

Triumph 181

Chapter 181

But what they didn't expect was that Zachary and the others walked straight toward Yulia.

With Skylar around, they did not dare to respond to Yvonne again.

Yulia was depressed to see Zachary and others as she thought they were here to make things difficult for her.

"Mr. Gutierrez, if you are here to taunt me, please go back! I don't deserve to be bullied," Yulia said coldly.

"Yulia, you are incompetent and caused the company to close down, so why should you take it out on Mr. Gutierrez and the others? Not to mention the fact that you are messed up now. Even when Kareem Fashion was in its prime, you were not qualified to shout at them!" Pierce said with confidence.

Yvonne had arranged Pierce to work for Zachary in the future.

Hence, it was natural for him to please his new boss.

However, Zachary was not happy to hear that.

And several other bosses fiercely glared at Pierce.

They were angry that Pierce had made things worse for them.

Didn't he know that Yulia was Skylar's woman?

Skylar just forced Brad to cripple his son's hands this afternoon!

And it seemed that Brad feared Skylar very much.

Even the Moody family had to be humble toward Skylar, not to mention Zachary and the others.

"Stop it!"

Zachary stared at Pierce and said, "Haven't you resigned? You no longer have the rights to speak here. Get the hell out of here! Don't let me see you again!"

"What?"

Pierce was suddenly confused.

Zachary told him to get out?

And he did not want to see him again?

Pierce was helping Zachary!

Zachary not only did not appreciate it but even told Pierce to get out?

Just as Pierce frowned, he suddenly heard a sound.

Zachary kneeled in front of Yulia!

Several other bosses, too, followed suit, kneeling with both knees on the ground, side by side with Zachary.

"Ms. Yulia, we are here to make amends."

"We should not have listened to the slanderous words of others and terminated our cooperation with you. We have realized the mistake."

"We are here to beg you to resume cooperation with us, so be generous and pretend that this incident has never happened!"

"Well..."

Seeing Zachary and the others kneeling in front of Yulia and begging for forgiveness, Pierce widened his eyes.

After all, the companies of Zachary and the others were ranked above Kareem Fashion.

But now, they were kneeling in front of Yulia and begging for mercy.

Pierce could not believe it.

Of course, not only him, but also Yvonne, who was next to him, looked stunned and asked, "Mr. Gutierrez, what are you..."

Zachary did not dare to respond to Yvonne, waiting for Yulia to take a stand.

Whether Yulia could forgive them was a matter of great importance to the survival of their respective families.

"Mr. Gutierrez, what are you doing..."

Yulia was also dumbfounded.

These people aggressively terminated the cooperation, without giving a chance for negotiation.

But now, they kneeled in front of her and begged for her forgiveness.

What had happened?

Chapter 182

Hearing Yulia speak, Zachary hurriedly seized the moment, raised his head and said with a smile, "Ms. Yulia, we have done something wrong and don't deserve your respect. From now on, you should just call me Zack!"

"Uh..."

Seeing Zachary's humble attitude, Yulia was directly speechless.

With Skylar around, Zachary immediately explained to Yulia, "Ms. Yulia, let me explain, so you can understand. The call to you yesterday about terminating the cooperation was really an impulsive act of us after drinking. After we sobered up at night, we realized we had made a huge mistake and were all at home repenting. After a night of deep introspection, we decided that we must come and confess our mistakes to you and ask for your forgiveness. From now on, we want to be businessmen with a spirit of contract."

Hearing his words, everyone present, except Skylar, was stunned.

Zachary was really desperate to give this explanation.

Skylar found it funny.

However, Zachary could not care less and continued to say to Yulia, "Ms. Yulia, in order to show our apology, we have decided to reduce the amount payable on the contract by half..."

Zachary said, while peeking at Skylar.

Skylar, who had felt a little amused, deliberately looked serious.

This subtle change in expression scared Zachary and the others.

"Zachary, e-eighty percent reduction..."

The man behind Zachary warned timidly.

Zachary wiped the cold sweat on his forehead and suddenly shouted, "N-Ninety percent reduction! Ms. Yulia, in the future, our company's cloths will be at a 10% discount, no matter how much you want."

Yulia shook her head. "As you just said. Let's stick to a fifty percent reduction."

"Really?"

Zachary was overjoyed. He didn't expect Yulia to be so generous.

"Yes, but I have a condition attached."

Yulia pondered for a moment and spoke.

Zachary thought to himself. He felt that the additional conditions would certainly always be a better choice than the ninety percent reduction.

So, he immediately patted his chest and promised, "What are the conditions? We will promise you as long as we can do it."

"In recent months, the garment department's production capacity has not been able to keep up with the market demand, and I was thinking..."

Yulia said, pretending to be in a difficult situation.

"Can't keep up with the production capacity? That's fine. A few of us will have a crowdfund and add two more production lines to Kareem Fashion. What do you think?"

Zachary didn't even think about it and blurted it out.

Yulia smiled immediately but still looked reserved and said, "I'm sorry to make you pay for this."

"It won't break the bank. As long as Ms. Yulia can forgive us, two production lines are nothing. We'll all gather our money."

Several others were busy nodding and expressing their sincerity.

It was only when the two sides agreed that Zachary reacted...

Adding two production lines. It cost a lot to build the plant, machinery, and labor.

Kareem Fashion's clothing division had grown to just two lines.

This was equivalent to doubling the production capacity. Then, the raw materials needed were also double.

Chapter 183

A 50% discount on cloth and doubled in volume could make Kareem Fashion's revenue triple at once.

Yulia was really smart!

At this moment, Zachary and the others felt that they had suffered a great loss.

However, under the pressure of Skylar, no one dared to show dissatisfaction.

As for Yvonne and Pierce next to them, they had long been too shocked to speak.

Were these people out of their minds?

50% discount on raw materials was equivalent to not a penny earned. Zachary and the others would have to work for Yulia for nothing.

Even so, they offered to add two production lines for Kareem Fashion.

Zachary and the others only cared about profits usually.

But now, they were willing to work for Yulia for nothing. They even wished Yulia could accept their offer.

But Yvonne did not know that Zachary and others were saving their lives in such a way.

They didn't take Skylar's warning seriously last night.

But today, having seen with their own eyes how ruthless Skylar was to Strickland, how could these guys dare to take Skylar's instructions as a child's play?

They could not afford to bear the consequences.

If they did not suffer a great loss, they would not be able to save their lives.

Seeing that Yulia was finally convinced, Zachary hurriedly took out the contract prepared in advance and then handed it to Yulia.

"Ms. Yulia, take a look, and if there's nothing wrong, we'll sign the contract now!"

Yulia took the contract and found that the additional clauses were all in favor of Kareem Fashion.

"Ms. Yulia, can you sign now?"

Zachary asked cautiously, afraid that Yulia might regret it.

Yulia looked at Zachary with confusion.

But, at the moment, she did not have time to think much before she agreed.

As a businessman, she would grasp all the benefits available.

Seeing that Yulia signed the contract, Zachary and others were finally relieved.

Skylar didn't say anything and seemed pretty happy with their performance.

Zachary and the others wiped the cold sweat on their foreheads.

They finally got through this hardship.

"Ms. Yulia, we'll discuss the details of the contract tomorrow, so I'll leave you today..."

Zachary and the others got up and said goodbye.

They felt pressured by the presence of Skylar.

So they did not want to stay a moment longer.

"Then I'll send you out."

Yulia got up in a hurry and made a gesture of invitation.

"No, no, no!"

Zachary and others were so frightened that they waved their hands. "Ms. Yulia, please stay. We'll go by ourselves!"

The gang sped up as they spoke.

But just then, Skylar, who had been silent, suddenly said, "Stop!"

Zachary and the others were trembling.

Was Skylar still not satisfied?

As they stood there, bewildered, Skylar continued, "The contract can be re-signed, and the concessions are voluntary. But don't forget that it was you who terminated the previous contract, too. Don't you have to pay for the breach of contract?"

Chapter 184

Zachary immediately nodded. "Yes, I forgot the breach of contract! Before I came, I had asked the company's finance department to prepare the money. Just now, I was so focused on signing the contract that I forgot about it. My bad! Sorry, Ms. Yulia, I'll call and have them transfer the money right now!"

"Yes, I have also prepared the money before I came, and I'll call right away too!"

"Ms. Yulia, I'm sorry to have delayed your working hours. I'm willing to double the amount of the breach of contract..."

"Me too!"

One by one, they admitted their mistakes, making it seem as if they really realized they had gone too far.

In fact, they were all glad that Skylar was only asking them for the compensation of breach of contract.

Yulia was a little flattered to see how the gang behaved.

As for Yvonne and Pierce, they were shocked again.

It didn't take long for Kareem Fashion's public account to receive default payments from eight companies.

It added up to tens of millions of dollars.

It was almost as much as the company's total profit for the first half of the year.

Looking at the extra money on the account, Yulia felt as if she was dreaming.

And Zachary and the others, cautiously asked her, "Ms. Yulia, the money has been credited to your company's account. Can we go now, please?"

The men were facing Yulia but couldn't help but glance in Skylar's direction.

Any slightest move of Skylar could scare them.

"S-Sure..."

Yulia always felt that Zachary and the others had been acting strange from the moment they entered the office.

Zachary paused for a moment, and when he saw that Skylar had no intention of stopping him, he hurriedly bowed to Yulia and said goodbye.

"Mr. Gutierrez, I..."

Seeing that Zachary and the others reached the door, Pierce shouted eagerly.

"Buzz off!"

Zachary scolded and quickened his pace.

It had taken Zachary a long time to have Skylar convinced. So he did not want his effort to be in vain.

Pierce froze in place.

He regretted it so much.

He couldn't help but turn his gaze to Yulia.

But before he could say anything, Yulia said in a cold voice, "Pierce, I approve your resignation letter! From now on, Kareem Fashion terminates all employment relations with you! Please leave now!"

Pierce was petrified on the spot.

At the same time.

At Kareem Fashion sales department.

"You all have your resignation letters ready?"

Eloise, a long-haired beauty, asked the others.

"Well, we are just waiting for you!"

"I... I haven't thought about it yet... Are we really going to leave as a group? Ms. Yulia usually treats us well..."

Seeing Eloise hesitated, the others were not happy.

"She just gave each of us a few hundred dollars of base salary increase. You're too easily satisfied, aren't you?"

"People should aim higher. Why can't we leave since we have a better choice? We do nothing wrong!"

"Moreover, I heard that the company is about to go bankrupt, so if you don't seize the opportunity, you'll have to compete with the fresh graduates later!"

"Mr. Pierce has arranged such a good backup plan for us. What else do you have to hesitate?"

Chapter 185

Eloise was somehow moved. "How much can the base salary increase after going to the new company?"

"At least one thousand and double the commission rate!"

"Really?"

Eloise's eyes lit up.

"This is true!"

"You haven't been here long, and you don't know that there's a lot going on here."

"The reason why Kareem Fashion is in trouble is because of the former chairman, Yvonne."

"Yulia took her place and she was angry. So Yvonne used some tactics to force Yulia to give in."

"And Mr. Pierce has worked with Yvonne. If things work out well, we'll be hired back by the company at a higher salary."

"If it doesn't work out, Kareem Fashion will end up in bankruptcy and liquidation. At that time, we can work at Mr. Gutierrez's company with Mr. Pierce, and we can still get a promotion and a raise."

"In short, no matter what the outcome is, we will be able to reap a large number of benefits, so why not?"

The more the others talked, the more excited they became. Eloise no longer hesitated, writing her resignation letter right away and following everyone toward Yulia's office.

"Ms. Yulia, we came to see you..."

A group of people had just entered the office and yet to finish what they were going to say when they were suddenly shocked by the scene in front of them.

The sales director, Pierce, knelt in front of Yulia and begged for mercy. "Ms. Yulia, I won't quit. I won't quit! It's all because of Yvonne. She threatened me. You have treated me with kindness, how could I leave you? I didn't want to, but Yvonne forced me to! Ms. Yulia, please let me stay!"

"Pierce, when did I force you? You are so shameless."

Yvonne scolded angrily.

"W-Why is Mr. Pierce..."

Pierce's men were all dumbfounded.

Wasn't the director here to resign?

How could he beg Yulia on his knees to let him stay?

What was happening?

At this moment, they hesitated to hand in the resignation letters.

They felt extremely awkward.

They were also dumbfounded.

"You are so shameless to claim that you are grateful!"

Yulia sneered.

No matter how excellent Pierce was, Yulia would no longer want him to work for her. After all, he had betrayed her at the critical moment.

"Get out! Don't wait for me to call security!"

Yulia said with an expressionless face.

Then, she cast a glance at the group of people standing at the door and raised her eyebrows. "I know you are also here to resign. I will approve all of them! I wish you all the best in your future."

Pierce's group of men still didn't understand what had happened, but since Yulia had said so, they had to subconsciously hand in their resignation letters and leave.

At this time, Yulia looked at Yvonne next to her and sneered, "Still not leaving? Don't you think you've been humiliated?"

"You..."

Yvonne looked at Yulia in exasperation.

Yvonne could only grit her teeth and leave.

Not long after, Pierce walked out of Kareem Fashion's office building.

He was followed by his men who had handed in their resignation letters.

"Mr. Pierce, why do you look upset?"

"Ms. Yulia was quick to agree to our resignation. Isn't that what you wanted?"

Someone asked in disbelief.

Pierce was furious. "Are you blind? Can't you see that I don't want to leave?"

Chapter 186

"I got screwed by Yvonne! Not only can't she fight Yulia, even Zachary and the others are no match for Yulia!"

Then, he told everything that had just happened in the office.

"Why did Zachary and the others change their minds all of a sudden? They are suddenly terrified by Yulia."

At the end, Pierce asked suspiciously.

But instead of an answer from the crowd, a storm of fists awaited him.

The crowd was beating him hard.

"Why are you hitting me?"

Pierce held his head and shouted.

"You have made us lose our job!"

Inside the office.

Yulia asked Skylar, "What's wrong with Zachary and the others? Did you do something to them?"

Skylar laughed. "Didn't they just give you a detailed explanation?"

"Do you think I would believe that they would suddenly realize their mistakes?"

Yulia rolled her eyes at Skylar.

"Perhaps they found out that my wife is beautiful and kind-hearted, so they are too embarrassed to make trouble..."

Skylar teased Yulia deliberately.

"Skylar, you're getting better at teasing me!"

Yulia pretended to be annoyed.

Skylar touched his nose and laughed without saying anything.

Yulia snorted, "So, it's not you! It's a pity... I would have been quite moved and wanted to thank that person personally. It's just a pity that that person did good deeds without leaving his name. Since that's the case, I can't do anything about it."

Yulia sighed with some regret.

"A personal thank you? How do you want to thank him?"

Skylar caught the key point instantly.

Yulia said smilingly, "Give him a kiss!"

Skylar immediately confessed everything he had warned Zachary and the others about last night.

However, he did not say everything that happened in Babylon.

After all, it involved Cloudtopia's first-class family, the Moody family.

Yulia would be inevitably worried when she found out.

After saying that, Skylar moved closer to Yulia, waiting for that rewarding kiss.

"You... You close your eyes..."

Yulia said with a flushed face.

Skylar did as he was told.

A few seconds passed.

He felt a fragrant breeze come over him, followed by a gentle peck on his left cheek.

"It's over?"

Skylar opened his eyes and asked somehow covetously.

"What else do you want?"

Yulia asked poutingly in return.

Skylar touched the place where he was kissed and said glumly, "Shouldn't you kiss me on the lips?"

"There's no way I will take the initiative to kiss you on the lips!"

Yulia grunted and without waiting for Skylar's reaction, she carried Lola and walked outside.

Skylar paused in place for three seconds before he suddenly came up with an idea. "Honey, what you're saying is... I should be the one to initiate such a kiss, right?"

"Lola is hungry. Hurry up and go home!"

Yulia turned around and snapped, dismissing what he had just said.

Skylar caught up with Yulia while thinking of the way to take the initiative to kiss Yulia next time.

What also surprised him was that after meeting him, Yulia smiled more frequently.

She would even tease him now.

Yulia had become more cheerful.

Chapter 187

When they got home, it was still Skylar who cooked, and Yulia brought Lola to give him a hand.

The whole night was uneventful and cozy.

Skylar could not help but indulge in this unusual feeling of happiness.

At the same time.

Inside a private lounge of a restaurant in Cloudtopia.

Yvonne put down the cutlery in her hands and glanced at the man across the table.

The man was none other than Harry.

"Honey, didn't you say that you've taken care of everything? How come Zachary and the others suddenly changed their minds the critical moment? They even kneeled and begged Yulia for mercy!"

The more Yvonne talked about it, the hatred she had. She wished she could tear Yulia into pieces.

Today, she deliberately went to see Yulia being humiliated. But things did not turn out as she expected.

It was simply a disgrace.

Harry saw that his girlfriend was aggrieved. So he hurriedly sat beside her with a smile on his face.

He put his arm around Yvonne's waist and said kindly, "Calm down. Girls get old fast when they are angry. They are not worthy of our time."

"So, what should we do?"

Yvonne pouted.

"I'm calling Zachary right now to make him give us an explanation."

With that, Harry took out his cell phone and dialed Zachary's number.

After the call was answered, Harry said directly, "Zachary, what's going on with you guys?"

Didn't we previously agree to terminate the cooperation with Kareem Fashion? But then, not only did you beg Yulia for mercy, but you also offered to build a new production line for her. You must give me a reasonable explanation immediately!"

"Explanation? I almost got killed by you two. It's good that I didn't settle the score with you, and you still want me to explain to you? Buzz off! "

Zachary on the other end of the line scolded and then hung up the phone without waiting for Harry's response.

Harry's face darkened.

How dare Zachary disrespect Harry?

Furious, he immediately dialed Zachary's number again.

However, Zachary had blocked his number.

Harry suppressed the anger in his heart and started calling several other people.

However, he was treated the same way.

He was blocked after being scolded.

Some, not even bothering to scold him as they directly blocked him.

Now, the anger in Harry's heart could no longer be suppressed.

"Yulia! I've never suffered so much aggrievance in my life! "

Harry growled with a livid look on his face.

Before this, he only intervened in the matter to make Yvonne happy.

But now, Yulia had completely pissed him off.

He would definitely not let things slide.

"Harry, could it be that Zachary and the others had been threatened?"

Yvonne suddenly asked.

"Threatened? Besides me, Yulia doesn't seem to know any powerful man," Harry said smugly.

"Is it possible that it was her useless boyfriend, Skylar?"

Yvonne asked tentatively.

Besides Skylar, Yvonne could not really think of anyone else.

"Skylar?"

Chapter 188

Harry froze for a moment and then remembered what had happened on Yvonne's birthday.

At that time, he picked up Yvonne with a carload of roses in his sports car, which gave Yvonne the greatest satisfaction.

But before he could get carried away, Skylar suddenly appeared with sixteen planes and a spectacular shower of roses.

Then, the venue was lit up with lights and big screens all over the city to celebrate Yulia's birthday.

Harry was originally sought after by the crowd, but he actually looked particularly shabby that day.

Not only that, but Skylar had also even chartered Sunset Harbor, humiliating Harry.

Thinking about it, Harry was even more furious.

"Yvonne, if Zachary and the others don't give you an explanation, I'll give you an explanation! I have ways to force Yulia to give way," Harry said with a grimace on his face.

Skylar and Yulia, you made me do it!

The next morning.

After dropping off Yulia and Lola, Skylar got into the jeep.

Dianne immediately reported, "Boss, Philbert called and said he wanted to see you."

Skylar sneered, "He finally lost his patience."

"Do you want to see him?"

Dianne asked as she started the car.

"No."

Skylar looked out the window.

Although he now only wanted to enjoy life with Yulia and Lola, but it was serious in the North. Any wrong decision might impact the country's foundation.

Philbert only wanted to get the military power in Skylar's hands.

It was not that Skylar had the strong desire to hold the power. It was just that he felt that Philbert did not have the ability to take over his position.

Skylar was the God of War of the Nine Continents, the King of the North, and the one that countless soldiers looked up to.

Although Philbert was given a plaque by the Deputy General himself, the main reason he was awarded was due to his ancestors, the Santiago Banner.

In terms of ability, Philbert was not qualified to be a great general.

How could Skylar put the lives of his soldiers into the hands of an incompetent man so easily?

As Skylar was thinking, the phone rang in his hand.

It was Naomi calling.

"Naomi, what's up?"

It was early in the morning. Naomi should not have called him if it was not an emergency.

But before Naomi could answer, Skylar heard a suppressed sob.

"Naomi, what's wrong?"

Skylar immediately asked nervously.

"Is there someone who has aggravated you? I will help you teach him a lesson!"

Skylar grew up with Naomi and could be said to know her better than his adoptive parents.

Even Skylar had led his family to a better life now, Naomi would never bully others.

On the contrary, others, out of jealousy, would act rudely toward her.

After Skylar's questioning, Naomi stopped sobbing, took a deep breath, and said guiltily, "Sky, I lost the Red Dust you gave me."

Skylar was relieved.

It turned out that Naomi had just lost a necklace.

At that moment, he couldn't help but chuckle. "Silly girl, it's just a necklace. If you like it, I will send you a new one right away. I guarantee it will be more beautiful and more prestigious than Red Dust!"

"No, I don't want a new one!"

Chapter 189

Naomi on the other end of the line sounded resolute, "It's not an ordinary necklace because it costs 40 million dollars! Besides, it was the first gift you gave me when you came back from the military, and it means a lot to me in a way that no other necklace can replace it."

Skylar did not quite understand Naomi's theory, but out of love for his sister, he said, "Then I'll find a way to get it back for you."

"Okay..."

Naomi responded gently.

"First, you tell me how and where the necklace was lost," Skylar said.

Naomi pondered for a moment and said, "Sky, do you remember Angelica?"

"Our former neighbor, Clarissa's daughter?"

Skylar remembered.

Clarissa used to live across the street from their house in average condition, but then Angelica married a rich kid and took Clarissa away too.

Last time, he took his adoptive parents and Naomi to dinner at Chef One. He happened to meet Clarissa with her daughter, Angelica and son-in-law, Harlan.

At that time, Clarissa was overbearing and tried to overpower Nathaniel but was eventually slapped in the face by reality.

The two families were not in good terms.

Skylar was always disgusted by arrogant people.

Now that Naomi suddenly mentioned Angelica, he could not help but be alerted.

"Yes, that's her. Ever since we last met, she's been pestering me to see Red Dust, and yesterday I just couldn't not stand her, so I agreed. After work, I wore the necklace to meet her. She invited me to dinner, and later we hung out. I didn't pay attention at the time. When I got home and took a shower, I realized that Red Dust was gone! I was so anxious that I immediately ran out to look for it, but I searched all the routes I have passed by and couldn't find it."

Naomi recalled carefully.

"So you mean the necklace was lost after Angelica asked you to meet her?"

Skylar frowned and asked.

"Yes, during dinner, I even took it off and gave her have a good look!"

Naomi spoke with great certainty.

"Okay, I will immediately arrange someone to investigate her. You must not have slept well last night. Do not go anywhere this time. Rest well at home. Once there is news, I will call you first," Skylar said.

Naomi nodded and hung up.

Without Skylar repeating himself, Dianne in the driver's seat immediately called and arranged for someone to investigate the matter.

In less than twenty minutes, the matter was investigated...

After hearing the investigator's report, Dianne said to Skylar, "Boss, it was Angelica who did this. Before she asked your sister out, she contacted a skilled thief and stole Red Dust when your sister wasn't paying attention before they parted their ways."

Skylar shook his head and sighed in his heart. In this world, how come there are always people who think that everyone else is stupid and they are the smartest?

Seeing Skylar didn't say anything, Dianne added, "Boss, the necklace is with Angelica right now, should we go find her?"

"Where is she?" Skylar asked.

Dianne took out her phone and said, "She's on the eleventh floor of Light Building belonged to Masonry Realty, owned by her husband, Harlan."

Skylar thought for a moment and ordered, "You go catch the thief. I'll go home and fetch Naomi. I'll meet you at Masonry Realty."

"Yes!"

Dianne left the car with Skylar whereas she took a taxi to where the thief was.

Chapter 190

At the same time, at Masonry Realty.

Angelica was making a leisurely tour of the office area.

"Hello, Mrs. Garraway!"

When the company employees saw her, they greeted her politely.

Although Angelica was not capable, she enjoyed being respected by these employees.

In fact, these employees treated her respectfully on the surface, but they actually despised her.

An incapable person would always like to do something out of place to label herself if she were to hold a high position.

"Well, hello there."

Angelica lifted her chin and gave a smile that she thought was elegant.

But after greeting everyone, surprisingly, no one found her special today.

This irritated her.

But she had no reason to get mad.

When she was extremely depressed, one of the female employees suddenly covered her mouth and exclaimed, "Oh my! Mrs. Garraway, is that Red Dust you're wearing around your neck?"

Hearing the words "Red Dust", everyone turned to look at Angelica's neck.

A dazzling rare red gemstone could be seen.

"Wow! What a beautiful necklace! It looks expensive at first glance!"

"Of course, it's expensive, it's Red Dust that costs over 40 million dollars!"

"What? Over 40 million dollars? Oh my! I'm going to pass out!"

"Mrs. Garraway, I guess it must be a gift from Mr. Garraway! He's really generous to you!"

The female employees were expressing their envy.

The male employees, on the other hand, couldn't help but start to fantasize how easy would it be for them to pursue women if they could also afford a 40-million-dollar necklace.

Enjoying the envious stares around her, Angelica glanced with satisfaction at the female employees who were the first to recognize Red Dust.

She went through a lot of trouble to get this coveted necklace in order to show it off in front of people.

Today, she deliberately put on delicate makeup and came to the company early in the morning, which would be a waste of time if no one noticed the necklace.

Fortunately, the female employee noticed it.

Angelica felt delighted, but on the surface, she pretended to feel bad and said, "Actually, I like Star of Cullinan more, but unfortunately, when my husband went there, Star of Cullinan had already been bought."

Hearing her words, some people who didn't know the truth, once again gasped.

There were also people who had been to the jewelry show, and their expressions became somehow odd.

A female employee whispered, "I heard my friend say that the person bought Star of Cullinan has also bought Red Dust."

When this statement was made, the scene became a little awkward.

Adults did not always tell the truth even if they knew it.

Because once you exposed someone, you would end up terribly.

Of course, it was not that they suspected that Red Dust around Angelica's neck was a fake.

After all, Harlan was rich and could afford those necklaces.

However, if Angelica only knew Red Dust, they suspected that Harlan had an affair with other women.

The more expensive Star of Cullinan had been given to another woman by Harlan.

So if it wasn't Angelica who was lying, Harlan must have cheated on her.

Thinking of this, the crowd looked at Angelica with sympathy.

They felt like she was about to be abandoned.

Hearing the female employee's query, Angelica frowned.
