

Triplets On SM 941

Chapter 941-“Me too.” Molly closed her eyes happily, and tightly wrapped her arms around Sean, wishing that time could freeze at this moment forever so that she would be immersed in this warm embrace forever.

Sean also hugged her gently, as if he had the whole world with her in his arms!

However, although the two had reconciled, Molly still had some doubts about what had happened back then.

So she asked him about what had happened a few years ago.

Sean didn't hide it and explained the misunderstanding back then in every detail.

Sean had gone to a party with his father that night. That party almost gathered most of the celebrities in the top circle, and everyone who came to the party had huge wealth behind them! The party was extremely grand.

At the party, Sean met a few friends whom he got along well with, and had drinks and talked with them for a while.

He had always been a good drinker, so he didn't take this amount of alcohol seriously. But he hadn't expected that someone would drug him that night!

Sean had been drugged and soon passed out. After being sent to the hotel by his assistant, he completely lost consciousness. As for what happened later, he didn't remember at all!

Thinking about it now, he thought he had probably met Molly by accident that night, and made her pregnant...

Hearing Sean's explanation, Molly nodded thoughtfully and said, “It seems that my guess was right.”

“What?” Sean’s fingers curled gently around her hair, and he did not understand what she meant.

Molly shook her head, continued to bury her head in his warm embrace, and explained, “Actually, from the moment I knew you were the biological father of the children, I’ve had some idea of what happened back then.

‘I think maybe we were all set up by someone back then, so we met each other by accident when we lost consciousness! Otherwise, we wouldn’t have known each other so late.”

‘Yes.” Sean nodded lightly, agreeing with Molly’s words.

If he hadn’t forgotten what happened that night, he would have found Molly long ago!

Even if they had no feelings for each other at the time, he would still be responsible for her instead of letting her go abroad alone and suffer so much...

Fortunately, after going around and around, the two still met each other! Fate could not tear them apart in the end!

“Molly.” When Sean thought of this, he suddenly called her name emotionally, and whispered from the bottom of his heart, “I will never let you leave me again.”

Then he gently lifted Molly’s chin and kissed her on the lips.

Molly froze for a moment, closed her eyes, and got lost in it. They made out affectionately until midnight.

Molly was sleepy in the end. She helped Sean to bed, went back to her room, and went to bed herself.

At night, she was lying on the bed and looking at the ring in her hand in the moonlight. The ring was sparkling in the moonlight!

Molly tightly held the ring to her chest and felt so happy. It was so sweet!

The next day, Molly still woke up at eight o'clock in the morning.

When she opened her sleepy eyes, she suddenly saw the children's little heads by the window together.

Chapter 942-What were the children doing?

"Children, what are you doing?" Molly asked, puzzled.

The children immediately turned around, and said to Molly with excited smiles on their faces, "Mommy, look outside. It's snowing!"

Snowing? When Molly heard this, she got up and went to the window to have a look, and she found that it was indeed snowing. And it was snowing heavily!

Snow covered the trees, and the whole world became covered in white, looking very beautiful!

The children got excited immediately. Looking up at Molly, they asked expectantly, "Mommy, can we go and make a snowman in the yard?"

"Sure." Molly agreed immediately. After all, any child would like to make a snowman.

But given the cold weather, she still reminded them worriedly, "Remember to wear a coat and gloves! Don't let yourself freeze."

"Okay, Mommy!" After the children said that, they rushed out of the room excitedly and went to the backyard to make a snowman.

After Molly washed up, she went to the first floor and had breakfast with Sean.

Then she stood by the French windows and watched the children build a snowman in the backyard.

The children were small, so the snowman they made was also small! Molly watched it and felt herself melting in their cuteness.

Sean also sat by the French windows, watching the children playing.

There was a heater beside him. Molly was worried that he was cold, so she had prepared it especially!

A warm wind was blowing at his knees just like a woman's gentle love, warming his heart all the time.

This scene was very sweet.

Just then, Molly's cell phone on the dining table rang. Molly quickly picked up the phone and had a look. She found that it was a video call from Grandpa Dave, and immediately answered it!

"Hello, Grandpa." After the call was connected, Molly gently greeted the person on the other end of the phone.

When Dave saw the appearance and state of his granddaughter through the video, he immediately smiled very kindly, and asked, "Molly, I heard that Sean and the children went to Xesxia to spend Christmas with you. How is it going?"

"It's great, Grandpa! Sean and I took the kids to Disneyland yesterday, and we had a great time!" Molly said with a relaxed smile.

Seeing that his granddaughter had a smile on her face, Dave couldn't help stroking his beard, and said with a big smile, "Okay, I'm glad you're having fun!"

"But you and Sean, what the hell is going on with you now? Are you reconciled?" Dave asked emphatically.

On the side, when Brycen who was sitting on the sofa heard Dave's question, he immediately pricked up his ears, intending to listen to what his sister had to say.

Molly didn't want to hide anything from him. She nodded directly to Dave and admitted, "Yes, Sean and I have cleared up the misunderstanding back then, and now we are reconciled."

"That's good!" When Dave heard that the two had reconciled, he immediately nodded in relief, and said in a deep voice with a smile, "Molly, since you and Sean have reconciled, don't fight anymore in the future."

"I can see that Sean is serious about you, and he wants you to be happy. So don't make trouble with him, okay?"

Chapter 943-e had been really worried about the young couple!

Molly quickly nodded obediently and said, "Okay, I know, Grandpa Dave. I finally reconciled with Sean, and I will get along with him well in the future. So you don't have to worry."

"Well, I'm relieved to hear that! Your family can have a good get-together, and I will leave you alone." Dave said happily and prepared to hang up the phone.

Just before Dave hung up the phone, Brycen rushed over and snatched the phone from him.

Facing the camera, Brycen asked in disbelief, "Molly, you just said that you and Sean are reconciled?"

"Yes..." Molly responded calmly.

Why was Brycen so emotional?

Brycen sighed on the other end of the phone immediately, and complained dissatisfiedly, "Molly, how can you forgive him so quickly? It's too easy for him. I think you should keep him waiting for a year or two before you reconcile with him!"

Molly knew that Brycen said this for her good, and she could only retort with a smile on her face, "Brycen, the situation is not as serious as you think. As for what happened back then, Sean didn't do it on purpose, so please forgive him.

Besides, he's been very good to me..."

Speaking of the last sentence, Molly subconsciously glanced at Sean with gentle eyes.

Seeing Molly's shy look, Brycen knew that she had made up her mind.

Brycen couldn't help being angry in his heart. But on the surface, he couldn't bear to say anything about Molly. So he simply targeted Sean and warned in a serious tone, "Sean, let me tell you, your status is not ordinary, and others dare not provoke you, but I am not afraid of you. You probably had to do what you did back then, but I still want to say...don't ever bully my sister again. If you dare to treat her badly or make her cry again, I will never go easy on you! Do you hear me?"

Brycen sounded harsh. Molly was amused! But she couldn't help feeling warm.

She smiled and comforted, "Okay, stop it. Sean and I won't have any problems.

Even if we have conflicts, we will solve them ourselves. Don't worry."

Dave stroked his beard beside Brycen, and nodded steadily, "Molly, you have grown up, and it's good for you to make your own decisions! As long as you and Sean get on well with each other, I will be at ease..."

Then, Dave chatted with Molly for a short while before he was willing to hang up the phone.

After Molly put her phone aside, she turned her head and smiled at Sean, ' What my brother said just now, don't take it to heart. He's just like that."

"I won't." Sean immediately took her soft hand and wrapped his arms around her waist so that she could sit on his lap, and he said with a smile, ' It's because he likes you and cares about you so much. It's a good thing for you to have such a brother and such a family. If you are bullied by me in the future, they will support you. " Hearing this, Molly couldn't help but joke with him, "What? You still want to bully me?"

Sean laughed, "I won't dare to! You are my fiancée now, and I will only be good to you as much as I can."

"Good." Molly leaned sweetly in his arms.

She would also be gentle to him as much as she could Chapter 944-Molly, how long will your project last?" Sean took her hand and asked.

He really couldn't bear to see Molly working so hard. He wished he could take her back to Northfolk and see her every day.

Molly also wanted to go back with him, but there was still work there and she couldn't get away. She was very helpless.

She responded, "It will take at least two more months. The work of the research laboratory is very busy now, and I don't know if I will continue to develop other projects in the future. In short, it's not certain."

In other words, the two of them would have to be apart for at least two months.

Hearing this, Sean nodded, took her hand, and said, "It's okay. Then I'll come and see you when I'm free. You stay here and take care of yourself."

'I will. You too." Molly nodded obediently.

“Mommy, we’ll go back. Remember to make video calls with US every night! ‘ At this moment, the three children were not willing to part with their mother and they waved their little hands unhappily.

They couldn’t bear to leave their mother. But they had no choice because their mother still had to work here... They could only wait to see mom again when they had time!

Molly squatted down, softly kissed each child on the forehead, and then waved her hand, “I will make video calls with you every day. You should board the plane quickly, or you will miss the flight.”

“Okay.”

Then Molly stood there and watched Sean and the three children go through security.

After the four of them completely disappeared, Molly turned around, left the airport, and hurried back to the research laboratory.

As soon as Molly came back, her assistant Lynn rushed to her and reported anxiously, Molly, there is a problem with the development of Reagent Two!”

“What is the problem?” Molly hurriedly walked to the office, put on her white coat, and asked with a serious face.

Lynn quickly took out a document and explained, “You haven’t been in the research laboratory for the past two days, and I have been supervising everyone’s experiments. But unexpectedly, during the development of Reagent Two, various data errors suddenly appeared.”

“Let me see.” Molly took the document and checked it carefully, and indeed found many problems.

“It seems that our Reagent Two needs to improve the formula. Come on, follow me to the laboratory.” Molly put on the dustproof suit and protective mask before she walked into the laboratory.

She was very busy the whole morning.

At the same time, Sean returned to the company and immediately went back to work.

Halfway through the work, his assistant came in to report, "Mr. Anderson, about the man Trevor Cooke who hired haters online and deliberately slandered Ms. May, I have tracked down his whereabouts. What is certain is that Trevor Cooke has never had any grievances with Ms. May before! I think he has probably been used by someone to deliberately target Ms. May."

After all, if he were a total stranger, there would be no need for him to slander Molly on the Internet. Besides, he couldn't afford to provoke Molly!

The only possibility was that this Trevor Cooke had been used by someone to do such a stupid thing.

Hearing it, Sean frowned tightly and said coldly, "Check.

"Find this person before tonight, and make sure to find out what's going on." "Yes!"

Chapter 945-That night, in MAX Bar, colorful neon lights shone on everyone's face.

Trevor was sitting at an inconspicuous table in the bar, sipping strong wine alone. He had drunk so much, but he wasn't drunk at all!

These days, he had been avoiding investigation and tracking, and he had almost nowhere to go!

He dared not use any online payment method for fear of his location being found out.

This dreadful feeling made him extremely uncomfortable. He didn't know when such days would come to an end!

Thinking of this, Trevor poured himself another glass of wine. The moment he raised his head, he could feel the strong wine pouring down his throat and landing into his stomach. The spicy taste instantly diluted his sorrow.

But what he didn't know was that Tony had arrived at the entrance of the MAX bar with bodyguards at this moment.

'Go in and search!' Tony waved his hand domineeringly, and the bodyguards behind him immediately went out collectively. Soon they found Trevor in a dark corner of the bar.

Several bodyguards immediately grabbed Trevor and carried him outside.

'Who are you? Who are you?!' Trevor was caught off guard when they grabbed his thick arms, and he immediately struggled in panic, "Let me go! Who are you and why are you grabbing me?"

The bodyguards ignored his struggle and just took him to Tony outside the bar.

'Who are you and why are you grabbing me?' Trevor yelled at Tony.

'Why?' Suddenly Tony raised his fingers gracefully as if he had heard a joke.

The bodyguards stopped immediately!

Then, Tony walked towards Trevor step by step and the strong sense of oppression made Trevor back down in fright.

Tony didn't bother to talk nonsense with him. He sneered and asked directly, "Isn't it you who hired haters to slander Ms. May?"

Trevor trembled, and his heart sank instantly.

He was doomed! The people from Anderson Corporation found him anyway.

He had thought that he had hidden well recently, but he still couldn't escape the Anderson Corporation's search!

Damn! He was doomed this time!

Trevor was flustered and subconsciously wanted to evade responsibility. He hurriedly changed his expression and stammered, "Sir, did you make a mistake? Did you find the wrong person? I don't know what you're talking about!"

With that, he hurriedly lowered his head and wanted to leave.

Of course, Tony wouldn't let him go. He grabbed Trevor's arm tightly and pulled Trevor back with such force that it could almost crush his bones!

He warned Trevor coldly, "Do you know that it is against the law to maliciously spread rumors to tarnish the reputation of others? If Mr. Anderson wants to sue you, you will be locked up in prison for several years! You'd better think clearly before you speak."

Locked up in prison? Hearing these words, Trevor froze in place as if he had been struck by lightning. He didn't want to go to jail!

He was only in his thirties, and he had his wife and daughter to take care of at home. He had just been paid to do something, and there was no need to ruin his life because of it!

He was so flustered that he quickly put on a bitter look and revealed all the truth, "It wasn't me, Sir. I didn't hire haters online to hurt Ms. May... I mean, I was paid to do it! Someone gave me money to do it, but the instigator is not me! Sir, please let me go!"

Chapter 946-"I'm a son and a father. I did this kind of immoral thing just to make more money. I didn't mean to do any of this, Sir!" Trevor was on the verge of crying. He didn't want to go to jail.

Tony just twitched the corner of his mouth calmly, and asked, "Really?"

Then tell me, who told you to do that?"

"It's..." Trevor hesitated deliberately, pretending to find it difficult to say it, ' Sir, I promised not to betray her...

"But since you have found me, Sir, I can't hurt myself for someone else. So I might as well tell you that the person who instigated me is the young lady of the Newman family, Sharon Newman..."

Sharon Newman? Tony recalled that the young lady of the Newman family looked very quiet and nice, and she didn't look like a girl who would stab someone in the back.

So he doubted it, "Trevor, don't blame others to shirk responsibility. If you dare to lie to me, you know the consequences."

"How would dare I lie to you?" Trevor was so frightened that he was shaking, and he quickly explained in a trembling voice, "Sir, you should also know that Mrs. Anderson had contacted Miss Newman before, and she had the intention of making Miss Newman her daughter-in-law! But later, Miss Newman was suddenly given up, and she was very upset.

"Women are jealous. When Miss Newman saw that Ms. May was favored by Mr.

Anderson, she was naturally unhappy. So she tried to get revenge, and I...I had no choice but to help her." Trevor described it vividly.

He was telling a good story!

He even took out his mobile phone, pulled up his transaction records, and showed it to Tony., "Look, Sir, I have a transfer of 500,000 from Miss Newman.

I'm not lying to you! Besides, if I lie to you, I will go to jail. How would dare I do that?"

Tony was finally dubious!

Sharon usually didn't look like a vicious girl, but if she was jealous of Ms. May, it was not impossible for her to intentionally hurt Ms. May.

Tony pondered for a few seconds, nodded, and said, "Okay, I hope you're not lying. You guys, keep an eye on him. I'll go back and report to Mr.

Anderson."

"Yes."

Then Tony drove directly back to the company and told Sean what Trevor had said.

"Sharon?" After hearing it, Sean frowned tightly. His eyes turned cold!

But he still seemed a little unconvinced, and said coldly, "That woman doesn't seem to have the guts."

"Yeah, I also think Miss Newman doesn't have the guts, but Trevor insisted that Sharon ordered him. I don't think he dared to lie to US. Besides, as they say, cats hide their claws. Who knows what Miss Newman is thinking? " Tony said tentatively.

He felt that since Trevor had already been caught by them, there was no need for him to lie! Maybe Sharon had instigated Trevor to slander Ms.

May.

At this moment, Sean's face was cold and serious.

Sean seemed to think for a few seconds, and finally felt that what Tony said made sense. There was no need for Trevor to lie!

So, Sean ordered coldly, "Well, go find Sharon and ask her face to face, and it will be clear."

"Yes." Tony nodded.

Chapter 947-Half an hour later, downstairs at the Anderson Corporation, Sharon got out of the car apprehensively.

At this time, it was already nine o'clock in the evening.

She was a little nervous. She wondered why Mr. Anderson was asking his assistant to bring her so late at night!

Although she was confused, it was undeniable that she still had some uncontrollable excitement and tension in her heart!

Maybe, Sean had figured it out and became interested in her! Thinking of this, she felt like she was trembling with excitement!

Her breathing quickened! She quickly took a deep breath and forced herself to calm down. Then she calmly followed Tony to Sean's office.

But as soon as she entered the door, she felt something wrong! It was great tension in the office. Especially Sean, who was sitting at the desk, looked so cold and dignified.

His coldness seemed to affect the magnetic field of the entire office, making her body tense up immediately.

"Mr. Anderson..." Sharon plucked up the courage to greet Sean but found that her voice was trembling.

Sean was working on a document in his hand. He ignored her! It immediately made Sharon even more embarrassed. She felt that she was being ignored, and she knew that she had thought too much on her way here.

After Sean signed his name at the bottom of the document, he closed the document, put his pen aside, and looked at Sharon coldly.

“Miss Newman, do you know someone named Trevor Cooke?” Sean got straight to the point and said coldly.

He looked even more compelling!

Sharon was confused and only felt that her mind went blank. She replied with a blank expression, “I don’t know him, Mr. Anderson. Why did you suddenly ask me this?”

“You don’t know him?” Sean frowned slightly, and continued to speak coldly, “But he said he knows you. He also said that you transferred him half a million to hire haters to slander my fiancée Molly on the Internet. Don’t you know about this?”

“What?” Sharon was shocked when she heard this!

She didn’t know Trevor at all, and she hadn’t asked him to hire haters to slander Molly!

At that moment, she was worried that Sean had wrongly blamed her, so she hurriedly shook her head and denied, “Mr. Anderson, you must have misunderstood me. I don’t know Trevor at all, and I have never given money to him!”

“Really?”

“Yes. If you don’t believe me, you can investigate my bank statement immediately. How could I do such an immoral thing?” Sharon’s face was flushed with anxiety. She was afraid that Sean would misunderstand her.

She didn't want Sean to mistake her for a vicious woman! Besides, she didn't dare to offend Sean and the Anderson family, though she did feel very unhappy about Mrs. Anderson's behavior recently.

Mrs. Anderson had said at the beginning that she wanted to set her up with Sean, but in the end, Mrs.

Anderson had given up on her so easily!

But even so, she definitely wouldn't dare to offend the Anderson family, unless the Newman family didn't want to stay in Northfolk anymore.

Thinking of this, she looked at Sean eagerly and only hoped that he could trust her once.

Sean looked at Sharon for a few seconds and immediately concluded that it wasn't Sharon who did it.

He had always been a good judge of character. Sharon did not have the guts to go against the Anderson family.

It seemed that it needed further investigation.

Chapter 948-Sean withdrew his probing eyes and continued to deal with the work. At the same time, he warned in a cold voice, "I will send someone to verify this matter. Ms. Newman, I hope you did not do it, or..." 'I understand! Don't worry. I will cooperate with your investigation. I believe the truth will come to light!"

Sharon hastily nodded in agreement.

At the same time, she breathed a sigh of relief. At least she had temporarily cleared herself of suspicion. But when she walked out of Anderson Corporation, she still hadn't recovered.

She somehow found it weird! Why was Sean suddenly suspicious of her?

Wasn't Joelle responsible for slandering Molly on the Internet? They had agreed that if the incident of slandering Molly was exposed, they would blame it all on the media!

Why had she gotten into trouble? Could it be that Joelle had shifted the blame onto her? If so, that woman was so unbelievable!

Sharon suddenly became angry and drove to the Herring mansion in a hurry, intending to ask Joelle about it in person!

Joelle hadn't expected Sharon to find her so quickly. It was indeed her idea to instigate Trevor to slander Sharon...

After all, Sean had already started to investigate this matter, and she couldn't let herself get into trouble. So she had told Trevor that if he was caught one day, he would blame it on Sharon!

She hadn't expected this day to come so fast!

Of course, Joelle would not admit that she had ordered everything. At that moment, she comforted Sharon with a gentle face, "Sharon, we are in the same boat and you should trust me! I did hire haters to slander Molly on the Internet, but what does it have to do with you? Even if this matter is exposed, it would be the media's fault. Why do you doubt me like this?"

"Don't talk nonsense." Sharon frowned and didn't bother to listen to her nonsense. She asked with a serious expression, "Tell me the truth, weren't you the one who told Trevor Cooke to pin all of this on me? If it's you, you..."

"I can understand why you think so." Joelle looked very considerate and said to Sharon, "But, how could I betray you? Didn't we agree? Let's be partners and deal with Molly together! Of course, I won't harm you. If you did this, wouldn't I be afraid that you would confess that it is me? I will not do such a stupid thing to get myself into trouble." Joelle's acting skills were very good. With her demeanor and tone, she sounded convincing.

Seeing Joelle so sincere, Sharon couldn't tell whether she was telling the truth or not.

Sharon had no choice but to purse her lips, cast a sideways glance at her, and say anxiously, "Joelle, we are in the same boat now. If you trick me, I will drag you down with me! Don't try to use me!"

"I know. Don't worry." Joelle smiled calmly but snorted coldly in her heart.

They were in the same boat? Sharon was bluffing.

To her, Sharon was just a tool for her to take revenge on Molly. If Sharon became useless, she would dump her without hesitation!

What a stupid woman!

Chapter 949-At the Anderson Corporation, not long after Sharon left, Tony nodded slightly and asked Sean respectfully, "Mr. Anderson, I don't think this Ms. Newman looks like the one who slandered Ms. May behind her back! She doesn't seem to have the guts to do it. Should we investigate it further?"

"Sure." Sean raised his slender fingers, rubbed his temples in a good posture, and said coldly, "Go and check to see if Sharon has transferred money to Trevor. If not, investigate Trevor again."

"Okay, got it." Tony bowed his head, turned, and left to do as he was told.

But as soon as he walked out of the President's Office, the phone in his pocket rang.

Tony picked up the phone, and heard the man on the other end of the phone yell in panic, "It's bad, Mr. Hill.

Trevor ran away!"

"Ran away?" Tony frowned fiercely, and reprimanded in a low and urgent voice, "Didn't I tell you to keep an eye on him? How can you let him run away?"

"I'm sorry, Mr. Hill. It's not that we didn't keep an eye on Trevor, but he was so cunning! We locked him in a private room in the bar. But you know such a place.

There were so many people, and someone let him go! So..."

The bodyguards had caught Trevor in the bar, so they locked Trevor there for convenience. But unexpectedly, Trevor had run away!

The subordinate was so frightened that he couldn't help shaking and quickly apologized to Tony, "I'm sorry, Mr. Hill, it was my negligence. Please punish me!"

Tony's face darkened immediately, and he urged impatiently, "What's the use of punishing you now? Why don't you hurry up and get him back?! Mr. Anderson is asking US to investigate this man. If you can't find him, you will be punished!"

"Yes, well go and look for him now."

The subordinates hurriedly began to look for Trevor.

Tony had planned to leave Anderson Corporation to see Trevor. But since Trevor had escaped, now he could only return to the office and report to Sean.

"Mr. Anderson, Trevor... ran away!"

Sean had been busy working. He suddenly stopped. The moment he raised his eyebrows, there seemed to be a huge storm in his eyes.

'What happened?' His voice was even more indescribably cold.

Tony was terrified, and hastily bent down to apologize, "I'm sorry, Mr.

Anderson. It was my negligence. The bar is pretty chaotic today, so they accidentally lost Trevor and let him run away.”

Sean frowned tightly, and he looked extremely unhappy! But Trevor had escaped now, and holding Tony accountable would be of no avail.

Sean ordered in a very cold voice, “Why don’t you go look for him? If you can’t find him, you will be at your own risk!” Tony shivered all over and said, “Yes!”

Then, he hurriedly turned around to go look for Trevor.

Sean’s eyes darkened and the turmoil in his heart couldn’t calm down! Now that Trevor had escaped, it proved that Sharon was not the one who hurt Molly.

There was someone else behind him.

When Sean returned to the villa, it was already ten o’clock in the evening.

Before he got home, he first went to the next door and walked around.

Seeing that the lights were turned off in the room of the three children, he guessed that the children should be asleep. So he returned to his villa.

Before he went to bed, he texted Molly as usual. “Good night.”

He had thought he would not receive a reply. But Molly replied to him in seconds. “Why haven’t you gone to bed yet? It’s so late.”

Chapter 950-Sean was taken aback for a moment. Molly was still awake this late. Was she still working overtime in the research laboratory?

Thinking of this, he immediately made a video call.

Molly was indeed working overtime in the laboratory tonight. But at this moment, it was almost time to get off work, so she answered the video call.

When it was answered, Molly's tired face appeared on the screen.

She was wearing a plain white coat. Her hair seemed a little messy because she had forgotten to tidy it up after being busy working, and her face was a little pale...

Sean felt sorry for her, and he couldn't help but sound a little reproachful, 'Didn't you promise me to take good care of yourself? Why are you still working so late?'

"... Sorry, I lost track of time." Molly realized that she had promised Sean to go to bed early, but she didn't do it tonight.

Every time she entered the research and development state, it would be easy for her to lose track of time.

She quickly softened her voice, and explained sweetly, "As soon as I returned to the research laboratory this afternoon, I learned that there was a problem with the data of the project! I had to work overtime with my colleagues to improve the research and development plan. I didn't expect it to be too late.

"I promise, I won't work overtime so late again. Don't be angry..." Molly whispered, trying to calm him down.

Sean couldn't help feeling sorry and helpless!

He had just been worried that Molly didn't take good care of herself and felt sorry for her. Why was she apologizing now?

Sean immediately softened his tone, and said gently, "I'm not angry. I'm sorry for my bad tone just now. You've worked so hard, and I shouldn't blame you.

"Hurry up and get off work, and go back to rest. Don't worry about work. You have plenty of time, but your health should come first."

"Ok!" Hearing Sean's concerned voice, Molly felt so warm.

But she also noticed that Sean didn't seem very happy today.

Sean looked calm as ever, but she knew him very well. So even if there were only some subtle changes in his emotions, she could capture them.

She asked with some anxiety, "Sean, you don't seem to be in a good mood. Is something wrong?"

Sean was slightly taken aback. He hadn't expected Molly to be so sensitive. He had thought he didn't show the slightest difference, but it still didn't escape her eyes.

It was Trevor who made him a little annoyed!

But he didn't want Molly to worry along with him, so he just smiled lightly and comforted her, "It's nothing. It's just that I had a lot of work today and worked overtime late. I'm a little tired! It's no big deal."

"Really?" Molly was still a little skeptical.

But there was no other expression on Sean's face.

So she believed it for the time being, and said to him, "Well, you should take good care of yourself and go to bed early. I'm not by your side, but I've cared about your health all the time. You can't mess around. Follow the doctor's advice and listen to me. Don't make me worry..."

Her words, like a warm current, poured into Sean's heart.

He couldn't help smiling slightly, and said in a gentle voice, "Okay, I know. I will listen to you and not make you worry."
