

Triplets On SM 671

Chapter 671-Unexpectedly, Benjamin just scoffed coldly. He squinted at her ruthlessly with his beautiful peach-blossom eyes. It was as though he was looking at a cheap clown. "In my eyes? The jokes on you because you're not good enough to be in my eyes."

'Not good enough to be inside his eyes!' It was as though a dagger had penetrated Queenie's chest.

She was hurt relentlessly by that sentence.

Warm tears rolled down her eyes, she murmured hopelessly, "But, Benjamin, I've liked you for years..."

"That's your wishful thinking. I'll never like a mean lady."

Benjamin replied mercilessly. He did not want to squander his words with her. He frowned as he said, "Alright. If you have anything else that you want to say, you can save it and tell the police."

A police siren suddenly rang outside the door right after he said that!

Queenie reacted to it abruptly. 'Benjamin called the police. He wants to send me to jail.

'He's so cruel to me just because of Molly?

'No. I'm not going to jail. I'd rather die!' Queenie panicked suddenly, she immediately stopped being ferocious. She lowered herself as she asked for his forgiveness in a weak voice, "Benjamin, I'm sorry. It was my fault. Can you not let the police take me away? I've learned my lesson."

Benjamin did not bother her.

Queenie knew that begging Benjamin for mercy was not going to work. She then wept as she looked at Gina and Meredith, she begged and pleaded, "Mom and Aunt Meredith, can you help me to persuade Benjamin? I really didn't do anything to hurt Ms. May. I accidentally spilled the soup. I swear that I didn't hurt Ms. May intentionally! Can you help me convince Benjamin? I don't want to be locked up..."

“Queenie, I trust you. I trust you!”

Gina wiped her eyes as she heard her daughter sobbing, she was heartbroken.

She immediately looked at Benjamin as she begged him lowly, “ Benjamin, for the sake of my friendship with your parents, can you not be so cruel to Queenie? She’s my only daughter!

“Her father is in jail now. If she’s locked up, how can I continue to live? Benjamin, can you please forgive her this time? I’ll discipline her. I’ll not let her stir up trouble again.”

Meredith was sad looking at how the mother and daughter needed each other.

She then walked a few steps forward and pulled her son’s sleeve. She persuaded him nicely, “Benjamin, can you spare her? Whether Queenie did it on purpose or not, you don’t need to hand her to the police. Wouldn’t it be better to just ask her to apologize to Ms. May? If “Apologize? Mom, do you think this matter can be resolved just through an apology?!”

Benjamin furrowed his thick eyebrows. His mother still had not realized how serious the issue was.

He could only say in a serious tone, “Mom, to be honest, I’m not the one who wants to punish Queenie. It’s Sean.”

‘Sean?’ Gina and Meredith were stunned when they heard the name.

Benjamin continued, “Ms. May is Sean’s girlfriend. She’s helping me at my research laboratory. But, she was hurt by someone who was under me. If I don’t deal with this matter properly, Mr.

Anderson will deal with it personally. Do you think Queenie will just be taken away by the police? Do you think it’d be that simple?”

The three women were silent when they heard that.

Benjamin made sense. Queenie had injured Molly. Queenie should consider herself lucky that Sean did not deal with her personally!

If Queenie was dealt with by Sean, the consequences would be worse

Chapter 672-Although Meredith felt very bad for the mother and daughter, she did not dare to defend them at that moment.

After all, the Forts family could not mess with the Anderson family. She did not want her family to be in trouble because of it.

Queenie and Gina were in despair!

Queenie shouted angrily in her heart, 'Sean. It's Sean again!

'Sean and Benjamin! Why would these two excellent men be deluded by that b*tch, Molly?!

'What's so great about that b*tch? How's she better than me?' Queenie was dissatisfied!

But, she did not have the strength to fight back...

The police officers were in the living room by then. Under the direction of Benjamin, the police officer immediately put cold handcuffs on Queenie's wrists. They then turned around as they took Queenie away.

"Queenie. Queenie..." Gina chased after them as tears streamed down her face.

"Mother!"

Queenie was scared and furious, at the same time, she could not help but burst into tears as she asked her mother for help. “

Mother, you must think of a way to save me. I don't want to go to jail. I don't want to.”

“Okay! I'll definitely do my best. I'll do my best.” Gina nodded her head energetically, she then hugged her daughter tightly.

Soon, she watched her daughter being taken away by the police. The huge mansion was finally quiet.

“My daughter!”

After they left, Gina slumped in the chair as she blubbered.

Her husband and daughter were both in jail. How could she continue to live?

Meredith let out a breath heavily. She advised Benjamin nicely, “ Benjamin, remember to calm Mr.

Anderson down. Tell him that Queenie has learned her lesson. Ask him to forgive her. After all, Queenie is still very young. Her life can't be destroyed just like that. II “Okay,” Benjamin gave a lukewarm response. He thought to himself, ‘she brought this on herself.’ Benjamin did not speak further. He then turned around as he strode away.

Police station.

According to the security footage at the underground parking lot, although what Queenie did to Molly did not result in a serious injury, it was enough to convict her of intentional injury. With a conservative estimation, she would be detained for more than ten days.

After Benjamin knew about it, he immediately told Sean everything.

Sean faintly replied, "You're efficient."

He then immediately asked for his assistant. "Tony, go deal with Queenie's matter. That woman offended Molly. It would be best for her to be detained for a longer period so that she wouldn't dare to offend her again!"

"Okay."

Tony immediately went to do it.

He rushed to the police station. After talking to the police, they then decided on Queenie's final punishment.

Queenie was convicted of intentional injury, she would be detained for a month, she would also be heavily criticized for what she did!

That kind of punishment was considered quite heavy for what she did.

It was the next afternoon when Molly knew about all of that.

She went to the research laboratory and changed into her work outfit. She was ready to go into the research laboratory with Benjamin. But, he stopped her.

"Molly, your hand is hurt, stop participating in the research. For the upcoming days, you can just help sort out the data," Benjamin said thoughtfully.

"How did you know I'm injured?"

Molly was stunned for a moment, she caught on quickly as the corners of her mouth filled with laughter, she asked curiously, " Did he tell you this?"

She was obviously referring to Sean.

Whenever Molly talked about him, her eyes could not help but somewhat light up.

Benjamin noticed the change in her expression. It would be a lie if he said he was not bothered by it.

Chapter 673-nishment for her,” Benjamin said calmly.

Molly nodded her head, she then sighed, “Actually, it wasn’t a big issue. It’s just a minor injury. It’s fine.”

“Although it’s just a minor injury, we can’t just go easy on her. After all, she spilled hot soup on you this time. We wouldn’t know what she’d do next.”

Benjamin sighed. He advised faintly, “Molly, you should care more for your safety. After all, you’re a mother of three.”

“Alright. I understand.” Molly nodded obediently. She smiled as she said, “Thankyou.”

Her smile was bright and gentle. It was like a spring breeze, and it made others feel relaxed and happy.

Benjamin lost his concentration for two seconds when he saw that. He then slowly smiled. A hint of soft light flashed upon his gentle eyes. “You’re welcome. And, you don’t need to thank me. After all, Queenie hurt you because of me. So, I should be the one who should say sorry to you.

“But, she’s been detained now. I think she won’t dare to deliberately hurt you anymore in the future. You can live a peaceful life.”

“You’re right.”

She could indeed live peacefully for a few days without Queenie’s disturbance.

“Okay, I won’t hold you any longer. You should get to work. Don’t overwork yourself. Go back and get some rest immediately if you’re tired. I approved it,” Benjamin said.

Molly nodded her head, she then turned around and went back to work.

Right after she walked away, Benjamin’s phone rang again. His mother called him.

Benjamin frowned as he answered the phone call, “Hi, mom.”

“Son...”

Meredith’s tone was deep in the phone call, she sounded not too happy. She slowly said, “This morning, Aunt Gina moved out of our house. She said she was too ashamed to continue staying at our house.

“I was thinking, have we gone too far in this incident? After all, the Forts family and the Jiin family had a good friendship. I’m sad at how things had turned out.”

When Meredith woke up in the morning, she saw Gina packed a few pieces of luggage and was planning to move out.

She immediately approached her to stop her. However, Gina said both her husband and daughter did shameful things. She was too ashamed to continue staying there. So, she insisted on moving out.

Meredith wanted her to stay, but she could not. So, she could only let her go!

But, she felt bad. That was why she wanted to talk to her son to ease her mood.

“Mom, stop overthinking.”

Benjamin understood that her mother sympathized with Gina and Queenie because she was kind-hearted. But, one should be pragmatic in some situations.

Queenie almost disfigured Ms. May in the parking lot. If she isn't punished, she might do something even more extreme in the future. So, she deserved it.

"Since her actions brought her where she is now, you shouldn't take it personally. Moreover, if they want to blame someone, they'll blame me and not you."

Benjamin comforted her calmly. He hoped that her mother would feel better after hearing what he said.

Chapter 674-Meanwhile, the police station.

After a night of interrogation, Queenie was detained in solitary under criminal detention.

There was no window in the dark room, and the only light source came from a dim yellow bulb.

Queenie looked at that weak light blankly as she felt dead inside.

She felt very depressed and suffocating after thinking about how she was going to be stuck here in this room and never see the light of day for the next month.

The hatred inside her grew even more ferociously under this threatening environment!

'Molly May...

'That b*tch is the only reason why I'm in here!

'I've never had a good day ever since she appeared in my life.' Queenie could not and did not want to admit that Molly was simply better than her. she was not going to let Molly go that easily.

Queenie heard the door of the room being opened when she was all stirred up inside.

“Queenie!”

Gina was so worried about her daughter that she could not sleep for the whole night. ‘I have to see my daughter no matter what.’ She thought to herself when she was awake last night.

Her tears were rolling in her eyes as soon as she saw Queenie. “Mom!”

Queenie lifted her head and saw her mother, she became lively all of a sudden as she ran toward her mother, she hugged Gina and vented to her while crying.

“Mom, did you come to get me out of here? This is great. I don’t want to spend another second here...”

That shabby place was unbearably stuffy, and she could not stand to be in there any longer.

However, Gina sighed while hugging her before she sadly said, “Queenie, I’m not here to get you out of this place.

“Not only Benjamin, but the person in charge of the Anderson Corporation, Sean, wanted you to be detained in here for a month. It’s very difficult for me to get you out of here even if I were to pull some strings.”

Queenie realized what was happening. “Does that mean that I have to spend the next month suffering here?

“Mom, I can’t do this. I don’t want to stay here. I’m going crazy...”

She shook her head vigorously as she felt very reluctant.

Gina felt heartbroken, but she could only persuade her patiently, " Hang in there. Just hang in there, my child! I'm going to figure something out to get you out of here, but you must give me some time, okay? Don't make me worry about you."

"Mom..."

Queenie felt a lump in her throat.

Gina hugged Queenie and patted her on the back before she emotionally said, "However, I'd never expect Benjamin to be so heartless. He just wouldn't forgive you no matter how I interceded for you.

I've already moved out of the Forts Residence this morning. It looks like we can't depend on the Forts family anymore.

"I'll have to look for another place to stay now or I'll be homeless."

Queenie felt even sadder after hearing what Gina said.

After all, her mother used to be a respectable noblewoman. But now, she did not even have a place to live because of what happened in the family!

'Molly May is the only reason why this is happening!

'My father wouldn't be in jail if it wasn't for her. Benjamin wouldn't be seduced too, and I would never have to go through anything like this.' Queenie thought that Molly caused all the misfortune that befell her!

There was no way she would let Molly get away with it!

'Just wait and see. I'm going to turn your life upside down once I get out of here!' In the evening.

Molly packed her stuff, and she was getting ready to leave the research laboratory.

Then, she noticed the familiar Rolls Royce parked outside the laboratory as soon as she stepped outside. Sean was waiting for her on the sidewalk

Chapter 675-see her getting so tired.

Molly sounded as calm as always. "A lot better. It's just a tiny injury. There's nothing to worry about."

Little did she know, the more she did not care about her wound, the more Sean felt distressed about how tough she was.

He arched his brows. Although he sounded gentle, he still spoke in a blameful manner. "You shouldn't come to work tomorrow. Just take a few days off and rest at home."

Molly smiled and shook her head before she said, "I can't.

Benjamin already has a lot to handle these days. I only came here because I wanted to help him. I'm going to add more of his burden if I backout now."

Molly tilted her head while looking at him and flashed him a cheeky smile. "Right?"

Sean felt helpless and stopped frowning. "Whatever you say."

After that, they went into the car together.

"What do you want to eat tonight? Let's try something new." Sean asked spontaneously in the car.

"Hmm... What about some Joplon Cuisine?" Molly said without holding back.

Sean grabbed her hand. "Sure. I'll bring you there."

Molly was shocked. She felt a sudden warmth in her palm that went all the way through her heart.

Then, she could smell the faint scent coming from the man's body.

She could not help but feel more loved as her heart started to beat faster too.

Sean unnoticeably lifted the corner of his mouth a little.

They held hands and enjoyed the beautiful moment together.

After a while, the car stopped in front of a Joplonese restaurant.

Molly pushed Sean down the car, and the waiter approached them to welcome them enthusiastically.
"Hello, where do you prefer to sit?"

"Anywhere is fine," Molly said casually.

However, Sean spoke decisively, "Get US a private room."

The waiter looked at them from head to toe, and he was starstruck by how good they looked. Then, he quickly nodded and brought them to a romantic private dining room.

After that, they started ordering food.

"Can you guess what day is it today?" Sean suddenly asked with excitement when they were ordering food.

Molly looked confused, "what day is it?"

“The half anniversary of US knowing each other.”

Sean smiled faintly. He reached into his pocket and took out a tiny gift box that was beautifully wrapped. He pushed it toward Molly and said, “This is for you.”

‘Half anniversary?’ Molly froze. She never cared about little things like this, so she did not expect Sean would.

She felt a surge of warmth inside her as she smiled gently. “Actually, having a meal together is already enough. You didn’t have to buy me anything.”

“I heard that women take the sense of ritual rather seriously.” Sean lifted his brows calmly. “Isn’t it?”

Molly smiled and nodded before she said, “Yeah. You’re right, but I didn’t prepare any gift for you.

So...”

She thought that it was only appropriate for her to give Sean something back in return if she were to accept his gift. However, she felt a little guilty since she did not prepare anything for him.

After all, anything that Sean would buy had got to be very expensive.

Even though Sean was very rich, she did not want to take anything from him for free.

Unexpectedly, the man smiled dotingly. “Don’t worry about it.

Seeing you happy is the best gift for me.” ‘Seeing you happy is the best gift for me.’ These words caught Molly off guard, and they flowed into her heart before warming her up inside

Chapter 676-After that, Molly opened Sean's gift for her.

It was a sensational necklace!

There were crushed diamonds delicately embedded in it, and it was clearly a customized and premium piece made entirely by hand. It was an expensive one!

"Do you like it?" Sean lifted the edge of his mouth, looking handsome.

"Yeah, I do, but..." Molly arched her fine brows and thought to herself. 'This gift is way too expensive. I can't accept this.' Sean did not give her a chance to reject the gift as he flatly said, " Let me put it on for you."

He took the necklace from the table and moved his wheelchair behind her before gently putting the necklace around Molly's neck.

His fingertips ran through her hair unknowingly when he put the necklace on for her, and he touched her warm neck.

Molly quivered as she suddenly felt numb on her back. She bit her lips and took a deep breath to calm herself down.

"It looks good."

Sean looked at the necklace around Molly's fair neck. The romantic candlelight in the room made her cheeks look rosy and charming.

Sean could not look away from her. 'This lady's features are just out of this world.' He thought to himself.

Molly was looking at Sean too. She blushed and said with a smile, " Thank you. Let's start eating, otherwise, the food is going to get cold."

“Sure.”

Then, they started eating.

After the meal, Sean sent Molly home. On their way back, Molly got off the car to buy some desserts for the triplets at home.

However, they saw that the sofa at home was packed with people as soon as they got home.

Grandpa Dave, Brycen, Sawyer, and even Nathan were there!

Molly arched her brows as her expression turned cold.

“Molly, you’re back.”

Grandpa Dave was the first one to speak.

The rest of them turned around and saw Molly and Sean at the same time. Molly was standing behind Sean while he sat in his wheelchair. Their presence matched perfectly with each other, and they looked like a good match.

“Uncle Sean, Mommy!” The triplets greeted them adorably.

Molly swept her glance across the kids, and her gaze turned warm. However, her eyes became cold again when she saw Nathan.

Nathan spoke before her after he saw Molly coming back home. “Molly, I heard that you were injured, so I told my friends to buy some ointment aboard for you.”

The entire family was clearly shocked to hear those words coming from his mouth.

Molly did not expect that Nathan would do something like that either.

However, she was still acting very aloof toward him. "It's okay. I have my own medicine. You should take it back and return home."

"Molly..."

Nathan felt awkward suddenly, and he also felt very guilty inside.

He knew what he had done previously broke his sister's heart!

However, he still wanted to fix their relationship. So, he was not going to just leave like that.

"I'm not rushing to go home after coming all the way here. How about this, Grandpa, why don't we play some chess?" Nathan held his nose and said with a smile.

He wanted to stay there badly. He wished to spend more time with Molly and his family.

Grandpa Dave had no problem with Nathan's suggestion as he nodded graciously. "Sure, bring it on!

Go get the chessboard."

"Yes, sir." The maid turned around.

Even though Molly did not want Nathan to stay, she gave up the idea of asking him to leave because Grandpa Dave agreed to play chess with him.

She walked to the sofa and sat down. Then, she handed the desserts she bought earlier to the triplets.
“Babies, have some desserts.”

“Wow! Mommy bought cupcakes!”

Claudia was delighted immediately after seeing her favorite butter cupcake

Chapter 677-Alex and Ben were very happy too as they said in a sweet voice, “ Thank you, mommy and Uncle Sean!”

After that, the triplets sat in a circle and started munching on the cupcakes.

Brycen could help but laugh after looking at them. He went to them with a tissue and said, “Look at how dirty your little faces are.

Clean yourself with this.”

“Give me that.” Molly reached out to take the tissue.

However, Brycen pulled his hand away and sternly said, “I’ll do it.”

“Are you sure? Children’s faces are very delicate. Don’t hurt them.” Molly said in a slightly disdainful manner.

“Are you underestimating me? You don’t think I can’t even handle such a tiny issue?” Brycen held Alex up and started wiping his face with the tissue.

Alex’s face became even dirtier after Brycen wiped it!

Alex pushed Brycen away scornfully. “Uncle Brycen, stop that. My face hurts.”

Molly could not help but laugh. "Just let me do it."

"No, no. Go away. I can handle this!" Brycen did not want to let go of Alex. "I'll be very gentle. Don't worry."

Sawyer came over from the side while laughing as he reminded Molly calmly, "We're going to have dinner soon. They won't have the appetite to eat anymore if you don't stop them from eating the cupcakes now."

"You're right."

It was then Molly realized that it was almost time for dinner, she took the cupcakes from the triplets and said in a serious tone, "You can finish your cupcakes after dinner."

"All... Mommy..." The triplets pouted as they wanted to eat more.

Molly insisted and took the cupcakes away from them.

Brycen and Sawyer could not help but laugh after seeing what happened.

Sean sat at the side and watched the interactions between Molly and the kids. He smiled faintly, but he did not say anything.

However, it did not mean that the kids had neglected him.

"Uncle Brycen, Uncle Sawyer, Uncle Sean, would you guys play Legos with us?" The triplets gave up on the cupcakes and started acting cute in front of the men.

Particularly, the triplets surrounded Sean and said in a crisp voice, "Uncle Sean, the Lego set mommy bought for US last time is too complicated. Please help US out!"

Their ingenuous voices were just irresistible.

And, their pinkish cheeks and crystal-clear eyes were just adorable and endearing.

Sean nodded his head lightly. "Sure."

So, the people in the living room were separated into two groups.

The first group had Grandpa Dave and Nathan in it, and they sat at the side to play chess while the butler and maids watched the game from afar.

Sean, Brycen, Sawyer, and the triplets were in the other.

All of them concentrated on building Lego, looking very focused. They would interact with each other from time to time, and the atmosphere was great.

Molly stood at the side after getting each of them a cup of water, and she would try to help every now and then.

Nathan felt a little bitter after looking at how well they got along with each other.

Then, he started to lose interest in his chess game.

After the game ended, he could not stop himself from walking in the kids' direction.

It was not an easy task to build a Lego set with thousands of pieces. The triplets alone were incapable of completing it. Fortunately, Brycen and the guys were there to help, and it greatly increased the pacing of the progress.

However, the triplets hit a hurdle anyway.

“Uncle, where should we put this piece?” Alex was holding a Lego piece in his hand, looking lost.

“Hmm...”

Brycen took that Lego piece from him before inspecting it. He was just as confused as Alex was.

“This is probably just an extra piece, right?”

Chapter 678-Molly came over to check on them too. She rarely played with Lego, and the kids were building an aircraft carrier. So, she had no idea where to place that piece.

Sean noticed that they had made a mistake right away when everybody else was still confused.

He moved his lips, and he was about to tell them. However, another person beat him to it.

“You misplaced this piece over here. This one should be over here...” Nathan had watched them for some time, and he could not help but give them some advice.

Everybody paused and looked at Nathan in surprise.

Nathan was shocked too. Things got so awkward between them that it felt like time was frozen.

The triplets did not know if what Nathan said was true, so they removed the piece that they had placed earlier before placing it in another spot, following Nathan’s instruction.

“We got it!” The triples were impressed to see how the piece fitted perfectly in there. They could not help but shout, “Uncle Nathan, you’re so good at this!”

“Bro, not bad.” Brycen and Sawyer gave him an approving look.

Nathan chuckled. After that, he turned over to Molly and humbly said, “Molly, would it be okay if I join you guys?”

II II Molly could obviously tell that Nathan was just trying to build a good relationship with the triplets by approaching them like this.

However, she hesitated. She did not know if she should allow Nathan to do that.

After all, she had not fully forgiven Nathan for what he did previously!

So, she kept silent for some time. She did not reject or accept him.

Brycen and Sawyer coughed after seeing the awkward moment as they thought to themselves. T feel so bad for Nathan!’ However, to be honest, they would give Nathan their support if he was sincere in asking for Molly’s forgiveness.

After all, they also want more people to love Molly and the triplets.

Molly still did not speak. She curled her lips and pushed Sean to the side as she was not going to play with them anymore.

Her silence seemed to indicate that she was okay with Nathan joining the triplets!

“Bro, why are you still standing there? Come join US.” Brycen waved his hand at Nathan.

Nathan was relieved after seeing how Molly did not stop him from spending time with the kids.

After that, he went to the triplets and started building legos with them.

Sean lifted his brows after seeing how attentive Nathan was... But, he did not say anything.

He only turned around and said after Molly pushed him to the backyard, "Your brother..."

"I'm not planning to forgive him."

Molly knew what Sean was going to say as she replied, "But, he's the triplets' uncle, after all. Our conflict shouldn't have anything to do with the kids. I wouldn't mind if all he wants is to spend time with them without any ill intentions."

Although that was what she said, she only did that because she was soft-hearted.

She would not have allowed that to happen if she really had no intentions to forgive Nathan at all.

Sean knew what Molly was thinking, but he did not point it out.

He respected every choice that she made.

"Dinner's ready!"

The butler's voice spread across the house.

The maid walked to the backyard and reminded Molly and Sean softly, "Ms. May, Mr. Anderson, dinner's ready."

"We've eaten," Molly replied without thinking. "Just go on without us."

However, Sean corrected her words and flatly said, "Even though we've eaten, let's join them. You want to know if your brother is sincere about this too, right?"

Chapter 679-“You’re right.” Molly felt that Sean was right, so she pushed him and returned to the hall.

At that time, Grandpa Dave, Brycen, the little ones, and others were already sitting at the dining table and were ready.

Only Nathan stood aside like an outsider.

Grandpa Dave turned around and kindly said to Nathan, “Nathan, it’s already dinner time. You should probably head back now.”

Grandpa Dave knew that Molly and Nathan had a bad relationship. He felt that asking Nathan to stay for dinner would affect the atmosphere, so he did not tell Nathan to stay.

Unexpectedly, Nathan looked reluctant to leave. He shamelessly asked, “Grandpa, can I stay and have dinner with all of you? I haven’t eaten with you in a long time.”

Nathan asked with a pleading tone, which shocked both Brycen and Sawyer.

Both Brycen and Sawyer had never seen Nathan speak that way before.

‘Is this really the Nathan we knew?’ Brycen and Sawyer thought.

Molly felt strange after witnessing that, she thought to herself, ‘Nathan has never come to have meals with US before. Why is he suddenly...’ Sean raised his brows slightly as well. He thought suspiciously in his heart, ‘Does Nathan have an ulterior motive? otherwise, why would he act so humbly and in goodwill?’ However, no one said a word.

In the end, Grandpa Dave allowed Nathan to stay, adding an extra set of tableware, and they ate together as a family.

Everyone talked about family topics at the dining table, and the atmosphere was very harmonious.

Nathan felt that he was out of place when sitting with his family. However, the food in the house was inexplicably fragrant to Nathan.

There was even a warm taste to it like home.

Suddenly, Nathan was a little envious of Brycen and Sawyer.

After the meal, everyone sat on the couch and chatted again. Nathan had yet to leave, and he was trying to fit into the conversation with everyone.

Sean's gaze fixed on Nathan from time to time. He constantly had the feeling that Nathan was acting very unusual.

After holding back for a long time, Sean finally opened his mouth and asked indifferently, "Mr. May, your behavior today is very different from usual. Is something wrong?"

The whole house fell silent as soon as Sean's words were out.

Molly gave Sean a look of approval, she had wanted to ask that for a long time!

'Nathan is not himself today, why was he so polite and courteous all of a sudden?' Molly thought.

The rest were also very curious about Nathan's sudden change of attitude.

Meanwhile, Nathan was a little embarrassed when he was facing everyone's scrutiny.

Nathan explained honestly, "Actually, I don't mean any harm. I just regret some of the things I did in the past!

“Molly is my sister, yet I have done things that hurt her many times. I failed as a brother. I don’t dare to ask for her forgiveness. I -I just thought... I still want to make it up to her and her children if there’s a chance.

“After all, I’m her brother and the uncle of her children.”

After Nathan had finished speaking, he bowed his head in embarrassment.

Nathan had never been so humble and asked for forgiveness from others.

He felt really humiliated!

But, Nathan really wanted to reconcile with Molly, and he also wanted to get along peacefully and naturally with her children.

Thus, Nathan had to lower himself and try his best to ask for Molly’s forgiveness.

Molly was shocked and could feel that countless eyes had fallen on her.

She felt uncomfortable as if her body was about to have holes from being stared at.

Everyone was waiting for her response to see if she would forgive her brother.

Chapter 680-Molly sat still in the same spot, only to feel the enormous pressure!

‘Forgive him? Then, what about those hurtful things he did to me? How could I forgive him?’

‘Not forgive him? But, Nathan’s attitude today is indeed very good. Whether it is to Grandpa, to my children, or me.’ Molly was thinking in her head. But, she still felt that she could not conclude anything so soon.

After all, can a leopard change its spots?

Who knew if Nathan had some other intention in coming to Molly today to show goodwill.

So, after giving some thought to it, Molly politely rejected Nathan's good intentions. She said, "Rome wasn't built in a day, and you shouldn't rush it. So, it's best if we talk about this another time.

"I'm full, so please excuse me!"

After that, Molly hurriedly left the dining table and strode upstairs.

The rest of the Mays was sitting at their place and exchanging glances with each other.

The one who was most embarrassed was Nathan. He could tell from Molly's response that she still had not forgiven him for what he had done before.

'Perhaps, what Molly needs is time.' Nathan thought.

Nathan felt too embarrassed to stay there for too long. He immediately stood up and apologized, "Grandpa, I'm full too.

There are other things in the company waiting for me to deal with. Enjoy your meal!"

Nathan then looked at the three chubby little ones. He smiled and said, "I'll come to visit you next time, okay?"

The three little ones immediately looked at each other and answered, "okay."

Only then was Nathan satisfied and strode away.

No one knew that as soon as Nathan went out, he suddenly became energized, and an unconcealed excitement welled up inside!

In fact, Nathan came this time because he wanted to reunite with Molly by saying he was here to visit her.

Although Molly did not forgive Nathan, at least she did not drive him away.

The three little ones' attitude toward Nathan may seem somewhat unfamiliar, but they did not dislike him.

That was more than enough for Nathan.

Nathan believed that someday, his persistence would be fruitful. One day, he could use his sincerity to make Molly and her children accept him.

After Nathan had left, Molly came downstairs again.

Sean had not left yet, so Molly would not just run upstairs alone. She did that because she did not want to face Nathan earlier. So, she chose to hide for the time being.

When Grandpa Dave saw that Molly had come down, he kindly and generously said, "Actually, you don't need to hide from Nathan, Molly.

"Nathan is regretting it now. He did many things that hurt you and felt sorry for himself, why don't you..."

Naturally, Grandpa Dave still hoped that everything would be prosperous at home.

However, it also depended on Molly's wish.

Molly certainly understood that Grandpa Dave hoped that she could forgive Nathan.

However, she could not. At least, not at the moment.

Molly said resolutely, "Grandpa, I'm not going to forgive Nathan. So, you can stop persuading me."

Sigh!

Grandpa Dave sighed deeply after hearing what Molly had said. He felt helpless about it.

But, Brycen slowly said, "Really? If you don't forgive him, why didn't you drive him away earlier?"

If it was Molly in the past, she would probably drive Nathan away by now.

Although Molly did not mistreat Nathan earlier, at least she did not ask him to scram immediately.

That could only mean that Molly was also a little shaken in her heart.

Molly naturally refused to admit that, she subconsciously retorted, "I-I didn't drive him away because of the medicine he sent me. As the saying goes, never bite the hands that feed you."
