

Triplets On SM 771

Chapter 771-Alice and Ricky knew about the news of Sean returning not long after he went back.

Alice was delighted to know about Sean's return as she tried to convince Ricky, "Ricky, let's find Sean and talk about the kids. We've got to let the triplets officially be a part of our family as soon as possible!"

She visited the triplets almost every day when Molly was not around. The more she spent time with them, the more she liked them!

She just could not wait to tell everybody that she was a grandmother to three children.

So, Alice went right to Sean's office in the evening to talk to him about that.

Boss, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are here!"

Tony popped his head into Sean's office and said respectfully.

Sean slightly arched his brows, looking a little confused. Then, he said, "Let them in." "Yes, boss."

Tony went back out and walked Sean's parents into the office. "Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, this way, please."

Alice and Ricky nodded and walked into the office. Then, Alice smiled warmly at Sean, "My son, you're back.

Why didn't Molly come back with you?"

Sean responded flatly without hesitating, "She still has something to take care of, so she'll be staying there for a while longer."

"I see."

Alice nodded. After that, she started talking about what she came here for. "Sean, we came all the way here today to talk to you about something.

"We spent a lot more time with the kids recently, and we found out that we genuinely like the triplets. And, we would like to have more chances to know them better. What do you think?"

Sean heard Alice's words and calmly said, "That's fine by me. However, how are you planning to do that?"

It would not be a problem if Alice and Ricky wanted to go to Molly's house more often.

However, Sean knew that Molly and her family would never agree to it if they thought about bringing the triplets back to the Anderson Residence instead!

"I don't really have a plan for that. I just thought that maybe I can bring them back to our house to stay for a few days to spend some time with me and your father whenever they're free. That'd be great," Alice told Sean what was on her mind without hiding anything.

Alice would spend every day of her life hanging out with other wealthy women and enjoying her life before she knew that she had three grandchildren.

They would go for a facial, spa, vacation, yoga, etc.

However, the only thing that she wanted to do after meeting the triplets was to spend time with them!

She really loved the triplets with her whole heart!

And, it would be perfect if the triplets could stay in her house for a couple of days whenever they had the time.

Sean's expression darkened after hearing that as he coldly said, ' Mom, Molly's family are never going to allow that.'

"Yeah. I thought so too."

"What? Why? I just want to spend more time with the kids!" Alice sighed in distress.

Sean could understand Alice's feelings. Then, he suggested after thinking for a moment, "Even though they can't live in our house, it shouldn't be a problem for you to visit them more frequently at theirs.

"Just bring something with you whenever you visit them to express our sincerity. Perhaps Molly and her family would be okay with you hanging around the triplets."

That was the best solution Sean could come up with.

Chapter 772-s don't know that the triplets are your children yet, so there's no way we can let them live in our house! However, I can visit their house personally and perhaps use it as a chance to be closer to them.

"Ricky, let's not waste any more time. We should do this later today. What do you think?"

Alice nudged and persuaded Ricky, who was sitting beside her, with an excited look on her face.

Ricky sighed helplessly. He thought that his wife got so obsessed with the triplets that things started to go out of hand.

However, he was very fond of the triplets too. So, he nodded and agreed with Alice.

Late in the afternoon, Ricky and Alice went to Molly's house with some gifts.

Grandpa Dave had no idea that they were coming as he scolded Brycen in the living room.

Brycen was so clumsy that he knocked over a set of Grandpa Dave's teaware and shattered everything.

Grandpa Dave was furious!

That collection was a gift from Molly, and it was his favorite one!

Grandpa Dave ripped into Brycen as Brycen kept apologizing, "Grandpa, I'm so sorry. I'll be more careful next time. I promise I won't break any more of your things!"

'What about the teaware then?' Grandpa Dave was not being unreasonable. However, he just could not help it when he looked at the shattered tea wares on the floor.

'I'll get you a new set! I promise I'll buy you a brand-new one and the finest one! Trust me!' Brycen stuck two of his thumbs up while asking for Grandpa Dave's forgiveness.

Grandpa Dave scoffed and finally forgave him. "Clean up the floor. We're going to eat soon."

'Sure, grandpa!' Brycen quickly went to do as he said.

Then, the butler came inside in a hurry and told Grandpa Dave, "Sir, Mr.

Sean's parents are here!"

Grandpa Dave was shocked to hear that.

He recollected himself and his expression changed. 'What brought them here?

'They talked to Molly and Lara before and told them that they didn't want their son to be with Molly.

'But, why would they come here today?' Grandpa Dave got angry. Even though he was old, it did not mean that he was a soft touch. He would never allow it to happen if Ricky and Alice came here to tell Molly to leave Sean.

However, Grandpa Dave did not stop them from coming inside the house. ' Let them in."

"Yes, sir."

Then, the butler politely welcomed Alice and Ricky into the house.

Coincidentally, Brycen came out of the kitchen at that time, and he saw them walking in. His face turned cold.

'What are they doing here?' "Hello, Mr. May Sr. It's our first time visiting, and we didn't even let you know beforehand. We're so sorry."

Alice took a step forward with Ricky and greeted Grandpa Dave respectfully.

They were so courteous that they did not seem like they were here to cause trouble.

Grandpa Dave was a little surprised. However, he did not turn friendly right away as he indifferently said while looking serious, "Mr. and Mrs.

Anderson, may I know what's the purpose of your unexpected visit today?' 'Ah. We don't have a particular purpose. We simply wanted to pay you a visit."

Alice said politely. After all, Grandpa Dave was older than her. So, she spoke in a very gentle and respectful manner.

Chapter 773-Mr. May Sr., these are saffron, truffles, top-grade tea, and some supplements I told my friends to buy from overseas. Please accept it as a gift from US."

Alice smiled and said humbly. Her grace and elegance made her look like a duchess that came right out of a classical painting.

Grandpa Dave was shocked. He could not accept such an expensive gift for no reason, so he waved his hand to reject them. "Mrs. Anderson, you're too kind. I'm still pretty healthy, and I don't need so many supplements. Please take them back."

"These are for you. We're not going to take them back."

Alice left no room for Grandpa Dave to reject her gift as she continued to say with a bright smile, "Besides, this is our first time coming here. Please don't reject US and accept it, Mr. May Sr."

Things would be awkward if Grandpa Dave continued to reject Alice after what she said.

So, he quickly told the butler to pour Alice and Ricky some tea.

Alice and Ricky smiled and thanked Grandpa Dave after the tea was served. Then, they cut to the chase, "Mr.

May Sr., I wonder if the kids are here?"

"They're upstairs. My brother is teaching them how to draw," Brycen interrupted.

Alice smiled warmly after knowing the triplets were learning how to draw. ' The triplets are very smart, and they're just like Sean when he was young. They are already so good at calligraphy, computers, etc. when they're just little kids. I'm sure they'll be very successful when they grow up."

She paused for a second before she continued, "Mr. May Sr., actually, the triplets are one of the reasons we're here today."

"Oh?"

Grandpa Dave and Brycen were shocked. Both of them initially thought that Alice came here to talk about Molly and Sean. They did not see this coming at all.

“Here’s the thing…”

Alice realized that Grandpa Dave was waiting for her to continue speaking, so she told him what was on her mind honestly without hiding anything. ‘My husband and I have been thinking about a lot of things for some time. Fate had brought Ms. May and Sean together, and there was really no reason for me to break them up.

“Besides, all three of Ms. May’s children are very adorable and nice. I like them very much, so I hope that I can have the opportunity to spend more time with them in the future. It would be great if I could bring the kids back for dinner or anything like that… What do you think?”

Grandpa Dave and Brycen were very surprised after hearing what Alice said.

‘What? Am I hearing her correctly?’ Brycen dug his ear before asking in disbelief, “Mrs. Anderson, are you serious?”

“Of course! I like the triplets very much. I would always feel very warm whenever I’m around them as if they were my own grandchildren. So, I want to spend more time with them.”

Alice was not trying to hide how much she liked the triplets. The genuine smile on her well-maintained and moisturized face just could not be faked.

Brycen got even more confused. ‘This isn’t right at all!’ he thought to himself.

‘Mrs. Anderson should dislike the triplets judging from how much she hated Molly. Why is she…

‘What’s going on?’ “Grandpa, grandma!”

The triplet's loud voice could be heard from upstairs suddenly.

They ran out of the study room. They felt very excited after knowing that their grandparents came to visit as they strode with their tiny feet and ran downstairs. Then, they went right into Alice and Ricky's arms

Chapter 774-'Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, why are you here?' The triplets said with joyful smiles across their adorable faces.

Alice held the triplets in her arms and spoke in a doting tone, "To visit my darlings, of course. Did you miss US?"

"Yeah!" The triplets shouted happily.

Alice and Ricky were so happy that they smiled from ear to ear.

Grandpa Dave and Brycen were extremely surprised to see what had just happened.

'When did these kids become so close with the Andersons?' Alice cuddled the triplets for a while before recollecting herself to start discussing with Grandpa Dave. "Mr.

May Sr., you can probably already tell that we share a rather good relationship with the triplets. So, would you consider letting US spend more time with them as I've suggested just now?' 'Great-grandpa, we would love to spend more time with them too. Please don't reject them." the triplets tried to help Alice.

Grandpa Dave was slightly surprised as he did not expect the triplets would be this close to Alice. However, that was not his decision to make alone. After all, Molly was the person who should be giving them permission to do so.

Then, Grandpa Dave thought about it for a moment before he calmly answered, "Mrs. Anderson, I understand how much you like the triplets, but it has to be Molly's decision whether you can spend more time with them.

However, she went overseas to work. We don't mind if you want to come here and spend time with them these few days, but..."

'Please go ahead!' Alice smiled and patiently waited for Grandpa Dave to continue.

Grandpa Dave did not beat around the bush and asked Alice directly, "I want to know what you think of Molly."

After all, Alice did not agree with Sean being together with Molly previously, but now she wanted to spend more time with the triplets.

Grandpa Dave had no idea what was going on in the Andersons' minds.

'I understand what you're worried about, Mr. May Sr.'

Alice could get the reason why Grandpa Dave asked her that right away. She understood that he wanted to know more about what she really thought about Molly.

There was no reason for Alice to hide anything at this point, so she frankly said, "Mr. May Sr., I'm not going to deny how unhappy I was when Molly first got together with Sean, but I found out that she has a lot of good traits that I didn't know about before getting to know her more! Besides, Sean and Molly didn't meet each other by chance, but it was fate. So, I don't see a reason why I should break them up.

'I think I'll probably give them my blessings if they've really decided to spend the rest of their lives with each other.'

Alice said honestly, and she meant what she said with all her heart.

She was not going to stop Sean from being together with Molly anymore. She even hoped that they could get married as soon as possible.

That way, the triplets would officially be her grandchildren!

Grandpa Dave was very confused. He thought that Alice's view had changed too quickly as she was still against Molly and Sean being together just a few days ago. He just could not figure out why Alice was willing to accept Molly so suddenly.

Even though Grandpa Dave had questions, he kept quiet. Then, he continued to entertain Alice since she spoke so courteously.

He even walked Alice out personally when she was leaving with Ricky.

Grandpa Dave only took the triplets to the living room to question them after Alice and Ricky had left the house.

Brycen put on a stern face while he advised them, but he somehow looked funny.

The triplets looked at each other after hearing them. Then, they decided to let Alex answer them.

Alex spoke calmly, "Uncle Brycen, great-grandpa, we weren't bribed by Mr. and Mrs. Anderson at all. We really enjoy being together with them!

"Besides, Daddy and Mommy are going to get married sooner or later. We're just trying to get to know our future grandparents a little more when we have the chance. It would be even better if we could soften Mrs.

Anderson's heart, so she could accept Mommy and treat her better!"

"Yeah. He's right."

Ben and Claudia nodded. "Exactly! This is what we were trying to say!"

“Really?”

Brycen was puzzled, but he chose to believe them anyway. Then, he reminded the triplets, “Babies, I don’t have a problem with you staying in touch with them, but you can’t hide it from US if they ever mistreat you or talk bad about your Mommy, okay?”

“After all, your mom sacrificed a lot to raise you. You better not break her heart.”

“Uncle Brycen, we’re aware of that.”

The triplets did not need Brycen to tell them that. They would always put Molly first no matter how well Alice and Ricky treated them!

The triplets would not choose to be with Alice and Ricky if they did not like Molly.

Brycen smiled pleasantly, and he pinched the triplets’ cheeks. “I knew you guys are the nicest kids ever!”

The triplets immediately pushed Brycen away scornfully. “Uncle Brycen, stop doing that. You’re going to ruin our faces.”

“Heh heh,” Brycen chuckled shamelessly as he continued to mess with the triplets.

Grandpa Dave, who was sitting at the side, furrowed his thick brows. He was still a little puzzled.

‘Why are the triplets so fond of the Andersons all of a sudden?’

‘Even though the triplets like to play and eat a lot, they are very opinionated when it comes to serious matters.’

The triplets could never be bought over by them if Alice didn’t like Molly, no matter how many toys or food she gave them.

■So...

'Something's not right.' Grandpa Dave wondered to himself and decided to talk to Sean about it and find out what was really happening.

In the evening, Sean came to the mansion to visit the triplets after work.

"Uncle Sean!" The triplets ran straight into Sean's arms excitedly.

Sean lifted his hand to brush the triplets' heads and gently asked, "Did you guys behave well at home today?"

"Yes," the triplets replied unanimously. Then, they widened their big dark eyes before they curiously asked, "Uncle Sean, did Mommy call you? Did she say when she'll be coming back?"

Sean smiled faintly and asked them, "Do you miss her?"

"Yeah. We miss her very much. You're already back, but why is she still over there?"

The triplets felt a little sad when they thought of how Molly was still overseas, and they did not know when they would see her again.

Chapter 775-

Brycen put on a stern face while he advised them, but he somehow looked funny.

The triplets looked at each other after hearing them. Then, they decided to let Alex answer them.

Alex spoke calmly, "Uncle Brycen, great-grandpa, we weren't bribed by Mr. and Mrs. Anderson at all. We really enjoy being together with them!

"Besides, Daddy and Mommy are going to get married sooner or later. We're just trying to get to know our future grandparents a little more when we have the chance. It would be even better if we could soften Mrs.

Anderson's heart, so she could accept Mommy and treat her better!"

"Yeah. He's right."

Ben and Claudia nodded. "Exactly! This is what we were trying to say!"

"Really?"

Brycen was puzzled, but he chose to believe them anyway. Then, he reminded the triplets, "Babies, I don't have a problem with you staying in touch with them, but you can't hide it from US if they ever mistreat you or talk bad about your Mommy, okay?"

"After all, your mom sacrificed a lot to raise you. You better not break her heart."

"Uncle Brycen, we're aware of that."

The triplets did not need Brycen to tell them that. They would always put Molly first no matter how well Alice and Ricky treated them!

The triplets would not choose to be with Alice and Ricky if they did not like Molly.

Brycen smiled pleasantly, and he pinched the triplets' cheeks. "I knew you guys are the nicest kids ever!"

The triplets immediately pushed Brycen away scornfully. "Uncle Brycen, stop doing that. You're going to ruin our faces."

"Heh heh," Brycen chuckled shamelessly as he continued to mess with the triplets.

Grandpa Dave, who was sitting at the side, furrowed his thick brows. He was still a little puzzled.

'Why are the triplets so fond of the Andersons all of a sudden?

'Even though the triplets like to play and eat a lot, they are very opinionated when it comes to serious matters.

The triplets could never be bought over by them if Alice didn't like Molly, no matter how many toys or food she gave them.

■So...

'Something's not right.' Grandpa Dave wondered to himself and decided to talk to Sean about it and find out what was really happening.

In the evening, Sean came to the mansion to visit the triplets after work.

"Uncle Sean!" The triplets ran straight into Sean's arms excitedly.

Sean lifted his hand to brush the triplets' heads and gently asked, "Did you guys behave well at home today?"

"Yes," the triplets replied unanimously. Then, they widened their big dark eyes before they curiously asked, "Uncle Sean, did Mommy call you? Did she say when she'll be coming back?"

Sean smiled faintly and asked them, "Do you miss her?"

“Yeah. We miss her very much. You’re already back, but why is she still over there?”

The triplets felt a little sad when they thought of how Molly was still overseas, and they did not know when they would see her again.

Chapter 776-e filled with anticipation.

Sean nodded lightly.

The triplets were relieved as their face lit up once again.

At that moment, Grandpa Dave came downstairs and walked slowly to Sean before smiling gently at him.

“You’re here, Sean.

“You came at the right time. I have a few things to talk about with you. Come with me, please.” Grandpa Dave then turned to the backyard.

Sean did not understand what was going on, but he quickly followed Grandpa Dave in his wheelchair.

There were many trees in the backyard with leaves that had turned yellow as they were transitioning to the fall season. As the wind blew, the leaves would dance in the sky and paint a beautiful picture of the backyard.

Sean did not know what Grandpa Dave wanted to talk about, so he politely asked, “Grandpa, if you have something to say to me, please don’t hesitate.”

“Sean...” Grandpa Dave did not beat around the bush and directly said, “Your mother came here today.”

Sean did not look shocked at all, as he was the one who got his mother to visit them.

He paused for a few seconds and politely asked, "Grandpa, did my mother say anything that crossed the line?"

"Oh, of course not."

Grandpa Dave shook his head and was slightly hunching next to the tree. He then continued slowly, "Your mother brought many expensive gifts for us and said that she wants to be closer to the triplets. She hopes that we can understand. I didn't say anything at that time, but I find it slightly strange.

"Your mother has never liked Molly, she even went to Molly's mother to threaten her to get Molly away from you!

"But lo and behold, she is now saying that she likes the triplets all of a sudden. She even said that she approved of your relationship with Molly. I really don't understand what she's thinking. That's why I want to ask you about it."

Grandpa Dave let out a soft sigh as he really could not understand Mrs. Anderson's doings. 'Why did she change so quickly?' When Sean listened to Grandpa Dave, he finally understood what he wanted to talk about.

In other words, Grandpa Dave did not know that Alex, Ben, and Claudia were all Sean's children. So, it was only understandable that Grandpa Dave was doubtful of Sean's mother's abrupt change.

At this point, Sean did not have to hide anymore, so he told Grandpa Dave about the entire situation truthfully.

"Grandpa, the truth is, the kids and I have a secret. We didn't tell you, so I hope you can be mentally prepared. Don't get too shocked."

"Oh?" Grandpa Dave looked at Sean curiously.

Sean's eyes met with Grandpa Dave's curious gaze as he confessed," Actually, I'm Alex, Ben, and Claudia's father."

Grandpa Dave was stupefied when he heard Sean.

He thought Sean was joking, so he shook his head and denied it. ' Impossible, Sean. I know you like the kids and are willing to be their father, but you can't joke about this."

"I'm not joking, grandpa. I'm serious. I took a DNA test with the kids, and it verified that they are indeed my kids."

Sean said seriously with a stern look. He really did not look like he was joking.

Chapter 777-"A few years ago, I met Molly by accident and got her pregnant unintentionally. But, after that, I couldn't seem to find her at all. That's why I didn't know that I was their father in the beginning. This was until the kids approached me and told me the truth. That's when I was certain that they were mine.

"So, grandpa. I'm really not joking. I truly want to marry Molly and make her my one and only wife."

Sean's voice was deep and stable as he told Grandpa Dave about everything with an extremely affirmative tone.

Grandpa Dave was convinced at that point. After all, Sean had already mentioned that they had taken a DNA test. It was possible for Sean to blabber and lie, but science would never be wrong.

'So, is Sean really their father?

'Are Alice and Ricky their grandfather?

'Is that why Alice has completely changed her attitude?' Grandpa Dave was incredibly shocked as his mind went blank for quite a while.

Sean could understand his feeling. When he just found out that he was the triplet's father, he shared the same feeling as Grandpa Dave.

However, he had to tell Grandpa Dave right now. "Grandpa, Molly and I didn't get together back then because of our twisted fate, which is why she had to suffer so much overseas, all by herself. I'm very guilty about that. If I can, I wish I could marry Molly as soon as possible. That way, I can repay her for everything that I owe her from the start.

"And, the kids are my flesh and blood. I hope they can come back to the Anderson family.

I will definitely give them the best life that they can have!"

Grandpa Dave listened as he furrowed his brows. He was having mixed feelings.

The May family had always borne a grudge against the man that got Molly pregnant!

After all, he disappeared right after he impregnated her.

As a girl, Molly had to escape to another country alone and work so hard to raise her kids!

She had to suffer for many years, and it was no thanks to that man!

Funnily, that man was close at hand all this time.

"Sean, you have to be mentally prepared. If Molly knew that you were the man who abandoned her, she probably wouldn't forgive you that easily."

Grandpa Dave thought about it and advised Sean after he sorted out his thoughts.

"I know, grandpa."

Sean understood Grandpa Dave's worries. He had already prepared himself for it, so he vowed to Grandpa Dave and said, "No matter how much Molly hates me, I'll accept it.

After all, I was the one who wronged her! But, from here on out, as long as I'm with her, I will never let her suffer anymore. I will treat her right. Please believe me!"

Sean said that in an assuring and upright manner.

Grandpa Dave believed in Sean, so he said, "Alright. Since you gave me your word, I can stop worrying already. At the end of the day, it's a good thing that the kids have finally found their father!"

"Yeah, but can you do me a favor and keep this from Molly for now?" Sean lowered his voice and pleaded.

Grandpa Dave immediately objected to it and said, "Now, why would I do that? Sean, since you've decided to take care of Molly, you should tell her about this, not hide it from her."

"You're right, grandpa. But, I'm just worried that Molly would not be able to accept me if she finds out that I was the man who put her through all of this."

Sean explained in a low voice.

Chapter 778-o lines.

Grandpa Dave had thought about the big picture and continued, "The way I see it, you should find a chance to tell Molly about this when she comes back. I know that girl. She will be angry at you for some time, but since you're the father of the kids and you did not abandon her intentionally, she wouldn't blame you too much.

"When she's back, just try your best to make up to her, and you'll definitely reconcile."

If Sean continued to delay this, he might continue delaying this for God knows how long.

Grandpa Dave believed that if Sean was really regretful, he should have come clean to Molly earlier and used his time and actions to mend Molly's heart.

"Okay, grandpa."

Sean understood that Grandpa Dave was doing what was best for him, so he did not fight back and said, "When Molly comes back from abroad, I'll find a time to tell her the truth."

"All right." Grandpa Dave nodded and ended the conversation.

However, he was still shocked. 'Who would've known that Sean is the triplet's father?!' Such fate is a one-in-a-million thing.

On the other hand, Molly was completely unaware of this.

In the blink of an eye, she had already spent nearly twenty days overseas. She was so busy that she wanted to vomit every day. On top of that, she missed the children a lot.

She just felt like minutes had become hours over there.

However, the project was coming to an end!

After a short amount of time, she can finally breathe.

But, Molly did not know that Jadon had kept her fatigue under his eyes.

From his perspective, Molly was always exceptionally serious when she worked. But, during lunch hour, she would always pull out her phone and stare at the triplet's picture.

It seemed like she really missed her kids.

Jadon was elderly, so he could really understand Molly's feelings when she missed her children. So, when work was less hectic that day, he walked over to Molly and tapped on her shoulder.

"Molly."

"Mr. Scott?"

Molly was looking at her phone when she was pulled back to reality. She locked her phone screen and smiled at Jadon. "Are you done with work?"

Jadon nodded kindly and said, "I've been busy the whole morning, so I'm taking a break now."

Then, he pointed to her phone, "Was that your children's picture on your phone just now?"

Let me see how much they've grown."

"Sure."

Molly smiled and unlocked her phone screen to show Jadon the picture of her kids.

Jadon saw that the triplets looked adorable and endearing, so he could not help but chuckle and stroke his beard. "The kids are all grown up. They're all so pretty and cute.

Their eyes sparkle, and I know they're intelligent kids with just one look. Molly, you've raised them well!"

“You flatter me, Mr. Scott.”

Molly smiled humbly and continued, “But, these kids are really sensible and well-behaved.

I never have to worry about them!”

Jadon nodded and suggested warmly, “Molly, if you miss the kids, I can give you a two-day leave. Go back and see your kids.”

“Huh? But, we’re not done with our research yet.” Molly was slightly stunned.

Jadon waved and comforted her, “It’s no rush? I think this research still has to go on for about two weeks before we can finally wrap it up. Since we don’t have many things to do now, you should go back and visit the kids. It’s no harm done.”

Chapter 779-“You can go back to your family for two days and return here after that, okay?”

Mainly, Dr. Scott could not bear to see Molly missing her children so much. It was as though she had lost her spirit, and she probably felt very unhappy!

It was better for Molly to return to her family and readjust herself for two days and return.

The matters at hand could wait.

As soon as Molly heard she could go home, she smiled happily and said, ‘Thank you so much, Dr. Scott. I really missed the children, and I wanted to go back and see them.

“But, don’t worry. I won’t go back for too long. It will be just a day or two, and I’ll rush back immediately to continue the research.”

"I'm glad to hear that!" said Dr. Scott.

Dr. Scott nodded with a smile and patted Molly on the shoulder. Then, he said, "Quickly pack your things and go home. I'll wait for your return!"

"Yes, Dr. Scott," said Molly. After that, she excitedly took off her white lab coat and ran back to the hotel happily.

At the hotel, Molly first booked a flight back to Norlon on the internet.

Then, she immediately packed her things, planning to catch the nearest flight back in the afternoon.

Of course, Molly did not tell Sean and the children about her coming back. She wanted to give them a surprise!

After that, Molly boarded the flight and returned home in the afternoon!

When the plane landed in Norlon, it was already six o'clock the following day.

Molly pulled her luggage, stopped a cab on the side of the road, and went straight home.

While Molly was in the cab, she looked at her calendar on her phone and realized that today was the weekend. She figured that Sean and her children should all be at home.

Thinking of that, Molly could not help feeling even better, and the smile on her face brightened.

Molly went to the mall halfway and bought her children's favorite cake before she headed home.

Molly pictured seeing her three children in a while, thinking they would fly into her arms.

That would make her very happy.

Unexpectedly, when Molly reached home while holding her luggage, there was no one there.

Molly hurriedly asked the housekeeper, "Where's Grandpa, Brycen, and the children?

Where are they?"

"Miss, you're back!" The housekeeper nodded and greeted her. Then, the housekeeper said truthfully, "The old master went to the chess club in the city today to play a game of chess with his friends. Master Brycen said that he had an appointment today and went out earlier in the morning. As for the children, I'm not sure where they went. They are probably next door."

"I see," said Molly.

Molly rejoiced too soon. She quickly picked herself up again and headed toward the next villa.

However, there was no one in the villa next door as well.

"That's odd. where did everyone go today?" Molly murmured doubtfully.

At that time, Sean's housekeeper came out from the kitchen and saw that Molly was back. The housekeeper immediately greeted Molly. "Ms. May, you're back? The young master is doing his rehabilitation in the backyard!"

'So, Sean is doing his rehabilitation!' Molly nodded with a smile and said, "Thanks."

Then, she walked to the backyard and saw Sean slowly practicing his walking with Tony's help at a glance.

The sun's rays fell on Sean like a layer of divine brilliance plated around him.

Sean did not notice Molly's appearance. At that moment, Sean was moving step by step with Tony's help.

Based on Sean's sluggish movements, it could be seen that he had been training really hard. Even though he used all his strength, he could only move two or three steps with difficulty.

And, each step was challenging for Sean to move.

Sweat slid down slowly from Sean's face to his delicate collarbone, revealing a wild presence. But, it was a heartbreaking scene in Molly's eyes.

Chapter 780-Seeing Sean moving slowly and with difficulty, Molly felt uncomfortable in her heart. Her eyes were inexplicably red, and tears gradually filled her eyes.

'These two steps are not easy for Sean! It's incredible!

'His legs and feet are recovering little by little, and I believe he will be able to walk as freely as a normal person soon,' Molly thought.

Molly was touched and heartfelt. She was happy for Sean.

Sean had no idea that Molly was standing behind him at that moment.

After taking a few steps, Sean could feel his legs and feet more than before. His deep eyes could not help but reveal a bit of joy.

Tony was overjoyed to see that Sean was gradually able to walk!

"Boss, that's wonderful. You can finally walk on your own!" Tony shouted excitedly.

Sean smiled and seemed to be in a good mood. But, he still coldly said, "I can barely take two steps. It's nothing."

"That's progress!" Tony's eyes lit up with excitement. He added, "You can walk two steps today, maybe even more tomorrow. And in time, you will be able to recover completely!"

"Really? Thanks for the wish," Sean replied indifferently. But, in his heart, he was looking forward to the day when he regained his ability to walk again.

Sean could get down on one knee when that day comes and propose to Molly.

"Ahem!"

After watching silently for a long time, Molly finally made a sound.

When Sean heard the sound, he looked back and saw that Molly had suddenly appeared in front of him, and he was stunned.

'Isn't she supposed to be in Fomanesia?' Sean thought.

"Why are you so surprised to see me?" Molly asked.

Molly smiled as she saw how stunned Sean was. She moved two steps forward and congratulated him. "Congratulations, Sean. I'm thrilled and proud to see you being able to stand up again!"

Sean only returned to his senses after he confirmed that he was not hallucinating and that Molly had come back.

Sean suddenly smiled and softly said, "Why are you back?"

Molly shrugged and said, "Dr. Scott gave me two days off. I missed my children greatly, so I came back to see them."

After Molly said that, She deliberately sneered, "Why do you sound like you don't want to see me come back here? If that's the case, I'll leave." She then turned around.

"No!"

Sean subconsciously reached out and grabbed Molly's hand, but his feet were unstable.

So, he fell uncontrollably toward Molly.

"Sean!"

"Boss!"

Molly and Tony were both startled. Fortunately, Molly reached out and caught Sean, holding him firmly in her arms.

Molly breathed a sigh of relief, but her expression turned ugly the next second. Sean's sturdy physique almost overwhelmed her!

"Tony, g-give me a hand." Molly hurriedly called out for Tony.

Molly finally felt relieved after helping Sean sit down and said, "What are you so anxious about? I'm not really leaving."

Sean managed to sit still. He looked into Molly's black eyes with evident reluctance. He said, "You've finally come back, and I was worried you'd leave again."

Sean's voice was deep and soothing.

After Molly heard Sean say that, she felt uncomfortable in her heart again.

She quickly reassured him, "Of course I won't leave. I came back this time to see you and the children. I can't bear to leave."