

Triplets On SM 851

Chapter 851-Molly knew that only Grandpa Dave would treat her unconditionally in this world!

“There’s nothing to be thankful for, silly girl! Isn’t that what families are for?”

Grandpa Dave continued, “However, having that said, life goes on after all. People always make mistakes, but they can be forgiven if they truly regret them. Of course, these words are just for reference. It’s up to you whether you want to listen or not, that’s all! I just don’t want you to do anything that you will regret.”

Molly nodded and said, “Yes, Grandpa. It’s getting late. You should go to bed early. I’m about to sleep too!”

Grandpa Dave agreed and then ended the video call.

Later at night, it was still raining heavily outside the window.

It was uncertain whether it was because the weather had cooled down, but Sean felt some discomfort in his legs. Then, his legs were sore.

Sean reached out his hand and tapped lightly on his legs. The soreness was relieved a little, and he did not take it too seriously.

When Tony brought dinner over, he found that something was wrong based on Sean’s facial expression. Tony worriedly asked, “Boss, you don’t look so good.

Are you not feeling well?”

“My legs were a little sore, but I’m fine.” Sean answered nonchalantly. He did not take this little ailment and pain seriously.

Tony was extremely worried. 'Boss's legs are already bad, and now he is feeling sore again. That's a big problem!' Tony hurriedly said, "I'll go get Ms. May and ask her to take a look at you."

"Stop." Sean coldly stopped Tony and indifferently said, "It's just a small matter.

You don't have to trouble her. Go get me a cup of hot water and some medicine."

"Boss..." Tony wanted to persuade Sean, but Tony gave up helplessly after seeing Sean's face.

Tony knew that it was pointless no matter how he persuaded Sean!

All Tony could do was bring Sean the medicine and a cup of warm water. Tony hoped that these medicines would relieve him.

After Sean took medicine, he felt better.

And when Sean finished his work, he took a shower and went to bed.

However, Sean could not sleep after lying on the bed.

Sean felt that his head was a little heavy and even more uncomfortable in the middle of the night.

Sean had to call Tony. "Tony, are there any painkillers?"

"Painkillers? Boss, are you okay?" asked Tony.

Tony was nervous. Seeing his boss's ashen face, he immediately realized the seriousness of the issue. He persuaded Sean, "You don't look so good. Let's get you to the hospital for a consultation!"

Sean waved his hand and said, "It's okay. I guess I just caught a cold and a headache. It's okay. Just go get the medicine for me."

"Yes, Boss..." said Tony.

Tony frowned. He had no choice but to get some painkillers for Sean to consume.

After Sean took the painkillers, he rested on the bed again.

Tony did not dare to leave Sean alone. Tony always had a feeling that Sean's condition was not well, and Tony would be more at ease if he watched over Sean.

Sure enough, Sean suddenly began to have a fever the latter night. His whole body seemed to be burning hot.

In a daze, Sean softly murmured, "Molly..."

"Boss!" Tony exclaimed.

Tony noticed that something was wrong and immediately checked on Sean.

As a result, Tony was taken aback by the situation in front of him.

Tony saw that Sean's face did not look good. Sean's face was as pale as paper, his lips were colorless, and he had almost lost consciousness.

Tony subconsciously reached out his hand and touched Sean's forehead.

Tony could feel the scalding temperature with his hand. He exclaimed, ' Boss, you have a high fever!"

Chapter 852-However, Sean did not hear Tony's voice and was still babbling in his sleep. "Molly..."

'You're so sick, yet you still think of Ms. May?' Tony asked.

Tony was so anxious that he quickly took out his cell phone and instructed his subordinates to ready the car downstairs. He helped Sean up and rushed all the way to the hospital.

The doctor took Sean's body temperature and hurriedly treated him to lower his fever.

After a while, Sean got an IV drip.

Tony was still worried after seeing it.

'Boss insisted on going to buy clothes for Ms. May today. His fever was probably because of the rain on the way there!

'Wait a minute... Ms. May!' Tony suddenly thought of Molly.

'Boss has repeatedly done so many things for Ms. May, but she did not respond!

'Now that Boss has been hospitalized with a fever, I don't think that Ms. May won't care if I tell her about what happened!' Thinking of that, Tony could not bear it any longer. He instructed the bodyguards, "All of you look after the boss and call the doctor at any time if anything happens!"

Then, Tony strode out.

The rain was getting heavier and heavier, and the road was covered with puddles of rainwater.

Tony drove the car quickly, splashing a lot of water along the way.

Ten minutes later, Tony arrived at Molly's apartment and started ringing her doorbell.

Molly was sleeping soundly when she vaguely heard the doorbell ringing, and she felt that it was a little noisy. She simply covered her head with a quilt.

Tony pressed the doorbell for a long time, but there was still no response. He then took out his cell phone and called Molly.

Molly's phone rang next to her ear, and Molly was finally awake.

Molly touched her phone in a daze without looking at the caller ID. She put it to her ear and asked, "Hello, who is it?" it's me, Tony! Ms. May, Boss has a high fever and is in the hospital right now.

The situation is not good. Please get up and see him with me?" said Tony.

Histone sounded urgent.

Molly suddenly woke up.

'He has a fever?' Molly asked absentmindedly. Her mind was still a little dazed.

it's not just a fever. Maybe it's because of the temperature. Boss has been looking at his legs since this afternoon. I guessed that it might be because of the severe pain in his legs and feet. But, he didn't tell me. So, I hope you can go see him with me. I'm at the door right now," Tony urged.

After Molly heard that, she was finally awake.

Molly rolled over from her bed and sat up. She got out of bed anxiously but suddenly remembered something and said, "No, I'm in Xesxia now, and Sean is in Northfolk. Even If I catch a plane now, it will take many hours to arrive!"

It was only then did Tony realize that Molly did not know that his boss had come to Xesxia!

A special solution for a special situation.

Tony could not care that much anymore, and he honestly said, "Actually, Boss came to Xesxia in the middle of the night last night out of concern after he found out that you were being followed. Moreover, he stayed at the gate of your previous residence all night to watch over you. He took a break during the day, but after he woke up, he was busy with a lot of work and went out to buy some clothes for you..."

Tony told honestly without hesitation and revealed Sean's situation one by one.

After Molly heard that, her heart skipped a beat.

Molly never thought that Sean had always been in Xesxia to accompany her in secret and protect her!

An indescribable feeling spread in Molly's heart.

Molly immediately changed her clothes, opened the door, and anxiously said, "Take me to the hospital!"

Seeing that Molly finally opened the door, Tony had a relieved smile. He said, "Ms. May, I knew you wouldn't leave Boss behind!" Then, Tony rushed to the hospital with Molly

Chapter 853-up with Molly's pace. He said, "Ms. May, wait up!" Molly ran straight forward, ignoring Tony's shout.

Seeing that, Tony could not help but feel even more relieved.

'It's a good thing that Ms. May isn't that heartless. She still takes Boss very seriously in her heart.

'It's not in vain that the Boss had done so much for her!' Tony thought.

After a while, the two arrived at Sean's ward.

Molly hurried to Sean's hospital bed to check his condition.

Sean was sleeping soundly. His deep eyes were tightly closed, his face was as pale as ash, and no blood flowed on his lips.

Seeing Sean like that, Molly felt as though her heart was cut by a knife.

'It's only been a few days, and he became like that,' Molly thought.

Molly was feeling bad, and her eyes were tearing up. She took a deep breath and suppressed the surging emotions before she reached out and probed Sean's forehead.

The temperature on Sean's forehead was still high.

It was so hot that Molly could not help but withdraw her hand!

'How could his fever be so high?' Molly pondered.

Molly felt her heart tighten and immediately instructed Tony, "Tony, find some cooling pad and towels, and then bring a bowl of cold water over to help Sean reduce his fever!"

"Yes, Ms. May." Tony happily complied.

Soon, Tony brought the water, towels, and cooling pads.

Molly put the cooling pad on Sean's forehead. Then, she unbuttoned his clothes and gently wiped his body with a warm towel to let the heat in his body dissipate.

During the process, Molly was extremely cautious as if she was treating some cherished baby.

Tony saw it in his eyes and thought, 'I should take a picture of this moment and show it to Boss. He will be delighted!' Molly did not know what Tony was thinking. She just focused on wiping Sean!

At that moment, Molly suddenly felt Sean's fingers seem to move.

Molly froze for a while then looked up at Sean's delicate face.

Sean, who was unconscious, suddenly twitched his eyelashes a few times!

Molly panicked. She thought that Sean was about to wake up.

As a result, Molly heard a soft whisper. "Molly..."

The voice was so soft that it was like water dripping!

Molly's heart trembled slightly, and she asked, "Are you awake?"

But, when Molly looked closer, Sean did not wake up.

Sean's eyes were still closed, and his pale complexion looked weak.

In a daze, Sean kept murmuring Molly's name. Sean looked affectionate and paranoid.

He said, "Molly, I was wrong. I'm sorry..."

Molly felt a sharp pain in her heart!

As the CEO of the dignified Anderson Corporation, Sean looked cold and mighty in front of everyone. He had never apologized to anyone before.

But, Sean was very humble and compromised with Molly.

Molly was feeling uncomfortable in her heart.

Molly even thought that she was being too cruel to Sean for a moment. After all, he did not do it on purpose.

"Ms. May, are you alright?" Tony asked quickly as he noticed that Molly's expression was not right.

Molly returned to her senses. She took a deep breath and shook her head. She said, "I'm fine!"

Molly suppressed her emotions and got back to business. "Go and ask the doctor if there are any tools for needle treatment here. If they do, get them for me. I don't think he is sleeping very well, and his brows kept frowning. His legs are probably not very comfortable. I need to treat him!"

Tony naturally did not dare to object. He said, "Yes, I'm on it!"

Tony went to the doctor and returned with the tools needed for the needle treatment in a flash.

After Molly got it, she quickly disinfected it and immediately began treating Sean.

Chapter 854-When Molly placed the needle on Sean, he seemed to be able to feel the pain. Sean's handsome eyebrows twitched involuntarily following Molly's movements.

'Is it really that uncomfortable?' Molly asked. She knew what was going on at a glance.

'Sean must have felt uncomfortable with his legs for a long time, but he endured it and did not say anything.' Thinking of that, Molly felt a little angry.

'No matter what, you should have taken good care of yourself. Did Sean do this to make me feel bad on purpose?' Molly thought.

Molly could not help but angrily say, "Sean, you knew I won't be able to be away from you, so you did this on purpose..."

After Molly said that, Sean seemed to know he had done something wrong. His thin lips trembled as if he was about to speak.

Molly did not realize it, so she scolded even more vigorously, "I'll say this to you. I don't need you to sacrifice so much for me! Right now, you need to put your health first instead of torturing yourself like that! Do you think that I will feel sorry for you because of that? I won't..."

Molly was saying the opposite deliberately. In reality, she was worried sick in her mind at that moment.

However, Molly's treatment did work on Sean.

After about ten minutes, the needle treatment ended.

Molly put away the needles and massaged Sean's legs again. Her movements were gentle and skillful, which were no different from before.

Tony watched the process from the side, and a light smile appeared.

'Ms. May really still cares about Boss a lot!

'I believe that as long as Boss coaxed Ms. May well, they will settle their differences sooner or later,' Tony thought.

As time passed, Sean's fever finally subsided. The pain in his legs was relieved, his pale face began to recover a little bit, and his lips gradually turned light pink.

The sky was turning dawn, and the sun was about to rise.

Molly watched over Sean for the whole night. Seeing that Sean's physical condition gradually stabilized, she felt relieved.

Molly stood up and softly said to Tony, "He's alright now! You can look after him.

I'm leaving."

Tony was a little sleepy. When he heard that, he could not help but lift his spirits.

He said, 'Ms. May, won't you stay a little longer?'

"No, his condition is getting better. You don't need me to take care of him!" said Molly.

Although Molly said that, she had not figured out how she should face Sean.

That was why she wanted to go home before he woke up.

Tony, on the other hand, was anxious!

'Ms. May finally came to see Boss, and I could clearly see that Ms. May definitely had Boss in her heart last night!

'If she leaves, won't Boss miss a good opportunity to get along with her?' Tony thought.

Tony immediately said, Ms. May, Boss's condition is not completely stable, right? He hasn't rested much these days, and his body is weak. What if it relapses again? Since you are here, why don't you wait for him to get better before you leave? I know you and my Boss are in a special situation right now, but if something happens, I don't know what to do besides being anxious. So, please stay here until things get better, please?' Hearing that, Molly hesitated.

But, what Tony said did make some sense.

Molly hesitated for a while and finally nodded in agreement.

'Forget it. Waiting a little longer wouldn't hurt!' Molly thought.

Seeing Molly agree, Tony could not help but heave a sigh of relief and secretly felt proud at the same time.

'When the boss wakes up, he'll be thrilled to see Ms. May.

'Looks like I have done a great job with such tactics!' Tony thought.

Chapter 855-Sean called out immediately. His voice was still a little weak.

Sean's heart was still filled with joy!

Sean thought, 'Molly came to see me and watched over me.' A warm feeling gradually flowed in his heart, and his hazy mood seemed to clear up after a long time.

Molly noticed that Sean had woken up, and she was inexplicably nervous!

This was because Molly did not know how she should face Sean.

Molly had no choice but to lower her head awkwardly and explain, "Don't get me wrong. Tony told me last night that you were ill, and I was worried about your condition. So, I came to see you. I'm relieved now that you are alright."

"Since you're awake, I should probably go..." After saying that, Molly turned around and was planning to leave.

However, Sean was reluctant to let Molly go. So, he grabbed her hand and said, "Molly!"

Molly was shocked!

The temperature on Sean's palm was transmitted to Molly's, which was very warm.

Molly could not help but blush and hurriedly retracted her hand. She calmed down and said, "If there's nothing else, I should go now."

"What if there's something else?" Sean asked suddenly.

Molly's footsteps stopped immediately!

Seeing that Molly was still hesitating, Sean knew that Molly still cared about him!

Sean could not help but laugh. He then nicely pleaded, "My legs are still not feeling so well. Could you stay for a while and help me take a look? Please? ■ Molly suddenly lost her anger."

'Fine. As a doctor, I can't leave my patient like that!' Molly thought.

So, Molly turned around again and patiently asked, "Where does it not feel well?"

The smile on Sean's face suddenly became brighter. Immediately, his slender fingers pointed to the knee, "Here. I feel sore here."

Molly glanced at Sean's knee and breathed a sigh of relief. "This is the knee joint. I guess it was because of the cold weather and rain yesterday. Plus, You have been doing your rehabilitation recently and exercising too much, which causes discomfort. But, it's fine. You should stop the rehabilitation first, and I will prescribe you some medicine. You can also massage your knees a little more regularly."

After Molly said that, she started massaging Sean's sore spot again.

Molly's massage technique was still precise and skillful. After a few strokes, Sean's knee joint felt hot, and the soreness was relieved a lot.

Sean felt much more comfortable, and the eyes he looked at Molly with were extraordinarily gentle.

"Thank you," Sean said suddenly.

Molly was stunned for a moment and looked at Sean, only to realize that Sean looked at her deeply with affection.

Molly felt embarrassed as Sean looked at her like that!

Molly's cheeks could not help blushing, and she quickly looked for an excuse and said, "Then, I-I'll be leaving now."

"Wait a minute, Ms. May!"

At that moment, Tony's voice came from outside the door.

Tony rushed back with breakfast, and as soon as he entered the door, he smiled at Molly and said, "Ms. May, I just went to buy some breakfast nearby. Would you like to eat some before leaving?"

Having said that, Tony hurriedly winked at Sean.

Sean understood what Tony meant in a second, and Sean softly said, "Molly, it must be very tiring for you to take care of me last night. How about we have breakfast together?"

Besides, it won't take long!"

Chapter 856-'But...' Molly was still a little hesitant.

Tony did not give Molly a chance to refuse. He opened the small dining table on the bed, put the breakfasts on it one by one, and greeted them warmly.

"Ms. May, I bought congee, sandwiches, and milk. You can eat whatever you like," said Tony.

Molly could only sigh silently.

Molly was not stupid. She could definitely feel that Sean really wanted her to stay.

But, Molly was still a little uncomfortable...

Yet, Molly did not feel good to refuse Sean.

Molly nodded in agreement helplessly, and then she had breakfast face-to-face with Sean.

"Eat more eggs to replenish your protein. Seeing that you have lost weight recently, you must keep up with your nutrition," said Sean.

While eating breakfast, Sean did not forget to take care of Molly's appetite and put all the nutritious food into her bowl.

Sean's voice was as deep as ever and soft enough to be music in other's ears.

Sean's attitude toward Molly was also heartfelt, and he took good care of her.

Sean was still as considerate, patient, and good to Molly.

But, the better Sean was, the more complicated Molly's mood became.

Molly opened her mouth several times but did not know what to say to Sean.

So, Molly just silently finished her breakfast.

After the meal, Molly put down her utensils and suddenly remembered something. She asked, "Didn't you go back to Northfolk last time? How are the children at home?"

What Molly cared about the most was the three children at home.

"They're all fine." Sean looked at Molly's delicate face and softly said, "They just miss you a little."

"I miss them too, and they said they were coming to see me," Molly said and subconsciously smiled.

The three little ones would always be Molly's treasure.

Sean nodded and said, "They told me to bring them to see you when I have the time. But, I came here temporarily last night, and it was inconvenient to bring them with me. So, I can only do it next time."

'He came here last night...' When Molly heard that, she suddenly remembered Tony's words.

Tony said Sean had rushed over to Xesxia overnight out of worry after hearing that Molly was being followed.

And on that night, Sean stayed and watched over Molly outside her house all night. He even had someone prepare a new apartment for her and buy her clothes in the rain...

Sean had done a lot for Molly. His concern and care for her can be said to be meticulous.

Of course, Molly was aware of Sean's intentions and felt heartbroken for some reason.

That was because Molly did not want Sean to be exhausted.

After thinking for a few seconds, Molly slowly said, "Sean, you don't need to do this."

"I know how good you are to me. You send me flowers, arrange bodyguards for me, change my house, buy me clothes, etc. I'm aware of all these things. But, I'm still very confused right now. Do you understand?"

"Although I have slowly accepted that you are the father of my children, those past events are a hurdle that I can't get over in my heart. I need time to digest it, so please let me do it slowly.

Molly's tone was full of pleading.

It was not that Molly would never think of forgiving Sean.

But, what happened five years ago still left a lot of trauma in Molly's heart.

Even though the wound was no longer hurting and bleeding, it was the most shocking scar in her memory.

So, Molly really needed time.

Chapter 857-Sean looked at Molly's helpless appearance. He frowned, and his heart ached.

'I couldn't bear to tease Molly.

'All I wanted from the beginning to the end was for the woman I love to be happy.

'So, I can wait.' Thinking of that, Sean smiled, and he softly said, "It's okay. You can take your time to think about it. As I said, I will wait for you no matter how long it takes.

'Whether it takes a month, two months, three years, or even five years, I will wait for you.

Even if you ask me to wait for a lifetime, I will definitely wait and never break my promise."

When Sean said that, his eyes and mind were full of Molly.

Sean's voice and expression were unyielding.

Seeing Sean being so serious, Molly felt touched and almost cried!

The truth was that Molly did not want to do this to Sean either. She wanted to live a happy and beautiful life with him!

However, when the ugly past was revealed, the pain of the past was like a bloody knife stabbed into her chest!

Molly wanted to let go of the past, but she could not help it.

So, Molly just needed a little more time.

In the end, Molly left.

Sean lay on the hospital bed and sighed softly.

Sean rarely sighed. Even if his company encountered serious difficulties, he had never been restless.

But, at that moment, Sean truly felt the taste of helplessness.

Besides Sean, Tony felt that his Boss was very melancholy.

Tony thought for a while and comforted, "Boss, I can tell that Ms. May still loves you. As soon as I told her that you weren't feeling well last night, she rushed over immediately. She really does care about you. It's true!"

"But, whoever ties the bell around the tiger's neck must untie it. If Ms. May is not willing to forgive you, then it must be because she hasn't let go of what happened back then! Or maybe, you can go to Mr. May Sr. and ask him what happened that year. Maybe that will help?"

As soon as Tony said that, it was like a slap in the face.

Sean thought about it, and he should ask Mr. May Sr. to find out what happened to Molly in the past!

Sean wanted to find out what kind of pain it was that Molly could not bear.

Then, Sean glanced at the time.

'At this time, Grandpa Dave would have just had breakfast, and he would be free to talk,' Sean thought.

So, Sean took out his cell phone and dialed Grandpa Dave's number.

The call was quickly connected, and Grandpa Dave's kind voice sounded, 'Hello, Sean.'

“Grandpa, do you have a minute?” Sean asked politely.

“Yes, I do. What is it that you want from me, Sean? If you need anything, just tell me directly.” Grandpa Dave’s tone was very kind.

Grandpa Dave was basking in the sun in the backyard. The sun shone on his old face, making him look kind and benevolent.

Sean was not good at beating around the bushes, so he politely said, “Grandpa, I’m sorry to bother you. I’m calling mainly to learn from you about what happened before and after Molly went abroad. Can you tell me? I want to know how many grievances Molly suffered in those few years and what kind of pain she went through. I want to know everything about her.”

When Grandpa Dave heard that, he nodded slowly and understood what Sean meant.

‘Sean’s relationship with Molly had entered a critical period. So, he’s looking for a solution to save their relationship.

‘Fine!

‘There are some things that Sean should know,’ Grandpa Dave thought.

So, Grandpa Dave did not hide it anymore and told the truth about what happened to Molly in those years.

Chapter 858-Five years ago, Molly experienced the darkest time of her life.

At that time, as soon as Lara received Molly from her adoptive parents, Molly was disliked by the Mays. Even the adoptive parents did not want to see her!

The exclusion of the Mays made Molly feel as though she was an outsider.

After that, Molly became pregnant by accident!

The Mays thought that Molly was an embarrassment to the family, so they kicked her out of the house in a rage.

At that time, Grandpa Dave could not bear to see Molly suffer and decided to help her and send her abroad.

But, after going abroad, Molly's life was still harsh!

Molly was alone with a big belly and suffered from the eyes and criticism of others.

Molly's spirit was devastated in various ways during that time, and she almost collapsed.

But, Molly persevered for the children in her belly!

Then, Molly lost a lot of blood during her delivery!

Although the hospital provided blood in time, Molly passed out unconsciously.

At that time, even the doctors in the delivery room thought that Molly's situation was critical and she might not survive.

Unexpectedly, Molly walked through the gates of hell and woke up.

And when Molly opened her eyes, she was anxiously looking for her children.

When her three children were safe, only then did Molly reveal a happy smile.

It was Molly's three children that pushed her to survive!

The three children also dragged Molly out of the abyss of despair!

From then on, the three children were Molly's life, and they motivated her to survive.

"Sean, it's been difficult for Molly these past few years. Please be patient and give her more time! Molly is kind-hearted. If you show her your sincerity, I believe she will forgive you sooner or later..." Grandpa Dave said emotionally.

Sean only felt that his heart was about to be pierced! He did not expect that Molly had experienced so much hardship.

'Molly crawled out of the abyss of despair again and again, and she was already covered with scars.

'But, for the sake of the children, she was willing to suffer as much as she needed!

'Compared to hers, what is the torment I endured these days?' Sean thought.

"I understand, Grandpa."

Sean seemed to have made up his mind and promised from the bottom of his heart, as he said, "In the past few years, it's true that I can't help but make her and the children suffer. However, from now on, I will treat them ten times, a hundred times better, and make up for everything I owe her and the children!

"Please rest assured, Grandpa. As long as Molly is willing to step out from her past, I will definitely not let her down again."

Grandpa Dave nodded with satisfaction and said, "That's good to hear.

With your words, I can be more at ease!"

After that, Sean hung up the phone.

Sean was holding his phone tightly, but he still could not return to his senses.

‘Only God knows how much I wanted to appear in front of Molly and hug her tightly.

‘I can’t wait to shower Molly with all the love I owe her over the years and love her with all of my heart!

‘But, I can’t rush it. Everything needs time...’ While Sean was in his thoughts, his phone suddenly vibrated.

Sean took a look and found that it was Molly who had texted him on her own initiative.

[I just remembered that I had to remind you. Don’t rush out of the hospital these two days. Take a good rest in the hospital. It’s been cloudy and rainy recently. Don’t let your legs get cold.] Molly’s words were like her voice. It was so gentle that one’s heart could soften.

Sean immediately felt warm in his heart and replied, [I’ll take care of myself. You take care too.] After receiving Sean’s reply, Molly was relieved.

Although Molly was in a bad mood, she still had to remind Sean. After all, his health is the most important!

Chapter 859-In a blink of an eye, Molly had been staying in Xesxia for two weeks.

Molly did not see her children for a long time. She missed them very much. So, she decided to take a trip back home.

The next morning, after she temporarily assigned work to her assistant, Lynn, she went to the airport.

After hearing about it, Sean instantly had Tony buy first-class plane tickets for the same flight to go back to Northfolk with Molly.

Molly had no idea about that.

After entering the airplane, she immediately walked to her first-class seat. She suddenly heard a familiar voice when she was about to sit down. "Ms. May, what a coincidence!"

Only then Molly realized that Tony was standing next to her, smiling at her as she took a closer look.

Sean had already sat down next to Tony. He covered his lower body with a thin gray blanket. He was extremely noble.

Molly clearly looked a little surprised when she saw the two of them.

'Why do I feel like Sean's following me?!' Just when she thought about that, she curled her lips as she asked, "Are you guys going back to Northfolk?"

'Yes.'

Sean nodded faintly. He then gently said, "I heard that you were going back. So, I wanted to go back with you. If anything unexpected happens to you, I'll know about it as soon as it happens. And also, I kind of missed the kids."

Molly did not expect him actually follow her.

She could not help but purse her lips. "You're really quite frank... Besides, what could happen to me in broad daylight?"

Tony then laughed as he said, "Ms. May, you still don't get it? My boss was afraid that his wife was running away from him. That was why he followed you."

The corners of Sean's lips lifted slightly when he heard that. He did not deny it.

Molly blushed. She petulantly glanced at Tony. "No one would say you're mute If you remain silent."

"Right. Sorry..."

Tony seemed listless suddenly. But, he was still smiling.

Sean gave a faint smile, but he did not speak any further. He merely reminded them, "The plane is going to take off soon. Sit down."

Molly curled her lips as she sat down. She did not say anything else.

They sat beside each other, but she did not speak to him.

It was mainly because they had not reconciled their relationship. She did not know what to say.

So, after she put on the seat belt, she simply closed her eyes and rested for a while.

But, she could not fall asleep even after the plane took off.

Because... Sean's seat was too close to her.

She could clearly sense Sean's smell even after she closed her eyes.

She was too familiar with the light, woody scent. She was sentimentally attached to it.

She could not calm down.

Sean paid attention to her for a while. He thought she was asleep when he saw that her breathing had gradually become stable.

So, he grabbed the blanket beside him and gently covered her with it.

Molly felt Sean's sweet action. But, she acted as though she did not know about it.

She felt inexplicably safe at that moment.

After two hours, the plane landed at the airport in Northfolk.

Molly carried her luggage as she took the lead and walked toward the exit.

Tony immediately pushed Sean to chase after her. He said, "Ms. May, slow down. Wait for US."

Tony smiled again when he went up to her. He asked, "Ms. May, you and my boss are going in the same direction. Why don't we leave together?"

Molly was a little helpless when she saw that they kept going after her. So, she rejected him, "It's all right. I'll get a cab to go back."

She then went to the roadside after she said that. She wanted to stretch her hand out to call for a cab.

Chapter 860-c voice, "Let US drive you back! The kids know that we came back together. If we go back separately, I'm not sure what they'll think of it. They might be sad..."

Molly was slightly stunned when she heard that.

She turned around to glance at Sean, as she knew that he was using the children to persuade her.

But, it still worked on her!

Sean's thin lips lifted a little when he saw her remain silent. He offered again, "I think my car is more comfortable than a cab. What do you think?"

Molly was speechless."..."

'Okay!

I'm doing this for my triplets.

'I think they won't be happy if they see me having troubles with Sean.' The last thing that Molly wanted to see was her kids being sad.

So, she turned around and got in the Rolls-Royce that was parked at the roadside.

Sean smiled brighter when he saw her getting in his car.

Tony then helped Sean enter the car to sit beside her.

Molly could smell Sean's scent as he sat down. The waves of love stirred in her heart again.

But, Sean was unfazed and calm. He acted as if nothing had happened. He gently asked, "How many days are you planning to stay here this time?"

Molly cleared her throat and said, "One or two days."

Sean nodded. He then patiently asked in his tender voice again, "Is that enough? The kids missed you very much. I think they won't want you to leave so soon."

Molly felt helpless as she thought about that issue. She said, "I have no other choice. I can't stay in my house for too long. After all, I promised to help my teacher. I must get my work done."

"That's true."

Sean understood the hard circumstances she was in. So, he did not ask further.

He then gave it a thought. He was thoughtful as he said, "Actually, that's okay. If you miss the kids, I can bring them to visit you in Xesxia next time."

I can also bring a chef over to make some nutritious food for you. You've lost weight during this period of time."

He sounded very attentive as he said that. He felt bad for her too.

Molly felt uncomfortable when Sean was so tender and cared so much for her.

'Come to think of it, after Sean confessed his identity, he has always been nice to me, tolerant of me, and took care of me...

'But, I constantly refused to talk to him.

'What's the difference between me acting like this and throwing a tantrum?

'And, although Sean knew that I was sulking, he still spoiled me, treated me nicely to cheer me up, and kept treating me well.' Molly suddenly felt that she had gone a little too far!

'He didn't mean to hurt me in the past.

'Why am I acting this way and making it so difficult for him?' She was inexplicably annoyed as she thought about that.

But, she did not know how to reconcile with him...

So, she just suppressed her annoyance as she went back to her home.

At this time, the May family knew that Molly and Sean were coming back home. They were ready to welcome them.

Alex, Ben, and Claudia were sitting next to each other in the living room. They were overjoyed when they knew that their mother was coming back!

Each of them even prepared a little gift for Molly. They wanted to give the gifts to Molly when she came back.

After Molly got off the car, she ran into the house excitedly and said, "Alex, Ben, Claudia, mommy is back!"

"Mommy!"

The three little ones immediately ran to her with their little, short legs at the same time.

The four of them hugged tightly!
