

Triumph 261

Chapter 261

Harper had not only slapped Lola indiscriminately but had also hired Lev. Harper planned to use Lev to kill him, and run him over with a vehicle to kill him and Lola.

How could Skylar easily let such a vicious person go?

Malcolm, on the other hand, was full of benevolence, righteousness, and morality, but his heart was clouded.

An insincere apology, a paltry sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and we're supposed to consider it even?

They must be delusional!

Harper would do even worse things in the future if he tolerated this.

He came with the intent to kill since he had brought Dianne right to their doorstep.

There was a saying that if you only cut the weed at the leaves instead of the roots, it would continue to grow when spring arrived.

Even if the Fox family were to disappear entirely, it would not affect anything.

"I'll give you another ten seconds to respond, or the entire Fox family will perish along with you two!" Skylar said to Ava coldly.

Ava couldn't help but shiver as she felt the desire to kill growing in him.

However, Ava, who was typically haughty and overbearing, suddenly erupted into a rage after becoming extremely shaken. "I'm going to die within the next ten seconds? Consider yourself Hades, do you? That I would die because you said so?"

"Tell you what, this is the Fox family's domain. If you dare to touch me, I will ensure that your entire family..."

However, a dark shadow flashed past her before she could finish shouting.

Dianne appeared in front of her the next moment. Her throat was being grabbed by one of her hands that was extended like a claw.

"Cough! Cough! Cough!"

As Dianne lifted her, Ava coughed violently.

However, that was not enough.

Dianne held her by the neck as she took three steps forward and pressed her firmly against the wall behind her.

"I'm sometimes more punctual than Hades," Skylar said as he looked at her coldly.

Dianne began exerting force with her right hand before she could react as if she had been ordered to.

Crack!

There was a crisp sound.

It was the sound of blood and flesh being ripped apart by shattering neck bones.

Ava had intended to pry Dianne's fingers apart, but her hands quickly fell to the sides.

Her head drooped the moment Dianne let go of her hand.

A pair of terrified eyes gradually lost their luster.

"She's d-dead?"

Everyone's expressions changed dramatically.

They were all stunned, whether it was Malcolm, the butler, or the housekeeper.

Harper, who was holding the boning knife, trembled even more at this point.

Skylar dared to murder people right in front of them in the Fox family's villa!

After Ava, would it be his turn next, as Skylar had earlier stated?

Harper was terrified as he considered how Dianne had killed Ava.

Skylar's gaze was fixed on him at this point.

"Harper, it's your turn!" echoed that voice that seemed to be coming from hell.

"Y-you don't mess around. My knife has no eyes!"

Even though Harper constantly committed all sorts of crimes, in reality, he was completely incapable, and when he ran into problems, all he knew how to do was spend money on getting help.

Dianne's terrifying skill was now so apparent to him that he was unable to even hold a knife steady, much less defend himself.

"Dianne, I want to hear his voice of genuine repentance before he dies," Skylar said.

Chapter 262

"Yes, Boss!" Dianne replied, then drew the dragon dagger from her waist and strode toward Harper.

"You... You don't come here..." Harper kept retreating.

Malcolm's veins bulged as he shouted at Skylar angrily, "Boy, he is the heir of the Fox family!"

"You'll be making yourself the enemy of the entire Fox family if you dare to touch him!"

"If you stop now, I'll wipe the slate clean and bury the hatchet. You won't be able to bear the consequences otherwise!"

Malcolm heard a shrill cry as soon as he finished speaking.

"Ahhh!"

He abruptly turned his head and saw Harper's right arm was a bloodied, mangled mess.

Dianne's dagger went through the arm as smoothly as if it were a cake.

Harper's bone could be seen in the cut, which resembled a deep, bloody ditch.

Blood gushed out like a river that had burst its banks.

The bloodiness of the scene was more terrifying than Harper's arm being severed entirely.

Harper was a coward, to begin with. How was he able to withstand such excruciating torture?

He wailed and knelt on the ground, begging Skylar for mercy as tears streamed down his face. "I was wrong. I realize my mistake!"

He weiled and knelt on the ground, begging Skylar for mercy as tears streamed down his face. "I was wrong. I realize my mistake!"

"I was the one who had wronged your daughter. I was the one who wanted to run you over with a car. I'm a monster! I would never do such a thing again. Please let me go. Please have mercy on me..."

Dianne, however, kicked him to the ground before he could finish speaking.

She didn't think someone like this deserved to beg Skylar for mercy.

She would have crushed Harper's throat long ago if it hadn't been for Skylar's special instructions, rendering him unable to utter a sound or speak in the netherworld.

"Ahh! The pain is killing me. Dad, save me! Save me! I'm dying!"

Harper wailed as he pressed his left hand tightly against the base of his right arm.

He could feel the energy in his body dwindling as he lost more blood.

He would die if this continued.

Malcolm, who was watching from the side, was also terrified.

He had no idea Skylar and Dianne would be so unrelenting. They had eliminated any room for compromise.

Harper's status as the Fox family heir was not taken into account.

As he was desperately trying to come up with a plan to stop Skylar and Dianne, the butler, who was standing at the door, shouted, "Mr. Fox, someone from the Currey family is here!"

Hearing this, Malcolm's eyes brightened, and he hurriedly said, "Quick, open the door quickly and let the Currey family in!"

Then, he stared at Skylar with resentment in his eyes again, saying, "I'll put up with you being arrogant and not taking the Fox family seriously."

"Someone from the Currey family has arrived. Your death anniversary will be on this day next year!"

The Currey family was the second most powerful family in Cloudtopia, with clout in both the government and the underworld.

What did it matter if this Stone guy had a subordinate who was skilled in martial arts? Could he still triumph over the powerful Currey family?

The butler hurried to the door to welcome the Currey family after hearing Malcolm's remarks.

Immediately after, a group of people entered the room quickly.

The leader was a young man with a strikingly attractive face and a noteworthy demeanor.

It was Adam Currey, the Currey family's son, whom Skylar had met at the Atlas Hotel!

Chapter 263

Malcolm rushed forward when he saw Adam and shouted, "This man and woman barged into my home, Mr. Adam. They killed my daughter-in-law and now want to kill my son."

"I implore you to do justice for the Fox family!"

Adam scowled as he noticed Harper with an ashen face lying in a pool of blood.

He was about to respond when he realized that the man Malcolm was referring to was Skylar, and he instantly became terrified.

He quickly regained his composure. He ignored Malcolm, took a quick step forward, bowed to Skylar, and exclaimed, "Mr. Stone!"

Buzz!

Malcolm's mind was racing.

Mr. Stone?

Adam, the Currey family's son, actually addressed this fellow as Mr. Stone?

Additionally, he couldn't have honored him more respectfully than that!

That can only mean Skylar's status is far superior to Adam's.

God! Who had Harper and Ava riled up? What kind of wrath had they inflicted on the Fox family?!

Malcolm felt a chill all over his body, including his heart.

"Hmm."

Skylar glanced at Adam and nodded.

Only then did Adam straighten up and ask, somewhat cautiously, "Mr. Stone, Malcolm is a friend of my father's. I'm wondering if you could spare his son's life for my family's sake?"

Melcolm rushed forward when he saw Adam and shouted, "This man and woman barged into my home, Mr. Adam. They killed my daughter-in-law and now want to kill my son."

"I implore you to do justice for the Fox family!"

Adam scowled as he noticed Harper with an ashen face lying in a pool of blood.

He was about to respond when he realized that the man Melcolm was referring to was Skylar, and he instantly became terrified.

He quickly regained his composure. He ignored Melcolm, took a quick step forward, bowed to Skylar, and exclaimed, "Mr. Stone!"

Buzz!

Melcolm's mind was racing.

Mr. Stone?

Adam, the Currey family's son, actually addressed this fellow as Mr. Stone?

Additionally, he couldn't have honored him more respectfully than that!

That can only mean Skyler's status is far superior to Adam's.

God! Who had Harper and Eve riled up? What kind of wrath had they inflicted on the Fox family?!

Malcolm felt a chill all over his body, including his heart.

"Hmm."

Skyler glanced at Adam and nodded.

Only then did Adam straighten up and ask, somewhat cautiously, "Mr. Stone, Malcolm is a friend of my father's. I'm wondering if you could spare his son's life for my family's sake?"

Adam had rushed here after receiving a call from Homer.

He had intended to take Malcolm and Harper to Skylar to confess their sins and seek mercy in person.

He never imagined that even after rushing over, he would still be a step too late.

Of course, he never anticipated that Skylar would visit the Fox family's home to deal with Harper in person.

He was now relying on the namesake of the Currey family to save Harper's life.

Skyler sneered when he heard his words. "You want me to spare Harper?" he asked, raising his eyebrows.

"He arranged for a large truck to cause an accident that would kill my daughter and me."

"Will the Currey family come to bear this debt for him?"

Skyler and the Currey family were not friends.

He only ever had a meal with Adam in his hometown at Atlas County the last time, and it was also because Naomi was there.

Skyler decided not to be courteous to Adam after witnessing him speaking to him without regard.

Adam's expression changed noticeably in response to Skylar's words, and he quickly lowered his head and uttered, "Mr. Stone, I apologize. I was the one who spoke out of turn."

However, an elderly man in a suit standing behind Adam snorted coldly and said, "All is well that ends well. Don't go too far with this!"

"Mr. Adam addressed you respectfully as Mr. Stone because he is humble. Do you truly believe you are above all?"

"Stuart! Don't be disrespectful to Mr. Stone!"

Adam quickly intervened to stop him.

However, the old man in the suit proudly waved his hand and said, "Don't be concerned, Mr. Adam. I can easily deal with an immature boy!"

"Whatever the problem is, I'll handle it myself!"

Before Adam could react, he yelled coldly at Skylar, "Boy, I'll give you two minutes to get you and your people out of the Fox family's home."

"Otherwise, when I act, you'll suffer terrible repercussions, I assure you!"

"Oh?"

"It's so pathetic that you still don't know your place at your age," Skylar sneered.

"What did you say?"

The old man in the suit was enraged. Just as he was about to assume a fighting stance, Skylar spat, "Kneel!"

Chapter 264

To other people, that word sounded like banal everyday speech.

However, when the old man in the suit heard it, it shook him to his core.

Bright red blood immediately oozed from his mouth and nose after an invisible wave of energy struck his eardrums.

Before he recovered from his shock, another wave of energy hit him on the shoulder as if a mountain was pressing down on him.

Despite his best efforts, he was unable to hold out for even a split second.

Bang!

A loud bang rang out.

The elderly man in the suit slumped forward and knelt before Skylar.

The old man had responded to Skylar's command to kneel.

Buzz!

Everyone's minds were racing.

This elderly man appeared to have spent his entire life practicing martial arts. How could he have been so vulnerable in front of Skylar, unable to withstand even a single attack?

He had wanted him to kneel, and he had made him kneel!

Adam was extremely terrified, as were the men he had brought with him. They were both physically and mentally shaken.

Others might not understand Stuart's strength, but they were aware of it.

Stuart's family was said to have studied martial arts painstakingly for three generations, and the techniques passed down to him have reached their pinnacle.

Beng!

A loud bang rang out.

The elderly man in the suit slumped forward and knelt before Skylar.

The old man had responded to Skylar's command to kneel.

Others might not understand Stuart's strength, but they were aware of it.

Stuart's family was said to have studied martial arts painstakingly for three generations, and the techniques passed down to him have reached their pinnacle.

Regardless of his age, he took down dozens of brave and skilled mercenaries with his bare hands not long ago.

Stuart was held in high regard, even by the wise patriarch of the Currey family.

He was able to be with Adam at the Fox family's house this time because he had been a guest at the Currey's house and wished to repay the favor.

A remarkable person of his stature, however, had been forced to kneel because Skylar demanded it. He had been beaten so severely that he was bleeding from the mouth and nose.

Everyone was staring at Skylar at this point in horror.

Dianne's ruthless skill had previously terrified them.

Unexpectedly, Skylar turned out to be even scarier.

As for the old man in the suit, his face was pale.

He was a fighter by nature, and he had fought countless people throughout his life, but he had never met someone like Skylar before.

He appeared to be a young man of no more than twenty-five years old, yet he possessed such terrifying energy!

No, it wasn't because I'd never seen such power before; it was because I'd never heard of it!

"In consideration of your old age, I will give you ten seconds to get out of my sight," Skylar said coldly to the old man in the suit who was on the ground.

"Okay!"

How could the old man in the suit say no? He stood up right away, without even wiping the blood from his face, and bowed before leaving the villa.

As Adam and his martial arts expert were defeated by Skylar, Malcolm and Harper realized what was at stake.

Thud!

Malcolm took the initiative to kneel in front of Skylar.

"Mr. Stone, the Fox family has wronged you. I beg you to be merciful. Please forgive me this time!"

"As long as you let him go, the Fox family will follow your lead from now on. We will do as you bid."

Malcolm believed that most people would be afraid to harm the Fox family because of his friendship with the Currey family patriarch.

That was also why he had been spoiling Harper, allowing him to do evil outside.

However, he never imagined that a boy who had appeared out of nowhere would be possessed by the power to level heaven and earth, overwhelming him and Adam to the point where they felt suffocated.

Harper, out of survival instinct, knelt beside Malcolm and begged Skylar for mercy as he endured the severe pain in his arm. "Mr. Stone, I was wrong. I really know I was wrong!"

"Please forgive me this time. Please forgive me this time..."

"From now on, I will be your lapdog. I will do anything you ask of me!"

Chapter 265

Skylar sneered and walked straight to the door.

There were far too many people who wanted to be his lapdog.

Just who was Harper?

He came to a halt as he approached the door. Then, he heard a shrill scream from behind him.

He didn't have to look to know Dianne had killed Harper.

He took a few more steps when all of a sudden, from inside the villa, Adam ran after him.

"Mr. Stone!"

"I didn't understand the situation at the time and spoke inappropriately. I sincerely apologize."

"The Currey family has no intention of working with the Fox family."

"The Fox family had offended you. The Currey family will cease all interactions with Malcolm from now on."

Adam's eyes were filled with horror as he spoke.

He feared the Currey family would be caught in the crossfire.

Furthermore, he had wanted to wade through the murky waters before he even knew who he was up against.

How foolish of him.

Skylar looked at him and stated flatly, "I made a deal with the Fox family. It is none of my business whether or not your family will maintain a relationship with Malcolm."

Before Adam could respond, he led Dianne into the car and drove away.

For a while, Adam didn't dare to move as he stood there in terror, watching the jeep drive away. Skylar sneered and walked straight to the door.

There were far too many people who wanted to be his lapdog.

Just who was Herper?

He came to a halt as he approached the door. Then, he heard a shrill scream from behind him.

He didn't have to look to know Dianne had killed Herper.

He took a few more steps when all of a sudden, from inside the villa, Adam ran after him.

Before Adam could respond, he led Dienne into the car and drove away.

For a while, Adam didn't dare to move as he stood there in terror, watching the jeep drive away.

He could only hope that the Currey family would not be in Skylar's bad books because of what had happened today.

He had gotten close to him the last time he was in Atlas County, but it was all for naught now.

It appeared he would have to wait to try and make up for it with later opportunities.

Skylar, understandably, was unaware of Adam's inner turmoil.

Even if he did know, he wouldn't care.

Back at home, a little munchkin threw herself into his arms as soon as he walked through the door.

"Daddy, you've returned! Mommy has been waiting by the window for you for a long time!" Lola spoke in a childish tone.

Yulia quickly denied it, saying, "I... I didn't!"

Skylar embraced Lola in his arms, smiled at Yulia, and said, "Dear, has anyone told you that you will blush each time you tell a lie?"

When Yulia heard this, her already hot cheeks took on the appearance of an incredibly ripe, mouthwatering peach.

"I was simply admiring the view outside the window. Is that not possible?"

Yulia continued to deny it.

"Sweetheart, which window was Mommy standing at just now?" Skylar asked Lola, suppressing a smile.

"The one by the sink," the little girl said, pointing in the direction of the kitchen.

"Oh?"

Skylar cast a deliberate glance at Yulia and said, "It appears that the only view there is of the one path that I can take to return home."

"Yes! That's correct. You're a genius, Daddy. Mommy is just too worried about you, and wants to be the first one to see you home." Lola immediately clapped her hands as she exclaimed happily.

Yulia blushed, and the corners of her mouth twitched.

Damn it! She couldn't deny it now.

Skylar was in complete bliss as he gazed at Yulia, who was both shy and slightly irritated.

He was about to say something nice when he remembered Lola's wish, so he softly said into Yulia's ear, "Dear, Lola told me today that she wants a younger sister to play with her."

"Do you think her wish will come true?"

Lola leaped into Skylar's arms as soon as she heard it.

"Mommy! Mommy! I really want a younger sister who I can go to school with, take baths with, and sleep with."

"Daddy said that he cannot agree to this on his own. He said you had to agree as well."

"Can you and Daddy then give me a little sister?"

Chapter 266

Seeing them both echoing each other annoyed Yulia. Her face was flushing from embarrassment.

"Did both of you plan this?"

Lola wants a sister? Skylar must be the one who taught her to say that. Couldn't Skylar say it himself that he wanted another child? Asking Lola to say it was so sleazy of him.

Although Yulia felt embarrassed and annoyed, she could still understand Skylar. Lola wasn't Skylar's own flesh and blood after all. It was reasonable for Skylar to want a child of his own if he was going to be with Yulia.

Yulia patted the back of her head for having that thought. She was surprised that she was already thinking about giving birth to Skylar's child. She was angry at how sleazy Skylar was and how useless she was. The flush on her face just wouldn't go away.

Skylar didn't know what was going on in her mind. He was totally attracted to Yulia's embarrassed look.

"Skylar, you're so annoying!"

Yulia stared at Skylar angrily. However, her coquettish voice charmed him.

Yulia stomped her foot out of embarrassment. She pretended to be angry and said to Skylar, "Don't laugh!"

Skylar laughed even louder when he saw what she did.

"Skylar, how dare you!"

Yulia was speechless. She was acting like a little girl instead of the commanding CEO she was.

"Fine. I'll stop laughing."

Skylar dared not push his luck. If he annoyed Yulia too much, she might not allow him to sleep on the bed tonight.

Seeing Skylar admit defeat, Yulia snorted and said, "Go and take a break. I'll heat up the dishes."

After saying that, Yulia walked into the kitchen.

"Have you two not eaten yet as well?"

"Huh? This isn't the food I ordered." Skylar was confused when he saw the food in Yulia's hands.

"Lola wanted home cooked food, so I canceled the order at Luna Restaurant," Yulia explained while looking uneasy.

Lola shook her head on the sofa and shouted, "Daddy, Mommy wanted to cook and wait for you to have dinner together."

"Not at all. Don't listen to Lola's nonsense."

Yulia was blushing again. She kept hinting at Lola to stop talking.

"Oh? A meal my wife cooked for me? I must try it then."

Skylar tried to grab a piece before he finished speaking. Before he could grab it, Yulia stopped him, "Don't eat it first. I'll add some seasoning in the kitchen."

"Huh?" Skylar wasn't sure how to react to that.

"Daddy. Mommy is still bad at cooking!" Lola couldn't help but shout.

Yulia glared at her angrily, "Lola! Didn't I tell you to stop talking?"

"Oh, right. I didn't say anything!" Lola covered her mouth immediately.

Yulia wasn't sure how to feel right now. She was supposed to be the one who was embarrassed, but both Skylar and Lola looked so innocent. It seemed like Yulia was the one who bullied them.

Looking at Yulia's troubled face, Skylar gave her a hug immediately and said, "Dear, go and watch a cartoon with Lola. I'll go and cook another two dishes."

"Okay."

Yulia replied softly and left quickly.

Half an hour later, Skylar cooked up a feast.

He cooked two new dishes and improved the dishes Yulia cooked. All of them were very appetizing.

Both Lola and Yulia praised Skylar's cooking. Yulia even got a few cooking tips from Skylar.

Before they finished eating, Skylar suddenly said to Yulia, "I'm taking you and Lola back home tomorrow to meet my parents."

Chapter 267

It had been some time since the topic of meeting Skylar's parents came up. He figured Yulia had probably prepared herself mentally for it.

However, Yulia still said nervously after hearing Skylar's suggestion, "So... So soon?"

Skylar held her hand and said gently, "Don't worry. My parents are very easy going. They asked me a few times. It's not right to keep refusing. Besides, the earlier we meet them, the earlier I can arrange my next move."

"Next move? What's that?" Yulia asked subconsciously.

Skylar smiled and said, "Marry you, of course!"

Yulia's heart melted, but she still said arrogantly, "Hmph, are you so sure that I'll agree to marry you?"

Skylar smirked and said, "If you're not going to agree, I'll have to accept my parents' arrangement. My father is looking forward to me marrying the daughter of Rufus Gutierrez. He wants me to get married this year and have a child next year. Also..."

Before he could finish, Skylar felt pain in his waist because Yulia pinched him.

"Go and become Rufus' son-in-law then! Why are you still here?" Yulia said angrily.

Before he could finish, Skyler felt pain in his wrist because Yulie pinched him.

"Go and become Rufus' son-in-law then! Why are you still here?" Yulie said angrily.

Skyler grabbed Yulia into his arms and said, "I don't want to be with anyone else but you. So, you have no choice but to agree!" Then, he kissed Yulia on her lips.

Yulia was shocked and pushed him away, "Lola is still watching!"

Lola, who was beside them, quickly covered her eyes and said loudly, "Mommy, I saw nothing! I'm eating watermelon!" She turned around after saying that.

Lola's actions made Skylar laugh out loud.

"Yulia, it's decided then. We will bring Lola and have dinner with my parents tomorrow night."

Yulia was still in a dilemma about it, but she didn't want to decline any further. After cleaning up the dishes, she returned to her room to think of the dress she was going to wear tomorrow.

Meanwhile, Skylar took Lola to build a house for the golden retriever and feed it. Lola also gave it a cute name. She called it Beans.

The next day, Skylar went to Kareem Fashion with Yulia after dropping Lola at the kindergarten.

The company is focusing on mass producing the anti-blemish cream. Skylar changed the formula so there were many things that the company's staff needed to ask him, and he was glad to help them out.

On the other hand, Yulia focused her efforts on the product's distribution and marketing plans.

Time passed quickly when they were busy working. After Skylar finished his work, he picked up Lola and Yulia. Then, he drove to Garden Villa, where his parents were staying.

"Skylar, does your father drink? I went out in the afternoon to buy two bottles of whisky for your father. Do you think he will like them?"

"Skylar, does your mother like jade? I bought a jade pendant for her, but I regret it now. I'm sure she prefers gold instead!”

“Skylar, what kind of skincare product does your sister usually use? I bought a set of La Mer skincare products from the duty-free shop previously. Can I give that to her?”

“Skylar, what do you think about my outfit today? Will your parents think the dress is too short or the heels are too high?”

Chapter 268

Yulia was bombarding Skylar with questions along the way. He wasn't sure how to answer them all.

“Skylar, do you think my makeup today is...”

“Dear, don't forget that you're the CEO of a company. You are just meeting my parents. Is it necessary for you to be so nervous?”

Skylar interrupted her before things got out of hand.

Yulia rolled her eyes and complained, “Do you think they are the same? It's my first time doing this.”

Skylar laughed out loud at Yulia's description which was quite fitting. Normally, he would have teased her, but Skylar tried to calm Yulia down when he saw how nervous she was, “Don't worry. My parents are easy going. I guarantee that they will like you when they see you.”

“Mommy is so pretty. I'm sure Grandpa and Grandma like you.” Lola said with high expectations in the backseat. Unlike Yulia, she couldn't wait to see Skylar's foster parents. She was very happy because everyone else had grandparents, and she would soon have grandparents of her own too.

Yulie was bombarding Skylar with questions along the way. He wasn't sure how to answer them all.

“Skylar, do you think my makeup today is...”

“Dear, don't forget that you're the CEO of a company. You are just meeting my parents. Is it necessary for you to be so nervous?”

Skylar interrupted her before things got out of hand.

Yulie rolled her eyes and complained, “Do you think they are the same? It's my first time doing this.”

Skylar laughed out loud at Yulie's description which was quite fitting. Normally, he would have teased her, but Skylar tried to calm Yulie down when he saw how nervous she was, “Don't worry. My parents are easy going. I guarantee that they will like you when they see you.”

“Mommy is so pretty. I'm sure Grandpa and Grandma like you.” Lola said with high expectations in the beckseet. Unlike Yulie, she couldn't wait to see Skylar's foster parents. She was very happy because everyone else had grandparents, and she would soon have grandparents of her own too.

At the villa entrance, Yulia got nervous again.

"Here it is."

Skylar headed to the yard while carrying Lola and holding Yulia's hand.

"Sky!" A familiar voice called out to them. It was Naomi who just got off work. Before Skylar could respond, Naomi exclaimed after seeing Yulia beside him, "Ms. Yulia..."

Yulia wasn't sure how to respond and only smiled.

"Sky, is Ms. Yulia your..." Naomi was shocked and asked Skylar.

In the afternoon, Nathaniel called her to return home. She was told that Skylar would bring his girlfriend back to dinner. Naomi wondered who Skylar's girlfriend was for the whole afternoon. She didn't expect it to be the CEO of her new company, Yulia.

Naomi found this situation funny. She had no complaints about Yulia in terms of her looks and capabilities. However, she heard about Yulia's past after working in the company for some time. There was also the fact that she had a child that she brought along anywhere she went. Even though Naomi didn't discriminate against single mothers, she thought Skylar would be better off with someone else instead of Yulia.

"Naomi, stop calling her Ms. Yulia. Yulia is my girlfriend. You should just call her Yulia after work." Skylar said with a smile.

Naomi got rid of the thoughts in her head and said to Yulia obediently, "Yulia, welcome to our house."

Yulia was blushing. She brushed her hair and said, "Thank you, Naomi."

Skylar noticed Lola was staring at Naomi so he shook her little arms, "Lola, greet her."

"Naomi, you are so pretty! You look prettier than you do in the videos!" Lola said in a coquettish voice.

Naomi was very happy after hearing Lola's praise. She stroked Lola's cheeks and said, "Sweetheart, you are very cute too!"

The four of them entered the villa happily.

Nathaniel and Winona were already standing at the entrance to welcome them.

“Skylar!”

Nathaniel shouted happily. After that, he and Winona took a glance at Yulia. They were shocked at Yulia’s beauty. However, their smile slowly turned awkward when they saw the little girl in Skylar’s arms.

Skylar introduced them both before they could say a word, “Dad. Mom. This is my girlfriend, Yulia, and this is my daughter, Lola.”

“Grandpa. Grandma. Hello!” Lola called.

Yulia was even more embarrassed. She was worried that Lola would shock Nathaniel and Winona by addressing them as her grandparents. It wasn’t Lola’s fault anyway since Yulia only cared about their appearance and forgot to remind Lola about manners.

Yulia immediately followed up by greeting them, “Hello, Mr. Fuller. Mrs. Fuller.”

After that, she handed over all the gifts she prepared to Winona.

“Mrs. Fuller. I have two bottles of whisky for Mr. Fuller. This jade pendant is for you. This set of La Mer skincare products is for Naomi. I hope all of you like the gifts.”

skincere products is for Neomi. I hope all of you like the gifts.”

“Yulia, how do you know that I like to drink? Did Skylar tell you?” Nathaniel asked happily.

Skylar shook his head, “I didn’t tell her anything. I told her not to buy anything, but she sneaked out to buy them behind my back in the afternoon.”

Winona said, “Yulia, listen to Skylar next time. We don’t need any gifts. If you can pay us a visit and eat with us often, it’d be the best gift for us!”

“Definitely. Mrs. Fuller, I will come and visit you both often.” Yulia promised.

“Sure. Naomi, take Yulia and Lola to the living room. I’ll go and prepare dinner with Nathaniel.” Winona nodded at Yulia before instructing Naomi.

“Skylar, there’s a bag of rice in the kitchen. Your dad has a bad back. Help him take it to the storeroom.” Winona ordered Skylar “Sure!” Skylar agreed and walked into the kitchen. However, there wasn’t any rice inside. Winona only wanted to speak to him.

“Skylar. Yulia is a good girl. However, isn’t it bad for you since she has a daughter?” Winona asked softly.

Nathaniel disagreed, “What’s wrong with having a child in this day and age? The most important thing is that Skylar likes her. It’s not like he can’t afford to raise the child anyway!”

Winona hit Nathaniel in the arm and said, “This isn’t about whether he can raise the child or not.”

“Skylar can choose any kind of girl she wants. Why should he marry a divorced woman? Besides, Yulia will have to meet with the child’s father often when the child is growing up. Will Skylar be the stepfather then? I don’t want him to feel aggrieved regarding this.”

Regardless of how excellent Yulia was, Winona was only feeling concerned as a mother. She didn’t want other people to judge her son.

Skylar understood her mother’s worries and said with a smile, “Mom, there’s no need to worry. Lola is my flesh and blood!”

“What? Your own flesh and blood?” Winona wasn’t sure how to respond.

Skylar nodded with a smile.

“Are you saying that Lola is your daughter?” Nathaniel asked.

"Yes, Dad."

Skylar nodded and explained, "Five years ago, I was carrying out a secret mission and got drugged by the enemy's aphrodisiac. Yulia rescued me. However, I lost my rationality and did it with her. Later, Yulia had Lola. She insisted on giving birth. I returned this time to make up for the mistake I made back then. Yulia still doesn't know that I am Lola's father. Dad. Mom. Pretend to be clueless for now. I will tell her everything when the time is right."

"Lola is your offspring? Does it mean we have a granddaughter now?" Nathaniel and Winona were very happy after hearing him say that. They were planning to rush Skylar and Yulia to get married and give them grandchildren. Having a granddaughter suddenly came as a surprise for them.

"We don't need you here anymore. Go out and accompany Yulia. Otherwise, she might overthink." Winona had a big smile on her face as he pushed Skylar out of the kitchen.

Skylar felt he was in disfavor and said, "Fine, Mom. I'm going out now!"

"Ask Naomi to help us out." Winona added.

Back in the living room, Skylar told Naomi to help his parents in the kitchen and sat down beside Yulia.

“Skylar, do your parents not like me? Do they mind...” Yulia asked worriedly.

Skylar wrapped her in his arms and comforted her, “Dear, you are so polite. My parents like you a lot! Lola is obedient and cute as well. They have nothing to complain about.”

“Are you sure?”

Yulia had her doubts and asked, “Did Mrs. Fuller ask you to go inside the kitchen just to move a bag of rice?”

Skylar was shocked at how smart she was. He had no choice but to admit honestly, “Not really.”

Yulia looked disappointed.

Skylar smirked and said, “My mom told me that she wants another grandchild. It would be best if we can give her another grandson.”

“You... You are lying!”

Yulia’s face was flushed. She tried to hit Skylar’s chest with her fist.

Skylar caught her fist and pretended to be troubled, “Dear, Lola wants a sister, but my parents want a grandson. In that case, should we have two more children?”

“I’ll ignore you if you keep talking!”

Yulia was so angry that she escaped Skylar’s embrace.

Skylar kept talking about having more children. Yulia was worried that he might not love Lola anymore when he had a child of his own. Then, Lola would have to suffer!

Yulia was overthinking again. However, her initial worries about visiting Skylar’s parents had vanished.

Then, Nathaniel called them for dinner. Nathaniel treated them with warmth and even brought Lola a child seat. Winona also invited Yulia to sit beside her, “Yulia, sit beside me. I’ll help you feed Lola.”

“Grandma, I can eat with a small spoon.” Said Lola.

Winona had a big smile on her face when she heard Lola calling her grandma, “Good. Lola is so capable! Sit beside me then. I’ll help you take any food you want.”

“Okay!” Lola said happily.

Yulia was relieved to hear Winona’s loving tone when she spoke to Lola.

It seemed like she was really overthinking. Nathaniel and Winona didn't mind Lola's existence at all.

As the six of them were eating happily, someone knocked on the door outside.
