

Triplets On SM 731

Chapter 733-ing.

Molly was never going to forgive her parents this easily anyway.

“Forget it. Let’s not talk about this. Sean, I want to watch a movie.”

After saying that, Molly turned to look at Sean and spoke softly. “A new movie just came out recently. Do you want to watch it with me? We’ll just watch it at home.”

“Sure.”

Sean had no problem with that. Then, he brought Molly and the triplets to his home theatre to watch that movie.

However, Molly fell asleep not long into the movie.

She tilted her head and leaned on Sean’s shoulder, feeling very at ease.

Sean turned to his side and found out that Molly had already fallen asleep on his shoulder. The triplets, who were sitting at the front, fell asleep too while leaning on each other.

‘These kids and Molly are really united!’ Sean smiled resignedly. Then, he told Tony to come inside and take them back into his room.

Fortunately, Sean’s bed was big enough for Molly and the triplets to sleep on. There was more than enough space too.

So, Molly and the triplets lay on the bed and fell even deeper into their sleep.

Sean did not want to leave them. So, he asked Tony to bring all his paperwork into the room instead.

He watched them sleep while working, and a few hours went by before he even realized it.

As for Joelle, she felt very unhappy as soon as she left the Anderson Residence in the morning.

So, she ordered somebody to look into what happened. She wanted to know what exactly Alice did when she was hospitalized.

After discovering what happened, that person reported back to Joelle, "Ms. Herring, Mrs. Anderson would visit a childcare facility whenever she is free. And, she also kept asking Molly's children to eat with her alone, and she even bought them a lot of presents too. I..."

'What is this about?' Joelle locked her brows as her pupils constricted. 'Did Mrs. Anderson accept Molly May?' She thought to herself.

'Otherwise, why would she treat her children so well?' However, Joelle remembered that Alice looked down on Molly's past.

'Molly got pregnant before getting married and she even had three kids. A woman like her can never be good enough for Sean!

'Mrs. Anderson shared the same thought as mine. Why would she change her mind all of a sudden?' The more Joelle thought about it, the more confused she got. Then, something popped into her mind.

She wanted to test Alice. She was planning to tell her that she would leave the Anderson Corporation and go back to manage her family's business.

I'm sure that Alice would say something to retain me and let me work in the Anderson Corporation, so I can be closer to Sean if she still likes me.

'However, if she doesn't...

'Then, I really have to watch out.' At night, Anderson Residence.

Alice and Ricky were having dinner at the dining table, but they were not enjoying themselves.

They went to the triplets' school that afternoon to pay them a visit.

However, they only found out that their grandchildren took a day off to go to their uncle's art exhibition.

They came home empty-handed, and they felt a little empty after not seeing the triplets.

Particularly, Alice was the one who felt unhappy because she could not see the triplet's adorable smiles and them calling her grandma.

She would not think twice if she had the chance to make the triplets stay in the same house as her!

Chapter 734-"Ricky, when we do think we can officially acknowledge the triplets as our grandchildren?"

Alice took a bite of her food and said dully while chewing it.

Ricky was not thinking about anything like that. He took a piece of chicken and put it into his bowl before he comforted Alice. 'Calm down. It's going to happen in just a matter of time. Didn't Sean tell US to give him some time? You should just sit back and wait patiently." Alice sighed sorrowfully. "Guess that's my only choice, then." The butler walked briskly toward them after Alice said that. "Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Ms. Herring is here," he spoke softly.

"Ms. Herring?" Alice was not expecting Joelle to be there at all.

'Mrs. Anderson, it's me."

A soft voice spread across the room. Joelle was wearing a light green sweater and a pair of white knitted trousers as she walked into the house gracefully.

Alice looked over and smiled gently, "Joelle, it's you! What brings you here? Have you had dinner? Come and eat something if you haven't."

"It's okay, Mrs. Anderson. I've eaten already."

Joelle smiled courteously and said, "I came here today because I have something about work to talk about with you and Mr. Anderson. I didn't mean to interrupt your dinner. Please take your time to finish your meal. I'll just sit on the sofa and wait."

Joelle turned around and sat on the sofa while she said that Alice saw how polite she was and went on with her dinner. After she was done, she sat opposite Joelle and started talking with her.

"Joelle, it's nice to see you again. What's on your mind? Just tell me."

Alice poured a cup of tea for Joelle personally while saying that.

"Thank you, Mrs. Anderson."

Joelle took the cup from Alice and took a sip. Then, she said while trying to get some information out of Alice according to her plan, "Mrs. Anderson, I had a long discussion with my grandpa at home today. We both agreed that even though I can learn a lot of things and have tremendous growth by working as Sean's secretary at Anderson Corporation, I'll eventually have to go back and manage my family's business.

"So, I'm thinking about resigning as Sean's secretary, so I can start taking over my family's business. That way, I can help make my grandpa's work easier."

She paused and smiled awkwardly. "Of course, Sean taught me a lot of things these days, and I'm more than happy to work with him. However, he has Ms. May now. I'm afraid that Ms. May would mind that Sean has a woman as his secretary, so..."

Joelle bowed her head down after she said that.

I'm sure that Mrs. Anderson will say something to stop me from quitting if she still wants me to get closer to Sean.' She figured to herself inwardly.

After all, Alice was pretty fond of her back then.

However, things took an unexpected turn for Joelle as Ricky agreed with what she said without even hesitating. "Sure. That's a good thing too if you have the thoughts of taking over your family's business."

"Yeah. Joelle, the fact that Sean made you sick previously is still bothering me. I just feel like I owe you for that! And, I took some time to think about it. Sean is really too busy with his work, and he has no time to look after you. So, it's better for you to go home and help your grandpa with his business."

Alice found a chance and chimed in. She looked gentle and sounded very calm. She genuinely wanted the best for Joelle.

Sean had already got together with Molly.

So, there was no reason for Alice to keep Joelle around her son. It would be best for her to leave as soon as possible.

■Joelle's a classy and polite girl. I'm sure that she can find someone that suits her better.' Alice thought to herself.

Chapter 735-The look on Joelle's face froze. She was not expecting Alice to agree with what she suggested so quickly.

She thought that Alice would at least pretend and say something to stop her from leaving.

However, she was wrong about everything!

'It seems like she doesn't want me to be her daughter-in-law anymore.

'Has she really accepted Molly?

'No! Why?! How is Molly better than me?!' Joelle's anger boiled inside her as her eyes watered. She felt mistreated, and she had the urge to cry.

However, she did not dare to reveal too much of her emotions in front of Alice. She was the one who suggested quitting, after all.

So, she tried her best and put on a smile before thanking them, "Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, thank you for your understanding. I'll be going back to work for my grandpa tomorrow, then. I'm going to organize a banquet after I go back, and I'll send an invitation to you. I hope that both of you can make sometime to attend.

"I'm sure that grandpa will be very happy if both of you can be there," She added.

Alice had no reason to reject her. Besides, they had to attend for the sake of Mr. Herring Sr. anyway.

So, she smiled gently and said, "Don't worry, we'll definitely be there. It's getting late now. You should head back and get some rest."

"Sure."

Joelle smiled. Then, she stood up and left.

As soon as she turned around, the fake smile she put on immediately disappeared!

She clenched her fists so hard that her fingernails dug into her palm. However, it seemed like she could not feel any pain as rage burned in her eyes.

'I really want to know what that Molly fed the Andersons!

'Not only that Sean fell into her trap, but even Mrs. Anderson did the same thing too.

'What about me? Who am I, then? Am I really nothing in Sean's heart?' Joelle was unhappy as she would always get what she wanted. Besides, she could not stand to lose against Molly, a filthy woman who had already given birth!

As for Sean, she was not going to give up on him this easily.

It was already eight at night when Molly woke up.

The triplets woke up way earlier before that. They sat on the luxurious sofa in the living room downstairs while chatting with Sean.

"Daddy, thank you so much for saying that you bought US the watches. Otherwise, mommy would be angry at us."

The triplets were so worried when Molly asked them about the watches.

They were glad that Sean was there to get them out of trouble!

Sean heard what they said, and a faint smile flashed across his handsome face. Then, he asked them a question, "Did you guys say that grandpa and grandma would always visit you at school?"

"Yeah. They like US very much, and they're so good to us!"

Ben held his finger against his tiny head and said with a bright smile, "Grandma bought so many delicious snacks for US."

"Daddy, I like grandpa and grandma." Claudia was smiling adorably too.

Sean did not expect that his parents would be accepted by the triplets in just two days.

'It looks like everything's in place now, except for one thing.' When he thought that to himself, that "one thing" yawned and came out of the room. She rubbed her eyes and said blurry, "Sean, how long did I sleep? Have you guys eaten?"

"Not yet. Dinner will be ready soon. You can sleep a while longer if you're tired. We're not in a rush anyway,"

Sean said in a doting tone.

They lived very close to each other, after all. Molly could go back to her own house any time after she woke up.

She could also stay in the guest room if she did not feel like going back as Sean's house had a lot of unoccupied rooms anyway.

Chapter 736-At dinner, Sean just would not stop putting food on Molly and the triplet's plates. "You got skinnier. Eat more!"

he said.

"No. I'm trying to lose weight."

Molly put the chicken breast meat back on Sean's plate after saying that.

"You're already very skinny." Sean comforted her and gave her back the meat.

"Hm. I actually got two pounds heavier. You just can't tell," Molly said and put the meat back on his plate again. That piece of meat looked very oily, and there was just no way that Molly would eat it. It just felt too sinful for Molly to put that into her belly.

The triplets, who were sitting beside them, could not stand to see them going back and forth like that anymore.

“I’ll eat it if mommy doesn’t want to!”

The little one grunted and spoke. Then, he took the meat from Sean and placed it on his own before demolishing it with one bite.

“Hm. Mr. Butler is such a good cook. It’s delicious.” He gave it a thumbs-up after eating it.

Sean and Molly were amused. After that, they stopped dwelling on that piece of chicken breast. Then, Sean gave Molly a piece of fish with snowy flesh. “This has a lot of protein in it, and it’s not going to make you fat.

Can you eat this now?”

Molly’s eyes sparkled and said, “Thank you.”

“What for?” Sean furrowed his brows.

Molly suddenly blushed and tried to correct her words in a softer tone. “I was just thanking you for thanking care of me and the kids, and nothing more. Just eat your food!”

She bowed her head and stopped talking after that.

Sean could not help but laugh after seeing how Molly ate. She stuffed so much food in her mouth that her cheeks bulged. She looked just like a squirrel.

‘How nice would it be if I can eat with her every day.’ He thought to himself.

The next day, Molly went to the research laboratory to work as usual.

Benjamin saw how happy and high-spirited Molly looked, and he mocked her, “You always look like you’re in a good mood these days. Women in love are indeed different.”

Molly smiled sweetly. “You’re right. You should get yourself a girlfriend too if you’re feeling envious. It’ll probably make you feel better.”

“Me? I have no plans to do that at all. I’ve decided to be single for the rest of my life,” Benjamin said casually.

Clearly, he was just joking.

In the afternoon, Molly suddenly felt like meeting Sean, so she went to look for him while carrying her lunch.

She had never really been to Anderson Corporation. She only found out that Sean’s company was indeed a world-class enterprise when she saw how luxurious his office looked after arriving there.

However, when Molly reached Sean’s room and opened the door, she saw that Joelle was in there too.

Joelle was dressed in a rather fitting suit. It showcased her attractive figure as her outfit accentuated her curves. She also looked very elegant and classy while standing in front of Sean.

However, the expression on her face had an apparent change when she saw Molly.

“Um, am I interrupting something?” Molly hesitated as she stood at the door with her lunch in her hand. She did not know if she should enter the room or not.

Sean looked at her as his deep eyes turned gentle. Then, he smiled brightly. “Not at all. Come on in.”

Molly nodded and went inside with her lunch. Then, she sat on the sofa as she did not want to disturb Sean while he was working.

Sean smiled faintly after seeing Molly sit down.

Then, his face turned indifferent as how he would normally look again when he shifted his gaze back at Joelle. "Ms. Herring, did you say that you want to resign?" He said coldly

Chapter 737-Joelle clenched her fists and nodded. "Yes." 'And why is that?' 'I want to help my grandpa to take care of his business. After all, he's getting old now. I want to make his job easier.' Joelle replied without even thinking. However, her heart felt like it was being poked by a needle.

It was obvious that the way Sean looked at her and treated her was very different compared to Molly.

Preferential treatment like this was something that upset her the most!

However, Sean had no idea what was going on in Joelle's mind. He said generously after making sure that Joelle really wanted to leave, "Hand over your work to Tony before getting your salary from the HR Department. After that, you're free to leave."

Sean spoke very firmly.

His indifferent expression showed no sign of reluctance to let her go.

Joelle felt tightness in her chest. She badly wanted to ask Sean if he really did not care that she was going to leave.

However, she thought that it would not be appropriate for her to do that with Molly being there. So, she nodded disconsolately. "I'm going to organize a banquet after I go back. I hope that you can attend."

'No problem.'

Sean answered her without hesitating. There was no reason for him to reject her. He would attend it to show his respect for the Herring family anyway.

Joelle nodded as she had nothing else to say. So, she was about to turn around and leave.

Then, she turned back and glanced at Molly before leaving.

Molly could clearly feel a touch of hostility the moment Joelle looked at her.

Molly was a woman just like her. So, she could easily understand where the sense of hostility came from.

However, Molly did not back down as she glared back at Joelle.

Joelle brought her brows together and rage immediately surged through her!

Then, she turned around and left the office without looking back.

After Joelle left, Sean pushed his wheelchair and went beside Molly to have lunch with her.

Molly put all the food she brought on the table and said with a smile, "Eat more. These are all your favorite food."

Sean looked at the food. Indeed, it was the things that he would often eat.

'It looks like this woman pays a lot of attention to me. Otherwise, she wouldn't know these are the things that I like to eat.' Sean could not help but smile, adding a sense of nobility to himself. He looked just like a business tycoon who came right out of a financial magazine.

Molly sat opposite him. Even though she was dressed in normal clothes, her temperament was classy, and it matched Sean's presence perfectly.

They chatted and laughed while they ate. The atmosphere felt sweet and comfortable.

That was what Tony saw when he opened the door.

'My boss and Ms. May look so good together. They're a perfect pair and are simply made for each other!' The people in the upper-class circle knew about the news of Joelle's return very quickly.

The Herring family was once a very reputable big family in this city too!

Even though their business went downhill, they were still richer than a lot of other people. So, people of the upper-class society would still more or less respect them.

Besides, they were good friends to the Anderson family. They knew that the Andersons would for sure show up at the banquet organized by the Herring family.

So, the business figures would be more than happy to attend this banquet to get acquainted with the Anderson family.

After a few days, the Herring family's banquet took place at the Vierra Hotel as scheduled.

The banquet was set to begin at seven. However, Sean asked Molly at six, 'Would you come with me?'

Chapter 738-Molly paused and shook her head. "I'm not going, Sean. Miss Herring invited the Anderson family, not me..."

"Don't worry. I'm bringing my companion, it's only reasonable." Sean knew Molly would say that, so he rejected her idea.

"But..." Molly still did not want to go.

Sean knew that Molly was reluctant because she was not invited, and she was too shy to attend the banquet with him!

After all, they still had not publicized their relationship.

If they showed up together, that only meant that they were telling everyone that they were in a relationship!

So, Sean raised his hand and brushed Molly's head as if she was a kitten. ' Just go with me. You know just many heiresses will attend banquets like this. Do you really want them to approach me?"

"Hah!"

Molly was amused. "Tch, get over yourself."

However, Molly knew that Sean was right. There were countless women that were attracted to him because of his status.

Obviously, Molly did not want to see other women getting close to him. She was already uncomfortable if they stayed a little too long for a chat with Sean.

She could not help but be moved. "W-Well, I'll go with you then, okay? I don't have a dress ready though.

Would we make it on time?"

Sean laughed and said, ' Don't worry about these. I've already got it prepared.

"Tony, get the gown out from the car boot."

'Yes, boss."

Tony ran out and took the gown in before handing it to Molly with both of his hands.

Molly was hesitant as she did not know if she wanted to accept it.

She was still afraid. After all, wouldn't attending the banquet with Sean indicate that they were officially in a relationship?

But, Sean did not care about that at all. He took the gown from Tony and passed it to Molly as he urged her softly, "Change into this. I chose the measurements for you, so it probably fits."

'Mommy, go get changed!'

The triplets were all excited as they watched their mother being so hesitant.

"Mommy, if you don't wear it, I will." Claudia looked extremely excited.

'Just wear it, mommy. You'll be the prettiest woman ever, for sure!' Ben and Alex were both excited as well.

Molly was immediately put on the spot. Even if she did not want to change into the gown, she could not anymore.

So, she just smiled defeatedly and took the dress into her room. After she changed into the gown, she walked out.

Just as Sean said, the dress fit her just right!

Although the gown had a simplistic style, it was cinched at the waist and there were subtle pearls sitting in the folds of the skirt.

Under the bright light, the gown looked elegant, expensive, and enchanting on Molly.

The triplets had their eyes wide open when they saw their mother.

“Mommy, you’re just like Snow White!” Claudia praised her as she stared at her mother with her dark eyes.

“You look beautiful, mommy!”

Alex and Ben were covering their mouth as they think that their mother was now beautiful on another level.

Molly found their compliments amusing. “I’m not that pretty, okay? You’re exaggerating!”

Sean suddenly responded.

His dark, deep eyes were glued on Molly’s white gown, and all he could think of was that the gown was made exactly for Molly.

Molly had always had fair skin, and the gown only accentuated her sharp features. Her dark silky hair was exactly like fine and exquisite silk

Chapter 739-The longer Sean stared at Molly, the more he felt that he was in love with her.

Every strand of Molly’s hair was perfect to him, let alone her facial expressions.

So, Sean immediately pushed himself over to her and extended his right arm in an inviting manner like a gentleman. “Miss, may I have the honor to have you as my companion in the banquet tonight?”

“Pfft!” Molly laughed. She had already changed into the gown, so she was obviously not going to reject him.

So, she said, “The pleasure is mine.”

She then placed her hand into Sean’s warm palm.

The both of them then headed to the banquet together.

At that moment, there were many top-class social elites gathered in Vierra Hotel’s banquet hall. Countless wealthy entrepreneurs attended, and the banquet was grand!

Mr. Herring Sr. was sitting in a luxurious wooden chair as he did not walk around a lot. Joelle was wearing a light blue gown, standing next to her grandfather as she greeted every guest welcomingly.

She was radiating an elegant and well-mannered presence which showed that she was a classy heiress of a wealthy family.

Many people greeted her and could not help but praise her.

“Miss Herring, you’re just so pretty!”

“Not only are you pretty, but you’re also in charge of your family business at such a young age! You’re brilliant, Miss Herring!”

“Compared to you, Miss Herring, my daughter is just an embarrassment!”

Compliments like these were constantly ringing in Joelle’s ears.

Joelle also knew that they were all just being courteous, so she did not have to pay much attention to it.

But, she was still extremely happy to be complimented, which was why she still responded to each of them politely.

At that moment, Alice and Ricky were walking toward Joelle.

As soon as Joelle saw Alice, she smiled demurely and greeted them. "You're here, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson."

"Wow, you're so pretty today, Joelle."

Alice praised her with a smile before greeting Mr. Herring Sr., "Mr. Herring, you have a wonderful granddaughter. She was initially Sean's assistant in our company, but she said that she wanted to help you out, so she quit her job and came back to you. What a thoughtful girl she is." Mr. Herring Sr. stroked his beard and laughed when he heard Alice's compliment. "You're flattering me, Alice.

I'm old now, so I can't take care of the company even if I want to. That's why I got Joelle to take over.

Although she's not that capable enough to be the sole person in charge, she's really smart. I believe she'll make some growth in no time."

"You're right. Joelle is a really clever girl."

Alice smiled and nodded in a gentle and formal manner.

Standing next to her was Ricky, who was smiling too.

However, both Ricky and Alice were unaware that their every move was being watched by everyone at the banquet.

When they saw that the Andersons were close with the Herrings, all the other guests quickly rushed up to have a chat with Mr. Herring Sr.

Joelle was ushering them as she thought in delight, 'With the Andersons being here today, my family is going to have a secured position in Northfolk!' At that moment, Sean and Molly arrived at the hotel.

Before they entered the banquet hall, Molly was so nervous that her palms started to sweat.

So, Sean pulled out a tissue paper and wiped her sweat for her. "Don't be scared. It's just a banquet," he consoled her

Chapter 740-Molly bit her lips as she anxiously asked, "What are you going to say if they ask about me?"

"I'll just tell them that you're my fiancée." Sean held her hand tightly with a calm and affirmative expression.

There was nothing for him to hide. Since he took her to the banquet, it already meant that he wanted to tell everyone that Molly was his woman!

Sean had already prepared to show Molly to the world.

When Molly heard him, her eyes started to tear up. The worries she had were immediately wiped out by her man's assurance!

'Yeah, Sean isn't scared, so why should I be afraid?' So, she gathered all the courage she had and entered the banquet hall with Sean.

As soon as they opened the door, everyone's gaze was turned to them.

Sean was in a black suit while Molly was in a white gown. Standing together, they looked incredibly graceful, classy, and sophisticated!

From afar, they looked like a match that was beautifully made in heaven that overshadowed everyone that was present in the banquet hall.

At that moment, someone mumbled in the crowd. "Look, is that Sean Anderson? The heir of the Anderson family?"

"It's really him!" A fancy woman covered her mouth in shock. "God, Sean Anderson is so charming! Even if he's in a wheelchair, he's still gorgeous!"

"But, who's the woman next to him? Have you seen her before?"

"No, but she's really pretty. She's probably from some rich family, right?"

Many remarks were echoing in Molly's ears.

Molly thought that she would be extremely nervous. After all, it was her first time making such a grand appearance as Sean's girlfriend.

However, she was not scared at all. No matter how many eyes were on her in the banquet hall, she was still unbothered.

Sean sensed Molly's steadiness and smiled.

He was starting to think that Molly had a special power.

Although she looked gentle and soft, she would always have everything under control when the situation called for it!

Sean's lips curled into a smile when he thought of this, and there was a hint of happiness in his eyes.

Then, Sean took Molly to his parents and greeted them, "Dad, mom, Mr. Herring. Sr.."

Alice and Ricky immediately turned around and saw that Molly had come together with Sean.

When Alice saw Molly, her eyes lingered on her for a few seconds.

'If Joelle's look was elegant and beautiful today, Molly's look was simply out of this world!' Molly was so breathtakingly lovely that she would leave people in awe!

Alice paused for a moment before she greeted Sean. "Sean, you're here."

She then looked at Molly and smiled gently. "You made it too, Miss May."

Molly was stunned for a while.

She was already prepared to be insulted by Alice, so she wondered, 'Why is she acting so differently to me today?' 'Is it because she didn't want to embarrass me in front of so many people?' Molly nodded politely and softly said, "Good evening, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson."

Alice nodded in satisfaction. The way she looked at Molly was not as judgemental as before.

She remembered that Molly was the mother of her dearest grandchildren, and she had raised them into such sensible and thoughtful kids!

That was why Alice changed the way she viewed Molly!
