Chapter 671 Saying Goodbye

"Daddy, you're so amazing! You just pushed him a little and he couldn't get up," Lola exclaimed proudly as she settled back into her seat.

Skylar scooped her up onto his lap and ruffled her hair, indulging her.

"Aunt Clara, do you believe Daddy now?" the little girl asked, beaming with satisfaction.

Clara nodded eagerly, her eyes wide with surprise. She couldn't believe that Skylar was really as skilled as he had claimed.

Skylar turned to Lola with a grin. "Looks like no one's going to dare challenge Daddy now," he said, teasingly.

"Do you want to keep watching?" he asked his daughter.

Lola shook her head. "Nope, no one's as amazing as Daddy," she declared.

Skylar laughed. "Alright then, let's go," he said, scooping Lola up in his arms and rising to his feet.

Yulia and Clara fell into step behind them.

As they exited the sports center, Aiden wiped the sweat from his forehead and turned to Marlin next to him. "Let's get out of Sconvia, and fast," he said urgently.

Skylar's martial prowess was so terrifying that every moment he spent in Sconvia increased the danger he faced. With this thought in mind, he quickly rose to his feet and hurried with the man in the suit towards the parking area.

As he ran, he pulled out his phone and called his father Terry. As soon as Terry picked up, Skylar recounted everything that had happened at the MMA fights, and told him that he needed to leave Sconvia as soon as possible to avoid any further danger.

To his surprise, Terry replied with a confident, "Don't worry!"

"I've got people arranged with Sterling who are already in Sconvia, and we'll be taking care of that little punk soon enough."

"Even the Lucas family won't be able to protect him this time."

"He had the nerve to say he was going to have you killed? Come find me now, and we'll go to the Lucas family together."

"When the time comes, I'll make sure you see how he dies!"

Upon hearing Terry's words, Aiden's face lit up with excitement.

If the Pearson family could form an alliance with the Kent family and fight against Skylar together, then Skylar would be doomed.

Even though Skylar was formidable, he was still just one man.

The fighters that the Pearson family and the Kent family would bring in would definitely be top-notch.

If these top fighters teamed up against Skylar, he wouldn't stand a chance.

Then Aiden could have his revenge on Skylar and torture him to his heart's content.

"Okay, Dad, I'm coming to meet you now."

With that, Aiden was ready for Marlin to bring the car around.

Just then, a soft but chillingly eerie voice echoed through the air.

"Finished saying your goodbyes?"

Aiden and Marlin's hearts both skipped a beat as they immediately turned to the source of the sound.

There, beside their Mercedes, stood a stunning woman.

There, beside their Mercedes, stood a stunning woman.

Her features were strikingly beautiful, but her expression was blank.

It was Dianne!

Aiden asked anxiously, "Who are you..."

This woman's sudden appearance was too strange.

And, she was asking if they had finished saying their goodbyes?

Could it be... she was sent by Skylar?

At this thought, cold sweat began to form on his forehead once again.

For some reason, Aiden felt the same oppressive aura emanating from the beautiful woman before him as he did from Skylar. It was suffocating.

Before he could say anything, Dianne continued, "Since your goodbyes are done, I'll have to send you to Hades now."

In an instant, the Dragon Dagger appeared in Dianne's hand.

"You... stay back... I don't want to die yet," Aiden stuttered, taking steps back.

He was about to call for Terry's help, but before he could do anything, Dianne swung the Dragon Dagger.

Swoosh!

The Dragon Dagger pierced Aiden's throat.

"Ahh!" Aiden cried out in shock before collapsing to the ground, lifeless.

His phone fell out of his hand and hit the ground, shattering into pieces. On the other end of the line, Terry frantically shouted, "Aiden, what's going on?"

Marlin's legs gave out, and he collapsed to the ground, unable to comprehend what had just happened.

Chapter 672 Dead and Done

As they walked out of the competition venue, Yulia led Lola to a toy store. Clara walked up to Skylar and whispered, "Skylar, you're so skilled. Who are you really?"

Clara stared at Skylar, trying to catch a glimpse of something in her eyes. She suspected that Skylar had some sort of dark secret and may have ulterior motives for getting close to the Lucas family.

Skylar couldn't help but chuckle at Clara's suspicion. This girl had a sharp mind, but why did she always assume the worst about him?

"I'm just a little better at fighting, is that a crime?" Skylar replied, shaking his head with a wry smile.

"I'm not joking with you!" Clara gritted her teeth. "Come clean, what are your intentions towards Yulia and our family, the Lucas family?"

Skylar remained silent, unsure of how to respond. He couldn't believe Clara was so suspicious of him. Yulia had never questioned his loyalty before, so why was Clara so quick to jump to conclusions?

He couldn't help but roll his eyes at Clara's accusations. The Lucas family was nothing but a small-time group, and if it weren't for Yulia's connection to them, he wouldn't even give them a second glance.

Even if they begged him to join, he wouldn't give them the time of day.

Skylar was just about to brush off Clara's questioning when her phone suddenly rang. It was the leader of the Lucas family, Logan.

Clara hesitated for a moment before answering the call. "Hello, Uncle Logan, what can I do for you?"

Skylar couldn't hear the other end of the conversation, but he could see the color drain from Clara's face as she listened to Logan's words.

"Okay, Uncle Logan, I'll make sure he gets home right away!" Clara exclaimed before hanging up.

After hanging up the phone, Clara looked at Skylar and trembled, "Skylar...you...you just had Aiden killed..."

"Is there a problem?" Skylar said indifferently.

"You...you're too..."

Clara swallowed hard.

After a while, she forced herself to calm down, "Uncle Logan just said on the phone that Terry and Mr. Kent, along with a bunch of people, came to our the Lucas family to demand justice."

"He demanded that the Lucas family hand you over, otherwise, they won't spare the Lucas family either."

"Uncle Logan wants you to come back immediately and deal with the mess you caused!"

"Terry? Looks like he didn't take my warning seriously!" Skylar sneered. "I told him not to let me catch him in Sconvia's territory, otherwise, there will be no mercy!"

Without waiting for Clara's reaction, Skylar gave a quick instruction to Yulia and Lola, who were not far away and headed back to the Lucas family alone.

Clere hesitated for a moment before answering the call. "Hello, Uncle Logen, what can I do for you?"

Skylar couldn't hear the other end of the conversation, but he could see the color drain from Clere's face as she listened to Logen's words.

"Okay, Uncle Logen, I'll make sure he gets home right away!" Clere exclaimed before hanging up.

After hanging up the phone, Clere looked at Skylar and trembled, "Skylar...you...you just had Aiden killed..."

"Is there e problem?" Skyler seid indifferently.

"You...you're too..."

Clere swallowed herd.

After e while, she forced herself to celm down, "Uncle Logen just seid on the phone that Terry end Mr. Kent, along with e bunch of people, came to our the Luces family to demend justice."

"He demended that the Luces family hend you over, otherwise, they won't spere the Luces family either."

"Uncle Logen wents you to come beck immedietely end deel with the mess you ceused!"

"Terry? Looks like he didn't teke my werning seriously!" Skyler sneered. "I told him not to let me catch him in Sconvie's territory, otherwise, there will be no mercy!"

Without weiting for Clere's reection, Skyler geve e quick instruction to Yulie end Lole, who were not fer ewey end heeded beck to the Luces family elone.

He had already arranged for Dianne to secretly protect Yulia and Lola, so he didn't need to worry about them while he dealt with Terry.

Clara was worried about the situation at home and insisted on going back with Skylar, but he couldn't be bothered to argue.

When they arrived at the Lucas Manor, before even entering the gate, they saw many soldiers in uniform standing outside, carrying long guns with a terrifying aura on their faces.

At the sight of this, Clara's heart skipped a beat. If Terry and Mr. Kent had brought ordinary experts, Logan would have certainly roared over the phone.

But when he spoke to Clara earlier, he sounded extremely panicked.

It turned out that Terry and Mr. Kent had brought the troops stationed in Sconvia!

And judging from the number of soldiers, it seemed that all of them had been mobilized.

Clara looked at Skylar with mixed emotions.

This troublemaker was in big trouble this time!

What made her even angrier was that Skylar still had a nonchalant expression on his face.

As they parked the car and entered the mansion, Clara was even more nervous.

Chapter 673 Do I Need Teaching?

On both sides of the road stood soldiers, armed to the teeth and as upright as javelins. The air pressure was so low it could give you a heart attack.

As they arrived at the Lucas Manor's hall, they were met with a sea of people. Logan, Geoffrey, Jordan, and of course, Terry, who had caused this commotion, were all present. Naturally, Shane had been alerted as well.

Apart from the Lucas family, the most striking figure in the room was Terry, with his protruding gut. Sitting next to him were Max's biological father, Sterling, and Ezra. However, none of them were seated in the main position.

Even the host, Shane, was seated below.

Seated in the main position was a man dressed in military attire, with a solemn expression on his face.

Seeing the star on his shoulder, it was clear that he was a prominent figure in the Sconvia local military.

At that moment, Logan smiled at Terry and said, "Mr. Pearson, I made my position clear when you last came to see me. Skylar's every word and action has nothing to do with the Lucas family."

"Calm down. I have already called my niece and asked her to bring Skylar back immediately to face punishment."

"When he returns, Mr. Pearson, you can do whatever you want to punish him, and the Lucas family will not say a word."

"Punishment?" Terry's mouth twitched, and the fat on his face trembled. "He killed my son, I want him dead!"

Skylar had ruined his plans and embarrassed him, and now he was furious that Skylar had caused the death of his son. Terry wanted nothing more than to see Skylar dead and buried.

Until then, he would not be able to rest easy.

Sterling and Ezra, standing next to them, were seething with anger. "Today, we're here to take his dog's life!" they exclaimed.

"Skylar not only killed my grandson Max but also forced our Kent family to compensate him for billions of dollars in assets," said Sterling. "Such a banditry act happening in the prosperous Sconvia is absolutely intolerable!"

"If the Lucas family dares to say a single word, they'll have to bear the wrath of both the Kent and Pearson families!" added Ezra.

"N-no, we won't, we won't," Logan stammered, visibly scared.

The other members of the Lucas family were also sweating profusely.

"When he returns, Mr. Pearson, you can do whatever you want to punish him, and the Lucas family will not say a word."

"Punishment?" Terry's mouth twitched, and the frown on his face trembled. "He killed my son, I want him dead!"

Skyler had ruined his plans and embarrassed him, and now he was furious that Skyler had caused the death of his son. Terry wanted nothing more than to see Skyler dead and buried.

Until then, he would not be able to rest easy.

Sterling and Ezra, standing next to them, were seething with anger. "Today, we're here to take his dog's life!" they exclaimed.

"Skyler not only killed my grandson Max but also forced our Kent family to compensate him for billions of dollars in assets," said Sterling. "Such a bendy racket happening in the prosperous Scoville is absolutely intolerable!"

"If the Lucas family dares to say a single word, they'll have to bear the wrath of both the Kent and Pearson families!" added Ezra.

"N-no, we won't, we won't," Logan stammered, visibly scared.

The other members of the Lucas family were also sweating profusely.

Skyler may seem quiet, but he's capable of such ruthlessness. He's only been in Scoville for a short time, yet he dares to kill people, especially the legitimate heirs of the Pearson and Kent families.

Who is this Skyler, and how dare he be so arrogant?

Shane and Geoffrey couldn't help but gulp nervously, their expressions turning worried.

At that moment, a cold voice cut through the tension.

"Waiting for me, I presume?"

And with those words, Skylar strode into the room, exuding an aura of power and confidence.

Clara trailed behind him, her expression fraught with worry.

As soon as Logan saw him, he launched into a tirade.

"Skylar, how dare you come back here? Do you even know where Sconvia is? You killed two people from the Pearson and Kent families, and if you don't want to bring shame to your wife and child, you better apologize and make amends with your life!"

But before Logan could finish, Skylar interrupted him with a sharp slap across the face.

"Do I need your advice on how to handle my affairs, Logan?" he retorted coolly

Chapter 674 Are You Going to Convict Me?

Logan couldn't handle the force of the blow and was knocked down to the ground, spitting out a mouthful of blood.

"Skylar, you..." Logan started to speak, his voice a mixture of shock and anger, but when he met Skylar's gaze, he felt a shiver run down his spine. He couldn't bring himself to say anything else.

Skylar ignored Logan and turned his attention to Terry.

"It seems I was too merciful last time," he said calmly.

"Since you didn't take my warning seriously, I'll send you both down and let you reunite as father and son!"

With that, he walked towards Terry's location.

Terry's face was even more unpleasant than if he had just eaten a pile of shit.

This guy was just too arrogant. He had even brought his troops stationed in Sconvia City, making the entire Lucas family like fish on a chopping board. And yet, Skylar dared to boast that he would kill Terry!

"How audacious!" The man in military uniform sitting in the main seat was also displeased.

Skylar clearly did not respect him!

"Who do you think you are? How dare you say you'll kill someone in front of me?" The man in military uniform's expression darkened, and he snapped his fingers.

The next moment, a group of fully armed soldiers rushed into the reception room and surrounded Skylar.

It seemed that if Skylar made any further moves or spoke lightly again, they would take him down.

Seeing the man in military uniform exuding such dominance, Terry sneered inwardly.

No matter how skilled Skylar was, he wouldn't be a match for these gun-toting soldiers. Not to mention, there were thousands of them.

If Skylar dared to resist, he would probably be riddled with bullets on the spot.

With this in mind, Terry immediately boasted, "Skylar, do you know who the man sitting in the main seat is?"

"He is Colonel Theodore Weber, the leader of the troops stationed in Sconvia City."

As soon as the words left his mouth, Terry turned his gaze to Theodore and continued, "Colonel Weber, Skylar has only been in Sconvia City for a short half month, and he has already killed Max from the Kent family and my son Aiden one after another."

"I bet he has blood on his hands from countless other victims too."

"A dangerous criminal like him cannot be allowed to live. Please, Colonel Weber, help us rid the people of this scourge!"

Terry made a show of looking pained and concerned.

As expected, the others also chimed in.

Sterling and Ezra both stood up and addressed Theodore, "Colonel Weber, this scumbag not only killed my grandson Max but also seized over half of our Kent family's assets."

It seemed that if Skylar made any further moves or spoke lightly again, they would take him down.

Sterling and Ezra both stood up and addressed Theodore, "Colonel Weber, this scumbag not only killed my grandson Mex but also seized over half of our Kent family's assets."

"This ruthless and arrogant thug must not be allowed to live!"

"We implore Colonel Weber to heed the will of the people and rid us of this menace!"

Upon hearing their words, Theodore glared at Skylar with outrage and said, "I never expected to find such an arrogant scum in a metropolis like Sconvia City."

"You men, take Skylar into custody and bring him to the military camp for punishment according to military law!"

"Yes, Colonel Weber!"

The soldiers surrounding them stepped forward menacingly, ready to lay hands on Skylar.

Logan and Jordan couldn't help but feel delighted at the scene unfolding before them. They had never liked Skylar but had been unable to do anything about it. Now, with the help of Terry and Ezra, they had finally gotten rid of him for good.

Skylar may have been skilled, but in the face of Theodore and his troops stationed in Sconvia City, he was nothing more than a small ant.

"Colonel Weber, is there some misunderstanding here?" Clara, who was standing beside Skylar, blurted out in desperation.

Skylar, on the other hand, sneered and taunted Theodore, "Colonel Weber, are you going to convict me without even asking for the reason?"

Chapter 675 Who Gave You the Courage?

Theodore's expression hardened. "Hmph! Are you trying to tell me that Mr. Pearson and Mr. Kent framed you?"

"Aiden and Max, you didn't kill them?"

"I did."

Skylar spoke calmly.

Theodore raised an eyebrow and continued, "And did you transfer most of the Kent family's assets to your name?"

"Yes."

Skylar didn't deny it in the slightest.

"Skylar!"

Clara stomped her foot in anger.

What was wrong with this guy?

She just defended him, and now he's not even denying anything. Is he trying to get himself killed?

Skylar glanced at her before turning back to Theodore. "Aiden and Max deserved what they got..."

Skylar's words were cut off as Theodore interrupted him, "It's not up to you to determine whether or not they deserved it."

"Now that you've admitted to your crimes, you can say whatever you need to say in military court."

"Take this murderer into custody!"

Theodore commanded, and soldiers quickly moved in to arrest Skylar.

Skylar let out a cold laugh. "Just a mere Colonel, yet such a big mouth!"

"As the second-in-command of the garrison in Sconvia City, who gave you the courage to charge me with a crime?"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Skylar took two steps forward.

He was originally surrounded by soldiers with guns, and the onlookers couldn't see clearly what was happening. But before anyone could react, Skylar was standing right in front of Theodore.

"Sky..."

Theodore was taken aback. This guy's skills were so impressive.

But before he could react any further, a loud slap resounded through the air, harshly hitting him in the face.

Boom!

Everyone present was stunned into silence.

Skylar had the audacity to slap Theodore right in front of all these soldiers!

Did he want to die?

The searing pain woke Theodore up from his shock.

"Skylar, how dare you lay a hand on me?" Theodore roared.

He was Colonel Weber, a man who stood above tens of thousands of soldiers in the garrison.

Skylar had the nerve to slap him in front of all of his subordinates.

It was like plucking feathers from a tiger's mouth!

He was asking for death!

"Why wouldn't I dare?" Skylar sneered. "That last slap didn't discriminate, it hit you black and blue."

Smack!

As soon as he finished speaking, Skylar delivered another slap with lightning speed. Theodore, who had spent many years in the military and was skilled in combat, was on high alert and not about to let Skylar have his way. He instinctively tried to block Skylar's slap with his hands, but his speed was no match for Skylar's. Before his hands could even reach halfway, Skylar's slap landed hard on his face.

As soon as the words left his mouth, Skylar took two steps forward.

He was originally surrounded by soldiers with guns, and the onlookers couldn't see clearly what was happening. But before anyone could react, Skylar was standing right in front of Theodore.

He instinctively tried to block Skyler's slap with his hands, but his speed was no match for Skyler's. Before his hands could even reach halfway, Skyler's slap landed hard on his face.

It was a perfect mirror image of the previous slap. Both sides of Theodore's cheeks instantly turned red and swollen, with ten clear handprints visible.

"This one is for abusing your power!" Skyler declared as he raised his arm and delivered a third slap to Theodore's swollen face.

"And this last one is for being an unjust leader of the garrison!"

As the deputy commander of the Sconvia City garrison, Theodore's duty was to defend against foreign forces and ensure the safety of the people.

But instead, he had used the military for his own personal gain, supporting Terry and Ezra without regard for the truth or justice.

Skylar was furious at this gross abuse of power, and he put even more force behind the third slap, knocking Theodore to the ground and causing him to cough up blood.

The onlookers were stunned by Skylar's audacity and martial prowess.

Chapter 676 Excessively Arrogant

Theodore Weber was shocked and angry. He never thought someone would hit him in Sconvia City until he vomited blood.

And at that moment, his men finally reacted to the situation.

"How dare you, madman, dare to make a move against our Colonel? Are you looking for death?" they exclaimed.

As they spoke, dozens of guns were aimed at Skylar Stone's head. Everyone entered a state of alert, as if Skylar Stone would be immediately dead if there was any movement of wind.

But even so, Skylar Stone was undaunted and did not even look at the soldiers. He stared at Theodore Weber and said in a cold voice, "Why didn't you get your ass back in there and confess to the army?"

Only Terry Pearson, Sterling Kent, Max Kent, and others reacted. They all looked at Skylar Stone with dead eyes.

They thought, "How dare he hit Colonel Weber? He's asking for death!"

Clara Lucas, on the other hand, almost vomited blood. Was Skylar Stone crazy? When a normal person sees this situation, he or she will kneel down and beg for mercy. Skylar Stone slapped Colonel Weber three times! He was really dead this time!

Even if Skylar Stone was very capable of fighting, defeating boxing champion Light Thompson only with a slap. However, it didn't mean he could challenge the authority of the big leaders of the garrison.

The soldiers who charged into the living room carried long guns and ready to shoot him down. In addition, the Lucas family was surrounded by armed soldiers. Even if Skylar Stone could fly, it would be difficult for him to escape.

Shane Lucas and Geoffrey Lucas, looking at Skylar Stone's eyes, had more complex feelings. They knew Skylar Stone was not simple, but they also did not expect him to be so reckless.

Logan Lucas and Jordan Lucas, who originally hated Skylar Stone, could not help but feel happy at that time. Especially Jordan Lucas, who was full of gloating eyes, thought, "Skylar Stone! Oh! Skylar Stone, you have dug your own grave."

At that moment, they imagined Skylar Stone being beaten and gasping for his last breath.

And Theodore Weber, after a brief consternation, finally reacted.

"What?" he thought. "Skylar Stone told me to go back to the army and confess my guilt? This is a subordinate thing!"

Theodore Weber's heart burned with anger. No one in Sconvia City dared to reprimand him like that!

The soldiers who charged into the living room carried long guns and ready to shoot him down. In addition, the Luces family was surrounded by armed soldiers. Even if Skylar Stone could fly, it would be difficult for him to escape.

Shene Luces and Geoffrey Luces, looking at Skylar Stone's eyes, had more complex feelings. They knew Skylar Stone was not simple, but they also did not expect him to be so reckless.

Logen Luces and Jordan Luces, who originally hated Skylar Stone, could not help but feel happy at that time. Especially Jordan Luces, who was full of gloating eyes, thought, "Skylar Stone! Oh! Skylar Stone, you have dug your own grave."

Theodore Weber's heart burned with anger. No one in Sconvia City dared to reprimand him like that!

"You want me to go back to the army and confess?" He sneered. "Boy, who are you to say that? Are you my leader? Or are you a military member, The Eight Banners?"

"Neither!" Skylar Stone retorted. "But I can tell you, even if I were a military member, The Eight Banners would stand in front of me, and I would say the same thing!"

This was a bold statement! Theodore Weber was an officer of the Sconvia City garrison, at a major general level.

The Eight Banners, not to mention the key military members. Once you reached that level, you could turn clouds into rain. Not to mention with a sneeze, you could shake the whole North.

Skylar Stone ignored all these people, displaying arrogance beyond belief.

"Unbelievable, Skylar Stone!" Theodore Weber gritted his teeth and exclaimed. "I can take you down on the spot with that kind of attitude!"

"Someone shoot him!" he ordered.

"Yes!" The soldiers who had their guns trained on Skylar Stone immediately jerked to attention and were about to pull their triggers.

Chapter 677 Did I Give You Permission To Talk?

I'm afraid Skylar Stone will not escape death, especially with dozens of muzzles pointing and ready to fire. Even if he can fly, the chances of escaping death are close to non-existence.

Clara Lucas was frightened. Her face was white and she turned her head away.

She was afraid to see Skylar Stone's calamity.

Terry Pearson and Ezra Kent, the father and son, had their eyes wide open, fearing they might miss Skylar Stone's death in action.

Just when everyone in the room thought Skylar Stone was an inch away from being dead, a loud roar came from outside the door.

"Stop it!"

Everyone in the room trembled, and they then looked at the direction of the sound.

Including those soldiers who raised their guns, as well as Theodore Weber.

The next moment, a man in a military uniform appeared in front of everyone, followed by a line of soldiers behind him.

When the soldiers saw the man in uniform, they paused and saluted.

In unison, they shouted, "Director Harte!"

The man in uniform was Sconvia City Garrison's supreme commander, Theodore Weber's boss, Jaxon Harte!

Terry Pearson and Ezra Kent, both father and son faces changed dramatically. "How come even Jaxon Harte was alerted?"

For a moment, a sense of foreboding suddenly emerged in their hearts.

Jaxon Harte could not have been invited by Skylar Stone, right?

Theodore Weber did not have time to think about it, and hurriedly stepped forward and saluted Jaxon Harte with a swish, "Director General!"

Smack!

Before Theodore Weber's hand could be lowered, Jaxon Harte reached out and slapped him hard in the face.

"Director General, you..."

Theodore Weber covered his face, eyes full of disbelief.

However, before his words could be asked, Jaxon Harte chided coldly, "Theodore Weber, you dare hide from me and move the entire Sconvia City garrison?"

"If a foreign enemy takes advantage of the situation, can you afford the consequences?"

"Director General, I..."

Theodore Weber swallowed hard and could not say a word.

According to military discipline, his behavior violated the law.

But Sconvia City is a tactful city, and the people within its jurisdiction always follow the rules.

It is almost impossible for foreign countries to take advantage of their city.

Military discipline is strict, but lenient.

Sometimes they use the power in their hands to facilitate their own, as long as it does not cross the boundaries, Jaxon Harte will close one eye on the matter.

However, today Jaxon Harte suddenly acted professionally and threw him a slap in front of so many people.

Terry Pearson and Ezra Kent, father and son, became less nervous after hearing Jaxon Harte's words.

As long as Jaxon Harte is not invited by Skylar Stone, things are not very concerning.

Although Jaxon Harte may feel angry, he will most likely punish Theodore Weber, and they are not involved.

Of course, not only them, the Lucas family also are secretly relieved.

If Jaxon Harte is really Skylar Stone invited, they have some things, they will have to think long and hard.

Fortunately, they thought too much.

"Director Harte!"

Terry Pearson suddenly got up and said, "What happened today is not Colonel Weber's fault, it's all Skylar Stone's fault..."

"Shut up!"

Jaxon Harte yelled, "Who are you? Who gave you permission to talk in this room?"

"Theodore Weber, bringing the garrison out to back you up. I already gave you face by not asking about what you did. How dare you defend yourself?"

Terry Pearson was fuming inside and said, "Director General Harte, I am the heir of the Pearson family in Kley City, Terry Pearson, and I was the director of Nirth Commerce."

"The person next to me is Ezra Kent, who is also a director of Nirth Commerce."

Chapter 678 What Are You Planning To Do?

Terry Pearson reported himself as trying to use Nirth Commerce to press Jaxon Harte.

"The Xavier Quill's family? Nirth Commerce?"

Jaxon Harte's expression changed when he heard the Xavier Quill family and Nirth Commerce, as if he was afraid of something.

Terry Pearson immediately got smug: "That's right! Director General Harte, the people in control of the Pearson family and the Kent family are all here."

"We are so excited, naturally we have our reasons. I hope you do not interfere in this matter and close one eyes on this."

"In the future, if you need our two families, I will definitely be there."

"Think of it this way: we borrowed Colonel Weber and his garrison from you."

"When we knock out Skylar Stone, we will definitely send them back to your camp intact."

Jaxon Harte almost laughed at these words.

The Xavier Quill family and the Nirth Commerce Union were remarkable, but you, Terry Pearson, represent the Xavier Quill family?

Can you represent the Nirth Commerce Union?

Will the Quill's family be willing to offend the local garrison for you?

Exploiting power?

Jaxon Harte landed another slap on Terry Pearson's face at the thought of this.

Terry Pearson stumbled and fell face first into the ground.

"How dare you treat yourself as an outsider? How dare you openly bribe the director of the local garrison. Are you looking for death?"

"I still haven't settled the score with you for bringing in Theodore Weber as your back up, and you still dare to ask me to give you some face?"

"Look at yourself in the mirror and see if you're qualified?"

Terry Pearson was so bruised and battered that he wanted the ground to consume him immediately.

Jaxon Harte didn't show mercy, he slapped him in the face in public.

It was humiliating.

Kents, both father and son, look disgusted.

Jaxon Harte hit and scolded Terry Pearson, but one word poked into their hearts.

Allowing Theodore Weber to send in soldiers to surround the Lucas family, will add social credits to Kent family's .

Jaxon Harte pulling down Terry Pearson is equivalent to tearing the father and son team apart.

Jaxon Harte did not care about this, and turned his attention to Theodore Weber. He reprimanded: "Theodore Weber, what are you still doing there? Come back to the army with me and atone for your mistake immediately!"

Theodore Weber's reputation was all over the floor, but Jaxon Harte was his boss.

The military had a strict hierarchy, and he could not disobey Jaxon Harte's orders.

"Yes, General Director!"

Theodore Weber said helplessly.

Jaxon Harte said no more and turned around and left.

Theodore Weber said helplessly.

Jaxon Herte said no more and turned around and left.

He came and left with a breeze.

Theodore Weber did not hesitate and immediately took all the soldiers out with him.

Seeing this situation, Terry Pearson and Ezra Kent, father and son and others, their faces changed dramatically and they shouted, "Colonel Weber!"

How could they face Skylar Stone with these soldiers gone?

How can Theodore Weber protect them now that he turned into a mud-covered Bodhisattva?

Without even glancing at them, he left the room and headed for the front door.

The Lucas family was originally surrounded by soldiers, and now not a single soldier's shadow can be seen anywhere.

Skylar Stone glanced at Terry Pearson and the others and said mockingly, "The people who gave you courage earlier seem to be having a hard time protecting themselves, huh?"

Terry Pearson and the others trembled at Skylar Stone's smiling gaze.

"Skylar Stone, you...what do you want?"

One by one, they flew away like a bird.

It's no wonder they were so scared.

Terry Pearson and Sterling Kent had seen Skylar Stone and Dianne Zander kill people with their own eyes.

Earlier, they had the courage because they were backed by several thousand soldiers carrying guns.

But now their courage is all gone.

Chapter 679 Please Let Me Go

And Skylar Stone is a man that does not fear anyone and when he is angry, no one can handle his anger.

"What do you want to do?"

Skylar Stone sneered, "Have you come here today without thinking about the consequences if you fail?"

He was not the kind of person who would kill without giving the offenders a chance.

Unlike Terry Pearson and the Kent family, instead of cherishing the chance given, they decided to come back and attempt to take his life. For this, he will no longer be a Mr. Nice guy anymore.

As soon as the words left his mouth, Skylar Stone waved his hand and three flying knives flew out from his sleeve.

Swish, swish, swish!

The flying knives instantly struck the tabletop beside Terry Pearson, Ezra Kent and the rest.

The tabletop was thick solid wood but it was almost shot through.

Skylar Stone glanced at the three of them and said, "Please don't wait for me to do it myself!"

"Skylar Stone!"

Seeing the three flying knives, Terry Pearson was so scared that his body trembled.

He could not have imagined that Skylar Stone would want them to end their lives.

Ezra Kent, both the father and son, was furious to the core.

"Stone!"

Ezra Kent reprimanded in a cold voice.

Skylar Stone raised an eyebrow. "Why are you spewing so much nonsense?"

As he spoke, he flicked his right index finger forward.

Whoosh!

A piece of leaf, like a sharp dart, shot out from his hand.

With the sound of air bursting, it swept towards Ezra Kent.

Poof!

As a result of the slash to his neck from the leaf, Ezra Kent died instantly.

Killed someone with a leaf?

Terry Pearson's body trembled as he saw this scene.

Skylar Stone's skill is extremely scary right?

Of course, not just he, but also the Lucas family members who were present all had a cold sweat.

Shane Lucas and Pierre Lucas' faces are all pale.

Logan Lucas and Jordan Lucas, and others, revealed a look of horror on their face.

They never thought Skylar Stone's body was so strong.

Moreover, he dared to kill Ezra Kent in front of so many people.

Thinking about how they had repeatedly provoked Skylar Stone earlier, their scalps tingled and their palms were sweating.

"Skylar Stone, you..."

Clara Lucas exclaimed in shock.

Even though she heard earlier that Skylar Stone had killed Terry Pearson, she felt Skylar Stone was not as simple as it seemed.

Ezre Kent reprimended in e cold voice.

Skyler Stone reised en eyebrow. "Why ere you spewing so much nonsense?"

As he spoke, he flicked his right index finger forward.

Whoosh!

A piece of leef, like e sherp dert, shot out from his hend.

With the sound of eir bursting, it swept towerds Ezre Kent.

Poof!

As e result of the slesh to his neck from the leef, Ezre Kent died instently.

Killed someone with e leef?

Terry Peerson's body trembled es he sew this scene.

Skyler Stone's skill is extremely scery right?

Of course, not just he, but elso the Luces family members who were present ell hed e cold sweet.

Shene Luces end Pierre Luces' feces ere ell pele.

Logen Luces end Jordan Luces, end others, reveeled e look of horror on their fece.

They never thought Skyler Stone's body wes so strong.

Moreover, he dered to kill Ezre Kent in front of so meny people.

Thinking about how they hed repeetedly provoked Skyler Stone eerlier, their scelps tingled end their pelms were sweating.

"Skyler Stone, you..."

Clere Luces expleimed in shock.

Even though she heerd eerlier thet Skyler Stone hed killed Terry Peerson, she felt Skyler Stone wes not es simple es it seemed.

But that's just what I heard, and it's not even close to what it feels like to be there.

Sterling Kent, seeing Ezra Kent die like this, shouted, "Dad!"

Both his son, Max Kent, and his father, Ezra Kent, died in front of him after another.

Skylar Stone killed them both.

It was so terrifying that Skylar Stone didn't dare to fight, or to even speak harshly.

At this moment, a strong sense of regret arose in his heart.

If he had known this would happen, he would not have come back to mess with Skylar Stone, even if this decision will have him scattering all his family's money.

The whole meeting room was filled with a killing aura. No one dares say a word, or even breathe for fear of drawing Skylar Stone's attention.

Skylar Stone calmly glanced at Terry Pearson and Sterling Kent, saying: "Are you also waiting for me to take action?"

Poof!

Terry Pearson kneels to the ground after Skylar has spoken his words.

"Mr Stone, I'm wrong...I know I'm wrong...please spare my life, spare my life..."

"I can give you all the assets and cash in my name, just spare me this time..."

Chapter 680 It Can't Be Him

"Not a chance!"

Skylar Stone shook his head, and another leaf flew out of his hand.

Terry Pearson's pleading voice came to a screeching halt.

The leaf was struck right at his throat.

He subconsciously looked down and tried to reach out to pluck out the leaf, which was as hard as steel. However, as soon as he moved, he heard the sound of slow death.

"I..."

He wanted to say that he didn't want to die yet, but it was also one word that he uttered that drained him of his vitality.

Poof!

Terry Pearson collapsed on the ground.

He was dead.

Seeing this, Sterling Kent bolted for the door.

But how could Skylar Stone just sit there and do nothing?

Poof!

Another leaf flew out of Skylar Stone's hand and hit Sterling Kent directly in the back, stabbing him hard in the heart.

Sterling Kent twitched a few times and fell straight down, face to the ground.

In less than two seconds, he was dead.

Terry Pearson, Ezra Kent, Sterling Kent, all three died one after another.

Skylar Stone did not wait for the Lucas family to react. He directly instructed Logan Lucas: "Logan Lucas, have someone clean up the place."

"When Yulia and Lola come back later, I don't want them to smell any hint of blood."

Feeling Skylar Stone's powerful presence, Logan Lucas did not have the courage to decline.

Subconsciously, he nodded, "Yes!"

He got rid of the sore eyes, Skylar Stone decided to leave the Lucas family alone before they started nagging him.

It was not until he had gone a long way that Logan Lucas and the others reacted.

Only then did they realize that everyone's foreheads were covered with cold sweat, and their backs were soaked through.

Logan Lucas and Jordan Lucas are filled with intense fear.

After a while, Jordan Lucas forced himself to calm down and cursed: "Knowing martial arts is great, huh?"

"After all, he's just a grandson-in-law of the Lucas family. How dare he ask his uncle to do something for him?"

Jordan Lucas's scolding struck a chord in many people's minds.

They quickly followed and echoed, "That's right!"

"How can you walk by the river and not get your shoes wet?"

"Skylar is so rampant, if it wasn't for Director General Harte coming today and taking Colonel Weber away, he would have been shot!"

"First he killed Aiden Pearson and Max Kent, now he's killing Terry Pearson, Ezra Kent and Sterling Kent. The Pearson family and Nirth Commerce will never let him get away!"

"Doesn't he think he's mighty and invincible? Next I'd like to see how he deals with them!"

Hearing these words, Logan Lucas and Jordan Lucas and the others instantly recovered energy.

Subconsciously, he nodded, "Yes!"

Jordan Luces's scolding struck a chord in many people's minds.

They quickly followed and echoed, "That's right!"

"How can you walk by the river and not get your shoes wet?"

"Skyler is so repentant, if it weren't for Director General Herte coming today and taking Colonel Weber away, he would have been shot!"

"First he killed Aiden Pearson and Max Kent, now he's killing Terry Pearson, Ezra Kent and Sterling Kent. The Pearson family and North Commerce will never let him get away!"

"Doesn't he think he's mighty and invincible? Next I'd like to see how he deals with them!"

Hearing these words, Logan Luces and Jordan Luces and the others instantly recovered energy.

Just now they were all shocked by Skylar Stone's terrifying aura.

Now that they think about it, Skylar Stone, no matter how powerful he is, is only a single fighter. He can still be the enemy of the Pearson family from Kley City and North Commerce?

And Clara Lucas, who was on the side, couldn't help but be filled with worry.

No one can protect Skylar Stone now that he has offended the Pearson family and North Commerce.

Not to mention the North Commerce, even in front of the Pearson family from Kley City, Shane Lucas is not qualified to speak to them.

This time, Skylar Stone has really gotten into big trouble.

"Dad, I suddenly remembered..."

At this time, Logan Lucas's daughter Shane Lucas suddenly tapped his head. "Earlier we deduced that the person who killed Max Kent and took away the Kent family's hundred billion assets, and the person who forced the Jenkins family to make a statement overnight and cut ties with Parker Jenkins and Barry Jenkins, as well as the person who built the city in the city, is the same person."

"But now it seems that the person who killed Max Kent is Skylar Stone."

"In that case, then the other two cases, it wouldn't be him too, right?"
