Chapter 561 You're Not Worthy

"Do you know how much a dolphin sells for? We are the first-hand source, and each of them cost five million!"

"There are now eight dolphins in the museum, each of them is five million dollars, and the total is forty million dollars. Do you think you can afford it?"

At this moment, the staff around him, as well as the bodyguards laughed.

Looking at Skylar's ordinary clothes, he doesn't look like someone who can afford 40 million.

Besides, if anyone had 40 million, no one would use it to buy a few dolphins.

Skylar was too lazy to talk with these people, so he took out his card from his pocket, and said to the middle-aged man, "It's only 40 million, I'll pay!!"

The people who were still laughing were shocked.

Can this kid afford it?

The young man standing next to the middle-aged man suddenly shrank his pupils, and then exclaimed, "The pattern of alpine edelweiss, the national flower of Switzerland? Is this the black card of the Swiss Bank?"

"Oh my, is this for real?"

"Really! I have a cousin who works in the biggest bank here. I heard her talk about it."

"You need to have millions of dollars in your account to have this card,"

"God, I didn't expect this kid to be a rich person,"

The eyes of the middle-aged man suddenly flickered.

He never expected that Skylar would be the one who could own a black card.

And Louis, who ran over to watch the fun, was full of jealousy.

He retired from the military a few years ago, worked hard in Sconvia for several years, and had two to three million dollars. Skylar, who was still in the army, had hundreds of millions of dollars.

How could he not be jealous?

The middle-aged man came to his senses, thinking that someone who could own the black card was considered to be wealthy, and his attitude immediately improved a lot.

"I apologize, sir. Please don't take what I said earlier to heart,"

"We managed to transport the eight dolphins here and trained them for several months. It's time to make money."

"The boss said that many people came here for the show, and they are considering adding two more shows every day. It is impossible to sell them to you,"

These dolphins were the main attraction of the zoo.

The middle-aged man was still thinking about how to squeeze their values to the greatest extent.

Selling them for 40 million dollars was not worth it.

Hearing his words, Skylar sneered and said, "I'm not discussing with you, let alone bargain!"

"I know you can't make the decision, and I won't make it difficult for you. Call your boss, and I'll talk to him!"

This group of people abused the dolphins that had saved his life, and he only wanted to buy them so that he would not embarrass them.

It was the man who fixed the price of the dolphins, not him.

He would buy all eight of them today!

When the middle-aged man heard the words, his face sank.

"Boy, do you think our boss can see you whenever you want? Do you think you're worth it?"

Although the middle-aged man was not the boss, he could be considered the boss' right-hand man as he had been following the boss in Sconvia for so many years.

The houses in Sconvia were outrageously expensive. Considering that he owns several houses there and owns a black card, he must be rich.

He wanted to show respect to him since Skylar had a black card.

But he did not expect him to be shameless.

The middle-aged man's temper suddenly rose, "Kid, this is Sconvia, you're taking out the black card to fool people. I don't think you're even worthy to talk about my boss' shoes!"

Chapter 562 I Won't Show Mercy

"I'll give you one minute to leave with your wife and children! Otherwise, don't call me a cold-hearted person!"

To be able to open such a large-scale aquarium in a place like Sconvia where every inch of land was expensive, the middle-aged man's boss must have a powerful background.

At this moment, Louis also looked at Skylar mockingly.

Let's see how he ends up!

But Skylar snorted coldly, "Oh? You won't show mercy?"

"You don't think I dare?"

The middle-aged man yelled at the bodyguards, "Get this ignorant kid out!"

"If he dares to refuse, I will beat him until he accepts it! If he was sent to the hospital, I'll pay him for his medical bills!"

"Where did this countryside boy come from, how dare he show off his black card in Sconvia?"

"He didn't even know how powerful the boss of the aquarium was! How dare he pretend, I'll show him what happens if he keeps being ignorant!"

"Yes, sir!"

The bodyguards agreed in unison.

The next moment, they approached Skylar.

Among them, two of them attacked Yulia and Lola directly without saying a word.

"Get lost!"

Skylar snorted coldly, and he had a murderous intent.

"Boom!"

No one saw Skylar's attack, but all of the bodyguards were beaten up.

In a blink of an eye, they fell to the ground, clutching their stomachs, and writhing in pain.

"You..."

Everyone around was dumbfounded.

Even Louis, who had been in the military camp, was shocked.

He had not seen Skylar for so many years, and his skills had gotten incredible!

Skylar did not care about how everyone reacted and strode in front of the middle-aged man.

"Didn't you say you wouldn't show mercy?"

"Let me see what you'd look like if you don't show mercy," Skylar mocked.

"You..."

The middle-aged man turned pale with fright.

At this moment, Skylar was like a fighting machine, his whole body was cold, and there was a murderous intent in his eyes.

After seeing Skylar's approach, the middle-aged man took several steps back, and said in a panic, "Stay away from me! My boss..."

He wanted to reveal that he was the boss to suppress Skylar.

Skylar did not stop as he started to speak up.

"Slap! Slap! Slap!"

Three loud slaps landed on his cheeks.

Skylar raised his hand and asked, "I want to buy all of the dolphins here, are you selling them or not?"

How could the man refuse him at that moment?

He covered his swollen cheeks, and said with horror, "I'll sell them!"

"But...I can't make the decision...I'll call the boss now and tell him to talk to you,"

As he spoke, the middle-aged man took out his phone and made a call.

After a few words, he put away his phone and said to Skylar, "The boss is around here, and he said he will be here in fifteen minutes,"

"Okay, then I'll wait for him for fifteen minutes."

While talking, Skylar took Yulia and Lola to sit on the chairs next to him.

As soon as Skylar walked away, the middle-aged man let out a sigh of relief, thinking that the boss would come later, a ferocious smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

Ten minutes later, there was a sudden roar from the back door.

"Who is it? How dare you smash the Lucas family's place? Do you have a death wish?"

Chapter 563 Can You Decide?

Skylar and Yulia looked in the direction from where the shout came from.

It turned out to be Jordan!

No wonder the voice sounded familiar.

However, neither Skylar nor Yulia expected that this aquarium was owned by the Lucas family.

If they had known this earlier, they would have called Yulia's Grandpa instead.

Upon seeing Jordan, the middle-aged man greeted him full of grievances, and said in a low voice, "Mr. Lucas, you are finally here!"

"It's that ignorant brat over there!"

The middle-aged man pointed at Skylar and said with resentment, "This guy is arrogant and unreasonable. He insists on buying the dolphins from our performance hall."

"I told him that they're not for sale and told him to leave. Not only did he injure the bodyguards in the hall, he even slapped me three times!"

"Before he slapped me, I told him that I'm working for you and the aquarium belongs to the Lucas family. However, he didn't listen and refused to take the Lucas family seriously,"

The middle-aged man looked at Skylar with resentful eyes while complaining.

He had to look carefully before hitting the wrong person!

He did not believe that Jordan would not be mad upon hearing his explanation.

At this time, Louis, who had been watching the excitement, smiled mockingly.

Even if Skylar had a black card, it was nothing compared to the Lucas family.

"Huh? You're a family?"

When Jordan saw Skylar and Yulia's faces, he was surprised.

In Lucas Manor, he felt suffocated because of Yulia's arrival in the morning.

At noon, he had lunch at a clubhouse nearby but he did not feel any better.

Then, he received a call from a middle-aged man, saying that someone was causing trouble.

Normally, he would not bother to show up.

However, he needed to vent his anger so, he rushed over in his sports car at lightning speed.

He did not expect Skylar and Yulia to be causing trouble.

It haunted him.

"Mr. Lucas, do you know him?"

The middle-aged man was shocked.

Before Jordan could speak, Skylar got up and said to him, "I wanna buy eight dolphins, are you selling them?"

"I'll call Shane if you can't do so,"

Upon hearing Skylar's words, the middle-aged man suddenly roared, "You runt!"

"Mr. Lucas is a respected figure in Sconvia, how dare you call his name out so casually?"

"Mr. Lucas will..."

"It's just eight dolphins,"

Jordan gritted his teeth and interrupted him.

"Just give it to him if he wants them!"

"What? Mr. Lin, you're giving all of them to him?"

"These eight dolphins have been trained for a long time until they're familiar with the performances. They're now the main attraction of the aquarium. Do you know how many children came here for this?" The middle-aged man asked in shock.

He did not expect that Jordan, a person who had high status would bow his head to that kid in front of him!

He turned his gaze to Skylar, with an incredulous expression on his face.

Who the heck is this brat?

Jordan did not even dare to resist him when he spoke so domineeringly.

At this moment, Louis, who was beside him was extremely shocked, and his eyes were full of surprise and uncertainty.

Everyone in Sconvia knew that the Lucas family was powerful, and Jordan was also arrogant and bold.

Why did he follow Skylar's orders?

How could Skylar, a soldier, be so domineering?

Chapter 564 Did I Say Sell?

"Slap!"

There was a crisp sound.

The middle-aged man was slapped hard on the face again.

This time, it was Jordan who slapped him.

"Damn it, I said give it to him, don't you understand English?"

"I'll cut your tongue off if you keep babbling!" Jordan scolded fiercely.

Before he came, he was holding back his anger and wanted to vent.

Unexpectedly, it was Skylar and Yulia who caused trouble.

Skylar said that he only wanted to buy the dolphins, he did not discuss it with Jordan and was just informing him, and he used the old man to pressure him.

He thought that the old man cared for Yulia more in the morning and he could not disagree with it.

The old man did not care about a few dolphins at all, and he just wanted to make his granddaughter happy.

If he went on like this, not only would he be embarrassed, but he would also make the old man unhappy.

Rather than doing so, it would be better for him to give the dolphin to Skylar.

However, he felt even more aggrieved.

The middle-aged man still dared to talk about nonsense at a time like that, was he not looking for a scolding?

Seeing Jordan getting angry, the middle-aged man was so frightened that his legs trembled, he quickly bowed and said, "Yes, sir. Please calm down, Mr. Lucas..."

Before Jordan could react, he spoke to Skylar, "I'll sell the dolphins to you, they're 40 million dollars in total."

"Huh? Sell? Did I mention selling the dolphins to him?"

Skylar sneered, looked at Jordan, and asked.

Although 40 million was nothing to him, he never expected that the aquarium belonged to the Lucas family and that it was now under Jordan's management.

However, Skylar did not want to show Jordan his good side.

Jordan hated Skylar to death, but he did not dare to show it on his face. So, he directed all his anger at the middle-aged man.

"Slap!"

There was another slap.

"Didn't you say you understand English? What's so difficult about what I said earlier?"

"Can't you tell the difference between giving and selling?"

The middle-aged man held his head, wanting to die.

Skylar wanted to buy them earlier but he changed his mind after a while.

On the other hand, Jordan said he was going to give it to Skylar, who knew whether he was going to give or sell the dolphins?

Although he felt wronged, he did not dare to show any dissatisfaction on his face. He nodded, "Yes, Mr. Lucas, I understand,"

"Sir, where do you want to place the dolphins, I will arrange for someone to send it to you."

The middle-aged man hurriedly asked Skylar.

Skylar pondered for a moment, then said, "You guys should have a car for transporting dolphins, right? Send them all to the nearest beach. I wanna let them go,"

"Okay, I'll arrange it now."

The middle-aged man agreed, covered his face, and disappeared.

He was embarrassed today.

When he was done handling the matter, Skylar picked Lola and spoke gently, "Let's go to the beach okay? We'll watch the dolphins return home,"

"Okay!"

The little one clapped her hands happily.

Sending the little dolphins home was much more interesting than seeing them being imprisoned here.

It's just that the next moment, the little guy won't be happy anymore.

"What's the matter, sweetheart?" Skylar asked nervously.

Chapter 565 Skylar Is Powerful

Lola said worriedly, "Why don't we find a place to raise the little dolphins, Daddy?"

"I'm afraid they will be caught and abused by bad guys when they go back to the sea..."

"Except for these few dolphins, what about the other dolphins? Daddy, can you find someone to protect them all the time?"

Upon hearing Lola's words, Skylar's heart skipped a beat.

He did not think further than that.

Lola's words reminded him about it.

At that moment, he lightly tapped Lola's nose and said with a smile, "Lola, you're so thoughtful,"

"However, don't worry, Daddy can assure you that as long as they're in the sea of Alvonía, no one will dare to hurt them,"

"Anyone who dares to keep them in captivity will go to jail!"

Upon saying that Skylar took out his phone and called Dianne.

"Dianne, aren't those old guys thinking about improving the constitution recently? Tell them to add one,"

"From now on, killing dolphins is strictly prohibited in the waters of Alvonía, and any form of performance involving dolphins will be banned. Anyone who breaks the law will be sentenced to more than ten years in prison, and the sentence will not be lifted!"

Upon hearing his words, everyone looked at him strangely.

Is he a fool?

Improve the constitution?

Do you think you're the leader of the country?

The constitution was the foundation of a country, and it could not be amended or added at will without discussion.

Was he daydreaming?

People covered their mouths and started laughing, they thought that Skylar was joking.

Initially, they thought Skylar was very powerful, but when the words "make the constitution perfect" came out, they just wanted to ridicule Skylar, as he was being ignorant.

However, the next moment, someone exclaimed while holding their phone.

"Oh my god! WhatsApp, Twitter, and TikTok announced that they added a constitution!"

"The constitution is about the protection of dolphins! It is strictly forbidden to kill and keep dolphins in captivity. Violators will be sentenced to more than ten years in prison. If the circumstances are serious, they can be sentenced to death!"

"Oh my God, that's exactly what he said."

"I received the notification on my phone as well!"

The people who were laughing at first could not laugh anymore.

They picked up their phones and refreshed the news.

If it was not for the announcement of the major social platforms, they would have thought there was something wrong with the system.

When everyone believed it, the performance hall was silent.

They all stared at Skylar with their mouths wide open.

Even Yulia who was beside him was a little shocked.

He added a constitution just with a phone call.

Oh my God.

Only a powerful person was able to do so!

Even if she knew that Skylar was capable, the act of adding the Constitution was completely beyond her imagination.

She was right.

Skylar was a mystery to her.

Yulia had only seen a fraction of what Skylar was capable of.

On the other hand, Jordan and Louis were even more frightened and fell silent.

Even if the Lucas family was powerful in Sconvia and was the root of the city hundreds of years ago, it would not be that easy for them to add a constitution.

Lola was in the audience. She still could not understand the situation and jumped up for joy when they heard Skylar's assurance and the familiar lines rang out again.

"Daddy is so awesome! My Daddy's the most powerful person in the world!"

Skylar caressed her hair and said with a smile, "Now, can we watch the dolphins go back now?"

"Yeah!"

Lola nodded vigorously.

Skylar picked her up, took Yulia's hand, and walked out when everyone was shocked.

Chapter 566 I'll Kill Them

Skylar and others left for a while before everyone in the performance hall came to their senses.

"Could it be that... he knew someone in the Legislative council, and knew in advance that this constitution would be added, then fooled all of us?"

Some viewers thought about it.

"It's possible! I've never seen anyone who can add a constitution with just a phone call! Moreover, it's all over the Internet!"

"Yes, as far as I know, amending the constitution is a major event. First, it needs to be proposed step by step, and then discussed and voted on at various levels of meetings."

"Then draw up the draft for some time. After there are no problems, it will be announced to the public officially. It's not as sloppy as he showed us!"

Many people began to join in.

After hearing this, everyone around felt that everything made sense.

From the discussions, Skylar was viewed as a pretentious person.

It seemed that they were almost deceived by Skylar.

Jordan and Louis heaved a sigh when they heard what everyone said, and the expressions on their faces were very dissatisfied.

They thought that Skylar could amend the Constitution.

It turned out that he just knew the news in advance.

Then it was no big deal.

The Lucas family would know it in advance if they wanted to

At the back entrance of the performance hall.

Eight dolphins were loaded into two vehicles filled with seawater.

The middle-aged man who had been slapped three times by Skylar stood aside, thinking of the humiliation he had suffered today, the hatred in his eyes became more intense.

Just as the vehicle was about to leave for the beach, he suddenly took out a small black bottle from his suit pocket, unscrewed the cap, and poured the medicine in the bottle into the bucket of one of the transport vehicles.

"You're something, kid. Since you have eight dolphins, I'll kill them all!"

The middle-aged man grinned while pouring the potion.

After he finished pouring the potion, he got into the passenger seat of one of the vehicles and set off to the nearest beach.

Initially, he did not have to go, he wanted to see Skylar's grief expression so, he followed him sneakily.

Skylar drove to the beach himself and arrived first with Yulia and Lola.

After playing on the beach for a while, they saw two transport trucks with their buckets approaching.

"Lola, the dolphins are here, come look at them with Daddy!"

Skylar held Lola's hand and walked in the direction of the vehicle.

At this time, several people jumped out of the car and moved the huge water tank containing the dolphins.

Lola was very excited and rushed to the side of the water tank, ready to tease the dolphins inside, but suddenly found something was wrong.

"Dad, are these four dolphins asleep?"

Lola asked strangely.

Skylar squatted down and took a look, his face turned dark immediately.

All four dolphins in the tank had no vital signs.

They were all dead!

One of them was the dolphin who had saved him back then.

Skylar quickly looked at the other water tanks.

Fortunately, the four dolphins inside were alive.

Only then did Skylar feel a little better.

He was only a little better.

Four dolphins died among the eight, and one of them saved him before.

The anger in Skylar's heart surged in an instant.

Chapter 567 Tell Me the Truth!

Seeing Skylar's grief-stricken expression, the middle-aged man next to him had an evil smile.

This is what you get for embarrassing me in front of that many people!

How dare you!

I won't let you get what you want!

Those four dolphins are already dead, why don't you bring them back to life if you can do so?

The middle-aged man lowered his head, laughing at his pain.

After holding back his laughter for a while, he suddenly raised his head, pretending to be ignorant, and exclaimed, "What's wrong? They were fine when it was loaded into the car, why did they all die?"

"you're asking me?"

Skylar frowned, and stared at the middle-aged man, "They had the same transportation conditions, why are all the dolphins in this tank dead?"

Although the eight dolphins had scars to varying degrees, they were not injured.

Even if the space in the water tank was relatively small, they couldn't die within minutes.

Someone must have drugged the water and wanted them dead on purpose!

He stared at Skylar's murderous eyes, and the middle-aged man's heart trembled in fright.

At this moment, he suddenly regretted it.

He should not have been so impulsive just now and poured the potion into the tank.

It was not that he felt sorry for those dolphins, but Skylar's eyes were too terrifying.

However, there was no turning back for him.

The middle-aged man cleared his throat, concealed his guilty conscience, and said, "I don't know, I treat eight dolphins and two transport vehicles equally!"

How could Skylar believe his nonsense?

Skylar's cold gaze penetrated through his bones as if he could read the middle-aged man's heart.

"Tell me the truth!"

Skylar shouted suddenly, and powerful coercion came towards the middle-aged man.

In an instant, the middle-aged man stood frozen in place.

Before he could react, a strange feeling suddenly rose from the depths of his heart.

Then, his mouth opened uncontrollably, and he said, "That's right, I poured the potion into that water tank, so the dolphins in it died,"

"You slapped me three times in front of everyone in the performance hall, and you made Mr. Lucas hit me. I can't swallow such a shameful humiliation!"

"You put all your effort into saving those beasts, don't you? I won't let you do what you want, I just want to see you in grief!"

His voice was trembling and the panic in the eyes of the middle-aged man became more intense.

What was going on?

It was fine that his body was out of control, but his consciousness was also out of control!

What trick did Skylar use? He was able to manipulate him and make him tell the truth he was hiding!

This was too scary!

Upon hearing the middle-aged man's words, Lola shouted angrily, "You big meanie, you killed the little dolphins!"

Yulia also shook her head angrily.

People's hearts were more terrifying than beasts.

He wanted to vent his anger, so he killed four dolphins.

Seeing that Lola was crying anxiously, Skylar suppressed the anger in his heart, hugged her, wiped away the tears from the corners of her eyes, and said softly, "Don't be angry sweetheart, Daddy will never let him go,"

Chapter 568 Don't Try to Escape

"There's still four cute little dolphins, let's release them back to the sea first, shall we?"

"Okay, I'll listen to Daddy!"

Lola sniffled and said sensibly.

Several workers put the four remaining dolphins into the sea under Skylar's supervision.

Skylar also released the four dead dolphins back into the sea.

To Skylar, they were the guardians of the sea.

He should release them back into the sea even if they died.

The four dolphins swam happily as soon as they were released into the sea.

As soon as they were released, they jumped and dove into the water, enjoying the taste of freedom.

Just when Skylar and Lola waved them goodbye with a smile, they turned around and swam toward the shore.

"Dad, is the little dolphin coming back to say goodbye to us?"

Lola immediately ran forward excitedly.

Skylar was worried that she would fall, so he quickly followed her.

When they reached the water's edge, the four dolphins poked their heads out, shaking their heads and tails at Skylar and Lola, as if they were talking about something.

Lola touched one of the dolphins.

The dolphin immediately became more cheerful.

"Wow, it likes me!"

Lola hugged the dolphin happily.

"They can't stay out of the water for too long, Sweetheart. Let's say goodbye to them first, and see them again when we have the chance, okay?"

Skylar caressed her head and said.

"Okay!"

Lola nodded and said goodbye to the dolphins.

As if they understood Skylar's words, the four dolphins whistled a few times, then dived into the sea and swam far away.

Then, Lola buried her head into Skylar's arms.

The family drove away.

The middle-aged man who was frightened, immediately became angry as soon as Skylar left.

He thought Skylar was too lazy to argue with him.

But just as he was about to get in the car and leave, a female voice called out to him.

"Trying to escape? It won't be that easy!"

The middle-aged man's heart trembled and looked at her.

He saw a beautiful woman looking at him expressionlessly.

It was Dianne.

She came to Sconvia a long time ago to finish constructing the Lover's Tower

When the dolphins were released back into the sea just now, Skylar sent her a message, ordering her to deal with the middle-aged man.

"You... who are you?"

The middle-aged man asked cautiously.

"You don't need to know who I am because you're about to die,"

Dianne snorted coldly, "You poisoned the dolphin that saved the Dragon King's life, and the Dragon King ordered me to bury you in the sea with the dolphins!"

"What did you say? Dragon King... wants to bury me in the sea?"

The face of the middle-aged man changed drastically.

He thought he had escaped from his consequences, but he did not expect that Skylar was just too lazy to do it himself.

Without waiting for the middle-aged man to react, Dianne picked him up like a chicken and swung his arm forward violently.

The middle-aged man flew in the air.

After a long time, he fell into the water.

Several workers around were shocked and speechless.

The middle-aged man was thrown into the sea two thousand meters away from the shore after being thrown by Dianne.

"Miss... our manager can't swim..."

One of the workers said boldly.

"Get lost! Otherwise, I'll feed you to the sharks too!"

Dianne snorted coldly, scaring the workers to flee the scene.

Dianne glanced at the sea and left.

Chapter 569 He's Filled With Seawater

On the way back, Skylar saw a nice restaurant, so he brought Yulia and Lola in, had a delicious dinner, and then returned to the Lucas Manor.

It was an eventful day.

The three of them took a bath and lay down on the bed.

Lola fell asleep quickly because she was excited to look at the dolphins.

Skylar and Yulia, who were next to her, did not feel sleepy.

Yulia covered Lola with a blanket, and couldn't help but ask Skylar, "Did you ask someone to add the dolphin protection constitution this afternoon?"

This question had been lingering in her mind all day.

Skylar was capable enough to do so and she was extremely shocked.

Seeing her curious look, Skylar twitched his lips, and said with a smirk, "I told someone to add it, but I think it's gonna be a long story if I explain about it,"

"I'm afraid we'll wake Lola up. Why don't we go to the next room where we can talk all night?"

As soon as the words "talk all night", Yulia's face flushed instantly.

"Rascal!" She gritted her teeth and glared at Skylar angrily.

This guy was full of seawater!

Yulia was arrogant and even though she let her heart loosen a little, she did not want this guy to succeed easily.

"Dear..."

Skylar said unwillingly.

Yulia scolded, "You don't need to explain it to me, I'm no longer curious! Go to sleep!"

With that said, she wrapped herself in the blanket.

She left Skylar alone in the dark.

The next morning, the family was having breakfast prepared by the servant. Clara walked in and said to Yulia,

A family of three was eating breakfast brought by the servant, Clara walked in and said to Yulia, "Yulia, Grandpa wants you to come over to have a family meeting,"

"A family meeting?" Yulia was slightly taken aback.

Clara nodded, "Well, Grandpa transferred 8% of the Lucas family's shares to you yesterday,"

"You're now the person who owns the most shares besides Grandpa and Uncle, so you shouldn't be absent whenever we have family meetings,"

Yulia thought for a while, then nodded, "Okay, I'll go after breakfast."

After Clara left, Skylar said to Yulia, "I'll go with you."

The Lucas family was big, some were happy and some were worried about Yulia's sudden return.

Shane cared about Yulia the most as he felt bad for her deceased mother, Phaedra.

Geoffrey, who went to Cloudtopia to tell Yulia to come back, and Han, who just came back from his meeting, were also there.

The others were difficult to deal with except for the three of them.

Especially for Jordan and his people, who were incredibly angry yesterday and might have figured out how to attack Yulia.

Skylar would not let Yulia face it alone.

Upon hearing Skylar's words, Yulia nodded without hesitation.

She could feel more at ease no matter what she was dealing with as long as Skylar was there.

After twenty-five minutes, Skylar's family walked into the Manor where the old man lived.

The interior of the Manor was elegantly decorated.

In the living room, there was a marble table and well-crafted chairs around it.

Shane sat in the middle and next to him was his eldest son, Logan.

Skylar scanned but did not see Geoffrey.

However, Jordan and others were also there.

Chapter 570 We'll Do as You Say

Upon seeing Skylar and Yulia enter the door, Shane waved enthusiastically, "Yulia, come and sit next to Grandpa,"

Yulia agreed and sat on the chair next to him.

The old man cleared his throat and said to everyone "I think everyone's here, we can start the meeting now,"

"I called everyone here to introduce my granddaughter Yulia to you,"

"She's Phaedra's only daughter, and she returned to the Lucas family yesterday morning,"

"I have already transferred the shares reserved for Phaedra to her,"

"In other words, Yulia has become one of the major shareholders of Lucas Enterprise,"

As soon as the old man finished speaking, Han applauded and Skylar followed.

Although Lola could not understand what the old man said, she clapped her little hands vigorously when she saw her father applauding.

The others present did not express anything.

They were unwilling to accept the old man's decision.

At this time, the eldest son of the old man, Logan, who was about to be the head of the Lucas family, glanced at Yulia, and said to the old man with displeasure, "Dad, although Yulia is Phaedra's daughter, she does not share the Lucas surname,"

"The third largest shareholder of the Lucas family turns out to be some outsider. I don't think it sounds good,"

Upon hearing his words, Skylar sneered.

He expected that the meeting would not be so smooth for Yulia.

Seeing that Logan disagreed, Jordan and the others agreed with him and started chattering.

"Uncle Logan is right, Yulia is an outsider, so why give her 8% of the shares, Geoffery's shares aren't even as much as hers!"

"Besides, she is married and has a child now. Aren't we just giving the shares to people with different surnames? It's unacceptable for us,"

Shane frowned and said nothing.

Logan said again, "Dad, everyone knows that you can't let go of Phaedra's death,"

"Now that you have found her daughter, you want to make up for it through this. We shouldn't have said anything,"

"However, I still can't help but ask, even if it's given to Yulia, does she have the ability to hold so many shares?"

"If she can't handle it and let outsiders take advantage of it, the shareholding structure of the Lucas Enterprise will change,"

"So I'm thinking of giving her a test to see whether she's capable of it,"

"If she can manage it, I'm in favor of giving her the shares."

"What is it?"

Yulia asked subconsciously.

Logan relaxed and said, "To negotiate a business,"

"It's just that the amount is a bit large, about 10 billion. If you can negotiate with the cooperation, I think no one in the Lucas family will question your ability,"

"Of course, I won't let you run in vain if you can't do so. You only need to return 7% of the shares given by Grandpa,"

"There's still one percent, and the annual dividend alone is enough for you to live lavishly in Cloudtopia,"

As soon as he said it, the living room fell silent.

Everyone's eyes flickered slightly, each with their thoughts.

Yulia cast a look at Skylar.

At this time, Han who was sitting on the side suddenly exclaimed, "Cooperation of tens of billions?"

"Isn't this someone else's project... Yulia, don't..."

However, before he finished speaking, Skylar said to Logan, "Yes, she'll do as you say!"
