

Triplets On SM 791

Chapter 791-As soon as they heard what Molly said, the three little ones' faces drooped down. They said, "If Mommy doesn't go, then we won't go either. Uncle Sean's tickets will be wasted."

"Well..." Molly suddenly felt guilty and a little unbearable.

"Why not let Uncle Brycen stay here?" Alex enthusiastically suggested.

'Uncle Brycen has nothing to do in the afternoon, so let Uncle Brycen watch over Uncle Sawyer.' Alex thought.

Brycen was eating next to Alex, yet he was being pointed out. Brycen shook his head repeatedly and said, "No. Please have mercy on me. I was here all afternoon yesterday, and I almost died of boredom.

"Besides, didn't we agree to switch shifts at three o'clock in the afternoon, Molly? Five hours per shift!"

"Yeah. Just forget it." Molly did not want Brycen to be tired, so she helped by putting in good words for him.

The three little ones insisted, "No!"

"Uncle Brycen, why can't you let Mommy go to a concert she wanted after she finally came back from abroad? You are so petty!"

"I-I. How was I being petty?" Brycen asked.

Brycen was also very helpless. He was not someone who could calm down. If Brycen had to stay in the hospital and could not go anywhere, he would only feel suffocating!

But, Brycen could not bear to let Molly stay, look after Sawyer, and missed out on going to the concert.

After thinking for a while, Brycen compromised in frustration. He said, "Well, I'll stay here to take care of Sawyer. Since Sawyer has woken up, it won't be too boring when he can talk to me."

"It's okay," said Sawyer.

When Sawyer heard Brycen say that, Sawyer felt very uncomfortable. He immediately rejected, "Molly, go to the concert with Mr. Anderson. And Brycen, you can also attend to your matters. Let the housekeeper look after me. I'll be fine."

"Since I'm already awake anyway, nothing will happen. So, don't worry about me."

After Sawyer said that, a soft smile appeared on his face. It was as if it was to appease and show everyone that he was really fine.

"No, Sawyer. I can still..." said Molly.

"Go!" said Sawyer.

Molly wanted to stay, but Sawyer refuted, "If your life is affected by being with me, I won't be happy. Besides, I have nothing to do here. You only need to come to visit me occasionally. That's all."

"That's settled. Hurry up and eat. After you finish, leave quickly. I want to read a book by myself."

After Sawyer finished speaking, he lowered his head and concentrated on eating.

Molly did not know what to say, so she lowered her head to eat.

After everyone had finished their meal, Sawyer hurriedly drove everyone out of the ward.

He said, "Go on already. I'm going to sleep for a while. You can come and visit me later."

"Alright," said Molly.

Molly had no choice, so she and Sean left the hospital with the children.

As soon as they walked to the door, they bumped into an unexpected guest.

Sharon walked toward the hospital wearing a black coat and scarf.

The weather turned bad recently, and Sharon caught a cold and had a headache every day.

Sharon did not expect to bump into Molly and the others. She immediately said in surprise, "Mr. Anderson? Ms. May?"

Sean and Molly both froze. They looked at Sharon with a bit of alienation in their cold eyes and said, "Ms. Newman."

'Why are you at the hospital? Are you not feeling well, Mr. Anderson?' Sharon asked.

Sharon saw Sean sitting in a wheelchair, and everyone else was safe. So, she assumed that Sean was not feeling well and needed to go to the hospital for consultation.

Chapter 792-Sean did not want to entertain Sharon, so he briefly replied, "No, I came to visit a friend who was hospitalized here. If there's nothing else, please excuse US, Ms. Newman."

"Okay, I'll see you around." Sharon was too embarrassed to hold Sean back, so she could only watch them leave.

Sharon did not rush into the hospital, but she stood at the door and watched Sean and Molly get into the car together.

After the car was gone, Sharon immediately took out her cell phone and opened her conversation with Joelle as she walked into the hospital.

Since the last time Sharon and Joelle got to know each other at the Herrings' banquet, the two had been frequently chatting.

After conversing with each other for some time, Sharon and Joelle had become besties.

Sharon texted, [Joelle, guess who I saw in the hospital just now?] Within five minutes, Joelle replied, [Who?], followed by a puzzled emoji.

Sharon typed with a cold expression, [I saw Mr. Anderson, Molly, and Molly's three children! They were together, and they seemed very close. I'm so speechless. Why aren't they breaking up?] Joelle furrowed on the other end of the line when she saw Sharon's reply. Then, Joelle replied decisively, [Why are they at the hospital? Is it because Mr. Anderson was not feeling well?] Sharon shook her head and replied, [No. Mr. Anderson said that he came to the hospital to visit a friend. But, I don't get it. If he's coming to visit a friend, why did he bring Molly and her children along? Are they so lovey-dovey that they are inseparable wherever they go?] "That's so disgusting!" said Joelle.

Joelle was so angry that her veins popped up. She replied, [It must be Molly who's always sticking herself to Mr. Anderson. No matter where she goes, she wants to occupy Mr. Anderson, she's so annoying.] Sharon replied, [I know, right? But, what can we do? That woman clings to Mr. Anderson, and neither of us can approach him!] The more Sharon and Joelle texted each other, the more helpless they felt.

Sharon and Joelle liked Sean invariably, but they did not understand what made Molly deserve Sean. They both wished that Molly would just die.

Sharon sighed and texted, [I'll come to you later. Let's meet up and discuss how to deal with Molly?] [Sure.] Joelle replied.

Half an hour later, Sharon and Joelle met up in a coffee shop.

Sharon once again described the moment when Sean and Molly were together to Joelle and sighed, "I don't understand why Sean likes a woman like Molly. She had given birth to children before, and the father's identity is a mystery. To be honest, doesn't that mean she had given birth to three b* stards? Why does Sean want to be the stepfather?"

Joelle's expression turned ugly with anger. She growled, "I've seen women like Molly a lot. She was not decent when she was young and got pregnant before getting married.

When she reaches a certain age, she will make a big fortune out of it and be worry-free for the rest of her life. It's disgusting to even think about it.

"Good news is that I don't think Mrs. Anderson would allow Molly to marry into the Anderson family because she had given birth to children before.

As Joelle said that, Sharon breathed a sigh of relief. As long as Mrs. Anderson was alive, Molly and Sean would probably not be able to settle down.

In other words, Joelle and Sharon were not hopeless after all!

Unexpectedly, Joelle sighed heavily and broke off from her fantasy. She said, "You're overthinking. Mrs. Anderson no longer rejects Molly."

Chapter 793-"What?!" Sharon was taken aback.

Joelle was speechless. She shrugged and said, "You heard it right. Mrs. Anderson used to dislike Molly. But, she seemed to have gradually accepted Molly now."

Joelle remembered that when she first returned to Norlon, Mrs. Anderson was very optimistic about her and Sean. Mrs. Anderson even created many opportunities for Joelle to connect with Sean.

However, Joelle found out that Mrs. Anderson's attitude toward her had changed when Joelle went to the Andersons' residence after she was discharged from the hospital last time.

Although Mrs. Anderson looked enthusiastic on the surface, she was no longer welcoming. Mrs. Anderson may still praise Joelle, but Mrs.

Anderson would no longer talk about the affairs of Joelle and Sean.

Even at the Herring family's banquet, Mrs. Anderson cared more about Molly than Joelle.

Because of that, Joelle could sense that the crisis had reached its peak in her heart.

Joelle estimated that it would be challenging to start with Mrs. Anderson.

'Goodness. How could this have happened? That's impossible! Molly has already given birth to three children. How could Mrs. Anderson still accept her?' asked Sharon.

A look of despair appeared on Sharon's face. She never thought that Sean's parents would change their attitude toward Molly and gradually accept her. No one would believe that.

"That's not all. I saw how Sean was surprisingly close to those three children. It's more like they're his flesh and blood, and he takes them with him wherever he goes."

The more Joelle spoke, the angrier she became. It was as though her anger had come out of thin air.

But, in the next second, Joelle thought of something in a trance. She suddenly said in surprise, "Sharon, do you think that there is a possibility that the reason why Sean is willing to accept Molly and be nice to those three children is that they are Sean's children?! "Could it be?" Sharon's expression changed, and she shook her head subconsciously in denial. She said, "I don't think so. If those three children are Sean's, why didn't he take them home and be with his family?"

"As far as I know, the three children still bear Molly's last name. If the children are the Andersons', they should change their last name, right?" Sharon's analysis also made sense.

But, Joelle still found it strange. 'Mrs. Anderson didn't accept Molly back then, but she suddenly treated her even better now. On the contrary, she doesn't even care about me now!

'Unless Molly's three children are really Mrs. Anderson's grandchildren!

'Otherwise, how could Mrs. Anderson have undergone such a big change overnight?' Joelle thought. She suddenly felt that she needed to find out the truth about this matter.

So, Joelle told Sharon, "In these two days, I will find a way to ask Mrs. Anderson to meet up and talk. I'd like to know what Mrs. Anderson thought about Molly and her three children. When the time comes, we will make our move."

"Okay," said Sharon.

Sharon also felt that it was a good idea. As the saying goes, knowing your enemy and yourself could win a hundred battles. It was not too late for them to figure out what Mrs.

Anderson had in mind.

In the afternoon, a grand concert was held at the downtown hall of arts.

Molly and Sean sat in the first few rows of the concert with the children to enjoy the performance up close. They felt extremely comfortable all over.

The ethereal music seemed to bring the few into a romantic and beautiful world. That world was beautiful, and the air was fragrant. The light shone on the dense wood, and the beautiful elks happily surrounded the audience...

After the concert ended, the few felt comfortable both physically and mentally. When the few left, they thought that it was not enough.

Chapter 794-“Did you guys like concerts?” The sunlight was shining on Molly’s body as she walked out of the art hall. It was like she was coated with a layer of light.

The triplets were extremely happy. They grinned so cheerfully that their small white teeth could even be seen. “We like it! We like it better if we can enjoy the concert with Mommy and Uncle.”

if you all like it, I’ll bring you all to more concerts in the future.” Sean’s voice was calm but warm. He enjoyed this sweet moment very much.

They then went to eat after that.

“Order whatever you like, but don’t waste any food,” Molly said.

“We know, Mommy. It’s good to not waste food,” the triplets said at once.

Molly smiled suddenly. ‘The three little ones are all so smart and cute. I love them so much.’ Soon, the food arrived. They then patiently ate at a table near the window.

At the same time, Brycen was sitting across from a girl at a table nearby. There were two black pepper steaks and some dessert on the table.

They had been eating and chatting for a long time. Brycen and Molly did not see each other because their tables were quite far away from each other.

When Molly went to pay for their food, she saw that Brycen was with a girl when he went to pay for his food at the same time.

“Brother, you...” Molly immediately noticed the girl who was standing beside Brycen.

She was very tall and elegant. Her outfit was stylish and beautiful. But, she had a quiet and gentle temperament. She vividly looked like a clingy girl when she was standing beside Brycen.

Molly immediately knew that Brycen was on a date with that girl. She could not help but tease him as she smacked her lips, 'Awesome. Brother, you finally have a girlfriend.'

Brycen blushed when he heard that. He quickly denied, "No. She's not my girlfriend yet.

Don't simply call her that."

He then turned his head to the girl and introduced Molly and Sean. "Hailey, this is my sister, Molly. And, this is her fiancée, Sean Anderson."

"Sean Anderson? Isn't he the CEO of the Anderson Corporation?"

Hailey immediately looked at Sean when she heard his name. She was instantly amazed by his respectable and cold temperament.

'He's so handsome. And, he's as manly as a king. The fact that he's in a wheelchair doesn't affect his manliness at all!' "Do you know him?" Molly was surprised as she glanced at her.

Brycen quickly explained, "Oh, Molly, Hailey is a model. She was the hostess at the Anderson Corporation's opening ceremonies for some of their projects. So, she would've heard of him in the past."

"Oh, alright."

Molly did not speak further. She then kindly stretched her hand out and said, "Hi, I'm Molly. It's rare to see a lady beside my brother. I hope things turn out well for the two of you."

"Hi," Hailey smiled as she said. She then shook Molly's hand.

Brycen fetched Hailey back to her place before he arrived at his home.

Molly teased him right after he entered his house. "Not bad, brother. You've started looking for a girlfriend now! You're finally thinking about one of the major matters of your life now."

Brycen's face was red, and he hurriedly explained, "No, don't misunderstand. I just wanted to make friends with her."

"Oh, really? I thought you wanted her to be your girlfriend. She's actually quite gorgeous.

If she has a good personality, I don't mind her becoming my sister-in-law."

Chapter 795-Brycen had been single for so long that even his sister wanted him to get a girlfriend.

'Quickly get a girl that you're interested in. It'll be better if he can bring her home for my approval. Bring her home to have meals with US every now and then to liven up our house!' However, Brycen was frustrated as he shrugged his shoulders. "It's still up in the air. I feel quite good about the girl today. But, she looked like she wasn't really into me."

The girl seemed like she was not interested in Brycen on the way back home. But, she constantly asked out of curiosity about how Molly and Sean met.

She mentioned that she was very envious of their relationship. She wanted to know about their love story.

Brycen let his guard down. Since he did not have any topic to talk about with Hailey, he told her everything.

'The more I think about it now, the weirder it gets!

'I was the one who went on a date to have a meal with her. Why didn't she ask anything about me?'
"Molly, how do girls act when they're interested in a guy?" Brycen asked puzzledly. He really could not figure it out.

"Hmm... We'll constantly want to chat with you. And, we'll want to spend more time with you. If she takes the initiative to start a conversation with you tonight, she might be interested in you. But, if she doesn't..."

Molly gave Brycen a comforting smile. ' Means it's over."

"All right." Brycen's heart ached a little. This was because the girl did not contact him since he came home.

'I guess it's most likely over!' 'But, it doesn't matter. A man in his thirties is in his prime. I'm not even thirty years old yet.

Moreover, I have a lot to offer. I'm not afraid that I can't find someone that I'm into.' So, he didn't care about it.

Molly did not talk further regarding that matter with him. She then brought her children to shower and sleep.

The next day, Joelle woke up early in the morning.

She planned to meet up with Mrs. Anderson today. So, she applied a facial mask in advance last night for skin care purposes. Her skin was surprisingly good now that she looked in the mirror. She was very satisfied.

She then put on perfect light makeup before she went to the Anderson residence.

Alice woke up very early too.

Ricky went out fishing with his friend early in the morning. She did not like sports like hiking and fishing, as she was worried that the ultraviolet rays would hurt her skin. So, she stayed at home.

But, she did not expect that Joelle would suddenly visit her.

“Joelle, why are you here?” Alice politely greeted Joelle when she saw her entering the house. She tightened the fur coat that she was wearing at the same time. She looked extremely noble and elegant.

“Mrs. Anderson, my friend came back from overseas recently and brought me some very good anti-aging skin care products. I have two sets of those. It works quite well. So, I brought one set for you!”

Joelle smiled as she said that. She was especially generous and well- behaved.

Alice was a little surprised. She smiled as she mannerly said, “Alright. Joelle, you’re so thoughtful. But, I actually have plenty of this kind of skincare product! Come, have a sit.

Alfred, get Joelle a cup of water.”

‘Sure.” Joelle sat down naturally.

Soon, the butler served her a cup of tea.

Alice looked at the white porcelain teacup as she gently said with a smile, “ Joelle, try this tea that I made. The water was from the snow mountain. It’s natural snow water. The tea that I made with this snow water tastes unique, doesn’t it?”

Joelle picked up the teacup and took a sip when she heard that. She nodded, “Mrs.

Anderson, this tea is very sweet.”

Chapter 796-be very patient.

“It’s like life. It’s not easy to be able to meet each other among billions of people, and it’s even harder to be able to live a sweet and happy life together. To do that, the couple must be willing to spend time with each other. And, the two of them need to get along too.

Wouldn’t you agree?”

It seemed like Alice was implying something in her later sentences.

Joelle was not a fool. Mrs. Anderson had never shared this kind of deep thought about life with her in the past.

‘Is Mrs. Anderson trying to tell me that it was fate that brought Molly and Sean to meet each other, and they must be at the right place and at the right time to be together?’

‘Meaning she wants me to move on?’ She glanced at Mrs. Anderson suspiciously as she thought about that, and she saw Mrs.

Anderson smiling. It seemed that this proved what she thought was right.

“Mrs. Anderson, I don’t get it.”

Joelle did not understand her suddenly. She could not hide her curiosity any longer. She curiously asked, “I remember you used to be very friendly whenever you saw me in the past. You even intentionally tried to get Sean and me to be together. But, ever since I was discharged from the hospital, you’ve been treating me slightly differently.”

“I don’t understand, Mrs. Anderson. Did you change your mind?”

She was very straightforward as she asked that.

Joelle wanted to get a definitive answer. She wanted to know if Alice thought there was a chance for Joelle and Sean to be together.

But, Alice's reply disappointed her.

'I didn't change my mind. Joelle, you're still a very good lady. I don't deny that. But, Sean has someone more suitable for him. The Anderson family needs them too. So, I hope you can meet someone better.'

Alice tried her best to say it euphemistically. But, Joelle understood what she meant.

'Them?' Joelle immediately thought of Molly's triplets. She had a strong hunch suddenly. "Mrs.

Anderson, can you tell me why you would accept Molly and her triplets in such a short period?

"You should know better than me that Ms. May's triplets' identities are very ambiguous. If she gets married to Sean, other people will gossip about the Anderson family."

Alice's expression changed when she heard that!

'Gossip?!' 'Alex, Ben, and Claudia are the Anderson family's flesh and blood. They're my sweet grandchildren. Who dares to gossip about the Anderson family?' So, she instantly defended, "No one will dare to criticize my daughter-in-law and my grandchildren with me around."

"Grandchildren? Mrs. Anderson, are you really willing to accept a woman like Molly who got pregnant before marriage? Are you willing to acknowledge the three kids as your own grandchildren?"

Joelle unbelievably insulted them.

She did not think that Alice would be so accepting.

'Impossible. No grandmother in this world would be so accepting. No one would be willing to allow their son to marry a woman who got pregnant before marriage and has three children!' However, Joelle did not expect that what Alice said next would completely surprise her.

Alice inexplicably disliked it when Joelle belittled Molly. She disliked it even more when Joelle demeaned her three grandchildren

Chapter 797-Alice thought it would be fine to tell Joelle since she took her as her friend. So, she explained, "Joelle, don't worry about it. I sure won't acknowledge someone else's children as my grandchildren. I acknowledge the three kids mainly because they're Sean's flesh and blood! So, they're my grandchildren!" Bang!

Joelle was thunderstruck, and she was stunned.

Her guess came true.

'I knew Mrs. Anderson wouldn't suddenly accept Molly and the three b* stards.

'Turns out, the three kids are Sean's children!

'How is that possible?! How is that possible?!' "Mrs. Anderson, are you sure about that?" Joelle asked again, "Did you verify the kids' DNA? Don't just believe what Ms. May said!"

"Of course I've already verified their DNA!"

Somehow, Alice could not help but feel happy as soon as she talked about her grandchildren, "I've verified the triplets' identities. They're definitely Sean's children! I finally have grandchildren.

"But, unfortunately, the three kids still can't acknowledge US as their family for now. I'm worried that Molly still hasn't moved on from what happened in the past. And, I'm also worried that she can't accept Sean. So... we'll have to wait!"

Alice let out a deep breath frustratedly.

Her greatest wish, for now, was that she hoped Molly would not have a big reaction when she found out the kids' identities in the future.

'Indeed, Molly had been through a lot.

'The Anderson family will definitely treat her very well as long as she's willing to let US do so!

'From now on, we'll love and treat Molly and the kids extremely well. We want to remedy the years when we weren't there for them.' "Alright."

Joelle's head was buzzing. She could not speak any further.

The thing that she feared the most had finally happened!

'Molly's kids are Sean's children. They're the Anderson family's descendants. It's so absurd, outrageous, and ridiculous!' Joelle was distracted as she left the Anderson residence. She still had not recovered from what happened.

It was raining but she did not realize when it started.

She was in a terrible state as she walked on the street. She was strolling, but she did not know where she wanted to go.

After she was home, she called Sharon to tell her about the news.

Sharon took a deep breath after hearing what Joelle told her. She was in disbelief as she said, "Molly's kids are Sean's? Oh my god, that means Sean must marry her?"

"It seemed that way. But, apparently, Molly still doesn't know about it."

Joelle suddenly thought of something after saying that. She then said, "Sharon, since Mrs. Anderson already knew that the kids are her grandchildren, why didn't she tell Molly about it?"

"The whole reason that woman, Molly, played dirty was to marry into a wealthy family.

She must be overjoyed now that she finally can marry into the Anderson family. But, Mrs.

Anderson was being very careful. It was like she was afraid that Molly would know the truth. Why is that? What do you think?"

"Really?"

Sharon could not understand it as well. She murmured, "A few years ago, I heard about some news that the May family's daughter got pregnant when she had a one-night stand with a stranger. After her reputation was destroyed, she was kicked out of her house. She then went overseas to live alone. I think that woman is Molly."

Chapter 798-how suddenly got pregnant by a man. And, she got kicked out of her house and had to live overseas. People even insulted her! If you were her, wouldn't you hate the jerk who got you pregnant?"

"I get what you mean now!"

Joelle suddenly understood Sharon as she said that. She had a realization as she said, "You mean that the reason Molly went through so much is all because of Sean. If she knew that Sean was the one who destroyed her reputation, she'll probably..."

"Yes. That's what I meant!"

Sharon looked as though she had thought of a master plan. A cold smile was shown on her face. "Since there was a misunderstanding between Sean and Molly, why don't we take this opportunity to sabotage their relationship? What do you think?" 1 "Sure."

Joelle grinned slightly. "I want to see what's Molly's reaction when she finds out that Sean was the person who ruined her life!"

They both smiled viciously as they were talking.

'Molly... You took Sean away from US. I'm going to make you suffer!' Sawyer stayed in the hospital for only a day. He was then discharged hurriedly from the hospital and went back to his home.

Molly just had her lunch. She then saw Brycen bringing Sawyer home. She could not help but step forward worriedly. "Brother, why did you discharge from the hospital?"

"Oh. I don't feel comfortable staying in the hospital. So, I came back home," Sawyer smiled faintly.

Molly frowned unhappily. "But, the doctor said you needed a good long rest, isn't it? Why did you rush home?"

"Brycen, what are you doing? Sawyer isn't feeling well. You should let him stay in the hospital for two more days. Why did you bring him home?"

"I..."

Brycen did not know how to answer Molly. He felt wronged as he murmured, "I wanted Sawyer to rest in the hospital too. But, he insisted that he wanted to discharge from the hospital. He said he was too bored staying there. I just wanted him to rest in a good environment. It's more comfortable resting at home than in the hospital, right?"

"Stop giving excuses!"

Molly awkwardly glanced at Brycen. She thought he was talking nonsense.

"Molly, forgive Brycen. It was really me who wanted to come home."

Sawyer was standing at the side. He immediately spoke gently when he saw that Molly was blaming Brycen.

"I don't like hospitals. I don't like the atmosphere and the smell of hospitals. Besides, the places where I rest don't make any difference, right? Isn't it better to recover at home?"

Or, do you not want to see me?"

Molly sighed instantly when she heard that. "Sawyer, what made you think that? I was just worried about your health!"

"Forget it. Since you wanted to come back, just rest at home then!"

Molly's phone rang right after she said that.

She then took her phone out to see who called her. It was Sean.

A sweet smile could be seen on Molly's face suddenly. She swiped her phone to answer the call. Then, she stepped aside to say hi softly.

Chapter 799-e both sitting beside Sean at that moment.

They were staring at Sean urging him to ask Molly to come over. They wanted to tell her the identities of the triplets as soon as possible.

Sean was not willing to tell Molly about that so soon. But, his mother was nagging next to him, "Sean, you can't just drag this forever. Molly will know about it eventually. We can't hide this from her forever, right? Why don't you ask her to come over today? That way, we can tell her about it, right?"

"Your dad and I won't leave until you ask her to come over to talk about it."

Alice mainly wanted to bring the triplets home to take good care of them and to love them.

‘After all, they’re the descendants of the Anderson family. They should be raised by us!’ Sean’s parents left him no choice, so he could only call her. But, just when the call was connected, Molly unexpectedly received another call.

‘It’s Mr. Scott.’ Jadon allowed Molly to go on leave for two days. He specifically allowed her to go back to see her children. But, it was almost time for her to go back to work.

Molly ended the call with Sean as she thought about that. “I need to take a call now. I’ll get back to you later!”

She then answered her teacher’s phone call. She greeted him nicely, “Mr. Scott, why are you calling me? I was just planning to go back to work in two days.”

“Oh, Molly, you don’t need to come back!”

A sweet old man’s laughter could be heard on the phone. His thick voice was full of matureness and calmness.

Molly was surprised as she asked, “What’s wrong, teacher? The project isn’t completed yet, right?”

Jadon heavily nodded. He still sounded nice and calm as he said, “Yes, the project isn’t completed yet. But, I can finish it alone. There’s something else that I need your help with!”

“Sure. Tell me,” Molly did not hesitate as she replied.

Jadon unhurriedly said, “Recently, I’ve built a research laboratory in Xesxia. But, it’s short-staffed. So, I was hoping that you could help me manage that research laboratory for about a month. What do you think?”

Molly hesitated for a few seconds. She looked as though she had mixed feelings. She felt that she needed some time to consider.

'The last time I went overseas to help Mr. Scott, I couldn't see my children for a long time.

I missed them so much.

'Now, I'm finally back and reunited with my children. It's no problem if I go overseas for a few days again to help my teacher to finish the project. But, if I need to go work somewhere else away from here for another month, then...' She did not want to go.

After all, her family was living where she was now. Her triplets were here too. For this reason, she did not feel comfortable.

So, Molly hesitantly rejected, "Mr. Scott, my family is here. I don't want to be too far away from them. So..."

"I've already taken what you said into consideration!"

Before Molly could finish her sentence, Jadon was gentle and unrushed as he spoke on the phone, "Molly, don't worry about that. There's not a lot of work to do at the research laboratory in Xesxia. That laboratory is newly established. So, I need someone to help manage it. You can go home whenever you miss home.

"After all, Xesxia isn't too far away from where you live. And, it's in the country. What do you think?"

Chapter 800-Mr. Scott had planned out everything for Molly.

Then, he listed out every benefit of going to the research laboratory as if he was worried that Molly would turn down the offer.

“Molly, I co-founded this laboratory with Xesxia University. It’s specialized in virology, and it’s something that you’ve been working on. Besides, Xesxia University has achieved great things in this field. I believe that you’ll gain a lot of things if you work with them.”

Molly was a little tempted.

After all, she had spent a lot of effort in her virology, and she had left her mark in the field with her research.

Everybody wanted to do better and better in their career.

But...

“Mr. Scott, would you give me some time to discuss this with my family?”

Molly hesitated and continued, “I know that work is important, but I don’t want to be too far away from my family. Besides, they don’t want me to leave either. So, I need to really think about this...”

Jadon understood what Molly was trying to say after hearing that.

So, he stopped trying to convince her. After all, it was a decision Molly should make for herself.

‘Sure. Talk to your family about it. Remember to let me know about your final decision, okay?’

“Of course. Mr. Scott, thanks for the offer.”

Then, the call ended.

Molly redialed Sean’s number and said after the call was connected, “Sean, Mr. Scott called me just now...”

On the other end of the phone, Alice and Ricky were looking at Sean nervously. They thought that their son was going to invite Molly over.

However, the only thing that Sean did was concernedly asked, "Did he ask you to travel again?"

"Not really, but he told me that he co-founded a new research laboratory in Xesxia with a local university there..."

Molly repeated everything that Jadon told her to Sean.

Sean's face darkened as he flatly asked, "So, what do you think?"

Molly sighed, "I'm actually pretty interested, but you and my family are all in Northfolk and I don't feel like being too far away from all of you. So, I still haven't decided if I really want to work there or not. Do you think I should go?"

Molly already had an answer when she asked that question.

She was ready to apologize and reject Mr. Scott if Sean said something to stop her from going.

However, Sean gave her a very respectful answer. "Go ahead and do it if that's something you want to do. Xesxia is not that far from Northfolk anyway. I can send a car to take you back here anytime you want."

Molly was stunned.

She did not expect Sean to be so supportive.

She thought that he would stop her from leaving.

Molly felt a lot more empowered after receiving Sean's support as she smiled and said, "Okay. I'll talk to my family about this again tonight!"

On the other side, Sean said to his parents calmly after he hung up the phone, "Dad, mom. Molly has been very busy with work recently. I think we should not talk about the kids first. I don't want to affect her job performance with things like this."

"What? You told US to do the same thing before this! When are we ever going to ask her about it?"

Alice said in disappointment.

She just could not understand it. All she wanted to do was to bring her grandchildren back to the family, but why was it so difficult?
