

Triplets On SM 861

Chapter 861-Molly was over the moon when she saw her triplets. She kept kissing them as she hugged them. "Alex, Ben, Claudia, did you miss mommy?"

'Yes!"

The triplets simultaneously said, "Mommy, we missed you very much.

You're finally back to see us."

Molly felt very guilty when she heard that. She immediately stroked their heads and said, "I'm sorry. I've been very busy recently. I didn't even have time for you. I'm sorry, my darlings."

"It's fine. Mommy, we knew you had work to do. We're very happy as long as you come back!"

The three little ones said sweetly as they smiled at her innocently.

Molly felt even more guilty when she saw the kids were being so sensible. She then hugged them tightly again as she steadily murmured, "I promise I'll come back and spend time with you all once I'm done with my current job. I promise."

The triplets indulged in their mother's nice arms. They were very satisfied.

Brycen was standing beside them. He was a little touched when he saw Molly and her kids' reunion scene. He instantly opened his arms and said, ' Sister, I want a hug too..."

Molly glanced at him in a funny way. "Not you. Go get a girlfriend. You can hug her."

'What if I can't find one?"

“You shouldn’t come back here then,” Mr. May Sr. said faintly. Everyone in the house was amused suddenly.

Brycen wanted to cry but failed to shed a tear.

Molly then greeted Mr. May Sr., “Grandpa!”

After that, she turned to Sawyer.

Molly had not seen him for half a month. Sawyer’s complexion was good. He was smiling quite brightly. He had put on some weight, and he did not look extremely bony like he did in the past. And, his hair had grown longer. His hair was well-kept and clean. He gave off special artistic vibes.

And, with his gentle and handsome face, he was extremely good-looking.

Molly stared at him for a few more seconds. She could not help but praise, ‘ Sawyer, in the past, I couldn’t stand it when guys have long hair. But, now that you have it, you look quite attractive. This hairstyle suits you very much,”

“Really?”

Sawyer was happy when he received the compliment from his sister.

Brycen was very jealous suddenly. He jealously said, “Sawyer looks good in long hair, huh? I’ll grow my hair too, then!”

“You?”

Caitlyn could not help but gasp when she heard that. “You should forget it.

Sawyer looks like an artistic youth with long hair. But, if you grow your hair, to put it nicely, you'd look torn and battered out. To put it negatively, you'd look slovenly like a beggar."

"Hm!"

The whole family laughed hysterically.

Caitlyn was really mean!

Brycen was furious. He immediately bickered with Caitlyn. "You're so mean. Aren't you scared of your makeup creasing?"

Caitlyn refused to be goaded. "If I get my makeup creased, you'll suffer a flat tire whenever you go for car racing."

'How could you say such a thing? You're a nasty woman!"

"Likewise."

Mr. May Sr. smiled from ear to ear as he watched the two of them quarreling.

The triplets giggled too. 'Uncle Brycen is so funny!' Sean was sitting behind Molly the whole time. He did not laugh.

After they were done playing around, Mr. May Sr. noticed Sean as he caringly asked, "Sean, how's your leg injury recovery going? I heard from the kids that your old injury relapsed in Xesxia. Are you all right?"

Sean looked calm as he gently said, "Don't worry, Mr. May Sr. My legs are much better now thanks to Molly's treatment. I'm fine now."

Chapter 862-"That's great!"

Mr. May Sr. nodded. He then said to Sean, "Since you're back and everyone is here, stay for lunch!"

But, Sean glanced at Molly and immediately declined, "Mr. May Sr., thank you for inviting me. But, I can't stay for lunch. I still have work to do in my office. I'm sorry!"

"Alright. Do remember to eat on time. Take good care of yourself."

Mr. May Sr. noticed the look on his face. He knew what was going on. So, he did not force him to stay.

Sean nodded his head.

'Molly hasn't completely forgiven me yet. So, I don't want to make her feel uncomfortable by staying.

'I won't be happy if she can't spend time with her family happily.

'I should just let her feel relaxed when she is hanging out with her family!' After a while, Sean left and went back to his home.

The triplets were a little reluctant when their father left. But, they could see that their parents had not reconciled their relationship yet. So, they did not ask Sean to stay.

"Mommy, we prepared some gifts for you. Do you want to see it?"

The triplets smiled as they said that to distract Molly.

Molly grinned sweetly. "Sure. Let mommy see. What gifts did you all prepare?"

The three little ones then took out their gifts to give them to Molly.

Alex took out four small figurines.

“Mommy, I made these! This is mommy, this is me, this is Ben, and this is Claudia. We’re a family!”

Of course, he made a figurine of his father too. But, he did not dare to take it out. He was afraid that his mother would be angry.

Molly loved them very much when she saw the few figurines. She rubbed Alex’s head as she said with a smile, “These figurines you made are so cute. I like them a lot!”

Alex instantly smiled with his eyes bent.

‘Mommy praised me. I’m so happy!’ Next was Ben’s present.

Ben prepared a complete childlike painting.

“Mommy, I painted this. You and... Uncle. Does this look like the two of you?”

Ben said innocently. He opened his obsidian-like eyes wide. They were like two little stars that could blink.

Molly froze a little when she saw that.

There were only Sean and her in Ben’s painting...

In the painting, they were watching a concert shoulder to shoulder with full concentration.

The painting showed that they were in love as they clasped their hands together. It was very sweet.

“Mommy, do you like it?”

Ben was looking forward to her answer as he asked. He could not help but clasp his chubby hands together.

He was slightly nervous and afraid at the same time. 'What if mommy doesn't like my painting?' But unexpectedly, not only did Molly smile, but she also gently kissed his forehead.

"It's very nice. I like it a lot."

A smile was shown on Ben's pinkish face suddenly. His little, white teeth could be seen.

"Mommy, look at mine," Claudia said hurriedly.

'Mommy complimented my brothers' gifts. I want mommy to praise me too! I "Alright. Let me see. What present did you prepare?"

Molly quickly looked at Claudia's present. She then saw Claudia holding a pair of white, furry gloves.

"Mommy, that day, I saw my teacher knit a very nice pair of gloves. So, I asked my teacher to teach me how to do it. And then, I learned how to make one."

Claudia put Molly's white fingers into the gloves one by one as she said that. The size was just right.

Claudia smiled as she nodded satisfyingly. "The gloves can protect mommy when the weather is cold. Then, mommy's hands won't be cold anymore."

Chapter 863-Molly's heart suddenly melted!

Her three kids were so thoughtful, sensible, and nice.

She could not help but feel touched. She grabbed their hands as she affectionately touched their little faces.

She gently said, "Alex, Ben, Claudia, I like your gifts very much. But, what I like the most isn't the gifts, but..."

'Your three sweethearts!'

Claudia spoke before Molly could finish talking.

The little girl rested her head in Molly's arms. She said in her sweet, childish voice, "Mommy, we all know that the ones you love the most are us. We love you very much. I want a hug, Mommy..."

The three little ones opened their cute little arms to hug Molly as they talked. They wished they could stay with their mother all the time.

Molly felt blissful as she hugged her triplets.

I'm content as long as my children are with me!' At night, Brycen suggested having a barbeque session in the garden.

The triplets were overjoyed when they heard that. They pulled his sleeve as they playfully said, "Uncle, do you know how to grill? Can you let US try the one you make?"

Brycen looked stern as he educated them seriously. "Darlings, do you all know about the concept of respecting your elders? You should all be the ones doing the barbecue for me to eat."

Caitlyn immediately glanced at him, "You've got some cheek."

Brycen replied, "I've got some cheek? Isn't it normal for the niece and nephews to have filial piety toward their uncle?"

Molly was speechless when she heard what her brother said.

'He's indeed... Shameless!

'The three little ones are still so young!' Having said that, in the end, Brycen still obediently sat in front of the barbecue grill to grill the food patiently.

Molly stepped forward and said, "Let me help you."

Brycen quickly pushed her away, "No. You finally came back. You should just rest! Let me and Sawyer do the work."

Molly did not force it when she heard that. She just joined her children to play with the parrot that was in the cage.

Danny had been raised by them for some time. He looked healthy, and he also learned many new vocabularies.

When he heard the triplets say that they wanted to eat grilled meat tonight, he said, "Eat meat. Eat meat!"

Molly smiled as she said, "This little guy is such a greedy eater!"

"Yeah! He's a meat lover. His favorites are lamb and beef."

Ben said as he fed Danny the meat.

Danny turned his little body and shouted at Molly, "Beef! Beef! Eat beef!"

Molly was suddenly amazed!

'I didn't expect Danny to know how to speak so many words. He's so clever!' Shortly afterward, Brycen had done grilling a few beef skewers. Molly and her three kids then fed that to Danny.

Danny really loved the beef skewer. After he had a few bites of it, he shouted, "Beef. Beef!"

"Alright. We'll give it all to you." Molly grinned as she fed him.

After eating for a while, Danny was full. Molly and her triplets then went back to the dining table.

There were steaks and grilled gigots on the table. They were perfect in color, aroma, and taste.

Molly was very impressed, "Did you grill all these? You cook so well."

'Of course!' Brycen smiled smugly, "I made all these."

At the same time, Caitlyn walked toward them with a plate. When she heard what he said, she could not help but say, "Brycen, can you be more honest? These were clearly grilled by me and Sawyer. These are the ones that you cooked!"

She ruthlessly served a plate of black things as she said that. It was a bunch of charred skewers.

And, they were Brycen's masterpieces

Chapter 864-"Haha..."

Russell laughed immediately.

Molly and the others laughed with him too.

'I knew it. Brycen was never good at cooking. So, I really did overestimate him.' But, Brycen was not angry. He proudly grunted, "Maybe because I was born to enjoy. I'm not cut out to do this kind of menial work. I was born to live a good life. There's nothing I can do about that!"

"Really?"

Mr. May Sr. was sitting at the side. When he saw his grandson was being so proud, he ruthlessly said in an instant, "You'll do the dishes later."

Brycen was halfway through his meal. He did not feel good anymore." Grandpa, don't do this to me..."

Everyone laughed. The atmosphere was extremely lively.

Although it was lively, the triplets thought of Sean.

'I wonder what's daddy eating tonight. He's alone at home. Will he feel lonely?' Claudia was a little upset as she thought about that. She whispered, "I wonder if daddy had his dinner."

"It's so lively here. But, daddy is all alone. I feel so sorry for him," Ben sighed.

Mr. May Sr. glanced at the kids. He thought for an instant. He suddenly said, "Speaking of which, the Anderson family's chef took a few days' leaves to go home. He mentioned that his son was sick. He wasn't sure when can he come back."

"What if he hasn't come back? Does that mean that Sean has nothing to eat tonight?" Sawyer asked.

"I guess so." Mr. May Sr. nodded. He did not speak further.

Brycen was confused when he heard that. He thought to himself, 'The chef next door took leave days? But I clearly saw him this afternoon! Did I make a mistake?' Brycen did not bother to ponder. He said in an airy manner, "What's the big deal? Sean is an adult. Wouldn't he order take-outs?"

“How can that be fine? Take-outs are so unwholesome.”

Caitlyn faintly glanced at Brycen. She then said, “Sean is sick. It isn’t good for his health if he always eats unhealthy food!”

“Yeah.” The triplets were even more upset.

“Well, in that case, I feel bad for him tonight.”

Sawyer lamented slightly. But, he was secretly looking at Molly.

He wanted to see his sister’s reaction.

Actually, Sawyer thought that Molly and Sean were made for each other. He hoped that they could reconcile their relationship as soon as possible.

But, it seemed like Molly did not intend to do that. So, he just kept quiet about it.

After all, he just wanted his sister to be happy.

Molly frowned. She clearly heard everything that everyone said.

She felt sorry for Sean when she thought of him working alone in his reading room with an empty stomach.

Immediately after that, she could not help but ask, “Russell, get me a plate, please.”

“Sure.” Russell went to get it without delay.

After Molly got the plate, she immediately cut a piece of steak and put it on the plate.

She then got Sean some side dishes too. After that, she handed the food to the triplets, who were next to her, and said, "Sweethearts, help me to give this to him."

"Okay, Mommy!"

Alex suddenly felt energetic when he heard that he could go to his father.

"I want to go too!" Ben followed Alex.

Claudia immediately got down from the stool. "Me too! Me too!"

The three little ones were very enthusiastic.

Molly pursed her lips as she passed the plate to Alex. She told him, ' Walk slowly. Come back after you hand him the food."

"Alright, Mommy!"

After the triplets said that, they rushed toward the direction of the villa with the food

Chapter 865-Molly looked at the triplets' back, and a smile appeared on her face.

Brycen saw what happened, and he felt very jealous. Then, he bitterly said, ' These three kids had never treated me this well before, yet they're always so passionate when it comes to Sean. They're siding with the wrong person! ■ "What do you mean?"

Grandpa Dave did not like what Brycen said as he refuted, "Sean is the triplets' father. Why would they side with their uncle instead of their own father?"

“So what if I’m just their uncle? I love them just as much as their father does, okay?” Brycen got even more bitter.

He was not lying when he said that he loved them very much!

Sawyer comforted Brycen after seeing how jealous he was. “It’s perfectly normal for children to be more attached to their father. Your child will do just the same when you have one.”

Brycen felt a lot better. “Sawyer, you’re so good with your words. I feel so much better after hearing what you said.”

Sawyer smiled faintly. “However, you’ll need to get a girlfriend first before that could happen.”

Caitlyn burst out laughing after hearing what Sawyer added.

Brycen shook with anger. ‘Sawyer is so heartless! I take back what I said!’ Molly, who was sitting on the side, chuckled.

At the same time, the triplets arrived at the mansion next door. They shouted excitedly as soon as they stepped inside, “Daddy, mommy sent US here to give you some food!”

Sean was sitting at the dining table, getting ready to eat.

He was confused after hearing the triplets’ adorable voices.

“What are you doing here?”

“Daddy, mommy told US to give you this steak!”

Ben said with a smile on his face before putting the plate in front of Sean.

Sean got even more puzzled as he asked, "Why is she suddenly giving me something to eat?"

"Because mommy is worried about you!" Claudia said gleefully.

After that, the triplets repeated what their grandfather said about the Anderson family's chef being on leave to Sean. Then, they told him that Molly was worried that he might not be eating well, so she sent them over to give him some food.

Sean laughed!

'When did my chef go on leave?

I've never heard about it at all.<sup>1</sup> However, he felt very happy after knowing that Molly cared about him.

So, he generously told Tony, "You can eat whatever the chef made. I'll eat this steak instead. Also, tell the chef I'll award him a few days of paid leave, so he can go home to see his family."

Tony heard that and thought to himself, 'It's all a part of his plan! He'll have an excuse to eat next door if the chef isn't here.' The triplets were very sharp. They knew what Sean was trying to do right away.

'It looks like we can eat with daddy every day for the next few days now!' The triplets immediately got very excited.

"Daddy, you're so smart! It's unbelievable!"

Claudia gave Sean a thumb up mischievously.

"I believe that mommy will forgive daddy very soon!"

Ben was looking forward to that very much, as he said while his chubby cheeks bounced.

Alex smiled without saying anything. His big round eyes looked very alive.

'Mommy forgiving daddy is the best thing that could ever happen!' The triplets went back home after sending Sean the steak.

Later at night, the Mays and the triplets gathered in the yard to chat after having dinner. Then, Molly brought the triplets to shower.

Before going to sleep, Molly brought a storybook to the triplets' room. She wanted to tell them a bedtime story.

Chapter 866-triplets were wearing cow print, Doraemon, and yellow duck pajamas respectively. They looked extremely cute as they sat on their beds.

Molly felt very happy after looking at them, and she could not hold herself back from kissing each of them on their chubby cheeks.

The triplets blushed. "Mommy, you didn't ask for our permission!"

Molly was amused. She reached out and pinched their bouncy face. "What? You don't allow me to kiss you?"

Fine then, I won't do it anymore."

■No...' The triplets grabbed Molly's sleeve after hearing what she said and spoke feverishly, "We love your kisses."

Then, Molly contentedly said, "That's more like it!"

After that, she opened a storybook while sitting by their beds and gently asked, "What story do you want to listen to today?"

"Mommy, we don't want any stories tonight."

Suddenly, Alex shook his head.

Ben opened his big, dark eyes and softly asked, "Mommy, can you just talk with us?"

"Mommy, it's been a while since we had a chat."

Claudia grabbed the tiny pink ball on her pajamas and spoke.

The triplets had not seen Molly for many days, and they just felt like chatting with her after finally coming together.

Molly's heart melted after she heard what they said. Then, she smiled and gently said, "Let's do that, then."

After that, Molly put the storybook aside and started talking with the triplets patiently.

The triplets told Molly every fun thing that happened in school.

Molly found out that the triplets were actually very happy in school, and she was relieved.

Some time passed, and the triplets got tired. They finally shut their eyes and fell asleep.

Their faces looked so identical. They slept next to each other, and they were just the cutest thing in the world.

Molly smiled and kissed each of them on their foreheads.

Then, she covered each of them with a blanket and tucked their tiny hands in before she left the room.

Brycen and Sawyer had not gone to bed yet. They were chatting in the living room.

Molly went downstairs and joined them after she found out that they were still awake.

“Why aren’t you sleeping?”

She walked down slowly and asked.

Brycen looked at her and realized that Molly got a lot skinnier!

He clicked his tongue in displeasure and frowned as he said, “Did you fast when you were in Xesxia? How did you get so skinny? Look at how slim your arms and legs are. I wonder if a gust of wind could blow you away.”

“You’re exaggerating.”

Molly chuckled.

She knew that she got skinnier. However, she thought that it was not much different from before, so she did not really care about it.

Sawyer furrowed his brows and chimed in, “Molly, you’re honestly too skinny. You have to eat more. It’s not good for your health if you’re too skinny. Now that you’re back home, you should relax and eat something good to nourish your body.”

Gratitude flowed through Molly when she heard what they said.

Her joy unfolded like a flower after knowing that both of her brothers cared so much for her.

So, she nodded. "Okay, I got it."

Then, they started chatting.

Sawyer brought his work up. "I'm planning to open an atelier next month."

•Really?"

Molly supported his decision very much. "That's great. Sawyer, you're very talented, and you deserve to have a place to display your art. But, you're not planning to go overseas anymore?"

She knew that Sawyer's career would have a brighter future overseas. It would be a shame for him to give up on it.

Chapter 867-Sawyer shook his head. "Yeah. I want to stay here. My family is here, grandpa is getting older, and the triplets... I don't really feel like leaving. Besides, it wouldn't make any difference staying here as long as I'm still doing the thing I love." "You're right! We'll support you since you've already made your decision. But, you've got to look after your health even when you're working. You'd better not let the same thing happen again."

Molly reminded him.

The fact that Sawyer suddenly fell ill previously was still bothering Molly.

One could not chase after his dream without a healthy body, so it was very important for one to prioritize his health!

"Okay, got it."

Sawyer lifted the edges of his mouth and kept what Molly said in mind.

“Have you decided on the location of your new atelier?” Molly asked.

Sawyer hesitated for a moment before he answered, “Um... Nathan’s going to take care of that for me.”

He paid extra attention to Molly’s face as he said that.

He was worried that Molly would be unhappy if she heard Nathan’s name, so he was being very cautious.

However, Molly was not bothered at all, as she casually said, “That’s good.

You won’t have too many things to worry about with his help.” “Brother, just let me know if you need help with anything else. I’ll do whatever I can to support you!”

She added with a bright smile on her face.

A smile appeared on Sawyer’s handsome face too, as he said to Molly,” Thank you so much, sis.” “Why are you being so polite?” Molly waved her hand. “We’re family.”

Sawyer felt even more grateful.

‘Yeah! We’re family!’ The next morning, Molly was woken up by the triplets. “Mommy, Mommy.

Time to get up and have breakfast!”

Molly woke up and went downstairs for breakfast after freshening up.

However, Sean was there too.

He saw Molly and calmly explained, "My chef took a leave and went back home, so I came over to have breakfast." "Oh. Feel free to join us, then!"

Grandpa Dave lifted his brows without exposing Sean after hearing what Sean said. Then, he ordered the butler, "Prepare a set of utensils for Sean." "Yes, sir."

The butler turned around and did as Grandpa Dave said.

"Thanks, grandpa." Sean smiled faintly.

Then, he rightly sat down beside Molly.

Molly lifted her brows, but she was fine with him being there.

However, the triplets pretentiously said, "People who made a mistake don't deserve to eat so well! Daddy, you can only have a bowl of congee." "Yeah! No eggs for you."

Ben nodded and spoke.

At the same time, he nudged Claudia with his little elbow to signal her to say something too.

Claudia was eating congee with her head down. After that, she immediately lifted her tiny head and agreed with her brothers. "Daddy, you can't eat anything else other than congee!"

The triplets kept winking at Sean after saying that.

Their faces seemed to say, 'Daddy, play along!' Sean chuckled. Clearly, he knew that the triplets were just pretending.

So, he cooperated with them and nodded. "Okay, I'll only have a bowl of congee then."

Then, he took a bowl and filled it with pumpkin congee before eating it.

Molly was amused by what she saw.

She would never expect that the CEO of the Anderson Corporation would be bullied by three children.

However, Molly was not going to mistreat Sean like that. After all, he was her patient, and it would be better for him to eat more nutritious food

Chapter 868-So, Molly reached out and took the fried egg to put it in front of Sean.

She also gave Sean some healthy side dishes.

After doing that, she lowered her head and continued eating as if nothing happened.

Sean lifted the edges of his mouth quietly.

'This woman is so cute...

'She looks like she doesn't care about me, but in fact, she's very considerate.

'I just can't find a reason not to like her.' After having breakfast, Molly wanted to bring the kids out.

She finally got to go home after so long, so she was planning to spend all her time on the triplets.

"Babies, where do you feel like going today?"

She helped the triplets wear their jackets while she asked.

The triplets thought for a moment and said together, "The playground!" "1-1 want to eat something delicious!" "Mommy, I want to go to Universal Studios. I didn't get to try all the rides last time..."

The triplets said excitedly. Molly could tell that they were really thrilled to go out!

So, Molly responded with a smile, "Sure. Let's go get something to eat in the afternoon and go to the playground in the evening. Then, we'll go to the theme park tomorrow, okay? After all, the Universal Studios is huge, and we need to spend an entire day there if we were to try every ride." "Okay," The triplets nodded in sync.

In fact, it did not really matter where they were going. The triplets only wanted to spend some time with Molly, and they were okay with going just anywhere!

However, Molly received a phone call before they were about to leave the house, and it ruined their entire plan.

"Hello, is this Caden Grant's sister?"

The person on the phone asked politely after the call was connected.

Molly furrowed her brows after hearing the name. "Yes, I am. Who's calling?"

That person sighed out of relief and said, "Ms. May, I'm Caden's teacher.

We met before!"

Molly immediately remembered who that person on the phone was, and she politely asked, "Oh, how can I help you?"

The teacher nodded and said, "Ms. May, Caden suddenly mentioned that he wanted to drop out two days ago, and he just stopped coming to school after that! The school takes this very seriously, and they kept asking me to contact his parents. But, I couldn't reach them, and it left me no choice but to call you.

"Ms. May, would it be okay for you to make your way here if you're free?"

Molly's expression changed after hearing what the teacher said.

'Caden dropped out?

'What happened?' She arched her brows and hurriedly replied, "Sure. Thank you so much for informing me. I'll be there in a second."

She hung up the phone and crouched down. Then, she said to the triplets apologetically, "Babies, something happened with my little brother. I have to go take care of it. Can you guys wait for me at home? I'll come back and bring you guys out again after I'm done with this." "Okay," The triplets replied, but they were clearly disappointed!

However, they could understand Molly, and they knew what they had to prioritize.

So, the triplets said to Molly, "Mommy, just go ahead. We're totally fine with it! We'll carry on with our plan after you come back."

Molly smiled thankfully and kissed each of them on their foreheads. "My babies are the best."

Then, she turned around and walked out.

"Molly."

Suddenly, she heard a deep voice from behind.

Sean moved toward her in his wheelchair, and his deep eyes looked a little worried. "Let me go with you, okay?" he asked.

However, Molly shook her head. "It's okay. It's nothing serious. I can handle it alone. Don't you have a lot of things to do in the office? You should go to work instead."

She left without turning back after she said that

Chapter 869-Caden's school was not located in Northfolk, and it took two hours for Molly to drive there!

It was already close to eleven when she arrived at the school.

Molly went inside. She saw Caden's teacher and worriedly asked, "Teacher, why would Caden drop out without any reason?"

The teacher told Molly what happened with Caden after meeting with her.

"Ms. May, calm down. Listen to me.

"Some time ago, Caden said that he was not feeling well, and he kept taking leave from school.

Even though I thought that it would affect his studies, I approved his requests anyway, considering that his health was more important.

"But, whenever he got back to school after taking leaves, he would either sleep or be on his phone! I suspected that Caden might be addicted to video games or something, so I lectured him because I was worried that it might affect his studies. I would never expect him to say that he wants to drop out after that."

The teacher's tone became softer as she explained to Molly apologetically. "Ms. May, I didn't mean to scold Caden. I just wanted him to focus on his studies! After all, his grades have been excellent, and he would always be one of the top students in the entire grade. I was very worried after seeing the sudden change in him. That's why I criticized his actions. I didn't know he would do this at all! I.."

The teacher's voice choked as she said that.

She thought that Caden got mad and stopped going to school because she scolded him!

She felt very guilty as his teacher.

Molly felt very anxious too, after hearing what the teacher told her.

However, she knew that it had nothing to do with the teacher. Molly knew very well that Caden was not a sensitive person like that.

'Something bad must have happened!' Molly thought of that, but she tried to make the teacher feel better anyway.

"Teacher, don't blame yourself. This has nothing to do with you. I'm pretty sure that something else happened to Caden, and that's why he acted like that. Don't worry. I'll talk to him about it."

After that, Molly went away from the teacher and dialed Caden's number.

However, Molly heard a pre-recorded female's voice. "Sorry, the phone you have dialed is switched off." 'He switched off his phone?' Molly could not help but feel nervous. She had been too busy recently.

Even though she could call Caden from time to time, it was not frequent.

Besides, she would only ask him about his studies and grades...

But, Caden would always give her the same response. He would tell Molly that everything was fine, and she would not have to worry about anything.

Molly knew that Caden was a sensible kid, so she was not very concerned about him.

Who knew... that this would happen?!

Molly called Caden a few times more after that.

But, none of the calls got through.

Molly had no other option. She turned around and apologized to the teacher, "I'm so sorry. I can't contact Caden either, but I'll be sure to take care of this!"

"Caden is my brother, and I know his characteristics very well. He's not the kind of person who would skip school for no reason. I think he's probably facing some difficulties, so I hope the school can give me some time and not let him drop out."

The teacher nodded understandably after hearing what Molly said. "That's possible. I'll just talk to my superior about it. However, Ms. May, you've got to know that studies are very important to a child. You must solve this as soon as possible. Otherwise, I'm afraid that his grades will be affected!"

Molly could tell that the teacher was a very responsible person.

She nodded, smiled, and reassured her, "Don't worry. I'll get this fixed as soon as I can!"

Then, she turned around and left.

After leaving the school, Molly decided to look for Caden in his rented apartment.

Caden was an introvert, and he did not like to socialize. So, he would stay in his apartment whenever he had nothing to do.

Unexpectedly, Molly saw an empty house when she arrived at Caden's place.

Every single thing in the house was taken away!

Chapter 870-Molly got even more worried.

'What exactly is going on?' She immediately went to the landlord to find out what had happened.

The landlord listened to what Molly said and had a flashback. "That kid moved out a few days ago. He said he wanted to stop renting, so I returned him the deposit." 'Stop renting?' Molly started to become anxious.

She had no idea what had happened to Caden.

She looked at the time, and it was already late afternoon. She still had to look for Caden, and she had so many other things to take care of.

It would be very late when she arrived back home later.

So, she called Grandpa Dave and briefly told him about what had happened. She also told him that she might not return home that day.

Grandpa Dave heard what she said and worriedly said, "Molly, you've got to look after yourself while you're there alone!"

Molly knew that Grandpa Dave was worried about her, so she comforted him, "Don't worry, grandpa. I'll be safe. I'm just planning to spend a little more time here because I'm worried that I won't be able to find Caden by today."

Grandpa Dave was not reassured enough. He thought for a moment and gave Molly a suggestion. "I'll ask Sawyer to go there and accompany you. What do you think? I'm really worried about you staying there alone." "That works too."

Molly did not want Grandpa Dave to worry too much, so she agreed with him.

"I'll send my location to Sawyer later. Just tell him to come over, then." "Sure."

You'd be a lot safer with Sawyer by your side!" Grandpa Dave was relieved.

Molly sent her live location to Sawyer after hanging up.

She even added a text under it, "Brother, thank you so much!"

Sawyer saw Molly's message and only replied with a smiley face emoji.

Later, Nathan, Sean, and Tony showed up instead!

Molly arched her brows as soon as she saw Nathan. Then, she said in a displeased tone, "Why are you here?"

Nathan knew that Molly did not like him very much. Instead of getting angry, he explained to Molly calmly, "I happened to be with Sawyer today. We were finding a place to set up his atelier together, and he told me that he was going to meet up with you here. I thought that it would be dangerous for him to drive so far away from home since he hasn't fully recovered yet, so I offered to replace him."

"Brycen wanted to follow as well, but his legs didn't allow him to. So, I told him to stay at home to accompany the triplets and grandpa!"

Molly had to admit that Nathan was being very thoughtful.

Indeed, it would be unsafe for Sawyer to drive for so long, considering his health conditions. It was better for him to stay at home.

Brycen had to stay home to take care of the triplets and Grandpa Dave too, so there was no reason for him to come.

Molly heard what he said and kept quiet.

She turned around and looked at Sean. They felt a strange sensation in their hearts when their eyes met.

Sean spoke first before Molly could ask him anything.

"I can allocate someone to help if you're searching for someone. Perhaps it'll speed up the process...

Besides, I don't feel safe with you staying out here alone."

A hint of warmth swelled up in Molly's chest, but she did not say anything. After all, finding Caden was her priority!

Then, Molly went on to search for Caden with them.

She brought them to the old house she used to live in first.

Molly used to stay in the countryside. Even though it had been some time since she came back, she remembered the routes very clearly.

They drove through a very long road in the mountains, passing through a wheat field, then a yellow dirt road.

After that, they arrived in the village she used to stay in!

After several years, there were a lot of new houses built in the village, and it looked completely different from before.

However, Molly could still find her way back to her old house very easily.

That was because the house she used to live in looked very odd among the new houses around it.

Her old house looked very rundown. There was moss on its wall outside, and the house was built on some dirt. It would get very muddy whenever it rained.

Even though they had not entered the house yet, it was evident that her living conditions were terrible judging from the exterior of the house!
