

Triplets On SM 691

Chapter 691-“Huh? You have to stay in the hospital to take care of Ms. Herring?” Molly asked.

After Sean gave a brief explanation, Molly could not help but frown. There was a hint of disappointment in her tone.

‘How can a girl put up with her boyfriend spending a night in the hospital caring for another woman?’

‘Just thinking about it brings me so much discomfort!’

‘But, Joelle is sick, and Sean’s parents forced him to stay in the hospital. If he left, it would be hard for him to explain to his parents,’ Molly thought.

Molly’s mood fell to the bottom for a moment. But, she still smiled and said, “Well, then you should rest and don’t get too tired.”

After Molly said that, she hung up the phone and her expression changed drastically.

The three little ones next to Molly saw that there was something wrong based on her facial expression. They got worried instantly and worriedly asked, “Mommy, are you okay?”

Molly did not intend to hide it, so she told the three little ones about Sean’s situation.

The three little ones were instantly anxious.

“No way. How can Uncle Sean be with other women?” said the three little ones.

“I won’t allow it!” said Alex.

"Me too," said Ben.

"Me three." Claudia raised her little hand with a protesting expression on her face.

Seeing the children siding with her like that, Molly could not help but laugh. However, she felt as though she could not laugh, she said bitterly, "There's nothing we can do even if we don't allow it.

Uncle Sean has to stay in the hospital."

"Then, you can go to the hospital, Mommy!" said Alex.

Alex had a brilliant idea in his mind, and he eagerly said, "since daddy is in the hospital, you should go there too, Mommy!"

"That's right, Uncle Sean and that stranger lady are alone in the hospital. How can we allow it?" Ben said with his serious little face.

"I can't let Uncle Sean be with that stranger lady!" Claudia also emphasized.

Brycen also wanted to interrupt, but he had no choice but to purse his lips after seeing the three little ones say everything he wanted to say. He then added, "Molly, you're at a disadvantage in this situation!

"Sean already has you as his girlfriend, but he is staying in the hospital to care for Joelle. It's not a good sign for those two to be alone. Who knows what they will do behind your back."

"Brycen, Sean is not like that!" said Molly.

Molly frowned in dissatisfaction after she heard what Brycen had said.

Molly did not like to hear Brycen slandering Sean!

Brycen then changed his words quickly. "Alright, fine. Let's put it this way. You can believe in Sean all you want because he won't do anything to hurt you, but you can't trust that woman!

"Don't forget that Sean has his legs situation. If that woman takes the initiative and pounces on him, he won't be able to run in time!"

As soon as Brycen's words came out, Molly burst out laughing.

'But, I have to admit that Brycen is right!

'There are never just a few women who want to pounce on Sean.

'And, moving around is not convenient for Sean. What should he do if someone really pounces on him, and he can't escape?' Molly thought.

Naturally, Molly did not want any woman to touch Sean!

Molly would not allow it, even if it was a momentary touch or a corner of Sean's sleeves.

So, Molly mustered up her courage and nodded, "You are right. I should go to the hospital too!

"Brycen, get someone to ready the car. I'll take the children with me."

"That's right!" said Brycen.

Brycen wanted to applaud Molly, but he smiled and said, "Russell, drive the car over and take Ms.

May to the hospital!"

"Yes, sir." Russell did as Brycen said hurriedly.

Molly took the children and went directly to the hospital.

After getting out of the car, she saw Sean's Rolls-Royce in the parking lot.

Chapter 692-e wouldn't want to be a third wheel."

"That's right!" Brycen picked up the children and brought them back into the car one by one. He said, "Come on, let's go home and play some video games. Your Mommy is going on a date."

"Yay, I want to play video games with Uncle Brycen!" The three little ones were excited about it instantly.

Molly could not help but laugh, she thought, 'Since when did they join the opposition?' However, Molly did not force them since the little ones did not want to follow. After waving goodbye to them, she entered the hospital and found Joelle's ward.

"Sean," Molly walked into the ward and called out softly.

At that time, Sean was sitting in his wheelchair reading a book. When he heard Molly's voice, he looked up with deep black eyes. When he saw Molly, his eyes softened, and he asked, "Molly?

"Why are you here at this hour?"

"I..." Molly nodded and smiled, she felt a little embarrassed when she said, "The little ones heard that you were taking care of Ms. Herring in the hospital, so they asked me to hurry over."

Of course, Molly also wished to come, but she was too embarrassed to say it.

When Sean heard that, he laughed, "Those three little ones..."

Cheeky ones.”

“Where are they now?” Sean asked.

Molly’s expression suddenly stern up. She deliberately teased, “Did my appearance disturb your moment with Ms. Herring? If so, then rd better go.”

Molly pretended to turn around to leave as she said that.

“Molly, stop teasing me.”

Sean knew that Molly was pulling his legs, so he fondly pulled her into his arms. He said with a soft laugh, “what I meant was, those three little ones are so smart that they knew how to send you to me.

“That’s good. With you around, I feel more at ease.”

Sean’s words were the music to Molly’s ears. She suddenly behaved herself and snuggled into Sean’s arms, she said, “I feel at ease to be by your side.”

Sean smiled lightly. He lowered his head and kissed Molly on her forehead.

The two of them leaned against each other like glue. They are so sweet together, it was as though they had fallen into a honey jar.

After a while, both of them were a little hungry. So, they asked Tony to buy some supper and eat on the couch.

“Here, open wide,” said Sean.

Sean scooped up a meatball with a spoon and fed it to Molly.

Molly whispered, "I can do it myself." and obediently opened her mouth to eat the meatball.

The atmosphere between the two was sweet and warm.

Unfortunately, Joelle, in the hospital bed, woke up in a daze.

Joelle sniffed and tried to figure out what smelled so good. When she opened her eyes, she saw Sean feeding Molly something to eat!

That beautiful scenery was sore to Joelle's eyes in an instant!

'Molly? Why is she here?' Joelle thought.

Joelle recalled that she had made a painstaking sacrifice to make herself fall sick just to let Sean accompany her more and further the progress of their relationship.

As a result, Joelle's sacrifice was ruined by Molly.

Joelle was very angry. Her fingernails grabbed the quilt so hard that she almost ripped the quilt into pieces.

However, Joelle could only suppress her anger and whispered, "Mr.

Anderson, Ms. May, you are here?"

Chapter 693-Sean and Molly looked at Joelle simultaneously after hearing Joelle's voice.

Molly stood up and smiled embarrassedly. She said, "Ms. Herring, were we disturbing you?"

'It's more than disturbing. I was already yelling in my heart!' Joelle thought.

But, on the surface, Joelle still maintained a gentle and elegant image. She calmly said, "Of course not. I should be the one apologizing. But, thank you for visiting me."

Seeing Joelle being so generous, Molly's attitude became much gentler. Molly then said, "You're welcome. I heard about your situation. You should pay more attention to your health in the future, Ms. Herring. You shouldn't be too hard on yourself."

"Okay..." said Joelle.

Joelle responded and turned her gaze to Sean. As a result, when Joelle looked at Sean, she began to feel uncomfortable, she felt like she was about to cry. 1 'How could this be?

'I was sick, and I passed out. Sean did not comfort me, and he even brought his girlfriend over.

'This is too much!' Joelle thought.

Joelle's eyes turned red in an instant. There was resentment in her heart, but she could not lose her temper, she could only pretend to rub her eyes and said, "Mr. Anderson, sorry to trouble you to look after me with Ms. May. I feel much better now. It's not a big deal. You can go back and rest."

'It's because of the way you two were being lovey-dovey in front of my hospital bed that I feel irritated. I really don't want to continue watching you two, and I would rather not have you here at all,' Joelle thought.

Unexpectedly, Sean had the same idea and agreed immediately. He said, "Okay, then. Have a good rest, Ms. Herring. I'll let Tony stay here with you. You can tell him if you need anything."

'Tony...? Haha! why would I need Tony if you are not around me, Sean?' Joelle thought.

But, Joelle smiled slightly and said, "Thankyou."

After that, Joelle watched Molly push Sean, and they left the ward.

As soon as the two left, Joelle rolled her eyes in anger.

At that moment, Joelle was glad that she did not have a heart disease, otherwise, she would have died from anger.

On the other hand, Tony drove Sean and Molly back to the villa.

"Boss, I'll go back to the hospital, then," Tony said respectfully.

"Take care of Ms. Herring," Sean urged.

"Okay, boss!" said Tony, and he left.

Then, Molly pushed Sean into the villa, she helped him to the bed and said, "I'll be going home now.

It's already late. I'll return tomorrow to help massage your legs and do the rehabilitation with you."

"Okay, go back and have a good rest."

Sean replied softly, but his hand held onto Molly and never let go.

Molly wanted to turn around but found that her hand was still held in Sean's palm, she could not help but laugh softly, "Is this what you meant by 'okay'?"

Sean smiled too. With melancholy, he said, "I don't know why, but I've always wanted to marry you as soon as possible. So that way, I don't have to be separated from you every night."

As soon as Sean's words came out, Molly's face flushed red.

In fact, Molly did not want to be separated from Sean every day too. But unfortunately, the two of them were still only a couple.

Since they were not married yet, Molly would not stay for the night. She had no choice but to say, "Take it slow. We have a long way to go."

"Yeah, we have a long way to go," said Sean.

Sean's smile was even brighter, and his eyes were gentle.

Then, Molly helped Sean onto the bed. she covered him with the quilt, and then she turned to leave.

When Molly got home, the children were already asleep.

Molly opened the door and glanced at them, she felt relieved when she saw that the little ones were sleeping soundly.

After that, Molly returned to her room and lay on the bed after she took a shower. She sent a text to Sean saying, [Good night.]

Chapter 694-The next morning at the hospital.

Alice brought breakfast to visit Joelle. She thought her son would be there, so she brought breakfast for two.

Unexpectedly, she saw Joelle alone when she entered the ward. A hint of surprise could be seen on her fair, well-maintained, and wealthy-looking face. "Joelle, where's Sean?"

“Mrs. Anderson, you’re here.” Joelle sat up on her bed immediately as she heard the voice. She said in a polite and gentle tone, “Sean went back last night.”

“What? I thought I asked him to stay with you.”

Alice’s expression suddenly changed. Her arched eyebrows showed that she was displeased.

But, Joelle simply smiled, she intentionally defended Sean, “Mrs. Anderson, I asked Sean to go back. He was very tired from work. Moreover, he is in a wheelchair. How could he rest if he stays with me? And, Ms. May came over last night. How can I ask Sean and Ms. May to stay here with me?”

She was gentle and humble as she said that, she displayed signs of being understanding and ladylike.

But to Alice, it was a large amount of information to be processed in what Joelle said!

“Ms. May came here last night?”

“Ah... I’m sorry, Mrs. Anderson. I’ve talked too much.”

Joelle immediately covered her mouth to play innocent. She continued to pretend to be kind as she said, “Mrs. Anderson, don’t be mad. Sean and Ms. May are a couple. It wouldn’t be appropriate for Sean to stay with me.

“I think Ms. May came over because she was jealous.”

Joelle remained silent after she said that.

Whatever she said sounded like she was defending Molly. But in fact, every sentence she said was against her!

Molly ruined her opportunity to be alone with Sean, of course, she had to make snide remarks about her.

Sure enough, Alice's expression changed immediately, she was dissatisfied with Sean and Molly!

She immediately said in anger, "Joelle, I feel sorry for you. I'll call Sean right now to ask him about it."

She phoned Sean right after she said that.

Sean just woke up not long ago. He was sitting in front of a table to have his breakfast.

He frowned when he got a call from his mother. He could vaguely guess what would happen next.

He swiped to accept the phone call after hesitating for two seconds.

"Hi? Mom."

"Sean, what is wrong with you? Didn't I ask you to stay with Joelle last night? Why did you leave at midnight?"

Right after the call was connected, Alice's querulous voice could be heard immediately.

Joelle was whispering beside her. She said timidly, "Mrs. Anderson, don't be angry. I wanted Sean to go home and rest..."

"Joelle, stop talking."

Alice immediately stopped Joelle from talking, she impolitely asked her son, "Sean, are you disobeying your mother now?"

“Joelle overworked herself yesterday. As her boss, you didn’t even take good care of her. It’s perfectly justified for me to ask you to stay with her at the hospital. Why didn’t you listen?”

Sean remained silent for a long time as he heard her mother ask him that aggressively. He rubbed his temple, as he was irritated.

After his mother finished talking, he replied coldly, “Mom, if it really doesn’t work out, let Ms. Herring go back. Don’t come to the Anderson Corporation. The Anderson Corporation can’t look after her.”

“Sean, what did you just say?”

Alice replied unhappily, she was on speaker, and Joelle was heartbroken when she heard that.

Chapter 695-However, Sean sounded even colder as he unflinchingly said, “First of all, I didn’t ask Ms. Herring to do so much work. I reminded her to take sick leaves when she was ill. Secondly, I didn’t request her to work overtime. If she can’t bear it, she should’ve gone back and recuperate, she doesn’t need to come here anymore!

“I have to go to the office now. I’ll end the call.”

Sean immediately ended the call after he said that, what the ear did not hear, the heart did not grieve over.

“Hello? Sean. Sean! This child!”

When she saw that the phone call was ended, Alice blew her stack.

‘His words were too harsh and straightforward. It was so embarrassing for her.’ “Mrs. Anderson...”

After Joelle heard what Sean said, she felt a tickling in her nose, and she almost cried. She murmured sadly, “Mrs. Anderson, I told you not to call Sean. He must hate me now. He must think that I’m troublesome, what should I do?”

Alice glanced at Joelle. she suddenly felt bad for her as she frowned. She quickly comforted her, "Sweet child, don't cry. Sean isn't a person that will get mad so easily. He won't be angry at you.

"I was furious. I wanted him to keep you company. Why is it so hard for him to do that?"

Joelle sniffed, she gloomily said, "Mrs. Anderson, Ms. May is the only girl he cares about. It's difficult to make him put in some effort forme."

She said that to put the blame on Molly again.

Alice suddenly thought of Molly and her triplets. She looked even more serious.

'I don't understand. There are so many socialites in the city, why does he care so much about Molly?

'It can't go on like this!

'Would he really marry that woman who has three children?

'He'll make a fool of himself for nothing if others know about this.

'The Anderson family is one of the wealthiest families. How can such a nasty woman become our daughter-in-law?' It seemed as though she must talk to the woman named Molly personally.

Evening. After Molly was done working, she then went to pick up her children at the institution where her children had their afterschool classes.

After the classes ended, many kids were standing at the school gate. Alex, Ben, and Claudia were among them.

Molly saw her triplets among the dense mass of kids, she immediately waved her hand happily, "Alex, Ben, and Claudia, Mommy is here."

"Mommy!" The triplets ran into Molly's arms joyfully.

The milky scent of her children flooded her nostrils. It made her feel very satisfied.

"Mommy, why do you have time to pick US up today?" Alex asked curiously.

It had been a while since Molly picked them up. So, they were very surprised.

"I got off work early today. That's why I came to get you all. What did you all learn at school today?"

Molly asked curiously as she fixed her kids' clothes.

The triplets said honestly, "We learned calligraphy and painting."

"Mommy, I painted a painting for you. You can see if you like it." Ben opened his bag to take out his tablet after he said that. He opened the picture that he took, and it was an oil painting.

The lifelike character in the painting was his mother.

At first glance, Molly was truly impressed by her son's painting skills. She surprisedly said, "Ben, did you paint this? You're amazing. I love it."

Ben was so happy that his face was red. He then opened the other two paintings. He then said, "This is the cat Alex painted. And, this is the painting Claudia painted."

Chapter 696-eethearts are so awesome."

When Molly looked into her children's eyes, she could not help but feel gladder, gentler, and loved.

She was very happy. So, she said, "My darlings, you all can eat whatever you want today. I'll bring you guys to eat!"

"Yeah! I love my mommy!" The triplets let themselves go when they heard that they could have something good to eat. They grinned from ear to ear.

As Alice walked toward them, she saw a harmonious scene of a mother and her three children.

This afternoon, Alice specifically asked someone to investigate Molly and her triplets. After knowing that the triplets were learning at that institution, she planned to go and find them after their classes ended. She wanted to take this opportunity to talk to Molly privately.

But, she did not expect to see such a lovely scene.

Alice frowned. She had an inexplicable mixed feeling suddenly. Despite not knowing what kind of a person Molly was, she could at least see that Molly loved her children very much.

As a mother, she could relate to Molly when it comes to loving their children.

But, it was not enough.

'Not every woman can become the daughter-in-law of the Anderson family.' "Ms. May."

As she was thinking to herself, she slowly spoke, she did not sound gentle, but she was not aggressive as well. She was calm and indifferent.

Molly got up after she heard that. Her eyes met with Alice's as she looked back. Her facial expression changed slightly.

“Mrs. Anderson?”

“Yes, Ms. May. I want to talk to you privately. Are you free?” Alice said honestly, she was standing there saying that sentence coldly as she gave out a vibe of a noble lady vividly.

Molly appeared to be a little surprised, she did not know why Mrs. Anderson came to find her.

However, she was not afraid when Alice came for her. She said yes to Alice’s question. She then went to a café with her children and Mrs. Anderson.

After they sat down, Molly said to her kids calmly, “Darlings, I’ll have a chat with Mrs. Anderson for a while. You guys can go order something nice to eat while you wait for me, okay?”

“Okay.”

The triplets nodded their heads obediently. They then got up and went to another small round table.

But, the six cute big round eyes were constantly peeking at their mother and Alice quietly.

“Will Grandma Anderson bully our mother?”

Ben asked curiously as he ate the small chocolate cake.

Alex sipped his milk. He then said in a naive and ingenuous tone calmly, “She probably won’t.

Grandma Anderson looks very polite.

II “If she bullies our mother, we will defend her,” Claudia vowed.

Alex and Ben nodded their head. No matter what happened, their top priority was to protect their mother!

But, in actuality, Alice and Molly's conversation was not tense.

On the contrary, Alice was magnanimous, she smiled lightly as she said to Molly, "Ms. May, it's been a while since we met. You look great."

Molly smiled indifferently, she knew that those were just pleasantries. So, she directly and frankly said, "Mrs. Anderson, you certainly have something that you want from me. You can just tell me directly."

She was neither humble nor haughty.

Chapter 697-Alice was surprised for half a second. She did not expect Molly to be so direct.

'But, this is good too. So, I can cut to the chase!' So, Alice picked up the coffee that was on the table and took a tiny sip of the coffee.

She then slowly said, "Ms. May, since you're so straightforward, I'll say it to you directly, then.

"I hope you can leave Sean from today onwards.

"You should understand better than anyone else that you two are from different social classes. You two will never work out. Break up before it's too late. It'll do good for the both of you."

From different social classes.

Alice did not say that in a pushy tone. But, her luxurious vibe constantly reminded Molly that she had to be aware of her limits.

Molly understood what Alice meant.

'Alice dislikes me for giving birth to three children. She thinks I don't deserve Sean.

'But, whether or not we deserve each other, it's not something to be decided by someone else!' Molly smiled slightly, and she said with a straight face," Please continue."

Alice calmly continued, "Of course, I won't mistreat you. You'd been treating Sean's leg for a long period. The Anderson family will pay you a good amount of medical fees that will satisfy you!

"But, I hope you understand. After all, for a wealthy family like the Anderson family, the marriage of our children isn't something that can be decided by themselves traditionally.

"For Sean's status, he can never marry a woman that has three children. Even if you and Sean want to marry each other, the Anderson family will never accept you."

Alice was starting to give off an overbearing sense of coercion as she said that.

She looked very confident. It was as though she was convinced that Molly would leave her son because of what she said!

But, expectedly, Molly was not bothered by what Alice said at all!

Molly never allowed others to affect her decisions easily. She did not need someone else to meddle in her relationship with Sean.

Molly nodded her head before she smiled politely.

Shortly after, she calmly said, "Aunt Alice, what you said made sense.

"But, I'm a stubborn person. I prefer to have control over my business."

Alice's expression changed. She said in disbelief, "Meaning you won't give up?"

"You should think twice. If you back down now, you can still be handsomely paid. But, if you don't give up, and when this matter goes public one day, Sean will have to choose between you and his family. He'll leave you without hesitation. Do you want to be completely heartbroken?"

Alice did not care how harsh her words were. She only wanted Molly to give up as soon as possible!

'My son can never be in a relationship with her!' Little did she know that Molly was more headstrong than she thought.

No matter what Alice said, Molly's face and her attitude showed that she was still very determined. "Mrs. Anderson, I appreciate you coming to find me personally to say all these to me. But, whether Sean and I are together, or whether should we be together, or whether we're willing to be together, these are our business. No one else can step in!

"And, you mentioned that Sean and I are from different social classes. I don't agree with it. First of all, I've got hands and legs. I'm able to work, and I don't covet what your son has. Secondly, my children won't change their surnames. Sean won't need to help raise them.

"If one day Sean doesn't love me anymore and wants to break up with me, I'll just let him go. But, if you force US to break up because of reality, I can't do it."

Chapter 698-Molly said that respectfully. She then politely asked, "That's my stand. Mrs.

Anderson, do you have anything else that you want to say?"

"If you don't. I'll leave now." Molly got up after she said that. She wanted to leave.

Alice squinted. She did not expect Molly to be so difficult to deal with.

Just when Molly turned around, Alice suddenly clenched her fist. Her voice was piercing, "Three hundred million. How about that?"

"What?" Molly turned her head confusingly.

"I said, I'll give you three hundred million if you leave my son."

Alice stood up too. She was no longer gentle and kind. She was more aggressive than earlier. She coldly said, "Ms. May, you might think that you're very special. But, I've seen a lot of women like you. On the surface, you all pretend that you don't want anything. You said all you want is love. But, in fact, you have ill intentions. There are many things that you want.

"Alright, I'll give you three hundred million! If you're smart, take the money and leave my son as soon as possible. Your children look very cute. I can find an overseas school for them to study abroad..."

"Mrs. Anderson."

Molly interrupted Alice before she could finish her sentence.

Molly looked at her with a shocked but confused expression. She sneered, and she was not gentle as before. "Please don't look down on me!

"Stop it. I don't care if it's three hundred million or three billion or thirty billion. I won't allow someone else to control my life! This is my principle. And, it can't be measured with money!

"I better get going now!"

Molly did not show her any respect anymore. She immediately turned around to leave after saying that.

She walked to the nearby table. She then took her children's little hands as she left the café.

The setting sun slanted from the west. The mother and her three children's headstrong shadow stretched out under the sunset.

Alice was furious!

'I've never seen such a stubborn woman. She didn't listen to the nice things that I said. And, she can't be dealt with using money either!

'She's a mother of three children. But, why does she lack self-knowledge?

'She doesn't deserve my son!

'Darn it. I think I have to find another way to deal with this.' On the way back home.

Molly was silent the whole journey. She was looking at the green trees outside through the car's window. She obviously did not look happy.

The triplets knew that their mother was not happy when they saw her facial expression. So, they did not dare to speak. They did not want to disturb their mother.

Soon, Molly was home with her children. She then went to her room to rest.

"Molly. Molly?"

Brycen shouted twice but Molly did not even turn her head. He was a little frustrated suddenly. So, he could only turn to the triplets. "Darlings, what's wrong with your mother?"

But, the triplets did not bother him. They strode away as they clattered up the stairs. They then locked themselves in their room.

"What's going on?"

Brycen looked very confused. He touched the back of his head as he murmured, "Did Molly quarrel with her children?"

"That's not okay. Looks like I must talk some sense into Molly. What's there to argue between a mother and her children?"

With that in his mind, Brycen ran upstairs. He knocked on Molly's door. "Molly, my sweet sister. Can you open the door? I want to have a heart-to-heart conversation with you."

"Don't bug me." A ruthless voice came from inside.

Brycen suddenly withdrew the hand that he used to knock on the door. He mumbled, "I... How am I bugging you? I wanted to talk to you for your own good."

'Alright, since I can't talk to the mother, I'll find the little ones!

Chapter 699-Brycen then ran to the triplets' room. He knocked on their door and said, "Alex, Ben, and Claudia, can we have a heart-to-heart talk?"

"No!"

The triplets shouted in their room at once, "Uncle, we're discussing something very important. Please don't disturb us."

'Something important?' Brycen laughed. 'These three little ones are discussing something important. What's so important that they even need to discuss it behind closed doors?' It made him an uncle that looked like an outsider.

Brycen then suddenly felt unhappy.

'There's something wrong with Molly and her triplets today. I must ask them about it tomorrow to see what's going on.' At the same time, the triplets were sitting legs crossed on the grey plush carpet inside the room. They started to have their discussion seriously.

"Brother, did grandma bully mother today?" Ben asked.

Alex nodded his head disappointedly as he thought about her mother's expression.

"Today at the café, our grandma said some harsh words. Mommy is upset because of it."

"I heard grandma say that she wanted to give mommy some money so that mommy will leave uncle..."
Claudia interrupted in a naive tone.

Alex and Ben's expressions suddenly changed!

The triplets did not want their mother to break up with Sean.

'Mommy and uncle finally got together. And, they love each other. They can't just break up.' Alex looked dignified suddenly. He said in his childish voice, "Brother, sister, the situation now is very serious. Seems like we need to pick a time to find Uncle Sean to reveal our identity.

"If grandma and uncle know that we're his children, then they won't stop mommy and daddy from being together. Mommy won't be so upset too.

"What do you guys think?"

The other two kids' eyes were suddenly bright when they heard that.

Are we going to tell him that he's our daddy?

'But, how do we tell him?

'Will daddy believe that we're his children?' "What if we don't tell daddy that we're his children? Will mommy continue to be sad?"

Ben asked curiously.

"That's possible!" Alex nodded his head. "It would make them sad if their relationship isn't blessed. So, we must help mommy."

"Okay... We'll tell him that he's our daddy, then."

Claudia did not want to see her mother get upset again.' As long as it can make mommy happier, we can do anything.' Ben nodded his head too. The fat on his chubby face jiggled as he nodded.

Just like that, the triplets came to an agreement.

Molly did not know what the three little ones were thinking. She was sitting in her room alone reading a book and looking at her computer. But, she still felt upset no matter how she distracted herself.

The things that Alice said today were running through her mind constantly.

Molly would not leave Sean because of what Alice said.

But, she felt very stressed just from thinking that Sean and her would face many hurdles in the future.

'Can a relationship that isn't blessed last long?' Molly was not sure too.

The only thing that she was sure of was that she would not regret her decision to be together with Sean. Even if they broke up one day, she would not regret it.

Maybe that was enough.

Soon, they had their dinner. After Molly brought her children to have dinner downstairs, she went back to hide in her room again.

The triplets stared at each other. After nodding their heads, they then left their house swiftly.

They ran to the villa next door. They stood on their little toes as they knocked on the door and said, "Uncle, uncle!

Chapter 700-In the end, it was the butler who opened the door.

A gentle smile flashed across the butler's face when he saw the triplets. "Kids, what brings you here?"

"Mr. Butler, we're here for Uncle Sean. Is he home?" The triplets asked politely.

The butler shook his head. "Mr. Anderson isn't back yet.

I guess he's still working, right now. Why don't you come inside and wait for him? I'll get you some milk."

"Sure."

The triplets sat on the sofa and patiently waited for Sean's return.

After some time, they could hear Sean's car outside.

Tony parked the car and pushed Sean into the house.

They saw the triplets sitting side by side as soon as they entered the house. "Uncle Sean!" The triplets said unanimously.

"Why are you guys here?" Sean's eyes brightened.

Alex said composedly, "Uncle Sean, we're here to talk to you about something.

Something very important."

Ben and Claudia nodded their heads, looking serious with their chubby cheeks.

Sean could not help but laugh. He moved his wheelchair toward them, and he said in a serious manner, "Go ahead, then. I'm all ears."

However, the triplets hesitated for a few seconds. "Hm... Can you ask Mr. Butler and Uncle Sean to go somewhere else first?" Tony stood at the side, looking innocent.

'What kind of important thing is this? Even I can't listen to it?' Sean was a little surprised at the triplet's request, but he nodded anyway. "Okay, we'll go to the room, then."

After reaching the room, Alex closed the door and locked it. Then, he crawled onto the sofa and patted the seat beside him. "Ben, Claudia, sit over here."

The triplets looked at Sean and solemnly said after getting into position, "Uncle Sean, there's one thing we want to tell you. Also, we have a secret for you."

"Go ahead." Sean lifted his brows, and a faint smile could be seen in his dark pupils.

He was curious to find out what the triplets were going to tell him.

The triplets looked at each other and directly said, "Uncle Sean, Mrs. Anderson went to talk to mommy today, and she even offered mommy some money to split up with you."

Sean's smile disappeared and he looked serious after hearing what they said.

"Really?"

"I'm sorry. I didn't know anything about that."

He sounded a little sorry as he worriedly asked, "What did your mommy..."

"Uncle Sean, don't worry. Mommy didn't agree with Mrs. Anderson. She said she'll decide for herself in her own relationship," Ben replied in a serious tone.

Sean was relieved.

He was still feeling a little worried a second before. He was afraid that Molly would not be able to stand his mother's pressure and choose to end their relationship.

He was glad that she did not!

"However, we can't let things go on like this."

Alex spoke again. He looked more like a mini adult compared to Ben and Claudia. He said each word clearly in his childish voice, "Uncle Sean, mommy never had it easy.

We won't be happy if you got together with her and you can't make her life better, so..."

Sean could not help but feel a tightness in his chest after hearing what he said.

'Are the kids going to give up on me?' For some reason, he panicked...

Then, he said something to reassure the kids. "Alex, I'll be sure to take care of this.

Don't worry."

"No, Uncle Sean. I'm not done yet. There's still a secret we want to tell you."

Alex interrupted him and continued to speak without giving Sean any time to respond.

"Actually, I want to let you know that I, Ben, and Claudia are your children.

You're our biological father."
