Chapter 581 Someone Important

"See you at the family meeting." After saying these words, Skylor got into the car and left.

"Jordan, what should we do next?" A group of people hurriedly asked Jordan.

They had fewer shares and were more anxious than Jordan.

Jordan looked at Skylor and the others leaving, and grit his teeth, Darn it, I can't believe it, he's an outsider and the old man let them get away with it! We're going to have to transfer our shares to him,"

"Besides, even if the old man was confused, We still have Logan. Would he let some outsider step all over his head?"

"Let's go, we'll head back quickly so that Skylor won't slander us in front of the old man!"

"Okay, we're going home! I don't believe that the old man would disregard all of our feelings!"

"It's better to leave another plan for the future. If Skylor forces us to hand over the shares, I won't allow him to stay in the Lucos family!"

A group of people spoke harsh words to soothe their uneasiness.

As soon as they arrived at the Lucos manor, the bodyguard informed them that the old man was waiting for them in the living room.

In the living room, Shone was still sitting on his seat, while Skylor and Yulio sat near him.

As soon as they arrived at the Lucas manor, the bodyguard informed them that the old man was waiting for them in the living room.

In the living room, Shane was still sitting on his seat, while Skylar and Yulia sat near him.

At this moment, Logan hurried in with a few people behind him.

As soon as he entered the door, he glanced at Skylar and Yulia, and said, "Didn't you go to the Fitz Corporation to sign the contract? Why did you tell everyone to come back?"

"I need to approve so many documents in the company, I've been dealing with the both of you this morning,"

The person who told him to return said that it was Skylar and Yulia who asked Shane to call for a meeting.

At this moment, he was very dissatisfied.

He never thought that Skylar and Yulia had successfully negotiated with the Fitz family.

Something feels off.

He thought that no matter how much time was given, Skylar and Yulia would not be able to complete the task.

He planned the task to make things difficult for Yulia so that she would hand over 7% of her shares.

"What's the matter, tell me quickly!" Logan glared at Skylar.

Skylar sneered and said, "What's the hurry, someone important hasn't arrived yet!"

Seeing Skylar's arrogant appearance, Logan and others could not wait to slap him.

But Shane sat there silently, and they did not dare to be rude in front of him.

But Shane sat there silently, and they did not dare to be rude in front of him.

At this moment, Jordan and others arrived, they greeted the old man and Logan respectively, and sat down.

"Okay, everyone's here, let's start the meeting," Skylar said calmly.

A look of surprise flashed in the eyes of Logan and the others.

Since when did Jordan and others become someone important?

Regardless of what they thought, Skylar took out the contract and handed it to Logan, "The contract you prepared had already been signed by the Fitz family,"

"What?"

Logan exclaimed, he snatched the contract and read it.

The contract was the one he prepared.

When he turned to the last page and saw Walter's signature and seal, his brain suddenly roared.

"How can this be!"

Logan stood up abruptly, his eyes full of surprise and uncertainty.

The few people next to him also looked stunned.

The Fitz family had been fighting with the Lucas family for so many years, How was it possible to share the tens of billions of contracts with the Lucas family?

Chapter 582 Logan Is Annoyed

Moreover, the person who signed it turned out to be Wolter who hated the Lucos family the most!

That old man changed ever since he failed to marry the love of his life and he would curse at Shone whenever he saw him.

Skylor and Yulio were just outsiders, how could they make Wolter share tens of billions of projects regardless of his grudge against the Lucos family?

Whoever heard this would not believe it!

Of course, not only Logan and others could not believe it, but even Shone was shocked.

"Skylor, Yulio, is it true?"

Skylor nodded, "It's true!"

"To tell you the truth, Yulio is in charge of Koreem Fashion in Cloudtopio. Another big project launched by the Fitz Corporation cooperated with Yulio,"

"She and Amanda have already reached a strategic cooperation and still had to work together for a long time. So, it wasn't difficult to ask her about the project you proposed,"

After explaining, Skylar suddenly turned his attention to Logan, "According to your previous agreement, Yulio is now able to control the shares of the Lucas family in his hands, right?"

Logan and the others were annoyed.

Initially, they were still mocking them, but they did not expect that the proposal they prepared would benefit Skylar and Yulio.

"Skylar, Yulia, is it true?"

Skylar nodded, "It's true!"

"To tell you the truth, Yulia is in charge of Kareem Fashion in Cloudtopia. Another big project launched by the Fitz Corporation cooperated with Yulia,"

"She and Amanda have already reached a strategic cooperation and still had to work together for a long time. So, it wasn't difficult to ask her about the project you proposed,"

After explaining, Skylar suddenly turned his attention to Logan, "According to your previous agreement, Yulia is now able to control the shares of the Lucas family in his hands, right?"

Logan and the others were annoyed.

Initially, they were still mocking them, but they did not expect that the proposal they prepared would benefit Skylar and Yulia.

They were shameful.

"Okay, we're not people who break our promises. Since you have proven that you are capable, then we have nothing to say,"

Logan said embarrassingly.

At this time, Clara, who had been silent all this time, suddenly exclaimed.

"Kareem Fashion?"

"Yulia is the leader of Kareem Fashion?"

"So, the popular freckle cream and rejuvenating cream were formulated by Yulia?"

Clara was a woman, so she paid more attention to the skincare market than all the men present.

The previous freckle cream, promoted by Amanda, had been popular in Sconvia for several months.

Coupled with the new product that was released some time ago, the Rejuvenating Cream, Fitz's stock price rose by the limit for weeks.

She even heard that the rejuvenating cream had been scheduled for next month.

The Fitz family was building a factory, preparing to introduce Kareem's fashion technology, and the two were running full production at the same time, making preparations for entering the country and even going international.

Upon hearing what Clara said, Jordan and others also remembered the popularity of these products and changed how they looked at Skylar and Yulia.

Upon hearing what Clara said, Jordan and others also remembered the popularity of these products and changed how they looked at Skylar and Yulia.

All of them thought that since they already had a successful business, why would they want to hold the Lucas family shares?

"Are you done? I'm going back to the company,"

Logan felt dull and wanted to leave as soon as possible.

However, just as he stood up, Skylar said quietly, "Wait a minute, I still have something else to say,"

"Before Yulia and I went to the Fitz Corporation, Jordan and others stopped me and asked for a higher bet,"

"According to the agreement, if Yulia and I can get Mr. Fitz to sign the contract, the eight of them will transfer 1% of the Lucas family's shares to Yulia,"

"The agreement was drawn up by them, and they proposed the bet, and they signed it. Please be a witness,"

With that said Skylar put the agreement signed by Jordan and others on the table next to Shane.

Jordan's face suddenly darkened.

He thought Skylar did not dare to talk about this matter.

Unexpectedly, he was wrong.

This was Sconvia, their haven!

Chapter 583 You Won't Live Long

Skylar, an outsider from a rural area, forced them to hand over their shares.

Was he not afraid of being beaten up by them?

"Skylar, don't you know what it means to be good to each other?" Jordan said viciously.

"We said that we were just kidding. Why would you bring this matter in front of the old man?" Another person from the Lucas family said angrily.

Logan's face darkened.

He thought that if they acted according to the agreement, Jordan and others would give Yulio 1% of the shares respectively.

Then, Yulio would become the second largest shareholder of the Lucas family.

If that were the case, he would have to follow Yulio's orders during family meetings.

He could never accept such an outcome.

He sat back on his seat, slammed the table, and cursed at Jordan and the others, "Why do you guys love gambling so much?"

"The old man gave you shares so that you can make a career on this basis!"

"And you just gambled away all the shares. Are you worthy of the old man's painstaking efforts?"

"We're sorry, Uncle Logon! We were wrong!"

Jordon and the others quickly bowed and admitted their mistake. Skylar, an outsider from a rural area, forced them to hand over their shares.

Jordan and the others quickly bowed and admitted their mistake.

"It's alright, all of you are young and ignorant. I'll let you off the hook since this is the first time,"

"If you make the same mistake again, you'll have to return the shares to Grandpa!"

"Yes! We wouldn't do it again!"

Jordan and the others were secretly delighted and quickly agreed.

The next moment, they looked at Skylar with mocking faces.

They seemed to be saying, "You never expected this huh?"

How could Uncle Logan watch as you and Yulia take away our shares?

Uncle Logan was the one who would be the head of the family. As long as he opposed, the old man would not be able to refute his majesty.

But Skylar did not take Logan seriously.

He expected Logan to handle the matter like that.

At that moment, he asked Shane, "Old man, what do you think?"

Shane was in a dilemma.

Although he had a lot of preference for Yulia because of his guilt towards Phaedra.

But Jordan and others were also his grandchildren.

Of course, he did not want to see them end up with nothing.

After pondering for a moment, Shane said, "Skylar, Yulia, Grandpa knows that Jordan and the others must have made a mistake in increasing the bet."

"I need to lecture on this matter,"

"I need to lecture on this matter,"

"However, Logan's words were also reasonable. I gave shares to your juniors to provide you with a good life and good conditions to start a business, not for you to bet against each other,"

"So, this agreement isn't valid"

After speaking, he took Yulia's hand and continued, "Yulia, I'll tell Jordan and the others to apologize to you and everything ends here,"

"We're family after all,"

Upon hearing the old man's words, Jordan and others became arrogant.

"Skylar, Yulia, did you hear that? Both Grandpa and Uncle Logan said that shares in the Lucas family cannot be regarded as bets, so this agreement isn't valid!"

They were not afraid of Skylar and Yulia as they were supported by Logan and the old man.

Yulia could not make up her mind and looked at Skylar.

She was used to letting Skylar make the decision.

And Skylar glanced at everyone and sneered, "As I said, anyone who dares to take advantage of me will not live long!"

Chapter 584 Why Should I Care About You

He said it before.

If Shone agreed to increase the bet, Jordan and others escaped from it.

Otherwise, he was not sure whether Jordan and the others could bear his anger.

However, to Jordan and others, these words seemed like empty lies.

They looked at Skylar mockingly.

So what if I owed you money?

This is Sconvio.

Do you think you're someone important?

At that moment, Skylar did not bother to talk to them anymore, he picked up Lolo, took Yulio's hand, and left the meeting hall.

Cloro quickly followed.

After leaving the meeting hall, Cloro said to Skylar worriedly, "Please don't do anything crazy, Skylar,"

"This is Sconvio and you're still newcomers. Although you're friends with Miss Amondo, you still haven't proven yourself yet,"

"Uncle Logon and Jordan have been in Sconcio for decades, and they have a wide circle of people, so please don't let them take advantage of you,"

"Logon?" Skylar sneered, "Don't worry, Cloro, Logon can't catch me at all, let alone Jordan and others,"

Clara quickly followed.

After leaving the meeting hall, Clara said to Skylar worriedly, "Please don't do anything crazy, Skylar,"

"This is Sconvia and you're still newcomers. Although you're friends with Miss Amanda, you still haven't proven yourself yet,"

"Logan?" Skylar sneered, "Don't worry, Clara, Logan can't catch me at all, let alone Jordan and others,"

"Skylar!"

Clara was so angry that he called Skylar by his name again.

This guy is so ignorant.

Moreover, he did not know how to understand her efforts.

"Why am I making myself mad, why should I care about you!" Clara gritted her teeth.

At this moment, an old voice came from behind.

"Yulia, wait!"

Yulia turned her head and saw Shane walking towards them.

"Grandpa, why did you come out?" Yulia asked suspiciously.

Shane walked to Yulia, and said earnestly, "I know you have been wronged earlier, Yulia,"

"I know Jordan's behavior. But no matter what, they are all my grandsons after all. I had to consider their feelings,"

"In terms of the share distribution, they are already very unbalanced. If they were to return the shares, they will hate me,"

"We're all family after all, and I have so many grandchildren, It's not easy being the head of the family!"

"However, I don't want you to feel aggrieved, so I'll allocate another 8% of the shares to you from my own as compensation."

"This matter between Jordan ends here, what do you think?"

"This matter between Jordan ends here, what do you think?"

Upon hearing Shane's words, Clara was startled.

Did the old man care about Yulia to this extent?

Similarly, Yulia was also surprised.

Unexpectedly, he was afraid that she would be unhappy, the old man would give her 8% of his shares.

At that moment, she said very moved, "Grandpa, I'm touched because of your words,"

"However, there is no need for shares. Don't worry, I'll tell Skylar not to trouble Jordan and the others,"

"This matter ends here,"

"No no no,"

Shane immediately shook his head and said, "You're so sensible because you care about me,"

"I can't let you suffer from all that without compensation,"

"How about I give you 4% of the shares instead of 8%, what do you think?"

"I'll give you another 4% of the shares, so adding the previous ones, you have 12% of the shares, which is the same as Logan's shares,"

"Is this okay?"

After speaking, Shane looked at Skylar.

Chapter 585 Who Did You Learn This From?

Through his observations, he noticed that Yulio never fought for everything, unlike Skylar.

He sat there silently and there was ruthlessness in his bones.

Now that Shane had been humbled, Skylar nodded and said, "Okay, let the matter end there for the sake of Mr. Lucas,"

"However, they won't be able to get away so easily if it happened again,"

"Let's go back, Yulio,"

With that said, Skylar pulled Yulio and walked towards Floccesy Tower.

Cloro went back to her place.

When they were all gone, Jordon and others came out from a bush.

He said angrily, "Grandpa, why do you keep giving Yulio shoes?"

"Even if she is Aunt Phoedro's daughter, she doesn't have our surname. We're the descendants of the Lucas family!"

Shane glared at him fiercely, "Didn't I tell you, that you shouldn't ask about something you shouldn't know?"

Jordon and the others closed their mouths in embarrassment, watching Shane leave.

In Floccesy Tower, Skylar's family was resting on the sofa in the living room when a servant came to report that Shane had sent someone to deliver the equity transfer letter.

In Floccessy Tower, Skylar's family was resting on the sofa in the living room when a servant came to report that Shane had sent someone to deliver the equity transfer letter.

After signing her name, Yulia officially owned 12% of Lucas Group's shares.

She was on an equal footing with the eldest son of the Lucas family, Logan, who became the second largest shareholder of the Lucas family.

"Yulia, I'm going to run some errands in the afternoon, can you accompany Lola?" Skylar said suddenly.

Yulia guessed what he wanted to do, and just as she was about to nod her head, Lola ran over, shook Skylar's arm, and said coquettishly, "Daddy, I wanna go too,"

"Be good, sweetheart, Daddy has something important to do, so I can't take you with me,"

Skylar hugged her and explained patiently.

"Daddy, are you going to leave me and Mommy to meet with other girls?"

Lola stared at Skylar suspiciously.

Skylar almost burst out laughing, "Lola, where did you learn this from? Did Willa teach you this?"

"No, no, I thought about it myself,"

Lola shook her head as she was afraid that she might get her classmates in trouble.

"Sweetheart, stay at home with Mommy and be a good girl. I'll bring you to meet up with the pretty lady some other day," Skylar laughed.

"Huh? The beautiful lady also came to Sconvia?"

Lola's eyes brightened.

Lola's eyes brightened.

"Well, the beautiful lady came to Sconvia before us, do you miss her?" Skylar asked.

Lola nodded vigorously, "Yes, I miss her. Daddy, can you bring me to her some other day?"

"However, Daddy you have to promise me not to see other ladies when you go out later, or else, Mommy will be sad and I'll be angry,"

"Okay, I promise!" Skylar agreed helplessly.

Fortunately, he was not a man who messes with women, otherwise, he would have been able to hide it from his wife, but not from his daughter.

After leaving Lucas Manor, Skylar got into the jeep parked by the roadside.

Dianne had been waiting for a while.

On the way, Skylar asked Dianne, "Has the foundation been laid for Lover's Tower?"

"I hired six construction teams at the same time, with a division of labor and a 24-hour shift system. The progress is very fast,"

"Currently the building has reached the top, We're left with the exterior and interior decorations," Dianne reported.

"Splendid," Skylar nodded, expressing his satisfaction.

Chapter 586 He'll Die a Horrible Death

"Where do you want to go, Boss?" Dionne asked.

"I need Mox's location, it's time he pays back what he owes me," Skylar's eyes flashed, and he said coldly.

He came to Sconvia this time not only to fulfill the old man's wish after being invited by Geoffrey but he was also after Mox.

After Mox returned to Sconvio from Cloudtopio, not only did he fail to fulfill his promise, but also asked his grandfather to use the power of the Nonling Chamber of Commerce to suppress Koreem Fashion.

At the same time, the freckle cream formula obtained by illegal means was used to produce the same type of products, which brought huge profits for Koreem Fashion.

It was time to settle the account.

Hearing Skylar's words, Dionne nodded, dialed a number, and gave some instructions.

After a while, she received a text from the other party, glanced at it, and reported to Skylar, "Boss, Mox is now in a private club called Veilstone Hills,"

"Okay, let's head there," Skylar ordered.

"Yes, sir!" Dionne started the car and drove to Veilstone Hills.

At the same time in Veilstone Hills, a large group of wealthy people were gathering.
"Where do you want to go, Boss?" Dianne asked.

"I need Max's location, it's time he pays back what he owes me," Skylar's eyes flashed, and he said coldly.

He came to Sconvia this time not only to fulfill the old man's wish after being invited by Geoffrey but he was also after Max.

After Max returned to Sconvia from Cloudtopia, not only did he fail to fulfill his promise, but also asked his grandfather to use the power of the Nanling Chamber of Commerce to suppress Kareem Fashion.

At the same time, the freckle cream formula obtained by illegal means was used to produce the same type of products, which brought huge profits for Kareem Fashion.

It was time to settle the account.

Hearing Skylar's words, Dianne nodded, dialed a number, and gave some instructions.

"Okay, let's head there," Skylar ordered.

"Yes, sir!" Dianne started the car and drove to Veilstone Hills.

At the same time in Veilstone Hills, a large group of wealthy people were gathering.

They like to plan some receptions, and charity parties, and find reasons for themselves to eat, drink and be merry when they neglect their business every day.

More than thirty minutes passed, and Skylar and Dianne got out of the jeep and walked towards the entrance of Veilstone Hills.

"Sir and Madam, please show me your invitation,"

Two bodyguards in black suits stopped them at the door.

"I don't have an invitation,"

Skylar glanced at the bodyguard and said calmly.

The two bodyguards immediately said with a look of wariness, "Sir, the poster said no one is allowed to enter without an invitation!"

Just as Skylar wanted to reply to him, a playful voice suddenly came from behind.

"Skylar, you even have a black card, but no one sent you an invitation?"

Skylar turned his head and suddenly saw the former squad leader, Louis, wearing a neat suit, walking over as he mocked him.

Earlier in the aquarium, he and his daughter were wiped out by Skylar, which made him very upset.

Seeing that Skylar did not have an invitation, he seized the opportunity and laughed at him.

Before Skylar could reply, Louis said, "Since you were my subordinate, I can consider bringing you to see the world,"

Before Skylar could reply, Louis said, "Since you were my subordinate, I can consider bringing you to see the world,"

"Today's reception was held by Max, the eldest son of the Kent family. It took me a lot of effort to get the invitation,"

"I'll take you in and meet a few rich young men and young ladies if you beg me. Maybe it can save you ten years of struggle,"

Skylar shook his head, "There's no need,"

"An invitation can't stop me from entering. There is no place in this world that I can't go to."

"The wealthy people you want to curry favor with can't even catch my eyes,"

"Skylar!"

Louis shouted angrily.

He felt that Skylar did not take him seriously.

Skylar was too lazy to him, and said to the two bodyguards, "I'm not interested in attending this reception,"

"How about this? Can you help me tell Max that Skylar has come to collect what he owes,"

"If he is sensible and pays back the money he owes me, that's the end of the matter,"

"Otherwise, I'll collect everything he owes me since he was in Cloudtopia,"

"He would die a horrible death!"

Chapter 587 Louis' Jealousy

Upon hearing these words, everyone around was dumbfounded.

"Collecting debts?"

Soon Louis came to his senses.

"Skylor, are you delusional?"

"Mr. Kent is from a wealthy family in Sconvio,"

"The Kent family has hundreds of billions of assets, why would they need to borrow money from you?"
At this moment, the bodyguards also looked at Skylor mockingly.

They thought that Skylor escaped from a psychiatric hospital.

How dare he come here, ask Mox for money and say that he would die a painful death?

How ridiculous!

"Get lost! Don't blame us for using force on you!" One of the bodyguards scolded Skylor.

Louis, on the other hand, stood beside him glottingly, watching the excitement.

Skylor snorted coldly, "We can do this the easy way or the hard way, but you chose the hard way,"

"I told you to tell him about this, but you chose to ignore me, you leave me no choice but to go in by myself,"

With that said Skylar walked into the entrance of Veilstone Hills.

"Stop!"

Seeing that Skylar was barging in, the bodyguards were startled and angry and tried to stop him.

At this moment, there was a beautiful female voice.

Upon hearing these words, everyone around was dumbfounded.

Seeing that Skylar was barging in, the bodyguards were startled and angry and tried to stop him.

At this moment, there was a beautiful female voice.

"Stop!"

The two bodyguards were taken aback for a moment.

Immediately, a young woman with cold eyes and a beautiful face appeared in front of everyone.

It turned out to be Yanice.

"Miss Mason!" The bodyguard greeted her respectfully.

"Miss Mason, you also come to today's reception!"

Seeing Yanice, Louis was overjoyed and greeted her flatteringly.

Before Yanice could open his mouth, he pointed at Skylar and said, "Miss Mason, calm down, you should blame this reckless and ignorant guy, who insisted on attending today's reception without an invitation, and even said that..."

"Skylar!"

Before Louis finished speaking, he was interrupted by Yanice.

She saw that a fight was about to break out at the entrance and called out.

Only now did she see clearly that the person who wanted to fight with the bodyguards was Skylar.

At that moment, she walked in Skylar's direction with some surprise.

Louis choked on his words, he was embarrassed.

Seeing that Yanice knew Skylar, his jealousy towards Skylar became more intense.

The two bodyguards also asked unexpectedly, "Miss Mason, do you know this runt?"

"Who did you say was a runt? How impolite can you be?"

"Who did you say was a runt? How impolite can you be?"

"He's my friend, can you be more respectful?" Yanice frowned.

"Sorry, Miss Mason, we didn't know this,"

The two bodyguards quickly bowed and admitted their mistake.

Although the Mason family was not as rich and powerful as the Kent family, she was also from one of the ten most powerful families in Sconvia.

Yanice was not someone the guards could offend.

"It's fine, do your jobs. I'm taking him in," Yanice waved her hands.

The two bodyguards did not dare to refuse her orders, agreed, and stepped aside.

"Let's go, Skylar," Yanice said.

"Thank you, Miss Mason."

Skylar nodded and followed her with Dianne.

"Damn it, this kid knows Miss Mason!" Louis cursed silently.

But the next moment, he laughed sinisterly.

"Hmph, let him go in!"

"Didn't he say that Max owed him money? I'd like to see how it goes and how he'd make Max die a horrible death!"

With that said Louis quickened his pace and walked in Skylar's direction.

Chapter 588 Would You Show Yourself?

In the reception hall of Veilstone Hills, a group of young men and women were in fine attire, holding wine glasses and laughing happily.

Before entering the door, Yanice finally couldn't help asking Skylar, "Who is this person next to you?"

When she went to Fitz Corporation yesterday, she met Yulio and Lolo.

Seeing Skylar next to a young and beautiful woman she could not help but overthink.

He thought Skylar was a promiscuous man.

However, before Skylar opened his mouth, Dionne took the initiative to say, "Miss Mason, my name is Dionne, and I am the Dragon King's subordinate,"

"Dragon King?" Yanice was a little confused.

Why was he called the Dragon King?

What year was it? Who even says the Dragon King now?

However, she was not very familiar with Skylar.

Skylar did not intend to explain, and she did not want to ask about it, so she changed the subject and said, "Why did you come here when you don't have an invitation?"

Skylar shook his head, "I'm not interested in receptions,"

"I'm just looking for someone,"

Just as Yanice was about to ask him who he was looking for, a group of people at the door suddenly cheered.

In the reception hall of Veilstone Hills, a group of young men and women were in fine attire, holding wine glasses and laughing happily.

Before entering the door, Yanice finally couldn't help asking Skylar, "Who is this person next to you?"

When she went to Fitz Corporation yesterday, she met Yulia and Lola.

Seeing Skylar next to a young and beautiful woman she could not help but overthink.

He thought Skylar was a promiscuous man.

However, before Skylar opened his mouth, Dianne took the initiative to say, "Miss Mason, my name is Dianne, and I am the Dragon King's subordinate,"

"Dragon King?" Yanice was a little confused.

Skylar shook his head, "I'm not interested in receptions,"

"I'm just looking for someone,"

Just as Yanice was about to ask him who he was looking for, a group of people at the door suddenly cheered.

Everyone in the hall immediately followed.

"Mr. Kent is here!"

"Wow, the clothes that Mr. Kent is wearing were the latest piece released in Milan yesterday! He's so quick to get his hands on them!"

"He's so handsome!"

A group of men and women immediately surrounded Max, scrambling to curry favor.

Skylar also looked at Max who was in the center of the crowd.

Yanice thought Skylar had never met Max, so she kindly introduced, "He organized today's reception, his name is Max,"

"He is the eldest son of the Kent family. His grandfather Dante handed over the position of head of the family to his father, and he still retains the position of the director of the Nirth Commerce,"

"So, even though the Kent family is only ranked fifth in terms of assets in Sconvia, they have a lot of say in the business community..."

Before she finished speaking, Skylar took Dianne and walked towards Max.

This time, Yanice's impression of Skylar changed, and she returned to her original state.

He did not let her finish speaking.

Why was he so impatient to butter Max up?

How snobbish.

Yanice bit her lip, regretting that she should not have given Skylar a good face.

How snobbish.

Yanice bit her lip, regretting that she should not have given Skylar a good face.

At this time, Louis, who was not far away, saw Max walking towards him, so he quickly got up and greeted him.

"Mr. Kent, I'm Louis. When I entered the door just now, there was a guy who barged in without an invitation, saying he was here to collect the debt you owe him,"

"Collecting debt from Mr. Kent?"

All the people around Max who were fawning at him burst into laughter.

"Who is this idiot? How dare he brag about such things? He probably doesn't know how wealthy the Kent family is!"

"I can still understand if he wants to talk about emotional debt. If he wants to talk about money, he's just delusional. Did he watch too many movies?"

"How could Mr. Kent owe a guy his feelings? As far as I know, Mr. Kent isn't gay,"

Everyone laughed again.

At this time, a young man who was full of vigor said proudly, "Did he come in?"

"Who is it, show yourself!"

"I, Angelo, will pay for whatever Mr. Kent owes!"

"I dare to pay for it, would you dare to show yourself?"

"Huh? Are you scored?"

As soon as Angelo finished speaking, Skylor stood up with Dionne.

For a moment, all eyes were on them.

Seeing Skylor and Dionne, Mox's heart shuddered, and his whole body felt cold.

Hearing from Louis that there was someone who stood at the door that he wanted to collect his debt, he immediately thought of Skylor.

He felt that Skylor would never dare to find him in his territory.

He never expected that what he was worried about would happen.

But right now everyone's attention was on Skylor and Dionne, and no one noticed that his expression had changed.

"Was he the one who said was gonna collect Mr. Kent's debt?"

Angelo took a look at Skylor and asked disdainfully.

Louis, who was on the side, was happy.

He never expected that Skylor would dare to show himself.

So what if he had money?

He's just a fool!

He was going to use Mox to trample on Skylor!

With that in mind, Louis hurriedly said to Angelo, "That's him, Mr. Kent!"

"He was very arrogant on the entrance. He said that if you pay back what you owe him, he would let things end there,"

"Huh? Are you scared?"

As soon as Angelo finished speaking, Skylar stood up with Dianne.

For a moment, all eyes were on them.

Seeing Skylar and Dianne, Max's heart shuddered, and his whole body felt cold.

Hearing from Louis that there was someone who said at the door that he wanted to collect his debt, he immediately thought of Skylar.

"If you don't pay it back, he'll have to settle it one by one and make you die a horrible death!"

After finishing speaking, Louis looked at Skylar leisurely.

Upon hearing his words, Max's followers immediately shouted.

"How arrogant!"

"Where did this rascal come from, does he not know how powerful the Kent family is? How dare he threaten Mr. Kent?"

"I'll teach you a lesson for Mr. Kent if you're still being presumptuous,"

A group of people scrambled in front of Max.

Even Yanice who stood there, thinking that Skylar and Dianne were going to curry favor with Max, her face changed drastically.

"Tell me, how much does Mr. Kent owe you? If it's not too much, I'll pay it for him,"

Angelo said very arrogantly.

He thought to himself, if Skylar asked for one hundred thousand or two hundred thousand, then he would give it to him.

Skylar sneered, "Not much, just 100 billion!"

"Boom!"

Everyone was stunned and it was silent.

Everyone was stunned and it was silent.

What?

One hundred billion?

This number shocked everyone.

After a long time, they looked at each other, their eyes full of surprise and uncertainty.

"What did this kid say? Mr. Kent owes him 100 billion?"

"Impossible! What did Mr. Kent do to owe a hundred billion dollars?"

"That's right, this kid doesn't even have 100 billion, so he wanted to say that Mr. Kent owes him 100 billion,"

Everyone looked at Skylar like a fool.

But Skylar was calm while everyone's hearts thumped.

Was he this powerful?

Louis, on the other hand, was speechless.

One hundred billion?

No one in the world could tolerate Skylar.

How awesome is he? Why doesn't he go to heaven?

Skylar did not care what they thought, and said to Angelo, "Didn't you just keep saying that you want to help Max pay the money back?"

"He owes me 100 billion, you should pay up!"

"I'll accept it as long as you pay up!"

Chapter 590 I'll Make You Pay

Angelo was embarrassed, he wanted to reply to Skylar, but considering the money in his cord, he could not speak up.

Their family's total assets did not exceed one billion dollars, which was not bad for ordinary people, but at today's reception, it was just entry-level.

He could not borrow 100 billion dollars.

At this moment, Mox could not hold back anymore.

He faced Skylor and said coldly, "Skylor, you're talking nonsense!"

"When did I owe you money? Why would I owe you 100 billion dollars?"

Mox thought that he did not leave any evidence of him borrowing the money.

Therefore, he denied it, and there was no such thing as owing him money.

Hearing Mox's words, everyone around immediately became angry.

"How dare you say he owes you 100 billion?"

"There should be evidence!"

"That's right, you should show the loan contract!"

"Also, there must be a witness for borrowing such a large amount of money,"

Seeing that Skylor was silent, a middle-aged man next to Mox stood up and sneered, "Just a hundred billion?"

"According to your approach, if I say that you owe me 100 billion, should I pay you back?"

Angelo was embarrassed, he wanted to reply to Skylar, but considering the money in his card, he could not speak up.

Hearing his words, everyone present immediately burst into laughter.

"Well said!"

"I think he's just dreaming!"

"Is your brain stimulated, and do you have mental problems?"

The middle-aged man said proudly to Skylar, "Kid, you broke into the reception hall and talked nonsense. You have already committed harassment, defamation, and extortion against my client, Mr. Kent,"

"If you dare to mess around again, just wait for the lawyer's letter!"

"Once you cause trouble with the Supervision Department, you'll be in prison."

The middle-aged man's words were full of threats.

Max, who was on the side, looked at Skylar jokingly.

In Cloudtopia, he was a foreigner, so it was normal for him not to be able to beat Skylar.

But once he was back in Sconvia, it was different.

This was his home.

The Kent family was powerful. He did not have to be afraid of a kid from Cloudtopia!

It was a bright day, and there was a lawyer beside him, so he believed that Skylar would not do something funny to him.

Yanice, who was standing there, hurried over and whispered to Skylar, "Skylar, don't be so stubborn!"

Yanice, who was standing there, hurried over and whispered to Skylar, "Skylar, don't be so stubborn!"

"This is Sconvia, hurry up and apologize to Mr. Kent, and I'll say a few more words for you,"

"If things get serious, it's over!"

At this moment, in her eyes, Skylar was just a reckless man with a stubborn mind.

He was straightforward.

If Max was offended, Skylar was going to be killed, even if the Lucas family came forward, it would be difficult to dismiss him.

Skylar glanced at her and he remained silent, instead, he sneered at the middle-aged man and said, "Really?"

Before the middle-aged man could speak, he turned his eyes to Max, and said quietly, "Max, I know you're happy because you didn't leave any evidence on that day,"

"But let me tell you, I don't need evidence at all because your grave has already been dug,"

"I said you owe me 100 billion, then you owe me that amount. If you don't admit it, I'll make you pay it back,"

"If the Kent family owes any more debts, I'll make you and your family disappear,"
