

Triplets On SM 871

Chapter 871-Nathan and Sean felt a little uncomfortable after looking at the house.

They could not even imagine how Molly could spend those years there!

Fortunately, despite living in such a dreadful environment, Molly did not become a greedy person just because her family was poor.

It was a remarkable thing that Molly did not let her living conditions influence her!

Molly went forward and knocked on the door without thinking twice. She wanted to find out if there was anyone home.

However, there was no response at all.

'He didn't come back here?' Molly thought to herself, 'Linda should be home, even if Caden didn't come back, right?'

'Where did everyone go?' Molly was clueless, so she went to ask the neighbors instead.

All the neighbors were very surprised to see Molly!

It had been a few years since Molly came back, and she looked like a completely different person now!

She became so much prettier and classier!

However, they could still recognize her because she was still as beautiful as she was when she was young.

“Ms. Lauren, do you know where did my brother go? Did he come back in these two days? Also, have you seen my foster parents?”

Molly asked politely after meeting one of her neighbors.

Lauren was dressed in some simple clothes, and she had a pleasant face. And, she was very friendly toward Molly.

“Molly, you’re back! But, I have no idea where your brother went. It’s been some time since they came back. I don’t think you can find them anywhere around here if you’re looking for them.”

Lauren took some fruits from her house after saying that. Then, she tried to stuff them in Molly’s pockets.

Molly realized what was happening, and she tried to refuse them. “I’m good, Ms.

Lauren. You don’t need to do this. You should keep these fruits to yourself instead. I don’t really need them!”

Lauren gave up the idea after hearing what Molly said.

Then, she exhaled deeply as she looked at Molly’s receding back.

‘The younger generation is all grown up now. They’re all getting better looking and richer.

‘It’s really time for my generation to step down!’ Molly could not see Caden anywhere after going around the village, so she started feeling agitated!

She kept calling Caden while she was in the car, but it just would not go through.

“Where could he be...”

Molly's eyes turned teary, and she could not take the weight off her mind.

Sean patiently held her hand and comforted her after noticing how awful she was feeling. "Don't worry. Caden is just a kid, and he doesn't have a lot of money. I'm pretty sure that he won't go too far from here. I'll get somebody to search for him!"

"Yes, that could work. How did I forget about that?"

Molly recollected herself.

Sean nodded. "Yeah. I can help you."

After that, Sean ordered Tony to call a police officer he knew and tell him about what happened in detail.

The police agreed to help them after hearing what Tony said, but he expressed that he would need some time.

So, they waited patiently.

At the same time, the sky was already dark.

Sean thought that Molly would be hungry after rushing around for the whole day, so he gently asked, "Why don't we get something to eat? Let's look for him again after that."

Indeed, Molly was a little hungry. So, she nodded sluggishly.

Then, Sean told Tony to find a decent restaurant around their location, and they made their way there.

Even though the restaurant was not huge, its decorations had a lot of personalities. And, the food was delicious!

Unfortunately, Molly could not eat anymore after taking a few bites.

She was just too worried!

Chapter 872-For some reason, Nathan, who was sitting at the side, felt a twinge in his heart after looking at how distraught Molly was.

He could not help but concernedly ask, "Molly, you should eat more. How will you have the energy to search for him if you didn't eat enough?"

Molly snapped back after hearing Nathan's words!

She swept her glance over Nathan, feeling somewhat strange...

After all, Nathan had never ever cared for her like this!

Molly got goosebumps all over after hearing what Nathan said to her.

However, Molly responded softly out of courtesy anyway. "Thanks, but you don't have to worry about me. I'm fine."

Nathan felt awkward and stopped trying to convince her.

Then, Tony's phone rang.

"Hello, Mr. Hill. I've found the family that you told me about earlier! That kid, Caden Grant, is the son of Ms.

May's foster mother, Linda King, right?"

"Yes, that's right."

Tony answered the police officer's question.

Then, the officer asked again, "Great. So, Linda King is diagnosed with stomach cancer not long ago, and she's staying in Ridgeview Hospital now.

I guess her son, Caden Grant, is with her now. That's all I could find out. You guys should probably go to the hospital."

"Got it. Thanks."

"Don't mention it."

Tony hung up the phone after saying that and repeated everything to Sean and Molly.

"Stomach cancer?" Molly was shocked to hear what Tony told her.

She did not see that coming at all!

'Caden is probably taking care of her in the hospital!' Molly immediately stood up as she thought of that. "Sean, let's look for him in the hospital. He could be there."

Sean nodded and left with her. Then, they arrived at Ridgeview Hospital after searching for it.

"Hello, is there a patient named Linda King here?" Molly went to the front desk and asked.

The nurse saw Molly and asked, "Are you her family member?" Molly hesitated and then nodded, "I guess!" The nurse nodded and typed something into the computer. Then, she told Molly, "The patient is staying in ward 306 right now. Go to the third floor, and you'll see it."

"Okay, thank you!"

Molly turned around and went up to the third floor.

Very soon, Molly found the location of ward 306, but she did not open the door...

She looked inside through the window and saw her foster mother lying weakly on the bed. Linda was even on a ventilator!

Molly had mixed feelings after seeing that.

Linda used to say a lot of mean things to her just because she was not her biological daughter.

However, Molly could not help but feel that everything had changed after seeing what had happened to Linda.

Molly came around very quickly. Then, she realized that both Caden and her foster father, Samson, were not there!

Molly immediately went to the doctor's office to have her questions answered.

After listening to Molly's words, the doctor tried to recall his memory and nodded, "I remember there's a kid who would come here every few days to pay his mother's medical bills! But, he'd leave right after that, and I have no idea where he went."

Molly let out a sigh of relief after hearing that before she thanked the doctor. "Thanks, doctor."

“No worries!” The doctor smiled graciously.

Molly then left the ward.

She sat in the corridor of the hospital, thinking about something...

She could be sure that Caden would pay for Linda’s medical expenses once every few days!

However, she had no idea where Samson went.

Chapter 873-“It means that your little brother was really here, and he could even afford to pay for his mother’s medical costs. It shows that he’s probably doing fine. There’s nothing for you to worry about!” Nathan tried to make Molly feel better after seeing how she sat on the floor without speaking.

Molly nodded, still looking a little disoriented.

Indeed, she felt a lot better after knowing that Caden was not in any danger.

However, that was not enough at all!

‘Where is Caden?’

‘What could he be doing if he didn’t go to school?’

‘How did he get the money to pay for Linda’s medical bill?’ Those were the questions circling in Moly’s head.

Not to mention her foster father, Samson Grant!

Linda got stomach cancer, and her husband, of all people, should be the one taking care of her.

However, he was nowhere to be found. He was even so irresponsible that he made his son bear Linda's medical expenses alone.

Molly furrowed her brows as she felt bad for Caden. 'He's just so young, yet he has to go through things like this.' She immediately stood up and politely asked Nathan, "Mr. May, could you do me a favor?"

Nathan nodded and said, "What is it?"

Then, Molly spoke frankly. "I would like you to get someone to stay in this hospital. I need that person to observe Linda and let me know right away when Caden is here."

"No problem!"

The task was a piece of cake to Nathan.

However, he only realized that Molly addressed him as Mr. May after a few seconds!

It just sounded too distant!

He could not help but feel frustrated. He wanted Molly to call him brother too, just like how she would address Brycen and Sawyer.

But, he knew it was nearly impossible for Molly to do that in such a short time.

Fortunately, he was patient.

He knew it would take more time for him to reconcile with his sister.

Nathan thought that Molly would be very tired after doing so many things in one day, so he concernedly asked, "Molly, it's getting late. Why don't we find a place to get some rest first? After all, Mr. Anderson has not been in his best health.

We should get him somewhere to stay in and let him rest.' Molly shifted his gaze to Sean after hearing what Nathan said.

Indeed, Sean felt very tired after following her here and there for the whole day!

It was time for him to get some rest!

She nodded and agreed with Nathan. "Sure. Let's do that. As for my little brother..."

"I know someone who can probably help you with your little brother! I believe we can find him very soon if we all look for him together later at night."

Nathan had everything planned out for Molly before she could finish talking.

Sean chimed in and tried to comfort Molly. "Tony will get someone to look for Caden. Don't worry!"

Molly exhaled softly. "That's great!"

After that, they found a star-rated hotel and checked in.

At night, Molly tossed and turned for hours in bed after taking a shower, struggling to fall asleep.

She was just too worried about Caden!

'Where would Caden be staying after he moved?

'On the streets?

'Or, under the bridge?' The more Molly thought about it, the more worried she got. Then, she started to put the blame on herself!

I'm his sister, yet I only care about my work. How could I have neglected my own brother?' However, there was no point crying over spilled milk.

She could only pray to herself and hoped that her brother was safe!

Chapter 874-Molly's phone suddenly rang. Someone sent her a text message.

It was from Sean: [Are you asleep?] Molly brought her brows together and replied after briefly hesitating. [Not yet.] [Open the door.] Sean texted again.

Molly saw Sean sitting in his wheelchair elegantly after opening the door, and he was holding a white food container.

'You didn't eat much just now, so I came to give you some food.' He said with concern before handing the food over to Molly.

Molly was shocked to see how considerate and thoughtful Sean was, but she shook her head, it's okay. I'm not hungry."

A growling sound was heard.

Molly's stomach sounded at the wrong time after she said that.

She was embarrassed. A cheerful smile appeared on Sean's handsome face too, as he looked at Molly cheekily.

“Are you sure you’re not hungry?”

Molly shrugged her shoulders and opened the door. “Come inside.”

She locked the door after Sean went in. Then, she turned around and sat on the sofa before opening the food container Sean had brought.

The delightful aroma of the food filled the entire room as soon as she lifted the cover.

Molly looked at the food and saw a set of appetizing mushroom soup and a few pieces of pastry. The presentation of it was simply amazing!

She looked at Sean and said, “Thank you!”

Sean smiled. “There’s no need for you to be so polite with me. Just go ahead and eat.”

Then, he handed her the utensils.

Molly nodded and took a few sips of the soup before she put the spoon down, ‘What do you think he could be doing at his hour?’

Sean knew that she was talking about Caden as he consoled her, “Your brother isn’t a kid anymore. He’s capable of taking care of himself. He’ll be just fine.’ “He’s not a little kid, but he’s still just a student.”

Perhaps she was just too worried, or perhaps she was scared. For a second, Molly forgot the conflict she had with Sean, and she could not stop herself from relying on him.

“I keep thinking about it. Where could he be sleeping after leaving his apartment? And, what could he be doing after leaving school? How could he afford to pay for his mother’s medical bills?

“He’s all alone out there. What if he bumped into some people with bad intentions?’ Molly felt more anxious after thinking about that.

‘What would happen if Caden fell into the wrong hands?’ Sean could not bear it anymore after seeing how worried Molly was. So, he immediately started analyzing the situation to ease Molly’s mind.

‘Molly, listen to me. The doctor said that Caden would visit the hospital once every few days to pay the bills.

This indicates that he has found a way to earn money. If my guess is right, he has probably left school to work.”

“Work? He’s a minor. What kind of job could he be working?”

Molly was shocked as her stomach tied up in knots!

Sean replied without thinking, “A legitimate company isn’t going to hire someone his age. He’s probably just working part-time as a server or something like that if he wants to make money...

“However, I’m sure that someone would provide him with a place to stay if he had found a job. There’s nothing to worry about.”

The weight in Molly’s lightened after listening to Sean’s analysis.

However, she then thought deeper into it. ‘Linda is diagnosed with stomach cancer, and the medical bill would cost a fortune.

‘The only way that Caden could afford to pay for it is to get a job.

‘But, he’s still so young. How much could he be earning even if he has a job?

Chapter 875-Caden’s effort would be nowhere near enough to pay for Linda’s medical bills.

He would even ruin his own future if he kept skipping school.

Molly felt even more worried after she thought about those things. Then, she shook her head and said, “No.

We’ve got to find where Caden is as soon as possible. He can’t miss school anymore, or his studies will be affected.”

Sean nodded without hesitating. “Okay. Let’s do that together, then.”

Molly paused, and her gaze became gentler and grateful as she looked at Sean. ‘Thank you!’ she said.

‘You’re welcome.’ Sean smiled faintly.

Molly stayed awake for almost the whole night that day.

She would think of Caden whenever she closed her eyes, and she just could not calm herself down.

Sean got somebody to send her a glass of warm milk as if he knew what would happen.

Molly finished the milk in one go, and she felt the warmth fill up her stomach.

She felt so much better after that.

Then, she could finally fall asleep.

However, Molly only slept for less than a few hours, and the sun was already up.

Molly sat up half awake and rubbed her tired eyes before going to freshen herself up.

She turned around and saw a glass of milk on the table. The milk was still steaming as if somebody had just sent it to her not long ago.

She knew that it was Sean without having to think.

Then, a smile appeared on Molly's face.

After freshening up, Molly went to Sean and Nathan and asked, "Any news?" Sean and Nathan shook their head at the same time. They did not find anything.

"My men went to search for him throughout the entire night yesterday but to avail. None of them know where Caden is."

Nathan started getting worried.

Even though he did not know Caden very well, Molly's emotions influenced him.

Sean calmly said, "Tony is trying to find him too. But, your brother didn't make any digital transactions recently. I guess he's been using cash, so there's no lead for now."

In other words, two groups of men went to look for him but both failed to locate where Caden was!

Molly could not help but feel disappointed. She sat on the sofa, looking gloomy.

Her fear and worries just kept growing in her!

'Why couldn't they find Caden?

'Where exactly is this boy?' Molly's phone rang when they were still figuring out where Caden was.

She took it out and found out that Caden's teacher was calling. Then, she instantly picked up the phone.

After the call was connected, the teacher worriedly asked before Molly could say anything, "Ms. May, have you found Caden?" 'Not yet..." Molly spoke.

Then, the teacher said, "Really? Maybe I have some information that could be useful... This morning, a student passed by a construction site when he was coming to school, and he claimed that he saw someone that looked like Caden! However, he can't be too sure that it was Caden. He was afraid that he made a mistake, so he told me to have a look there myself. I'm still working, and I have a meeting to attend in a while.

So..."

As soon as she heard what the teacher said, Molly nervously asked, 'Where is it? Can you send me the location? I'll be there right now!"

She went through so much to finally hear something about Caden. She would go anywhere in the world to find him, let alone a construction site!

Then, the teacher nervously replied, "It's the construction site of Lakeview Garden in the west end."

Then, the teacher smiled and continued, "Ms. May, Caden is very lucky to have a sister like you. I hope you can find him soon and take him back to school!"

Chapter 876-"Okay, teacher. I'll try my best to convince him." Molly nodded.

A light of hope sparkled in Molly's eyes after she hung up the phone.

She turned around and looked at Sean. Her dazzling gaze shined brighter than a star.

“Caden’s teacher just told me that a student saw him at a construction site in the west end, but the student couldn’t be sure. Let’s go over there and have a look!” Sean felt a lot better after seeing how much Molly’s mood had lightened up, and he nodded. “Sure.”

After that, he accompanied Molly and went to the construction site.

They arrived at their destination at midday.

Molly blocked the blinding sunlight with her hand and glanced over to the construction site. Then, she saw a familiar figure.

It was Caden!

He really was working there.

Caden did not notice that Molly was approaching him. His work clothes were filthy, and there was dust all over his hair and body, looking extremely scruffy.

He took a deep breath and put a bag of cement on his skinny shoulder.

Clearly, Caden had never done anything like this. His body even shook because the bag of cement was too heavy for him...

Molly’s eyes turned teary as soon as she saw that. She could not hold herself back and shouted, “Caden!”

Caden was shocked after hearing the voice he was familiar with!

He dropped the bag of cement on the ground as he turned around. He looked very awkward and worried when he saw Molly as if he had been caught red-handed.

He did not want his sister to know that he was doing manual labor.

However, there was no way he could hide from Molly anymore now that she had already seen him.

He had no choice but to walk toward Molly. Then, he diffidently asked with his head down, "Sister, why are you here?"

"What..."

Molly felt a lump in her throat, and she could not get a word out of her mouth. All she did was hug Caden in her arms.

Caden immediately pushed her away. "Sis, I'm dirty."

"It's fine."

Molly did not care about the dust on his body at all. All she felt was guilt, worry, and stress.

She could not help but beat Caden lightly and scolded him, "Stupid kid, what happened to your phone? Why couldn't I call you at all? Do you know that I've been looking for you? I was so worried about you!"

Caden stood there and let Molly hit him calmly. Instead, he felt loved.

Then, he pushed Molly away softly and said to Sean and Nathan, who were standing beside them, "Hello, brother-in-law, M-Mr. May."

He looked back at Molly after greeting them. Then, he smiled and comforted her, "Sis, I'm okay. I'm just trying to earn some money. Look at me. I'm doing just fine."

Molly still could not calm herself down after listening to what Caden said. ' You're still so young. You should be studying instead of earning money. Besides, the work you're doing right now is so physically demanding. Do you know it's very dangerous to be on a construction site? What if an accident happened? Where am I supposed to find you?"

Caden felt a little guilty after hearing Molly's words, so he lowered his voice. ' Don't worry, sis. I'll be safe."

"What?!"

Molly could not help but say that after Caden talked back at her. "I think you want an accident to happen to you, so you can make me feel sorry for the rest of my life."

"No, sis. Why would I want that?"

Caden quickly explained himself to Molly. His youthful face was brimming with nervousness.

The more Molly looked at his dusty face, the worse she fel

Chapter 877-Molly could not help but raise her hand gently, wipe away the ashes from Caden's cheeks for him, and say, "Forget it. You're already working in a construction site. It's useless for me to say anything further. Come home with me and stop working here.' After Molly said that, she grabbed Caden's wrist and walked forward.

"Molly..." said Caden. He only moved a few steps and hesitantly refused to leave.

Molly naturally understood Caden's concerns. It was nothing more than Caden worrying that if he had left, he would not be able to save enough money for Linda's medical bills.

Molly immediately patted Caden's hand and said, "Don't worry. I already know what happened, and I also know about your mother's illness. Why didn't you come to me when something like this happened? How much money could you earn by yourself?' "I..." Caden muttered.

After being nagged by Molly, Caden felt remorse. He lowered his gaze and softly said, "I just don't want to trouble you, Molly. You have your own life, after all. Plus, my mother was not good to you back then. So, I just want to do this on my own..."

Molly felt heartbroken after hearing Caden say that!

'Caden is too sensible. He always put others first before himself.

'What makes him think that he could afford the hundreds of thousands of medical bills alone?' Molly thought.

Molly did not say more of it and firmly advised, "In short, you can't continue working here. You are still young, and you should study hard in school! As for your mother's medical bills, I'll handle them.

"Now come home with me."

After Molly said that, she forced Caden to come with her.

Caden pushed away Molly's hand and said, "Wait! Molly, I haven't receive my wages for the past few days. I'll have to ask the manager to pay me first.

Then, Caden led Molly to the manager.

Molly briefly explained the situation to the site manager and said that she would take Caden home.

After the manager listened to Molly's explanation, not only did he not retain Caden, but he nodded happily and said with relief, "Miss, it would be best if you could take Caden home! When Caden came to me for work, I thought he was too young to work in a construction site. But, he told me he needed money urgently, so I had to make an exception."

When the manager finished speaking, he quickly took a few red notes and gave them to Caden. The manager kindly said, "Caden, you must study hard after you return to school. It's essential for you to do well in your studies at this age.

'Your sister loves you very much, so don't let her down.'

Caden felt touched by the manager's words.

Then, Caden glanced at Molly beside him. He thought, 'Molly really cared a lot about me. I must not make her worry again.' Molly took Caden home after she had dealt with everything.

At the hotel, Molly booked a room for Caden to stay in.

Then, Molly asked Caden to brief Molly about Linda's condition and Samson's whereabouts.

Caden looked worried. He sighed as he explained to Molly about those trivial matters.

"My mother was diagnosed with cancer a month ago and was already in an advanced stage. The doctor said that her life would be in danger if she didn't receive treatment. That's why I must go out to work and earn money!

"But, the little money I made wasn't enough to cover it. After my mother fell ill, she spent all the family's savings within half a month. My dad also said that he wanted to head out and earn some money. We lost contact after that, and I don't know where he went.

Chapter 878-I didn't want to drop out of school, but I had to earn the money to treat my mother's illness. I can work at the construction site during the day for two hundred dollars a day and wait in a restaurant in the evening for sixty dollars. I can be a cleaner at midnight and earn another forty dollars."

Caden was calculating with his fingers when he said that. He smiled and continued, "Molly, I can make three hundred dollars daily and nearly ten thousand dollars monthly. That way, I can make a lot of money!

“Even though there is still a long way to go before I could have hundreds of thousands to pay for the medical bills, but I can work hard.”

‘This means that Caden has to work three jobs simultaneously, and each job is very tiring!

‘Caden is just a teenager. How could he handle the pressure of life with his thin body?’ Molly pondered, and she began to feel distressed for Caden.

Molly could not help but hug Caden tightly. She raised her hand to touch his head and comforted him. She said, “Don’t worry. You have me. You won’t have to work so harshly anymore. I won’t let you suffer again.

“As for your mother’s condition, I will send her to the best hospital in Northfolk and pay for all her expenses. You can just go back to school with peace of mind.

“Promise me you won’t casually drop out of school in the future. Your classes are important. If you can’t keep up with your studies, it will affect your future. Do you understand?”

Molly warned gently. Her eyes were full of concern and love for Caden.

Caden hesitated for a moment, then he stammered and said, “M-Molly, just forget about it. The medical bills from a big hospital in Northfolk would cost a fortune. I don’t want to be a burden to you. So...”

Molly laughed bitterly and indifferently said, “Have you forgotten that I’m rich, and that I could afford to pay for the medical bills?”

Nathan and Sean quietly followed Molly and Caden, and they did not say anything. Nathan suddenly interjected, “Caden, even if Molly has no money, I do. I will do this for Molly!

“If it doesn’t work, Molly still has Mr. Anderson’s support. He owns a big corporation with assets in trillions. I’m certain he can afford to pay for the medical bills.”

Nathan said that very quickly and gained Sean's approval unanimously.

'As Molly's boyfriend, what's his purpose for making so much money?

'Of course it's to pamper his girlfriend!' Nathan thought.

Caden suddenly smiled and said, "You're right. Molly has you, Nathan, and Sean to take care of her. I really don't need to worry much.

"But, Molly, I will try my best to pay back the money you paid for treating my mother! Although I can't repay much now, I will definitely repay you through my own efforts in the future."

However, Molly shook her head and smiled lightly. She said, "You don't have to do that. I was part of the family too. It may not have been a good life, but at least I was free from diseases and pain, and I grew up healthily. The medical bills I'm paying can be considered returning the favor to them.

"But, I don't mind if you want to repay me. When you have the money in the future, you can repay me any way you want.

"But, before that, you have to promise me to go back to school. Or else, I'll be angry."

Molly said deliberately with a calm face.

Caden could no longer turn away. He nodded obediently and said, "Okay, I'll listen to you and go back to school."

"Good boy," said Molly. She breathed a sigh of relief and finally felt much more at ease

Chapter 879-Seeing that Caden had agreed, Nathan glanced at his watch and suggested, "It's lunchtime. Why don't we take Caden with US? I think you and Mr. Anderson haven't eaten yet."

“Sure,” said Molly. She had no objection.

Molly and the rest came to a stylish Norlonian restaurant and booked a luxurious room.

Soon, a variety of dishes were served on the wide table.

Molly had been in a bad mood for the past two days, and she did not eat much.

Now that Caden was willing to return to school, Molly felt relieved and suddenly had the appetite to eat.

“Here, eat up. I see you’ve lost some weight,” said Molly.

Molly kept adding food to Caden’s bowl, and she wanted to nourish him back to a healthy state.

On the other hand, Sean kept scooping food into Molly’s bowl and gently said, “You too. Stop losing weight.”

Molly was stunned for a moment. She responded with a nod and did not say anything else.

Although Molly was not enthusiastic about Sean, she no longer resisted him for being kind to her.

Sean was also aware of that, and he could not help but feel a hint of sweetness in his heart.

Til keep up with this. I’ll use my gentleness to touch Molly’s heart and let her gradually open her heart to me again. Then, I’ll spend all the time and energy pampering and caring for her.

‘Perhaps, it will be better this way,’ Sean thought.

The few did not notice Nathan sitting on the side, watching them busy scooping food into each other’s bowls. Nathan felt like he was an outsider.

I guess I'm not worthy to be a brother in Molly's heart!' Nathan thought.

Nathan pursed his lips and had no choice but to eat alone.

After the meal, Molly took Caden to buy new clothes. Molly did not hesitate to pay for all the branded clothes and shoes.

Molly also bought a new cell phone and laptop for Caden.

Sean asked Tony to get Caden a new apartment that was very close to the school, so it would be more convenient for Caden to go to school.

Nathan even said that he would buy a car for Caden to make it easier for Caden to go to and from school.

'The car is not necessary!' Molly directly refuted Nathan's idea. She added, "Caden is still a student, so he should behave like a student. If he's showing off, he will be isolated and targeted by his classmates."

"You're right. You are still as thoughtful as ever, Molly," Nathan smiled.

Nathan's smile was full of pampering.

After getting along with Molly in the past two days, Nathan found that Molly was slightly different from what he imagined.

Not only was Molly kind, but she was also generous. Even though Molly's adoptive mother hurt her, Molly was still willing to help her.

Nathan could not understand. 'Why didn't I realize that Molly was such a good and kind girl?' Nathan knew that it was too late for him to regret it now.

However, Nathan would try his best to be nice to Molly and compensate for the various damages he had caused her in the past!

The rest of them had no idea about Nathan's thoughts.

Seeing that Molly had spent so much money on him, Caden could not help but feel a little distressed. He said, "Molly, you don't have to spend any more money on me. I still have clothes to wear, and my cell phone is not broken yet. I can still use it!"

Molly indifferently said, "It's okay. I just want to buy you more things. After all, I don't have time to accompany you on normal days. I would be more at ease if I could buy you clothes and food."

Hearing that, Caden felt a slight pain in his heart.

'No one has ever been so nice to me except for Molly!

'I promised that when I can earn money someday, I will take good care of Molly and be good to her,' Caden thought.

Chapter 880-ital, I will ask the best doctor to treat her and hire someone to take care of her. That way, you don't have to run back and forth all the time.' Caden cast a grateful look at Molly after hearing that. He said, "Thanks, Molly. Without you, I don't even know what to do."

Caden felt like a drowning man, struggling to swim upstream, when suddenly someone threw a rope at him.

Molly was the life-saving rope, and Caden went ashore along the rope and stayed alive.

Caden thought from the bottom of his heart, 'In this life, I must become stronger!

'I can't always rely on Molly.

'I hope that one day, I will be capable and excel enough to be on my own.

'When Molly needs me, I will come forward and be her most solid shield,' Caden thought.

Molly had no idea that Caden was having those thoughts. After she informed Caden of everything, she was going to leave.

When Molly turned around, she suddenly noticed that Caden's hands were covered with many scars!

Molly suddenly recalled that when they were eating together earlier, Caden had covered his palm with his sleeves. That way, no one could see the scars.

In fact, Caden's hands were already full of scars.

Molly sighed suddenly and said, "If you continue to work in a construction site, your hands will be ruined by the lime, steel bars, and other things in a few days.' Caden did not care. He hid his hands behind him and said with a smile,' Molly, I'm fine. It will be better after I rest for two days! I'm a man, and these jobs are nothing.' 'No," said Molly.

As a professional doctor, Molly knew that those scars may look like nothing.

Still, it could easily lead to bacterial infection.

If they were not appropriately treated, it would most likely cause irreparable predicaments in the future.

"Hold your hand out,' Molly instructed.

After that, Molly took out the medical bag she had carried. She then took out a cotton swab and a disinfectant from the medical bag to help treat Caden's wound.

'Molly, you really don't have to." Caden shied away.

Caden felt that Molly had a tiring day and did not want to trouble her anymore.

Molly glared at Caden in dissatisfaction and said, "Stop whining and stretch out your hand. I'll put the medicine on you and return to my room after that." "Okay..."

Caden could not refuse Molly's request, so he obediently stretched out his hand.

Caden's hands were slender and white, but they were not soft. Instead, the joints were distinct and robust at first glance.

Molly carefully treated Caden's wound. As she blew on his wound, she softly said, "This medicine stings a little, but it works very well in removing scars. So, bear with it."

Caden nodded and quietly watched Molly's gentle movements. He suddenly began to tear up.

When Caden discovered that his mother had been diagnosed with cancer, he was terrified. He was afraid that he would not have the money to treat his mother and that his future would be affected after dropping out of school. Then, Caden would be useless in the future. He was also afraid of a lot of things.

Caden did not even dare to drag Molly down.

But now, as soon as Molly appeared, she quickly helped Caden settle everything. She even gently treated the wound on his hand.

Caden's eyes started to tear up even more.

To Caden, it seemed that as long as Molly was by his side, there was nothing to be afraid of...

Just like when Caden was a kid. Molly stood up for him when a kid bullied him.

In Caden's heart, only Molly is a real sister to him! A true sister!
