

Triplets On SM 721

Chapter 721-Claudia's eyes were red as she thought of that. She worriedly asked, "Brother, what should we do?"

"Don't worry."

Alex was calmer than his siblings. He acted fast as he comforted, "Did you two forget? Mommy is a soft-hearted person. She won't cut daddy off."

"Mommy will forgive daddy eventually if we help daddy."

Ben and Claudia felt relieved after hearing that.

'As long as mommy forgives daddy, we're willing to do anything!' Their biggest wish was for their parents to stay together.

Molly had no idea that her triplets already had arrangements for her.

She lay on her bed as she thought about Brycen's question. She was very disturbed, so she could not fall asleep.

She opened her conversation with Sean to read their evening conversation again.

"I have to work overtime today. So, I'm not going to fetch you home. Remember to go home on time and eat dinner."

Although those were just words, Molly could feel Sean's calm and gentle tone through the screen.

Molly's heart was suddenly warmed.

Just when she wanted to continue reading the conversation, she received a video call request.

Molly immediately got up from her bed. She quickly fixed her messy hair before she accepted Sean's video call request.

"You're still awake?" Sean said in a low but gentle voice on the phone.

Molly could see that Sean was still in his office through the video call. The cold light from the light bulb shone on Sean's angular face. She was suddenly worried about him. She sympathetically said, "Are you still working overtime?"

"Yes. Our overseas company acquired many businesses in the past two days. I'm currently working on the merger adjustment. So, I'm busier than usual."

Sean said that composedly. He then noticed Molly frown slightly as she showed him a worried expression. He gladly smiled and said, "Looks like my girlfriend is worried about me."

"Of course, I'm worried. What if you wear yourself out? What do I do?" Molly's face was a little red as she said that.

She noticed she started to act in a pettishly charming manner toward Sean subconsciously.

When a woman started to act in that manner toward a man, it showed that she trusted and relied on the man completely.

Molly suddenly realized that she was getting more and more serious about this relationship. She felt a little anxious and uneasy inexplicably.

It might be what Alice said that upset her.

Sometimes, she would subconsciously think that she was unworthy of Sean because she had given birth to three children.

‘After all, Sean is a famous business titan. He’s handsome and capable. He’s outstanding and great in every aspect. Many women in this city are attracted to him. He can definitely choose a better person!’ Molly went into a trance as she thought about that.

She came out of her trance only when Sean called her a few times. “Huh? What did you say?”

“I said, you look really haggard. Did something happen?”

Sean carefully observed her expression in the video call. His voice was full of concern.

Molly had a slight impulse to weep suddenly. ‘He’s extremely caring and attentive toward me. What am I worried about?’ Molly sniffed. Her voice was soft like a kitten’s. “Nothing happened. It’s just that I miss you a little.”

Chapter 722-Sean was overjoyed when he heard what she said!

‘What did you say? I didn’t hear you,’ Sean asked as he controlled the rising arc on the corner of his lips.

Molly rarely said cheesy love talk. She would say it occasionally, and she would mean what she said.

Her cheeks were suddenly red as she heard Sean ask that. She mumbled in a sweet voice, “What are you doing? Isn’t it enough that you’ve heard it once?”

“No.” Sean stared at the little lady in the video call. He wished that he could be next to her immediately at that moment!

But, he could not do that. So, he could only softly request, ‘Can you say it one more time? I want to hear it.’

"You..." Molly's face became redder. But, she could not bear to reject his request. She obediently said, "I miss you."

"I miss you too." Sean looked at Molly's face affectionately, and his heart melted at that moment.

'I always have this kind of impulse toward this lady for no reason!' He loved her so much that he could not bear to hurt her in any way.

No matter what he did or how he cared for her out of love, he would never feel that he did enough.

He wished that he could marry her as soon as possible. He wanted to do everything he could to treat her well.

Of course, marriage could not be rushed. He still had to take it slowly.

"Alright, I should end the call. Or else you'll have to work even later than it already is. Go do your work, and go home and rest after that."

Molly whispered shyly. She wanted to end the call.

'Wait. Don't end the call.'

Sean was reluctant to end the call just like that. He was very busy working. So, he did not see her the whole day. Now that he was finally having a video call with her, he wanted to chat a little more with her even if they were talking nonsense.

Molly hesitated for a second. She asked, "Okay, I won't end the call. But, I don't want to distract you from your work. So, Why don't I just accompany you?"

"But, you'll be very tired if you do that."

Sean did not know how much longer he had to work, and he did not want her to wait for him. So, he made a small request. "Molly, kiss me."

"Huh?" Molly was stunned.

However, Sean was not joking. He lifted the corner of his lips slightly as he said, "You don't know how to do it? Let me teach you, 'mua'."

Sean directly kissed her gently during the call.

The kiss did not land on Molly in person. But, she could feel his kiss even though he only kissed her indirectly through the call!

Her face was red immediately, her heart was racing, and her palm was warm.

She then mustered the courage to give a kiss softly at the camera.

But, her voice was so soft that it could hardly be heard.

However, this did not spoil the sweet ambiance between them.

Sean was finally satisfied. He then smiled as he said, "Alright. Let's end the call now. Rest well. I'll work a little more and go home after that. I'll text you when I reach home."

"Okay. Remember not to work too late," Molly nagged him sweetly.

They ended their call after that.

She then lay on her bed again. She felt a lot more at ease.

Before the call, she had an inexplicable feeling of depression and indecisiveness. So, she felt uncomfortable.

But, after hearing Sean's voice, she suddenly felt that she had nothing to hesitate about.

'No matter what Alice tells me, no matter how much trouble we'll face in life, as long as Sean is determined that he wants to be with me, I'll never back down!'

Chapter 723-The next morning. Alice received a call from the hospital, "Mrs. Anderson, the DNA test result that you wanted US to check is out. Do you want to come by the hospital to get it? Or, would you like US to send it to your home personally?" When Alice heard that, she immediately replied to the doctor happily, "Thank you but I'll come and get it!"

Soon, Alice went to the hospital with Ricky excitedly. They then took the DNA test report.

'I knew it. I knew it!'

Alice was over the moon after looking at the DNA test report. She pulled Ricky as she said cheerily, "The triplets are our grandchildren. Look at it!"

Ricky saw the content of the report too. He immediately showed a joyful smile on his face. "Looks like these three little ones really are the grandchildren of the Anderson family. This is great!"

Initially, Ricky and Alice wanted their son to get married soon. They wanted their son and their future daughter-in-law to give birth to a healthy child.

But, surprisingly they immediately had three grandchildren overnight.

And, the three kids were very sensible, cute, and well-behaved!

Alice was on top of the world!

She quickly grabbed Ricky to walk toward the outside. "Let's go to Sean now. We can ask him to bring US to the three kids so that they can acknowledge their roots!"

Ricky then happily followed her. In less than half an hour, they had arrived at the Anderson Corporation.

Sean was working until three in the morning yesterday. He was too lazy to go home. So, he went to the office's restroom to shower and slept there.

After he woke up, he continued to work again. He did not expect that his parents would come over personally.

So, he was obviously a little surprised when he saw his parents. "Father, Mother, why are you here?" "Sean!"

Alice shouted joyfully when she saw her son. She then quickly took out the report from the hospital. She opened it in front of Sean and said, "Look at this. Yesterday, your father and I talked to the triplets. We used their hair for a DNA test with you. They're really your kids!"

"Oh dear, this is great. Your father and I finally have grandchildren."

Sean was not surprised when he heard that. He was rather calm as he said, "I told the two of you. But, you two didn't believe me."

"We didn't say we didn't believe you. We were just suspicious. But now, your father and I fully believe it."

Alice was getting happier and happier as she said that. She had not been so excited for a long time. She immediately desperately requested, "Sean, why don't you pause your work for now? Take US to the three kids and ask them to acknowledge US as their family!"

"They're the grandchildren of the Anderson family. We have to ask them to change their last name to Anderson as soon as possible."

Sean frowned when he heard that. His furrowed eyebrows were extremely cold.

“Mother, we can’t rush these kinds of things,” he said coldly.

Alice was stunned for a moment. She looked like she did not get it. “Why can’t we rush it? They belong to the Anderson family. This is wonderful news!” “Mother, have you ever considered Molly’s feelings?”

Sean stopped doing his work completely. He raised his head to look at his mother. He looked serious as he said with a good attitude, “Five years ago, Molly gave birth to her children alone. She heeded the best she could to raise them. She devoted much more effort to the kids than us.

“The three kids are the source of energy that keeps her alive. Now that we want to take the kids away from her just because we know they’re the descendants of the Anderson family, do you think she’ll agree to it?”

Sean made a good point.

Chapter 724-Alice thought to herself as she put herself in Molly’s perspective. ‘If I were Molly, I’d definitely not hand over my kids whom I’ve raised to someone else just like that!

‘Every mother in this world would want to protect their own children.

There’s no exception to that.’ “W-What should we do?”

Alice was troubled. She knew that she should not put Molly in a difficult situation. But, she really liked the three kids. They were her sweet grandchildren!

‘What can I do to bring the triplets back to the Anderson family as soon as possible?’ Sean could see that her mother really liked the kids, otherwise, she would not be so excited and wanted the kids to acknowledge them as their family.

But, the main concern was Molly, not the kids.

Sean comforted his mother patiently, "Mother, since you've accepted the three kids, you should accept Molly from now on too.

"But, Molly still doesn't know who's the father of her kids, which is me. She still hasn't completely moved on from that incident. I'm worried that she'll hate me if she knows that I was the man who got her pregnant, the man who caused her to be kicked out of the house and become homeless.

"So, can you two give me some time?"

At least, it would allow him to think of a way to talk some sense into Molly.

One day, when Molly had finally moved on from that incident, then that would be the day to tell her everything.

Although Alice and Ricky were frustrated when they heard their son's explanation, they could not do anything.

if you say so."

Alice ruefully said, "Well, I talked to Ms. May before this. And, I said a lot of harsh words to her. Now that I suddenly want her to give her children to me, I don't think she'll be willing to do it.

"I'll cultivate our relationship during this period. I think she'll accept it a little easier when our relationship is finally steady."

Alice slightly regretted what she did as she said that. She could not help but blame, "Sean, why didn't you tell me earlier that the triplets are your kids? I wouldn't go and threaten Ms. May to leave you if I knew that."

Sean was speechless." ..."

'I just knew the triplets are my kids too!

'If I'd known it earlier, I'd protect that little girl and the kids earlier.

'But, it's too late to say that these now.

'From now on, I wouldn't allow Molly and my children to get hurt or suffer any kind of pain anymore."

Alice and Ricky left the company after they had an agreement with their son.

Alice still felt bad on the way back home. She guiltily said, "'Ricky, have I gone too far when I did what I did to Ms. May?

"She's just a lady. She got pregnant before marriage four or five years ago. She would rather take huge pressure than abort the children. And yet, she was treated coldly when she finally raised her kids successfully on her own.

"Even I said some harsh words to her!"

She felt guiltier as she thought further. She put her hand on her chest as she blamed herself, "If I have the chance in the future, I'll treat Ms. May better. If I don't, I'll feel very bad."

Ricky patted his wife's shoulder as he heard that. He comforted her calmly, "It's all right. That is all in the past.

Let go of the past.

"You didn't know that Ms. May was the mother of Sean's kids.

Understandably, you didn't treat her well. But, now that you know, our family should treat her better from now on."

Chapter 725-Yes. I'll treat her well! After all, she's a survivor."

Alice did not understand Molly in the past. But now, she knew she heeded the best she could to raise her three grandchildren. She even taught the kids on her own to be so wise and sensible!

She felt very ashamed. She admired Molly now.

'It's difficult to find such a good daughter-in-law!' Alice suddenly felt that God had heard her.

She thought it was a disaster that her son liked a woman like Molly. But now, it seemed like it was a blessing in disguise.

So, Ricky and Alice brought some delicious food to the kindergarten to visit their three grandchildren in the afternoon.

"Grandpa, grandma, have you verified our identity?" the triplets asked in their childish voices as they enjoyed the food.

Alice found out that the triplets were indeed her grandchildren. So now, she looked caring and gentle as she stared at the three kids.

"Alex, Ben, and Claudia, we're sorry for what we did in the past. We didn't know that the three of you were our grandchildren. But, from now on, we'll treat you all well."

Alice smiled as she said that. The extravagance feeling on her had now changed to limitless tender.

The triplets were overjoyed when they heard their grandparents say that.

'Grandpa, grandma, and daddy finally know about us!' 'But...' "Grandpa, grandma, can you not talk to mommy so soon?"

Alex opened his big brown eyes as he sincerely said, “Mommy still doesn’t know that I’m daddy’s son.

Moreover, grandma threatened mommy before this. I think mommy is a little defensive against you now. If she knows that we’re your grandchildren, I think she won’t be willing to let US interact with you two anymore.”

“If mommy knows, she’ll be angry and sad. We don’t want mommy to be upset,” Ben added.

The triplets were very wise. Although their father and grandparents knew that they were their family, they still put their mother above all else.

‘If mommy doesn’t agree to let us become the family members of the Anderson family, we’ll still choose mommy!

‘Mommy is always our top priority in the whole world!’ Alice was very touched when she saw that the three little ones were so protective of their mother.

‘The kids are wise and full of filial piety!’ She wiped the corner of her wet eyes touchingly. She smiled sweetly as she said, “Alright, grandma will listen to all of you. We’ll not disturb your mommy. But, if grandma misses you guys, can I come and visit you and bring you all some delicious food?”

‘Sure. Grandma is awesome. I love grandma!’ Claudia cheered as she raised her tiny hands.

‘The snacks that grandma brought are so delicious. They’re my favorite.’ Ben sweet-talked too, “I love being with grandpa and grandma. You two are amazing. Daddy and mommy are wonderful too. I’m so happy.”

Alice smiled wider as she heard the kids cheer.

The triplets felt Alice’s kindness too. So, they were being very sweet to their grandparents.

The kids made Ricky and Alice grin from ear to ear!

They did not know what to say. So, they constantly said to the kids, "Eat more. Tell grandma and grandpa if there's any food that you want to eat. Okay?" "Okay!"

The triplets were suddenly even more delighted as they ate.

Chapter 726-Alice and Ricky went to the triplets' school almost every day for some time after that.

They would bring a lot of imported snacks, toys, and little gifts whenever they went to pay the triplets a visit.

She gifted each of the triplets an electronic watch too. That watch had a call and GPS function. Alice and Ricky would call the triplets whenever they had the time.

The triplets liked the watch very much. "Thank you, grandpa and grandma. We like the watches very much," they said in a sweet voice.

"I'm glad that you do!" Alice nodded in satisfaction as she smiled from ear to ear.

The triplets' classmates saw the watches on their wrists, and they got very envious.

"Wow! This watch is manufactured in Sufren. I heard that you could use this watch to call, locate someone, and even play games!" One of the kids exclaimed while putting a hand over his mouth.

The other kids heard that, and their eyes sparkled. "Alex, Ben, where did you get this watch from?"

"Our grandparents gave it to us!" The triplets lifted their tiny chins proudly.

Their classmates heard that and got even more envious. “Your grandparents are so nice. I’m going to ask my mom to buy one for me too when I go home later.”

“I’m going to buy one too!”

“Me three!”

The triplets got even happier when they saw how their classmates were influenced by them.

In the evening, Molly came out of the research laboratory and the Rolls- Royce was already waiting outside.

Sean sat in the car wearing a black suit. The spacious aero seat matched very well with his cold and classy temperament. After Molly got into the car, he grabbed her hand naturally.

‘Why does it feel so cold?’ Sean arched his brows while holding her little hand.

Then, Molly said with a faint smile, ‘It’s just the weather.’

Sean furrowed his brow and grabbed her hand even tighter. “I’m going to buy you a hand warmer tomorrow.

Bring it everywhere with you.”

“It’s okay. I can’t use it while I’m working.”

“You still have to bring it anyway. You can use it when you’re on your way home!”

Sean said firmly, and his deep eyes were filled with concern.

Molly could not help but lift the edge of her lips after seeing how worried he got over a tiny matter like that.

Her heart felt warm. "Okay, then. You're the boss.

"You're just spoiling me now," she whispered after saying that.

Sean held her hand and tried to warm it up with his breath. Then, he said with a gentle smile, "Why should I be worried about you getting spoiled? You're my girlfriend and there's nothing wrong about spoiling you."

Molly's cheeks turned even rosier.

After some time, the car stopped in front of the school.

Tony helped Sean get down the car and went to pick up the triplets with Molly.

"Uncle Sean, mommy!"

The triplets were standing in the crowd, yet they could notice Molly right away. Then, they strode with their tiny feet and ran toward Sean and Molly.

Molly hugged the triplets as she patted their tiny heads with a smile. "What did you learn today?"

"Calligraphy. Mommy, the teacher even praised US today." The triplets said unanimously.

'My babies are so impressive. Hm? What's this?'

Molly felt a hard object on their wrists, and she immediately lifted their hands to have a look.

“A watch? Where did you get this?”

She knew that she did not buy the triplets any watches. Besides, an electronic watch like that was very expensive, and it could cost around a hundred thousand.

The triplets were shocked as they tried to hide their hands behind their back subconsciously.

Molly furrowed her fine brows and did not let the triplet’s hand go as she coldly asked, “Where did you get these? I’ve never bought you any watches like these.”

Chapter 727-“I-It’s...”

The triplets lowered their heads down timidly. They were not brave enough to tell Molly the truth.

‘Mommy is going to be angry if she knew that grandpa and grandma gave us these watches, right?’ The triplets had no choice but to look at Sean and ask for help.

‘Uncle Sean, please help US out!’ Their pitiful eyes seemed to say.

Sean brought his brows together as if he could guess what the triplets were trying to say. Then, he moved his thin lips. “Tony, I told you to get the triplets a present previously. Did you get each of them a watch?”

Tony looked confused.

‘When did he ask me to get a present for the triplets?’ Sean threw him a profound look when Tony was still trying to figure out what was happening.

Tony picked up on it right away, and he nodded dutifully. “Yes, boss. I asked my friends to buy something for me overseas after you told me to buy something for the kids. I didn’t know what exactly my friend bought, but I guess these watches are one of them.” Sean nodded and said to Molly, “Molly, stop questioning the kids. I bought them the watches.”

“Really?”

Molly locked her brows as she did not really buy what Sean said. Then, she continued to ask, “Why did you stutter if it’s just a present from Uncle Sean?”

“B-Because...”

The triplets rarely lied, and they were very bad at it too. However, they had no choice but to hide the truth from Molly.

So, Alex braced himself and said while gritting his teeth, “Because the watches are too expensive. Mommy, we were afraid that you’d be mad at us for accepting such a costly present from Uncle Sean, so we didn’t dare to tell you...”

“Mommy, we’re sorry.”

The triplets bowed their head down almost the same time after saying that, looking remorseful.

Molly’s heart immediately melted. She thought that the triplets were hiding something from her, but she did not expect that they were just worried about her feelings.

‘It’s true. I can tell that these watches are expensive just by looking at them. It’s very reasonable for them to feel this way.’ Molly buried her anger and became gentle as she patted the triplet’s heads. “Kids, just let me know if Uncle Sean gave you presents again next time. I won’t be mad.”

“Mommy...”

The triplets held their chubby hands up and asked Molly for a hug.

Molly hugged the triplets, and her heart wrenched. Then, she brought the triplets into the car and said, "Let's go home and eat!"

Sean smiled with his crimson lips. Then, Tony helped him to get into the car.

The car stopped outside Molly's house. After that, Molly tried to ask Sean to stay. "Sean, you should stay here and join US for dinner. I'll send you back later and treat you after. Besides, the kids said that they want to watch a movie at your place after dinner, so..."

"Sure." Sean stayed without even hesitating.

During dinner, Grandpa Dave lovingly told Molly and the triplets to eat more as usual.

However, Brycen kept looking at his phone while eating. He would smile and type something on his phone, but nobody knew who he was texting. Molly glanced sideways at him a few times, and she noticed that something was not right with him. Then, she could not help but tease him, 'Brycen, are you dating someone?

Why do you look so happy while texting?"

"What? No," Brycen refuted subconsciously as his cheeks turned pinkish.

He quickly waved his hands. "I'm just having small talk with a friend. Oh, yes. Sawyer will be organizing his art exhibition tomorrow. You, the triplets, and grandpa have to go there to support him."

Chapter 728-"And, Mr. Sean, would you make some time to attend too?" Brycen lifted his chin at Sean.

Sean answered without hesitating. "Sure."

'Great!' Brycen smiled happily. Then, he looked at Sawyer, who was sitting at the side, and encouraged him, "Don't worry, Sawyer. I'm sure that a lot of people will be there now that you have all our support!"

Sawyer was very grateful for his family's support, but he was not very good with words. So, he smiled faintly and said, "Okay."

After some time, Molly sent Sean back to his mansion personally.

She massaged him as usual. Then, she asked him, "How do you feel lately?"

'A lot better.'" Sean looked at Molly's delicate features and he felt like he was dazzled by her beauty under the light.

Molly smiled helplessly. "You always say the same thing, yet you could never be fully recovered."

Sean lifted the edge of his mouth slightly and patiently said, "It takes time."

"Yeah, you're right. But, it's probably not going to take a lot more time. I'm sure that you'll recover after a few more physiotherapy sessions."

Molly packed her medical kit after she said that. Then, she stood up and said to him with a smile, "I'll leave now, okay? Sawyer's art exhibition will begin at around ten tomorrow. The kids and I will wake up earlier to wait for you."

Sean did not have a problem with that as he nodded. "Sure."

'But, can you stay for a while longer?" He suddenly said after Molly turned around.

Molly paused and glanced back at him curiously before asking with a smile, "What's up?"

Sean did not say anything. He beckoned her over with his slender and fair finger. "Come here."

Molly thought that Sean had something to tell her, so she took a few steps toward him. However, Sean grabbed her slim wrist and pulled her over into his arms as soon as she got closer to him.

Molly leaned in and felt Sean's warm breath as her hair fell on the side of her ears. Her hair covered Sean's chin and Sean got a whiff of her aromatic scent.

"Let me hug you for a while." Sean's voice was deep and magnetic, and it sounded like he could compel somebody with it.

Molly could not move at all. However, the hug felt very sweet and warm to her.

Then, she slowly reached out and put her hand over Sean's shoulder before tapping him as though she was comforting a child.

After a while, Molly said with a gentle smile on her face, "Okay, it's getting late now. I should really head back."

Then, Sean let go of her and reluctantly said, "I'll walk you to the door."

"Okay."

After that, Sean went to the door with Molly, and he watched her go back to the mansion next door before returning to his home.

The sun shone very brightly the next day, and Joelle was finally discharged.

Her illness made her stay in the hospital for more than a week. She initially thought that it was just a normal fever, but a lot of other symptoms came along because it coincided with her menstrual cycle.

The doctor did a body checkup for her, and he found out that she had cold coagulation in her uterus that needed to be treated. And, she also was suffering from gastroenteritis, etc.

Joelle was deeply regretful. She would not have taken the cold bath if she knew that something like this would happen!

'I just wanted to get Sean's attention by getting sick, but what happened? He sent a few words to stop me from going back to the office instead. He's so heartless.' The more Joelle thought about that, the angrier she got. She went to the sidewalk to take a cab because she wanted to pay Alice a visit.

After a while, the car stopped in front of the Anderson mansion.

Joelle went inside straight away while carrying the fruits she bought on the way there

Chapter 729-Alice immediately greeted Joelle enthusiastically after seeing her, "Joelle, you've been discharged? Have a seat over here."

'Thank you, Mrs. Anderson. I just left the hospital today. I'm so sorry for worrying you when I was in the hospital these few days.'

Joelle smiled gently and placed the fruits on the coffee table. Her movements looked just like a gracious lady.

That was also what Alice liked about her the most. Her presence felt very classy, subtle, docile, and respectful.

Only a woman like this could be good enough for her son!

However, Alice already had three grandchildren, and the impression she had of Molly had changed too. So, she became a little less affable to Joelle.

"Joelle, you've become so much skinnier after staying in the hospital. I'm going to buy you some supplements later and have them sent to your house. You really have to take care of yourself."

Joelle nodded and smiled. "Thank you, Mrs. Anderson!"

‘What for? That’s what I’m supposed to do anyway.’

Alice smiled and apologetically said, “You were only admitted to the hospital because Sean didn’t pay enough attention to you. This is a work- related injury! Sean is always busy, and he even has a girlfriend now. It won’t be appropriate for him to be with you all the time, so I’ll be responsible to look after you now.”

The expression on Joelle’s face changed slightly after she heard what Alice said.

‘What does she mean by Sean has a girlfriend now?

‘I thought Alice had always been against Sean dating Molly, no? She even tried to get me and Sean together.

‘But, why did she acknowledge the fact that Sean is actually dating now?

‘Something’s not right!’ Joelle felt suspicious, but she did not dare to say anything about it. Instead, she smiled humbly, “Mrs.

Anderson, you don’t have to be so nice to me. I knew that it was going to be stressful working with Sean. I wouldn’t mind being a little sick if I can actually help him.”

Alice knew what Joelle was thinking as soon as she heard what she said.

‘Joelle is only working for Sean because she liked him!’ Alice would definitely be on Joelle’s side and told her to spend more time with Sean if this happened earlier.

But, at that time, it became a whole different story.

She already had three grandchildren and a daughter-in-law. Even though the conflict between them was not resolved yet, there was no place for Joelle anymore in Alice’s heart.

So, she could only smile and convince Joelle pretentiously, “Joelle, after thinking about it, you seem like you’re having a pretty tough time working with Sean. How about I find you another more relaxed job? You’re a girl, after all. There’s no need to stress yourself out so much.”

Joelle’s expression changed after hearing those words.

She could feel that Alice was not treating her the same as she did before anymore.

Alice would always create the opportunity for her to spend more time with Sean!

But now...

‘What exactly happened?’ Joelle was puzzled, but she did not dare to ask any further. So, she smiled faintly and said, “Mrs. Anderson, you’re right. But, I have no plans to switch jobs yet. I’ll be sure to get enough rest while working.”

‘Good,” Alice replied and stopped speaking.

After all, she was the one who agreed to let Joelle work in Sean’s company.

It would not be right for her to kick her out now.

‘Whatever!

■Joelle is a smart woman. I believe that she’ll give up after realizing that she won’t have a chance to be with Sean anymore!’

Chapter 730-nsion after walking out the door. She squinted, and she felt a little reluctant.

'Why would Alice treat me so differently all of a sudden?

I'm sure that something went wrong. I have to find out what exactly happened!' Sawyer's art exhibition began at ten o'clock in the morning as scheduled.

Brycen brought Grandpa Dave, Molly, the triplets, and Sean there.

They were a little worried that nobody would show up at the exhibition before reaching there.

After arriving, they realized that they were just overthinking!

They could see that the organizer heavily promoted Sawyer's art exhibition. The venue was already filled with people when they got there.

"Alex, Ben, Claudia, stay close to me. Don't get lost." Molly grabbed the triplets' little hands and spoke.

The place was very packed, and Molly had to ensure the triplets' safety!

As for Tony, he followed behind Molly while pushing Sean.

Sean looked at their backs and his deep eyes turned soft uncontrollably.

After a while, Nathan and his parents went there too. They greeted Sawyer and Grandpa Dave.

Nathan took a look at the exhibition's setup and patted Sawyer's shoulder before he said in high regard, "Sawyer, you did a very good job with your art exhibition. Every piece of your work looks fantastic. I love it!"

"Sawyer has always been so talented." Lara smiled gratefully.

Then, Lara looked at Molly after exchanging pleasantries.

Their eyes met. Then, Lara suddenly felt a little uneasy, and her voice turned shaky. ‘Molly, you came with your kids.’

Molly was not expecting to see them here, so she felt a little awkward.

However, she replied out of courtesy anyway. “Of course, I have to support my brother.”

“That’s right. Your brother went through so much before he could feel better, and he organized this art exhibition right after that. I’m sure he put tremendous effort into this. It’s only right for US to show our support for him as a family.

“After the art exhibition ends, why don’t we have a meal together? It’s been so long since we had a meal with each other as a family!”

Lara smiled and made that suggestion, but she was subconsciously looking at Molly.

She was worried that her daughter might reject her!

It was true that Molly wanted to reject her. She was just not used to a bonding session like this with them.

So, she hesitated for a moment before she said, “Grandpa, I don’t think I’ll join you guys later. Sean and I have a date...”

“Just join us!”

Grandpa Dave interrupt Molly before she could finish her sentence. Then, he said in a gentle tone, Molly, it’s rare for all of US to be here together. This is a really good opportunity! We should eat together and consider it as a celebration for Sawyer.”

Grandpa Dave was getting old. He just wanted to see his family come together and spend time with each other harmoniously.

“Yeah, Molly. You should come with us.”

Brycen tried to persuade her too. “Just consider it as a celebration for Sawyer. It took him a lot of effort to make this art exhibition happen. It would be so boring without you there.”

Molly was speechless.

It was difficult for her to reject Lara now that Grandpa Dave and Brycen had spoken up.

She knew that she had no other excuse to reject them, so she nodded and said, “Okay, then.”

I'm only going there for Sawyer!’
