

Triumph 641

Chapter 641 Get Rid of Ryan

When Terry arrived, Ryan jumped to his feet and said, "Uncle Terry, you're finally here!"

Andrew also stood up and said with a flattering grin on his face, "Mr. Pearson, my son is still young and ignorant; it's presumptuous of him to bother you to come all the way to our house."

Terry waved his hand and replied, "No problem."

Skylar was all he could think about. He had no interest in exchanging pleasantries with Andrew.

Andrew quickly offered Terry his own seat. He said, "Please take a seat!"

Terry sat down on the single sofa unceremoniously.

Ryan quickly asked, "Uncle Terry, you mentioned that you would personally visit the Lucas Manor. Have you paid them a visit in the last few days?"

Terry was startled by that query. He immediately recalled what had happened in the Lucas Manor's parlor that day. It was such a humiliating incident that he naturally did not want the Colemans to know about it.

He tried to look calm and said, "I've been busy with official duties for the past few days and couldn't find the time to do that. However, I have invited a powerful man to Sconvia out of concern for our safety. Later, I'll go to Lucas Manor with him. I want to see for myself who is more formidable, the petty grandson-in-law of the Lucases or me."

The second part of Terry's speech, in which he invited a powerful man, was true, but the first part was a lie.

Back in Lucas Manor, Skylar had laid hands on him. He even forced him to kneel and apologize to him. How could Terry swallow such a public humiliation given by a greenhorn youngster?

"Oh? You want to compare who's more formidable?"

At this precise moment, a mocking voice came from the entrance.

Everyone looked toward the direction of the sound. They saw the handsome man and walked in with his subordinate, Dianne.

"Skylar!"

Everyone was astounded when they saw Skylar.

"Skylar, I'm surprised you dared to step foot in my house!" Ryan sneered icily.

Belinda and Peach also sneered from the side. They thought Skylar had walked into a trap.

Skylar raised an eyebrow, and his gaze fell on Terry when he said this, "Why wouldn't I dare? Terry, would you still be going home in one piece and sitting here if it weren't for Geoffrey and Clara pleading for you back in Lucas's manor?"

Everyone was shocked when they heard Skylar say those words.

What did he mean? Had Terry visited Lucas Manor two days ago? Was he almost killed by Skylar? Didn't Terry just say that he was too busy with official duties and didn't have the time to pay them a visit?

Everyone casts doubtful glances at Terry.

Terry's big, fat face had instantly turned red. The look in his eyes flickered. He looked embarrassed and angry. He yelled, "You're talking nonsense! Who do you think you are? Do you think I would be suppressed by you?"

Skylar sneered coldly, "Hush! I'll start with settling the accounts with the Colemans. There will be plenty of time for me to compete with you later."

Having said that, Skylar did not care about what kind of crap Terry was spewing. He gazed at Andrew and Ryan.

"Ryan, I had warned you the other day to come to the Lucas Manor to meet your death. If you had shown a proactive attitude by admitting your mistake, I might have spared your life. You not only showed no remorse, but you also attempted to subdue me using Terry's strength. I have no reason to pardon you. I have no reason to forgive you now. Dianne, get rid of him!"

Chapter 642 Who Are You?

On that day at the beach, Ethan insulted Yulia and Valerie, and he even slapped them.

Skylar wanted to settle the scores with Ryan, who instructed Ethan's actions.

Yulia and Valerie were Ethan's soft spots.

Anyone, who laid a hand on them, deserved to die!

"Yes, Boss!"

Dianne received the order, and she immediately drew the Dragon Dagger hidden at her waist.

Andrew, who sat beside Ryan, shouted, "Hey, Skylar, don't be arrogant!"

"The Lucas family may have greater influence than the Coleman family, but you're only a distant relative of the Lucas family. How dare you threaten to kill my son in front of me?"

"Do you seriously think I'm someone you can push around? Do you honestly believe you can do as you please?"

"That's right!"

Skylar sneered, "The Coleman family means nothing to me. Crushing all of you to death will be a piece of cake."

"You have a death wish by antagonizing the people I cared about!"

"Skylar, you have gone too far!"

Hearing Skylar's words, Andrew and Ryan were infuriated.

The Coleman family might not be the most influential, but they were considered well-established.

Skylar is audacious to look down on our Coleman family even though he is merely a distant relative of the Lucas family.

However, Chief Mitchell had yet to arrive. Andrew and Ryan were left with no other options besides being angry.

Andrew had already heard from Ryan about Skylar's outstanding physique.

Skylar would send an adult flying with a single slap. Andrew and Ryan knew they could not even put up a fight, given Skylar's horrifying physique.

If they had decided to act against Skylar, they would only end up dead.

A commanding voice sounded as Andrew and Ryan kept their frustrations to themselves.

"Such arrogance. Are you delusional?"

As the sentence ended, the door was pushed open. A large group of police officers dressed in uniforms rushed in.

The middle-aged man leading the officers exhibited valiance.

With his right hand on his waist, it became evident that he had a handgun holstered in that spot.

That person was Daniel, the Chief of Sconvia Police Headquarters.

Upon seeing Daniel, Andrew's and Ryan's eyes lit up with hope.

"Daniel, you're here. I have been waiting for a long time."

Ryan smirked at Skylar before saying to Daniel, "Mr. Mitchell, quickly get your men to capture the criminals."

"They have trespassed into the Coleman family's residence. Moreover, they've threatened to kill me and wipe out our presence in Sconvia City."

"To my knowledge, the culprit is named Skylar. He is a dangerous individual. Quickly shoot him down."

Upon hearing Ryan's words, Belinda and Peach looked at Skylar with mocking eyes.

They felt proud of themselves.

The police officers were equipped with loaded guns. Skylar had no chance to escape, no matter how formidable he was.

On top of that, these police officers were from the law enforcement.

Skylar's retaliation would be deemed a serious offense.

Hearing Andrew's and Ryan's words, Daniel nodded. He quickly instructed the rest of the police officers.

The police officers captured the command, and they quickly wielded their guns.

The gun muzzles pointed at Skylar and Dianne.

"Drop your weapons! Raise your hands!"

"This is your final warning. If you fail to comply, we will open fire!"

Daniel firmly commanded Skylar and Dianne.

"Who are you?"

Skylar glanced at Daniel coldly as he asked.

Chapter 643 Troublemaker Dragon King

Daniel grunted, "You're wondering who I am?"

Daniel announced proudly, "I'm Daniel, the newly appointed Chief of Sconvia Police Headquarters."

Skylar looked at Daniel in amusement, "Oh, it's you."

Dianne walked toward where Daniel was, surprising everyone present.

"Don't move!" The police officers were on high alert as Dianne walked forward.

"Hands up, right now! This is your final warning. Taking any more steps will be treated as an assault on police officers. We will open fire."

Dianne ignored their warnings. She darted forward, appearing right before Daniel.

Smack! A loud slap landed harshly on Daniel's face.

The impact was overwhelming for Daniel. Dianne slapped Daniel to the floor, leaving his face swollen.

"What?"

Everything happened in a split second. No one had time to react. The onlookers stood there in disbelief, with their jaws hanging open.

No one had expected Dianne, Skylar's subordinate, would have the audacity to assault Daniel physically.

The surrounding police officers pointed their guns at Dianne!

Does she have a death wish?

"Chief!"

"Are you fine, chief?"

All the police officers looked at Daniel, who was on the floor, in concern.

Daniel snapped out of his shock, gritting through the burning sensation on his face as he swiftly rose to his feet. He pointed at Skylar and Dianne, shouting, "You're audacious! I'm the Chief of Sconvia Police Headquarters!"

"How dare you slap me? This is a serious crime!"

"Everyone, point your gun at those two troublemakers. Shoot them to death on the spot!"

Daniel led his men in this operation because of his relationship with Andrew. He also wanted to show off his authority.

However, Dianne slapped Daniel to the floor, embarrassing him in front of everyone.

It was a humiliation!

Daniel was determined not to let Skylar and Dianne off the hook easily because of the slap!

When all the police officers aimed their guns at Skylar and Dianne, Dianne yelled, "Daniel, you won't be appointed as the police chief if it's not because of the Dragon King."

"How dare you insult the Dragon King as the troublemaker?"

Dianne's question surprised everyone.

What does it mean?

Who is the Dragon King?

Is that Skylar's title?

Did Skylar play a role in Daniel's promotion to police chief?

However, Skylar asked who Daniel was moments ago. They're strangers to each other!

As everyone made their guesses, Daniel's heart trembled.

The former police chief, Frank, had a vast network of supporters. He wielded significant authority within the Sconvia Police Headquarters.

Everyone thought Frank could at least hold onto his position as the Chief of the Sconvia Police Headquarters for five years.

However, only a few days ago, Frank offended a prominent figure. A single phone call resulted in Frank's removal from office, which prompted Daniel's unexpected promotion.

According to Dianne, Frank offended a big shot... Could it be the man before me?

Dragon King?

Thinking of this, Daniel trembled in fear, and he broke into a cold sweat.

Frank was fired because he had offended the Dragon King. On the other hand, Daniel benefited from this event, and he should be grateful to the Dragon King.

However, Daniel scolded the Dragon King as a troublemaker!

If Daniel offended the Dragon King, Daniel would lose his position as the police chief similarly.

Thud.

Daniel disregarded any concerns for his reputation, and he immediately dropped his knees in the direction where Skylar stood.

"Mr. Stone..."

"Please accept my apologies, Mr. Stone, for my rudeness!"

Chapter 644 Did You Already Forget About That?

"What...?"

Everyone was in disbelief.

Andrew and Ryan had their mind went blank.

What's happening?

Daniel is the Chief of Sconvia Police Headquarters. He has the right to speak in front of the big shots.

However, Daniel is kneeling in front of Skylar, apologizing frantically!

Has the world gone crazy?

This is unbelievable!

It had happened no matter how Andrew and Ryan questioned what was happening before their eyes.

Skylar glanced at Daniel, who was on the floor. He sneered, "I'll give your credit for your quick realization."

"I'm giving you 30 minutes. Get back to the police headquarters and ask your superiors to get someone to replace you."

"You're no longer the police chief because you have abused your authority."

Daniel felt dizzy upon hearing Skylar's instructions.

Daniel was appointed not long ago. However, Skylar demanded that Daniel step down before he could savor his new position.

Moreover, Daniel no longer had the chance to be appointed police chief.

Daniel certainly did not like the situation!

However, there was nothing Daniel could do. He could not afford to offend someone who could turn Frank into a nobody in a single phone call.

Taking a lesson from what happened to Frank, Daniel knew if he did not follow Skylar's demand, he would also lose his uniform.

As Skylar had said, it was already an act of mercy that Daniel only had to resign from his position as the police chief.

"Yes, Mr. Stone!"

After reorganizing his thoughts, Daniel agreed humbly and left with the rest of the police officers swiftly.

"Ryan, is Daniel the last hope for the Coleman family?"

Skylar smirked at Ryan and Andrew.

Ryan and Andrew were drenched in a cold sweat, afraid to meet Skylar's gaze.

They looked at Terry pleadingly, hoping that Terry could save them.

However, Terry did not have the spare effort to bother with them.

Terry was taken aback, filled with uncertainty and doubt.

Isn't the Lucas family the only supporter Skylar has?

How is Skylar so overwhelming?

With a few words, Skylar had the Chief of Sconvia Police Headquarters trembling and begging for forgiveness. It was unbelievable.

Terry knew he did not have such prestige.

Before grasping the situation, Terry dared not offend Skylar.

Then, Terry ignored the pleading for help from Ryan and Andrew. Terry stood up, and he smiled humbly, "Skylar, after thinking about it, we don't have a deep grudge."

"On that day, I requested Valerie to accompany me because I didn't know she was your friend. It happens to be a good opportunity for us to get acquainted. I want to assure you that I will not trouble Valerie anymore. She will be given priority if there are suitable openings in my investment projects!"

Terry thought he had handled the apology well.

However, Skylar responded with a sneer.

Are you treating me like a fool?

Terry, you were arrogant, thinking you had the support of the police officers when I walked in.

Did you already forget about that?"

I know you want to back away safely after seeing Daniel retreating in fear.

On that day at the parlor in the Lucas Manor, Skylar had already given Terry a chance. Moreover, Skylar had warned Terry that there would be no second chances. No amount of pleading would save him.

There was no way that Skylar would give Terry the easy way out.

"You have to show me your sincerity if you want to live. Chop off one of your hands, and leave Sconvia City. Never show your face in front of me again."

Chapter 645 What Can You Do About It?

"I don't mind having Dianne take your life away if you're unable to comply. Adding another death under my name won't make a difference."

After finishing his words, Skylar shifted his gaze to Ryan, "Dianne, get rid of him!"

"No... Skylar, Mr. Stone, I was wrong. Please spare me..."

Ryan's face turned pale, and he shuddered in fear. He quickly fled to Andrew's side and pleaded, "Dad, I'm still young. I don't want to die..."

"Quickly, you have to think of something!"

Andrew yelled, "Skylar, the Coleman family may not be the most influential family, but don't underestimate us in Sconvia City."

"You won't be able to cover it up if you kill my son blatantly!"

Skylar sneered, "That's my concern. You don't need to worry about it."

"You're going too far..."

Before Andrew could finish his sentence, Skylar grew impatient, signaling Dianne with a glance.

Dianne appeared before Andrew immediately.

Slash!

Skylar's Dragon Dagger slashed across Ryan's throat.

"What can you do about it?"

Dianne held the blood-stained dagger, and she said to Andrew.

"How dare you kill my son!"

Andrew's eyes widened in anger.

Andrew looked at Ryan, who lay in a pool of blood beside him. Ryan was already dead.

Andrew's face turned pale with anger.

Andrew had never expected Skylar to have the audacity to murder Ryan in the Coleman family's residence.

As Dianne had said, Andrew was shocked and mad, but he could not do anything.

Moreover, Andrew was afraid deep down in his heart.

Of course, Andrew was not the only person feeling fear.

Belinda and Peach, who sat and observed at the side, were also in deep fear.

After witnessing Ryan being murdered, Belinda and Peach felt an instinctual urge to scream.

However, they immediately covered their mouths due to the fear in their hearts.

They dared not even breathe, let alone make a sound.

Instead, Belinda and Peach looked at Skylar and Dianne with fearful eyes.

Three days ago, they heard that Skylar beheaded a person quickly and threw Ethan's body into the sea.

They cursed Skylar as a brutal thug, but they were unfazed by the incident.

However, things were different when they witnessed Ryan's death before their eyes.

The shock and fear of death terrified Belinda and Peach.

However, Skylar did not bother with Belinda and Peach. He said to Andrew, "Do you want to live? I can give you a chance."

"Donate all of the Coleman family's wealth to the education fund for underprivileged children in rural areas."

"You only have one choice between your wealth and your life!"

Andrew glanced at the Dragon Dagger in Dianne's hands. He begged for mercy in fear, "Take my money instead."

"Let me go, and I will donate all of my wealth."

Without hesitation, Andrew quickly took out his phone. He dialed his secretary's number, relaying his instructions over. He was afraid that Skylar might change his mind.

Then, Skylar shifted his gaze at Terry, "Why are you hesitating? Do you need Dianne's help?"

Terry's face turned pale instantly, and he quickly said, "No, please wait. I'll do it myself."

Chapter 646 Something to Say

Bracing himself, Terry picked up the fruit knife from the coffee table and slit his wrist.

He had to be one step ahead of Dianne in case she would finish the job instead.

"Argh!"

A harrowing shriek ensued.

Blood slid across Terry's fat arm.

Terry made a grimacing face from the stabbing pain.

"Is... Is this up to your satisfaction?"

Breaking out in a cold sweat, Terry's eyes widened in horror as he asked Skylar.

"Beat it! Don't forget the warning. I don't want to see your face again!" Skylar yelled.

"Consider it done. I'll leave right away, and I won't ever step foot in Sconvia City again!"

Terry was thankful to be alive since it was a narrow escape.

With Ryan dead, Andrew losing his wealth, and Terry punished, Skylar had no more reason to remain there.

He took Dianne to leave right there and then.

Terry and Andrew could breathe relief once Skylar's ride was long gone.

At least, they survived to see another day.

"Mr. Pearson, the boy made you lose an arm. Are you planning to just let it go?" Andrew sounded Terry out.

The resentment overtook Andrew's every being.

Not only did Skylar kill his son, but he also forced Andrew to donate away most of his assets. The world was not big enough for the both of them!

"Let it go?"

Terry applied pressure to his wrist with a towel before hissing through gritted teeth, "No way.

"I am Terry Pearson, the face of status and influence. I have never been so humiliated.

"Your life is mine to take, Skylar!"

Although he did not expect that of Skylar today, the Pearsons were big leaguers.

The family had connections and power.

Besides, Terry heard that Ezra Kent had plans to avenge his grandson.

If Terry were to join forces with the Kents, Skylar would become no threat!

Not to mention, Terry was backed by Kley City's Pearsons and Nirth Commerce.

It would not take long before Terry would make Skylar regret sparing his life today.

Lola greeted Skylar by jumping at him the moment he entered the Lucas Manor in Floccesy Tower.
“Daddy, you’re finally back!

“Mommy bullied me. She drew Santa Claus’ beard and mustache on my face. I look awful!”

Skylar looked down and saw the stain of red lipstick smeared across Lola’s chin and nose bridge.

The girl looked kind of adorable.

Skylar nearly burst into laughter.

“Why did Mommy give Lola a Santa Claus beard and mustache?” Skylar asked while holding back the laughter.

“I competed with Mommy in a game of hopscotch. Mommy drew on my face every time I lost.”

The little girl vented, “Daddy, you have to compete with Mommy for me and draw on her face!”

“Haha, okay! I want to see Mommy with a Santa Claus beard and mustache too!”

Skylar was in stitches at this point.

Yulia rolled her eyes at Skylar and haughtily said, “Well, I’m not going to compete with you.”

“Huh? Why not?”

Skylar did not understand where that was coming from.

“How am I supposed to beat you? I don’t want to have a beard and a mustache on my face.”

“Erm... You did the same to your daughter though, Dear.”

Skylar was caught between tears and laughter.

“No. She’s a child, so anything looks good on her. I’m an adult. You can’t compare us both.”

Yulia spoke as if she was in the right.

Skylar and Lola exchanged glances, at a loss for what to say.

Yulia had a point...

Still, something did not seem right...

Just then, Clara arrived at the residence.

Instead of entering the house, she stood at the door and shouted, "Can you come out for a bit, Skylar? I have something to tell you."

Chapter 647 Help Her

Skylar thought it was weird that Clara needed to speak to him without Yulia present.

Still, he drew close to the door and asked, "What's the matter?"

Clara held her gaze up to meet his and said, "My best friend, Yanice, wants to meet with you about something. She needs a favor."

Skylar gave a nod.

Oh, so that was what it was all about.

It explained the need for a private conversation.

From Yulia's standpoint, it was weird for Clara to ask her brother-in-law for a meetup on behalf of her best friend anyway.

"What can I do to help?" Skylar inquired.

Although Skylar was not too fond of Yanice in the beginning, their paths crossed again at Veilstone Hills.

It was only then he realized that despite her aloof demeanor, Yanice was soft and squishy inside.

Yanice was not able to lend him any help, but she meant well and was genuinely concerned about him.

No wonder she was best friends with Clara.

Skylar was glad to do Yanice a favor seeing that she was seeking help through Clara.

It was no biggie since Skylar was not going out of his way.

Clara shook her head at the question. "Yanice didn't say, but I know her well enough to assume it has something to do with her marriage.

"The Masons adopt a traditional gender role and patriarchal values. Her family has been using Yanice's marriage as a means of acquiring resources.

“But Yanice has been fighting this. The situation has reached a stalemate for a while.

“That was why I let her help you with Jaiden’s contract, and she agreed to Jaiden’s request.

“Although she doesn’t see Jaiden the same way, Jaiden always has feelings for her.

“Yanice told me that she would rather marry someone who likes her than some trust baby who she hasn’t even met.”

Skylar fell deep into his thoughts for a while before answering, “I’ll need to have a moment with Yulia about this.”

Clara nodded her head in affirmation.

As Skylar returned to the living room, Yulia asked her the purpose of Clara’s visit.

Skylar repeated the whole story to Yulia.

In the end, he hesitantly asked, “Yulia, I’ll take your advice on whether to get involved with the matter. It’s your call.”

Yulia would not be comfortable with Skylar interfering in a marriage if the latter did not put it that way. It was not their place after all.

Now that Skylar expressed that she had a voice, Yulia was moved and wanted to be as thoughtful in return.

After giving it some thought, she uttered, “Yanice has a b*tch resting face, but she’s a softie underneath it all.

“A marriage is for a lifetime, and it’s linked to a woman’s happiness. If it doesn’t take much of your time, you should help her.”

With Yulia giving him the word, Skylar had no reason to say no.

He gave a nod and replied, “Sure. I’ll go and meet her with Clara to see if I can help in any way.”

“Daddy, are you going out again?”

Tugging onto the hem of Skylar’s shirt, Lola reluctantly asked.

Skylar picked her up and kissed her chubby cheek.

“Sweetheart, Aunt Clara needs my help, but you should end the game of hopscotch with Mommy.

“Let’s draw on Mommy’s face when I get back.”

Skylar whispered in Lola’s ear, tickling the little girl’s funny bones.

“Go on, Daddy. I’ll wait for you at home.”

“Okay. That’s my good girl.”

After snuggling up to the little girl for a while, Skylar followed Clara out of Floccesity Tower

Half an hour later, Clara pulled up outside a restaurant.

Chapter 648 A Virgin

Before entering the premises, Yanice could be seen seated with a middle-aged couple near the window.

Clara mentioned that the couple was Yanice’s parents.

Sitting across from them was a short and plump young man with skin as white as snow.

Needless to say, the man must be the future son-in-law the Mason family had chosen for Yanice.

Yanice’s mind seemed to be elsewhere.

She would look back in the direction of the entrance every now and then.

While on the way, Clara had sent Yanice a text message about Skylar being on board.

Yanice informed Clara that Skylar could come straight to the restaurant and pose as her boyfriend. The plan was to infuriate Yanice’s date so that he would storm off.

The details did not matter to Skylar since he had agreed to help. He got out of the car and made a beeline to the restaurant.

In the restaurant, Elaine, Yanice’s mother, gleefully uttered, “Look at Mr. Pearson’s skin, Yanice. It’s glowing. He looks to be in his twenties even though he’s well over thirty.

“Besides, he’s running most of his family businesses despite his young age. He’s an impressive young man! That’s what I call a successful man.”

Fergus, Yanice’s father, chimed in, “That’s right. A man of Mr. Pearson’s caliber is few and far between.”

“Yanice, I know you’re not busy today. You should have a walk around the mall and watch a movie with Mr. Pearson later so that you can get to know each other.”

The short and obese young man acted humble in response to the compliment, "You flatter me, Mr. and Mrs. Mason.

"I just started off in life."

While talking, Aiden turned his gaze to Yanice.

Aiden got the hots for Yanice the moment he laid eyes on Yanice's pretty face.

Yanice cringed.

Her parents lost their last shred of dignity in pursuing social climbing and befriending the likes of the Pearsons.

Aiden was nowhere close to a successful man or a man of caliber.

Although looks were hereditary, Yanice had doubts about the man's competence of running a business when he could not even tend to his own health.

Yanice had asked around prior to attending the date.

The talk about managing family businesses was a fish story.

The only thing Aiden pursued was women instead of a career.

He was not fussy with women and took any women, be it from showbiz or the streets.

If that was not enough, even the decent girls could not escape from his clutches.

Aiden was an absolute misogynistic bully.

Still, there was no stopping him as he had his highborn privilege to thank for.

With the influence of the Pearsons standing behind Aiden, barely anybody could stand up to Aiden in the whole of Nirth.

The victims had to keep their troubles and sufferings to themselves to move on with life.

The staring only got on Yanice's nerves. She said, "Mom, Dad, I told you. I have a boyfriend."

Aiden scowled and questioned Fergus and Elaine, "Are you trying to play me?"

With Aiden about to blow, Fergus and Elaine made a quick save, "Not at all!"

“We wouldn’t dare, Mr. Pearson.

“We know our daughter. She doesn’t give any man the time of the day, so where did her boyfriend come from?”

“Speaking of which, Yanice is still a virgin.”

Fergus and Elaine gave Aiden a wink while saying that.

Chapter 649 What a Coincidence

The mention that Yanice was untouched saw the tension lifted in Aiden’s expression.

Aiden looked at Yanice with lewd eyes.

Elaine lectured Yanice, “Stop with the stories, or I’ll beat you, Yanice.

“You’re lucky that Mr. Pearson is fond of you. It’s your honor.

“Plus, what boyfriend are you talking about? He has nothing on Mr. Pearson.”

Skylar happened to enter the restaurant.

“My boyfriend is here.”

Yanice, who had been absent-minded before, jolted up from her seat and headed toward Skylar.

The trio looked over.

In an attempt to rile them up, Yanice drew close to Skylar and intimately clung to Skylar’s arm. They walked back to the table in laughter.

Yanice was not her usual aloof self.

Fergus’ and Elaine’s faces fell.

Their daughter got a boyfriend behind their backs.

Besides, she even told the man to come over when they were meeting with Aiden.

Was she trying to get under Aiden’s skin?

Aiden was born into privilege and power.

He was not one to take the humiliation sitting down.

As expected, the smile on Aiden's face froze as everything unfolded.

Yanice pulled Skylar to the table and cheerfully introduced "Mom, Dad, Mr. Pearson, this is my boyfriend, Skylar Stone."

Aiden took a glance at Skylar before scoffing at Fergus and Elaine. "Are you sure you're not playing me?"

"The talk about her being a virgin is bullsh*t! She even brought her boyfriend here.

"The nerve of the Mason family to play me a fool.

"I expect an explanation. Otherwise, you can be ready to face my wrath."

Elaine and Fergus turned as white as a sheet.

Fergus said, "Mr. Pearson, I promise we didn't play you.

"We have never met this man before, and neither will we approve of him as Yanice's boyfriend."

Before Aiden could say anything, Fergus turned to Skylar and yelled, "So you're Skylar?"

"I have never heard of the Stone family in Sconvia.

"A nobody like you doesn't deserve my daughter.

"You have a chance to get lost now before I lose my patience with you."

Elaine joined in the criticism. "Scram! You can even afford more than two thousand dollars for your clothes. Who are you to stand next to Yanice?"

"Do you know who the man in front of us is?"

While talking, Elaine pointed at Aiden. "He is Aiden, the firstborn of the Pearson family. His father has a permanent seat in Nirth Commerce.

"We have decided that Mr. Pearson will be our son-in-law. What do you have over him?"

"Oh? The Pearsons?"

Skylar was only meant to be there to play a part, but the mention of the Pearson family caught his interest.

What a coincidence.

Aiden came into the picture after Terry was gone. The Pearsons seemed to be everywhere he went.

Seeing that Skylar had heard of the Pearsons, Aiden smugly uttered, "That's right. I'm a member of the Pearson family and the successor of the family in Kley."

Chapter 650 Why Not

"The influence of the Pearsons extends all over Nirth.

"Be smart and leave right now. Don't ever see Yanice again.

"Otherwise... hmph, hmph..."

Aiden ended his sentences with snorts as a threat.

Yanice let out a smile in disdain.

The only thing Aiden could brag about was his family in Kley as if it mattered.

Skylar might think twice if Aiden was the successor of the Pearsons in Sconvia.

However, Aiden belonged to the extended family in Kley. The most Aiden had going for him was his father who held a position in Nirth Commerce.

Not even Max, the heir of the Kent family could scare Skylar.

The Kents could give the extended family of the Pearsons a run for their money.

Aiden, a mere successor of the Pearson branch family, was in over his head to challenge and brag in Skylar's presence.

While Yanice was lost in her thoughts, Skylar said to Aiden. "What's your relationship with Terry Pearson?"

Aiden haughtily replied, "Terry is my father. He is a member of Nirth Commerce."

Skylar coldly scoffed. "Since Terry is your dad, I should let you know that even your dad bows and scrapes at me. Who are you to boast and brag at me?"

Everyone present was dumbstruck.

It took a while for the whole thing to register in Fergus' and Elaine's heads. Fergus yelled, "Skylar! Who do you think you are? The nerve of you to speak to Mr. Pearson like that!"

Frightened, Elaine dragged Yanice toward her and nervously said, "Yanice, you should cut ties with this arrogant man. He's no good for you."

Aiden burst out laughing.

"Hahaha! Are you kidding me?"

'My dad bows and scrapes at you?

"That remark of yours can cost you your life!"

A hint of wickedness streaked across Aiden's eyes.

"Cost me my life?"

Skylar chuckled. "You and your family put together have nothing on me.

"Aiden, you have a minute to leave the restaurant. You are not to be near Yanice ever again.

"I can make you if you don't leave on your own accord."

"How dare you!"

Aiden turned menacing with rage. "I'll demand your head on a platter the minute you lay your hands on me."

He enjoyed a privileged upbringing due to his ties to the Pearsons in Kley City, and his father holding a post in Nirth Commerce. He could practically do whatever he wanted in Nirth, and no one would say anything about it.

However, a nobody had the audacity to steal the woman Aiden had his eye on. The same loser even tried to drive Aiden away. Apparently, his father and the Pearson family were no threat to him.

D*mn it!

F*ck!

The audacity!

"What's stopping me?" Raising a brow, Skylar let out a scoff.

Terry was less than a challenge for Skylar, so Terry's son would likely be child's play.

Besides, the Pearsons and Nirth Commerce were not worth the mention.

Skylar could ruin them with the snap of a finger if they angered him.
