

Triplets On SM 508

Chapter 508-The cold light in his eyes dispersed toward Michael. His eyes were filled with anger, and he looked like an angry lion that was roaring.

It was because of Molly.

Michael had a deep fear.

The hairs on his body were standing up.

But, he did not back away.

Mr.

Anderson Sr.

felt the rage between Sean and Michael.

He remained silent as he looked through the documents near Sean.

He then left angrily.

Sean and Michael left after that too.

In the afternoon, police officers went to Michael's house.

"What are you doing?!" Michael's mood was bad.

He was furious when the two police officers pinned him down indiscriminately.

“Don’t think that you can just do whatever you want just because you’re the police.

I’m from the Anderson family.

I’m the Anderson Corporation’s vice general manager.

Why am I being arrested?” Michael wanted to break free.

He was furious when the two police officers pinned him down indiscriminately.

“Don’t think that you can just do whatever you want just because you’re the police.

I’m from the Anderson family.

I’m the Anderson Corporation’s vice general manager.

Why am I being arrested?” Michael wanted to break free.

But, his arms were being pressed tightly.

His eyes were filled with rage.

“We are in Northfolk! How dare you touch me? Do you have some kind of death wish?”

The leader of the police officers was indifferent.

He stood in front of Michael as he said professionally, “Mr.

Anderson, we have evidence showing that you were involved in a criminal offense.

You attempted to abet someone into kidnapping.

According to the law, you must cooperate with our investigation! If you're not guilty, we will release you."

He stared at Michael proudly.

Then, he said something before he left.

"We won't interfere with your power, and you can live your wealthy life.

But, if you break the law, you have to be investigated, no matter who you are."

He leaned over to stare at Michael.

He then responded to Michael's previous provocation as he said every word clearly, "No matter who you are." Michael was then taken away by the police officers.

They did not bother Todd and Michael's wife who were making noises.

Sean expected that Michael would be arrested.

Tony considered carefully before he said to Sean, "The evidence we provided wasn't complete.

If Michael wants to get away with it, he can just put the blame on his subordinates." There was no critical evidence.

If Michael was willing to give good compensation, his subordinates would be willing to take the blame for him.

“At least it can give Michael a warning,” Sean said coldly.

But unexpectedly, Ricky knew Michael was arrested.

Tony bumped into Ricky as he left Sean’s reading room.

“Is he inside?” Ricky asked Tony.

He did not look happy.

Tony nodded his head.

Ricky then walked past Tony and entered the reading room.

He started scolding Sean when he saw him sitting at his desk.

“You’ve gone too far this time.

He is your uncle.

No matter what happens, we’re still a family.

You’ve embarrassed the Anderson family when you let the police officers arrest Michael at his house.

You did this for an outsider.

What would other people think of the Anderson family? Sean, you've made a scene."

Ricky did not mention Molly's name directly.

But, both of them knew whom Ricky was talking about.

He knew Sean did all these for Molly.

That was the reason he was so unhappy with what Sean did.

"I don't dare to have a family member like Michael."

Sean stared at his father as he coldly said, "He'll do anything to get what he wants.

He paid someone to kidnap a person.

Luckily, no one was hurt.

Or else, he would've successfully committed a crime.
