

Triplets On SM 701

Chapter 701-Sean was stunned by what Alex said.

'Are the triplets joking with me?

He collected himself before he responded, "Alex, I know what you're trying to say, but..."

"Believe me, Uncle Sean. We have proof. Look."

Alex opened his mini backpack right away and took out a piece of white paper that was folded nicely before handing it to Sean.

Sean looked at the kids confusedly as Alex said with certainty, " Uncle Sean, this is the result of our DNA Paternity Test. It proves that we're your children."

1 Sean felt a stinging sensation in his chest after hearing those words.

The triplets did not look like they were lying. He took that piece of paper from Alex and looked at it...

It turned out that the triplets were really his children!

Sean was shocked!

He looked at the kids in front of him. He felt lost, and he could not believe what was happening. "How did you find out about this?"

"We can sense it because we're your children!"

The triplets looked at each other. However, Ben spoke this time. " Uncle Sean, we suspected that you're our father since the first time we saw you, so we wanted to get closer to you. We started to like you more after getting your DNA tested to prove that you're our daddy."

"But..."

Sean was also very confused other than feeling surprised.

The triplets knew that this was going to happen. They knew that this secret that came out of nowhere would be difficult for Sean to accept it.

So, Alex reemphasized again, "Uncle Sean, you can bring US to the hospital for another DNA test if you don't believe US. The doctor will prove everything to you."

The triplets looked very firm when Alex said that, clearly, they were very certain that they were Sean's children.

Sean was still a little surprised as his head buzzed.

However, he subconsciously chose to believe what the triplets said after looking at their serious faces.

There was something that Sean could not understand as he confusedly asked, "Why didn't you tell me about this earlier if you already knew that you're my child?"

Perhaps he could have done more to protect Molly and the triplets if he knew about this earlier.

The triplets replied as if they already knew that Sean was going to ask that question. "You weren't going to believe US if we told you earlier anyway. We're just kids, and you would just think that we're talking nonsense.

"And, we don't know if you would accept mommy. We didn't want you to think that mommy only came to look for you with US because of your wealth.

“Besides, we want to pair you up with mommy first. We weren’t going to acknowledge that you’re our father if you couldn’t get along well with mommy, or you didn’t treat her well.”

In other words, the kids did not want to tell Sean about it earlier for Molly’s sake, and they wanted to find out if Sean would be compatible with Molly.

They did not need a father who would mistreat their mother.

They would be better off without him!

Sean started to have flashbacks of what happened after hearing those words, and he did not know what to feel about it.

However, he could not deny that the triplets were very thoughtful.

He would probably think that Molly was coming after his wealth if the triplets were to tell him that they were his children right after they came back. Then, they would not have formed the relationship they had now with each other.

He was starting to accept the fact as he asked again, “Does your mommy know about this?”

Chapter 702-The triplets shook their head and said unanimously, “Nope.

“Daddy, we don’t think it’s the right time to tell mommy about this yet,” Ben said seriously.

“Hm? Why?” Sean furrowed his brows in confusion.

Then, the triplets explained to him patiently, “That’s because mommy got kicked out of her family for getting pregnant before marriage! After that, mommy has been through a lot when she lived oversea. She just couldn’t get over the irresponsible man who got her pregnant...

“Even though mommy never talked to US about this before, she had been having a hard time accepting another man. So, we know that this is still bothering her.

“This is why we think it’s better not to let her know about it now.”

Sean’s face darkened after hearing those words, and he started to feel perturbed.

‘If Molly found out that I’m the irresponsible b*stard who got her pregnant back then...

‘She’s probably going to get so mad that she’ll dump me.’ Sean could not accept it when he thought about how Molly would leave him...

The kids were right. It’s best not to let her know about it now!

Sean nodded slowly. “I got it. It looks like we can only tell her about this when the right time comes.”

“Yeah!”

The triplets nodded their heads. They felt relieved after finally revealing the secret to Sean.

Then, they worriedly asked, “what about grandma?”

Sean thought about his mother. Then, he made a promise to the triplets. “Don’t worry, I’ll take care of that. I’ll handle your grandma, and you guys can take good care of your mommy, okay?”

“Okay, let’s make a pinky promise.”

The triplets jumped down the sofa while saying that before sticking out their tiny fingers in front of Sean to make an agreement.

A warm smile flashed across Sean's face as he locked his finger with theirs before patting their fluffy heads.

After that, he told the butler to send them home.

Molly did not know what happened at all. she was not in a good mood, so she went to bed early.

Molly slept in because it was the weekend on the next day.

The bright sunlight shone into her room in the morning, and her mood became a lot better!

She went to her kids' room after freshening up. Then, she knocked on the door and said, "Alex, Ben, Claudia, it's time to wake up."

"Mommy, we're downstairs!"

The triplets' voices could be heard from below.

"What?" Molly was surprised. "Why did they wake up so early?" Then, she went downstairs and had breakfast with the triplets at the dining table.

Grandpa Dave and Brycen were there too, except for Sawyer.

Molly took a piece of toast and placed a fried egg on top before adding some ketchup to it. Then, she took a bite of it and asked, "Where's Sawyer? why isn't he eating breakfast with US?"

"He's drawing in the backyard."

Brycen took a sip of milk before wiping the stain on the edge of his mouth with a napkin. "After both of US encouraged him to go to that art exhibition, he suddenly got so motivated that he has been drawing every day and night. He made himself so busy that I have no idea where he got all his energy from."

Molly smiled warmly after hearing that. "Isn't that a good thing? We should be happy for him now that he's so dedicated to doing something."

"I'm happy for him, but that doesn't mean he can neglect his health!"

Chapter 703-Brycen sighed and smacked his lips, "whatever. I'll just let him do whatever he wants. Grandpa, let's get some sun and play chess after eating."

"Sure." Grandpa Dave nodded with a gentle smile.

Brycen went to play chess with Grandpa Dave after breakfast while the triplets stood around them to watch the game. However, Molly went to the backyard to ask Sawyer about his preparation for his art exhibition.

"Brother," Molly called Sawyer softly.

Sawyer turned around and smiled faintly after seeing her. "Hey, Molly."

Molly approached him with a smile and asked, "Brother, what are you drawing?"

"Nothing much. Just some flowers and plants for me to practice with," Sawyer said casually.

However, when Molly shifted her gaze to the drawing on the artboard, she thought to herself, 'Sawyer's skill is simply out of this world!' There was a gorgeous morning sun shining above the flowers and trees in the backyard. His drawing looked so exquisite and lifelike!

But to Sawyer, it was just an ordinary piece of drawing.

“Tsk, tsk. Brother, how do you expect other artists to survive if this is what you mean by nothing much?” Molly complimented him without holding back.

Sawyer could not help but laugh after hearing such high praises. “I’m not that good. You’re just being too kind.”

“But, it’s the weekend. Don’t you plan to go out?”

“Yeah, but I have no idea where to go. I’ll ask Brycen about it later.”

The weather was great that day and Molly wanted to bring the triplets out too.

So, she went to Brycen and asked, “Brother, I want to bring the kids out. Do you have any recommendations on where to go?”

Brycen replied without thinking after hearing that while he was playing chess with Grandpa Dave. “You should bring them to the theme park. It’s been some time since they went there.”

“Yeah! Let’s go! I want to ride on the pirate ship and the carousel!”

Claudia clapped her tiny hands happily. The theme park was her favorite destination.

Alex and Ben were fine with Brycen’s suggestion too as they smiled at Molly.

“Mommy, we’re okay with going anywhere as long as we’re with you. It’d be better if we could ask Uncle Sean to go with us too!”

‘Uncle Sean...’ Molly’s cheeks turned pinkish as soon as she thought about Sean. “Why should we ask him?”

“We just have to.”

Ben then said happily with a red face, "So, somebody will pay for us!"

"Wow, that's a good idea. I'll go with you guys, then. I would love to spend his money," Brycen chimed in gleefully.

Molly snorted as she thought to herself, 'These guys just can't be serious for once.' Sean had no idea what Molly was planning.

He went back to the Anderson Residence to talk to his mother early in the morning.

Alice spoke happily after seeing his son. "Sean, why did you come back so early in the morning?"

However, Sean looked a little serious as he solemnly said, "Dad, mom, I want to talk to you two."

Alice paused and looked at Ricky, who was standing beside him. "What..."

Ricky was a little baffled at his son's attitude, but he was still willing to sit down and have a talk with him.

Unexpectedly, Sean cut to the chase after sitting down as he asked, "Mom, I heard that you talked to Molly yesterday. Is that true?"

"How did you know?"

Alice was shocked as she brought her delicate brows together. "Did Ms. May tell you about it? I wasn't expecting her to tell on me at all.

It Sean corrected her and said, "It wasn't her who told me. That lady is simple-minded, she didn't tell me anything."

Chapter 704-'It must be the kids, then.

The woman's well-preserved face, which looked radiant turned upset immediately. She sat on the sofa and crisply said, "I wouldn't have gone to talk to her if I knew that her kids would tell on me."

"This has nothing to do with how I knew about it."

Sean pointed it out directly after seeing how his mother misunderstood him, "Mom, I only came back today because I want to tell you this. I hope you can stop disturbing Molly and stay out of my relationship. I'll deal with my personal matter myself."

"What did you say?!"

1 Alice's face became ugly right after she heard what her son said.

Then, she quickly explained to Sean, "The only reason I talked to Ms. May is that I wanted the best for you! Sean, love has got the better of you. You're acting irrationally, right now.

"Think about it. That lady has three children, and she doesn't even know who their father is! In other words, those kids are bas..."

"Mom."

"I didn't say anything wrong!"

Alice arched her brows and impatiently said, "A woman like her doesn't deserve to be with you or be a part of the Anderson family at all. People are going to laugh at me if they found out that you're together with her."

Sean's expression turned even more serious after hearing what his mother said as he coldly spoke, "Mom, I'm not going to care about what other people say after choosing to be together with Molly.

“Besides, who are you to judge who deserves to be with who?

Molly isn't worse than anyone just because she has three children. It's my choice to be with her! I hope you can stop interfering with my decision and leave Molly alone!”

Sean sounded cold and firm.

He did not care about what other people thought of him. He just wanted to keep the woman he loved protected!

Besides, the triplets were his biological children.

It was only right for him to protect his family.

However, it was not the right time for him to tell his mother that.

“H-How dare you!”

Alice got so angry that her face turned red.

She wanted to scold her son, but she was so mad that she could not get a word out of her mouth. So, she asked for her husband's help. ” Ricky, knock some sense into Sean for me. He has lost in mind.

He's going to regret this in the future if he doesn't stop being so stubborn!”

Ricky sat on the sofa with a gloomy face without saying anything after he heard Alice's words.

Nobody would understand one's son better than his father.

He knew very well that his son's attitude was just as ungiving as his in the olden days. It was just impossible for anyone to change their mind once they had decided on something.

So, it was useless to persuade him.

"Sean."

Ricky thought for a moment before he calmly said, "You're still young. Go ahead and date her if you want. It wouldn't be a problem for you to mess around with her for two more years. However, let me tell you this. Nothing more than that will happen between you and Ms. May! The Anderson family will never accept her as one of us! Think about it."

"There's nothing to think about."

Sean understood what his father was trying to say. However, since he already came here to talk to his parents, it indicated that he had already made his choice.

He kept a straight face as he said in an unyielding tone, "Dad, mom, I've already made my decision.

I'm going to spend the rest of my life with Molly no matter what happens.

"It'd be best if both of you could accept Molly. But, nothing will change in my relationship with her even if you don't! In short, I'm not going to change my mind.

"Dad, mom, I've said what I wanted to say, and that's it. Rest well. I'm leaving now."

Tony turned the wheelchair and pushed Sean out of the house after Sean was done speaking.

Chapter 705-Alice's anger rushed through her, and her face turned red.

“Karma! This is karma!” she clutched her chest and shouted in distress, “Is the entire Anderson family indebted to Molly in our past life? Why does she have to corrupt my son like this?!”

“I only have one son, but he has now lost his mind because of her. What should I do now?”

The hatred Alice had for Molly became even stronger.

Ricky felt frustrated as he nodded his head and said, “Sean was indeed acting irrationally for doing this.”

“No. I can never allow them to be together!”

Suddenly, Alice exploded with rage, she refused to give in and made another suggestion. “Ricky, why don’t we talk to Molly’s parents instead?”

Ricky was shocked, “what for?”

“So that they can talk some sense into Molly May and tell her to leave Sean!”

It was the best solution Alice could come up with.

‘Molly is still just a young lady. She can act rashly without thinking about the consequences, but I’m sure that her family would be wiser.

‘The May family probably wouldn’t want to cross the Anderson family too. If I could find her parents and pressure them a little...

‘Maybe things can take a turn!’ After lunch, Molly helped the triplets change into some comfortable clothes and gave each of them a small water bottle. Then, they were ready to go to the theme park.

The autumn air was crisp, and the weather felt very warm. It was indeed a good time for a day out.

“Mommy, we haven’t called Uncle Sean yet.”

The triplets reminded Molly before leaving.

Molly smiled faintly. “Don’t worry, I’ve already texted him. He should be replying soon.”

“Ding.” Molly’s phone rang.

She took out her phone, and Sean replied to her text message. “I’ll be there right away.”

“Honk—”

Suddenly, Molly heard a car honking.

She lifted her head and saw a black Rolls-Royce stopping in front of her.

Tony quickly got off the car and said to Molly with a smile, “Ms. May, my boss is ready to leave at any time, should we go now?”

“Sure.”

Molly took the triplets with her and entered the car.

Sean was dressed in a casual outfit, which made him look elegant.

He saw Molly putting on just one jacket, and he furrowed his brows before he worriedly asked, “Don’t you feel cold for wearing just that?”

“Nope. My body will heat up after I walk around later.”

Molly put the triplets in their seats respectively while saying that. Then, she went to the front passenger seat.

Sean smiled faintly after looking at her comely face through the rear-view mirror.

After some time, they arrived at the theme park.

Molly bought the tickets online, so she immediately brought the kids to line up.

In the queue, many young people approached them to say hi to the triplets after seeing how adorable and identical they looked to each other.

Some of them even asked for a photo with the triplets!

The triplets were very friendly too as they chatted with them joyously. The triplets were so happy that all of them showed toothy smiles.

After entering the theme park, Molly pushed Sean and lounged around.

Meanwhile, Tony was given the important task of accompanying the kids.

Tony was very pitiful. He was about six feet tall, but he was getting dragged around by the kids to play with the claw machine, kiddie ride, and mini roller coaster.

“A sailor went to sea, sea, sea. To see what he could see, see, see...”

Tony sat on the kiddie ride, and his body rocked back and forth following the song’s rhythm. 1
Everybody who passed by him was amused by what they saw.

Chapter 706-The triplets started singing along too. All their faces looked pinkish, and they were having a really good time.

Molly felt very happy too after looking at how much fun her kids were having.

The triplets had always been very sensible and obedient. They would also speak logically and orderly, unlike other children.

However, the triplets finally looked more childlike while laughing heartily.

‘It looks like I should bring them here more often.’ Molly thought to herself.

“Wow, cotton candy!”

Claudia shouted and pointed at a granny selling cotton candy not far away when Molly was deep in her thoughts.

There were so many sticks of cotton candy in front of the granny that it looked like a tree. A lot of teenagers were lining up to buy it too.

Molly looked over and said with a smile, “Let’s go to it. I’ll get you some.”

Then, she pushed Sean and brought the kids to buy the cotton candy.

“Miss, you should get two sticks for your husband and kids. This is made by my husband himself. We’ve been selling this for a very long time. It’s delicious.”

The granny enthusiastically promoted her cotton candy to Molly after Molly pushed Sean in her direction with the triplets.

However, Molly was shocked... 'Husband? kids?

'It looks like this granny misunderstood my relationship with Sean. She thought we were married.' The triplets noticed how the granny addressed them too!

They picked right up on it and said to Sean in a sweet voice, "Daddy, please get US some cotton candy. We're craving for it!"

Sean paused. It was his first time hearing someone calling him that He could not deny that it felt pretty good!

Molly grabbed the triplets back and said breathlessly while blushing, "Babies, watch your mouth. That's your uncle."

However, Claudia shook her head while smiling. "Uncle Sean is daddy. I like daddy."

Then, she turned to Sean and said in a baby voice, "Daddy, please get that for me. I'm hungry now. I want to eat it!"

"Daddy, I want it too!" Ben chimed in.

Of course, Alex had to do something too. "Daddy, would you get that for us?"

Sean could not help but let them get to his head.

He had to admit that he felt very happy hearing that they called him daddy. He nodded and said, "Sure. I'll get as many cotton candies as you guys want. Tony, come over and pay."

"Yeah! Daddy, you're the best!"

The triplets cheered happily and went to get their cotton candy.

The granny felt very happy too after seeing how harmonious they looked together, and she even gave the triplets some extra cotton candies for free. "Little ones, you have to listen to your daddy and mommy. Don't make them worry about you," she said.

"Okay. Thanks, granny. We will!"

The triplets each held a stick of cotton candy in their hands and walked away.

Molly pushed Sean forward while Tony walked beside the triplets to stroll around the theme park.

Everyone was enjoying themselves.

After some time, they saw a carousel in front of them.

Upon hearing the cheerful and upbeat melody, the triplets' attention was immediately captured as their clear eyes sparkled!

"The carousel looks so pretty. Mommy, can we ride on it, please?" The triplets lifted their tiny heads and asked Molly.

"Of course, you can."

Molly smiled sweetly and said to Tony, "Tony, I need your help again. Would you get on the carousel with the kids? I'll stay here with Sean."

"Sure!"

Tony replied joyfully before bringing the triplets to ride on the carousel.

Chapter 707-After Tony and the triplets left, Molly thought of what happened when they were at the cotton candy stall. Then, she quickly apologized to Sean, "I'm sorry, Sean. The kids are still naive. They only called you that because they wanted you to buy the cotton candy for them. I hope you don't mind."

Sean chuckled after hearing what Molly said and he asked her back, "Why would I?

"I'm going to marry you sooner or later anyway. It's just a matter of time before they could call me that officially, isn't it?"

Molly's face turned reddish immediately after she heard what Sean said. Then, she said softly, "I didn't say I'll marry you."

"Oh? Who are you going to marry if not me?"

"Who knows?" Molly smiled cheekily.

Suddenly, Sean grabbed her hand tightly.

It was then Molly noticed that the man's hand was a little damp as if he was sweating.

'Is the weather too hot?' Little did she know, Sean was just nervous.

For some reason, Sean's heart sank anyway even though he knew that Molly was just joking when she said she was not going to marry him.

He even felt suffocating when he thought about how Molly would end up with another man.

'No! No way!' "Molly, you can't marry somebody else." Suddenly, Sean locked his deep eyes on Molly and spoke.

A hint of fear could be seen in his black pupils.

Molly was shocked. 'I was just cracking a joke, why did he take it so seriously?' Then, she smiled warmly. She lifted her other hand up and patted the back of Sean's hand. "Don't worry. I was just joking. I'm not going to marry somebody else. I'll stay with you always."

I'll stay with you always.

Those words immediately warmed Sean's heart, and he nodded in relief. "That's good."

Molly smiled and did not continue speaking.

Then, there were three ladies dressed in trendy clothes walking in their direction.

They wanted to ride on the carousel too. Unfortunately, there were too many people, so they could only jump in the queue.

Coincidentally, they turned around at the same time, and their eyes fell on Molly and Sean.

One of them, who was a little taller, looked at them from head to toe and smacked her lips. "Look, that man is a cripple, yet he's still coming to the theme park. How inspiring."

"Really?"

The skinnier-looking one threw a glance at Sean and put on a glossy smile. "That man looks so handsome. Is he a movie star or something?"

The tall one heard what she said and scornfully sneered, "A movie star? That's impossible. A cripple can never be a movie star!"

Their chatter flooded Molly's ears.

She was immediately triggered. 'What is wrong with these women?

'They just passed US by. why can't they just behave? Did they have to be so sarcastic?' Molly felt even angrier when she thought about that.

She would not mind if they were criticizing her, but she would never allow the same to happen to Sean!

She did not want anybody else to judge Sean in any way.

Molly suddenly went off and stood in front of them to confront the ladies. "Hey, how could you judge a person that you don't even know like this? You're dressed pretty well, yet you have no manners at all. Can you at least have some basic respect?"

The three ladies were shocked after hearing Molly's words!

They were not expecting Molly to speak out against them at all.

Chapter 708-The tall girl was not an easy target either as she started to argue with Molly with her sharp tongue.

"Miss, who are you talking about? I think you're the one who has no manners. There are so many people around here. What makes you think that I was talking about the man beside you?"

Molly sneered after hearing what she said. "You're too gutless to admit it, huh? I'll tell you what. I heard every single word you said, and you were clearly making fun of my boyfriend!"

"What..."

"What? If you don't know how to behave, I'll teach you!"

Molly's anger kicked in as she continued to scold them. "First, not judging a person that you don't even know is the most basic respect you can have toward others! Second, my boyfriend is injured, and he's only going to be in a wheelchair temporarily. He's not a cripple like what you called him!

Third, even if my boyfriend really has restricted mobility, it doesn't give you the right to make fun of him! There's nothing wrong with your body, yet you don't even have the most basic manners!"

Their heated exchange attracted a lot of people's attention.

The passersby looked at them, and they could guess that the tall lady was the one who made fun of Sean's condition first judging from Molly's words. So, all of them threw her a disdainful look.

It was just very cheap for a person to discriminate against people with special needs.

Suddenly, the tall girl felt humiliated!

Her face turned red, then pale. She did not have the gut to argue with Molly anymore.

Then, she grabbed her friends and quickly walked away.

Molly looked at how they fled the scene and scoffed coldly.

'You have to go through me first if you want to pick on my man!' Sean saw everything. He was about to ask Tony to come over and help when Molly stood up for him, but he did not expect Molly would scare them off herself.

'It looks like this lady can be really ferocious when it comes to the crunch!' Sean could not help but smile mischievously as he looked at Molly gratefully.

"Thank you, Molly."

“What for? It’s the girl’s fault anyway. How could a young person like her be so insolent? who does she think she is to make fun of you?”

The rage inside of Molly started to go away slowly as she spoke. She even tried to make Sean feel better. “Don’t mind what she said. Your legs are going to recover after a few more treatment sessions. I’ll “Okay.”

Sean nodded and did not say anything else.

However, he wondered to himself. ‘When are my legs going to make a full recovery?’ He wanted to protect her personally after his legs recover.

He also wanted to get on one knee to propose to Molly. That way, he could make Molly his as soon as possible.

Ricky and Alice had already gone to the May Residence when Sean was still having fun with Molly and the kids at the theme park.

In the mansion, Lara and Walter were chatting. Coincidentally, they were talking about their daughter.

“Walter, why don’t we make some time and talk to Molly? She’s our daughter, after all. Maybe she’ll reconcile with US if we asked for her forgiveness sincerely.”

Lara suggested earnestly.

She would feel extremely guilty whenever she thought about Molly these days.

So, she would always think about swallowing her pride and just talk to Molly. She wanted to pour her heart out about how sorry she felt and ask for Molly’s forgiveness.

Chapter 709-Walter looked very hesitant after hearing Lara’s suggestion.

He did feel guilty for what he had done to Molly, but he was not willing to abase himself and apologize to her.

After all, he did so many awful things to her daughter back then, yet Lara was asking him to admit that he was wrong...

“Sigh!”

Walter sighed deeply without giving an answer to Lara.

Suddenly, the butler came inside hurriedly and said to them, “Sir, madam, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are here.”

“Anderson? Anderson who?” Lara was confused.

“Sean Anderson’s parents!” The butler explained.

Lara’s face changed immediately after hearing that, she looked at Walter and asked puzzledly, “Walter, what brought them here?”

Walter had no idea what was going on too. However, he quickly said to the butler after considering how much of a big deal the Anderson family was, “Let them in right now and serve them some tea.”

“Yes, sir.”

The butler did as Walter ordered.

Then, Ricky and Alice went inside.

“Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, you’re here. Please have a seat!” Walter welcomed them politely as soon as he saw them.

Ricky and Alice did not say anything as they sat on the sofa before looking at Walter and Lara.

Walter and his wife had very amiable smiles on them, and they were acting very respectfully.

In contrast, Ricky and his wife's faces were not looking so pleasant.

Alice thought for a moment. Then, she took the initiative to speak gracefully. "Mr.

and Mrs. May, we would like to apologize for coming here uninvited. We're sorry if we disturbed you."

"Not at all!"

Walter had always been very good at socializing. He said with a fawning smile, "Even though I have no idea what brought you here today, it's my family's honor to have you here in our house. Please be my guest."

"Yes, Mrs. Anderson. You're being too polite." Lara smiled too.

However, Alice was not in the mood for formalities, she only came here for her son, so she cut to the chase after drinking a sip of tea. "Mr. and Mrs. May, I came here today to talk to you about your daughter. Molly May is your youngest daughter, correct?"

"Molly?" Lara was shocked. Then, she asked confusedly, "Mrs. Anderson, you're correct. What do you want to talk about her? You can be frank with me."

"Alright. I'll do that, then."

Alice did not want to waste any time too. She took a deep breath and got straight to the point. "Mrs.

May, your daughter, Molly, is currently dating my son, Sean. However, you should know very well that I can never allow that to happen with my family's status and reputation."

Lara's friendly face changed immediately after Alice said that.

She did not say anything and kept on listening to what Alice had to say. "Mrs. May, please don't blame me for saying this, but your daughter has three children, and she doesn't even know who their father is. What would outsiders think of my family if my son really got together with your daughter?

"Of course, I know that your daughter has very good qualities too. She had been raising her kids on her own all these years without any help. She's very capable, and I'm sure that she can find a better man.

"However, this man isn't going to be my son."

In other words, Alice was just looking down on Molly.

Every word she said sounded like she was praising how great Molly was.

But ultimately, she still thought that Molly was not good enough for her son.

She was never going to allow the Anderson family to be in-laws with a small family like the May family either.

Chapter 710-Lara obviously understood what Alice was trying to say.

The May family was nowhere comparable to the Anderson family, and that was a fact.

But, Lara did not believe that her daughter was not good enough for Sean!

Although Molly gave birth to three children, she had been raising them on her own for the past few years.

She was strong, independent, graceful, and was second to no other rich heiress.

Lara smiled politely. "I understand, Mrs. Anderson. But, as elders, I think we shouldn't meddle in our kids' affairs.

"Fate brought them together and if they love each other dearly, why would you want to stop them?"

"Love each other dearly?"

Alice was in disbelief when she heard that phrase. However, she still maintained her elegance. "Mrs. May, do you really think that my son will stay with your daughter forever? They're still young and immature. On the contrary, as an adult, shouldn't you be more sensible?

"We're both mothers, so I believe we want our kids to have their happily ever after. But, Sean and your daughter are not on the same level. They're not suitable for each other, when the honeymoon phase is over, your daughter will be dumped. Do you really want your daughter's name to be humiliated in this town?"

Lara turned silent after listening to Alice.

Alice made sense. Molly was indeed happy with Sean for now.

But, if Sean ever leaves her, she was going to suffer!

However, Lara did not think that she had the right to interfere with Molly's decision.

So, Lara thought about it for a while before standing her ground. " Mrs.

Anderson, I know where you're coming from, but I respect their decision. They are in control of their life, so we shouldn't interfere."

“Why you...!”

Alice furrowed her brows in anger.

‘Why is everyone in the May family so stubborn?’ ‘They never listen!’ Alice was getting furious the more she thought about it. In the end, she did not want to waste her time with them anymore, she stood up abruptly and said, “Mrs. May, since we can’t come to an agreement, let’s end the conversation here. But, I’ve said what I said. I will never agree to let your daughter date my son!”

Alice then turned and left with Ricky.

The pressure in the room was immediately lifted.

Lara let out a long sigh when she saw Alice leaving. “It seems like Molly is going to have a hard time being with Sean.”

Walter nodded. “The Andersons are notable and powerful, so it’s normal for them to look down on Molly. I ‘m just sad for her. she finally found someone to take care of her, but she has to face this much pressure...”

Molly’s parents could not help but feel heartbroken for their daughter.

Ever since she was born, she had never lived a good life. It was the same even when she grew up.

What a pity!

In the evening, Sean took Molly and the triplets back home.

“Did you have fun today, darlings?” Molly smiled as she asked her children after they got out of the car.

“Of course!” The triplets said unanimously in their cute voice.

Molly brushed their heads. Her kids were just too endearing!

Then, she turned to Sean and smiled. “Thanks for today, Sean. Get some rest now. See you tomorrow.”
