

Triplets On SM 801

Chapter 801-“Mom, just be patient.”

Sean knew what Alice was thinking. He looked at her with his deep eyes and firmly said, “I’ll pick the right time and tell Molly everything about this, but right now isn’t the time yet.

So, just be patient for now.”

“Sigh!”

Alice was still very low-spirited. She did not want to put Sean in a difficult position because she knew that there was not much he could do anyway.

Then, she said helplessly after thinking about it, “Okay then. I’ll just wait a little longer with your dad. We can’t rush into this anyway.

“But, you have to let US know right away when you’ve decided to tell Molly everything.

Don’t make US wait too long.”

She turned around and left after saying that.

Alice still felt a little unhappy when she walked out of the office. Then, she frustratedly said, “Ricky, when do you think we can finally bring the kids home? Their break is coming soon, but we can only visit them at their school. How are we going to see them when they’re on their break?

“Why don’t we talk to Molly about this personally?” She suddenly suggested.

Ricky immediately smacked his lips after hearing what she said before refuting her solemnly. “Alice, we can’t be so selfish. You have to take the kids’ feelings into consideration!

“How could you try to reveal everything to Molly just because you want the kids to come to our house? What would happen if Molly doesn’t accept US? The triplets would never be able to be a part of our family if that happens.

“Listen to me. We should just be patient and take things slow.”

Alice got so desperate that she was close to crying after hearing what Ricky said. However, there was nothing she could do about it. After all, what his husband and son said was true.

So, all she could do was wait.

Late in the afternoon, Molly drove to the kindergarten to pick up the triplets.

Grandpa Dave came back from the chess club when Molly and the triplets arrived home. The butler had the dinner ready, and all the dishes were already placed on the dining table.

“Molly, you’re back. Come here and let’s have dinner.”

Grandpa Dave greeted them warmly after seeing Molly and the triplets.

“Sure.”

Molly brought the triplets to the washroom to clean their hands before bringing them to the dining room. Then, she carried each of them up and put them into their seats.

The triplets were so chubby, and they looked extremely adorable.

“Mommy, I want to eat fish!”

Claudia pointed at the grilled fish fillet as soon as she sat down.

Molly sat beside her, looking happy. She picked up a fork and a knife and cut a small piece of the fish fillet before putting it on Claudia's plate. "Here. Watch out for the bones."

"Okay," Claudia nodded.

Then, Ben said, "Mommy, I want mash potatoes!"

"Mommy, I want a drumstick!"

The triplets said loudly in their adorable voices.

Molly smiled and satisfied each of them respectively.

Brycen and Sawyer could not help but laugh after seeing what happened." Eating is all you guys know. You're going to turn into a fatty!"

"We're going to be cute anyway even if we're fat."

The triplets got upset and talked back. Everyone was amused by their reaction.

After a while, Molly put her utensils down after she saw how everybody else was close to finishing their meals. Then, she said, "Grandpa, I might need to leave again in a few days. Mr. Scott co-founded a laboratory with Xesxia University in Xesxia, and he wants me to help him there for about a month, so..."

'What? Mommy, are you going away again?"

The triplets got unhappy immediately after hearing what Molly said

Chapter 802-The fish fillet in Ben's mouth became bland immediately.

He put down his fork, looking gloomy. Then, he said disconsolately, "Mommy, you just came back and now you're leaving again. Are we only going to see you every once in a while from now on?"

'Mommy, could you stay, please?" Claudia's big and clear eyes became teary.

Molly's heart immediately melted. She did not want to leave the triplets too, but it was just hard for her to reject Jadon's offer.

The research laboratory had already been on track, and its operation was going rather stable. She would not have a problem traveling to Jadon's laboratory to help him.

However, she just did not have the heart to leave the triplets!

"Babies, I'll only be away for a month. Besides, I can come back anytime I want if I miss you," Molly comforted them.

The triplets were still unhappy as they pouted and complained, "No. We don't want you to leave. We couldn't even eat and sleep properly when you weren't around... mommy..."

The kids sounded like they were going to cry.

Molly was heartbroken when she heard the triplets' words. Then, she immediately picked them up and consoled them, "Okay, okay. I'll stay then."

"Really? Are you really going to stay?" The triplets said in disbelief.

Molly nodded. "Yeah, of course. How could I have the heart to leave you again?"

Besides, both of her brothers were yet to make a full recovery. She had to stay and take care of them.

She had to stay for Sean too.

Sean's legs were in a very crucial phase of recovery, and she just could not leave him alone!

In the end, Molly decided to reject Jadon's offer anyway after thinking about it.

Even though the project that the laboratory was working on would be very helpful in her virology research, she had no other choice.

"Grandpa, Brycen, Sawyer, I'm not leaving. I should stay here to take care of you guys and the kids."

Molly picked up the utensils again and continued to eat when she said that.

However, the Mays did not feel very good after hearing what she said.

Brycen pondered to himself and decided to give Molly some advice." Molly, you don't really have to sacrifice so much for this family! We won't be happy anyway if you're going to give up on your career just to take care of us. We hope that you can chase after your dreams!

"In other words, the triplets will forever be your kids. Sawyer and I will forever be your brother too. It's not like we're going to leave this family or you. And, it's not every day that you get an opportunity like this. So just do whatever you want!

"As for Grandpa, I'll be sure to take good care of him. Also, I can ask for Caitlyn's help too if I can't manage that, right?"

"Yeah. Molly, just go ahead and do what you want. I'll take care of my health, and I won't overwork myself." Sawyer chimed in. He also hoped that Molly could prioritize herself before them.

Then, Brycen winked at the triplets. He was trying to tell that to be more sensible and stop putting Molly in a difficult position.

The triplets felt a little guilty after hearing what they said.

Indeed, they were in no place to stop Molly from doing what she wanted.

“Mommy, we’re sorry...” The triplets said unanimously after coming to their senses.

“What’s wrong?” Molly felt bad and frowned.

The triplets shook their heads and softly said, “Mommy, just do it if you want to work in Xesxia. You don’t have to stay for US or our uncles. You should live your life for yourself.”

Chapter 803-we’ll take care of ourselves. You won’t have to worry about US.”

The triplets bowed their heads down, and they were very sensible.

Molly’s heart melted while looking at the triplets.

She felt so lucky to have such understanding children as her kids!

She was cheered up after getting her family’s support. Then, she said with a smile, “Okay, I’ll go to Xesxia two days later since all of you are okay with it. I’ll come back frequently after I go there. After all, it’s not that far away, right?”

“Yeah!” The triplets nodded.

The Mays supported her too.

Molly stopped hesitating and gave Jadon a call after finishing her dinner to tell him that she would work there. Jadon was delighted and immediately made some arrangements for Molly to go there.

He did not give Molly a lot of time to prepare and told her to leave tomorrow afternoon.

Molly exhaled deeply. She felt a little disappointed, but she could not refuse it.

Later at night, Molly went next door to talk to Sean after he was done with work.

She was going to leave for a month, and she had no idea if she would have the time to come back and visit if she got too busy with work.

And, Sean's legs were in the recovery phase, so Molly could not stop worrying about him. Thus, she went over to treat him.

"Sean." Molly did not see him when she went inside, and she felt a little strange.

"Where's Sean?"

"Ms. May, Mr. Sean is training in the backyard," The butler said.

"Okay, thanks."

Then, Molly went to the backyard and saw Sean walking step by step slowly with Tony's help.

She saw Sean taking a few more steps forward while Tony held him up, and she smiled happily. "You're recovering pretty fast. There's nothing for me to worry about while I'm in Xesxia, then."

Sean and Tony turned around after hearing what Molly said. Tony smiled and asked, "Ms. May, are you going to Xesxia?"

“Yeah. I have something to do over there. You have to take good care of Sean when I’m not around. I’ll get you a gift when I return,” Molly said with a smile.

Tony scratched his head and said, “Ms. May, it’s my duty to take care of Mr.

Anderson. I’ll do my job diligently without you reminding me. However, things are pretty tough for Mr. Anderson too since you kept traveling for work, and he can’t see you often.”

“Tony.”

Tony’s words sounded like he revealed something.

‘Things are tough because he can’t see me?’ Molly looked at Sean curiously.

Sean looked a little embarrassed, but he did not say anything. Then, he told Tony, “Check if the dinner’s ready.”

The sun would always set a lot earlier during the autumn season. Molly and Sean could see the big and round moon hanging in the sky if they looked up.

Molly helped Sean to sit in his wheelchair before massaging his legs gently. Then, she said, “Sean, I’m leaving tomorrow afternoon. You have to take good care of yourself when I’m not around. I’ll call you whenever I’m free.”

“Okay,” Sean nodded. Then, he lifted his arm and touched her cheeks. “I’ll miss you,” he said.

“Me too,” Molly sighed. “I’ve thought about not going there. It would be good for me to stay here with the kids and take care of you and my brothers. But, Mr. Scott said that the laboratory there is specialized in virology, which is something that I’ve been working on, so...”

Chapter 804-It's fine. Just follow your heart."

Sean knew what Molly wanted to say. He held her soft hand and comforted her, "You don't always have to put your family first. It's not wrong to prioritize yourself sometimes.

After all, you should live your life for yourself. ■ "I'll be supportive of whatever decisions you make, and I won't stop you from doing anything. However, I just want to tell you that I'll forever be by your side to protect you and keep you company."

"Sean..." Molly's heart broke and tears welled up in her eyes.

She had never heard anybody say such sincere words to her. At that time, Molly felt like the most precious thing in the world that Sean would hold dearly in his hands and would never allow anyone to hurt or mistreat her.

No one had ever treated her like this.

Molly was so grateful that she felt appreciated by Sean.

She suddenly got emotional. Then, she bowed her head down and kissed Sean on his cheek before she straightforwardly said, "I love you."

Sean was clearly shocked. Then, a warm smile appeared on his face. "I love you too."

"Boss, dinner is ready," Tony came from the living room and shouted from inside.

'We're coming."

Sean responded and grabbed Molly's hand again. "Come on. Let's go eat."

'Sure. Should we call the triplets over? I'm leaving tomorrow. Let's eat together,"

Molly asked.

‘Of course. Go ahead. I’ll wait for you.’

So, Molly went back home and said to the triplets, “Alex, Ben, Claudia, let’s go.

We’re having dinner at Uncle Sean’s house tonight.”

‘Coming!’

The triplets ran down from upstairs excitedly after hearing what Molly said.

Brycen saw what happened and sighed, “Molly, you’re so heartless. You’re leaving tomorrow, yet you wouldn’t stay home and spend some time with your brothers and grandpa. Your boyfriend is all you care about. How could you do this?!”

“No, no, no. Uncle Brycen, you’re wrong.”

The triplets heard Brycen and refuted him with a smile. “Uncle Brycen, Uncle Sean and Mommy are future spouses. They’ll be husband and wife after they’re married, so Uncle Sean will be our daddy. That being said, our relationship with Uncle Sean should be closer than the relationship we share with you, right?

‘So, it’s perfectly fine for US to eat with him now.’

“Hey, you little brats. What are you talking about? Your mommy isn’t married to him, yet you’re already on his side. That’s so hurtful!”

The more Brycen talked about it, the sadder he got. He felt like the triplets’ and Molly’s hearts were captivated by Sean.

He just could not figure out what was so good about Sean and why Molly loved him so much.

However, he could not deny that Sean was indeed a very nice person. He noticed that Molly started to smile a lot more, and she had also become a lot happier after being together with Sean.

Brycen smiled again. He shook his head and thought to himself, 'Molly, I'm glad that you found someone who can make you happy.' Molly brought the kids to the mansion next door. Then, she helped them wash their hands and sat them at the dining table.

The triplets smiled brightly, and they were delighted to see Sean. "We love to eat at Uncle Sean's house!

"Wouldn't it be nice if mommy and Uncle Sean could eat together every day?

"Uncle Sean, Mommy, when are you getting married? We can move in here if you guys are married!"

Molly's cheeks turned pinkish after hearing what the triplets said.

Chapter 805-Molly interrupted them breathlessly, "Babies, what are you talking about? We have no plans on getting married yet! Keep eating!"

"Really? But, Uncle Sean said that he'll marry you as soon as his legs are recovered."

The triplets grinned and responded.

They just wanted to be Sean's best wingmen. They desperately wanted them to get married as soon as possible!"

"I..."

Molly's cheeks turned even rosier. Then, she looked at Sean shyly and asked, "Did you really say that?"

Sean was not planning to deny it as he smiled faintly. "Yeah."

Molly felt like a million flowers bloomed inside of her as she got even shier. She was suffused with happiness.

Actually, she wanted to marry Sean very much too so that she would have a family of her own.

However, she was in no hurry to do that. She believed that the man he was in love with would not disappoint her after his legs recovered.

On the next day, Molly started packing her stuff after waking up and having breakfast.

The triplets were supposed to be at school, but they requested a day off because Molly was leaving. They wanted to spend more time with Molly before she left.

They watched Molly take her clothes one after another from the wardrobe, then they looked at her packing her shoes into a storage bag before stuffing it into the luggage...

The triplets could not help but feel a little sad.

"Mommy, could you call US whenever you have the time after you left?"

The triplets said reluctantly before Molly left.

"Of course. I promise that I'll call you guys very frequently."

Molly squatted down after saying that and gave each of them a kiss on the cheek.

The triplets kissed her back and waved their chubby arms. "Bye, mommy. Have a safe trip."

"Sure."

Molly touched the triplets' heads before dragging her luggage downstairs. Then, she said goodbye to Grandpa Dave and her brothers.

"Grandpa, Brycen, Sawyer, I'm leaving now. Bye."

"Be safe out there!" Grandpa Dave said to her worriedly.

"Molly, be sure to take care of yourself when you're there. If you met any beautiful female colleagues, you could consider introducing them to me. I'll wait for your good news!" Brycen chuckled, looking mischievous.

Molly rolled her eyes at him and said, "Okay, okay. I'll keep an eye out!"

Then, Molly took her luggage and left the house.

The black Rolls-Royce had already been waiting for her outside for some time.

The door was half-opened, and Sean sat inside. The comfortable and luxurious seat made him look distant and out of reach.

"Ms. May, I'll put the luggage into the car for you!" Tony approached her right away after seeing her.

Molly thanked him and sat beside Sean. Then, they went to the airport together.

"I'll be going now, okay?"

Molly started walking toward the security check after saying that.

“Okay, remember to let me know after you arrive,” Sean reminded her.

Then, he watched Molly go through the security until she disappeared from his sight.

Suddenly, he felt a sense of loss and emptiness.

It was as if his life before meeting Molly was just a banal black-and-white painting, and only Molly’s smile could liven it up.

However, his life became dull again after she left

Chapter 806-The sky was gray, and it was drizzling in Xesxia.

Molly went to the laboratory after she arrived at Xesxia according to the address Jadon provided her with. Then, she dialed a number on her phone.

“Is this Ms. May?” A young woman’s voice could be heard on the other side of the phone.

“Please hold on. I’ll come outside to meet you in just a second!”

Then, the call ended.

Molly looked inside the laboratory and saw a few staff walking back and forth in their big white coats.

After a while, a girl in the same white coat walked toward her while removing her coat.

“Ms. May, nice to meet you! You’re finally here! My name is Lynn Wilson, and I’ll be your assistant in this laboratory from now on.

Lynn stretched out her right hand politely as she said that. She had a high pony, and she looked very approachable while smiling.

Molly smiled and shook hands with her. Then, Lynn put Molly's luggage aside and gave Molly a tour of the laboratory. She had also introduced Molly to other people working there.

Molly looked all over the laboratory and observed everything that was going on inside. She found that not only was the laboratory well equipped with high-tech machines from overseas, but the team members were also graduates of some famous institutes...

It was pretty good!

Unfortunately, that team did not have a backbone.

Everybody there was like a lost sheep without a leader to guide them. Even though all of them were working, their progress was extremely slow.

It was then Molly realized the reason why Jadon kept persuading her to come over.

Indeed, she would not have much of a problem leading this team with what she was capable of.

"Ms. May, that's pretty much everything about our laboratory. It's not huge, but we're planning to expand it in the future! So, we're partners with Xesxia University, and we're specialized in virology. I heard that you've achieved great things in this field, and we hope that we can learn something from you!"

Lynn said amicably and politely. Molly could tell that she was a cheerful person.

Molly loved to mix around with cheerful girls, so she happily replied, "Okay. We'll learn and look out for each other, then!"

After that, Molly checked in at a hotel in Xesxia and officially entered her working mode.

The people working in the laboratory got on the right track very soon after Molly started leading them.

Other than that, Molly would organize a weekly meeting to share their research summary. She would also help them to analyze the researcher's strengths and weaknesses so that they could improve for the better.

Everyone in the laboratory had tremendous growth in a very short time under Molly's leadership.

"Okay, that's it for today. The meeting will end here if none of you have any more questions."

In the evening, Molly turned around and left after the meeting ended.

"Ms. May, wait for me!"

Lynn approached her from behind and passionately asked, "Ms. May, you're so amazing.

You've taught me so many things these days. I wonder if you would be free tonight, so I can treat you to a meal?"

"Treat me to a meal?"

"Yeah! Not just me, but a lot of our colleagues want to hang out with you too."

Molly was a little shocked, but she smiled and rejected her politely anyway. "Maybe next time. We don't always get to leave work early, so I would like to spend the night calling my kids."

Chapter 807-"Huh? You have kids?"

Lynn was very shocked as she covered her nose and mouth with her hand, looking surprised. “You don’t like a mother. Ms. May, you’re so beautiful. I thought you were just in your early twenties!”

“You’re too kind.”

Molly smiled and did not say anything else.

After arriving at the hotel, she video-called the triplets right away.

“Mommy!”

Three adorable faces appeared on the screen as soon as the call was connected. The triplets tried so hard to squeeze their face into the screen that only a small part of each of their faces could be seen.

Molly got very happy after seeing the kids as she smiled and asked,” Babies, what did you do at home? Have you eaten?”

“Yeah. Mommy, we were just waiting for you to call. Are you tired today?”

The triplets put on a gummy smile and asked naively.

“I was but I feel very energized after thinking about you guys.” Molly felt so happy that her heart leaped up with joy.

Then, the four of them continued to chat for some time.

Brycen went to the triplets when he saw the triplets talking to Molly after coming back. Then, he tried to fit his huge face into the screen and squeezed the triplets out before he excitedly said, “Molly, how are you doing over there? Are you used to that new environment yet? I miss you so much!”

“You? Miss me? I don’t think so.”

Molly clicked her tongue and looked at him scornfully after hearing what he said.

Brycen held three of his fingers up and said in a serious tone, "I'm serious.

Molly, I really miss you. You know how strict Caitlyn is with me. She wouldn't let me take a day off from training, and she would monitor everything that I eat every day. Sigh. My life is so tough!"

Caitlyn went into the house after Brycen. She heard him complaining and immediately refuted, "I don't care. I'm doing this for your own good. I wouldn't even care about you if Molly didn't ask me to take care of you before leaving for Xesxia!"

"What? Are you going to just follow everything Molly told you to? Why don't you listen to me and leave me alone instead?" Brycen talked back bitterly.

"Why should I do that? You're a patient and all of your requests are unreasonable," Caitlyn questioned him.

"That's it. Stop wasting time. You should take a shower and go to sleep now.

You can't sleep later than ten tonight! otherwise, you'll have to train for an extra thirty minutes tomorrow."

Brycen was smoking with anger when he heard what Caitlyn said!

Then, he snitched to Molly right away, "Molly, did you hear what she said? She just told me to go to bed before ten. This woman is absurd! Sigh. Why did you send a shrew like her to take care of me? She's killing me!"

Molly burst out laughing after hearing what Brycen said.

Indeed, she specifically told Caitlyn to take care of her two brothers when she was not around.

So, not only that she could not care less after hearing Brycen's rant, but she also thought that he was acting funny too. "Brycen, just hang in there. It's a good thing that someone's taking care of you! You can do anything you want after your legs are healed, isn't it? You should just listen to everything she said and focus on your treatment for now."

"Fine. Both of you are on the same team!"

Brycen felt so helpless as he complained, "How am I going to live? This world is so unfair."

He knew that complaining to Molly was not going to help at all!

So, he stopped ranting and asked Molly, "How are you doing over there? Remember to take care of yourself!"

Chapter 808-I will." Molly nodded.

Then, Brycen sniffed affectedly. "Okay, then. I'll stop disturbing you and the kids. I need to get ready for bed."

He gave the phone back to the triplets and walked away while Caitlyn continued to nag him.

Molly was amused. She just could not stand how funny their interactions were.

After that, Molly talked with the triplets for quite some time.

Later at night, Molly said to the triplets after realizing that it was getting late, "Okay, babies. You guys should brush your teeth and go to bed now. Sleep early. I still have to go to work tomorrow."

"Sure, mommy!" Even though the triplets wanted to spend more time with Molly, they listened to her and hung up anyway.

Then, Molly dialed Sean's number.

Sean just finished a meeting, and he was taking care of some remaining work in his office.

A ray of cool white light shone on top of him, and it made his features look extra cold and classy.

He heard Molly calling him, and he accepted the call right away before putting his phone beside his ear.
"Hello?"

"Hello, Mr. Anderson. Are you still working?"

Molly asked in a mischievous tone as a cheeky playful smile appeared on her face.

Sean smiled faintly after hearing the familiar voice. "You're getting cheekier. ■ Molly chuckled. She lay on the bed and rolled over lazily. "I miss you," she spoke softly.

"I miss you too."

Sean stopped everything that he was doing as he said that. Then, he asked while shutting down his laptop, "Have you eaten dinner?"

"Yeah. I was calling the triplets before I called you. Sean, what about you?"

"Nope. I just got off work, but I'm going home now."

Tony came and pushed Sean out of the office before switching off all the lights.

Molly and Sean continued to chat until Sean returned home and finished dinner.

Even though it was all small talk, they felt very happy because they could listen to each other's voices.

"Sean, it's getting late."

Molly looked at the time and it was already ten o'clock.

Sean hummed softly and asked, "Are you going to sleep?"

"Yeah. I'm a little tired, but I still want to talk with you."

Molly mumbled as if she would feel incredibly at ease as long as she could hear Sean's voice.

"Okay. We'll talk then."

Sean said in his deep voice, and he continued chatting with her patiently.

After some time, Molly went quiet suddenly.

"Molly, are you asleep?" Sean asked after not hearing anything from the other end.

"Uh..."

Molly lay on the bed and grabbed the blanket sleepily before covering herself with it.

Then, she stopped talking.

'I guess she's asleep.' Sean smiled helplessly, and he spoke softly on the phone, "Good night."

Then, he hung up.

He had a good night's sleep that night.

The next day, Molly found out that Sean had sent her a greeting card as soon as she woke up. "Molly, happy winter."

'Winter?' Molly flipped through the calendar blurrily. It was only then that she realized that time had passed so quickly, and it was already winter season.

The cold wind blew at her from all directions as soon as she stepped out of the hotel.

Molly hunched her shoulders and her teeth chattered. 'Yep, it's already winter.' She thought to herself.

Chapter 809-The Herring family had been doing plenty of things after Joelle returned to the company officially. They became a trending topic several times, and they kept making appearances on financial media.

It was believed that the Herring family used their relationship with the Anderson family as leverage to gain a lot of clients. They just could not stop closing deals.

Mr. Herring Sr. was very happy with it, and he gave her granddaughter, Joelle, all the credits.

So, the old man praised Joelle in front of the media during a project launching event.

'After Joelle finished her studies overseas, she did not come back to work for us. Instead, she went to Anderson Corporation to enhance her skills.

"She didn't actually stay there very long. But, Anderson Corporation is a place packed with talents. Joelle worked as the CEO's secretary there, and she learned a lot of things from him. This is why she is so competent today. The Herring Group could never have secured so many contracts if it wasn't for Joelle and the Anderson Corporation!"

The reason why Mr. Herring Sr. said those things was to tell everybody that the growth of his granddaughter could only be possible under Anderson Corporation's guidance. And, he wanted to let the press know that his family is very thankful and appreciative.

He was also trying to use this opportunity to show off his family's relationship with the Andersons, so he would get more attention.

However, the press took it in a different way.

■Joelle Herring was once a secretary of Sean Anderson?' 'What...' ■Joelle was so young and pretty, and Sean was just as young and a genius too.' 'There could easily be some sparks if they spent every day with each other, right?' The reporters immediately asked after thinking about that, "Mr. Herring Sr., you mentioned that Ms. Joelle was once a secretary of Sean Anderson. Could you tell us more about their personal relationship?"

"I heard that Mr. Anderson went to the banquet held by the Herring family too when Ms. Herring returned to the family. Could you tell us if Mr.

Anderson and Ms. Herring are more than just friends?"

"Mr. Herring Sr., is the Anderson family help your family this much because there is some kind of marriage relations going on between the two families?"

The reporters asked disorderly, and it showed just how nosy they were.

To them, the only reason why the Anderson family did so much for the Herring family was that they shared an unusual relationship!

And, it was perfectly normal for wealthy families to have marriage ties.

Perhaps, Mrs. Anderson had pre-decided for Joelle to be her daughter-in- law.

Mr. Herring Sr. became nervous after hearing those questions!

He had never said that the Herring family had any kind of marriage relations with the Anderson family. 'What are these reporters thinking?' ■Joelle, explain it to them." Mr. Herring Sr. rushed Joelle.

Joelle curled her lip unhappily. To be honest, she did not want to clarify her relationship with Sean to the reporters. Even though she was not dating Sean, she would be happy just being his rumored girlfriend!

That way, her name would at least be mentioned together with Sean's name.

However, she had no choice but to step forward and make things clear to the press so that the reporters would not misunderstand anything. At the same time, she also did not want this incident to affect their relationship with the Andersons. "Firstly, I would like to thank everyone for showing interest in my personal relationship, but I'm very sorry to say that Mr. Anderson and I are nothing more than friends.

"Besides, Mr. Anderson already has a fiancée now. They're getting along very well, and I hope none of you will misunderstand anything!

Chapter 810-ee?"

Joelle's words shocked a lot of reporters there!

Everybody knew that the helm of Anderson Corporation, Sean Anderson, had never associated himself with any woman. Besides, he had a cold personality, and he was rarely caught in scandals.

So, when did he get a fiancée?

Which woman was so charismatic that she captured his heart?!

"Ms. Herring, could you tell US who is Mr. Anderson's fiancée?"

The reporters asked nosily as their eyes sparkled with curiosity.

They would get an exclusive headline if they could find out who was Sean's fiancée!

Unfortunately, things did not go as planned.

Joelle was very smart. She knew very well that she could not tell the reporters too much about Molly because it would seem too intentional.

So, she stopped revealing more about it and smiled. "I'm sorry, but this is Mr.

Anderson's personal affair, and it's not right for me to talk too much about it.

However, I can tell everyone here that his fiancée is a very beautiful and outstanding lady. I believe that you guys will have an opportunity to meet her in the future.

"Alright. It's time for some questions regarding the project."

Then, Joelle brushed them off.

However, the reporters could not get enough of it. They wanted more!

'Who exactly is Mr. Anderson's fiancée?' 'She has to be a very excellent woman. Otherwise, Mr. Anderson would not fall for her.' 'We've got to find out who this woman is!' The event ended not long after that.

Joelle got down the stage slowly. She walked to her grandfather and said with a faint smile, "Grandpa, there's nothing wrong with my answers to the reporters just now, right?" Mr. Herring Sr. nodded amiably and smiled. "Joelle, I knew you wouldn't let me down. I'm so glad that not only are you so dedicated to this job, but you've also moved on from Sean."

Joelle nodded and smiled humbly. "You're the person who raised me, after all.

And, I understand that love can't be forced.

"But, it's not a problem for me to reveal that Sean has a fiancée, right?"

"Of course not!"

Mr. Herring Sr. had no idea about Molly's family background at all. He said with a casual smile, "Didn't Mr. Anderson make his fiancée public at our banquet?"

Everybody knew about this news a long time ago. He just hasn't made it official!

Besides, you praised his fiancée, and it made you look very big-hearted. Isn't that a good thing?"

"I guess so."

Joelle grinned gently. "Grandpa, you're so thoughtful."

That was all she had to say.

Nobody knew what she was going to do. She gave a call to Sharon as soon as she turned around. Then, an evil smile appeared on her face. "Our chance is here." "What?"

Sharon was very confused.

Joelle lifted the edge of her mouth and smiled proudly before telling Sharon everything that she had said to the press just now in summary.

Basically, she was telling Sharon that after the media knew about Sean's fiancée, they would definitely find out every piece of information about Molly because she knew how nosy the reporters would be.

"They're going to give US a helping hand and tell the world about Molly's pregnancy before marriage. How much of an impact do you think it's going to make?"

Joelle asked coldly. She felt very happy because everything was going well for her.

Sharon understood what she was trying to say as a dark smirk appeared on her face.

"Joelle, that's a good plan. The media will be our scapegoat if anything bad happens to Molly, and we won't be involved at all. This is great!"
