Chapter 591 I'll Send You to Hell

When everyone heard his words, their expressions became strange.

For a while, they did not know how to describe their feelings.

Make Mox disappear? Make the entire Kent family disappear?

It would take a very capable person to do so!

Not to mention a little kid from a small town.

There were not many people who were qualified to do so in Sconville and Nocona.

That was insane!

How arrogant!

"Shut up, Skylor!"

Yvonne was about to die of anger.

Didn't he provoke Mox enough?

Why did he have to drag the Kent family into this?

Even if Skylor was friends with Yvonne, it would not help him at that moment.

On the other hand, Louis, who had been watching the excitement, was beyond words.

Initially, he wanted to thank Mox for teaching Skylor a lesson.

Unexpectedly, not only Skylor was unprepared, but even romped himself into the muzzle of the gun, forcing Mox to get angry.

He was looking for death!

Just because he was a nouveau riche, could he compete with the Kent family?

When everyone heard his words, their expressions became strange.

For a while, they did not know how to describe their feelings.

Make Max disappear? Make the entire Kent family disappear?

It would take a very capable person to do so!

Not to mention a little kid from a small town.

There were not many people who were qualified to do so in Sconvia and Nacrene.

That was insane!

How arrogant!

Yvonne was about to die of anger.

Unexpectedly, not only Skylar was unprepared, but even rammed himself into the muzzle of the gun, forcing Max to get angry.

He was looking for death!

Just because he was a nouveau riche, could he compete with the Kent family?

In his dreams!

"Skylar, do you need me to repeat what I just said?"

"If you're still causing trouble, I'll sue you..."

The middle-aged man took a step forward and said to Skylar sternly.

Skylar covered his ears, "How noisy!"

Dianne had a stern look, she took a step forward and slapped the middle-aged man's cheek fiercely.

"Slap!"

There was a loud snap!

There was a bright red palm print on his left cheek.

Half of his face swelled.

"I'm a lawyer, how dare you assault me!"

The middle-aged man covered his face, pointed at Dianne, and exclaimed.

The lawyers who could stand beside Max were the best in their industry.

A lawyer like him could manipulate right from wrong and wrong from right.

The richer the family, the more lawsuits and disputes are unavoidable. That Middle-aged man was in high demand in Sconvia.

Even Max had to show him courtesy.

He was afraid of offending him, so he did not know what to do if he did so.

Not only did Skylar and Dianne ignore his warning, she even dared to slap him in public.

How rude!

"If you say one more word, I'll make her kill you!"

Skylar glanced at him and said calmly.

"You..."

The middle-aged man wanted to shout, but when he saw the murderous intent in Skylar's eyes, he suddenly felt chills all over his body.

He opened his mouth, but he was silent.

The people around were also shocked by Dianne's ruthlessness.

Skylar did not care what they thought, and said to Max, "When I was in Cloudtopia, I told you to make a choice."

"I'll give you another chance,"

"Pay me 100 billion, or I'll send you to hell!"

As soon as Skylar spoke, Diane took out the Dragon Dagger.

The Dragon Dagger was pitch black, but it shone with a bloodthirsty light.

Everyone present felt their scalps go numb.

Back then in the Cloudtopia Hotel room, the feeling of fear swept over Max again.

He took two steps back and said nervously, "Skylar... I..."

Chapter 592 A Crash

Skylor looked at him quietly.

Mox was horrified to see him.

He felt that even if he did not bow his head, the Dragon Dagger in Dionne's hand would immediately plunge into his heart.

"What's wrong, Mr. Kent?"

At the critical moment, a large number of bodyguards in black suits suddenly rushed through the door.

There were thirty or forty of them.

Most of them were holding electric batons, and some even had guns.

To frighten Skylor and Dionne, he already pulled it out and held it in his hand.

As soon as they entered the door, they immediately surrounded Mox to protect him.

Seeing so many bodyguards coming in, everyone in the hall immediately felt relieved.

The middle-aged man who claimed to be a lawyer, pointed at Skylor and ordered the bodyguard, "This man found that he could not blackmail Mr. Kent, so he became angry and wanted to assault him. Send him to the Sconvio police station at once"

Everyone was looking at Skylor as their eyes brightened.

Even if Dionne was good at martial arts, she was just a woman.

How could she fight thirty or forty bodyguards armed with electric batons?

Can he still fight thirty or forty bodyguards with electric batons?
Skylar looked at him quietly.

Even if Dianne was good at martial arts, she was just a woman.

How could she fight thirty or forty bodyguards armed with electric batons?

Can he still fight thirty or forty bodyguards with electric batons?

Moreover, there were a few of them with guns.

They wanted to see how Skylar would react.

"Mr. Kent..."

Yvonne could not stand it any longer, she walked closer, and pleaded with Max, "Skylar is my friend, and I'm close with Amanda, the eldest daughter of the Fitz family,"

"What he said just now was a little rash. I'll tell him and his subordinate to apologize to you. All of us are adults, let's settle things the easy way,"

As soon as she finished her sentence, Yvonne whispered to Skylar, "Skylar, apologize quickly!"

"If you go on like this, Amanda and I won't be able to protect you."

Skylar glanced at her, smiled lightly, and said, "Aren't they just bodyguards? They're not worthy of me,"

After saying that, Skylar's expression froze, and said to the middle-aged man, "I told you I was going to have someone kill you if you spoke one more word,"

"Since you want to die so much, then I'll grant your wish!"

"Dianne!"

"Yes, sir!" Dianne walked towards the middle-aged man.

"Skylar, you!"

Yvonne saw that her painstaking efforts were ignored, and her face turned green with anger, "Why are you making things hard for yourself, can't you see that I'm helping you?"

If it wasn't for her best friend Clara, she would not bother to care about his death.

She had never seen such an arrogant man like Skylar!

Does he think he could beat thirty or forty bodyguards with his subordinate?

The middle-aged man who heard Skylar's words on the opposite side immediately mocked him, "You're about to die, kid, and you still want to kill me?"

"Do you think you can do so?"

As he spoke, he ordered the bodyguards, "Get him!"

"Yes, sir!"

The bodyguards standing around waved the electric batons in their hands and rushed toward Dianne and Skylar.

Dianne was the closest to them, and she was targeted first.

However, everyone heard a loud bang when they were a few feet away from Dianne.

The next moment, they saw some bodyguards rushing to the front, as if they had been hit by some huge shock, they rolled back.

Then it hit the bodyguard behind him.

In just a few seconds, all of them rolled on the ground, howling in pain.

They could not even touch Dianne's clothes!

But for Dianne, these well-trained bodyguards were like farm animals, and they collapsed after a touch.

Chapter 593 It's Easier to Kill You

"Uhh..."

Seeing the bodyguards on the ground, everyone was stunned.

Thirty or forty bodyguards wielding electric batons could not beat a young and beautiful woman?

No!

This was not a beating!

The bodyguards were defeated without even touching Dianne.

They were pressed to the ground rolling.

Dianne ignored the bodyguards, held the Dragon Dagger, and continued walking toward the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man gulped and stared at Dianne warily, he said, "You, what do you want?"

"Do you dare to kill me in broad daylight when everyone is watching?"

"I'm a well-known lawyer in Sconvia... I'll sue you for bankruptcy if you dare to hurt me..."

"Bargaining?"

Dianne smiled, "I think it would be easier to kill you,"

Although Dianne smiled, her voice was cold, and her gaze was colder.

At this moment, she was not some glamorous woman, but an iron-blooded rose admired by many.

The middle-aged man felt scared, he took two steps back and shouted, "Quick, kill her!"

"Dianne, look out!"

Not far away, Yvonne exclaimed.

Among the bodyguards who were lying on the ground, a few stood up and aimed their guns at Dianne.

Hearing the middle-aged man's cry, the bodyguards tightened their grip and were about to pull the trigger.

Yvonne's face turned pale with fright.

She cursed Skylar in her heart.

It was because of his words that his subordinate was going to be killed.

The people watching were gloating.

They were all invited to the reception held by Max, so they stood by Max's side.

Moreover, Skylar was just a kid from the countryside to them.

Was it possible for an outsider to overwhelm the limelight of their local wealth?

The middle-aged man could not help but grin.

You wanna kill me, lady?

Is your dagger faster than a bullet?

However, in the next second, everyone froze.

There were not any gunshots.

Instead, there were a few screams.

Ah!

The wrists of the bodyguards with guns were cut open by something, and blood oozed out.

Then, their hands and their guns broke!

They fell to the ground as blood gushed out from their wounds!

The scene was extremely frightening!

"Ah!"

Several bodyguards clutched their wounds and screamed again.

Upon seeing this scene, everyone's faces turned pale with fright, and kept silent.

What's going on?

Who cut off all the bodyguards' hands?

No one was moving!

They looked at Skylar and Dianne and Skylar's eyes were still fixed on Max.

On the other hand, Dianne was staring at the middle-aged man intently.

At this moment, someone suddenly exclaimed, "Look at the dagger!"

Everyone looked over immediately.

They saw the Dragon Dagger in Dianne's hand that was stained with blood as blood dripped on the floor.

Everyone trembled.

Did she do it?

But they did not see anything!

What is this? Did she use magic?

How scary...

No one knew how Dianne managed to cut off the bodyguards' hands before they fired their guns!

They thought that there was no weapon faster than bullets.

However, Dianne managed to go past five or six pistols.

"I... I'll be quiet, I won't say another word..."

The middle-aged man's face turned pale in an instant, and he begged for mercy.

Chapter 594 On the Verge of Death

" Too late!"

Dianne interrupted him.

At the same time, she waved the Dragon Dagger lightly.

"Slash!"

A wound immediately appeared on the middle-aged man's neck.

Blood spurted out.

"You..."

The middle-aged man reached out to cover the wound on his neck.

How did it help?

His breathing became short and his eyes began to blur in an instant.

Boom!

There was a loud bang.

The middle-aged man fell to the ground and died.

"She... She killed Mr. Rodgers!"

The people around were dumbfounded.

As for Louis, his eyes were filled with horror.

Thinking about how he provoked Skylar numerous times, he was on the verge of his death!

Even Yanice was too shocked to speak.

Why was Skylar's subordinate so bold?

Did Skylar give her this confidence?

Did Skylar have a terrifying identity?

Ignoring everyone's gazes, Skylar walked in front of Max, and asked in a low tone, "Is it that difficult to choose between life or money?"

Seeing that Skylar was getting impatient, Max's heart trembled with fright, and he quickly waved his hands and said, "It's not difficult, it's not hard at all,"

"I...I'll give you back the money, I'll.."

"But I can't give you 100 billion dollars all at once, can... I call my dad?"

"Yeah,"

Skylar nodded, "However, I no longer have patience,"

"Don't you dare play tricks on me,"

"You'll die if you do so!"

"I wouldn't dare!"

Max's heart trembled, and his head shook like a rattle.

He forced himself to calm down and called his dad.

After saying a few words, he reported to Skylar, "Mr. Stone, my dad will be here in ten minutes,"

Skylar kept quiet and sat down on the chair next to him as everyone watched.

The reception hall was surprisingly quiet.

No one dared to speak or breathe.

They wanted to escape, but they were afraid of angering Skylar.

The ten minutes took forever to pass.

Ten minutes later, chaotic footsteps came from the corridor.

The next moment, a large group of people filed in.

It was

And those who were behind him turned out to be hundreds of police officers.

All members of the Central District Police Station were there.

"Dad! You're finally here!"

Max almost cried upon seeing Sterling.

When Sterling saw that Max was unharmed, he was relieved.

He immediately turned his gaze to Skylar, and asked in a cold tone, "Are you the one who blackmailed my son for 100 billion dollars?"

"Yes, that's me, but I wasn't blackmailing him. He's the one that owes me 100 billion dollars,"

Skylar said calmly.

"Very well!"

Sterling never expected that Skylar would admit it in front of so many police officers.

At that moment, he said to the police next to him, "Chief Marrow, this guy broke into Veilstone Hills, blackmailed my son, and even killed Mr. Rodgers. His methods are cruel and his influence is bad."

"Aren't you going to arrest him?"

Chief Marrow nodded and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Kent, we have all the witnesses and evidence, the two of them wouldn't be able to get off the hook easily,"

"Thank you for contacting us and allowing us to solve a case,"

As he spoke, Chief Marrow ordered the police officers behind him, "Arrest that murderer and his subordinate!"

"Do not resist or you will be shot immediately!"

Chapter 595 Do You Have a Death Wish?

Upon hearing Chief Marrow's words, everyone in the reception hall heaved a sigh of relief.

They were all frightened by Dianne's skill just now.

However, right now, Sterling had brought hundreds of police officers, and he could vaguely hear the sound of a police car outside.

Veilstone Hills was heavily surrounded.

No matter how terrifying Dianne's skills were, she might not be able to match the police officers on the third floor.

Moreover, they were law enforcement officers.

They were different from the bodyguards earlier.

They did not believe that Skylar could still challenge the authority of the Sconvia police station.

At this time, Yanice looked at Skylar anxiously, thinking that this would be his end.

However, only Skylar and Dianne were calm.

They were just police officers from the Sconvia police station, there was nothing to worry

It was less threatening than the millions of foreign troops they faced on the northern border.

Those police officers were equipped with guns and pointed them at Skylar and Dianne after receiving the order from Chief Marrow.

Among them, two officers took out their handcuffs, ready to arrest Skylar and Dianne.

"Dianne, go ask whose idea it was to point a gun at me,"

Skylar sat on the chair and said quietly.

Upon hearing his words, Chief Marrow and his subordinates all glared.

They have been handling cases for many years and had never seen such rampant gangsters.

At this moment, Yanice let out a long sigh and closed her eyes in despair.

It's all over.

And Dianne agreed and walked toward Chief Marrow

"What's she doing?"

The police officers nearby became wary.

Max yelled in fright, "Shoot her! Her dagger is dangerous!"

"She cut off the hands of the bodyguards!"

The police officers at the scene aimed all their guns at Dianne, "Stop!"

"Hands up! Or we'll shoot!"

Dianne ignored them and she was in front of Chief Marrow.

"Slap! Slap!"

Dianne slapped Chief Marrow twice without saying a word.

Chief Marrow was stunned by her beating, and was to speak while covering his face, Dianne immediately said coldly, "How did you have the courage to point a gun at the Dragon King?"

"Do you have a death wish?"

The reception hall was instantly silent.

Everyone looked at Skylar and Dianne in surprise.

This is too chaotic.

She slapped Chief Marrow in front of everyone!

And what did she mean by the Dragon King?

Dianne even threatened Chief Marrow!

No one in Sconvia would dare to question Chief Marrow like that.

After a few seconds, Chief Marrow came back to his senses.

He covered his swollen cheeks, and growled at Dianne, "Who the heck are you? How dare you assault me?"

As he spoke, he immediately reprimanded the police officers behind him, "Are you all dead?"

"Why didn't you do anything when I was attacked?"

"Arrest them immediately, shoot her immediately if she resists!"

"I'll be responsible for it if the higher-ups question this!"

Although he was not the most powerful person in Sconvia, he was in charge of dozens of police stations in Sconvia, and everyone treated him as a guest of honor whenever he was on duty.

Not only did the two of them commit murder, but she also slapped and threatened him.

They were just looking for death!

Chapter 596 I'll Remove You From Your Position

"Yes, Chief!"

As soon as the police officers agreed, they approached Dianne with handcuffs and pointed their guns at her.

Dianne did not bother to look at them, she took out her phone and called, "Remove Chief Marrow's position within one minute,"

"What? Remove Chief Marrow from his position?"

Everyone present could not believe their ears.

She's acting, right?

Only the higher-ups in Nirth could remove Chief Marrow from his position.

However, Dianne ordered someone to do so on the phone earlier.

Could this vicious woman overwhelm the authorities in Nirth?

Moreover, she was only Skylar's subordinate.

"Tch! Is she pretending to be aggressive? Who is she scaring?"

"That's right, stop pretending. She thinks that she can scare Chief Marrow by pretending she knows someone powerful. She's lying!"

"If she could remove Chief Marrow from his position, I'll cut off someone's head and let her use it as a ball!"

Everyone including the police started mocking Dianne.

Under the protection of hundreds of police officers, Max was no longer afraid of Skylar.

He looked at Skylar with a gloating expression.

Louis, who was not far away, had hope rekindled in his heart.

Although Dianne's abilities were beyond his imagination, he had been in the army and knew how difficult it was for a soldier with no background and no military college education to be promoted.

But in six years, not to mention Dianne's subordinates, even Skylar himself, it was impossible to remove the position of Chief Marrow.

Yanice was ashamed.

Although Dianne's skills were beyond her imagination, Skylar was facing the chief of the Sconvia police station.

Naturally, she did not believe that one of Skylar's subordinates could dismiss Chief Marrow with just one phone call.

Chief Marrow burst into laughter after hearing Dianne's words.

"Hahaha, remove me from my post within a minute?"

"Are you joking?"

"Oh my, I could laugh at this for a year!"

"Okay, I'll wait for a minute, I want to see how you're going to make me step down!"

Just as Chief Marrow finished speaking, a burst of familiar music sounded.

It was his phone.

Chief Marrow was taken aback.

And the people present were watching him nervously.

Was what Dianne said... true?

Chief Marrow frowned and scolded, "Who is this? Why are you calling me at this moment?"

After venting, Chief Marrow took out his phone.

When he saw the name on the screen, his heart skipped a beat.

It was the chief of the Nirth Provincial General Administration!

He did not hesitate and answered the call.

"Chief Joseph..."

As soon as Chief Marrow spoke, an angry roar came from the other end of the phone.

"Frank Marrow, who gave you the courage to provoke him?"

"Now, on behalf of the Nirth General Administration, all your titles will be revoked, and your police registration will be dismissed. Your title as Chief in the Sconvia police station will be removed instantly!"

Before he could respond, Chief Joseph hung up the phone directly.

Frank was dumbfounded.

Chapter 597 Die

It took one minute for Frank to process everything.

At this moment, there was a bead of cold sweat on his forehead, running down his neck, the blood on his lips was gone, and he even felt that his soul was about to come out of his body.

"Plop!"

There was a muffled sound.

Frank knelt in front of Dianne.

"Miss Dianne, I didn't know you were someone powerful. Please accept my apology!"

"I beg you to hold your hand high and take it back! I will leave immediately with my men."

"I won't pursue anything that happened in Veilstone Hills today..."

"Chief Marrow, he..."

Seeing the scene in front of them, everyone present was dumbfounded.

"This is..."

Whether it was Sterling, Max, Louis, Yanice, and the others, all of their hearts were trembling.

Chief Marrow knelt to Dianne and admitted his mistake.

Did the authorities remove his position?

But Dianne only made a phone call and removed his position!

Dianne's identity was so scary!

No!

It should be Skylar with a scary identity!

Dianne was his subordinate and relied on his authority.

"Get lost!"

Dianne did not react, so he scolded Frank in a cold voice.

As for Skylar, he took a step and walked toward Sterling and Max.

He glanced at Sterling and glared at Max.

"Max, let me remind you what I said,"

"My patience is gone and you're supposed to die if you play any more tricks on me!"

"It seems that your father chose to kill you today"

Seeing Skylar's cold gaze, Max was terrified.

His legs trembled, his body felt cold, and he took several steps back, trying to hide behind Sterling.

"Dad, I'm still young, I don't want to die!"

"I'll think of a way..."

After all, Sterling was more experienced than Max, so he quickly forced himself to calm down.

He stared at Skylar, gritted his teeth, and said, "Skylar, even if you are a dragon, you're not that powerful,"

"I don't believe that you would be so powerful that you're above the law,"

"Even if my son offended you, why would you blackmail him 100 billion?"

"Do you know how much is 100 billion dollars? Do you think that you can decide how much he owes you?"

"Max's grandfather is the director of Nirth Commerce. I'll die with you if you pressure us!"

"Blackmail?"

Skylar sneered, "Have I blackmailed your son?"

"First of all, your son went to Cloudtopia to buy my wife's company, Kareem Fashion forcibly,"

"After being rejected, he bribed the employees of Kareem Fashion, stole the secrets, and posted them on the Internet, causing immeasurable losses to Kareem Fashion,"

"Next, your son used the Kent family's influence in the North Commerce to order the businesses in the province to suppress Kareem Fashion,"

"Furthermore, your son used the formula of Kareem Fashion's flagship product, freckle cream, to produce the same type of product, to compete with Kareem Fashion for his own gains,"

Chapter 598 I'm Telling the Truth

Every time Skylar said a word, he took a step closer to Sterling.

After he was done talking, he was already near Sterling.

"You should have heard about the popularity of freckle cream,"

"I don't believe you don't know what your son is doing,"

"Didn't all of this add up to 100 billion?"

Sterling's expression froze.

Max did everything Skylar said.

However, he would not admit it that easily.

"Skylar, these are just your side of the story! Has your wife's company registered a patent for the formula of the freckle cream?"

"If it is registered, you can sue my son for infringement,"

"But if you didn't, you're just lying and want to take advantage of us!" Sterling said sternly.

Skylar snorted, "Mr. Kent, I think I made a mistake,"

"I'm telling you all this not because I want you to judge me,"

"I'm just letting you know what your son did,"

"What do you mean by my side of the story? I'm just telling the truth"

Max and Sterling were still arguing.

Initially, Skylar was thinking about not making things extreme.

However, the way Sterling and his son reacted disappointed him.

They were just powerless entrepreneurs in Skylar's eyes.

Even if there was evidence, the Kent family would still have a way of not admitting their mistakes.

They would even sue him for infringement.

He did not want to show mercy to them.

That being the case, Skylar did not care anymore.

The Kent family dared to be tyrannical in Sconvia and Nirth.

Then Skylar would show them what real arrogance was!

Skylar ordered Dianne, "Kill Max!"

Max trembled all over, and shouted at Sterling in horror, "Dad, pay him 100 billion, I don't want to die!"

Before Max's voice fell, everyone saw a white shadow flash past.

"Swish!"

Dianne cut Max's throat with the Dragon Dagger.

In a blink of an eye, Max fell to the ground, dying with regret.

At this moment, Dianne said to Sterling expressionlessly, "Even if he dies, you must pay the money back,"

"You... you... How dare you kill my son!"

Sterling looked at Max, his eyes were about to burst.

He did not expect that Dianne would dare to make a move.

He wanted to resist and take revenge, but his whole body seemed to be heavy, unable to move.

Dianne could take everyone down by force and could make Frank step down from his position with just a single call.

What was even more frightening was that she was just one of Skylar's subordinates.

"Skylar, are you trying to threaten the Kent family?"

Sterling stared at Skylar with his bloodshot eyes and asked.

Skylar glanced at him, and said coldly, "You're exaggerating, Mr. Kent,"

"I just want to recover the debt your son owes me,"

"But if you still dare to play tricks on me, what you say might become reality,"

Sterling's face turned pale in an instant. He clenched his fists and thought for a long time before he uttered, "Alright,"

Next, he was raising funds everywhere.

100 billion dollars was a huge amount for the Kent family.

Sterling could not afford so much money all at once, so he could only transfer part of the Kent family's property to Skylar's name to repay the debt.

After an hour, everything was settled.

Chapter 599 Something Happened to Yulia

He came to Veilstone Hills to settle the debt Max owed him.

Since Max was dead and Sterling had paid back the money, his purpose had been fulfilled.

Skylar was not interested in chatting with a bunch of people, so he brought Dianne out of the reception hall.

However, as soon as the two got into the jeep, Skylar received a call from Clara.

Skylar was a little surprised, then answered the call.

In the next second, his face changed drastically.

"Skylar, Yulia was hit by a car!" Clara said anxiously.

Lola was heard crying faintly in the background.

"What? Hit by a car?"

Skylar's pupils shrank, and his brain was racing.

"Where did she get hit? Who hit her? Where is Yulia now?" He asked hastily.

Clara said quickly, "The person who hit Yulia ran away, and she was sent to the hospital,"

"I also just received the news, and I'm rushing to the hospital with Lola now,"

"Stay safe, I'm going to the hospital now," Skylar said, and then told Dianne, "Go to the Hospital as soon as possible!"

"Yes, boss!" Dianne agreed, immediately slammed on the accelerator, and drove the jeep to the Hospital.

At the entrance of the hospital, Skylar ordered Dianne, "Ask someone to find out who hit my wife,"

"I could never let him get away with this after hitting my wife!"

"Yes, boss!"

Dianne agreed, took out her phone, and started calling.

Skylar called Clara again, asked which ward Yulia was in, and rushed over immediately.

As soon as he arrived at the ward, Lola rushed over.

"Daddy, you are finally here."

Lola hugged him tearfully, looking terrified.

Skylar did not have time to wipe her tears, so he quickly looked at Yulia who was on the bed.

"Yulia, how do you feel? Are you hurt anywhere?"

Yulia was afraid that he would be worried, so she quickly waved her hand, "Don't worry, it's just a scratch. The doctor said I broke my calf,"

"It'll heal in no time,"

Skylar was relieved after hearing her words.

However, he still wanted to check on her injuries.

After confirming that Yulia had no other injuries, he heaved a sigh of relief.

"Thank goodness you're okay. Just take the medicine prescribed and I'll bring you something else from home so you can heal faster,"

Skylar kissed Yulia's forehead and said softly.

"Okay," Yulia smiled and nodded.

"There's a pharmacy here, I'll go get the medicine first," Skylar said and walked towards the door.

"Dad, come back quickly, Mommy and I will wait for you here," Lola said dependently.

Skylar picked her up and sat her next to Yulia, and told her patiently, "Take care of Mommy when I'm gone, sweetheart,"

"You need to take care of Mommy because she's hurt,"

"Okay!"

Lola nodded vigorously, "Mommy, do you want oranges? I'll peel them for you!"

Yulia's eyes turned red immediately, "Yes, would you peel them for me, please?"

Upon hearing Yulia's words, Lola immediately picked up the oranges in the basket next to her and peeled them carefully.

Skylar and Yulia felt warm.

Lola was only four and a half years old, and she already knew how to care for her mother.

When Skylar went down to the first floor, he ran into Dianne who was going to report to him.

"Boss, the person who hit your wife is dead,"

Chapter 600 A Miracle

"Dead?" Skylar frowned.

Dianne nodded, "Yes, and he committed suicide by taking poison,"

"Huh?" Skylar smelled something unusual.

Yulia was only slightly injured, and the person did not have to run away at all.

Even if he chose to escape in a panic, the punishment would not be very severe if he was investigated, and there would be no need to commit suicide at all.

"Dig deeper and find out why," Skylar's expression froze, and he said thoughtfully.

"Yes, boss!" Dianne immediately took his orders.

Skylar walked towards the pharmacy on the first floor.

At the same time, Shane, the head of the Lucas family, was drinking tea in the tea room.

His eyes were fixed on the words written on the opposite wall, and Skylar did not know what he was thinking.

At this moment, there was a sudden knock on the door.

Shane frowned, set his teacup down, and said sternly, "Come in,"

A middle-aged man in a suit and leather shoes opened the door and walked in.

It was Geoffrey who went to Cloudtopia and invited Yulia to Sconvia.

"Is it done?"

Upon seeing him, Shane asked expectantly.

"No," Geoffrey sighed.

Shane's eyes darkened, and he stroked the teacup.

He suddenly said, "Since Yulia can't make it, why don't we try her daughter, Lola?"

"I hope she lives up to our expectations,"

Geoffrey nodded, with the same secretive look...

For the next three days, Skylar went back and forth between the hospital and Floccesy Tower every day and made some special remedies for Yulia.

Under his care, it took three days for her bones to heal, which would have taken longer to heal.

Yulia's doctor was stunned, thinking that he had encountered a miracle.

Skylar did not bother to explain, went through the discharge procedures directly, and took Yulia and Lola back to the Lucas family.

"Yulia, why are you back so soon?"

After receiving the news, Shane immediately ran to Floccesy Tower.

As he asked, he examined Yulia, especially her injured calf.

When he found that Yulia walked back by herself without the help of a wheelchair or crutches, he was surprised and said, "Yulia, isn't your leg broken? How did it heal so soon?"

He was clueless.

No matter how small a bone fracture is, it was impossible to heal in just three days.

Yulia smiled. Just as she was about to speak, Lola said proudly, "Mommy healed quickly not because of the doctors and nurses at the hospital!"

"It was Daddy who applied a black ointment to Mommy, and Mommy could walk by herself the next day,"

"Oh? Skylar also has medical skills?"

Shane was a little surprised.

Moreover, Yulia could be cured so quickly, Skylar must be very good at it considering Yulia was fully healed.

However, he did not take it too seriously and said to Yulia kindly, "Yulia, I'm glad you're fully healed. I don't need to worry much anymore,"

"How about this, I'll tell the servants to prepare a feast and everyone in the Lucas family will celebrate your discharge from the hospital,"

"Everyone would be lively and would get rid of all of your bad luck!"

"There's no need, Grandpa, it's troublesome," Yulia quickly waved her hand.

She had only been discharged and did not think it should be celebrated that grand.

Shane's enthusiasm made her a little flattered.
