

Triplets On SM 661

Chapter 661-Grandpa Dave would have nothing to say if they were doing it willingly. However, if Sean dared to bully his sweet granddaughter, Grandpa Dave would not sit idly!

After hearing that Molly had just held hands with Sean, Grandpa Dave immediately felt relieved and could have a good night's sleep tonight.

On the other hand, Molly was complaining in her heart, 'It's understandable that the guys are exaggerating, but why isn't Grandpa sleeping yet?' Then, Molly replied to Brycen, "Are you so bored that you have nothing better to do? she then looked at the others and urged, "Go to bed immediately!"

Molly thought, 'It's already so late, yet these people are not asleep yet!

'Don't they know that sleeping late can affect their health?' The next day, Sean came over for breakfast.

The three little ones were still thinking about yesterday, so they secretly came to Sean and wanted to learn from him while Molly was not paying attention. They whispered, "Uncle Sean, we have searched the internet for you on the best atmosphere for a couple to kiss.

You actually could do it yesterday. You can learn more from it if you don't know how."

"I'm rooting for you, Uncle Sean. Hope you can win Mommy's heart as soon as possible!"

Ben said.

What the triplets said had made Sean laugh and cry. He felt as though the triplets were complaining that he did not put effort into it.

Joelle was a little uneasy these past two days because she answered the phone call for Sean without his permission.

Only later did Joelle realize how stupid her behavior was.

'If that woman was no ordinary someone to Sean, then my provocative behavior at that time would undoubtedly anger Sean.

'It's already difficult enough for me to convince Sean to let me stay in the Anderson Corporation.

'If I was fired or transferred from Sean because of this, then all the things I had done for him would have been in vain.' Joelle thought.

With such an uneasy and annoyed feeling, Joelle did her work quietly.

A day had passed with no news of Sean looking for her to question her, and Joelle was slightly relieved.

Joelle looked at the time and knew that Sean was about to return to the company. So, she got up and went to the pantry to make coffee.

This was what Joelle had inquired from the other colleagues regarding Sean's habit.

After Sean had arrived at the company every morning, he would first have a cup of coffee before starting his work.

After making the coffee, Joelle brought it to the CEO's office in a good mood.

Sean was already sitting behind the high-end mahogany desk.

"Mr. Anderson, I've made you a cup of coffee. Could you try it and see if it's to your liking?"

asked Joelle. she could not help but stare at the man behind the desk.

Sean was in a black suit and had the charm of a mature man.

“Thank you. Just leave it on the table,” Sean spoke indifferently without raising his head.

Joelle did not mind, and she placed the coffee not far from Sean’s hand.

Instead, Joelle heard Sean’s voice saying, “There’s no need for you to do these small tasks like making coffee in the future, Ms.

Herring.” Joelle’s hand that had just put down the coffee suddenly lurched.

Again, Joelle heard Sean’s voice and continued, “My office is an important place. From now on, you should not enter my office or touch anything of mine without my permission.”

There was no accusation in Sean’s words, but Joelle’s face froze.

Joelle knew that Sean had found out about her answering the call.

And, Sean was not happy about it.

‘That woman on the phone must have a very unusual relationship with him,’ Joelle thought.

“Was it because I answered your phone? I’m sorry about that. I-I forgot to tell you...” Joelle tried to explain.

“I don’t like people coming into my office. Please keep that in mind next time. If there’s nothing else, you may leave.” Sean directly interrupted Joelle’s explanation and asked her to leave.

Joelle could not smile, as she could only turn around and leave the CEO’s office

Chapter 662-Joelle knew that her act of taking Sean's call without his permission caused his disgust.

She felt remorse for her impulsiveness, but it was useless.

Sean's cold attitude made her a little upset.

For the whole afternoon, Joelle was not in the mood to work.

It was challenging to get to the end of the day, and Joelle did not delay getting off work to talk with Sean again.

When the time hit the clock, she packed her things and clocked out.

When she returned home, only then did Joelle dare to reveal her actual mood. Mr. Herring Sr. was sipping tea in the living room, and when he heard the movement behind him, he looked back.

"You're back early today." Mr. Herring Sr. looked at the clock on the wall.

"Yeah," Joelle answered indifferently, sitting on the couch with no interest.

"What's the matter? Did that boy from the Anderson family bully you?"

Mr. Herring Sr. put down his teacup and asked with concern.

Joelle shook her head and said, "No."

She did not know what to say.

“Since you entered the Anderson Corporation, how’s your progress in getting along with that Anderson boy?” Mr. Herring Sr. asked. “Not good. Sean’s cold, not very approachable, and he’s not very fond of me,” said Joelle. Her mood was a little down.

Sean’s attitude of rejecting people had made Joelle, who had always been unbeatable, almost timid.

Mr. Herring Sr. did not care much about the love affairs of the young people, and he had little interest in the marriage proposed by his old friend. But, he knew that his granddaughter had a crush on that Anderson boy. That was why he did not prevent her from working at the Anderson Corporation.

However, Mr. Herring Sr. had lived to this age and had a good eye for people. His old friend wanted to intervene in his grandson’s marriage, but that young man would not necessarily obey his arrangement.

After hearing what Joelle had said, Mr. Herring Sr. could only comfort her. “It’s alright, sweetheart. Feelings are all about getting along slowly. It’s okay. Take it slowly.”

Joelle also knew about that. No one else could help her, so she could only nod in response.

After Molly finished her weekend date with Sean, she went back to work.

The information on Benjamin’s side was very complicated.

Although she had sorted out the data, she could not find another person who was good at this area to take over. So, at Benjamin’s request, Molly agreed to help complete this project together.

“Your bracelet is very beautiful. I rarely see you wear these things. What made you suddenly want to wear them?” asked Benjamin. While putting on his lab gloves, he unintentionally glanced at the silver light shining on Molly’s wrist.

Only then did Molly notice her negligence and said, “Sorry.” she unhooked the link from her wrist and put it in her pocket.

Accessories were usually not allowed in the laboratory. Molly had never worn it before, but she forgot about it this time.

“It was a gift from someone.” Molly felt a little shy when she thought of what the person had said when he put the bracelet on her yesterday.

“Was it from Sean?” Benjamin blurted out, and only then he realized it after he had asked the question.

Molly smiled and said, “Yes, it’s from him.”

“Are you two together now?” asked Benjamin. He thought it would be difficult to ask.

But, when he asked the question, it turned out to be so easy, even though the dull feeling in his heart was a little hard to bear.

“Well, we’re dating now.” Molly did not deny it, nor did she notice the glow fading away in Benjamin’s expression.

After that, Benjamin was silent, and the two of them quietly did their work.

Chapter 663-ally in a bad mood, but there was an extra person in her heart that made her look forward to seeing him no matter what she did.

Molly was looking forward to the day’s work ending quickly, so she could see the person she wished to see.

She had never been in love, so she did not know if other people who are in love in the world were like her. After she had someone she liked to confess to, she started to miss that person so much all the time that she looked forward to seeing him again.

When it was time to get off work, Molly packed up her things and left with her car key in her hand.

When she entered the parking lot, she ran into an acquaintance.

It was a familiar face.

Queenie had been staying in the Forts's residence this whole time. Initially, she had the idea of staying close to Benjamin.

But, Benjamin moved directly to the research institute because Queenie lived in the Forts residence and never returned.

It was useless even if Meredith called and ordered Benjamin to go home.

It would be a lie if Queenie said that she did not feel unhappy about it. But, no matter how she made a call to Benjamin, he ignored her. Benjamin ruthlessly rejected her when she proposed to work in the research institute.

Any girl would have given up at that moment, but Queenie did not. She had liked Benjamin for so many years and, she could not easily give up her feelings for him.

Queenie had not given up on Benjamin yet. Knowing that he did not want to return to the Forts's residence, she went to the research institute to look for him, even if he did not want to see her.

Queenie also knew that Benjamin would often forget to eat when he was busy, since she had made some soup today, Queenie hurriedly packed it and went out, but she did not expect to run into Molly.

'That woman who made me homeless!' Queenie thought.

"Why are you here?" asked Queenie. she could not forgive Molly.

Queenie remembered their feud since the last time she heard what Molly said in the cafe.

Unexpectedly, Queenie had not made the time to deal with Molly, but Molly had run into her instead.

“Heh, haven’t you already formed your own research institute? As far as I know, your research is not here. So, what are you doing here? Are you here to look for Benjamin?” Queenie looked at Molly mockingly.

Molly felt weird, she had nothing good to say to Queenie, and she did not care about Queenie’s affair, she only wanted to get in her car and leave.

But, Queenie seemed to be angrier when Molly ignored her.

Queenie stepped forward and grabbed Molly.

“Wow, Molly, how could you be so shameless? And, you dare say that you have no feelings for Benjamin? since you don’t have a thing for him, you should stay away from him. You’re such a hypocrite. You rejected him, yet you wanted him. How could you be such a b*tch? I should let Benjamin see your true face!” Queenie blocked Molly’s way and refused to let her go.

As long as Queenie thought that Molly was here to look for Benjamin, her anger began to burn, and the jealousy in her almost overwhelmed her.

“You’re crazy. I suggest you should see a psychiatrist if you have mental issues. I don’t have the time to deal with you,” said Molly, and she walked by Queenie.

But, at that moment, Queenie was already overwhelmed with jealousy. Not to mention the endless hatred between her and Molly. Queenie was not listening to Molly’s words.

“Stop right there!” when Molly was planning to leave, Queenie stopped her again and cursed angrily.

“Molly, don’t you feel bad about what you are doing? Won’t you have nightmares every night when you go to bed? You’ve ruined my family, and you don’t even have any sense of shame and guilt?”

Molly did not quarrel with Queenie, and she did not stop walking for a second.

Queenie continued to follow Molly and scolded her.

“You’re shameless, and you dare to come here and seduce someone else’s crush. Do you like stealing from other people? Do you think you have a mesmerizing face and that all men should be head over heels for you? If that’s the case, I’ll destroy your face. Then, let’s see how you can seduce others in the future!”

The movements of Queenie’s hands, at that moment, were not careless. The hot soup in her hands was splashed directly on Molly’s face...

Chapter 664-Molly panicked a little, she obviously did not expect Queenie to be so crazy.

Molly turned around in a hurry, trying to avoid the hot soup from splashing over her.

While dodging, she subconsciously raised her arm and made a covering gesture. Then, the hot soup splashed on her clothes. It seeped through the fabric and scalded her snow-white skin.

The burning pain was apparent!

Molly immediately tightened her eyebrows. Her eyes were cold and stern. She glared at the woman opposite her and yelled, “Queenie, are you crazy?”

Molly’s face would have been disfigured if it was not for her hand blocking the hot soup.

What Queenie did was not something that a normal person would do anymore!

Seeing how Molly was scalded, Queenie laughed instead. She laughed happily like a naughty child who had just succeeded in her mischief.

“Did that hurt, Molly?”

Queenie wrapped her hands around her chest and approached Molly. Although Queenie was smiling, it was not a happy smile. Her eyes were full of ruthlessness and gloominess.

The words that came out of Queenie’s mouth were toxic, and every word was sinister. “But, your pain is nothing compared to mine.

“If it wasn’t for you, b*tch, my father wouldn’t be in jail, right now. You have ruined my life.

Did you know that?!

“Since I was born, everyone has praised me a lot. They all praised me for my medical skills, and my father even regarded me as the apple of his eye.

“But, ever since I met you, everything has changed! You harmed my father and stole Benjamin from me. Even if you are disfigured today, you deserve all this.”

‘Harm your father? stole Benjamin?’ Molly scoffed with anger as she heard those words.

Molly endured the pain in her arm, coldly looked at Queenie, and asked, “Queenie, can you be more rational? When did I hurt your father?”

“You dare to deny it? Molly, don’t think I don’t know that the reason why my father was locked up was because Sean was helping you! You ruined my family, and you harmed my father. It’s all your fault!”

Queenie’s eyes turned red when she thought of her father.

That person who loved her the most since she was a child!

Even if Queenie wanted a star in the sky, her father would do everything in his power to pick one for her.

However, once Molly appeared, Queenie's family was ruined, and her father was suffering in prison. He could no longer love her. Queenie really hated Molly very much.

Molly finally realized that the thoughts of the woman in front of her were completely unreasonable.

In that case, any more reasoning on Molly's part would be as though she was howling at the moon.

So, Molly no longer showed her good face and put on her real face. She said nonchalantly, "Queenie, I see that you have a brilliant mind, but how is it that the things you are seeing are so one-sided?"

"Why do you think your father went to jail? He took bribes, disregarded human life, and coveted too much ill-gotten wealth. He was imprisoned, and it was entirely his own fault!"

"Moreover, if you really want to get to the bottom of it, your father's imprisonment has something to do with you too!"

"What are you saying?" asked Queenie.

Queenie was shocked. She always thought that it was Molly's fault for her father being in jail, and it had nothing to do with her.

However, Molly said to Queenie calmly and reasonably, "Do you remember when I first joined the research institute, I just wanted to work peacefully? But, you insisted on getting me into trouble. You always targeted me and even used insidious means to hurt me. If

Chapter 665-"I really don't understand, Queenie. Have you been a spoiled princess for so long that you think the whole world has to revolve around you? That everything you do is right?"

“Although I’m not very capable, I’m not as weak as you think. If you can bully me, why can’t I return the favor?”

Molly’s words were well-reasoned and stern so that no one could find fault in them.

This was because what Molly had said was not wrong in the first place.

If Queenie had worked professionally and not started a conflict with Molly back then, the bad things Mr. Jiin had done might not have been exposed so quickly.

But, Queenie had provoked Molly repeatedly, so there was no reason for Molly to hold back.

“Molly, you!” Queenie was utterly enraged.

She never expected that Molly would dare to retort her.

Queenie clenched her teeth and growled, almost frantically, “I targeted you because of Benjamin.

“Molly, if you hadn’t deliberately seduced Benjamin, why would I target you like this? You are the one who has no shame. You have three children, and you still don’t abide by women’s principles and hook up with men! One day, you hook up with Benjamin, and then next with Sean. You are genuinely a s!t!

“If we were in ancient times, you would have been drowned for your sins!

Queenie cursed happily, and she felt extremely satisfied.

But, Molly was provoked into anger.

Molly would never allow that woman to insult her own children, let alone belittle her like that!

Whack! Whack!

In the blink of an eye, Molly rushed forward and slapped Queenie angrily twice!

Queenie was slapped at the side, and her face was in pain. Before she could come to her senses, she heard Molly reprimand her.

“Queenie, mark my words. The first slap is to teach you a lesson for being rude. The second slap was to repay the hot soup you splashed over me earlier!

“Your father committed a crime and went to prison. That’s what he did, and he deserved it. It wasn’t anyone’s fault! If you want to follow in your father’s footsteps, I can help you with it. I’ll call the cops, right now. There are surveillance cameras near this parking lot, and I believe that the police will do me justice.”

After saying that, Molly took out her cell phone and was ready to call the cops.

Queenie was suddenly frightened!

‘My father is already in prison. Is Molly going to send me there too?

‘If Sean helps her again, I’ll probably go to jail!

T don’t want to go to a place like that!’ Queenie was so confused at that moment that she did not care about being slapped twice, she reached out her hand and knocked Molly’s cell phone to the ground.

The phone fell hard on the ground with a loud clang.

“I won’t let you call the cops!”

Queenie yelled in a panic while she defended herself. "And, I didn't mean to hurt you just now. The soup was splashed by accident. There's no way I'll go to jail. No way!"

After Queenie said that, she quickly turned around and slipped away, covering her sore cheeks.

Seeing that woman running away, Molly's face was a little ugly, and her eyebrows tightened even more because of annoyance.

'If you want to run, just run. Why did you have to knock down my phone?

'That phone is paid for.' Molly thought.

Molly crouched down and picked up the phone. The screen had shattered, but it seemed to still work, she felt relieved.

Then, Molly got into the car and planned to go to the hospital to deal with the burn on her lower arm.

Chapter 666-After arriving at the hospital, Molly found a doctor to help with her wound, and she took some ointment.

At the same time, a phone call came.

Molly took out her phone and saw that the caller was Sean. All her gloomy mood was instantly swept away. Her pink lips curled up with a sweet smile, and she slid the phone to answer.

"Have you gotten off work?" said the voice from the phone. It was a gentle and low voice of a man. It was like music to one's ear.

"Not yet," Molly said with a faint smile.

"Then, I'll come to pick you up," Sean responded quickly as if he could not wait to see her.

“Don’t...” Molly was a little helpless, she did not want to worry him, but after some thought, she told him the truth, she said, “I’m in the hospital. You don’t need to go to the company. It’ll save you a trip.”

“Hospital?” Sean’s eyes sank, and his tone instantly became a little worried. He asked, “What happened?”

“It’s just a little accident. I’m alright, don’t worry.” Molly replied disapprovingly, not taking her injury seriously at all.

Sean was so nervous that he comforted her, “Don’t leave the hospital. I’ll come right away!”

After that, Sean immediately got in his car and went to the hospital.

Before Molly could refuse, Sean hung up the call.

Molly had a light smile, and she felt really good that the person she liked was worried and cared about her.

Soon, Sean arrived at the hospital!

As soon as he came, he first checked on Molly’s wound.

Sean felt distressed after seeing Molly’s snow-white skin turn red from scald and several large blisters. His black eyebrows were wrinkled, and his handsome face was full of worries.

Sean hurriedly faced Molly’s wound gently and blew on it. He then asked, “What happened? Who did this to you?”

Sean’s tone was as if he was looking for someone to settle the score immediately.

Seeing that he was so nervous, Molly laughed but was touched at the same time. At first, she did not think that the injury was anything. But with Sean's worries, she felt aggrieved at once.

So, Molly did not hide it and told everything frankly.

After Sean heard the whole story, his face suddenly turned gloomy.

'It's that Queenie again. It looks like that woman didn't learn her lesson.

'Zain has gone to prison, and Queenie shouldn't have provoked Molly if she has a brain.

'And, she was so evil that she dared to splash hot soup on Molly!

'What happened here, I will not let it slip,' Sean thought.

"I'm fine. Don't be angry anymore. I have also slapped Queenie twice. Which means it's even now, okay?" said Molly.

Molly saw that Sean was still angry, so she could not help but cheer him up softly.

Sean lowered his eyebrows and glanced at her. His deep eyes, like the sea, were full of pampering.

Sean raised his hand and gently touched the bridge of Molly's delicate nose. He smiled and said indifferently, "Okay. The most important thing now is to take care of you."

After that, Sean asked the doctor, "Doctor, how was my wife's injury?"

'Wife...?' Molly thought.

As soon as the word came out of Sean's mouth, Molly could not help but glance at Sean.

Seeing that Sean said it naturally, she felt inexplicably happy in her heart.

“Rest assured, sir. This young lady was only scalded. It’s only a minor injury, and it only needs a few days’ rests. As long as the area of the wound does not get wet and the dressing was changed daily, there will be no scars on the arm,” The doctor said truthfully.

Sean and Molly breathed a sigh of relief at the same time! 1

Chapter 667-Seeing that it was getting late, Sean sent Molly home.

As soon as they entered the house, Grandpa Dave, Brycen, and others noticed the gauze on Molly’s wrist.

“Molly, what happened to your hand?” Brycen was the first to speak in surprise.

Grandpa Dave looked at Molly’s gauze and frowned in distress. He asked, “Molly, what happened to you?”

“Molly, you’re hurt! Did you fight with someone? Did someone bully you?”

“Uncle Sean, why didn’t you protect Mommy?”

The three little ones all looked worried, and their baby faces were red with anger.

‘I thought Uncle Sean would protect Mommy. But, mommy still got hurt!’ the triplets thought.

Molly suddenly laughed, she did not expect to get so much attention when it was only a minor injury, she felt warm in her heart.

Molly hurriedly comforted them, “It’s just a little burn. It doesn’t hurt that much.”

“Really? But, I saw Sean’s expression, and it wasn’t as simple as that,” said Grandpa Dave.

Grandpa Dave observed Sean’s expression and felt that this was something much more serious.

Molly also looked at Sean. She could only see that his face was cold and serious, and the surrounding atmosphere had died down.

‘Is this really necessary? It’s just a minor injury,’ Molly thought.

However, when facing the inquiring eyes of her family, Molly could not hide the truth. So, she pursed her lips and explained honestly.

“When I got off work today, I met a former colleague, she quarreled with me and accidentally splashed hot soup on my hand.”

“Accidentally? I think it’s more like intentionally, right?” Brycen raised his tone and asked.

‘Who would dare to start a fight with my sister and intentionally hurt her? This is too much!’ Brycen thought.

“That’s right. The hot soup should be in an insulated bottle. How could it be accidentally spilled? It must be intentional!” said the triplets.

The triplets also angrily insisted that Molly must have been bullied, and they looked at Sean.

The three smart little faces showed dissatisfaction in unison. It was as if they were blaming Sean.

Sean felt a little guilty when the triplets stared at him like that.

Sean hurriedly lowered his voice and said apologetically, "I wasn't there at the time, and I couldn't protect your Mommy. It's my fault. But, I won't let her get away with this."

Brycen was initially dissatisfied with Sean and thought, 'what kind of a boyfriend is he? He can't even protect his own girlfriend!' But, when Brycen heard the second half of Sean's sentence, Brycen's heart suddenly felt at ease.

He raised his voice and said, "That's right. Who dares to bully my sister? I would like to see who dares to try that. Tell me who it is, and I will find her!"

Grandpa Dave nodded calmly. "This can't be overlooked. That person would throw hot soup at Molly today, so who knows what that crazy person would do in the future, she must be stopped."

"Molly, who's targeting you? Tell me. I will help you find justice," said Grandpa Dave.

When Molly heard what they had said, her heart felt warm, she was about to speak but was interrupted lightly by Sean.

"It's okay, Grandpa. I'll take care of this."

Sean was sitting in a wheelchair, but his temperament was cold. His words were particularly firm, and they gave everyone a sense of security.

Sean took Molly's soft and delicate little hand and said, "The one who did this to Molly is the young lady from the Jiin family, and I'll teach her a lesson."

After Sean said that, he turned to look at Molly. His eyes softened instantly.

"You have a good rest, and I'll go back to my house," said Sean, and he shook Molly's hand.

"I'll see you out," Molly blurted out anxiously. It was as though she was afraid that Sean would turn around and leave.

Chapter 668-Seeing that it was getting late, Sean sent Molly home.

As soon as they entered the house, Grandpa Dave, Brycen, and others noticed the gauze on Molly's wrist.

"Molly, what happened to your hand?" Brycen was the first to speak in surprise.

Grandpa Dave looked at Molly's gauze and frowned in distress. He asked, "Molly, what happened to you?"

"I'll see you out," Molly blurted out anxiously. It was as though she was afraid that Sean would turn around and leave.

Chapter 669-Sean's silence precisely confirmed his assumption.

Benjamin was suddenly sulky. He then hurriedly asked about what Queenie did. After knowing that Queenie spilled hot soup on Molly, his anger was mounting.

'That lady is crazy!

'Her father is in jail now. And yet, she still dares to be dishonest. She just has to learn it the hard way!' Benjamin immediately stopped what he was doing. He said convincingly, "Mr. Anderson, this was my negligence. I didn't think that she would dare to go nuts. Don't worry. Since it was the person around me who hurt Molly, I'll take care of this!

"I'll go back and ask her what happened! I'll give Molly an explanation."

He ended the phone call decisively after he said that. He took off his lab coat and left the research laboratory. He then immediately went to the Forts residence.

Forts residence. Queenie was eating with her mother and Meredith.

She was a little distracted.

She was flustered as she thought about what happened to Molly's hand today.

'Will she tell Sean about it? I'm dead if Sean makes a fuss about it.

T shouldn't be so reckless at that time!' She regretted it so much that she put a grain of rice one by one in the middle of her plate when she was eating. It was like she was eating poison.

"Queenie, why aren't you eating? Are these dishes not to your liking? Look at you. You've lost weight recently!"

Gina asked worriedly as she saw Queenie in such a state.

"Queenie, make yourself at home. You're living in the Forts residence now. That makes you one of us now. Have anything you like!" Meredith said.

Queenie came back from thinking to herself, she shook her head as she smiled slightly and said, "Mother, Aunt Meredith, I'm fine. I was just thinking about something."

"Were you thinking about your father's situation? sigh, you're such a poor kid..." Meredith's eyes were full of pity.

Women would always feel sorry for another woman's tragic experiences!

The more Meredith looked at the mother and daughter, the more she felt sorry for them.

Queenie smiled stiffly, and she did not say anything, she was still thinking to herself, 'what should I do if that b*tch, Molly tells Benjamin about it?

'Damn it!

'Molly, if you dare to tarnish my image in Benjamin's heart, I won't spare you!' Spoke of the devil.

Just when Queenie stopped thinking to herself, an angry shout could be heard from outside the door, "Queenie!"

Benjamin marched into the house menacingly. He then walked toward Queenie and asked, "Queenie, you got some explaining to do. Why did you hurt Molly at the parking lot today?"

Queenie's heart sank!

'Sure enough, Molly told Benjamin.

'God damn b*tch. she really isn't an easy mark!' Upon seeing that, Gina and Meredith asked, "Benjamin, what's wrong? Why are you so mad the minute you came back?"

"Ask her!" Benjamin pointed at Queenie's face. He was boiling with anger.

"She spilled hot soup on Ms. May at the parking lot today, she was scalded by it.

"Queenie, why are you so evil?"

Queenie's expression changed when she heard that.

She would certainly not admit her wrongdoing, she immediately shook her head as she denied it innocently. "Benjamin, you've been misinformed. I didn't spill the hot soup on Ms. May on purpose. I was just too angry at that time. So, I..."

"Angry. So, you're allowed to hurt someone just because you're angry?" "No. It's not like that.

Benjamin, I can explain!

Chapter 670-Queenie's eyes were red as she continued to talk, she then vividly described, "Benjamin, it wasn't my fault, actually. Ms. May was being disrespectful to me. she mocked me. she said I threw myself at you shamelessly. She said I was a disgraceful person!

"Not only that, but she also mentioned triumphantly that the person you liked was her. she said you were willing to be a simp... I was furious after she said that. I'm fine if she humiliates me, but how could she humiliate you too?

"Benjamin, although I don't like Ms. May, I didn't hurt her intentionally. It's just that I couldn't stand her verbal abuse. It was even more unbearable when she looked down on you. That was why I splashed hot soup on her on an impulse...

"I really didn't mean to do it."

Queenie's tears poured down her face as she spoke.

Meredith was stunned the whole time. Although she did not know what they were arguing about, she tried to make peace. "Benjamin, is there a misunderstanding or something? Queenie is such a gentle girl. She wouldn't spill hot soup on someone intentionally."

Gina quickly defended Queenie. "Benjamin, you must have misunderstood something. Queenie made a hot soup for you. Why would she pour it on Ms. May?"

"It must be Ms. May who provoked Queenie first. And, it made Queenie so mad that she accidentally spilled the hot soup. And, that was how she accidentally hurt Ms. May!"

"Yes, that's right. Benjamin, don't be mad at Queenie."

Meredith thought that what Gina said made sense as she defended Queenie. she even patted Queenie's back as she comforted her patiently. "It's fine. I trust you."

"Aunt Meredith, thank you." Queenie sank into her arms as she cried badly.

However, Benjamin did not believe the nonsense that Queenie made up at all!

He knew Molly very well.

During the years they were living abroad, Molly was gentle, she was always kind to people.

She would only fight back reasonably if she was offended.

So, Queenie must be lying.

Benjamin disliked women who lied. He scolded bluntly on the spot, "Stop lying. Queenie, we have the complete security footage of the parking lot! You can say anything you want. But, the whole incident was recorded clearly. You can't fool anyone."

“Moreover, I’ve known Molly for many years, she definitely isn’t the kind of person you said she is!

“Queenie, there’s a limit to your lies. Do you think I’m blind? Or, do you think I’m a fool?”

“But...” Queenie was anxious. She still wanted to deny it.

Benjamin did not give her a chance to speak at all. He said coldly, “ That’s enough. Queenie, not everyone is like you. Don’t assume that she’s so nasty like you! You said that Molly was triumphant toward you because I like her. But, she was with Sean a long time ago! And, she rejected me explicitly! Why would she be proud that I like her?

“She’s the most right-minded person I know. She’s the last person to distort facts! It’s you, you’re the one who is full of lies and is being unreasonable!”

Queenie was down in the dumps as soon as she heard that.

‘I love Benjamin for so many years. I didn’t think that I’m an unreasonable person who was full of lies to him.

‘But, Molly, Molly’s a nice right-minded girl to him!

‘Damn it. Did Benjamin drink Molly’s Kool-Aid?

‘Why is he always defending her?’ “Benjamin, am I such a despicable person in your eyes?”

Queenie’s eyes were red, and she was heartbroken. But, she refused to give up as she asked.
