

Triplets On SM 841

Chapter 841-She started to accept the fact that Sean was the triplets' biological father after thinking about it for a few days.

However, deep inside, she just could not get over what had happened that night.

So, she still had not replied to Sean's text messages.

Sean had already stayed in Xesxia for more than a week, and it was time for him to return.

There were a lot of things for him to handle in the Anderson Corporation, and they just piled up throughout the week he was away. He had to go back and take care of them.

So, he told Tony to book him a flight ticket back to Northfolk.

He specifically reminded Tony before he left, 'Remember to keep Molly safe. I will hold you responsible if anything ever happens to her.'

"Yes, Boss," Tony replied.

On the same night, Sean went back to his house and continued to work in his study room right after he left his office.

The triplets were thrilled after knowing that Sean had come back home. They immediately strode next door to ask Sean if there were any updates between him and Molly.

"Daddy, how are you and mommy?"

The triplets stared at Sean with their bright eyes, looking eager and ardent.

Sean could already guess that the triplets would be worried about what was happening between him and Molly, so he pushed his wheelchair toward the kids before patting each of their tiny heads. "Don't worry. I've already told your mommy the truth, and she said that she needs more time to think about it. So, let's just give her more time," he comforted them.

"But, she didn't reply to my texts these few days, so I have no idea what's her decision."

"Ah..."

The triplets felt very unnerved after hearing that.

Alex looked down and softly said, "Mommy called US today, but she sounded a little sad. We were worried that she might be in a bad mood, so we didn't ask her too much about it. We only tried to make her feel better, and that's all."

"Yeah," Ben said before he asked Sean, "Daddy, did you try to cheer up mommy? She's very soft-hearted. Did you buy her any gifts? Maybe mommy will change her mind if she sees how sincere you are at asking for her forgiveness." "Of course."

Tony, who was standing beside Sean, said to the kids with a smile before Sean could say anything. "My little bosses, the CEO ordered me to buy a bouquet of flowers from the best florist in Xesxia every day and have it sent to your mommy. He even got some bodyguards to ensure her safety, but Ms. May just ignored them. So..."

"So, did mommy accept the flowers?"

Suddenly, Claudia's eyes sparkled as if there were stars shining in them.

Sean kept quiet for a few seconds before nodding. "I guess."

"That's great! It shows that there's still a chance of mommy forgiving you!"

Claudia said excitedly in her adorable voice. She sounded very happy.

“What makes you say that?” Sean smiled, and he wanted to hear Claudia’s opinion. Claudia opened her mouth and revealed her tiny white teeth before she said in a serious manner, “That’s because mommy and I are both girls. We wouldn’t accept the flowers if we didn’t like the person who sent them. We would even return the gifts if we received any! And, we would reject that person without having second thoughts.

“Mommy didn’t reject the flowers you gave her. So, it shows that even though mommy is angry, there’s still a chance that she will forgive you if you just keep cheering her up!”

“Are you sure?”

Alex and Ben got excited, too, after hearing what Claudia said.

“Yeah!” Claudia nodded, and the colorful ponytails on her head swung back and forth as she did that. “I’m sure that mommy will forgive daddy,” she said.

Chapter 842-ated him together. “Daddy, you can do this! Don’t give up!”

“Mommy likes you very much. She’s only mad now, and she can’t accept the truth in such a short time. Daddy, you’ve got to figure something out to win her back.”

“Daddy, you can do this!”

The triplets said in a serious manner. They looked so concentrated that they seemed like three little soldiers that were going to war.

Sean was amused by their animated looks. He nodded firmly and said with a smile, “Okay. I won’t let you guys down. Rest assured.”

The triplets felt a lot better after hearing Sean's promise.

At the end of the day, the triplets still trusted Sean very much. After all, Molly had never fallen for any man throughout the years she lived overseas. It showed that Molly could be very picky when choosing her partner, and she would take her relationship very seriously once she started it. She just would not let things go easily.

On a side note, Sean treated Molly really well, and the triplets knew that Molly would keep that in mind.

Even though what happened back then was deep-seated in her heart, it happened a long, long time ago.

A fault confessed is half-redressed. Why would Molly not forgive Sean if he apologized sincerely and was willing to make things right?

The triplets agreed that Sean and Molly would reconcile in just a matter of time.

"Ms. May, Xesxia University called, and they said they want to work with us! The next afternoon, Lynn ran into Molly's office excitedly when she was working.

"What?" Molly was puzzled as she confusedly asked, "Didn't Mr. Scott cofounded this laboratory with Xesxia University? I thought we had been working together this whole time."

"No, Ms. May. You didn't know, huh?"

Then, Lynn explained everything to her patiently. "You're right about Xesxia being the co-founder of this research laboratory, but that was all. Even though they are our partners, Xesxia University thought that our laboratory was still very new and a bit too small. Besides, we didn't have influential researchers working here, so they didn't really initiate any projects with US.

"However, our improvement recently has probably caught their attention, so they're planning to finally work with US now.

“Ms. May, I heard that you’re an expert in virology! Coincidentally, Xesxia University is very successful in that field, and I’m sure that we can learn a lot of things from them!

“Sure.”

Molly smiled, and that was all she said.

She only came to this research laboratory because of the professional competence of Xesxia University in virology.

It would be a great opportunity for her if they could really work together.

However, it also indicated that she would have a lot more work to do, and she would have to work overtime every day.

That night, Molly finished all her work at nine, and she had just left the laboratory by then.

The weather was getting colder every day. She felt the chilling wind sneaking up her sleeves, and her whole body shivered while she waited for a cab on the roadside.

It took some time before she could finally arrive at the entrance of her neighborhood. She got down the car and walked inside while blowing warm air in her hands and rubbing them.

Molly was not aware that a strange man was sneaking behind her from not far away.

She only noticed that something was wrong when she walked past a streetlight, and it cast a shadow of that man below her feet.

She remembered that there was no one around her when she walked into the neighborhood.

And, she did not hear any footsteps while she walked either.

So, the shadow...

Chapter 843-Molly had goosebumps all over her body. She felt very nervous as she started walking faster to her apartment unit.

However, the person behind her sped up, too, as soon as she tried to walk away from him. That person was getting closer and closer to her!

Molly's hair stood on end. She whipped out her phone, and she was about to call the police for help!

Then, she heard a groaning sound coming from behind.

Two men in black shirts appeared out of nowhere and kicked the man who was sneaking behind Molly!

Then, one of them stepped on the man's fingers with his boots as the man yelled in pain.

Molly was shocked. She turned around anxiously and saw the two bodyguards pinning down the man under the streetlight.

"Ms. May, we were sent by Mr. Anderson to keep you safe! I'm sorry if we startled you."

The two men in black bowed their heads and apologized to Molly.

Molly was still in shock, but it did not take her very long to recollect herself.

'I was being stalked, and Sean sent these two bodyguards to protect me.' She was immediately relieved.
"Thank you so much!"

Molly was terrified.

Molly was just a woman living in this newly built neighborhood alone. It was already so late at night, so who knew what horrible thing would happen if there was no one to keep her safe?

She was glad that Sean sent the bodyguards to protect her.

Molly's heart fluttered while she thought about that...

Then, she wasted no time and took a few big steps toward the man yelling in pain, before she asked condescendingly, "Who are you?"

The man on the ground groaned painfully while stammering, "H-Help..."

The bodyguard stepped on him so hard that his bone could shatter at any moment. He was in so much pain that he could not speak properly.

Molly frowned and threw the bodyguard a glance.

The bodyguard understood what Molly was trying to tell him as he moved his leg away, and the stalker could finally breathe.

However, the stalker gasped and tried to escape as soon as he got up from the ground.

The bodyguard rushed forward and kicked him to the ground again after realizing what he was trying to do.

"Ah!" The stalker screamed. He felt like all his bones were fractured, and he could not get up anymore.

He grabbed Molly's trousers while lying on the ground and weakly begged,"

Miss, I'm so sorry. I was just passing by. Please believe me!"

Molly furrowed her brows. She did not believe in the man's nonsense at all. "You were walking silently on purpose, and you were sneaking around behind me.

How dare you say that you were just passing by? Looks like we have to do this the hard way!"

Then, she ordered the two bodyguards coldly. "Beat him up. Beat him up until he talks."

"No! Please!"

The stalker was terrified as he begged and cried, "Miss, I just thought that you looked pretty, and I noticed that you're wearing branded clothes. So, I wanted to borrow some money from you. I haven't eaten for a few days. Please, please forgive me."

'Borrow some money?' 'I see. He's a mugger."

Molly finally knew what was happening.

Indeed, that neighborhood was a new project in Xesxia, and the houses there were not cheap. Besides, there were not many residents there, so living there alone would really make her an easy target.

Molly heaved a sigh of relief and said to the two bodyguards, "He's a mugger.

Please take him away."

"Yes, Ms. May."

The bodyguards replied. Then, one of them took the mugger to the police station while the other escorted Molly back to her home.

Chapter 844-Molly had mixed feelings after she got back.

For some reason, she felt that Sean would always appear at the right time to protect her and keep her safe whenever she needed help the most.

The man was like a guardian angel to her.

However, Molly still felt very awful when she thought about what had happened five years ago!

Her life would probably be completely different if it was not for Sean.

She shook her head and tried not to think about it. Then, she took a shower and got ready for bed.

However, she did not know that Sean had found out about her being followed not long after it happened.

Sean's expression immediately turned dark after hearing about it. He was clearly frightened!

"Did that person hurt Molly?" He asked nervously. His presence was so imposing that it made the atmosphere feel very tense.

Tony could hear how worried Sean was. Then, he quickly tried to calm Sean down. 'Boss, don't worry. The bodyguards acted in time, and Ms. May was completely fine!"

"That's good."

Sean was relieved as the stress and anxiety he had dispersed.

He thought to himself, 'It's still too dangerous to let Molly stay there alone!' Sean massaged his temple with his slender fingers as he said, "Book a flight ticket. I want to go to Xesxia as soon as possible."

"Now? Boss, it's already very late. Why don't you go there tomorrow instead?"

Tony looked at the time, and it was already eleven. Boss, you've been working so hard lately. You should get some rest."

However, Sean responded commandingly, "Are you the boss or me?"

Tit's you, of course."

Tony became so scared that he started sweating. He did not dare to talk back anymore as he quickly said, "I-I'll book a flight ticket for you now.

Please give me a moment."

Then, Tony booked a night flight on the same day and flew to Xesxia with Sean.

It was already half past two in the morning when they arrived.

Tony still felt cold even though he was wearing a coat jacket. He quickly grabbed a blanket from the car and covered Sean's leg with it. "Boss, it gets very windy at night. Don't catch a cold.

"Okay," Sean said before he continued, "Let's go to the police station first."

He thought that Molly would probably be asleep at this hour, so he did not want to disturb her.

However, he was not going to go easy on anyone who dared to hurt Molly.

A while later, the car stopped outside the police station.

The bodyguard was already waiting there after he knew that his boss was coming.

He bowed his head and politely said after seeing Sean, "Boss, the man who tried to mug Molly is inside. You can interrogate him anytime."

"Mhm."

Sean responded with a hum. Then, he waved his hand to tell Tony to push him into the station.

It was already midnight, and there were only a few officers on duty.

One of them looked over when Sean went in, and his eyes were glazed.

The temperament of the man who appeared before his eyes felt so cold and imposing, and he looked like a domineering king!

Sean's foreboding gaze made him look like an honorable conqueror, and he was innately officious.

The officer took a few steps forward and respectfully spoke to him without realizing it. "Hello, sir. May I know what brings you here this late at night?"

Sean nodded slightly and politely replied, "I'm sorry for disturbing you."

Then, he briefly told the officer his purpose for dropping by Chapter 845-The officer nodded politely. "I see. Please follow me." After that, the officer brought Sean to the man who followed Molly before telling him briefly about the stalker's identity.

“He’s a habitual offender, and he usually only targets single ladies. He went to prison several times for mugging before he came to this area. He accidentally noticed the branded clothes that Ms. May was wearing, and he thought she looked rich. So, he tried and pushed his luck. Fortunately, he was stopped in time.”

The officer told Sean about what happened. Then, Sean nodded courteously.

“Thank you so much.”

“Don’t mention it. It’s my duty to keep the citizens safe. I’m glad that nothing bad happened to Ms. May this time. However, you should remind her not to go out late at night for her safety.”

The officer said before he left.

The mugger was sitting on a chair with his hands cuffed. He looked at Sean with a pleading gaze as he earnestly said, “I’m sorry, mister. I didn’t mean to harass your wife. It’s just that I haven’t eaten for a few days, so...”

Clang.

The cell door was shut. Sean did not want to waste any time listening to him, so he left with his men right away.

Anyone who committed a crime would be punished by the law anyway. There was no reason for him to stay there.

The streetlight illuminated Sean’s handsome face as soon as he got out of the police station, and the light made his features look extra exquisite.

A gust of chilly wind blew on his face as he coldly asked, “Did she say anything after knowing who you are?”

The bodyguard came around and shook his head. "No, Boss. Ms. May was not really surprised when she saw US, but she didn't reject our help either. She even thanked us for saving her."

In other words, Molly was fine with Sean's men protecting her.

Sean was kind of relieved, but he was still a little worried.

He would not be completely at ease until Molly officially expressed that she had forgiven him.

Those few days were probably the toughest days he had ever gone through.

His heart felt like it was placed on a fire, getting burned bit by bit...

"Boss, I've already booked a hotel. Should we get some rest now?"

Tony said after he realized that it was getting late.

Sean lifted his wrist and looked at his luxurious watch. It was already three in the morning.

Molly was supposed to go to work at eight. Sean was worried that he might not be able to wake up on time if he went to sleep, so he rejected Tony and said, ' No. Let's go to her neighborhood instead."

"To her neighborhood? Boss, you're not sleeping tonight?" Tony was shocked as he asked.

Sean kept quiet. His silence answered Tony's question.

Tony held his breath and nodded. "Okay, then."

However, he could not help but complain to himself, 'Mr. Anderson doesn't even care about his health anymore just because he wants to protect Ms. May. How could he stay awake for a whole night?

‘Ms. May, you’ve got to forgive him as soon as possible, please!’

“And,” Sean added in a low voice after he thought about something. “Find a house that’s located nearer to the research laboratory. It’d be better if it’s a livelier area, and the house must have good soundproofing. Then, get someone to send the keys to her tomorrow morning.”

“Yes, Boss.”

Tony took his order, but he felt very bitter inside.

Tony realized that not only was his boss not going to sleep, but he had no plans for him to rest either!

‘What’s going on in Ms. May’s head? It’s already been so many days, yet there’s just no response from her.

‘She didn’t reject the flowers, and she didn’t mind the bodyguards protecting her either.

‘So, what’s really going on?’

Chapter 846-In the end, the car stopped at the neighborhood entrance, and Sean waited in the car for the entire night.

The next morning, Molly woke up and got ready to go to work after having breakfast.

She saw a man dressed in black standing outside when she opened the door.

The man bowed politely in front of her before handing her a set of keys.” Ms.

May, I told the boss about what happened last night, and he's very worried about you. So, he got you a new place to stay. Please take this."

"..." Molly was speechless.

She was a little confused.

The bodyguard thought that she would not want to take the keys from him, so he tried to convince her. "Ms. May, I hope you won't reject the boss's offer. Your family is very worried about your safety. I'm sure your kids would feel much more reassured if they knew that you're staying in a safe place!"

Molly only recollected herself after hearing what he said. She realized that Sean only bought her a new house because he was worried about her safety.

She wanted to reject it, but she could not get over the fact that she was being followed last night!

So, she reached out slowly and took the keys from him after hesitating.

■'Thanks!"

She walked past the bodyguard and went to the research laboratory after thanking him.

As soon as he saw Molly leaving the neighborhood, Sean immediately asked Tony, "Ask him what Molly said."

Tony was so sleepy that he almost dozed off. Then, he started up suddenly.

"Yes, Boss." After that, he talked to the bodyguard and reported back to Sean. Boss, Ms.

May accepted the keys, but she didn't say anything else."

“That’s good.”

Sean was relieved.

He was glad that he did not spend the night in the car for nothing. At least Molly accepted the new house. ‘Does that mean she’s less mad at me now? I Ding!

Suddenly, his phone rang.

Sean reached for his phone and saw a text message from Molly.

“Mr. Anderson, thank you for the house. Here’s the rent.”

Then, Sean saw a notification under Molly’s text, telling him that his account was credited twenty thousand.

Sean’s expression turned cold suddenly.

He thought that his relationship with Molly had become better since she accepted the house from him.

However, he was not expecting her to pay rent at all. She even addressed him as Mr. Anderson as if she wanted to draw a clear line between their interests and relationship.

Sean could not help but feel defeated.

‘It looks like doing these things isn’t going to change her mind after all.

‘It’s not enough. It’s far from enough...’ He pulled himself together as he thought about that.

The truth is, things were not as bad as he thought. Molly read all his messages without replying for days, but at least she was willing to send him a text message this time. Even though it was not much, it was still a good sign.

After all, he could not expect Molly to forget everything that had happened in such a short time.

Sean kept himself composed and sent her a reply. "Forget about the rent.

You've got to take care of yourself and just ask for the bodyguards' help if you ever need them. They won't disturb your daily life, but they'll certainly keep you safe when necessary."

Sean held his phone in his hand and patiently waited for Molly's reply after hitting send.

Molly waited for Sean to reply too. She felt a little disappointed when she saw that Sean did not approve the transfer. However, her mood became a lot better after getting his reply.

In the morning, Molly received the flowers as usual. And, she also started to make good progress in negotiating with Xesxia University for their partnership.

It seemed like everything was going well for her.

However, her good mood came to an end in the afternoon

Chapter 847-Molly did not hear from Sean at noon.

A few days ago, Sean would text Molly three times a day when she was having meals to remind her to look after herself. However, there was no reminder this time.

Even in the afternoon, Molly's phone was silent the whole time.

At first, Molly did not care about it. But, when it was nighttime, she kept feeling that something was missing.

“Molly, why aren’t you eating? Did you lose your appetite?” Lynn asked.

Lynn noticed that something was wrong with Molly because Molly ordered a meal set but did not take a single bite. Lynn could not help but be worried about Molly.

After Molly returned to her senses, she shook her head and said, “I’m fine. It’s just I don’t feel like eating.”

“You have to eat regardless. You look exhausted every day, and it looks like you’ve lost a lot of weight. You have to treat yourself better. Otherwise, when you go home, your family will be worried about you when they see how thin you are.”

As Lynn said, she shared a chicken drumstick from her meal with Molly and urged, “Quickly, eat up.”

Molly thanked Lynn for sharing, but Molly still had no appetite.

Molly suddenly put down her utensils and asked Lynn, “Lynn, If someone texts you every day and suddenly stops doing that, what would be the reason behind it?”

‘I think that person might be busy, or something came up?’ Lynn replied subconsciously.

“You’re right. Maybe I’m overthinking. It’s just that he used to text me during every mealtime, but today he didn’t. I’m just a little worried...”

After Molly finished speaking, she suddenly realized what was on her mind and immediately shut her mouth.

Seeing that, Lynn looked at Molly and said, “Molly, are you in a conflict with Sean?”

"H-How did you know?" Molly was surprised.

"Because you're not yourself today!" said Lynn.

Lynn put down her utensils. She then looked at Molly with her pair of translucent eyes under her short bangs.

Lynn said sincerely to Molly, "Molly, although I don't have much experience in relationships, I can see that you have been absent-minded these past few days.

I feel that you're in a bad mood, so I knew that something was wrong with your relationship."

But, I don't think Sean mistreats you. He sends you flowers every day, and he treats you very well! So, what happened between you two?"

Lynn was curious. She could tell from an outsider's perspective that Sean treated Molly very well.

But, Lynn could not understand why Molly was making a fuss.

"F-Forget it! Come on, let's eat."

Molly was inexplicably a little irritated. She did not wish to continue discussing the topic, so she diverted her attention.

Lynn could see that Molly did not wish to bring up the topic, so Lynn did not force Molly.

However, Lynn sincerely persuaded, "Molly, I don't know what happened to you, but what I want to say is that the most important thing for people to live in this world is to follow their heart and not doubt themselves!

"No matter what happens, follow your heart and don't make a decision you might regret.

That's all."

After Lynn said that seriously, she lowered her head and continued to eat her food.

Molly's heart thumped, and a thought flashed in her mind.

'In life, the most important thing is to follow your heart.

'So, what do I want in life?' Molly thought.

On the other hand, Sean did not rest well in the past few days. He did not sleep well last night, and Tony brought Sean back to the hotel to rest.

Sean rested, and eight hours passed.

It was not until after four o'clock in the afternoon that Sean slowly opened his eyes, and a hint of clarity appeared in his deep eyes.

Chapter 848-When Sean woke up, he realized that it was already late. Sean frowned, and he was a little annoyed as he said, "Tony, why didn't you wake me up at noon?" Tony carefully helped Sean to his wheelchair and said, "Boss, you haven't been sleeping well for several days, and your legs aren't well. It's not good for your health if this goes on! I can't bear to disturb your rest, so I didn't wake you."

Sean sighed indifferently and did nothing.

Sean took out his cell phone and texted Molly. [I was busy with something earlier. I forgot to remind you to eat well. The weather forecast shows that there may be a hail in the afternoon. Remember to put on more clothes to stay warm.] Beep! Molly had just returned to the office after working in the lab. She heard her phone ring and took a look. The corner of her lips twitched subconsciously.

Molly's mind was finally at peace.

Molly thought that something might have happened because Sean suddenly stopped contacting her. After she saw his explanation, she stopped worrying.

Following that, Sean had his meal and went to work.

Half an hour of work later, a thunderstorm suddenly sounded outside the window. The entire city was covered with a layer of gray fog followed by pouring rain. The temperature plummeted a lot.

Sean suddenly thought of Molly and was unsure whether Molly had brought extra clothes.

“Tony,” Sean called out.

‘Yes, Boss. What is it?’ Tony asked.

‘Take me to the best outlets nearby. I want to buy some clothes for her,’

Sean said.

Tony was stunned for a moment and nodded immediately after returning to his senses. “Okay, Boss.”

After that, Tony pushed Sean and went to a street full of branded outlets.

Although it was a rainy day, people were still coming and going on the street.

Sean lingered in a women’s clothing outlet and bought several thickdown jackets and coats for Molly.

Coincidentally, Molly and Lynn were also around the area.

The weather recently turned winter, and it got dark early each day. Molly was worried that it would be inconvenient for her colleagues to go home on rainy days, so she let everyone off work early.

Molly did not bring many winter clothes, so she wanted to go shopping with Lynn and buy some clothes.

It was probably fate. Molly and Sean happened to be at the same women's clothing outlet.

'Boss, look. Isn't that Ms. May?' Tony was the first to discover Molly in the outlet.

Sean glanced at Molly and confirmed that it was Molly. He immediately instructed Tony, "Let's go. Don't let her see US."

'Okay, Boss.' Tony quickly pushed Sean to the corner to avoid meeting Molly directly.

However, Molly still saw an image of a man pushing a wheelchair in the corner of her eyes.

'Was I imagining it?

'Why do I feel like that man's figure looks like Tony, and he happens to be pushing a wheelchair. Could the person in the wheelchair be...?

'No, definitely not!' Molly thought.

Molly shook her head and smiled. She thought, 'What was I thinking? Sean has already gone back to Norfolk. How could he be here?' Molly broke from her thoughts and focused on shopping for clothes.

Tony pushed Sean, and they reappeared outside the outlet's window.

Seeing that Molly and Lynn were trying on clothes one after another, the sales assistant next to them kept giving them thumbs up and praises.

The two girls suddenly smiled cheerfully, and Sean felt relieved in his heart.

'Luckily, she isn't very upset!' Sean thought.

'It looks like Ms. May is doing well,' Tony said to Sean.

In the past few days, Tony watched how his boss worried about Dr. May and thought that she might be in a worse predicament.

But, Molly seemed to be doing fine.

Chapter 849-Sean nodded and said, "That's good. I'm relieved to see her happy."

Tony asked Sean again, "Do you want to send the clothes you bought to Ms. May? Since they are here?"

"Not yet," said Sean.

Sean stared at Molly's figure and softly said, "Go buy her some scarves. It's freezing here, and she'll need it. Just send it to her later. She might not be willing to see me right now."

In the evening, Molly returned to the residence she was staying to pack her things and planned to move to the new house that Sean had prepared for her.

The bodyguards at a side helped, and it did not take long to tidy up the house.

The new house is a duplex apartment decorated in a Kalosan aristocratic style. There was a large fireplace, which made the house warm and sentimental.

The city's street view was unobstructed by the tall floor-to-ceiling windows. The rain was pouring in the city, and the cloudy, rainy night was beautiful.

"Ms. May, we have packed the things for you. Do you need help preparing dinner? If you do, we can also arrange a cook for you," One of the bodyguards said.

Molly knew that these were all within Sean's considerations, and he was cautious and thoughtful about everything.

But, Molly shook her head and refused. "I prefer to stay alone and cook for myself. Thank you for your hard work. You may go now."

"Okay, Ms. May. This is my phone number. I'll be staying nearby. You can call me anytime if you need something," said the bodyguard. He handed a note with the phone number and walked out.

After Molly closed the door, she walked to the soft and elastic couch and sat down. Looking at the exquisitely decorated duplex apartment, she felt an indescribable sense of solidity in her heart.

Sean knew Molly's preferences very well. Most of the decorations in the house were in line with her taste.

After Molly packed up some daily necessities, she cooked dinner for herself.

When Molly finished cooking, there was a knock on the door.

"Who is it?" Molly asked.

Molly went to open the door and saw that it was the bodyguards from earlier.

One of the bodyguards was holding several big bags in his hands. He entered the apartment and said, "Ms. May, here are some winter clothes that our Boss has prepared for you. The weather is cold, and he wished to remind you to take care of yourself."

After that, the bodyguards left again.

Molly looked at the several bags with different sizes all over the place puzzledly.

After taking out those clothes, Molly was even more shocked.

‘Why do I feel like I’ve seen these before?’

‘I saw this brand in the outlet today.’

‘There was even a down jacket, and I bought the same style as Sean’s.’

‘What’s going on?’ The more Molly thought about it, the more confused she became. It was only when her stomach rumbled that she remembered she had to eat. So, she put the clothes aside for the time being.

At nine o’clock in the evening, Sean was on the phone with the three little ones far away in Northfolk.

“Daddy, I heard that Mommy was in danger last night. How is she?”

The three little ones had heard that Molly was followed by a mugger and were worried.

Sean looked at the three little ones softly. He patiently reassured them, ‘Don’t worry, my bodyguards have already apprehended the mugger.’

Besides, I have helped Mommy shift to a new apartment. There won’t be another incident again.

After the three little ones listened to Sean’s assurance, they were delighted with Sean’s actions.

“Mommy’s so lucky to have Daddy’s protection, and now we can rest assured!

“I knew Daddy is the most considerate to Mommy,” said the three little ones.

Chapter 850-“I wish mommy and daddy would reconcile soon,” The three little ones said. They all hoped that Sean and Molly would reconcile as soon as possible.

That way, their family would be complete!

Sean smiled lightly and nodded. Then, he said, “Sure. I will do my best.”

After the three little ones ended the call with Sean, they made another video call to Molly and sweetly asked, “Mommy, what are you doing?”

“I’m having dinner right now. Have you all eaten yet?” Molly asked.

‘Yes, we had our dinner!’ said the three little ones.

‘The weather is getting cold. Have you put on more clothes today?’ Molly always greeted the child with warm regards.

Three little ones immediately stepped back two meters away and stood in a row. They patted their clothes and said, “Look, Mommy. We’re all wearing down jackets!” The three down jackets were identical. One blue, one red and one yellow. When the three little ones wore the down jackets, they were even more adorable and energetic.

Molly smiled and wished that she could hug them.

“Mommy, can we come to see you in two days?” The three little ones suddenly asked tentatively.

At first, the three little ones planned to visit Molly with Sean as a surprise, but they had to let go of the plan after Sean told Molly the truth.

However, the three little ones missed their mother!

Therefore, the three little ones decided to ask Molly if they could visit her.

“Of course you can. But, if you want to come, you must make sure that you come safely! It’s best if your uncle comes along with you,” Molly said.

Molly specifically warned the three little ones. Even though they were brilliant, she was still worried about them.

“Got it!” The three little ones nodded in unison.

Molly smiled and was about to hang up the call when a kind voice from the other end said, “Molly.”

It was Grandpa Dave.

Molly hurriedly adjusted her phone’s camera at herself again. After she saw Grandpa Dave’s face, she called out obediently, “Grandpa.”

Grandpa Dave smiled kindly and caringly asked, “How are you over there? Are you used to the place yet?”

‘Don’t worry about me, Grandpa. I’m fine,” Molly replied sensibly.

Grandpa Dave nodded and looked at Molly dearly. “That’s good to hear!”

Then, Grandpa Dave inevitably talked about Sean.

I heard from Sean that you haven't contacted him for several days. I don't mean to interfere with your decision, but I would like to know about them." Grandpa Dave said calmly with respect.

Grandpa Dave just wanted to know what mental state Molly was in. After all, it would be a problem if things continued the way it was.

Molly naturally knew that Grandpa Dave was worried about her, and she felt a little guilty.

Grandpa Dave was already old, and Molly could not bear to let her grandfather worry about her affairs.

So, Molly gently said, "Grandpa, can you give me some time? I don't know what I'm thinking. In fact, I have already accepted the fact that Sean is the father of my children.

But, about my relationship with him... I have to think about it."

"Okay. As long as you know what you are doing!" said Grandpa Dave.

Grandpa Dave never intended to interfere with Molly's decision. Hearing what she said, he probably understood what she was thinking. He calmly said, "Whether you forgive Sean or cut off contact with him, I will support you and stand by you. I'm already old. I don't have many wishes. I just hope that you can live happily every day in your life."
