Sean's progress was way better than what she had expected. If Sean could continue to cooperate well with her treatment plan, he would be many steps closer to full recovery. She was certain that this would be the outcome, so she asked, "What is the first thing you'd do when you stand up again?"

Molly stopped what she was doing and looked up at Sean, waiting for his response. Sean met her eyes naturally, and he arched his brows. He had never thought about it as he was happy enough to be able to stand. Now that Molly had asked him, all he could think of was Molly. He thought about it for a few seconds and answered slowly, "I'd like to walk toward you, so you can be the first one to see me without the wheelchair.” There was a moment of complete silence after Sean said that. Molly looked at him under the light as her heart pounded hard on her chest. Sean’s voice was cold, but she could not help but notice the affection in his tone. ‘It’s probably because of his gorgeous eyes. If he looked just a little more seriously at someone, that person might get the wrong idea. ‘But still, I couldn’t help but misunderstand his words!’ Molly could not even breathe properly. She immediately looked down and waited until she calmed down. She stared at Sean’s legs, which were filled with needles.” Is that so?” she asked half-heartedly

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 452-‘Is that true?’

‘I doubt so.’ The joy and surprise that Molly initially felt had suddenly disappeared as she held her head down while questioning herself.

Sean looked at her. He was puzzled after seeing how her mood changed so suddenly. “What is she thinking about?’ Then, he realized what was happening. He could not help but chuckle as he said affirmatively, “Yes.”

A smile started to reappear on Molly’s face as she softly said, “Well... I wish you a speedy recovery, then.”

She had an uncontrollable joy inside of her as she picked up the remaining needles to place them on Sean carefully.

Suddenly, a loud sound could be heard from outside the door. The triplets pushed the door open and shouted,” Mommy, this is bad!”

“What’s wrong? Why are you in such a hurry?” Molly lifted her head and saw the triplets entering the room. She stood up and fixed her slightly rumpled top.

The triplets looked worried as they stood at the door.

Then, they started explaining panickily, “Mommy! Uncle Sean! Danny is gone!”

Alex chimed in, “Danny is the parrot that Mommy said we could keep. It’s very clever and Uncle Sean said it was a rare species too!”

Molly and Sean suddenly remembered the parrot after hearing what he said.

“How is it gone?” Molly asked the triplets.

She remembered that it did not take that little parrot very long to imitate Ben's words. It was extremely adorable.

The triplets pouted at the same time as they helplessly said, "We have no idea."

Everything was fine, but the next thing we know, it was gone!" I "We looked everywhere in the house, but it's just not there!" Ben spread his hands out, feeling helpless.

They only went to look for Molly and Sean's help because they had no other options. Otherwise, the triplets would never disturb their alone time over such a tiny matter.

Danny had been lovely, and it would never make a mess throughout the time they kept him.

The triplets would also sit in the backyard with Grandpa Dave to play with Danny whenever they had the time.

Molly knew that the little parrot has a special place in the triplet and her grandpa's heart. Besides, it would not fly away randomly too, which was why it did not really bother her when she cleaned the house. "Calm down. Danny is very clever, and it spent almost all its time in the backyard. I'm sure it's very familiar with this place and it'll find its way home."

She walked over and tried to make the triplets, who were close to crying, feel better.

"Let's go to the back and look for it again," Molly said gently as she consoled the triplets. "Think about it."

Danny was fine even when it was hurt. I'm sure that nothing will happen to it now that it's fully recovered."

Molly held the triplets in her arm and patted their shoulders.

"Mommy, are you sure?" The triplet asked with a tiny whimper while looking at her pitifully.

The triplet's faces turned red as they tried not to cry. Their eyes were teary, and they were just desolating to look at.

Sean's heart melted while looking at them. However, he could not move since the needles were not removed yet.

He looked at them from afar and raised his voice to comfort them, "It's okay. Your mommy is right. Danny is a very clever parrot. I'm sure that it did such an unusual thing for a particular reason.

"Animals know how to stay out of danger. I'm sure nothing bad is going to happen to Danny."

Sean's words gave the triplets a strong reassurance , and they just stared at him with tears glistening in their eyes.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 453-"I'll ask Tony and the bodyguards to look for Danny too. Don't worry."

Sean comforted them. He felt a sense of kinship after seeing how their face turned from looking helpless to confident.

"Thank you, Uncle Sean! You're the best!" The triplets were finally relieved after hearing what Sean said.

'Danny is going to be back as long as daddy would help us! Molly looked at him gratefully and said a few more things to make the triplets feel better. Then, she told the triplets to go home first, and she would look for Danny with them in a while. She was not done with Sean's treatment yet, and the needles on Sean were not removed. Then, both the triplets and Sean started their mission. Sean even told the securities to keep an eye out for Danny. However, Danny was nowhere to be seen on that night. The triplets got anxious again.

However, there was nothing they could do since Sean had already been looking for Danny. Molly tucked them in and saw their disappointed faces. She was about to switch off the lights, but she stopped. She sat beside the bed and gently said, "Perhaps, Danny will be back tomorrow. "Who is going to take care of Danny if all of you don't get any rest?" Then, she stood up and kissed each of the triplets on their cheeks. "Goodnight, mommy." The triplets felt better as they nodded while looking at Molly. "Goodnight." Molly switched off the lights and left the room quietly, y. She could not stand looking at the triplets like that. She was a little stumped.

'Where did that little parrot go?' The next day, Tony came knocking on the door with a parrot in his hand. The little parrot was laying on Tony's palm. It held its head up and looked around after realizing that it was in a familiar environment. "Where did you find it?" Molly was surprised as she asked in shock. The triplets were in the living room when they heard what Molly said. They stood up and ran to the door. Grandpa Dave could not help but told them, "Slow down. Don't run." "Yes, great-grandpa!" However, the triplets were already running toward the door at full speed. They looked at the parrot in Tony's palm and shouted excitedly, "Danny!" Tony put his hand in front of the triplets, so they could take it from him. Then, he started explaining, "My boss had US looking for it the whole night, and we found it standing on a tree branch not far away from here. That was why we couldn't see it." 'Did daddy tell them to search for Danny for the whole night?!' The triplets were petting the little parrot that was snuggling up to them. When they heard what Tony said, they lifted their heads and looked at him in surprise. "We've got to thank Uncle Sean personally!" The triplets were delighted to get Danny back. Molly was finally relieved after seeing how energetic the triplets were. She looked at the little parrot and saw how it rubbed its head against the triplets. Molly did not expect that it would recognize the triplets. 'It looks like Danny missed the triplets very much too.' The triplets passed Danny to Grandpa Dave before they ran to the mansion next door. The triplets expressed their gratitude one after another. Claudia was so excited that she actually gave Sean a peck. 'Daddy is so handsome!' Claudia's eyes turned into two crescents as she said with a big smile on her face, "Thank you, Uncle Sean!" Alex and Ben were standing beside her. "Uncle, you're the best. We would've never gotten Danny back if it wasn't for you!" Sean's mood immediately got better after looking at how happy the triplets were. He did not sleep well because he could not forget how pitiful the triplets looked yesterday, and that was the reason why he told his men to look for the parrot all night

Nobody could ever resist the triplet's sweet tongues. Besides, the triplets were every adorable too, and one's heart would melt from just looking at them.

Then, they chatted for a while more. The triplets were very considerate. They knew that Sean would be very busy every day, so they left and stopped bothering him. Tony smiled when he saw the triplets leaving. He turned around and reported to his boss, "We've got some news from the bodyguard we sent to carry out the investigation. "Tell me about it." Sean was still in a rather good mood after the triplets left, but everything changed after he heard what Tony said. He became serious. "He said that he found where that person stays.

However, his men exposed themselves when they were going there to get him, and that person was alerted." Tony nodded as he told Sean everything truthfully.

"The person got away. Even though things sounded bad, he was not done talking. He continued speaking, "Boss, this might be an opportunity for US too.

That person will definitely do something if he has accomplices or there's somebody giving him orders since he almost got caught." In this way, their assumptions would be validated. So, it was not much of a big deal if the person escaped. It was a good opportunity to use that person as bait to lure out the mastermind behind him. Then, everything will be settled once and for all.

Tony looked at Sean after telling him what he thought. Sean nodded after listening to him. Then, he praised Tony, "Not bad. That's one way to do it." Tony felt delighted secretly since Sean would rarely praise him. Sean kept quiet after praising Sean. He lifted his chin with his fingers as if he was thinking about something.

Suddenly, Tony panicked as he stood at the side without making a sound. 'Did I do something wrong?'. Sean spoke after thinking for a while. "Keep investigating and don't let anything slip away. Be more careful and avoid making the same mistake again. We're already at a disadvantage since we don't know who we're dealing with, yet they know exactly who we are. "Also, make sure you collect some evidence if there's really a mastermind behind everything." He lifted his head and looked at Tony. The Noland family was involved. If that person was caught without any evidence even though he was just a bodyguard with no background... If they really caught that person, but without any compelling evidence, things might backfire. They might be accused of staging everything, and the Noland family might even take this opportunity to go against them. This would not be good for Sean and his family. Besides, the other party would also say that the evidence they provided was made up and walked away from it if the evidence was insufficient. At that time, there would be no other way to clear their names. They would still be accused of spreading rumors and slander the other party's reputation. Tony thought for a moment, and he immediately understood what Sean was trying to say. He said with a serious look on his face, "Got it." "Yeah. Just report to me right away if there's any update, "Sean said flatly as he ordered Tony. He had to keep investigating since the other party was trying to harm Molly. The conspiracy had already begun since they were abroad. Both parties had made their moves, and there was no going back for either of them. There was going to be only one winner in this battle, and the more capable party should prevail. Sean calmly sat in the room alone after he watched Tony leave.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 455-Sean still could not forget about how Molly was caught in danger when she was abroad.

Something worse would have happened to Molly other than just being frightened if Sean did not find her on time.

Sean's heart turned cold when he thought about the triplets.

I'm going to make that person pay.

No matter who that person is! Sean sat there alone for a very long time. After he calmed himself down, he picked up a document on his desk and started reading it. On the other side, that bodyguard who was being tracked by Sean did not have it easy after escaping from Sean's men. That was because Sean's men did not give up. They were looking everywhere in Northfolk, so he could not go to any familiar places at all. However, there was a place... Even though it might be risky, the bodyguard had no other choice. The Noland Residence. Abigail just got off from work. Suddenly, somebody grabbed her from behind while covering her mouth when she was getting down from her car. "Ugh..." She tried her best to break free, but she was dragged to a dark corner. Then, she heard a familiar voice. "Steven Baker? Why are you here? Didn't I tell you to leave Northfolk immediately? What are you doing here?" Abigail looked at the bodyguard in front of her. He was exactly the person she sent abroad to hurt Molly. She started to get more and more anxious. She immediately looked around. She was very afraid that Steven might be followed by someone. She secretly plotted against Molly, and there was no way she could let Sean know about it. She knew how protective Sean was to that b*tch, Molly, better than everybody else. She and the Noland family would be doomed if Sean ever found out that she was the mastermind behind everything! "Ms. Noland, why do you think I come back?

My wife and my daughter are both in Northfolk. Who's going to look after them if I didn't come back?!" Steven looked a little upset when he mentioned his family. "Ms. Noland , you better not forget that I only traveled abroad to hurt Molly because you told me to. So many people are looking for me now after I did that for you."

He looked at Abigail, but the expression on his face could not be seen. "You should know how influential and powerful the Anderson family is in Northfolk better than me. Do you think anything good will happen to me if Sean Anderson caught me?" He might have already been dead if he was not sharp enough to escape from Sean's men. "What do you want from me, then?" Abigail sounded a little impatient. She did not expect the person she picked to be so incompetent. Not only did Steven fail to hurt Molly, but he also did not want to leave Northfolk while being hunted down by Sean's men. "I want you to help me. Make some arrangements for my wife and my daughter too. Buy them flight tickets and send US out of Northfolk latest by tomorrow!

Otherwise, don't blame me for what I might do. I'm going to expose you and tell everybody what you did!"

"You wouldn't dare!" Abigail was mad. She never thought there would be a day where she would be threatened by a lowly bodyguard. "Try me and you'll find out."

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 456-Steven was no different from a desperado after being targeted by Sean. His family's safety and fear had made him bolder.

After all, upsetting Abigail was far better than offending Sean, who was very influential in Northfolk. "You're bold!" Abigail was so mad that she gritted her teeth. However, she did not dare to reject Steven's demand directly. "I'll get someone to secretly send your wife and daughter to the airport at seven tomorrow morning. I'll pay for the flight tickets too. Leave as far as you can from here, and I don't want to ever see you again in Northfolk!" Steven was relieved after hearing what Abigail said. "I'll wait for your call, then." Steven left silently like a ghost after he said those words. However, Sean acted even quicker than Abigail and Steven. Sean told Tony to call the police right after he found out about Steven's whereabouts and got the police involved. At the same time, Tony also provided them with evidence of Steven hiring somebody to hurt Molly when he was abroad. The police acted promptly because Sean was involved in the case. So, they started to work on it with Sean's men on the same day. "Are there any updates?" Sean asked casually with a contract in his hands in his study room. "The police are working together with our men to watch the train stations, airports, and all other places that the person could be to leave Northfolk. We're going to take him down as soon as he appears." Tony and his subordinates arranged very tight supervision to catch that bodyguard. "Keep an eye out and don't let him escape." Sean was a little irritated by Tony interrupting his work, so he waved him off after saying those words. Steven noticed that there something was wrong as soon as he arrived at the airport. He was aware of his surroundings since he was a bodyguard, after all. There were unidentifiable people guarding all the main places that Steven could possibly be to leave Northfolk. Steven felt lucky. Fortunately, he changed the way he would normally dress to disguise himself. Steven secretly left the airport after he knew Sean's plan about stopping him from leaving. Steven went to a place where nobody could see him after he left the airport. He called Abigail and told her what was happening Abigail looked annoyed after picking up the phone and hearing everything that Steven told her. "Okay, okay. Cut the crap. I have another plan for you. There's a mansion in the countryside that I own, and nobody ever goes there. Just go there and hide for a few days." Abigail hung up the phone right away after saying those words. Abigail would not have done so many things if she was not afraid that Steven would expose her after getting caught by Sean's men. Suddenly, a plan popped into Abigail's mind. She took her phone out again before searching for somebody's number as a smirk flashed across her face.

Terahis Grove. Sean was working when Tony knocked to report to him. "Boss, that bodyguard didn't go to the airport today. We couldn't see him at train stations or anywhere else. He's probably still in Northfolk." "Then, find him if he's in Northfolk. Find out where he is even if you have to turn the entire Northfolk around." Hiding could not help Steven much. A hint of coldness flashed across Sean's eyes.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 457-Steven was a mere bodyguard, yet Sean could not find him despite searching for him everywhere. So, Sean became more convinced that there was another person behind the bodyguard.

"We're already on it, and the people we sent to watch the customs are still there. The police also said that they'll try their best to cooperate with us."

"Okay. You may leave now." Sean did not want to waste any more time on this subject without closure as it was only going to waste his energy. Suddenly, something popped into his mind before he said to Tony, "Keep everything low-key. Don't let them know about it."

Tony followed his gaze and looked out of the window, and he understood Sean right away.

'Boss is referring to Ms. May.

'Boss doesn't want Ms. May to know about this because he's worried that she might be reminded of how terrified she was back then when she was hurt.' "I'll take care of it."

Tony stopped bothering Sean after he responded to him. However, he felt a vague stinging sensation in his heart.

Did Sean even know that what he did was so sweet that Tony actually got jealous?

Abigail provided Steven with a place to hide. However, as she said, very few people knew about the mansion in the countryside, and she rarely went there too. There was nothing to eat in there, and it had very limited daily necessities as well.

Very soon, Steven gave another call to Abigail.

Abigail looked at her incoming call. She got impatient, and she felt annoyed. However, she slightly lifted the corner of her mouth after remembering what she did earlier that day.

"What is it this time?"

"Ms. Noland, there's nothing in this mansion at all. What am I going to eat for the next few days?" Steven became more unscrupulous because he knew that Abigail only gave him a place to hide because he had something to threaten her with.

They were on the same boat. Abigail would not have it any better if something bad happened to him. "Figure it out yourself, then." 'He's such a piece of sh*t for expecting me to spoon feed him everything.<sup>1</sup> "Stop calling me if there's nothing important." "Are you giving me an attitude?" Steven spent the entire day in fear, but he could not even get something to eat.

So, he got mad. "You better not forget what I have on you. I wouldn't mind bringing you to hell with me!" "Go ahead and tell Sean Anderson if you're that bold. Steven Baker, I'll tell you what. I have something on you, too. You wouldn't want to lose your wife and your daughter, right?" Abigail smirked creepily. "What do you mean?" Steven started to panic on the other side of the phone. "You know what I meant. I'm warning you, you better own up and leave me out of everything if Sean's men ever caught you.

I can't guarantee that nothing will happen to your wife and daughter if you got me involved." Abigail said slowly and hung up right away before Steven could say anything. 'Hmph. Steven Baker, you're not good enough to mess with me!' Sean did not know that Abigail got in touch with Steven and told him to own up to everything.

The next morning, Sean went to the office to attend the regular monthly meeting of Anderson Cooperation. Sean sat in the front of the meeting room while the executives reported the summary of the month to him. Michael came prepared too. He submitted a proposal unhurriedly after the executives were done reporting.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 458-Sean took the proposal from Michael emotionlessly. He flipped open the proposal and scanned the first page from up to down. Then, he frowned.

He moved on to the next page and he arched his brows even more. He lost interest in reading the proposal when he was halfway through. He closed the proposal and threw it back to Michael before he said, "This proposal has too many problems, and it's not feasible. Take it back and re-do it."

Judging by how bad the proposal was, Sean could have actually been harsher.

Obviously, Michael did not buy it. His face darkened as he said in displeasure, "How is it not feasible?"

He was very unhappy that Sean rejected his proposal.' This guy annoys me so much!' Sean slightly tilted his head and looked at Michael. "The content in this proposal isn't even complete and the scheme is just not good enough for me," Sean said each word clearly, sounding unbiased.

He thought that there was no need for him to respect Michael since Michael would not appreciate it anyway.

The project is very underdeveloped and most of its content is just a framework without practical development direction. Even though this proposal could be operationalized, the estimated costs for the projects alone are still ridiculous.”

Michael’s proposal could have probably fooled Sean easily if he was a new CEO who had just taken office.

Because the proposal he submitted was very good at setting expectations, but in fact, it had no practical information to it.

Sean had been in control of Anderson Cooperation for many years. He was very experienced and sharp. Besides, he was also an emotionless working machine.

There was just no way that he could not notice that the figures were exaggerated. So, anyone with a working brain would know the purpose of the proposal.

Sean did not want to embarrass Michael by rejecting the proposal, but Michael was just too greedy.

So, Sean stopped holding back.

Michael’s head buzzed after hearing what Sean said, and he had to calm himself down.

His face turned red, and he was in great distress after being criticized by his nephew. He was so angry that he held his fist tightly as he looked at Sean, who was sitting at the head of the table, furiously.

He looked like he was going to go berserk at any second.

However, Sean was unmoved as he looked at him nonchalantly.

Then, he said succinctly, “The reason why I rejected this proposal is that the estimated costs are too high.”

If Sean’s sentence was to be summarized in one word, the word would be... Rubbish!

Everybody else in the room could not help but hold their breath after Sean said those words. To be honest, they were in a very difficult position too.

They would struggle every time if these two superiors were together!

Michael's heart was filled with wrath. He knew that the proposal on the table had flaws since he was just trying to earn some money out of the company for himself. He did not argue with Sean any further. He pursed his lips tightly and tried to suppress the anger that he could not vent. In fact, Michael was very upset!

However, Sean was not bothered by what he felt. He continued speaking as if he was adding fuel to the fire," Also, don't forget the promise you made in grandpa's house.

"Fill all the financial gaps you have overseas within this month!" He did not hold back as he exposed what Michael tried so hard to hide from everybody else. "Otherwise, the company will stop approving funds to you." The expression on Michael's face changed. His gaze shook as he froze in place before he could look at other people's reactions. 'What an insolent animal this guy is!' He scolded Sean to himself. However, he felt a little scared when he looked into Sean's eyes.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 459-Michael knew very well that Sean would send somebody over next month to check on his accounts if he did not go along with Sean. It would only take Sean less than a few days before he could find out everything about the loss he made. Then, Sean would report everything back to Mr. Anderson. Sr.

He would be doomed in the Anderson family after that!

Michael knew that this nephew of his was very ruthless and even if he swapped places with his brother, Ricky Anderson...

Sean would not show any mercy either!

"Got it!"

Michael responded loudly and it was obvious that he was mad.

Bang!

He took his anger out by kicking the table. The long conference table trembled before he stood up abruptly. The chair he was sitting on scraped on the floor and made a screeching sound.

'All this rat does is ruin my plan!' Michael left right away after he threw a cold glance at Sean.

Sean was unimpressed . His gaze swept across Michael, and he said, "The meeting is adjourned." Tony held his head down as he walked toward Sean before pushing him out of the meeting room. All the representatives from each department were relieved after seeing Sean and Tony leave.

It was finally over.

The representatives, including those who worked for Michael, looked at each other as they thought about what Sean and Michael said just now.

'Was what the CEO said true?' Suddenly, their hearts jumped while staring at each other. It was then they realized that Michael was trying to hustle the company.

None of them spoke or mentioned it. They just left their thoughts unspoken and left the room.

Tony pushed Sean back to the desk in his office, and he was about to leave.

"Wait."

"Boss, what is it?" Tony stopped before he turned around and asked.

"How is the project we got from the Newman Group going?" He had too many things to do recently, and he had almost forgotten about that.

"I've been monitoring it every day, and everything is going well so far. Don't worry, boss." Tony did not slack. He would ask the team in charge for updates every day after Sean gave him the order.

And, he would go there personally to check things out when he had the time. Tony knew that the project was very important, but Sean had too many things to take care of. As the CEO's assistant, he naturally had the responsibility to take care of the things his boss did not have the time for.

The project could be worth up to a hundred billion if everything goes as planned."

Tony continued speaking. "Good," Sean said approvingly. "You may leave now." At night.

Platinum Club was not only a place where the people from high society hung out, but it was also a place for them to get drunk and indulge themselves. Michael was eating there, and he almost knew everyone who was in the club with him.

Yes, Abigail's father was one of them. However, the Anderson family had the most conspicuous status among all of them. They chatted with Michael, and they would flatter him from time to time.

It was clear that they were ingratiating themselves with him.

The burning wrath in Michael from the afternoon eased off after hearing how those people constantly buttering him up. He swirled the glass of alcohol in his hand and took a sip. Then, he heard somebody standing up for him, "The Anderson Cooperation is such a huge company. Why do only Ricky and his son have the say?!"

"Yeah. That's just unfair." "I think Mr. Michael is the best person to be in control of the Anderson Cooperation. Sean is just an ignorant brat. What does he know?" One of them said and his words made Michael very happy. 'Yeah. What does Sean know?

How dare he reject my proposal!' Michael finished the entire glass of alcohol in his hand after he thought about that. Everybody else started singing with the bottle girls in their arms after having a few more drinks, and that was all they cared about.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 460-0 One of them invited Michael to join them, but Michael rejected him as he sat in his seat without moving.

Richard took his chance and went to talk to him.

"Mr. Michael, I heard you said that you have some ideas, but your nephew rejected them. Is that true?

"Do you think the Noland Group can help you in any way? Richard did not dare to beat around the bush and said directly because he was worried that Michael could be in a bad mood "Oh? The Noland..." Michael was tipsy, but he could still think."

'Is he the father of that girl who Sean had an engagement with?' He remembered who Richard was as looked at him and said with a smile. "Ah, the Noland Group. Let me think about it."

Richard was getting a little creeped out while being stared at by Michael.

However, he just held his nose and smiled forcefully.

Nobody in the room dared to treat Michael poorly. In Northfolk, anyone that was a part of the Anderson family was simply more prestigious than everybody else.

Michael's mood instantly turned better looking at Richard's face, which was put on to please him on purpose. His rage that was caused by Sean disappeared as he laughed loudly before patting Richard's shoulder. "I think the Noland Group is good!"

His face was red, and his mouth reeked of alcohol.

Richard did not let that bother him after hearing what Michael said. He was delighted as he said with a smile, "Don't worry. Even though the Noland Group isn't better than the Anderson Cooperation, we're going to do our best in everything that's within our capability."

Because he wanted more than just that.

Richard filled Michael's empty glass with more alcohol after chatting for a while.

He handed the glass back to Michael and said, "Your son hasn't settled down yet, right?"

Michael took the glass as he paused for a second. He glanced at Richard and asked, "What about it?"

He could almost guess what Richard was trying to say, but he took a sip of the alcohol with a straight face anyway while looking at Richard.

Richard smiled and leaned over to Michael and said, "Abigail is my only daughter, and I really want her to marry a good man."

The Noland family and the Anderson family were friends.

Abigail and Ricky's son, Sean, were a good match. So, Michael's son would be too! Michael slightly lifted his brows. 'I guess he hasn't given up on the idea of marrying his daughter into the Anderson family yet.' He looked at Richard's friendly face and smiled. Michael was not that insensible, after all. He knew that Richard wanted to marry his daughter to Sean, but Sean rejected the engagement. So, he did not really suspect Richard or put his guard up now that Richard approached him.

The Noland family was rather respectable at Northfolk, after all.

If Abigail was married to Sean, their marriage was only going to help Sean manage the Anderson Cooperation better. Even more, Sean could have eliminated other rivals and secretly taken full control over the entire Northfolk easily.

However, that possibility was presented in front of Michael instead.

He had been wanting to take over the Anderson Cooperation for so many years. His wish would have come true sooner or later if he had the Noland Group's help.

He would not even have to humble himself to gain approval from Sean for his proposal, and it would not be rejected in the end.

The financial problems he had overseas would be solved too. He would not have anything else to worry about. Even though he knew very well that the Noland family was trying to match their status.

However, Michael could not resist himself. The temptation of power and status was just too strong.

He took a new glass and poured Richard some alcohol. He stopped acting arrogant and said with a smile, "I agree that your daughter has to marry a good man, but I don't think my incompetent son would be a good match for your daughter."

Richard looked at the alcohol beside him as he tried to stay calm. "You've got to be kidding me. Your son is just as remarkable as you. Nobody in the Anderson family is incompetent. You're too humble!"

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 461-"Haha. Nobody else knows Todd better than me." Michael said.

Michael and Richard had different intentions , but they were the best partners for each other before common interests.

They chatted for a while more since both of them were also in a good mood.

And, they came to an agreement to get Abigail and Todd married.

Richard could not help but feel delighted after seeing how Michael filled his glass with more alcohol.

He knew very well why he had to associate himself with Michael.

And that was not to be his business partner or to climb up to the Anderson family's status.

It had nothing to do with any of that!

He looked at his glass of alcohol and took a sip with a smile. He even made fun of Michael saying that he was a lightweight.

However, Richard's heart was very cold inside.

In fact, he knew exactly what his daughter had done behind his back!

He also knew everything that was going on at that time.

He was worried that Sean would find out and expose everything that his daughter had done.

He would not dare to imagine what Sean might do to them, but he made a guess to himself based on what he knew about Sean.

Sean would probably make my company go bankrupt !' Besides, he knew that Sean would never give up investigating, and it would just be a matter of time before he found out about the truth!

And, it was already too late for him to scold his daughter for what she did.

So, establishing a good relationship with Michael before Sean found out about it was the only solution he could think of.

He would not have to be so worried even if Sean exposed his daughter.

He thought that Sean would hold himself back if he was to do anything to get them back.

After all, he would already be on the same boat as Michael, and his daughter's reputation would affect Michael's family reputation by then. Michael would have no choice but to defend Abigail.

So, he thought that Sean would just let things slip since the reputation of his family was involved.

'He wouldn't turn against his own family... right?' Richard got a little worried when he thought about that. He was scared that Sean would really do that.

"What's wrong?" Michael asked after noticing how absent-minded he was.

"Nothing. I guess I drank a little too much." Richard's eyes twitched as he pretended to be okay. He put the glass of alcohol on the table and held his head with his hand.

"Hahaha! And, you made fun of me? Look at yourself now. Are you drunk?" Michael teased him, and he did not know what Richard was thinking at all.

Richard was not bothered. He knew that Michael would be drunk if he kept on drinking, but he responded politely anyway, "I can never compete with you." "So, you find your nephew very arrogant, disrespectful, and unruly, right?" He brought that up and continued speaking before Michael could say anything.

"Sean is with a woman called Molly May. You know about her, right? However, that woman has three children and they're not from a wealthy family. They were even involved in a scandal in Northfolk not long ago. "You can find out more about them just by asking the people around you." Richard was about to stand up as he said that.

He chuckled at Michael after he stood up. "Sean rejected my daughter for a woman like her. Would you be mad if you were in my place?" Michael was shocked by what he heard. He knew that Sean was very close with a woman, and he thought that Sean was just messing around with her. He was not expecting anything like what Michael said!

He knew that Richard told him that on purpose as he watched him leave. He knew that Richard was expecting him to make a scene out of it.

However, he did not mind doing that.

All he wanted was to provoke Sean even if it would not spark anything. Besides, it would be a bonus if he could actually use that against Sean.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 462-Richard did not hide the things he had discussed with Michael from his daughter when he got home. After Abigail heard it, her expression changed instantly.

“Dad, why didn’t you discuss it with me before doing it? You know that I like Sean and not Todd,” said Abigail while she was walking back and forth in the living room. She was so furious at Richard for what he had said.

Richard was dissatisfied with Abigail’s attitude.

“You only have Sean in your eyes. Didn’t he tell you directly that you two have no future together? Abigail, hear me out. Todd is not as bad as Sean.” Although Todd could not have outstanding achievements like Sean, in Richard’s eyes, Todd’s age and appearance were no less than Sean’s.

And the most important thing was Todd’s identity. He was also a descendant of the Andersons and shared a kinship with Sean.

“Sean is too young to oversee the entire Anderson Corporation. Do you think the rest of the Andersons will let Sean be the head of the family? The Andersons’ cousins had already held grudges against Sean.

“It’s just that the cousins don’t have the right to fight against Sean. But, with the Noland Group’s support, how long do you think that cripple Sean can stay in the CEO position of Anderson Corporation?” Richard had his points. But, Abigail had a crush on Sean for so many years that it was not like she could just change her feelings whenever she wanted to. She was still unhappy and did not care about what Richard had said.

Richard was running out of patience with this daughter of his.

Richard looked at Abigail and solemnly said, “Do you realize how much damage you have caused to the Noland Group because of your stubbornness? Have you ever thought about why I’m so eager to join forces with Michael? It’s because of you. If Sean found out that you are the one who sent Steven to do those things to Molly, then Noland Group will be doomed!” “I don’t care if you are willing to or not. In short, your engagement with Todd is settled. During this period, you better behave yourself.” said Richard. After that, he did not want to argue with Abigail anymore and went straight upstairs.

Abigail watched her father leave in astonishment. She thought that the things she had done were secretly sealed. She did not expect her father to find out about it.

‘Is it possible that Sean had also figured it out too?’ Abigail thought.

She suddenly felt dizzy. She sat on the couch and seriously considered the marriage that her father had said earlier.

‘Maybe marrying Todd is the only way to save the Noland Group.’ Abigail thought. No matter how dissatisfied Abigail felt in her heart, she slowly compromised under several considerations. Michael’s affairs at the bar could not be concealed from those who were interested. The marriage of the Andersons and the Nolands had been publicized once again.

It was just that the couples were Abigail and Todd.

After Sean heard about that, he had no problems with it. He even felt that without the Nolands circling him, his life would be much more peaceful.

Since Sean’s treatments for his legs had progressed to the next level, his physical therapy had also increased.

During the day, Sean had to go to his office. After finishing his work at night, he was almost exhausted. When Molly saw his hard work, she felt a little distressed. She added another routine to his treatment at night.

After the treatment, Molly would massage Sean’s legs to compensate for his lack of exercise and relieve his legs’ soreness.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 463-Brycen witnessed his sister treat Sean every day. It would be a lie to say that he was not jealous of it.

“Molly, my legs’ injuries haven’t healed yet. Like Mr. Anderson, it was difficult for me to move around. The treatment you gave us can’t be so biased,” said Brycen. His words were full of jealousy when he saw that Molly was about to go to Sean’s house again. “I’m your brother your kin! You should feel distressed for your brother too.” Brycen grabbed Molly’s sleeve, trying to keep her at home.

Brycen knew that Sean had something in mind.

Unexpectedly, Molly was not soft-hearted. She directly swung away Brycen's hand that grabbed her sleeve and said with disgust, "The triplets are not as childish as you. Don't worry about your treatment. I'll send a text to Caitlyn later, and starting tomorrow, your rehabilitation will be handed over to Caitlyn." orro It was not true that Molly treated them differently.

It's just that Molly had been treating the three of them for a long time. She even had to pay more attention to Grandpa Dave's health recently. She just could not bear it.

Sawyer's condition was rather unique. Even if another doctor took over, Molly would not be at ease.

Considering the situation of several people, Molly had no choice but to hand over the least injured Brycen to Caitlyn.

"Boohoo! Molly, you don't love me anymore. How could you give me away to that witch, Caitlyn!" Brycen had already started to howl.

Brycen thought, 'That Caitlyn isn't a woman. She's more of a murderer than a savior.' "Molly, please don't let her come. I promise I will cooperate with your treatment!" said Brycen as he swore with his three fingers up.

Molly did not back down. She looked at him with disgust and asked, "Do you still want your legs to heal or not? If you don't, I'll tell Caitlyn what you just said, and your treatment might be beyond comfortable." Brycen suddenly shivered, and he could already foresee his miserable life in the future.

Abigail had already inquired about the day when the Andersons had a family dinner.

Since Abigail compromised with Richard, she followed his request to approach Todd. The two have been in frequent contact recently to deepen their relationship.

However, only Abigail herself knew what she was doing. After Abigail learned about the Andersons' family dinner, she returned to the Andersons' mansion with Todd to meet his parents.

One of the reasons was to show power and let the Andersons know that Abigail was about to become one of them. The other was to see Sean's reaction. She refused to believe that Sean was heartless.

Abigail did not believe that Sean had no feelings for her at all!

This was Abigail's first time being at the Andersons' mansion. Seeing the quaint and solemn building, she was a little more cautious in her words and attitude.

Abigail and Todd came early. Apart from Mr. Anderson Sr., no one else had arrived yet. After greeting Mr. Anderson Sr., Abigail followed Todd around the garden. When the sun had set, only then did Abigail see the other members of the Andersons come one after another. And, the person who she longed for... As usual, Sean had his working face on and did not greet Abigail. Even when the dinner was about to start.

There were several times that Abigail almost took the initiative to talk to Sean.

But, she held back. Mainly because of the presence of the rest of the Andersons and the soon-to-be fiancé Todd.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 464-Everyone had a different opinion about this family dinner.

Besides , none of the Andersons were simple. Everyone calmly set their sights on Sean and Abigail.

After all, some time ago, the rumor that the Nolands' daughter was Sean's fiancée had spread like wildfire. Suddenly, Todd was now involved. The location where these three were sat made others want to gossip.

Since Abigail was brought to the Andersons' mansion, it showed that the Nolands were determined to marry their daughter to Michael's son.

But, what about Sean?

Thinking of that made a certain person unable to help themselves but look at Sean across the dining table. Seeing that the stern man was calm, he retracted his gaze angrily.

That person thought he could witness Sean's gossip in his lifetime.

Michael's eyes gaze past his son and Abigail.

"They do look like a match.' Michael thought.

Then, Michael's gaze landed on Sean. He felt disgusted. When he thought about the meeting that day, Michael's anger rushed up. He was very dissatisfied with Sean's attitude that day.

Michael smirked and said, "Sigh, Todd is about to get engaged with Ms. Noland.

Sean, I still remember that your family wanted to engage with the Nolands back then. This is what they call destined to meet but not destined to be together.

"Although you are the CEO of Anderson Corporation, Todd is not much worse than you. I hope you won't be offended that we have taken your beloved!" Michael's tone was indifferent as if he did not feel that his words were uncomfortable to others.

Michael tilted his head again and told his son with a smile on his face, "Scoop some food for Ms. Noland. Otherwise, people will say that we Andersons did not feed people well enough." Todd covered the embarrassment on his face and nodded in response with a smile. He served Abigail some food.

"Thank you," Abigail replied with a faint smile, but her mind was always on Sean.

Abigail still had some anticipation in her heart. She was wondering how Sean would answer.

Some people were very odd. They had been rejected obviously by others. But, whenever others mentioned her, she would expect others to see her differently , even though it was only a little.

Abigail was that kind of person. Others looked at Sean, and the flame of gossip ignited in their hearts again.

Mr. Anderson Sr. did not seem to hear anything and was always enjoying his own food. But, everyone in the family knew that Mr. Anderson Sr. was careful.

He only spoke out if someone's words touched his bottom line.

However, very few people dared to chat at the dinner table.

Sean had finished his food quietly. He put down his utensils and folded his hands again. The same attitude as when he was in a meeting.

Sean looked at Michael calmly. He lightly said, "Congratulations on your son's engagement, Michael. I wish your family happiness and prosperity." After that, Sean picked up his utensils and started eating again.

Everyone was stunned for a moment, and even Mr. Anderson Sr. looked up at Sean before slowly retracting his gaze and continuing to eat.

'What kind of response was that...' Michael thought.

Michael was choked by Sean's words. He thought that Sean would be provoked by his anger and would say something cynical so that he could teach Sean a lesson.

However, Michael seemed speechless when he looked at his nephew, Sean.

Since Sean had said his blessings, Michael had no idea how to refute him.

Michael could only reluctantly reply, "Thank you." Abigail stared at Sean in a daze. Her emotion was surging. She lowered her head after a few seconds, and her eyes dimmed a little.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 465- Sean's blessing was like a needle pricking into Abigail's heart. It made her a little breathless and hurt. Abigail's chest was throbbing in pain.

The love she used to have for Sean was now a pain to her because of Sean's insensitive words.

It was the kind of pain that could kill someone.

Abigail's fingers were cold.

She clenched her utensils tightly to prevent Todd from realizing anything strange.

She had to pretend nothing happened and endure the pain in her heart.

She had to pretend nothing had happened and sat quietly.

'What was I thinking? I'm about to get married to Todd.

'If Sean had the same feeling for me, I wouldn't have gotten into this predicament today.

I'm so naive.

I'm still hoping for something at this very moment!' Todd looked at Abigail and asked with concern, "Is it not to your liking?" 'Why didn't she touch the food at all?' Todd wondered .

"No, it's just a little hot." Abigail forced a smile at the person next to her.

"That's great.

Have some more," said Todd.

"Okay," Abigail replied.

After that, there was silence at the dining table.

Michael did not say anything to avoid being unhappy.

After all, his son's engagement with the Nolands had already been set, and the Anderson Corporation would soon be his.

'Sean, your days of freedom are numbered!' Michael thought.

After dinner.

Todd and Michael went to the study together while Abigail wandered downstairs alone.

When Abigail saw Sean passing by, she bit her lip.

With the unwillingness in her heart, she quickly chased after him.

After all, Abigail had known Sean since she was a little girl.

Abigail was a little angry, but it was more of a grievance.

She stopped Sean, stood in front of him, and asked, "Are you really that heartless?!" Sean raised his chin slightly.

His eyes were cold, and he acted like he was talking to a stranger.

He said, "Ms.Noland, please have some self-respect." Sean was already tired of Abigail.

He did not want to talk to this woman anymore.

He tried to avoid all the rumors in case Molly misunderstood him again.

What's more, Abigail was already engaged, but she was still so stubborn .

Even if she was shameless, it was too disrespectful to Todd.

Sean's attitude became more and more indifferent.

He did not give Abigail a chance to speak and said to Tony behind him, "Let's go." "Yes, Boss," Tony responded.

He pushed the wheelchair, passing by Abigail, and quickly left.

Obviously, Tony did not want his boss to be gossip material again since the other party was now engaged.

'Even if Abigail doesn't avoid arousing suspicion, it doesn't mean that boss shouldn't!' Tony thought.

Tony was not ignorant.

He knew exactly how many people wished to take down his boss.

Abigail could only stay where she was.

She knew that she could not chase after Sean.

Sean's words were like a loud slap, landing fiercely on Abigail's face.

Abigail's face was a little pale, and she stared at the back of the man walking away.

She felt a dull pain in her heart.

She clenched her palms tightly, which made her knuckles even paler.

'Why is it that the feeling is only one-sided after all these years?!

'Is his heart made out of steel?

'If it were for others, 20 years of relationship would have been fruition by now! 'And all I got from him was to have self-respect?' Abigail felt cold, and her body shivered.

Her eyes gradually became dull.

Her unwillingness and anger swallowed her sanity.

'Since I can't have Sean, that b*tch Molly can't have him either...' Abigail's mind was full of this thought.

Like a seed planted in the early days, it instantly sprouted and grew into a towering tree.

'If it wasn't for Molly, I would be sitting next to Sean today! I would be the young Mrs. Anderson ! Instead of marrying that nobody Todd!' Abigail thought.

"Abigail, I'm here to take you home." Todd's voice sounded right behind Abigail.

She did not move.

She slowly loosened her clenched fingers and replied in a very soft voice, "Thank you."

It was as if she had made a firm decision in her heart.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 466-Steven was caught by Sean's subordinates after the relentless search for him. Abigail had arranged a place for Steven to hide, but there was no food or water for him.

Because of that, Steven could not take it anymore and went out searching for food.

As soon as Steven came out, Sean's subordinates immediately locked onto Steven's location.

When Steven returned to the suburban villa, he was grabbed and taken away by Sean's subordinates, who were waiting there.

Sean received the good news and came to see it for himself.

Steven was unexpectedly quiet, and he did not struggle or resist at all.

Sean's subordinates were wary of the experience of Steven getting away last time.

This time they directly handcuffed and chained Steven.

Steven just nestled quietly in the corner and waited as if he knew his fate.

Even when Sean appeared before him, Steven was not surprised at all.

"Tell me, who paid you abroad for the kidnapping?" Sean looked at the person in the corner coldly.

Steven raised his head and glanced at Sean.

He no longer feared the person in front of him when he fled for his life a few days ago.

"No one. I'm solely responsible for everything," said Steven.

His appearances were very calm; so calm that it was odd.

Tony looked at Steven and said, "Steven, you can drop the act.

We have investigated thoroughly and know that you worked for the Nolands before.

Let's be honest, and things will be better for everyone." Steven looked up at Tony and then continued to be silent.

Tony was impatient seeing Steven's attitude.

Tony wanted to step forward, but Sean raised his hand to stop him.

"Did the Nolands instruct you to do it?" Sean asked.

"Mr. Anderson, what sort of hate do you have toward the Nolands? Why are you pointing your fingers at them? Can't it be that I don't like Molly's attitude and simply wanted to attack her?" said Steven as he smiled coldly.

“One million dollars. Confess the mastermind behind that incident. I promise to let you and your family leave Northfolk safely with the money.” Steven was suddenly stunned.

He looked at Sean.

To Steven, Sean’s offer was very tempting.

If Steven had been caught by Sean a day earlier, Steven might have agreed.

However, there was no room for ifs in this world.

“Mr. Anderson, you can do whatever you want with me. I’m in your hands, and I’ve also admitted my crime. Say no more. My answer will be the same,” said Steven.

He looked away, but his fingers were clenched tightly into a fist.

Steven’s actions did not escape Sean’s gaze.

Sean did not ask any further questions and simply told Tony to leave with him.

After leaving the warehouse , Sean suddenly stopped.

He turned around and said to Tony, “Have someone check on the whereabouts of Steven’s family.”

Sean did not believe what Steven had said.

There must be something behind Steven taking all the blame by himself.

Sean had been in the business field for many years and encountered countless people.

Steven’s actions and reactions earlier could not escape Sean’s eyes.

Tony turned around to make a call, and Sean’s subordinates quickly got to work.

Within half an hour, Tony’s phone rang again.

“Boss, you’re right.

Steven was lying, and his family is missing!” Tony said in surprise.

‘Boss, you are amazing!’ Tony thought.

“Missing?” Sean’s eyebrows raised. This news confirmed his conjecture. Sean said to Tony, “Tell them to find out where Steven’s family is, and when they find them, bring them to Steven.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 467-Tony bent down and nodded. He turned around and went to handle the arrangements. In his heart, he felt that victory was in sight.

‘Whoever the culprit was, the person must be caught!’ Tony thought.

Tony’s actions were fast.

He had directly dispatched many people to locate Steven’s family and catch the mastermind.

All of which were bound to be achieved! At this very moment, Abigail had already received news that Steven had been caught.

Abigail sat in her room.

Her face was gloomy.

The lights came out from all corners, and her beautiful and shiny black hair was faintly visible.

Abigail’s mouth was tense.

She was a little uneasy and shocked in her heart.

‘I didn’t expect Sean to have acted so quickly! Luckily, I was prepared and one step ahead of him.’ Abigail thought.

However, she could not help but begin to regret it.

She also realized that it was too late for her to wake up now!

Sean’s savage pursuit was overwhelming.

As long as Sean was in Northfolk, he would find the person he wanted, even if that person was three feet underground.

Abigail began to feel terrified and even had a little difficulty breathing.

It was as though she was pinched by a pair of invisible hands and suffocating.

Abigail could not help but get scared.

Abigail's room was dimmed.

The person who was reporting the news stood by Abigail's side.

He held his breath, standing in fear and keeping his head down as he dared not to lift it up.

He knew that Abigail was in a terrible mood.

1 Since the matter had come to this point.

It was too late for Abigail to regret it.

She exhaled, closed her eyes, and pondered.

'Steven had worked for our family for many years.

Based on how well Steven knew about us, I don't think he would betray me.

'On the contrary, I should hide Steven's family just to be safe.

'This is the only bargaining chip I could use to control Steven.' After that, Abigail opened her eyes again.

Abigail stared at the dim surroundings and ordered coldly, "Send Steven's family abroad." "Miss..." The people around her heard the order but could not help and spoke.

Abigail's subordinate felt that it would be too hard for them to send Steven's family out of the country when Sean's informant was everywhere in Northfolk.

Abigail turned sideways.

Her eyes shone with cold light, and she stared at the person.

She said coldly, "Do as I say! No matter what you do, you must send them abroad!" To Abigail, this was the safest measure so far.

The man lowered his head.

He gulped and swallowed his words.

He said, "Yes, Ms.Noland." That very same night, Steven's home was in a rural area outside the downtown area of Northfolk.

Three men in black suddenly barged into a house in the area.

The men were tall, and their reflections on the floor looked like three massive beasts.

They stared at a woman in the house.

She was Eleanor Junct, Steven's wife.

Eleanor's face was pale.

She pointed at them with a broom in her hand.

Her body was trembling, and her eyes were staring at them vigilantly.

She was obviously frightened.

"Are you Steven's wife?" asked the man in black.

"Who are you?!"

Eleanor's face was shocked.

Her lips were slightly opened, and her eyes were subconsciously widened.

She seemed to be very shocked.

'Steven had not come home for several days, and there's no word from him! Did something happen to him?' Eleanor thought.

She released her hand, and the broom fell to the ground with a bang.

She covered her mouth with her hands, and tears welled up in her eyes.

Seeing that, the man in black already knew the answer.

He did not answer Eleanor's question and coldly said, "You are coming with us, or your husband will be imprisoned for the rest of his life!" When Eleanor heard it, two lines of tears flowed straight down.

Her cries overlapped with heaving and panting.

'Imprisoned? What did Steven do? Did he offend someone?' Eleanor thought.

Eleanor had thought Steven was missing because she did not receive words from him.

She had been crying since, and her eyes were swollen.

At that moment, Eleanor weepingly begged, "Please, spare Steven. Why are you doing this to us? What kind of trouble has he caused?"

Eleanor was sobbing, and she kept wiping her tears away.

She was crying so much that the three men were annoyed.

They were displeased and said, "If you don't stop your dilly-dallying, I will make sure Steven won't live through tonight! You can try me!"

'I'm so sick of this annoying woman!' the man thought.

Eleanor was so frightened that her body trembled until she was sluggish for a second.

She had stopped crying, but her tears were still falling.

She clenched her fists secretly.

'Why are they sending me abroad? What about Steven?' Eleanor thought.

Eleanor suddenly had a bad feeling about that.

She looked at them, and her heart beat even more violently.

Eleanor struggled for a while as she still felt uneasy.

In the end, she compromised and said, 'I'll come with you.'

'Steven is definitely in their hands.

I can't risk his life.

These men are bad guys, obviously.

Steven's disappearance must be related to them!' Eleanor thought.

Eleanor was taken away by those men in black and left empty-handed before she had time to pack her things.

Molly had not gone out much since the day of her birthday.

Molly received a call from Benjamin earlier that morning.

"I have something to discuss with you," he said.

Molly thought for a few seconds before she replied," Sure, I'll go to the hospital in a bit after I cleaned up the house." 'TH see you then," Benjamin said and hung up.

Nine o'clock in the morning.

Molly arrived at the hospital.

She looked tall and beautiful, wearing a white mid-length coat.

Molly opened the office door.

Her brows raised, and she stopped at the door with a puzzled look.

'Where's Benjamin?' Molly thought.

The door behind Molly slowly closed as she entered the office.

Molly put her hand in her pocket and looked around.

The office was empty and dead silent.

Molly took out her cell phone before she could think of anything.

She dialed Benjamin's number and called.

After a beep, she heard a phone ringing outside the door.

Molly pouted.

She hung up the phone and put it back into her pocket.

She leaned against the desk and stared at the door.

The person who entered through the door was Benjamin.

He was still a little puzzled with his cell phone in his hand.

'Why did Molly hang up the phone? Is she not coming?' Benjamin wondered.

When Benjamin came in and looked up.

Benjamin was stunned for a second before he could respond.

He then walked toward his desk.

He said, "So, you're here.

I thought you won't be coming." "I just arrived, and I called you when I found out that you weren't in your office," Molly explained.

"I see..." Benjamin nodded.

He placed the paperwork in his hand on his desk.

He said, "Molly, I asked you to come because the hospital's research institute lacked researchers in virology."

Benjamin took his cup and walked to the water dispenser.

As he filled his cup, he said, "The reason why I invited you to participate is that our previous research project abroad has not ended."

Benjamin thought that was a pity.

He looked at Molly after filling up the water and covered his cup.

At that time, their research institute abroad was mainly focusing on virology.

But, Molly had to put a hold on the project back then because she had to return to Norlon to dissolve her engagement.

In the end, it was delayed for many reasons, so Benjamin had to let it go.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 469-Therefore, Benjamin walked to Molly's side with his cup and asked, "Would you consider coming back and finishing the research?"

Molly folded her arms and stared at Benjamin .

She and Benjamin looked at each other and thought of the moments at Fomanesia.

Molly felt tempted when Benjamin invited her.

'Since I returned to Norlon, many things have happened consecutively.

I couldn't spare enough time to continue researching some complex viruses in the research institute back in Fomanesia.' Molly pondered.

Benjamin was in no hurry.

He took a sip of tea and waited patiently for her answer.

Molly was still considering it.

For her, it would be a time consuming and labor-intensive task if she re-engaged in research.

'Since Sean's condition is improving, and Caitlyn can help with Brycen's treatment.

I have only Sawyer to deal with, so it should be fine for me to get back into the research.' Molly hesitated for a while and thought about something else.

She had made a decision and said, "Count me in." Benjamin was happy to hear that and said, "Wonderful.

With you in our team, the research will definitely go well.

Molly was feeling the opposite.

She felt regretful, and the preliminary research had always been in her mind.

At night.

Molly had finished preparing dinner, and she called the triplets down to eat.

“Coming, Mommy!” The triplets replied, running down.

“Hurry and wash your hands.

We’re all waiting for the three of you.” Molly urged the triplets while looking at them.

“Yes, Mommy.” The triplets stuck out their tongue mischievously and immediately went to the kitchen to wash their hands.

After that, everyone started to dig in.

Molly took a few bites, then put down her utensils.

She looked at everyone.

Molly hesitated for a while and said, “I’ve decided to join the research institute set up by the hospital today.

Because I was affiliated with a research institute to work on some research projects back in Fomanesia.

So, I may be busy soon.” When Molly spoke, her eyes unconsciously fell on Sean.

After she had announced it, she could not read Sean’s expression at all.

Others were naturally supportive and had no objection.

“I wish you all the best, Molly! Just don’t overwork yourself!” Brycen encouraged and smiled at Molly.

In Brycen’s opinion, researchers usually spent all their time in the research institute daily and expected it to be very challenging. Brycen thought he might not be able to see Molly as often.

Since this was what she loved to do, he simply supported her.

Brycen also felt that he had a very tough lifespan.

Even if Caitlyn came and treated him, he would be able to endure it.

Grandpa Dave also nodded and said, "Sure. Just do what you like, Molly.

Like Brycen said, just don't overwork yourself." "I understand, Grandpa," Molly replied.

Her heart felt a lot lighter after she received the support of her family.

The triplets were also talking, and Molly responded to them.

Her eyes, however, were unconsciously aiming at Sean, who had been eating quietly.

'He didn't object.

Does that mean he is supporting me too?1 Molly thought and looked away.

She continued chatting with the triplets.

After dinner, Molly went directly to Sean's house next door.

Since Molly decided to re-engage herself in research, she would have to consolidate her basics again.

Therefore, while Sean was busy, she browsed through the medical books.

There were a lot of books in Sean's study.

Several medical books that Molly was interested in were on the bookshelf.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 470-After Sean had finished with his work, Molly put the medical book back on the shelf and began Sean's treatment.

"Why the sudden interest to get back into research?" Sean thought about it for a long time and finally asked.

Sean was not implying anything. He was wondering why Molly would join the hospital's research institute with her great reputation in the medical field. She was overqualified for any hospital.

In Sean's opinion, Molly could go to an even better, higher-standard research institute.

Molly glanced at Sean and answered, "Actually, it was supposed to be that way. It's just that, after I returned to Norlon, too many things happened. One after another, and I couldn't handle it at all. Which is why this matter was delayed this whole time." Molly had placed the needles on Sean. She suddenly thought of something when she was about to retrieve the needles. She raised her head and calmly asked, "Do you not support me joining?"

For some reason, Molly seemed to have been very concerned about Sean's thoughts since she made the announcement.

Sean looked at Molly quietly. He smiled and said, "Of course not. No matter what you do, I will support you."

Sean knew that Benjamin also worked in that hospital. If his intuition was correct, Benjamin would be there when Molly joined the research institute, and the two would have to work with each other for a very long time.

Despite all that, Sean was well – aware of Molly's attitude toward her work. Sean looked at Molly's clear eyes and said, "Just do what you want to do." Molly slowly began to smile with her head bowed shyly. She was feeling thrilled in her heart.

She would definitely do well this time and not give up halfway.

Benjamin was efficient as usual.

He had already finished the hiring process the next day for Molly. When Benjamin handed the staff ID to Molly, he smiled and said, "Keep it with you."

"Sorry for the trouble," Molly said.

Molly took it and casually put on the lanyard of the staff ID around her neck. She did not even look at her own picture.

Benjamin smiled and replied, "You're welcome."

When everything was settled, Benjamin could regain the days of working with Molly.

He was undoubtedly pleased.

The two of them stood at the entrance of the research institute. Molly was feeling a little excited and was looking forward to it.

To Molly, being able to do a job she loved was a blessing.

Molly said, "Let's go." Benjamin accompanied Molly to report for her first day in the institute.

Molly may be young, but she was a great doctor. After all, being a genius doctor was not something that could be achieved casually.

In the research institute, most of them are very polite to her. There were even a few young outstanding people who admired her a little bit.

Benjamin introduced Molly to every department, and it went very smoothly.

When Benjamin saw his research team members, he led Molly over and introduced her to them. "This is our newest member, Molly May."

"Hello." Molly greeted them. She realized that they were the people who would be working with her next. However, her tone was still cold, as usual.

As a result, Molly did not get a friendly and polite reply.

A group of people stood opposite Molly. They were all top students who graduated from top universities. They all appeared arrogant and stood straight with their proud expressions.

In addition, they joined the research team based on their ability and passed the assessment. So naturally, some people did not approve of Molly joining halfway like that.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 471-And the most unwelcome among them was a female head of the crowd. The lady stared at Molly indifferently, and her attitude was obviously not friendly.

She had no intentions of greeting Molly, and the rest followed her ignoring Molly.

The others felt a little embarrassed.

They did not interrupt since it was the other team's matter.

“Molly May?” The head lady of the crowd suddenly said her name and sneered, “You’re the new team leader?”

“I don’t care how famous you are because this research institute is also filled with talented people.” The lady said directly and stared at Molly.

After that, the lady glanced at Benjamin and sarcastically said, “But, for someone who just simply joined the research team like you, it’s hard for me not to doubt your ability!” The lady had been working on this research for two years.

Naturally, she felt threatened by Molly’s sudden appearance as the team leader.

Molly’s brows raised, and she felt that familiar feeling once more.

‘Why is there someone who always has issues with me wherever I go?’ Molly secretly complained in her heart.

She did not care much about it.

She looked at the unkind lady in front of her and asked, “What stage is the research at?”.

The lady scoffed, and her face was full of ridicule.

She said, “This is confidential information and certainly impossible to tell you.”

Immediately, she added, “This research institute is all about seniority.

Not just anyone with fame is qualified to be part of the team! Regardless, I will never recognize you as the team leader!” After the lady finished her sentences, she turned around and walked away.

Some of her minions who supported her also left.

As for the rest, they looked at both sides and only sensed trouble.

Molly looked at the backs of the small group of people and frowned in displeasure.

This isn’t good.

People with different mindsets are not conducive to the research progress.’ Benjamin looked at Molly.

He felt sorry for Molly and explained to her, “That’s Queenie Jiin, the director’s daughter.

A spoiled lady and used to being flattered by others.” Benjamin paused and said, “Don’t worry, I’ll handle this.”

Molly did not say a word and simply nodded.

It was already nighttime when she reached home.

“How was your first day?” Grandpa Dave asked while looking at Molly.

The others followed and looked at Molly as well.

Everyone knew that today was the first day Molly went to the research institute to report for duty.

Naturally, they were all concerned.

Molly walked toward them.

She sat on the couch and held Alex in her arms.

LLLLL After that, Molly briefly talked about what happened at the institute.

Brycen frowned.

His protect-his-sister instinct emerged spontaneously and was dissatisfied.

He said, “That lady must be blind.

You’re a great doctor, and she had no right to question your capabilities.

If she’s so great, let’s see if she could be a doctor as great as you! How dare she say she doesn’t care about how famous others are.

I think she’s just incompetent and jealous of you!” Sean also frowned, but he remained silent.

“Uncle Brycen’s right! Mommy is the best!” The triplets also agreed and nodded aggressively in agreement.

The triplets were shocked that someone questioned Molly’s capability.

Molly heard what they said.

She rubbed Alex’s face in her hand and smiled.

She said, “It’s okay.” Grandpa Dave thought for a while and said, “If you have anything to say, you can talk to us.

Don’t keep it to yourself, okay?” “I will, Grandpa,” Molly replied softly.

Shortly after that, the chef from Sean’s house prepared the dinner for them, and the servants brought the dishes over one after another.

Molly saw it and subconsciously glanced at Sean.

Sean did not notice Molly’s glance.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 472-2 When Sean came over in the afternoon, he found that Molly had not reached home yet. So, he instructed his chef to prepare dinner for tonight.

In fact, Sean was also worried that Molly would be exhausted after a busy day, and she had to prepare dinner when she got home.

He did not want Molly to overwork herself.

The triplets looked at the table full of dishes and gulped.

They exclaimed, “Of course, it’s enough!” The triplets knew that Sean was very kind to them, and he also cared about Molly very much! “Thank you, Uncle Sean! We won’t go hungry anymore with you around!” The triplets said to Sean cheerfully.

“Hey, what do you mean by that? Did I ever let you three starve?” Molly suddenly asked with a stern face on purpose.

“Tee-hee.

We were just joking, Mommy! With Uncle Sean around, he can help Mommy to take care of us.” The triplets replied with a smile.

Although Sean did not say anything, everyone could see that he greatly cared about Molly.

Except for Brycen.

Brycen urged Molly to sit at the table and said, “Let’s eat! You have been busy all day so you should eat more.

Since it was Sean’s treat, we have to accept it!” After dinner, Sean went back to his place.

The servants cleaned up the table and saved Molly the trouble.

Brycen was satisfied with being served, and he could not help but sigh, “It would be nice if Sean does this daily.”

Molly’s cooking is more delicious, but the food from next door is not bad.

I think I can get used to it!’ Brycen thought.

“Keep dreaming,” Sawyer said lightly to stop him from dreaming too much.

Molly smiled lightly and took the triplets upstairs to check their homework.

After that, Molly treated her brothers as usual and went next door after she was done with them.

Sean put down the proposal in his hand and cooperated with Molly’s treatment.

He was thinking about what Molly had said when she returned home.

Sean said directly to Molly, “If you’re not happy at that research institute, set up one yourself.

The Anderson Corporation can invest in it.

We can arrange a team for you as well if you need it.” ‘Is this how a rich man thinks?’ Molly thought.

Molly burst out laughing.

Her eyes were narrowed slightly, and her mouth opened wide.

But then again, Molly was touched by Sean's wealthy appearance.

In Molly's opinion, there were not many people in Northfolk who dared to have a tone like his and wanted to build a research institute for her.

It was really tempting for most people.

However, Molly said, "It's very troublesome to set up a research institute .

You won't have time for it since you are so busy every day.

Your body will be exhausted." What Molly meant was she did not need it.

Sean replied with a nod and did not force it.

He told Molly to look for him when she had any difficulties.

After Molly went back to her house, Tony came in to report.

He said, "Boss, I have found the whereabouts of Steven's family."

"When our people went after them in their hometown, we were too late.

There was no one in the house, but it looked like they had left not long ago.

Also, we found out that they went abroad recently." Suddenly, Sean's face turned ugly, and his gaze fell to the ground.

'If they had gone abroad, it would be difficult to find them! There's a possibility that we can never find them again!' Sean thought.

Tony saw that his boss's face was getting uglier.

He hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Boss!" "Steven's wife, Eleanor, also seemed to be threatened .

She fled before she was forced to leave the country, so she should still be somewhere in Northfolk.

I believe the Nolands are probably more panicked than us.” Tony watched his boss slowly raise his head.

Sean gave him a glance and coldly said, “Please report everything without any pauses in the future.” 1 Tony gulped.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 473

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 473-‘Steven’s wife and daughter are missing?’ Abigail thought.

Abigail looked at the bodyguard who reported in front of her and suppressed the anger in her.

“I’m only asking you to escort her to the plane, and now you tell me that they are gone?” Abigail asked furiously.

Steven’s wife and daughter were used by Abigail to control Steven.

At first, Abigail was worried that it would not do good to keep them in Northfolk.

That was why she thought of making the arrangement to send them abroad.

Abigail’s plan was disrupted , however.

Steven, who she arranged to stay in the suburban villa, was gone, and so were his wife and daughter.

“Ms.Noland, it’s not our fault.

We didn’t expect they would try to escape before getting on the plane.” The bodyguard said.

Abigail was even more furious after hearing that.

“Then, who should I blame? I paid you for this, and this is how you do things?” Abigail yelled at the few bodyguards angrily.

None of the bodyguards dared to make a sound.

Abigail was walking around in place for a few laps, and the irritation in her heart became more and more intense.

“Bunch of useless fools! Why are you all standing here? Get out of my sight and go find them now!” Abigail yelled even louder at the bodyguards .

They did not dare to be negligent and hurried out.

Abigail had instructed her subordinates to search for Steven’s wife and daughter.

But, the uneasiness in her heart still did not dissipate.

That night, Abigail was worried that Sean would find out what she had done, and she could not sleep.

Fortunately, she received a text from her subordinate the following day.

(Steven’s wife and daughter are now hiding in the downtown area.

We’re heading there now to bring them back.] After Abigail read the text, her complexion finally looked a little better after staying up all night.

But, the frequent unexpected events made Abigail feel that she could not go on like this anymore.

For now, Abigail just had to marry Todd, and things would be fine.

‘I knew Sean very well.

He would definitely deal with my family, for Molly’s sake.

As long as I’m married to Todd, Sean would have a reason to fear us if he plans to make a move.’ Thinking of that, Abigail hurriedly called her father on the phone.

She asked him to arrange the engagement with Todd as soon as possible.

The sooner it’s done, the better.

While Molly was at home, she also received a call from Benjamin.

It was to inform Molly that the higher-ups in the hospital had made a decision after their meeting.

“Let me compete with Queenie?” Molly’s brows raised when she heard what Benjamin had said on the phone.

“Yup, the hospital board thinks this is the best way to resolve those disputes.

You and Queenie, whoever can solve the virus strain given by the research institute first, will become the team leader.

What do you think, Molly? Is that okay?” Benjamin asked.

Molly did not refuse for Benjamin’s sake.

“Okay, then. Let me know the time, and I’ll go to the research institute.” Molly said.

The test was set in the afternoon, and the institute had arranged for the two ladies to compete.

Benjamin came to pick up Molly and brought her to the research institute in the afternoon.

When they got out of the car, they met Queenie and the other colleagues passing by.

Seeing Molly getting out of Benjamin’s car, Queenie glared at Molly with dissatisfaction.

Queenie brought her colleagues directly into the research institute without any intention of saying hello to Molly.

Molly did not take it to heart and went in with Benjamin.

“Dr. Forts is here. The test venue is ready.” Since it was a test between the two ladies, many came to watch, including several chiefs from other labs.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 474-Molly and Queenie both changed their clothes and chose a laboratory.

The equipment inside each lab was the same, and on the table was the virus strain given by the research institute.

It was what they had to solve in this competition.

The two labs' walls were made of special glass.

Those in the lab could not hear the sounds outside, but the people outside could see what the people inside were doing.

Molly had some relevant knowledge about lab work before, so she would not be at a loss when she started.

On the contrary, she was experienced and concentrated on the matter at hand during the whole process.

Step by step, she used the instruments to study the virus strain and analyze its components and data.

"Who do you think will be the first to unravel the virus strain?" The people waiting outside were idling.

They began discussing while looking at the two serious ladies inside.

"I'm sure it's Queenie.

We have worked together for so long after all.

Her skills are obvious to all," said a colleague from the research institute.

The people around him also nodded.

"I believe it's gonna be Molly.

She will definitely win," said Benjamin.

He unconditionally trusted Molly, and his gaze was locked on Molly.

People said serious men were the most attractive, and the same goes for women.

This was why Benjamin was fascinated by Molly's seriousness all these years of getting along.

Queenie was in the other lab, and her angle allowed her to look at Benjamin.

She noticed that Benjamin had been watching Molly.

Queenie's heart was full of jealousy.

Only God knows how much Queenie liked Benjamin.

Otherwise, the competition would not be happening.

Queenie was jealous of Molly because Molly was brought in by Benjamin.

So, Queenie wanted to make things difficult for Molly because Molly was not a pleasant sight to her.

Because of Benjamin, Queenie wanted to prove herself in front of him even more.

Thus, in this competition, Queenie had to win no matter what.

She wanted Benjamin to see what she was capable of! Queenie turned around and continued the research.

However, reality hit Queenie hard in the face.

Molly only spent half a day and had left the lab before Queenie could unravel the virus strain's components.

After Molly went through the disinfection procedure, she changed into her clothes.

She handed over the information she compiled to the chief of the research institute, who was also the judge of this competition.

"Please have a look." Molly was humble and polite.

On the other hand, Queenie, who had not come out from the lab, frowned when she saw Molly.

The chief took the information Molly prepared and read it carefully.

His eyes were filled with satisfaction.

“Great job, Dr.May.

The analysis you compiled was absolutely correct.” However, Molly did more than that.

After being affirmed by the chief, she gave him another compiled piece of information.

“This is the corresponding cure I had come up with in the analysis.

Please take a look.” After the chief read it, he was not only satisfied , but he was also full of admiration for Molly.

Queenie had already come out from the other lab.

She clenched her hands in disbelief when she heard that Molly had not only analyzed the virus strain but had also developed a cure for it.

‘How is that possible?’ Queenie thought.

Whether Queenie believed it or not, the winner had been decided.

The people around her had already made her give up her position.

When Queenie handed over her analysis to the chief, she knew she had lost.

“Every new generation brought new surprises and the youngsters of this generation should not be underestimated.

In this competition, Dr.May is the winner

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 475-The chief’s voice was not soft when he announced that.

After the results of the competition were out, some of the researchers in the institute who did not like Molly at first changed the way they looked at Molly.

“Now that Dr.May is the research team’s leader, does anyone have any objections?”

The chief said with a smile and looked at Queenie.

“Great job, Dr.May.

Congratulations.” Queenie’s face was a little ugly.

The outcome of this competition was obvious to all.

May is the research team’s leader, does anyone have any objections!” the emer said with a smile and looked at Queenie.

“Great job, Dr. May.

Congratulations.” Queenie’s face was a little ugly.

The outcome of this competition was obvious to all.

She could not object to it and had to submit to it no matter what.

After the competition, the onlookers gradually dispersed.

Queenie looked at Benjamin, who was sticking to Molly.

Molly did not notice Queenie’s hostility before she left and had stayed in the research room for a while longer.

Only after she left the research institute, did she notice that it was already dark outside.

“I’m sorry about everything.

With your qualification, no hospital is good enough to hire you.

What happened today was all because of me.” If it wasn’t for Benjamin, Molly would have been impatient.

He then looked at Molly.

There will always be disputes no matter where.

Not to mention the background or status involved.

Queenie did a great job too.

I hope we can make peace in the future despite Queenie being arrogant and having opinions on me.” To Molly, Queenie was only a younggirl who had just started working.

Even when Molly was a fresh graduate, she had been bullied and suppressed like this before.

However, she held back all these, and now she had overcome it.

When Molly faced Queenie’s provocation , she could use her strength to fight back.

Just like today.

“Okay, then let me treat you to a meal to express my apologies,” said Benjamin.

You heard what the chief said earlier.

From now on, I will be the leader of the team.

As the leader of those people, I had to go home to prepare some research materials.

I probably had to work until very late tonight.

Maybe save the meal for next time.” Molly declined Benjamin without hesitation.

Molly used work as an excuse so that Benjamin would not overthink.

Ever since Molly knew about Benjamin’s feelings for her, she had thought about it.

She did not feel the same feelings for Benjamin as he did for her.

They have been working together for so many years.

If there was something, the spark of love had long ignited between them, and there was no need to wait until now.

It was precisely because of this awareness that Molly did not want to be too straightforward and hurt Benjamin .

Otherwise, the two could not even be friends.

Molly decided to only lessen the time they would spend together so that Benjamin would not feel like he had the chance to be together with her.

“Sure, next time then.” Benjamin felt a little bitter.

This was not the first time he had been rejected, and he also vaguely understood what Molly meant.

Brycen knew that Molly had won the competition back at home when he called Molly.

He was cheering with the triplets.

The triplets were like wild horses that were full of joy.

If Brycen’s legs weren’t hurt, he would have jumped up with the triplets.

Brycen asked Russell to help him get some things while he was quietly planning something with the triplets.

Molly returned to Terahis Grove and saw the lights were out at home.

She was a little puzzled.

‘Did Grandpa and the others go out with the kids?’

Molly took her keys out and opened the door with doubts in her heart.

She was about to turn on the light and suddenly...

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 476-BANG! A loud bang startled Molly. The lights were turned on with the sound, and the streamers flying in the air were now hanging on Molly’s head.

“What’s going on? You guys startled me.

I thought you guys were out.” Molly took off the things on her head and was dumbfounded.

“Surprise!” Brycen cheered and pulled out another streamer.

With a bang, colorful streamers fluttered in the air.

“Hooray, Mommy!” “Mommy is the best! You defeated the witch!”

“Mommy is invincible in the world!” The triplets and Brycen cheered around Molly.

Molly understood after hearing what they said.

She calmly took the ribbon wrapped around her and threw it into Brycen’s arms.

“Surprise!” Brycen cheered and pulled out another streamer.

With a bang, colorful streamers fluttered in the air.

“Hooray, Mommy!” “Mommy is the best! You defeated the witch!”

“Mommy is invincible in the world!” The triplets and Brycen cheered around Molly.

Molly understood after hearing what they said.

She calmly took the ribbon wrapped around her and threw it into Brycen’s arms.

“I appreciate that.

You should be a better example to the children instead of playing with them like a child.

Hurry up and clean all this up.

Otherwise...” Molly also looked at the triplets who played along with their uncle and added, “If it’s not cleaned up, then no meals for all of you!” “Aww! But Molly, I’m a patient!” said Molly.

“Mommy...” The triplets also plead for their uncle.

“You don’t look like one at all,” Molly said ruthlessly.

On her birthday, she became insensitive to these things.

She pointed at the triplets who pleaded and said, “You three.

Help your uncle and clean all this up.” “Mommy, that’s not fair...”

Molly turned a blind eye at the four’s wails.

Grandpa Dave and Sawyer were sitting on the couch.

Seeing the four of them being punished to clean up, Grandpa Dave and Sawyer snickered.

Luckily, they did not participate in it.

Molly left the cleaning to Brycen and the triplets and went to the kitchen to prepare dinner.

Just after she put on her apron, her phone suddenly rang.

She glanced at the screen, and it was a message from Sean.

[I’m not coming home for dinner tonight.

I’m going back to Anderson’s residence to see my mother) Sean texted.

Molly did not know what Alice was up to this time, nor was she interested in learning about it.

She just replied with an “okay” emoji.

At the Anderson residence, Alice was indeed up to something Alice’s physical condition had improved recently.

The more she got along with Sharon, the more satisfied she was with that girl.

Alice made no secret of favoring Sharon in front of Sean.

“My health had improved so quickly and it was all thanks to Sharon’s effort.

These days, Sharon took care of me every step of the way.

Even my own son can’t do it for my sake.

If it's for others to enjoy this blessing, only their daughter-in-law is so dedicated."

Within Alice's praise , there was a hint of blatancy.

Yet, she did not forget to check on how Sean would react.

However, Sean had disappointed her.

After hearing Alice's hint, Sean coldly said, "Don't worry, I will give Ms. Newman a bonus at the end of the month." The smile on Sharon's face instantly froze, and she almost thought she had heard it wrong.

'A bonus? I don't want Sean's money.

I want to be his wife!!!' Sharon thought.

"What are you talking about?!" Alice exclaimed.

Alice was very dissatisfied that her son was always disrespectful to her.

Alice felt agitated, and she covered her forehead with her hand.

She said, "Oh, my head hurts so much.

Sharon, please take a look for me.

Did my son just give me a headache?" Alice's acting made Ricky, who was sitting beside her, feeling a little disgusted.

Ricky knew what Alice was up to.

Yet, the facts also proved that Sean had no intentions of compromising with Alice after so many times.

"Sean, have you heard about the recent affairs of the Nolands? What do you think about their engagement ?".

Ricky asked.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 477-Ricky quickly changed the subject before his wife and his son started a fight. "The Noland family's intended spouse is Todd. It's fine as long as Michael and his family don't have a problem with it.” He was not interested in the affairs of Michael’s family and Abigail.

“Yes. They’re fine with it. But, don’t you think that the Noland family was a little pushy when they came to finalize the marriage?”

Abigail was not bad, but Todd was not good enough for the Noland family to finalize the marriage immediately.

After hearing that, Sean was lost in thought.

‘What made the Noland family in such a hurry?’ The Noland family and the Anderson family were rich families. Marriage between rich families had always drawn attention, especially from the business press. The marriage between families was usually a sign that these two families’ companies would most probably join forces. The stock market and investments would be affected too.

Once the news of the marriage between Abigail and Todd spread, it spread like wildfire. Soon, everyone from the high society knew about their marriage.

Naturally, a lot of people were talking about Abigail.

They questioned Abigail’s choice of life partner. Not to put a fine point on it, they meant that Abigail desperately chose Todd who was a loafer after Sean had abandoned her.

Some said Abigail did not care about who her husband was as long as she could marry into the Anderson family.

She even wanted Todd, who was a loser.

Abigail knew about all the mean things that people said about her. When people she met at the banquet knowingly or unknowingly teased her, it was like needles piercing her body.

Her mood was getting worse every day.

She knew Todd was a loser.

She thought he was not good enough for her too as he was a loser. She was afraid that Sean would find out what she did and hold her accountable. That was why she decided to marry Todd. This disgusted her all the time.

But, marriage was not a joke.

Before this, the relationship between Sean and her was just a rumor. This time was different. The Noland family and the Anderson family had already picked the wedding date. So, the marriage between Abigail and Todd was a done deal even if Abigail did not want to marry Todd.

Meanwhile, in the old town of Northfolk, a place where the people of Northfolk were considered the border. The buildings there were dilapidated. The environment was chaotic. This place was a slum in Northfolk.

Eleanor and her daughter came here after they escaped from Abigail to hide from her.

But, they were not aware that Abigail's people were on to them again.

At night, Eleanor was heading home after she finished shopping. Suddenly, at the corner of the alley, a sack was put over her!

"Who are you guys? Help! Help!"

She thrashed around. The tie around her body loosened suddenly as she fell to the ground. She then quickly removed the sack.

She then saw a group of people fighting in front of her. It was like a gang fight that could only be seen on television. She was shocked.

She recognized half of the people there. They were the ones who kidnapped her and her daughter onto the plane. They were fighting with another group of people. Eleanor was scared. She hid in the corner and did not dare to move or make a sound.

After some time, the people that she knew were overpowered. The leader of the other group of people stood in front of her.

"Please come with us." Tony stood in front of Eleanor. He made a sign to the people standing behind him as he looked at the woman in front of him who blanched.

Someone then came forward to get her up immediately. "Don't be scared. We're here to bring you and your daughter to meet up with Steven." Tony could not help but explain to the woman who was shaking with fright as he stared at her.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 478-‘He has Steven?’ Eleanor was shocked for a moment. Her eyes were vigilant, but she did not believe him. ‘But...

Didn’t the group of people in black said they have Steven?’ “Have a look at this.” Tony took out a picture from his pocket neatly and showed it to Eleanor.

The picture was taken secretly before Steven was captured a few days ago.

Eleanor sobbed suddenly.

Her fear was reduced.

She immediately sat on the ground and burst into tears.

She clutched the picture as she cried, “Steven! Steven!” ‘It’s fine as long as he’s not hurt.’ Tony winked at his people to help Eleanor to get up.

In the end, they took her with them.

He had been sending someone to keep an eye on the Noland family.

The Noland family would definitely do something when Steven’s wife and daughter escaped right before they went abroad.

So, Tony would receive information immediately if the Noland family had made any move.

It turned out that it was the right move.

Tony brought Eleanor to the place where Steven was being held in.

“Steven!” she cried out.

There were a lot of emotions as she finally had someone to complain to about things that had happened for no apparent reason over the past few days.

“You gave me such a scare!” Steven was stunned for a second.

He did not bother the people that kept him in custody.

He ran straight toward his wife.

It was a great burden off his mind.

For the past two days, he missed his wife and daughter, and he felt uneasy.

All those feelings were gone when he saw his wife and daughter standing in front of him.

He said in tears of joy, "I'm glad you two are fine."

Tony hovered in the doorway.

Many people were guarding outside to let the spouses reunite.

'It's time to get to business.' He was emotionless as he said calmly, "Steven."

"Can you speak now?" Although Tony was asking a question, his expression and tone showed that Steven could not reject him.

Steven stared at his wife and daughter who were safe and sound as he made a decision in his mind.

He said to Tony, "I'm willing to tell Mr. Anderson everything."

Finally, Steven was brought to Sean.

He then told Sean everything.

"Your initial guess was right. Abigail was behind everything." He stood nearby quietly.

He gave in and confessed everything unlike before.

"The evidence is all here." He took his phone out and gave it to the bodyguard who was standing beside him.

He then said to Sean, "The information that was given by Abigail and the money transactions are all here."

The bodyguard passed the phone to Tony.

Tony glanced at Sean as he kept the phone.

Sean's face was gloomy as he clenched his fist slowly.

He was controlling his anger.

'Nice one, Abigail! 'I spared the Noland family last time.

Now it looks beyond ridiculous! 'I didn't think Abigail dared to do such things!' Initially, Sean was skeptical.

He thought that someone pretended to be a family member of the Noland family and was secretly causing trouble.

Because the Noland family was a very wealthy family from Northfolk .

And, Molly was merely a single mother and a doctor.

But, the Noland family deigned to deal with Molly.

Sean pondered about what Abigail said.

'I was most probably the reason she went after Molly.' She coveted to be Mrs. Anderson for quite some time.

Sean loosened his hand and put it on the armrest.

'I won't spare Abigail.' Meanwhile, Abigail heard about the news.

There was a humming sound in her head, and her face turned pale as her eyes lost their glow.

'They were taken away by Sean's men?! 'Bunch of losers! She threw her phone on the couch savagely.

She clenched her teeth as she got up and ran upstairs immediately.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 479-Her heart was pounding like a drum. She felt like there was a knife to her throat. "Dad! I need your help!" Abigail threw open the study room's door as she panicked.

Richard stopped his work.

He could guess what was wrong when he saw Abigail's reaction.

He looked increasingly serious at her as he sternly scolded, "You came to me only when you're in trouble?"

"Why didn't you talk to me before you did it?" Richard was frustrated.

He was so mad that he threw a file that was on the table at his daughter.

He clenched his teeth as he said that.

'This wasn't the first time she did something foolish for Sean!

"Obviously, they found out what she did, and she couldn't hide it from them anymore!' He dreaded to think what might happen if they got on Sean's bad side.

"I didn't think I would get caught!" Abigail was so scared that she shuddered.

She then cried out.

"You!" Richard glanced at Abigail.

He was so angry that he was speechless.

'No one in their right mind would mess with Sean! 'She's so spoiled!' "This is outrageous!" He scolded.

He was upset as he stared at his daughter who could not stop crying.

After a while, Richard calmed down.

His gloomy eyes were filled with reproach.

He clenched his teeth as he said, "You'll be engaged to Todd very soon.

I think Sean would avoid making a big scene.

Or else, not only would it embarrass the Noland family, but it would also embarrass the Anderson family." He was extremely dissatisfied.

But, he had to clean up the mess as it was his daughter who made the mess.

"Okay, I'll go look for him now. Let's see if we can settle it privately." Richard walked away from his desk.

He then took his jacket and put it on immediately.

Before he left the study room, he glanced at Abigail coldly as he warned ,
“Abigail ,even the king himself couldn’t help you if you cause trouble again!”

Soon, Richard reached Sean’s place.

“Boss, would you like to meet up with him?” Tony asked Sean when the doorman notified him about Richard’s arrival.

“No.” Sean refused immediately without raising his head.

He then said, “Bring Steven and the evidence to the police to build a case.”

Sean was a straightforward person.

After the doorman rejected Richard, his face turned deadly pale as he left the garden.

The Anderson family was famous in Northfolk.

The police officers went to find the Noland family a few hours after Sean’s personal assistant went to the police personally.

The police officers did not show mercy to the Noland family who pleaded.

They immediately stopped Abigail who tried to escape.

They then said, “Ms.Noland, you were involved in a kidnapping case.

We need you to cooperate with the investigation.” Abigail stared at the police officers.

That was the first time she was in great trepidation.

“No! I didn’t do it. How dare you come after me?” Abigail panicked as she yelled, “Don’t touch me! Get lost!” She tried to escape as she struggled desperately.

In the end, she was taken away by the police.

“Mom, call dad! Ask him to save me!” Abigail was not dignified and elegant like before.

Her call for help was getting further away.

Sarah could not handle it when she saw her daughter being taken away.

She passed out immediately.

Soon, Michael heard that Abigail was arrested.

He then went to the Noland Group angrily.

Richard's heart skipped a beat when he saw Michael at the door.

He then forcefully pulled himself together to hide his nervousness.

"What is wrong with the Noland family?!" Michael asked with displeasure as he walked toward Richard.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 480-o days, Michael got a partnership project.

He was waiting for the Noland family to credit funds into his account.

He wanted to use the profit he earned from this project to make up for the mistakes he made previously.

Michael felt that he was forced to clean up the mess because of Sean.

The mess even got to Mr. Anderson Sr.

He had been very upset this whole time.

He wanted to rely on the Noland family to defeat Sean.

But suddenly, the Noland family offended Sean.

They even broke the law! The marriage between his family and the Noland family was around the corner.

They would soon become a family.

Now that the Noland family had offended Sean, this meant that Michael had offended him too.

‘Does this mean my boorish nephew will one-up me again?’ Michael stared at the middle-aged man in front of him.

He was furious because the man standing in front of him messed things up.

Richard swallowed his saliva secretly.

He let out a breath as he confessed, “Abigail did some foolish things. Now, Sean is coming after us. It’s all for Molly...” His hands were hidden inside the sleeves of his jacket, as he rubbed his thumb against his index finger.

He stared at Michael worriedly as he came clean about everything that had happened.

Michael did not look good after hearing what Richard said.

He frowned as he stared at Richard.

“This is the ” good” daughter you raised?” he said sarcastically.

I can’t believe Abigail did such things.

Her foolishness is laughable! ‘She dared to mess with Sean.

She even kidnapped people.

She is really asking for trouble!’ Michael only sent someone to keep an eye on Sean.

He did not do anything else.

He knew that his nephew was not a man to be trifled with.

If Sean had anything on Michael, it would go to Mr. Anderson Sr., and Michael would be finished.

“I’ve lived for many years. I didn’t think a fool that does things recklessly still exists in Northfolk,” Michael could not help but scold.

He was furious.

Richard clenched his fist.

He allowed Michael to scold him.

Whatever Abigail did wrong, it was his fault too.

Because Abigail was his daughter.

‘Whatever. Abigail is my daughter.’ “I only knew about it after it happened.

Otherwise, I wouldn’t let Abigail do such foolish things! I regret it too. But, there’s no way out! I’ve warned her. She wouldn’t do such foolish things again.”

“Mr. Anderson, our families are entering into a marriage. For our sake, I beg you to put in a good word for Abigail! Anyway, a marriage was arranged between our families.

And, the bank will approve the fund for our joint project soon.

It might be as soon as tomorrow!” Richard got off his high horse as he said that.

His tone was filled with pleas.

Abigail was his only daughter.

Michael took a deep breath.

He thought about the immediate problem that was happening abroad.

He then clenched his teeth as he agreed with Richard.

If it was not because of his immediate problem, he would not agree to go and clear things up with people younger than him.

Moreover, it was Sean.

Special circumstances, special treatment.

He had no other choice.

Michael drove back to his company.

He then went straight to Sean’s office.

He clearly stated that the reason he went to see Sean was to talk about Abigail's issue.

Michael requested Sean to spare Abigail for his sake.

1 Sean stared coldly at Michael, who was sitting on the couch.

He did not accept Michael's request.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 481-He continued and said, "Luckily, the marriage with the Noland family isn't completed yet.

Abigail is an immoral woman who broke the law.

You wouldn't be at ease if she's married into your family, right?"

LLLLL "Sean!" Michael shouted seriously.

He immediately got up from the couch and stared at Sean.

"I still have work to do.

Since you're so free, you should go and clean up your mess.

If it's not dealt with by next month, you should know clearly what are the consequences." Sean did not want to show Michael any respect.

After saying that calmly, he turned his attention back to his desk.

He continued doing his work.

I 'Little brat!

Michael scolded that in his mind.

He got so angry that his chest heaved up and down repeatedly.

His face was cold as he stared at Sean.

He left only after calming down for a while.

EET Not long after Michael left Sean's office, Sean was summoned to the Chairman's office.

He knew his father knew about the incident and summoned him for questioning.

Ricky was not as emotional as his brother.

He was only a little unhappy.

1 'After all, Todd isn't my son.

Abigail isn't going to marry into my family.

So, I don't really care about the incident.

'But, I didn't expect the Noland family would do such a shameless thing!

Ricky stared at his son as he asked seriously, "Sean, do you really have feelings for the woman called Molly?" That was what he cared about.

"Yes. I have feelings for her." Sean made no secret.

He admitted it directly.

He wanted Molly to become Mrs. Anderson.

This was the kind of feeling he had for her.

Ricky let out a breath gently.

He stared at his son with a puzzled look on his face.

He warned nicely, "Your grandfather wouldn't agree to it.

Apart from anything else, Molly has three unexplained children.

He wouldn't allow this." Most wealthy families would not allow their descendants to marry a disreputable woman.

At best, they would be allowed to have a casual relationship with them.

'Not only is Molly merely an ordinary girl, but she also has three children!' Sean straightened his back.

He stared at his father as he said every word seriously, "I don't care about the family background of the person I like.

I don't care if she's a divorcee.

As long as she doesn't act against morality and there's a connection between us, I don't care about anything else.

"Father, you know very well that I don't want my marriage to be controlled by the family and become the Anderson family's puppet in the end.

I only want to be with the person I like.

It's that simple." L 1 This idea of his was not born after he met Molly.

He had this mindset long before he met her.

Ricky was silent for a moment.

'Yes.

I know what my son wants.

And, it's not wrong to like someone.

'Moreover, I know no one could change his mind if he has made up his mind.

He's always been like this since he was a kid.' Ricky had an internal struggle for a moment.

Finally, he sighed as he said, "Your mother, I'm afraid she would cause a scene when the time comes."

Sean stared at Ricky as he asked for a favor.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 482-Ricky was speechless as he looked at his son with a frown.

He would have taken that as a compliment if somebody else said it.

However, he knew exactly what Sean meant.

'What did he mean by she only listens to me?

'His mother can get mad at everyone and everything. I'm no exception. Is this kid trying to throw me under the bus?' Sean was aware of what Ricky was thinking, so he spoke first to avoid getting rejected. "Everything depends on you now. I have work to be done. I'll leave now." Ricky did not say anything as he watched Sean leave. Then, the door was shut.

He felt a headache. He always thought that Sean was an impressively bright person that he did not have to worry about.

However, he did not feel the same way when Sean actually used his intelligence against him.

Ricky leaned his back on the soft chair as he breathed out heavily, "Sigh..." He could already imagine how chaotic and restless the house was going to be.

Molly was surfing the internet at her home when she came across a trending post suggested to her.

It did not take long before Abigail was convicted because Steven testified against her with all the evidence he possessed.

Molly turned her phone off emotionlessly as she did not have the mood to look at the posts anymore.

She would still be haunted by what happened abroad whenever she thought about it.

'Would my life be ruined if Sean didn't make his way there on time? What would happen to my kids?' Molly did not dare to imagine the consequences. She felt glad that Abigail was finally arrested, and she believed that the law would give her the punishment she deserved.

As for herself, she wanted to forget about it. She did not want to recall the fear she experienced.

Molly went down to prepare for dinner after clearing the documents on her desk.

Her family only knew that she had been in such a dangerous situation abroad after Abigail was caught.

Brycen was very mad and horrified at the same time.

“Her parents shouldn’t have given birth to her if they didn’t know how to raise her right! What an evil person she is. I’m glad she’s arrested. I’m going to sue her! I’m going to turn her life upside down!” Brycen smacked the table angrily. He did not forget the culprit who got his sister involved in this disaster as he took his anger out on Sean.

“I’ll tell you what. Abigail is such an evil woman. I’ll make sure that she stays in prison for at least a few years before she could be free!” ‘How could she do that to Molly?!’ “Mr. May, don’t worry. I’ll never let Molly be mistreated. This is just the beginning.

I’ll make the person who harmed Molly pay twice as much.” Sean was not planning to give in even though the Noland family would plead for Abigail.

He already forgave Abigail once.

“Thank you for that, Mr. Anderson.” Grandpa Dave was sitting on the sofa while holding his cane. He got very angry at what happened to his granddaughter too.

He only felt more assured after hearing the promise Sean made.

Grandpa Dave and Brycen were both very satisfied with what Sean was going to do.

Molly was standing at the staircase when she heard their conversation in the living room. Her placid heart was moved, and she lifted the corner of her mouth subconsciously.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 483-“Mommy is here!” The triplets noticed Molly standing at the staircase.

Then, they ran to her, looking horrified.

“Mommy, why didn’t you tell us about that? Were you hurt? “Mommy, are you scared?

Don’t worry.

We’ll protect you from now on! “Mommy, you have to tell us no matter what happens in the future.

We're still very worried about you even though the threat is gone now!"

The triplets had the urge to end Abigail's life when they thought about what Abigail did to Molly when they were not around.

'What an old witch.

Not only she won't stop bothering daddy, but she even tried to hurt Mommy! This is unforgivable!

Molly looked at their tiny faces filled with worries as she reached her hand out to comfort them.

"I'm fine. Uncle Sean was there to protect me, so there's nothing to be worried about."

Molly was trying to say that Sean, who the triplets looked up to so much, was with her, so she would normally be safe.

However, that was just an exception.

But, the triplets took it in another way.

They thought that Molly was saying that she trusted Sean, and she believed that Sean was capable enough to keep her safe.

In other words, the triplets thought the relationship between Molly and Sean got even closer without them knowing. The triplets' mood took a big turn.

"Mommy, you're right! We have Uncle Sean!" Claudia chimed in after hearing what Alex and Ben said, "Mommy, you've got to bring Uncle Sean with you wherever you go.

That way, you'll be safe!" LLLLLL Molly listened to Claudia's innocent words, and she was amused.

Only then did she realize that everyone in the living room was looking at her.

"Ahem...I'm fine. I'm glad that she'll be punished by the law now. I'll go prepare dinner now." Molly turned around and went straight to the kitchen as she did not know how to react in front of everyone.

Actually, Molly had a lot of questions about Abigail going to jail.

However, she thought that it was inappropriate for her to ask Sean about it in front of everyone in the house.

Molly only got the chance to do that when she went next door to give Sean the treatment at night.

“Were you the one who got Abigail arrested?” Molly asked when she was in the room with Sean alone.

1 1 1 She had a strong feeling that she was right about it even though she had no evidence to prove it.

She knew Sean did it.

“Mhm.” Sean nodded and he did not deny it.

L I L I T L I “I heard there’s an engagement going on between the Noland family and your family.

Will your family’s relationship with the Noland family be ruined after you do this?”

Molly was worried that Sean’s family would blame her for what he did because Sean did it for Molly’s sake.

However, she had no idea that her words made Sean feel very warm.

“No. Abigail is the issue herself.

Besides, all of them know that you’re my personal doctor, yet she tried to hurt you when you were treating me.

The Noland family needs my family support, and they’re not going to turn things ugly if they know what’s good for them.

Besides, the people who made this engagement are thinking about the same thing too.

Also, I have no plans for the Anderson Cooperation to have any future business lies with the Noland Group anyway.”

Abigail should have known that before she made a move to hurt the person he loved.

However, Sean did not tell Molly what he would do for her.

I LI The words , personal doctor, were nothing but a simple term.

However, Molly felt that Sean labeled her with those words to show that she belonged to him.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 484-Suddenly, Molly felt heat rushing up to her head as if a pink bubble was going to explode on her cheeks.

Molly bowed her head down to massage Sean's legs, and she did not lift her head up for quite some time.

So, she could not see how sincere Sean looked.

The Anderson family was going to know how important Molly was to Sean after they knew about what happened to Abigail.

Then, the Anderson family would replace Abigail with Molly.

So, Molly would not have to go through the dire straits the Anderson family would give her.

All she had to do was accept Sean and let Sean take care of everything else.

The next day, Sean heard rumors spreading around the office when he got there.

11 Even a big company like the Anderson Cooperation had gossip.

Tony came to report to him after going out for a while.

"Boss, the Noland family is figuring something out.

They're planning to hire a lawyer and prove that Abigail had nothing to do with the kidnapping." It was not impossible for the Noland family to do that judging by the connections they built in Northfolk throughout the years.

L 11 However, Sean would not be Sean if he would just let the Noland family do whatever they wanted.

"I don't want to hear anything about their appeal being successful no matter what you have to do."

"Yes, boss.

I guarantee that nothing like that will happen.

The criminal will be brought to justice!" Tony said excitedly.

1111LL 1 1 1 1 He could not help but feel impressed by how domineering Sean was.

LILL 'My boss isn't afraid to make anybody his enemy for Ms.May! There was just no reason for Tony to reject Sean as his right-hand man! Hewitnessed everything that Abigail did with his own eyes, after all.

The consequences would be unimaginable if they did not make their way there in time.

He thought that wicked people should get what they deserved.

And the Noland family was no exception! However, Sean did not know that Michael came to an agreement with the Noland family privately.

Sean's persistence in going alter Abigail violated Michael's interest, and it made Michael very mad.

In addition to the mess Michael made abroad, he had nothing else to lose, and he was ready to drag Sean down with him.

So, he simply spread the news about what happened everywhere as if he wanted everybody to know about it, including Mr.Anderson Sr.Of course, Michael was telling everybody that Sean tried to send Abigail to prison when shewas already engaged with his son, Todd, and Sean clearly had no respect for Michael and his family.

However, Michael thought that what he did was not enough, so he got Molly, whose name was mentioned by Richard, involved too.

He said that Sean turned against the Noland family for Molly, and Sean even ruined his cousin's marriage for a woman that had three children with another man.

He played up the fact that Molly had three kids before she got together with Sean as an excuse tocondemn what Sean did.

As the head of the family, Mr.Anderson Sr.

was very displeased after he listened to what Michael said.

He was not going to let his precious grandson embarrass or corrupt himself like that.

So, Mr.Anderson Sr.called Sean to come to his house immediately without waiting for their usual family gathering time, That familydinner felt like anything terrifying was going to happen at any time.

Mr.Anderson Sr.'s children were all there, and they heard about what happened too.

All of them sat at the table condescendingly as if they had nothing to do with that incidentwhile waiting for their nephew to put on a show

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 485-d, cheated, gave birth, and even chased out of the family.

She is a laughing stock in Northfolk.” Michael said every word clearly and casually as if what he was talking about had nothing to do with him.

1 Mr.Anderson Sr.'s face was already looking upset when Michael turned to him before asking him with a faint smile.

“Dad, I wonder if you’ve heard about this.”

Mr.Anderson Sr.

ignored him as he shifted his gaze to his grandson.

His eyes looked imposing as ever and his age did not affect him a slight bit.

He had a natural air of authority around him.

The dinner was very quiet, and none of the people at the table dared to make any noise.

Every one of them bowed their head down while looking at their plates.

“Sean, is it true that you’re with a woman like that?” Mr.Anderson Sr.

did not speak very loudly, but his voice sounded very robust.

Everyone looked up and shifted their gazes to the man the question was directed to.

That was the only scandal in Northfolk involving him.

Sean looked at the dishes in front of him quietly.

The food was decorated with many colors and it looked like a bed of blossomed flowers, but he couldnot enjoy it.

Then, he looked at his grandfather with his bright eyes as he calmly replied, "Abigail committed acrime.

Isn't she supposed to be convicted?" He did not answer his grandfather's question directly because he did notwant his grandfather to give Molly problems.

Besides, the way Michael described Molly was biased, and he was trying to mislead Mr.Anderson Sr.

So, he told his grandfather everything to let him be the judge.

Sean continued to speak composedly.

"Uncle Michael, do you want a woman like that to be your daughter-in-law?

Grandpa, would you allow that to happen?"

Suddenly, Mr.Anderson Sr.

locked his brows, looking solemn.

He knew exactly what the Noland family did.

He was getting older, and the youngsters' integrity became more important to him.

So, he unhappily said," Of course not! "Dad was asking you about Molly May!"

Michael got mad as he glared at Sean.

He was very close to standing up and scolding Sean.

He did not expect Sean to be so skilled at turning the situation to his advantage.

Sean swept his cold gaze across him, and he unhurriedly said while slightly squinting his eyes, "who told you that I got together with Dr.May? "I have a condition and Dr.May is treating me.

Isn't it normal for us to meet every day? On top of that, we're also neighbors.

Don't you think that you're being ridiculous by saying we got together just because we often meet each other?

"Or, do you not talk to yourneighbors?" Michael's face darkened.

Sean's rhetorical questions made him feel very uncomfortable, yet he could not find a way to refute him.

Suddenly, the atmosphere of the dining hall became very tense.

Sean paused for a moment before looking at his grandfather and said, "Or, better still, if I really have anything going on with Dr.May, the Anderson family should feel lucky instead, considering how reputable Dr.May is in the medical field!" Michael only said bad things about Molly, so Sean had to say something to change his family'simpression of her.

Especially his grandfather.

Some of the people at the dining table thought about what Sean said to themselves.

'Is Molly May really good enough for Sean?' "However, we have nothing going on with each other." Sean looked at Mr.Anderson Sr.

calmly as he added again.

The dining hall was still silent, and the atmosphere did not get any less tense.

Then, Tony spoke too, and he explained to Mr.

Anderson Sr., "Mr.Sean only went after Abigail because the people she hired to harm Ms.

May almost got Mr. Sean injured too.

That's the only reason why Mr

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 486-6 'What? Almost got him injured?
"The people Abigail hired were too incompetent. Just imagine how wonderful would it be if they could just get rid of him once and for all while he was abroad.' The people that were preying on Sean's power complained to themselves inwardly, yet none of them dared to show what they were thinking on their faces. The expression on Mr.

Anderson Sr.'s face turned solemn.

He moved his gaze and glared at Michael.

Everybody knew how much he loved Sean.

Mr.

Anderson Sr.

thought about the Noland family that Sean mentioned after Tony was done speaking.

He figured that what Sean said about them had got to be true judging by how agitated Michael was!

Nobody in the Anderson family was comparable to Sean in Mr.

Anderson Sr.'s heart.

Besides, Sean had difficulty walking.

He would not have a great chance of surviving if he was faced with any danger!

He had a rather high chance of getting injured, and even losing his life...

Mr.

Anderson Sr.

got very angry when he thought about that.

He threw the utensils in his hand and shouted at Michael, "break off every relationship you have with the Noland family immediately!" No one in the Anderson family dared to challenge Mr.

Anderson Sr.'s authority.

Michael's face turned pale, and he did not dare to look at his own father in his eyes.

He took a few deep breaths before responding respectfully while grinding his teeth, "okay." He held the fork in his hand so hard that his fingers turned pale.

It looked like the fork was going to break in half at any time while his fingers trembled as he tried to hide the fear he was feeling.

Mr.

Anderson Sr.

did not look as angry anymore.

Dr.

May and the Noland family were nothing compared to his own grandson.

He turned to Sean and asked him, "Were you hurt?" "No.

Don't worry, grandpa," Sean answered flatly.

Mr.

Anderson Sr.

nodded and look away as he murmured to himself, "Good." Sean looked at Michael, who did not look as arrogant as just now, and he lifted his brows coldly.

'Uncle Michael just can't do anything right.' Then, he wanted to continue eating as he did not want to entertain other people anymore.

He was worried that Molly would be angry at him if he skipped a meal again.

When he was about to put the food into his mouth, his hand paused as if he thought about something.

Sean put down the fork.

His eyes became surprisingly gentle, but the words that came out of his mouth threw Michael down into a cold pit.

L ULL “Uncle Michael, the financial gaps that you promised to fill are going to be due in a few days.

I’m going to remove you from the board of directors if you failed to do so.” A shiver ran down Michael’s spine as his grip on the fork loosen.

The fork fell on the table, and his expression turned angry.

Everyone knew that Michael was making a side income from this overseas company all these years.

Michael and his family were going to have a tough time if he could not be in control of the company anymore.

However, the Anderson family was a big family, and none of them bothered to sympathize with him.

Their eyes sparkled, and they looked at Sean.

That was because anyone who could gain control of the company would get just as much money as Michael.

They were tempted and were plotting against each other.

However, that was just how a wealthy family would be.

Mr.

Anderson Sr.

became even more unhappy after he remembered that.

He threw a glance at Michael and coldly said, “Sean was talking to you.

Did you hear him?”

TT “Yes.

I’ll get it done as soon as possible,” Michael replied as he tried to suppress his anger while staring at Sean angrily.

The look on his face looked awful when he left.

12 On the other side, Sean and his parents also left after reminding Mr.

Anderson Sr.

that he should watch his diet and pay more attention to his health.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 487-Alice stared at Sean from behind. She knew that even though her son did not say anything directly, he was defending Molly while he was being questioned by Mr.

Anderson Sr.

She walked fast subconsciously and grabbed Ricky’s hand to catch up with Sean as she asked Sean, who was sitting in the wheelchair.

“Sean, were you serious?”

Sean lifted his hand up.

Tony knew what he meant and slowed down.

Sean looked forward.

The lights on both sides of the road were very bright.

It looked like Sean’s deep eyes absorb those lights.

His eyes were filled with the brightness of the lamps, and they looked like stars.

He responded flatly, “Dr.

May and I are just friends.

Mom, give me a break.” Their exchange was rather calm this time “Dr.

May is doing everything she could to treat my legs.

I hope that you can stop doing things that are going to embarrass yourself.”
The Anderson Residence was in a luxury neighborhood.

The land price was exorbitant, yet every house there had a spacious yard, and their renovations May and I are just friends.

Mom, give me a break.” Their exchange was rather calm this time “Dr.

May is doing everything she could to treat my legs.

I. hope that you can stop doing things that are going to embarrass yourself.”
The Anderson Residence was in a luxury neighborhood.

The land price was exorbitant, yet every house there had a spacious yard, and their renovations were astonishingly lavish.

The environment was very quiet and peaceful.

The sound of their footsteps and the wheelchair rolling on the grass could be heard very clearly.

Alice was left speechless.

She walked beside Sean while holding Ricky’s arm as she stared at her son’s thick hair.

She spaced out a little.

She had no problem with what Sean said.

However, she was just biased against Molly because she had been living in a wealthy family for too long.

She always thought that outsiders would only approach her son for the Anderson family’s wealth, and not for love.

But, what happened with Abigail changed her mind.

She was very fond of Abigail being her daughter-in-law since she came from a wealthy family too.

Her family status was a good match with the Anderson family.

However, she did such a shameful thing, and she almost hurt Sean.

Abigail could not help but asked herself.

How many people from the wealthy family are actually good people?' Ricky noticed something unusual about Alice.

So, he patted the back of her hand softly to calm her down as if he was consoling her silently.

Sean told Tony to send his parents back first before taking a detour to go back.

His eyes looked deep, and it was hard to tell what he was feeling on their way back.

He still had difficulty moving around, so he thought that it was not the right time to go public with Molly yet.

That was the only way he could protect Molly...

The triplets were already waiting in the living room before they arrived home.

Their adorable face turned excited, and their eyes became bright when they heard the car coming back.

"Unde Sean! Do you want some tea?" The triplets pushed the door open and stood at the front door as they asked Sean passionately while looking at him, who just got out of the car.

"The babysitter made some pastries this afternoon, and they're delicious! We kept a lot of them for you to try!"

Ben waved his hand at Sean as he said happily.

Claudia smiled sweetly and said, "Uncle Sean, I helped make the pastries too.

Everyone said they taste good." Sean did not have the heart to reject the triplets' enthusiastic invitation, so he put on a gentle look and nodded, "Sure." In fact, he was already full after eating in the Anderson Residence.

He would not have any appetite even if there was food in front of him.

II. However, he had no idea why he agreed to the triplets that easily.

The triplets were delighted as they walked over to Sean and squeezed Tony away.

“Let me push Uncle Sean!” The triplets scrambled to push Sean’s wheelchair, but Tony was not angry at all as he stepped aside with a smile.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 488-Molly chuckled softly as she looked at them at the side.” Be careful,” she said.

The triplets’ adorable faces surrounded Sean.

Their joyful voice and tenderness made the chilly night feel warmer.

Sean liked the triplets very much even though they were not his own kids.

2 He swept his gaze across the triplets’ faces, and he was moved for some reason.

He would not have a problem treating the triplets as his own children.

After they got inside the house, Grandpa Dave, Brycen, and Sawyer were all sitting in the living room.

EN Sawyer was sitting at the side with a cup of tea in his hand.

He nodded at Sean politely when he saw Sean coming in.

Brycen had already lost a few rounds of chess, and he looked very frustrated.

A smile spread across his face when he saw Sean coming back, and he hurriedly let Sean take his place.

Grandpa Dave could not help but smile after seeing what Brycen did.

Then, he said without holding back, “You’re just embarrassing!” “Quick, over here.” Brycen put all his hope on Sean as he made room for Sean.

He rushed Sean with a thick face.

“Grandpa loves to play chess with you.

I took your place and played with him the whole day because I didn’t want him to be sad.

Grandpa Dave could not help but smile after seeing what Brycen did.

Then, he said without holding back, “You’re just embarrassing!” “Quick, over here.” Brycen put all his hope on Sean as he made room for Sean.

He rushed Sean with a thick face.

“Grandpa loves to play chess with you.

I took your place and played with him the whole day because I didn’t want him to be sad.

“I’m glad that you’re back now.

I can finally return your rightful seat to you,” he said with a boastful face as he sat at the side without feeling embarrassed at all.

Everyone there glanced at him disdainfully.

The triplets made fun of him, “Uncle Brycen, you’re so shameless!” “Uncle Brycen, how do you talk nonsense while keeping a straight face?” “I’m curious about that too.” Sawyer chimed in.

Brycen did not care about what they said at all.

He even lifted his hand up to stop them from talking.

Then, he said, “Watch the game and don’t disturb them.” Molly shook her head.

She was amused by Brycen, and she laughed.

It was true that shameless people can conquer the world.

Sean chuckled.

He took over Brycen’s mess and started battling with Grandpa Dave.

A while later, Sean turned the table around and won the game wondrously.

The triplets started cheering as they waved their hands at Brycen and made fun of him, “Haha!

Uncle Brycen, you suck!”

“UncleSean is the best!” Molly stood at the side and watched the whole game.

She lifted the corner of her mouth and chimed in, “Yeah.

You suck.” “What?! Even my own sister is making fun of me.

I’m so sad!” Brycen pretended to be hurt as he put his hand against his chest while putting on a suffering look.

I The triplets got even happier, and they went to Brycen gleefully.

They were about to say something, but they were interrupted by a ringing tone.

Molly’s phone was ringing.

They looked over in her phone’s direction.

Molly glanced at the caller ID and went outside to pick up the call.

After seeing Molly leave the house, Grandpa Dave turned around to Sean and took the chance to ask him, “Sean, a lot of people are talking about youand Molly today.

What’s going on?” Grandpa Dave looked serious.

He could not help but remember what happened earlier that day after he threw 1L that question to Sean.

Nathan gave him a call to ask him about it.

Grandpa Dave did not know how to respond to that.

So, he brushed Nathani off by saying that he did not really meddle in their personal life.

However, Grandpa Dave knew that Nathan had changed his attitude toward Molly, and he could feel that Nathan really cared about her.

But, Grandpa Dave did not know that Nathan thought Sean and Molly shared a relationship like that.

A complicated and vague relationship.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 489-Nathan was an outsider, after all. It was normal for him to think like that.

However, Nathan changed his mind after listening to the LLLL 1 rumors.

He thought about it for the whole day before he decided to ask Grandpa Dave about it.

1 Sean was shocked after hearing that question, and he stopped keeping the chess pieces.

AL He did not expect Grandpa Dave to ask him that question directly.

However, Sean did not want to hide anything from him.

Sean moved his lips and started talking.

He kept the chess pieces and told Grandpa Dave everything about Michael's intention and plan.

"Your uncle is such a bad person!" Brycen got angry when he heard what Sean said, Even Grandpa Dave could not help but frown.

However, he felt very happy with Sean, as Sean was actually willing to do so such things for his granddaughter.

"The higher a man stands, the more he possesses.

However, more troubles will come knocking too, even though one tries to avoid them," Grandpa Dave sighed.

He directed that statement to Sean and his granddaughter.

He was old, and he had been through a lot of things like this.

He knew everything about the treacherous business world and how evil and fraudulent businessmen could be for their personal interests.

LI After knowing how Sean defended his granddaughter without expecting anything in return, However, more troubles will come knocking too, even though one tries to avoid them,” Grandpa Dave sighed.

He directed that statement to Sean and his granddaughter.

He was old, and he had been through a lot of things like this.

He knew everything about the treacherous business world and how evil and fraudulent businessmen could be for their personal interests.

LI After knowing how Sean defended his granddaughter without expecting anything in return, Grandpa Dave knew that Sean was serious about Molly.

“You’re right.”

Sean responded humbly.

They ended their conversation when they saw Molly coming back after her phone call.

On the next day, Sean bumped into Abigail’s father at the office unsurprisingly when he went back for a meeting.

“Sean, let’s talk.” He could not even remember how long he had been waiting in the Anderson Corporation.

His tone did not sound very friendly when he finally got to see Sean.

He looked like he was not going to stop bothering Sean until Sean agreed to his wish.

“Postpone the meeting for ten minutes,” Sean turned around and told Tony.

At the same time, he was telling Richard that they could talk, but he would only have ten minutes to say whatever he wanted to say.

Then, Tony went to pass his message.

After that, Sean brought Richard to his office.

“Tell me.

What do I have to do for you to forgive Abigail?” Richard cut to the chase right after he went into Sean’s office.

He was a little impatient.

Sean pressed charges against Abigail directly and provided all the evidence.

Sean had a witness and all the relevant proof, and it caught the Noland family off-guard.

Richard had already used the connections built by the Noland family throughout these years and spent a fortune to help Abigail, but none of them worked.

It seemed like somebody was giving the relevant parties pressure, and Richard could not think of anybody else who would do that other than Sean.

If Sean would not give in, there was just no way that Abigail would be free no matter how many strings the Noland family pulled.

“Our families had known each other for so many years.

Would you just let this slip? My family is willing to give up half of our wealth in return if you forgive her.” Richard humbled himself in front of Sean even though he was Sean’s elder.

Even though the Noland Group was not as rich as the Anderson Corporation, half of its assets were enough for a normal person to live his entire life without having to worry about money.

i That was the most the Noland family was willing to do.

However, did Sean need any of that?

Hmph.

Sean scoffed coldly, “Mr.

Noland, you should go back if that’s all you came here to say.

I’m not interested in your family’s assets at all.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 490-Sean did not hold back against Richard. He dialed the phone on his desk and got somebody to walk him out.

Richard's face darkened immediately as he walked out of Sean's office with an employee, suppressing his anger.

2 Richard stood outside the Anderson Cooperation's building as he clenched his fists.

That was when he realized that Sean was a merciless person and that his daughter was going to prison.

- The middle-aged man that had always looked high spirited finally slouched, looking defeated and even aged a few years.

1 He could not keep Abigail's case a secret anymore.

The share price of the Noland Group fluctuated drastically once the market knew what happened.

The Noland Group did not go bankrupt, but they had lost a lot of money.

Michael got furious after hearing about that.

He was expecting the Noland family to help him fill the financial problems he had.

However, the Noland family could not lend him money at all because of what happened with Abigail.

In addition, the deadline that Sean gave him was almost due.

Michael was like a cat on a hot tin roof.

"The Noland family is so useless!" Michael could not help but curse.

The Noland family lost Abigail and a fortune in just a few days.

"Sean is such an a*shole! How dare he push me to the edge! He's getting too bold!"

112L He was so worried that he kept walking back and forth while kicking up a fuss.

All he did was complain about the Noland family and Sean.

Then, something popped into Michael's mind as he picked up his phone and made a call.

"Yes.

I need you to estimate how much I can get after mortgaging these two properties.

"I don't care about the house.

I need money! "Sigh.

Yes, yes.

That's all.

Get it done as soon as possible." He found somebody to mortgage the properties he owned.

He had no other choice.

If Sean did not push him to the edge, he would not put his own house at stake either.

LL However, Michael knew that the money he was going to get after mortgaging his properties would not be a big help.

Either way, it was better than nothing.

It did not take long for Sean to know about Michael's decision to mortgage his property.

Tony told Sean about the total amount of money Michael would get after mortgaging his properties.

"He used the company's fund without authorization to invest in another company just to find out that it was a shell company.

Not only that the company's fund had gone up in smoke, but he also personally deposited a lot of money too.

The operation of his company is going to be affected if he fails to fill the financial gap now..." V1 Sean listened to Tony's report while tapping the table rhythmically with his finger, looking cold.

Just two of Michael's properties were far from enough to make up for the money he lost.

"If that's the case, it's only necessary to terminate his authority of the company." He turned around and said to Tony, "Get someone to find out about the details.

I want solid proof that can make him step down.

The more the.

better."

Michael was embattled.

He did not dare to mobilize too many of his properties because Mr.

Anderson Sr.

would be alerted if he did that.

It would not do him any good if that happened.

"Yes, yes!" Michael hung up another call from his creditor.

He was extremely infuriated.

"Sean should've been dead! Abigail is such a useless thing.

She could've ended Sean's life overseas when she TI had the chance!" Michael got mad and started cursing at Sean again.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 491-If Sean did not have control over all of the Anderson family's assets, Michael did not have to risk investing in another company, which put him between a rock and a hard place.

While Michael was thinking of ways to fill the financial gap, he was thinking about the Noland family too.

Suddenly, a name popped up in his head.

Molly May!

‘Everything happened because of her! She’s such a scourge!

The more he thought about it, the more it made sense to him.

If Molly did not come into the picture, no one would be able to treat Sean’s legs.

If Sean became a cripple, the Anderson Corporation would be under Michael!

The same goes for the Noland family situation. If Abigail did not go against Molly, the Noland family would not be in such a pitiful state now. They could not even afford to pay him.

Michael squinted as he plotted something in his head. ‘If I can break Molly’s hands, she won’t be able to treat Sean anymore!’ At the same time, Molly sneezed in the research institute, for whatever reason.

“What’s wrong?” Benjamin asked next to her.

“Nothing. The air conditioner is probably too cold,” Molly said as she continued with her work.

“I’ll set it to a higher temperature then.” Benjamin cranked up the heat thoughtfully and helped Molly when he came back.

Molly had just joined the research institute, so she wanted to know the aim of the research and the relevant data. That way, she could have all the information she needed before she joined the research team.

Molly and Benjamin worked as a team; one measured the data while the other double-checked it. They worked so well together that it was impossible for a third person to join them.

Queenie was livid when she saw them being so in tune with each other.

So what if I competed with Molly before? I hate her! I must think of a way to kick her out of this place!

However, Molly did not know what Queenie was thinking.

After she was done with her work, she looked at the time and saw that it was more than one hour past the time she was supposed to clock out. Suddenly, she remembered that she had not fed her family!

Just when she was thinking about it, her phone vibrated. She received a call and immediately answered it.

LL “Are you off work?” Sean’s voice echoed from the other end of the phone.

“Yeah, I’m going home soon,” Molly responded truthfully “Wait for me. I’ll pick you up.” Molly was just about to reject him when he continued, “I’ll be there in 10.” He then hung up right after. Molly was speechless but her lips curled into a smile as she kept her phone away.

Benjamin and Molly walked out of the research institute side by side, but Benjamin was feeling somewhat bitter when he heard Molly’s conversation on the phone.

“I heard from people that you and Sean...” Benjamin hesitated before he continued, “Are you two really together?” He did not know whether he would get a desirable answer, but he knew that his heart would continue to ache for a very long time if he did not ask her.

“Nope,” Molly responded.

In that instant, Benjamin felt a weight lifted off his heart as his face lit up with glee.

‘Does that mean that I still have a chance?’ Molly was oblivious to his thoughts.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 492-Although Molly denied the rumors, she was the only one who knew her feelings for Sean.

But, she did not want to tell Benjamin about their relationship. She did not think that it was necessary as well.

“Then, I’ll drive you to work and back from now on. It’s not convenient for Mr.

Anderson to drive to and from anyways.” He wanted to minimize the time Molly and Sean could spend together, so he could have more time with her.

Molly rejected him.

“It’s alright, I’ll drive myself. I don’t need anyone to drive me. Mr. Anderson is probably picking me up because my family is rushing me to go home. He wouldn’t have the time to come here every day either.” Benjamin sighed in his head. ‘Well, Molly is just rejecting me indirectly.’ They stood at the entrance of the research institute for a couple of minutes when Sean arrived.

Sean did not take longer than he told Molly.

When two love rivals meet, it was only natural for them to be jealous of one another. That was the reason why Molly always found Sean and Benjamin to be incompatible with each other. It was as though there was an invisible tension between them.

Sean waved to Molly, and Molly got into his car.

“Thanks for waiting with her, Mr. Forts. Do you want a ride back home too?” Sean’s words sounded rather insulting to Benjamin as he felt that Sean was challenging him.

Benjamin scoffed and said, “It’s alright. I’m happy to keep Molly company. You should spend your time working on your recovery, Mr. Anderson.” Benjamin continued the conversation half-heartedly as he looked at Molly, who was already in the car, with a soft gaze. “Be careful on your way home. I’m also heading back now, so I’ll see you tomorrow.” “See you tomorrow.” Molly nodded.

Sean then got the driver to make a move and took Molly back to Terahis Grove.

It was dinner time, so Sean did not go back to his place. Instead, he went into Molly’s house together with her.

“How’s work in the research institute? Is it tiring? How do you find it, compared to working in the hospital?” Sean chatted with her while they were heading into Molly’s house.

There’s just too much data in the research institute, and they’re not easy to digest. So, it’s just mentally draining.” There were no jobs that were relaxing. Having a position in a workplace made life more productive, so Molly could get used to it.

“I’ve had worse before. When I was abroad...” Molly chatted more with Sean when it came to her work.

“There were many professionals in the research institute overseas. The main priority was to come up with new treatments and medications. I’d always sleep in the research institute to not waste time. Sometimes, I won’t even be able to go home for a week, and that was when I already have the three of them. In order for me to work, all I could do was to get my friend to babysit them for me.

When Molly thought back to those days, she felt really sorry for her kids.

Although she did that to earn money and provide for her family.

LILILI But, they were no ordinary family. Her kids only had a mother and no father.

Being born into a single-parent family would already cause her children to feel less love. But, as a mother, she was always absent in their lives. “Well, you’re in Northfolk now. Your family is here, and I’m here too. I can help you out and take care of the kids. So, you can do whatever you want and have nothing to worry about. Besides, they like me a lot too, don’t they?

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 493-Sean had already heard about Molly’s life overseas from the triplets.

His heart ached for Molly when he saw her feeling sorry for her children.

She was raising three kids alone, and she was at a very young age at that time too.

Molly looked at him steadily as her heart moved.

‘Why do I feel so safe when I’m with this man?’ After some time, Molly chuckled out of the blue.

“You’re a really good person. The woman you marry must be the happiest woman alive.” Sean’s expression darkened as he looked at Molly seriously.

“I’m not planning to marry...” Someone else.

But, before he could finish his sentence, Molly interrupted him.

"I'm just saying, okay? Look at you, you're rich and good looking. On top of that, you give people a sense of assurance. Is there another man who's better than you in Northfolk?" Molly laughed as she spoke.

Sean only nodded. The conversation changed too abruptly, so he could not understand what Molly was trying to say in time.

Molly opened the door when they reached the entrance and was about to make dinner.

Tony and Sean were behind her.

Tony asked Sean, "Boss, about what Ms. May said... Does that mean she likes you too? Does she want to marry you?"

Sean's heart skipped a beat. He glanced over to Tony flatly and asked, "Do you have nothing better to do?" "Ahem... I didn't say anything. You misheard, boss." Tony cleared his throat and stopped digging his nose into his boss's affairs.

But, Sean's lips curled into a faint smile. Needless to say, he felt great.

Sean could not stop thinking about the conversation he had with Molly that night. Two days had passed, but Molly's words were circling in his head, and he could not forget about it.

Perhaps, it was because Sean was eager to marry Molly, and her words had given him a little hope.

Sean was like a moth to a flame, and he was trying to get closer to the fire desperately.

For the past two days, he planned to find the right time to ask Molly about her feelings for him.

Unfortunately, she was too busy.

She was working her fingers to the bone in the research institute every morning and had to treat him at night. Whenever she was done with his treatment, she would look exhausted and sleepy.

Sean could not bear to see her overwork herself, so he swallowed whatever he wanted to say so she could go home and rest.

The past two days when he was free passed in the blink of an eye.

Subsequently, his work started to get busy too.

He was in the office early in the morning to get his work done.

The project that he acquired from the Newman Group was officially under Anderson Corporation. When the teams are formed, the project would be passed on to the relevant departments.

As the CEO of Anderson Corporation, Sean had to carefully approve many contracts at every stage of the project's progress, and he had to sign the papers personally too.

They had to go through all the procedures in order for the project to be carried out. So, this was the most important stage of the construction of the project.

Otherwise, any mistakes would have a negative impact on the Anderson Corporation and bring down their name.

That was why Sean had to treat it extra seriously so there would be no errors.

That way, the chances of a mistake would be greatly reduced, if not obsolete.

Essentially, this was Sean's work attitude.

There was a brief moment of silence when Sean put down the contract in his hand as Tony finished his updates.

He then continued, "Boss, Mr. Michael is getting sponsors everywhere. He's doing everything he can to fill the financial gap." Sean was signing a paper when he paused for a second. 'Getting sponsors everywhere?'

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 494-ichael would empty all the money Anderson Cooperation had no matter how wealthy it was.

Besides, he had already scooped enough money off the company throughout so many years. It was time for him to knock it off.

Sean picked up the pen and signed everything before he said, "Keep an eye on this. Don't give him any chance to muddle through." "Yes, boss," Tony said and left the office.

It was true that letting Michael run the company would be a waste of resources.

He immediately notified all the enterprises that had business connections with the Anderson Corporation, including the banks, that Michael would have no authorization in doing anything in the name of Anderson Corporation, except for himself.

All of them got Tony's message and started to put their guards up.

As a result, Michael could not get a penny from the banks even though he showed them the stamp of the Anderson Corporation's vice president. The banks rejected him and told him that the contract could not come into effect.

A contract that could not come into effect was nothing but a piece of paper.

Michael knew exactly who did that to him.

He scrunched his face. He despised Sean so much that his teeth itched. He tore the contract into pieces and stormed out of the bank.

"That rat isn't going to give up until he screws me over!" He took out his phone in the middle of the street and dialed a number before he said through gritted teeth, "Change of plans. We have to do it earlier..." Every single word he said was filled with hatred.

On the same night.

Molly spent her whole day in the research institute, and she was finally done with her work.

She went to take out two bags of trash after cleaning the laboratory.

After that, she turned around and was about to go back into the lab.

Suddenly, a few black shadows appeared and surrounded her.

'What's going on?!' Molly was shocked. Her pupils shrunk and her fists trembled as she warily swept her gaze across the shadows.

Those people were really aggressive, and they also looked extremely hostile!

Molly shifted her gaze back to the lab. There was still someone in there, and she had to figure something out to save herself!

Suddenly, her limbs were restrained by the men in black. They stuffed her mouth with a towel, which eliminated her idea to call for help.

The men that came to get Molly were very well-trained and agile. One of them leaned into Molly's ear and coldly said, "Listen to us if you don't want to die or have your limbs broken." Molly stared at the lab. She was desperately hoping that someone would come out and notice what was happening to her!

Her arms were pinned behind her back, and her wrists were being squeezed by a huge hand.

The pain caused Molly to have a physiological reaction, and she shed a tear.

She was dragged away relentlessly. The light that came out from the lab was her final shred of hope, but the gang of perpetrators stripped it away from her.

Molly was breathing heavily. There were droplets of sweat on both her forehead and her palms. Her tears fell on the ground before the perpetrators stepped on them. Nobody could notice it in the dirty mud.

She had no idea whom she upset again.

She also had no idea why these people would not just let her live!

"These nightmares were supposed to end five years ago, so why am I falling into a darker and deeper void now?" She tried everything she could to break free and escape. However, before she knew it, a dark hand pulled her back and she plummeted down into the abyss in the very next second.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 495-Not only was Molly afraid, but she was also more unwilling and aggrieved. She was pushed into a car.

Molly was sitting in the back seat. There was an unfamiliar scent from both sides.

The smell was extremely unpleasant, and it was suffocating for her.

Molly's heart was pounding and beating violently. Her head was filled with doubts and questions. It made her terrified and scared.

Molly thought, 'Who is it this time?!

'Abigail had been arrested. Are the Nolands planning to use me to threaten Sean to save their daughter?

'For someone to know that I'm working in the research institute, it couldn't be a stranger. At the very least, it had to be someone unrelated!

'But, who could it be?' Molly was constantly speculating, and she still could not figure it out. Her fears filled her heart, but the current situation did not allow her to reveal any fear.

Doing so would only increase the aggressiveness of the kidnappers.

Suddenly, something came down.

Molly's mouth was stuffed. She wanted to call for help but could only hear the muffled sound from her chest.

Molly's sight turned pitch black, and she lost her vision. A strong sense of unease scurried in her heart, almost destroying her.

Then, Molly heard the sound of a phone dialing beside her.

After two beeps, the man next to Molly said, "We brought the girl, and we'll be there shortly." Molly's hands were tied behind her back, and her fingers were in pain due to the forceful pulling. There were several deep nail prints on her palms. All these were the signs of Molly being afraid.

'Where are they taking me?' Molly thought. Molly was uneasy. She was thinking wildly in her mind, and she could not suppress it. Her heartbeat and breathing were off rhythm at the same time.

In the calm research institute upstairs.

There was a slender figure standing by the window.

Queenie stared at the car that disappeared from her sight. Her pupils were trembling, and her heart was racing up and down.

Queenie did not turn on the lights in her research lab. She was checking the windows before she locked the door and left.

Unexpectedly , Queenie witnessed the kidnapping with her own eyes through the street lights!

The sky was already very dark. There was no star or moonlight; it was a land covered in darkness. Even if Queenie stood by the window, the people in the distance downstairs could not spot her.

Queenie squeezed her phone in her hand tightly because she was terrified and could not stop trembling. Queenie thought, 'Who are those people ? And, who did Molly provoke?' Queenie was puzzled. It was not until the car disappeared that she calmed down.

Queenie restrained her fingertips from trembling and took a few deep breaths.

She thought of how Molly came to the research institute, how Molly showed off her talent, and how Molly stayed by Benjamin's side all day. 'It doesn't matter.

This was all Molly's fault.' Queenie thought. Queenie had calmed down and put the phone back into her pocket. She did not know if anyone else saw it, but she did not plan to speak of it anyway. Queenie thought, 'If Molly is lucky, she will be found by someone else and call the police. It will have nothing to do with me. But...' Queenie then slowly shut the window. During that period, Queenie was gazing at the trash can downstairs. Queenie thought, 'Go to hell, Molly! It would be better if you never come back. It will save me the trouble of disposing of you!' After that, Queenie retracted her gaze, and her eyes became full of indifference.

She then left the research institute as if nothing had happened. Molly was blindfolded the whole time, and she did not know where she was taken.

Along the way, she could hear the conversation, the sound of wheels rolling over the road, the honk of the vehicles, and the sound of the world outside the car all converging together.

All that made her unable to calm down.

After a long while, Molly could hear that the surrounding voices suddenly became much quieter. Then, a great and bad premonition appeared in Molly's mind.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 496-When Molly could see again and regain her sight, she realized she was already in an abandoned factory.

A very pungent smell of rust came to Molly's face.

Molly frowned and looked around calmly. She was unsure how remote this place was and whether there was any signal. Or, whether people could find her with the GPS on the vehicle.

The group of men held Molly and took her around a corner.

Only then, Molly realized that these men were meeting up with someone here!

Molly estimated that this was not a sudden idea but one that was planned for a long time. Once the plan and location were arranged, it needed an opportunity to be implemented.

Molly was handed over to another group of people. Like a commodity for sale, for anyone to trade.

The group of bodyguards in black, who looked like gangsters left in a hurry.

Molly was extremely dissatisfied, but she did not dare to show it at will. She kept her gaze low and avoided eye contact with them. She was trying her best to conceal the fear and uneasiness in her. Molly was pressed down on a chair by someone. He pressed her with great strength, and she felt pain in her lower body.

The chair was dirty. Molly suspected that it was from this abandoned factory.

A few strong men were still standing at the door and guarding it.

On the other hand.

After knowing that the kidnapping had gone smoothly, Michael called Sean and said, "Meet me at the Euxenite Club for a drink." Michael was sitting on a couch in a VIP room. A sexy woman with heavy makeup was in his arms, holding the phone to his ear. At the time, Michael's mood was much better compared to his mood in the afternoon. He did not realize how cool it would be to seize the weakness of the person he hated the most and be in control.

Michael hugged the woman tighter and was even happier when he heard the tender voice in his arms.

Sean felt inexplicable. When he heard a coquettish voice, he refused directly. Just as he was about to hang up the phone, a voice came from the phone and said, "Don't you want to see Molly again?" Sean's hand was about to be lowered and suddenly stopped in mid-air.

Sean's eyes sank suddenly. His face was icy cold, and he stared at the name 'Michael' on his phone. His lips did not move at all.

"My advice is, you better listen to me and come over for a good talk so that I can return Molly to you intact. Or else..." The voice from the phone continued saying.

Sean pursed his lips. He raised his fingers and hung up the phone.

Sean's fingers slid quickly and looked for Molly's contact.

Sean called and waited for two minutes, but the call was repeatedly forwarded to voicemail. The usually calm Sean was now a little anxious.

'Did Michael really kidnap Molly?' When the thought flashed in Sean's mind, he received a text message from Michael. The message was attached with a picture.

Sean opened the text and saw Molly being held down by the bodyguards and blindfolded.

Sean's heart skipped a beat. His anger and hostility surged, and he called out to Tony in a cold voice. "Send someone to find Molly's whereabouts immediately!"

Tony was startled. His eyes widened, and there was a hint of consternation.

'Did something happen to Ms. May?' Tony thought. "Right away, Boss!" Tony did not have time to think about it. Seeing his boss's anxious face, he ran out to inform the subordinates, and they immediately went to search for Molly. After that, Tony hurried out with Sean. They did not dare to tell the Mays next door about what happened.

Sean knew Michael's characteristics very well. The more people knew about it, the more unsafe Molly was.

In addition, it would not help the situation to tell the elderly and children next door.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 497-ority was to find Molly and save her. Sean acted quickly, and he arrived at the clubhouse not long after.

Sean brought some of his subordinates along, and they walked in front. They opened the door, stood in four corners of the VIP room, and surrounded Michael.

The lady in the club was a little frightened, and she hid behind Michael. She secretly looked at the cold-faced Sean.

Michael did not care. He had a faint smile and greeted Sean. "Sit." Sean looked at Michael blankly. The anger in his heart was almost bursting out.

He spoke coldly and straight to the point. He asked, "Tell me where she is and what you want." Michael freed his arm and pushed the lady in his arms aside. He put on a smile from the bottom of his heart. Michael thought, 'Ah, such satisfaction. I can't believe I can witness Sean under my control. Look at how he came to me obediently.' Seeing this, the lady knew she should not be involved and left the room with her arms folded.

"You should know what I want," said Michael. He gave Sean a vicious smile.

"Resolve my financial issues for me, and the ledger must be filled in my name.

Also, the overseas management rights belong to me for a lifetime," said Michael.

He was like a greedy beast who saw Sean as a limitless supply of food. Michael picked up the documents on the table and added, "Sign it, and you can meet your sweetheart." Sean's eyes were gloomy, and his face got icy cold. But, Michael did not care. He smiled smugly with a hint of craziness in his eyes.

Time was ticking by. Michael's smile gradually disappeared when he saw that Sean was motionless, and he gazed at Sean. "What's the matter? You don't want to sign it? That's okay," said Michael. With a push of a button on his phone, a video call popped up. "Since Mr. Anderson is hesitant, all of you don't have to be polite with her," Michael instructed the person over the call with a smile.

It was like saying the weather was good today.

RIP!

With one command and one action, the person over there grabbed Molly directly.

The sound of cloth tearing was heard. Molly's clothes were torn open, revealing her fair and delicate skin.

"What are you doing?!" said Molly.

On the screen, Molly could be seen struggling. "Stop!" Sean suppressed his indifferent voice. If the lights in the clubhouse were brighter, Michael could see Sean's eyes which were flushed with anger.

"So, my good nephew. Have you made up your mind?" Michael found that he could control his nephew using Molly, and his smile became wider. He instructed the person over the phone, "Stop for now." The person on the other side stopped, and Molly hid in the corner in horror. Sean retracted his gaze and looked at Michael before he said, "I want her to be safe.

Otherwise , I can guarantee that your fate will be worse than death. It won't help even if Grandpa shows up." After Sean gave Michael his warning, he took out a pen in his pocket and signed his name on Michael's document.

Sean put away his pen and threw the document in front of Michael.

"Her location," said Sean.

Michael picked up the document and checked it carefully. After ensuring that Sean did not miss anything, he smiled with satisfaction.

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 498-After all the trouble, Michael finally grasped the document in his hand.

Michael did not hesitate to tell Sean the location.

"She's in an abandoned warehouse on the outskirts of the city. However, it's up to you whether you can locate her or not." Michael said to Sean with a smile.

As long as Michael could see his invincible nephew's face change, he felt the great satisfaction that he had for the first time.

'Haha, I can't believe even Sean has a day when he is being treated like this,' Michael thought.

"If she loses even a single strand of hair, you better get ready to pay the price!" After saying that, Sean left the clubhouse without looking back.

Sean notified Tony, contacted all the people under his command, and went to the abandoned warehouse on the outskirts of the city to find Molly.

As soon as Sean got in the car, the car drove all the way to the direction of the abandoned warehouse on the outskirts of the city at an unprecedented speed.

Michael in the clubhouse looked at the back of Sean leaving, and the smile on his face became more hideous.

Michael thought, 'That rascal, Sean. He thinks that I would be afraid of him! Don't make me laugh!

Michael unhurriedly took out his phone again and dialed a number.

Michael commanded with an indifferent and cruel voice," Break that woman's hands, and I will transfer the money to your account later." 'I would like to see how a doctor who lost her hands would treat Sean in the future and whether Sean would still like this woman.' Michael thought.

At the abandoned warehouse on the outskirts of the city.

The cloth covering Molly's eyes was torn off by her in the struggle.

Right now, Molly looked at the people in front of her, and the uneasiness in front of her kept expanding.

The leader of the men was answering the phone. Molly vaguely heard the content of the conversation , and she was even more flustered.

"Who are you people, and what do you want with me?" Molly looked at them vigilantly.

The rope on Molly's hand was also loose. She looked at the person approaching her and recalled the fear of being almost violated just now.

“We are the men who can make you happy. Be good and let us have some fun with you. We might tell you what you want to know.” The group of ruffians approached Molly with a wicked smile.

After all, these men were found by Michael randomly. When they received the money, they did not follow Michael’s words so obediently. They began to become interested in Molly.

“If you want money, I have a lot of it. I will double the amount the person behind this is giving you!” Molly tried to stall them.

The voice on the phone earlier was familiar to Molly. But, at that time, she was too frightened, and she could not hear it clearly. She believed that she would be saved if she could delay the time.

“We don’t want money; we just want you!” The man in front of her remained unmoved by her condition and even rushed toward Molly.

The other men laughed vulgarly and worked together to surround Molly’s path.

Molly was very scared.

When one of the men grabbed her arm, she stepped on the man’s foot in disgust and was thrown out by him in pain.

“You b*tch! You like it rough, huh?!” said the man.

Molly was thrown to the ground. When she was struggling to get up, she suddenly touched something on her body. ‘How could I forget about this!’ Molly thought.

Molly calmed down immediately and had no plans to continue to escape. She pretended to be injured by the fall and lay still on the ground. When they approached her slowly, she quietly took out the thing she was carrying .

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 499-olly thought it was the backup of the ruffians in the car. At the same time, she did not have the strength to run anymore.

Just as Molly was about to close her eyes in despair, a familiar face suddenly appeared in front of her. “Sean!” Molly cried with joy.

Molly thought, 'I'm saved, I'm finally saved! I held on, and finally, Sean came to save me!' Molly grabbed Sean's hand as if she had caught a life saving straw. In her bloodshot eyes, she could not bear her tears anymore.

Molly hugged Sean tightly while she relaxed temporarily.

Molly was so scared; so scared that she almost thought she would fall into their hands again.

The wetness from his clothes was like a hand tightly clasping Sean's heart, and the pain made him a little breathless.

Sean's broad palm stroked Molly's back as he said, "It's okay now. I'm here.

There's no need to be afraid."

Triplets On Secret Mission Chapter 500-Sean's low and husky voice had a soothing effect.

But, just as Sean spoke, the group of ruffians who were chasing after Molly finally came over.

"You b*tch, let's see where else you can run..." Before the ruffian could finish his sentence, he noticed the car that suddenly appeared and the group of unknown people in front of him.

After Sean got out of the car, all the bodyguards in the car behind also did the same. Dozens of men followed Sean to find Molly.

They were all dressed in black suits. All of them stood there and gave out a sense of intimidation.

When Molly heard the ruffians' voices, her body suddenly froze as if she was frightened. She hugged Sean even harder.

Sean quickly patted Molly to comfort her. His eyes were icy cold with great hostility. He glanced at the ruffians who appeared.

Tony saw this scene and knew that the ruffians who appeared before him were finished.

"Get them." Sean gave an order, and the bodyguards—in black beside him dealt with those ruffians.

“In-In the warehouse, there are others!” Molly said quickly with a trembling voice.

Molly did not forget the other ruffians she put down in the warehouse.” Sean cast a gaze at the bodyguard beside him and signaled the bodyguard. The bodyguard made a decisive decision and led some men to catch the ruffians Molly mentioned.

Molly was taken to the car by Sean.

“Are you okay? Did they attack you? Are you hurt anywhere?” Sean asked in concern as he placed his coat over Molly.

Sean noticed that Molly’s mental state was not very stable, and he had no idea what injuries she had.

But, Sean had seen the video Michael used to threaten him. He saw that those men were trying to do something to Molly.

Sean felt distressed in his heart, as he held Molly in his arms.

Fortunately, Sean arrived just in time. “Tony, let’s go to the hospital,” Sean ordered.

Sean’s first thought was to take Molly to the hospital to check on her injuries.

Molly grabbed Sean’s sleeve and said, “I don’t need to go to the hospital. I just want to go home.” Molly did not want to go home while she reeked of disinfectant. It would make Grandpa Dave, her brothers, and the three children at home worried about her.

“Okay, we won’t go to the hospital, then.” Sean looked at the vulnerable Molly and did not object to her decision. He instructed Tony, “Let’s return to Terahis Grove.” There was still a long way to go back to the city from the outskirts. While on the way back, Molly just leaned on Sean’s body. After she had been through all the frightening moments, she finally relaxed. She closed her eyes and fell asleep in Sean’s arms.

Molly was having a dream and was suddenly shaken, and she woke up from her dream when the car stopped at Terahis Grove.

“Did you have a bad dream?” Sean asked.

Molly heard a familiar voice. She raised her head and met Sean's eyes. Her restless heart settled down again.

"It's nothing." Molly realized she was still in Sean's arms and hurriedly exited the car herself.

"Can I come to your house before I go home?" Molly stood at the gate of Terahis Grove, and she suddenly thought of something. She turned to ask Sean.

Molly looked at her clothes and said to Sean, "I want to clean up a bit before I head home so that I won't scare Grandpa and the others." "Sure," said Sean, and he took her back to his house.

After Molly entered Sean's house, she went to Sean's bathroom to clean herself up. Sean prepared a set of clean clothes he had never worn and put them outside the bathroom.

Sean said, "I'll put the clothes at the door. You can put them on in the meantime.

I'll have someone prepare a set of clothes for you."
