

Triumph 401

Chapter 401

Tyler was infuriated by Skylar's cocky smirk as he exclaimed, "Hmph! Do you think that a trash like you would be able to invite all the big leagues in the entire city here? Gosh, how comical!"

"Oh, you'd be crawling out of here like a dog soon."

Suddenly, some commotion could be heard coming from the entrance as soon as he said that.

Soon, the housekeeper who was usually calm came rushing in while yelling out to Tyler in a panic. "S-sir... This is bad!"

"What are you freaking out about?" Tyler asked nervously.

The housekeeper took a deep breath while wiping the cold sweat off his forehead as he replied, "There is an entourage of more than a couple hundred cars. Could we have offended someone that we shouldn't? Could they be here for trouble? Those were all extremely expensive cars and if they were sent from our enemies, then things would be really bad for us!"

The housekeeper looked incredibly panicked when he explained the situation to Tyler.

Since he had been working for Tyler's family for years, he clearly understood the full extent of Tyler's family's influence. Although his family seemed incredibly affluent to normal people, they were nothing when compared to the people in the same industry as they in the entire city.

There were only about twenty people who attended Mr. Sue's birthday. Apparently, those were considered business partners to their family. Although Leon had regained control of his company's helm and his position and influence were significantly greater than Madam Sue, it was merely an insignificant change. His family's status was still considered insignificant in the entire city. Besides, anyone who attended Leon's birthday was only there because they needed the Sue family's support. They were all insignificant small business owners and were not even close to being in the same position as the Sue family. Pretty much all of them were already present then.

The sudden arrival of such a huge entourage and the deafening roar of their engines sounded incredibly intimidating to everyone.

"Did you say more than a few hundred cars?"

Tyler immediately shifted his focus over to Skylar as soon as he heard what his housekeeper said.

The sudden arrival of the entourage made Yvonne and the others nervous.

Tyler on the other hand, was seething with rage as his smile slowly faded away.

They wouldn't be here to wish my grandpa because of Skylar, right? If that's true, then it shows that Skylar actually meant what he said! Tyler felt uneasy as he thought about that.

However, before Skylar could say anything, Yvonne decided to comfort herself by telling Calvert, "Impossible! Skylar is nothing but a useless piece of trash! It's impossible for him to convince that many people to show up!"

After hearing that, Georgia mocked both Skylar and Yulia. "Oh boy. You wouldn't have offended anyone you shouldn't now, right? They wouldn't be here for vengeance now, right?"

"Exactly! It has to be that! I heard that after the anti-blemish cream's fiasco, they were cocky enough to offend Mr. Silverton! So tell me, is there really anything they wouldn't dare to do?"

Hearing this seemed to have comforted Tyler as he began to mock Skylar and Yulia.

It almost seemed like the entourage of cars were not there for Skylar.

However, before they could say anything, the secretary's voice could be heard announcing the arriving guests. "Mr. Shorts, Madam. Henrietta Johnson of Henrietta, Mr. Jay Cullen of Rivertell Group and Ms. Amanda Fitz have arrived!"

...

Chapter 402

One by one, more influential people entered the Sue family mansion as the announcement of the guests continued.

As soon as they entered, like Homer and Brad that came before, they politely greeted Skylar and Yulia. Even their greetings were similar. They were all expressing just how sorry they were to show up with gifts uninvited. They only dared to greet Leon in the living room after Skylar gave them a nod.

There was no doubt that all of them were only there for Skylar.

That scene was extremely shocking to Yvonne and the others. It was only then did they understand everything as all of them looked awful. They could not understand just how Skylar managed to get so many powerful people in the entire country to respect him that much.

The combined net wealth of every guest that arrived was far greater than the Shepard, Waylon, Belmont, and Whitlock family combined. Amanda's wealth alone would be more than enough to completely eclipse their family's combined net worth. This made them wonder just who exactly Skylar truly was as so many powerful people from the country were there just for him.

However, Skylar was not in the mood to bask in their shock as he turned his focus back to Tyler and asked, "How many people do you think will show up in a hundred cars? Do you think they could fit ten full tables?"

That was a rhetorical question as Skylar only wanted to mock Tyler.

As expected, Tyler's expression only grew bitter as soon as Skylar said that.

"So, could you kneel before me now?" Skylar asked.

All Tyler could do was glare at Skylar in silence.

The continuous wave of arriving powerful guests felt insulting to Tyler

It seemed that Skylar was not boasting when he said that he was able to invite every influential person in the city to celebrate Leon's birthday. He knew that he had lost completely to Skylar.

He was the one who set the wager and there was no reason he should go back on his word. However, apologizing to Skylar in front of so many people was more humiliating to him than breaking his own promises.

So, Tyler scoffed and said, "Don't you get cocky now, Skylar. I was just joking with you earlier!"

So, Tyler scoffed and said, "Don't you get cocky now, Skylar. I was just joking with you earlier!"

"Today happens to be my grandpa's seventieth birthday and there are hundreds of important guests here today. Do you really want to drag our family's name in the mud?"

However, Skylar smirked and said, "No one is joking with you right now. Besides, Leon and Calvert are here. Do you really think that you're in a position to represent your family? You're the only one that's going to end up as everyone's laughing stock!"

"You!" Tyler glared at Skylar before doubling down in his stance as he said, "I will only kneel to my parents. No one else can make me kneel!"

"Oh? Is that so?" Skylar scoffed.

Since Tyler was shamelessly talking about reason, he should not blame Skylar for taking matters into his own hands. So, Skylar approached Tyler and yelled, "Kneel!"

Chapter 403

That single word sounded like a thundering roar to Tyler and before he could react, he felt an enormous force approaching him from above. Soon, his shoulders felt heavy from the overwhelming force and there was nothing he could do to defend himself from it.

Another loud rumble could be heard soon after that as Tyler's legs gave out as he knelt in front of Skylar.

However, that was not the end of it as another overwhelming force was rushing toward the back of his head as was forced down to the ground with a loud thud.

Tyler felt as if his head was about to detach from his body. Soon, warm blood began to flow down his cheeks, blurring his vision before dripping into his mouth.

It was only then did Tyler realize that he had offended something this terrifying to him.

With absolute terror and ignoring the blood on his head, he yelled at Skylar, "I.. I'll kneel. I'll kneel... I'm really sorry, I am absolutely sorry!"

A series of loud thuds soon followed as Tyler began frantically prostrating to Skylar. He knew that if Skylar was to lash out on him again, his head would explode.

"All right, that's enough. You can stop embarrassing yourself here!" Skylar exclaimed.

After that, Tyler nervously got up and backed away into a corner.

Meanwhile, both Yvonne and Georgia looked incredibly bitter. Especially Yvonne as she intended to regain some of her honor after the debacle at the auction. However, she did not expect Skylar and Yulia to be the center of attention at Leon's birthday. She was unable to accept this outcome.

However, just as Yvonne was seething with rage, a loud voice could be heard coming from the entrance again. The voice announced. "Mr. Nolan Oakley has arrived!"

Soon, Nolan entered the hall while wearing a spectacular suit. Hearing this made Yvonne's eyes glimmer as she approached him and said, "Oh Nolan, you're finally here!"

After that, she exaggerated everything that happened earlier to Nolan before glaring menacingly at Skylar.

Upon hearing that, Nolan approached Skylar menacingly and said, "Don't you get cocky just because you're able to invite this many people, Skylar. Let me tell you this, all of them combined would not even come close to being better than my grandpa!"

As soon as Nolan said that, an announcement could be heard again. That announcement shocked everyone present as the voice said, "Mr. Nimrod Belmont, Mr. Jeffery Oakley, and Madam Faye Belmont have arrived!"

As soon as Nolan said that, an announcement could be heard again. That announcement shocked everyone present as the voice said, "Mr. Nimrod Belmont, Mr. Jeffery Oakley, and Madam Faye Belmont have arrived!"

Everyone immediately turned toward the entrance as they noticed an old man dressed in a suit along with a middle-aged couple entering the hall. They were none other than Nolan's parents and grandfather.

"Grandpa, mom, dad." Nolan greeted them.

All the guests immediately returned and gathered around them as soon as they arrived.

"What brings you here today, Mr. Oakley?"

"Greetings, Mr. and Mrs. Oakley."

"Wow, Mrs. Oakley, you have maintained your skin quite well. You don't look a day older than forty. Gosh, I didn't expect your son to be that old now!"

Chapter 404

Although the other guests were offended by what Nolan said, they could not help but be extremely polite and respectful toward the Belmonts. That was because none of them would work together just to bring the Belmont family down.

Meanwhile, Yvonne looked incredibly pleased as she did not expect Nolan would be able to convince his grandfather, Nimrod and Faye to celebrate Leon's birthday.

It turned out that the Belmont family was the third most powerful family in the country.

Let's see how cocky you can still act, Skylar!

As Nolan said earlier, the guests that Skylar invited earlier were nothing in comparison to his grandfather. All of them were busy buttering Nimrod up. So, even if another hundred people were to show up, they would mean nothing to Nimrod. The Belmont family's influence was just too overwhelming to them.

However, just as Yvonne was basking in her own glory, Nolan approached her with Nimrod and the others.

"Grandpa, mom, dad, this is my girlfriend, Yvonne."

"Greetings, Mr. and Mrs. Belmont." Yvonne greeted them with a pretentiously innocent look.

"Greetings." Old Master Belmont and Nolan's parents replied with a gentle nod and smile.

Their smiles made Yvonne starstruck as she could not believe that Old Master Belmont nodded at her. This meant that she was another step closer to marrying into their family.

Moreover, seeing how Nolan was so close to her, marrying him would be the same as marrying into the third most powerful family in the country.

In her glorious daze, Yvonne glanced at Calvert and said, "What are you still standing there for, Calvert? Hurry up and get grandpa over to greet Mr. and Mrs. Belmont."

Although she sounded impatient, Calvert dared not delay a second since they were dealing with the Belmont family. So, he immediately rushed over to the living room.

Suddenly, Skylar stopped him and said, "That won't be necessary! Come on, they're just the Belmonts, we don't have to trouble grandpa now. Well, since they're here to greet him, they should go to him themselves."

"Oh?" Nimrod's expression turned bitter as soon as he heard that as he looked at Skylar and asked, "Now, who do you think you are?"

He understood that it was already a great honor for an affluent family to grace the banquet of an insignificant family. He thought that he was generous enough to not make Leon owe his family greatly for such an honor. So, expecting him to greet them himself would be the bare minimum of basic courtesy, right? However, not only did the man in front of him disregard his family's reputation, he expected them to greet Leon themselves. He even expected them to bring gifts for Leon.

This made him assume that Skylar meant to tell him that Leon's position in the city was far greater than his.

This made him assume that Skylar meant to tell him that Leon's position in the city was far greater than his.

When Calvert noticed how displeased Nimrod seemed, he immediately said, "Stop it, Skylar!"

Yvonne on the other hand, was incredibly pleased and excited when that happened. She was excited to ostracize Skylar and Yulia by using Old Master Belmont's reputation. She did not expect Skylar would shoot himself in the foot for her. She felt like it was her lucky day.

So, she immediately told Nimrod, "Mr. Belmont, he happens to be the b*stard man my cousin is seeing out there. I have no idea what he did to convince so many people to celebrate my grandpa's birthday. You know, he was bragging to me about how awesome he is before you arrived. But, he's just not pleased about how he has shot himself in the foot after your arrival. This is exactly why he's disrespecting your family's honor!" Yvonne shot Skylar a cocky look while saying that.

Chapter 405

Meanwhile, both Georgia and Tyler were incredibly pleased with the situation.

Nolan, on the other hand, looked cocky as he told Skylar, "Even if you were to invite another hundred people, they are nothing to my grandpa."

"Oh, is that so?" Skylar looked at Nolan before shifting his focus to Nimrod and the others as he said, "You know, the Belmont family is nothing to me!"

"What?"

Everyone was so shocked by what they heard that they dared not even breathe. So, the entire room was instantly silenced.

Even Calvert seemed to think that Skylar was nothing more than a mad man. He thought, I can't believe that Skylar was bold enough to insult them. Has he gone mad? Is he aware that the Belmont family is the third most powerful family in the country? Their combined net worth is over thirty billion dollars. Their connections run so deep that it spans all over the city! I can't believe Skylar told Nolan in front of Nimrod that they are nothing to him! If he isn't mad then, he must have a death wish! Is he bored of living? Is he trying to get himself killed?

Although Yvonne and the others were just as shocked as Calvert, they were immediately delighted by how things had progressed then.

Since Skylar had offended Nimrod, they could seemingly see how Nimrod was going to trample all over Skylar soon. So, they were so delighted by everything that they cockily smirked at Skylar.

Amanda on the other hand was worried as she did not expect Skylar would be bold enough to insult Nimrod in front of everyone.

However, there were also a group of people who were not surprised by the citation at all.

Those people happened to witness just how the remaining three families were desperately trying to butter up to Skylar back then. Those people were none other than Yulia, Jay and more as they knew that Skylar would be able to back up his claims.

Most people would think that the Belmont family's influence was vast. However, could they even compete against the Shepard and Currey family?

"You b*stard. How dare you disrespect the Belmont family like this?" Jeffery exclaimed.

He understood that even he would have to respect the Belmont family. However, he could not believe that Skylar was bold enough to insult the Belmont family like this.

Nimrod looked bitter as he said, "If you have problems with your brain, you should really get some professional help. If not, I suggest that you kneel and apologize to me about what you said. I can allow you to live because Yvonne is my grandson's girlfriend. Or else, don't blame my family for destroying you then!"

Nimrod sounded very threatening when he said that. It almost seemed like he would deploy his entire family's power just to destroy Skylar if he refused to kneel.

Nimrod sounded very threatening when he said that. It almost seemed like he would deploy his entire family's power just to destroy Skylar if he refused to kneel.

However, Skylar replied with an arrogant smirk as he said, "Oh, is that so? Do you think that your family is more powerful than me, then?"

Suddenly, an announcement broke the tension as soon as Skylar said that.

"Mr. Dudley Shepard, Mr. Waylon Currey, and Mr. Blac Whitlock has arrived!"

Soon, Dudley, Waylon and Blanc entered the building as soon as the announcement was made.

"The four most powerful families are all here?" Calvert questioned nervously.

It seemed that he was not shocked at the situation anymore as he wondered if he was having an amazing dream. A wonderful dream where all four families were there to celebrate his grandfather's birthday.

He was not the only one who was baffled by everything as Yvonne and the others were so surprised that they were all rubbing their eyes as they wondered just what was going on and if they were all there for Skylar.

Chapter 406

No! Impossible! It's absolutely impossible! Who in the world does Skylar think he is to be able to convince all of them to show up?

Yvonne and the others were in a complete mess as that thought flashed through their minds. However, before they could do anything, Dudley led the others to Skylar and Yulia as everything that happened just moments ago repeated itself.

"Greetings, Mr. and Mrs. Stone! I was told that today is Mr. Sue's seventieth birthday and I've prepared a gift for him. Please forgive me for showing up uninvited."

Dudley greeted Skylar and Yulia politely while the others followed.

This immediately shocked everyone as Calvert, Yvonne, Georgia and the others were all stunned by the situation as waves of mixed emotions washed over them.

They could not believe that the remaining three families were all there to greet Skylar and this situation was so outrageous that none of them was able to accept it.

Meanwhile, Calvert began to breathe heavily while his mind was in a complete mess.

Nolan and Yvonne on the other hand felt incredibly nervous as waves of unrelenting anxiety washed over them. This overwhelmed them so much that their legs began to tremble uncontrollably. If they were not focused on keeping themselves standing, they would have already collapsed on the ground. The situation was too terrifying for them to handle.

Although Homer and others were there for Skylar as well, their arrivals were still something they could somewhat accept. However, the person who was greeting Skylar so politely then was none other than the most powerful man in the city. Three of the most powerful families in the country were all being so polite to Skylar.

Even Jeffery and Faye were shocked and nervous when that happened. Although Nimrod was able to remain calm, he was also quite taken aback by what happened.

Both the Shepard and Currey family's power combined would be more than enough to surpass any reach their family's reputation could have. Even if they were all equals, he would still need to back down when both the Shepard and Currey families were present.

He could not believe that Skylar only replied to them with a smile without saying much in front of such overwhelmingly powerful people. Moreover, they seemed to be afraid and were revering Skylar as soon as Skylar nodded at them. It almost seemed like Skylar was their boss. He had never seen anything like this before despite living for so long. He could not understand just who exactly Skylar was to be so highly respected by them.

He could not believe that Skylar only replied to them with a smile without saying much in front of such overwhelmingly powerful people. Moreover, they seemed to be afraid and were revering Skylar as soon as Skylar nodded at them. It almost seemed like Skylar was their boss. He had never seen anything like this before despite living for so long. He could not understand just who exactly Skylar was to be so highly respected by them.

However, while Nimrod was lost in his thoughts, Waylon suddenly turned around to drag someone from the crowd as he said, "I want you to kneel and apologize to Mr. Stone!"

That man was none other than the eldest grandson of his family, Lucas Currey. The same person who showed up to bully Harper and his wife two days ago. Since Waylon was seething with rage, Lucas dared not fight back as he immediately knelt in front of Skylar.

Chapter 407

Waylon glared at him before immediately changing his attitude as he turned to face Skylar. He said, "Mr. Stone, I only sent my grandsons to Mr. Shepard's eightieth birthday because I was busy then. I never expected this good of nothing trash would dare to offend you then. Oh, I was troubled by it when I heard that, so I decided to make things right with you today since I'd be wishing Mr. Sue a very happy birthday as well. Your refusal to punish him shows just how generous you really are. However, as the patriarch of my family, I can't let this slide. So, I decided to strip him of his right as the heir to the family and give that position to his cousin, Adam!"

What?

Waylon's announcement was like a bombshell to everyone. No one could believe that Waylon would strip Lucas of his right of being the heir of the family just because he had offended Skylar. Although this seemed like a meaningless gesture, it was nothing to scoff at. Waylon must have given this decision much thought in the last two days.

It seemed that the longer he reeled over his decision, the more he feared Skylar. This was nothing anyone had ever seen before.

So, everyone seemed to have changed their minds about Skylar. Even Yulia was shocked when that happened.

Moreover, she felt as if Skylar was hiding a lot more about his life than what was happening in that moment. Skylar was like a never ending book to her and it seemed that every chapter she turned to revealed something new about him. She would have never found out about just how many surprises Skylar was keeping from her if she did not continue reading the book.

"Is daddy the best here, mommy?" Lola asked.

Yulia nodded with a huge smile as she was proud of Skylar.

Upon hearing that, Lola was starstruck as she turned toward Skylar.

Yulia's thoughts might actually be the simplest amongst the crowd present then.

After hearing Waylon's announcement, Skylar brushed it off and said, "Well, whoever is the heir of your family has nothing to do with me. As for what happened at the Shepard family mansion, well, since I didn't exactly say much, it just means that I have no intention in pursuing the matter further."

"You have a really big heart, Mr. Stone. Thank you so much for your kindness!" Waylon thanked Skylar.

"You have a really big heart, Mr. Stone. Thank you so much for your kindness!" Waylon thanked Skylar.

When he found out that Lucas had been sent home by Dudley, he immediately began looking into the matter. This was exactly how he found out about Skylar.

He was curious to find out just who exactly Skylar was to gain so much respect from Dudley. However, he was unable to get any information about Skylar despite using every single connection his family had. When that happened, he somehow realized that Skylar might not be as simple as he seemed, so he decided to call Dudley and wanted to see if he could get any information about Skylar from him.

However, Dudley told him that Skylar's life was completely off limits to him. This revelation terrified him to the core.

His family was still the second most powerful family in the city and as the patriarch of his family, his reputation spanned all over the state. However, according to Dudley, he was unworthy to look into Skylar's identity.

Chapter 408

So, Waylon knew that he would have to butter Skylar up even if it was just for show. This was exactly what had been keeping Waylon up recently. He knew that when the heir of his family had offended such a powerhouse, it would spell the end of his family, so he decided that he needed to sacrifice Lucas to save his family's future.

"Hey Skylar, I think the ten extra tables have just about reached full capacity. Let's head inside to greet my grandpa," said Yulia.

Yulia knew that her grandfather was the star of that night, and yet such a huge group of people were gathered around Skylar. That did not sit right with her. However, Skylar shook his head and said, "Just hold on a second."

He immediately shifted his gaze back to Nimrod and said, "If I remembered correctly, you told me to get my head checked and that I should kneel and apologize to you or else I'll have to bear the consequences of my actions, right? Now then, could you please enlighten me as to what those consequences are?" Skylar was grinning when he said that.

Everyone immediately turned their focus to Nimrod and the others. Nolan and Faye were seething with rage. However, as much as they detested Skylar, they dared not show their anger.

Nimrod on the other hand felt humiliated as he looked incredibly bitter. It seemed that he had never been questioned like this before, especially when Skylar was asking him about the consequences of his actions.

The crowd seemed to be mocking him for his insolence. Suddenly, a woman's voice could be heard saying, "You should know when to stop, Skylar! Besides, Mr. Belmont is about the same age as grandpa. What right do you have to speak to him like this?"

As everyone turned their attention to the voice, they could see Yvonne glaring at Skylar.

It seemed that she had thought things through. Even if Skylar was indeed more powerful than the Shepard family, it was too late to make amends and even if she did, it would mean very little for her to do so. Her best hope at the moment was Nolan.

While Nimrod remained silent, she decided that she needed to seize her opportunity to please Nimrod. However, just as she was about to speak up for him, Nimrod glared at her and yelled, "Shut your d*mn mouth up! You are in no position to speak here!"

It seemed that he only looked bitter because he was terrified that he had offended Skylar. He was worried about his family's future. He could not believe that Yvonne decided to make things worse for him by offending Skylar again. She was literally trying to ruin his family.

It seemed that he only looked bitter because he was terrified that he had offended Skylar. He was worried about his family's future. He could not believe that Yvonne decided to make things worse for him by offending Skylar again. She was literally trying to ruin his family.

Judging by how much Dudley and the others revered Skylar, he knew that it would take very little effort for Skylar to allow Dudley to gather everyone's support to destroy his family. Everything his family had and built for centuries would be destroyed if that were to happen. That thought terrified him so much that his legs were trembling.

So, he decided to cast away his pride and politely bowed to Skylar and said, "I'm really sorry for my insolence, Mr. Stone. So, I hereby apologize to you."

"What?" Yvonne was completely shocked when that happened.

Jeffery and the others were stunned for a moment before lowering their heads just like Nimrod as they apologized to Skylar. "We're sorry, Mr. Stone. We were foolish earlier and we hope you will be able to forgive us."

Just like everyone else, Nolan dared not act stubborn anymore.

Chapter 409

Skylar replied, "You know Nimrod, there is a whole wide world out there and besides, your family is only the third most powerful family in the city. Now, you may think that your family is powerful, but the truth is, I can destroy you without even blinking. Everyone loves an underdog story, but in the end, it's all just fantasy, so don't assume that you mean anything at all."

That statement was insulting to Nimrod and the others. If he was to make that statement moments ago, they would have been fuming with rage. However, not only were they not complaining, they seemed to agree with everything he said then.

Since it was Leon's seventieth birthday then, Skylar decided not to pursue this matter further. So, he carried Lola in his hands and walked toward the living room while Dudley and the others followed behind.

Meanwhile, the other people who were following behind Skylar were all reflecting over what he said earlier.

He's able to destroy the Belmont family without even blinking? I wonder just how truly terrifying of a man Skylar really is!

Meanwhile, both Leon and Madam Sue were seated next to each other around the living room table. They were accompanied by Charles, Caleb, and Lincoln at the moment and seemed to be oblivious about what had happened earlier as Charles and Caleb were trying their hardest to butter up Homer and Brad. The duo could be considered as the most honorable guests they had ever hosted.

"Grandpa!" Suddenly, a childish voice could be heard approaching them as Lola ran toward the living room before diving into Leon's arms while saying, "I missed you, grandpa!"

"Whoa, slow down there, darling," said Skylar as he entered the living room with Yulia.

Leon's heart was melted by Lola's charm. However, before he could say anything, Charles exclaimed, "Where did this b*stard child come from! How dare she cause such a ruckus while there are honored guests here! So, is this how you raise your daughter, Yulia? How insolent. You should've never given birth to her four years ago!" Charles glared at Lola as soon as he finished ranting.

Both Homer and Brad were horrified when Charles said that as they wondered if there was something wrong with him because he was bold enough to insult Skylar's beloved daughter in front of him.

As soon as Brad snapped out from his shock, he immediately questioned Charles. "Do you have a death wish, Charles?"

As soon as Brad snapped out from his shock, he immediately questioned Charles. "Do you have a death wish, Charles?"

Homer continued, "I'll send you to your maker right now, if that's what you wanted!"

Their reactions immediately stunned Charles as he was confused about what was going on since they were so friendly just moments ago. He could not understand what angered them that much.

Although Caleb was also a little confused, he decided to break the tension by saying, "Please excuse my brother. He only raised his voice because he's worried that the b*stard child might have accidentally offended you earlier. You know, my niece, Yulia, got pregnant while she was still studying. She refused to tell us who the father was and was adamant in keeping the child. This ruined our family's reputation. My brother's reaction is justified because he is concerned about our family's future. Our family's reputation might be ruined even more if that b*stard child was to grow up to be like her mother."

Chapter 410

Charles was uncomfortable after hearing what Caleb said, since she was still his daughter, but he dared not say anything about it.

However, as soon as Caleb said that, Homer immediately slapped Caleb in the face.

With a loud clap, a palm print was firmly imprinted on Caleb's face as this immediately shocked everyone so much that they turned their focus onto Homer.

Although Homer might be the ruler of the city's underworld, he was there to celebrate Leon's birthday. No one was able to accept what he did. However, before they could even understand what was going on, Homer said, "Who do you think you are to insult Madam Stone like this? If you dare say another word, I will not hesitate to help Mr. Stone teach you a thing or two about common etiquette!"

"What? Mr. and Madam Stone?" Both Charles and Caleb were shocked as they turned their focus to Skylar and Yulia.

Everyone knew that Nolan was dating Yvonne, so they assumed that Homer and Brad were only there because of Nolan. However, after hearing what Homer said, they wondered if they were there for Skylar and Yulia since the way they addressed Skylar and Yulia were too formal.

However, while they were still confused, a group of very powerful people entered the living room. All of them held a much higher social status than Leon and those people were not people any common folk could even be acquainted with. But, all of them just so happened to be there to celebrate Leon's birthday.

"Good gosh! Aren't they the four most powerful families in the city?"

Some of the more observant people were baffled to see Dudley, Waylon, and Blanc. "Whoa... even their patriarchs have arrived!"

Their arrival shocked everyone so much that they were all speechless. That was because everyone knew that a single word from any one of them could change the fate of the entire city. This made everyone wonder just what the Sue family did to convince them to attend Leon's birthday. Everyone present was so shocked by the guests that they wanted to slap themselves in the face to see if they were dreaming.

Suddenly, Charles immediately pointed at someone from the crowd and told Caleb, "Hey Caleb, isn't that Mr. Belmont?"

Suddenly, Charles immediately pointed at someone from the crowd and told Caleb, "Hey Caleb, isn't that Mr. Belmont?"

Hearing this shocked Caleb as he replied, "Yeah, that's him! Oh look, Yvonne and Nolan are following behind them!"

Charles was delighted to see that as he said, "It seems that the Belmont family was responsible for inviting our honored guests today!"

Caleb agreed with what he said as he knew that only the Belmont family was an equal powerhouse to the other three families. He believed that the other patriarchs would listen to Nimrod's requests out of respect.

"Yvonne sure is impressive alright! I can't believe she convinced Nolan to invite Mr. Belmont and get him to convince the other families to attend Grandpa's birthday for our family!"

Caleb was so envious of Charles and wished he had a daughter like that. Everyone was starting to have a different opinion of Charles then. This delighted him so much that he immediately approached Nimrod and the others.