

Triplets On SM 951

Chapter 951-After Molly heard this, she couldn't help smiling.

They were sweet and intimate, and they talked for a long time before they were willing to hang up.

Hearing her soft words, Sean gradually felt better.

In the next few days, Molly was still busy with her colleagues in the lab every day.

With their continuous efforts, those projects that had gone wrong were finally repaired.

At lunch break, Molly was about to go out for lunch with her assistant Lynn when the phone suddenly rang in her pocket.

She took out her phone and saw that it was Nathan calling!

Why was he calling? Molly frowned slightly in surprise. After hesitating for a few seconds, she walked to a place where no one was around and answered, "Hello?"

"Is it Molly? I'm sorry to bother you! At this point, you should be off work for a lunch break, right?" Nathan asked politely on the other end of the phone. He sounded quite polite, which surprised Molly a little.

Molly nodded, and replied lightly, "Yes."

Nathan immediately replied, "That's good! I was afraid of disturbing you. Molly, I'm calling you to tell you something about your adoptive mother's situation." "Well, go ahead!" Molly had been so busy recently that she almost forgot about her adoptive mother who was still undergoing treatment in Northfolk.

Molly immediately began to take it seriously and waited for Nathan to continue.

Nathan didn't hesitate, and said directly, "Your adoptive mother's treatment has been going well recently. The cancer cells in her body have been suppressed, and there is no tendency to spread for the time being. But the chemotherapy process had been too painful, so after your adoptive mother woke up, she kept making trouble and refused to continue to receive treatment. I had to ask the doctor to give her a tranquilizer to calm down her irritability!"

Hearing it, Molly could understand. When a serious patient couldn't bear the pain, he would naturally become manic, especially when his family was not around.

Molly thought of Caden and said, "Let the doctor try to comfort her. My adoptive mother takes her life very seriously. If you start with this aspect and talk to her, she will be scared. Also, has my brother Caden visited her recently?"

Nathan nodded, "He has. One time when Caden came to the hospital to visit your adoptive mother, she happened to lose control of her emotions and almost hurt Caden!"

"The doctor said that your adoptive mother occasionally loses control of her mind. Even though Caden was standing right in front of her, she kept yelling, saying that no one in her family came to visit her. She felt that no one cared about her and kept crying!" Nathan reported truthfully.

Molly frowned slightly after hearing this! Hurting Caden was something she couldn't tolerate.

After thinking about it, she had no choice but to ask Nathan to help politely, 'I can't go back to Northfolk for the time being. About my adoptive mother, I think you should communicate with the hospital as I just said! If possible, I hope that her condition won't affect Caden. His studies are very important now, and try not to distract him!

"As for the others, I'll go back and have a look after my work is done."

She could only do so now.

"Okay, I will follow what you said and communicate with the doctor." Nathan had no problem with Molly's arrangement.

Chapter 952-But after saying this, Nathan was still reluctant to hang up the phone. He couldn't help asking in a caring and hoarse voice, "Molly, you are doing well in Xesxia, right? Are you used to the environment over there?"

Molly was surprised for a moment, and smiled awkwardly, "Well, I'm fine."

"Good!" Hearing what Molly said, Nathan was relieved a lot.

Then, after a second's hesitation, he added, "I have some friends in Xesxia. If you need anything there, you can tell me at any time. If I can help, I will try my best to help you!"

Molly was dazed for a moment. She could feel Nathan's attitude towards her becoming more and more gentle and more and more like a big brother. But she couldn't accept his kindness for the time being!

So, she refused calmly, "I'm very grateful for your kindness, but there is nothing I need your help with. Please help me take good care of my adoptive mother, and that's enough! I will thank you when I go back.

"I have something else to do, so I'm hanging up."

With that, Molly decisively hung up.

Hearing that she had hung up, Nathan couldn't help but feel a little helpless!

He had wanted to get close to Molly and make up with her many times. He had helped Molly's adoptive mother transfer to another hospital and receive treatment to show Molly his sincerity as an older brother.

But Molly's attitude towards him was still so indifferent.

There had always been a gap between them! If it went on, when would he be able to reconcile with Molly?

However, Nathan was not someone who gave up easily, because he knew that reconciliation with Molly could not be rushed. He would continue to treat Molly well and maybe he would be forgiven one day.

At the same time, in the Herring Group office, Joelle was standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows calling Trevor, looking very anxious, "Trevor, where are you now?"

"Ms. Herring, I have fled to the south side. People from Anderson Corporation haven't found me yet, but what should I do? I can't keep running away." Trevor said on the other end of the phone.

He sounded extremely tense. He was afraid of being caught by the people from Anderson Corporation! Once caught, he would suffer.

But he didn't dare to offend Joelle, because Joelle had something important on him. So he could only run away desperately!

Joelle only felt annoyed when she heard his trembling voice. A strong uneasy feeling came over her.

Ever since Sharon came to see her last night, she had been in a bad mood and always felt that something was going to happen. So she had to find a way to get Trevor away!

But this was not enough.

To protect Molly, Sean had been pursuing Trevor so hard.

Damn it! Who did Molly think she was? The more Joelle thought about it, the angrier she became, and she wanted to kill Molly!

It was all Molly's fault. She had appeared in Sean's life and secretly given birth to children. Otherwise, she would have become Mrs. Anderson!

Thinking of this, Joelle urged Trevor impatiently, "Don't worry about it so much. Just hide well. If possible, you'd better flee abroad so that they can't find you if they want to! If you don't have enough money, tell me. I will find someone to pick you up and help you. But you must not get caught. Do you hear me?"

Chapter 953-make a quick buck and settle down to live a good life. He had never thought he would get into so much trouble.

Now that he was in this situation, he couldn't even use the money he had earned.

Was he going to flee for the rest of his life?

He was really panicking.

Joelle listened to his voice, feeling irritated. "Calm down. It will not be good for either of us if you are caught.

Of course, I'm better than you... At least, I have a relationship with the Anderson family. What about you? You can't leave your wife and children alone, right?

"So just listen to me. I'll tell you where to run. I will help you get rid of them. Think it over. I'll hang up now."

With that, Joelle ended the call.

She threw the phone onto the desk, feeling upset.

She didn't expect things to come to this point either.

No, it couldn't go on like this.

Molly had cornered her to this point. She couldn't swallow her anger.

She had to find a way to deal with Molly.

Joelle hurriedly made a phone call to her spy and asked him to report Molly's recent movements.

The spy had been watching Molly, so he soon answered Joelle.

Joelle knew something about Molly's situation.

When she heard that Molly had recently worked at a research laboratory in Xesxia and had even become a popular visiting professor at Xesxia University, Joelle frowned more and more tightly.

It was okay that Sean was stupid, but what was wrong with the students at Xesxia University?

What was so good about a woman like Molly who tried to marry into a wealthy family by having children?

Joelle narrowed her eyes, and a sharp light of contempt erupted from her eyes.

'Molly, just wait.' The next day was Wednesday.

Molly woke up early in the morning to prepare for her classes. She had to go to school in the afternoon to give classes.

Before she left, she received a call from Wayne.

Wayne's tone was hesitant as if something had happened.

'Dr. May, why don't you just rest at home today? You don't need to go to school for the time being...'

Molly was puzzled. "Mr. Harrison, what's going on? Is something wrong?" Although Molly only came to school for two classes a week, she prepared very carefully for each lesson.

She couldn't understand why Wayne was stopping her from going to school.

Wayne didn't know how to explain it. He stammered for a while before he managed to say, "Dr. May, I suggest you not come to school this week because something happened at school today."

'What is it?'

What Molly disliked most was the feeling of being kept in the dark.

She knitted her brows and questioned, "Is it about me? You can tell me. It's okay. I can find a way to help you or solve it. After all, I am now also a staff member. If the school encounters any difficulties, I have the obligation to face them with you guys."

Hearing this, Wayne felt a sense of powerlessness.

How could such an excellent, responsible doctor be like what the online rumors said?

Chapter 955-and attitude were a bit sharp.

Molly heard the sharpness in her words, but she didn't get angry. She remained calm and explained calmly, "Being a doctor is a sacred and great profession. It is a doctor's bounden duty to save lives and heal the wounded. It's the common wish of all medical students to make people have less pain. I think this is the meaning of being a doctor."

"Really?" When the student heard this, she sneered coldly, and said sarcastically, "Ms. Joye, what you said makes sense, but not everyone in the medical industry can have a benevolent heart."

“Some people appear to be kind, excellent, and outstanding in all aspects. But in fact, they are nothing more than hypocrites! What do you think?”

The student was implying something.

Molly was not a fool. She vaguely felt that what the student said seemed to be aimed at her. She didn't understand why the students' attitude towards her had suddenly changed so much.

She finally made it through until the bell rang for the end of class!

All the students in the classroom seemed to be relieved. They packed up their textbooks and left the classroom in a hurry as if they didn't even want to take another look at Molly.

Molly felt even more confused but didn't know what went wrong.

Just then, Laila, Mario, and Cody came to the classroom and found Molly.

“Ms. Joye, are you okay?” Laila looked at Molly and asked with concern.

“Ms. Joye, just now we were called by the school's laboratory to help, so we didn't come to class. The students didn't make things difficult for you, did they?”

Mario also sounded very anxious, as if something serious had happened.

Although Cody didn't say anything, he looked at Molly with deep concern.

Seeing the three of them so abnormal, Molly frowned tightly and felt even more confused.

“Laila, Mario, can you tell me what happened? As soon as I arrived at school today, I felt that everyone looked at me strangely. What's going on?”

The three of them looked at each other when they heard Molly's words, looking very puzzled. Didn't Ms. Joye know what had happened?

'Ms. Joye, haven't you read the news on the school forum?' Laila asked.

"I don't usually visit school forums or Facebook groups. What's wrong? Did something happen?" Molly asked.

"Oh, I see!"

When Laila and the other two heard this, they immediately understood what was going on.

They could only take out their phones, open the school forum and show it to Molly.

"Ms. Joye, someone exposed some negative information about you on the Internet. Take a look."

Molly took Laila's phone and began to check it. After a short while, she frowned, feeling somehow angry.

What the hell was going on?

On the school forum, someone posted an article anonymously to slander Molly!

It was written in the article that Molly was a famous and prestigious doctor on the surface, but she was an ungrateful woman who didn't care about her adoptive mother!

Molly had been brought into the wrong family and she had grown up in a poor family since she was little. Her adoptive parents, though not rich, had worked hard to bring her up!

Chapter 956-However, when she grew up, not only did she not feel grateful to her adoptive parents, but she even tried to stay away from that poor dilapidated home!

Now her adoptive mother got stomach cancer and was being treated in the hospital, but Molly didn't care about it at all and didn't even go to visit her!

All kinds of rumors were added together, turned into a pot of thick black water, and poured on Molly, which made her fall into disrepute.

A massive number of Xesxia University students censured Molly in the comment section.

"I really didn't expect that the famous Dr. Joye would be such an unethical person! Not only is she ungrateful, but she is still snobbish and hypocritical. For such a person, what's the use of being beautiful and talented?"

"Such an unscrupulous person doesn't deserve to be a doctor at all, let alone a professor in our university."

"Well, I liked Dr. Joye very much. I didn't expect her perfect image to be disillusioned so soon!"

"It is true that everyone's faults are not written in their foreheads. I was really blind to regard her as my goddess."

All kinds of harsh words came into sight.

She never expected that the students who supported and admired her so much would turn to insult her.

This extreme reversal was something she did not expect.

But what made her even angry was that the person who posted the anonymous post was simply talking nonsense!

She ignored her adoptive parents at that time because they didn't care about her life or death at all!

Now her adoptive mother was sick. Although she didn't go to visit her, she asked Nathan to transfer her to the best hospital in Northfolk and arrange the best experts for treatment!

At least as a doctor, no matter how much hatred she had for her adoptive mother, it was impossible for her to abandon her when she was dying!

So who was it that smeared behind her like this?

"Dr. Joye, are you okay?"

Seeing that Molly's expression was not good, Laila asked worriedly.

Mario was worried that Molly was in a bad mood, so he anxiously persuaded, "Dr. Joye, don't be angry. Those people on the Internet are talking nonsense.

We all believe in you! Really!"

It was easy to start a rumor, but it was hard to refute it.

They all understand this truth.

Besides, they all had gotten along with Molly, so they absolutely believed in her.

No matter how others questioned Joye, they would stand by her side.

Cody also stared at Molly. Seeing that she was not happy, he inexplicably felt that he was also upset.

He couldn't help but reassure her, "Dr. Joye, don't worry. I'll help you investigate the identity of the poster and find him out!"

Seeing that the three were so determined toward her, Molly felt so warm.

But in fact, although she was angry about those comments on the forum, she didn't care too much.

As the saying goes, a clean hand wants no washing.

She didn't care what strangers thought of her, but she still thanked the three for their support.

"Laila, Mario, and Cody, thank you for believing me. Don't worry about me, because I don't take this matter too seriously. The students are still young, so it's reasonable to be easily incited to believe the rumors. All I need is just to find out the truth.

"Don't worry, I'll be fine."

After saying that, Molly packed up the lesson plans on the table and silently turned around to leave

Chapter 957-Laila wanted to catch up with Molly to comfort her, but Mario grabbed her by the corner of her clothes.

"Laila, don't bother Dr. Joye. Just leave her alone! She said she didn't care about this thing, but it won't be comfortable for anyone who encounters it."

'Oh, well, you're probably right...'

Laila had to stop walking and bothering Molly, thinking just to leave her alone.

And Cody stayed where he was, silently watching Molly walk out of the classroom and clenching his fists.

He would definitely find out who posted anonymously to disgrace Molly.

Those who dared to bully his idol Joye must not get away easily.

Molly quickly returned to the office.

She received strange looks from many students along the way.

But she didn't care because she didn't do anything wrong in the first place, so naturally, she had a clear conscience.

Wayne hurried over when Molly had just sat in the office for two minutes.

As soon as he saw Molly, he frowned and asked worriedly, "Dr. May, are you okay?"

"Professor Harrison."

Molly politely got up from her seat, shook her head slightly at Wayne, and said, "I'm fine. Don't worry; this little thing won't affect me." Wayne took a deep breath and nodded, "That's good, that's good! Dr. May, I didn't let you come to school today just because I didn't want your mood to be disturbed. I'm relieved that you don't take it personally.

'However, this thing has caused quite a stir in the school. You'd better not come to school for a couple of days! It won't be too long for you to come again after the school calms it down.'

Wayne was thinking sincerely for Molly's good. After all, he was the one who invited her to the school to teach.

He was also responsible for this kind of thing now!

So he wanted to protect Molly a bit.

Molly didn't care at all and calmly comforted Wayne instead.

'Professor Harrison, in fact, the current problem has nothing to do with whether I come to school or not. If I have done nothing wrong, why should I escape? Don't worry, I will come to school when I should because this is my responsibility as a teacher! As for the thing that happened on the school forum, it will cool off in two days, so don't worry too much about it.' "All right then."

Seeing Molly's sincere and firm attitude, Wayne couldn't say anything more.

He could only support Molly spiritually, "Dr. May, I believe in you. I will ask the administrator to delete the posts on the forum, and clear your name as soon as possible."

"Okay, thank you so much."

Molly nodded her thanks.

Then she packed her stuff and left the school.

She thought this thing would calm down soon.

But unexpectedly, on the second day, the news on the school side became more and more troublesome.

Many students even jointly requested the school to dismiss her professorship!

It was even noisier on the school forum.

'Learn to conduct oneself honorably before studying medicine. Dr. Joye, who is ungrateful and cruel to her adoptive mother, doesn't deserve to be a teacher at all!'

I strongly urge the school to dismiss Dr. May from her position, otherwise, we will collectively strike.”

“Dr. Joye, get out of Xesxia University. We don’t welcome you here as our instructor!”

“It turned out that the famous Joye was so ungrateful behind people’s backs. I was blind back then to be her fan...”

Chapter 958-All kinds of offensive insults flooded the school forum.

It even once made the news in Xesxia.

After some people paid attention to this matter, they immediately criticized Molly on the Internet.

“How dare this Joye say she is a famous doctor? Bah! She can even ignore her adoptive mother, who has raised her for many years. Such a woman doesn’t deserve to be a doctor.”

“Even a dog that has been raised for a long time knows how to protect its master. How can Joye be so cruel to her adoptive mother?”

“Please kick Joye out of the medical profession. Since she is an unethical doctor, what’s the point of her excellent medical skills?”

‘I guess in the future, no more patients will want to be treated by her, right?’

Such voices were getting stronger and stronger on the Internet.

In no time, the hashtag “Joye is Unethical” became a trending topic.

More and more people noticed the news and commented on Molly.

Some media even said that they had gone to the hospital to interview Linda, Molly's adoptive mother.

They also said that Linda had confirmed that Molly was an ungrateful woman.

Linda expressed that she had worked hard to raise Molly for so many years.

However, not only had Linda not been rewarded, but Molly had also put Diana, Linda's biological daughter, in jail.

Molly was ungrateful and even vicious.

Once this news came out, Molly was immediately targeted.

If every abusive word on the Internet could turn into a sharp arrow, her heart would have been riddled with holes.

When Molly woke up in the morning and saw the trending topic, she was a bit confused.

She didn't expect that an anonymous slander post on the school forum would have such a huge butterfly effect.

Countless people found her Twitter account and cursed her in DMs.

Molly opened Twitter. She instantly turned off her cell phone when she saw the abusive messages.

She'd better turn a blind eye to them.

She just couldn't figure out who was behind this.

She didn't seem to have offended anyone, right?

No. Earlier, it was someone deliberately smearing her with rumors online.

This time it was the same thing.

Who was the culprit?

Meanwhile, in the Anderson Corporation.

In the large conference room, Sean was sitting at the head of the table, listening to the executives' views on the new project.

He looked serious and calm, exuding a commanding, cold, inviolable, and powerful aura.

His frosty eyes stared at the staff members without the slightest emotion, making everyone present hold their breath and concentrate on this meeting.

Tony was standing by the door of the conference room, waiting for Sean's order.

At that moment, Tony took out his phone to see how long the meeting had been going on, but unexpectedly, his eyes were drawn to the Twitter newsfeed.

Then he opened Twitter and saw the trending topic.

Tony's eyes suddenly widened. He hurriedly took a few steps to Sean, leaned down, and whispered, "Mr.

Anderson, look at the news. Something has happened to Ms. May."

The pen that Sean was spinning between his fingers suddenly stopped.

The entire conference room fell silent. Even a pin drop could be heard.

Everyone looked at Sean in unison, not daring to make a sound.

Sean took Tony's cell phone. The moment he saw the news, his face darkened

Chapter 959-What had happened? Had Molly offended anyone in Xesxia? How could there be such a piece of big news all of a sudden on the Internet?! 1 Sean was so distracted by Molly's affairs that he was no longer in the mood for a meeting. He turned his wheelchair and hurried back to the office.

The executives in the meeting room were all stunned.

Tony waved his hand hastily and said, "The meeting will be held another day. It's over!"

With that, he quickly caught up with Sean, pushed his wheelchair, and respectfully reported from the side, "Mr. Anderson, the trending topic is new, because there was no such news exposed an hour ago!"

"So what's going on? Have you checked?" Sean sounded as cold as stone.

Tony hurriedly explained, "Not yet, Mr. Anderson. I just saw the news too, but I'm going to get to the bottom of this right away."

After pushing Sean to the office, Tony immediately went down to investigate.

At the same time, at May Mansion, Brycen got up early in the morning and took out his mobile phone to check the news during breakfast. When he saw Molly make it to the trending topic, he was so angry!

"How can they spread rumors? Who is making up things online to smear my sister? If I find out who does it, I'll cut his head off!"

“Well, I don’t know if Molly saw the trending topic on the Internet. If she saw it, she would be very sad.” Sawyer sighed slightly. Thinking that his sister must be in a bad mood, he also became sad.

Dave naturally also learned the online news from his two grandchildren!

He hadn’t read the online comments on his granddaughter. But thinking of what happened to his granddaughter, he felt distressed, anxious, and angry!

“Molly has always worked so hard. Her adoptive mother treated her badly, but now she’s accusing Molly of being ungrateful. It’s ridiculous!”

‘Yeah! Mommy is not what they say she is!’

‘Mommy must be very helpless.’

‘I’m so worried about Mommy...’

The three children became agitated as well.

When they thought of mom being abused by so many people online, they felt extremely sad.

Mom was such a good, outstanding and independent woman!

Moreover, during those years when mom was a doctor, she had made a rule not to treat the rich and saved many patients from poor families.

There was also the research project that mom had been working on now. Once it was successfully developed, it would contribute to the medical industry.

Mom had healed the wounded and saved so many lives!

How could those people on the Internet slander mom after they read just a few pieces of news?

Just thinking about this, the children felt so sad that they were about to cry. They couldn't even eat breakfast.

They climbed down from the chairs, found a phone, and called Molly.

Brycen, Sawyer, and Dave couldn't sit still anymore, and they all came to the three children, intending to say a few words to Molly to comfort her.

Unexpectedly, after the call was answered, Molly's tone was calm as ever, ' Hello, children, why are you calling me so early in the morning?"

"Mommy..." When the three children heard mom's voice, their noses suddenly felt sour and their eyes turned red.

Chapter 960-There were tears in Ben's clear eyes, and he asked softly, "Mommy, are you okay now? We just saw the news on the Internet, and you were wronged."

"Mommy, sorry for not being by your side at this time..." Alex and Claudia's eyes were also red.

They hadn't stayed by mom's side all the time or paid attention to the school forum, so they hadn't even known that someone posted an article to slander mom in time.

If they could detect this article earlier, with Alex's superb hacking skills, they would have found the bad guy who had posted it.

Thinking of this, Alex lowered his head heavily, feeling even sadder.

When Molly saw the three children apologize to her, she suddenly felt a heart-wrenching pain!

She wanted to raise her hands to hug the children to comfort them, but she couldn't touch them.

She couldn't help feeling a bit anxious. She quickly frowned, and comforted them softly, "Children, don't worry. I'm fine!"

"But those people are scolding you..." The eyes of the three children became even redder.

They wanted to hug mom and try to cheer her up. But they couldn't do anything.

They were really sad...

At this moment, Claudia finally couldn't bear it anymore and burst into tears.

"Mommy, I don't want to see you being scolded by people on the Internet. I feel sad. Can I go to see you?" the little girl cried.

Seeing that the girl was about to cry, Brycen felt heartbroken and he quickly persuaded, "Molly, why don't we all go to Xesxia to see you? No matter what happens, we will face it with you!"

"Yeah, Molly, I will always be on your side!" Dave said in a steady voice, and his eyes were filled with love for his granddaughter.

Molly had never expected that her family would be so emotional because she was slandered on the Internet.

This feeling of being cared for and loved was good. She felt very happy, but also very distressed.

The last thing she wanted was to see the three children shed tears. She quickly comforted them in a soft tone, "Alex, Ben, Claudia, you don't have to worry about me. I'm fine. That news on the Internet is just rumors.

Believe me. It will be dealt with soon!”

Then she looked at Brycen and Dave, and persuaded in a gentle voice, ‘ Brycen, Grandpa, just take good care of yourselves at home. Don’t come to see me. I’m fine. Maybe some people don’t like me, so they deliberately discredited me on the public platform. I’m not that vulnerable. You don’t have to worry about it.”

“But...” Brycen couldn’t help but want to say something.

Molly interrupted with a smile, “All right, Brycen, don’t make a fuss. You and Grandpa know me well. So many things happened, but they never knocked me down in the past. So would I be afraid of these rumors? Just put your mind at ease.”

Hearing her words, Brycen and Dave didn’t know what to say.

They did know Molly well! She was kind and gentle yet tough and determined. She was not the kind of person who would be defeated by difficulties easily.
