Chapter 681 The Boss Of City In The City

As soon as these words came out, the expressions on the faces of everyone in the Lucas family froze.

If Sadia's previous deduction was reliable, then Skylar's identity...

At this moment, Jordan stood up and said loudly, "How is it possible?"

"Sadia, you also saw just now that Skylar is just very skilled."

"The killing of Max can only prove that Skylar is a brave and foolish person."

"If he really has some terrible identity, how can Terry and Ezra not know?"

"Since they were brave enough to use the Sconvia City garrison to deal with Skylar, they must have done a lot of investigations before that."

"Apart from knowing a little martial arts, Skylar has absolutely nothing outstanding, and it is absolutely impossible that he killed the Jenkin brothers."

"After all, since the accident, the Jenkin family has kept silent about revenge, which is very different from the behavior of Terry and Ezra."

Everyone in the Lucas family pondered deeply upon what he said.

That was right.

The power of the Jenkin family was definitely no less than that of the Kent family, and in some respects, it could even be superior.

However, when Parker and Barry were killed, the Jenkin family not only did not dare to avenge them, they even announced that they would sever ties with Parker and Barry overnight.

This showed that the people who killed Parker and Barry were existences that the Jenkin family could not afford to mess with.

However, Terry, Max and the others acted as if they did not take Skylar seriously.

It seemed that what was scary about Skylar was his terrific skills.

Their previous inferences were skewed.

The other two things came from other people.

Thinking of this, everyone in the Lucas family heaved a sigh of relief.

"By the way, isn't the City in the City almost finished, considering they worked day and night?"

Jordan asked suddenly.

He has been thinking about the inauguration dinner.

A person who had spent 50 billion dollars buying a piece of scarce land in the Sconvia Downtown area, and then mobilizing tens of thousands of workers to build a City in the City relentlessly - such a character must be remarkable.

Of course, it was not just about money.

To build a City in the City, it was difficult to complete the project without a strong support behind it.

The boss of this City in the City was definitely beyond the power of all Sconvia's wealthy families, and was very likely to be a member of a famous family in the Nirth Province.

If there was an opportunity to attend the inauguration dinner and make friends with such a big shot, the future of the Lucas family would definitely be promising.

Hearing Jordan's words, Logan nodded slightly and said, "Well, it's almost there."

"I heard that not only the rich families in Sconvia, but even the rich families in neighboring cities will come to attend the inauguration dinner."

"Everyone is proud to be able to attend the dinner party. Many rich ladies are already getting their dresses ready."

When Jordan, Sadia and the others heard this, their eyes flickered.

The boss of this City in the City was no ordinary person.

They could not wait for the inauguration dinner, and were looking forward to seeing the big shot's demeanor at that time.

Skylar acted as though he was bossing around before leaving, Logan felt very unhappy when he recalled it.

However, this was the lobby of the Lucas manor after all. As the future successor of the Lucas family, he could only let the bodies of Terry, Sterling and Ezra be carried away, and he hastened to clean up before the blood stains penetrate into the marble on the ground.

And Shane and Geoffrey left the lobby with heavy hearts.

Chapter 682 Wealth Is Often Found In Danger

At the villa where Shane lived, in the living room.

"Dad, that guy Skylar is so skilled, and he is so cruel and perverse, he dared to kill Terry and the Kent's in front of us."

Geoffrey said worriedly.

Even if he was mentally prepared for Skylar's skill, what happened in the lobby caused a storm in his heart.

"Dad, should we have a long-term discussion about Lola... I'm afraid that when Skylar finds out, the Lucas family won't be able to bear the consequences of his anger."

Although he had heard from his bodyguards that Skylar was very powerful before, it was far less impactful when compared to what he saw with his own eyes today.

If something happened to Lola, Skylar would definitely investigate with all his might.

If Skylar found out that they did the tricks, he was afraid everyone in the Lucas family would suffer.

He and Shane were the first to bear the brunt.

Hearing his words, Shane did not take it seriously, snorted coldly, and said, "Wealth is often found in danger, we want our Lucas family to prosper. This risk is nothing."

"Besides, I asked Yulia to come back and gave her so many shares in the Lucas family. Naturally, she will also make a corresponding contribution to the glory of my Lucas family."

"Without Lola, the couple can still have another child. Anyway, with so many shares in their hands, they can afford to have as many as they want."

"However, if they don't know how to be grateful..."

As he spoke, Shane's eyes suddenly turned cold, "I have already contacted the people, and the people sent will be able to arrive in Sconvia in a few days."

"There is always someone greater. Skylar is powerful, but he is definitely not the opponent of those few. I hope he will not recklessly hit me with a gun."

"Is there really a master sent to Sconvia?"

Geoffrey suddenly became excited, "Then I don't have to worry."

"Skylar is no match for that..."

While speaking, Geoffrey's eyes showed a touch of excitement.

However, before he finished speaking, there was a knock at the door.

"Who's there!"

Geoffrey was so frightened that he quickly swallowed the words that came to his lips, and immediately got up and rushed to the gate.

If Skylar heard what he said just now, the consequences would be disastrous.

"it's me."

Clara's voice came from outside the door.

"Clara? When did you arrive at the door?"

Geoffrey asked very cautiously.

Clara has a good relationship with Skylar and Yulia.

If Jordan and his gang heard it, he would not be nervous.

That was because Jordan wished for Skylar's death, even if he heard about it, he would never report it.

However, if Clara heard what he said just now, he could not be so sure of what are the consequences.

Clara gave Geoffrey a strange look, "I just arrived? What's wrong, Uncle Geoffrey? What happened, you seem very nervous?"

Geoffrey stared at her for a long time, and after confirming that there was nothing unusual about Clara, he felt relieved.

"Nothing, what are you doing here?" Geoffrey asked.

Clara pursed her lips and said, "Uncle Geoffrey, although Skylar is a bit arrogant, he is the husband of Yulia and Lola's father after all."

"I want to ask Grandpa if there is any way to help him."

Clara thought that Shane loved Yulia so much, so he would definitely love her.

The most likely person in the Lucas family that would reach out to save Skylar was none other than Shane.

Chapter 683 What Was On Clara's Mind?

Although in front of the huge Pearson family and the Nirth Commerce, the Lucas family was nothing.

However, Shane had lived in Sconvia for most of his life, so he still had some connections.

If he was willing to use those relationships, not to mention avoiding Skylar's punishment, at least he could save Skylar's life.

"Oh, that's what you're here for."

Geoffrey's expression immediately returned to normal, "I was talking about this with the old man just now."

"However, the old man said that Skylar has provoked the Pearson family and the Nirth Commerce this time. Even if he uses all the power of the Lucas family, it may not change anything."

"I know what you mean. Go back first. I will discuss the details with the old man."

"If there is a chance, we will naturally try to recourse."

"Anyway, he is also Phaedra's son-in-law. We won't just watch Yulia lose her husband and Lola lose her father."

"Uncle Geoffrey, please talk to Grandpa carefully, I'll go first."

Clara nodded and left the villa obediently.

It was not until she walked away that Geoffrey returned to the living room of the villa.

He would not know that Clara, who was walking on the road, was extremely pale, and his eyes were even more terrified.

Obviously, she heard what Geoffrey and Shane said just now.

Based on what he heard, did that mean grandpa and uncle want to hurt Lola?

Why was this happening?

What good would it do them?

What did it have to do with keeping the Lucas family glorious?

Clara guessed wildly in his heart.

Those words kept hitting her brain, she could not believe her ears.

What exactly was going on?

Was it not because Shane missed Aunt Phaedra too much, that was why Yulia came back?

After Yulia came back, the Lucas family, specifically Shane and Geoffrey, treated Yulia the best.

Especially Shane, who seemed to want to make up for all the guilt he felt towards Phaedra on Yulia.

It turned out that he had other intentions when giving Yulia such a big portion of shares!

It was to stabilize Yulia and Skylar.

Those guilt, kindness, and love were all fake!

All were faked.

Shane and Geoffrey actually wanted to sacrifice Lola for the future of the Lucas family.

Hypocritical, too hypocritical!

At this moment, Clara felt that they were much more disgusting than Uncle Logan.

Logan's hatred for Skylar and Yulia was at least shown, while Shane and Geoffrey were the most terrifying.

Thinking of this, she could not help shivering.

As she walked, she began to debate with herself, should she tell Skylar and Yulia about this.

"Clara, what are you thinking? Your brows are almost touching each other."

A delicate voice said.

It was Yulia who walked over with a smile, and the lovely Lola was beside her.

Clara paused, and quickly shook her head, "No... Nothing."

"Yulia, I suddenly have something to do, so I will step out first."

With that said, she quickened her pace and left without looking back.

Yulia looked at the back of her leaving in a hurry, feeling a little puzzled.

However, thinking that maybe she was really in a hurry, she did not take it too seriously.

At that moment, she took Lola's hand and walked towards Floccessy Tower.

At the same time, the Pearson family.

In the living room, a middle-aged man in a suit sat on the Throne Chair on the west side.

He was the head of the branch of the Pearson family, Mr. Terrence Pearson.

Sitting on the main seat to the east, was a young man with sword-like eyebrows and starry eyes.

It could be seen from the position alone that the status of this young man was actually higher than that of Terrence.

While the two were talking, a servant ran in with a panicked expression.

"Master, something serious happened!"

Chapter 684 Dark Web Reward Order

Terrence frowned and said, "What's causing the panic?"

"Didn't you see that Young Master Caspian is here? If you interrupted him, I would make you regret this!"

The young man's name was Caspian Pearson, and he was the young master of the main branch of the Pearson family in Kley City.

When the servant heard Terrence's words, his heart trembled with fright, and he quickly lowered his eyebrows at Caspian and said pleasantly, "My sincere apologies, for disturbing Young Master Caspian..."

Caspian waved his hand indifferently, and asked, "Tell me, what happened?"

The servant looked at Caspian, then at Terry, and said, "Sconvia called and said that Second Young Master Terry and his son Aiden were all killed."

"What? Got killed?"

Terrence exclaimed, "Who is that man?"

"I heard it's a young man named Skylar."

The servant reported truthfully, "This guy is the grandson-in-law of the old man of the Lucas family in Sconvia. He arrived in Sconvia from Cloudtopia half a month ago."

"He is very skilled, and he is arrogant and domineering. When he was in Cloudtopia, he used his strong influence to make all four major families of Cloudtopia bow their heads to him."

"In just over twenty days, he not only killed the second father and his son, but also Ezra, Sterling, and Max, three of the Kent family members and across three generations."

"What?"

Terrence was shocked again.

What was the origin of this Skylar?

How dare he kill several people in Sconvia.

And they all had a certain identity and status.

At this time, Caspian next to him asked arrogantly, "Do you need my help?"

Terrence said flatteringly, "I appreciate Young Master Caspian's kindness, but he is just an arrogant and domineering boy, so perhaps we would not need you to handle him personally."

"Although the power of our branch is much lower than that of your main branch, we still have some strength."

"Otherwise, I don't dare to expect to return to the embrace of the big Pearson family!"

Caspian glanced at Terrence and nodded slightly, expressing that he agreed to what he said just now.

Terrence immediately ordered the servant in front of him, "Go to the dark web to issue a reward order, one hundred million, to buy the head of that kid Skylar!"

"I want everyone to know that our Pearson family, even if it's just a branch, is definitely not something that anyone can mess with!"

"Yes, Master!"

The servant bowed and cupped his fists, then left the hall.

A few minutes later, a reward order worth one hundred million dollars appeared on the headlines of the dark web.

The dark web was for the whole world.

Killers of all walks of life were there.

As long as the money was paid, it was not uncommon for them to assassinate a political figure of a certain country.

However, Terrence asked to issue this reward order, but the person to be assassinated was neither a political figure of a certain country nor a person with great influence, it instead attracted the attention of assassins from all over the world.

What was the background of this kid with the surname Stone?

There was actually someone who was willing to spend one hundred million to buy his head?

It took only a minute for the task to be released, and someone took it.

"It turned out to be Waltz Soul!"

"He is the most popular killer in Alvonion recently!"

"He holds a perfect record of 100% success rate!"

"This guy named Skylar is doomed!"

There was a lot of discussion on the dark web, but Skylar, the person who caused the uproar, did not know about it.

At this time, in the Floccesy Tower of the Lucas family.

Lola asked Skylar in a childish voice, "Father, when are we going home, Lola misses Beans already!"

Chapter 685 Something Happened to Beans

Beans was the name of the little golden retriever.

Before coming to Sconvia, Skylar left it at his parents'.

It had been more than half a month since he came out, and it was only natural for the little girl to miss her dog.

Hearing Lola's words, Skylar nodded. Anyway, the Lover's Tower would not be completed in a few days, so why not take advantage of this time to go back and bring the little golden retriever here.

Skylar then said dotingly to Lola, "Then daddy will bring Lola back to Cloudtopia now, to bring Beans to Sconvia. By then, Beans could even play with the little dolphins here."

When Lola heard it, she clapped her hands excitedly and said, "Good! Let Beans learn to swim with the little dolphin!"

As she spoke, she ran to Yulia again, and said, "Mommy, go and change quickly, daddy is going to take us home!"

Yulia stared at Skylar speechlessly, "You can give Lola whatever she wants, and sooner or later she will be spoiled by you!"

"No, no, Lola promises, I will not be spoiled!"

The little girl quickly spoke for Skylar.

Skylar grinned, and Yulia was also amused by the little girl's serious look.

After Yulia got dressed, Skylar took their mother and daughter and bade goodbye to Shane, and then drove back to Cloudtopia.

Originally, they wanted to say hello to Clara, but they could not find anyone.

This girl seemed to be busy all of a sudden, and not sure what she was occupied with.

However, Skylar did not care too much, and the family of three happily drove towards Cloudtopia.

A few hours later, they showed up at the villa where Nathaniel Fuller's family lived, Garden No. 1 Villa.

Naomi was sent by Yulia to Maersk County to be the person in charge of the office, so the only people living in Garden No. 1 villa now were her adoptive parents, Nathaniel and Winona.

As soon as they reached the gate, Lola could not wait but shouted, "Grandpa, Grandma, Lola is back!"

"Lola, watch out for your voice, and ask Dad to ring the doorbell for us, so that grandparents can hear it no matter which room they are in," Yulia said quickly.

Skylar immediately pressed the videophone by the door.

As soon as the phone was connected, Nathaniel saw Skylar and quickly opened the door.

"Skylar, Yulia, baby Lola, you are back!"

Nathaniel said with a happy face.

However, soon, his eyes were covered with a sad look, as if something happened.

Lola was not sensitive enough to pick that up. When she saw Nathaniel, she could not wait but asked, "Grandpa, where is Beans? Why didn't it come out?" While talking, the little girl looked around like a little adult.

Skylar held his breath and concentrated, wanting to feel Beans's position.

He didn't even feel it!

Immediately, he hurriedly asked Nathaniel, "Dad, is Beans not at home?"

When Lola heard this, she quickly asked, "Grandpa, is Beans sick? Have you sent him to the pet hospital?"

"Dad's medical skills are better than those doctors, let Dad treat Beans!"

Nathaniel shook his head, sadly said, "Beans is not sick, but disappeared suddenly."

"Your mother and I searched for a day and a night, but we didn't even see a shadow. We suspected that... Beans did not get lost by himself, but was caught and eaten."

Chapter 686 You Move, You Die

"Ah!"

Lola exclaimed, and then her big eyes were clouded with mist, she shook her head desperately and said, "No, Lola's Beans is so obedient and sensible, why would anyone want to eat it!"

"Dad, you are the most powerful father in the world, can you help Lola find Beans?"

Seeing Lola's teary eyes, Skylar's heart was about to break.

Immediately, he hurriedly asked Nathaniel, "Dad, is there any basis for your and Mom's suspicions?"

"Or did anyone have any intentions on Beans before?"

Nathaniel nodded, and said, "It is true that someone had unfriendly intentions for Beans."

"Three days ago, your mother and I took Beans for a walk in the villa area. A young man asked us about the price of Beans. Neither your mother nor I could tell."

"I suspect that he was the one who took Beans away. Otherwise, who would ask someone how much their pets are worth for no reason?"

Skylar stared silently, "Is that person also from our villa area?"

Nathaniel nodded, "Yes, he also lives in Garden No. 1. When we parted that day, I heard him swearing, as if he was saying that if we didn't tell him the price, he would treat Beans as a little dog, catch him and kill him and eat his meat."

"At that time, I only thought he was just saying it. When Beans was lost, in retrospect, maybe he really did it."

"Hmph!"

Skylar snorted coldly, "It's better that he didn't really eat Beans, otherwise, I will make him pay a terrible price!"

As soon as the words fell, Skylar walked outside the door, held his breath again, and felt the position of Beans.

Fortunately, this time he caught Beans's breath.

Immediately, he took Yulia, Lola and Nathaniel to the location where Beans was.

At the same time, in a certain villa in Garden No. 1.

A dog with blond hair was slumped limply on the marble floor.

It was Lola's little golden retriever, Beans.

Two months have passed, and because of Skylar's family's careful feeding, it has grown from a puppy to a strong big dog.

However, at this moment, it suffered a lot of injuries, and the golden fur on its body was stained with blood.

"Woof!"

Beans let out a sad cry.

Its four legs struggled desperately, trying to stand up and escape from the place where it was scarred, but no matter how hard it tried, it could not stand up.

At the dining table next to it, there were a few young people sitting. Some were busy preparing the hot pot seasoning, some were sharpening their knives, and some looked at Beans with a grim smile.

The grinning one was the young man who struck up a conversation with Nathaniel and Winona three days ago.

"Mr. Sivan, I said earlier that if you want to raise a dog, I'll bring you a cart of dogs. Why do you need this kind of animal that has already been raised half-grown?"

"Not only is it disobedient, but it gritted its teeth as soon as it got close to it."

"I'll let it taste the fate of offending us now!"

The one who sharpened the knife picked up the knife in his hand and walked to where Beans was.

"Ahh-woo!"

Beans felt the danger approaching, and was so frightened that its four legs thumped desperately, trying to stand up and run away.

However, it was fed with dog food contaminated with drugs, and it had no strength at all.

That Mr. Sivan glanced at the teeth marks bitten by Beans on his arm, the corner of his mouth twitched, and said, "If it isn't because its fur is golden, the master said it can make me rich, or else I would not be eating this beast!"

"Since it refuses to give in, I will make it into a dog meat hot pot, churn it down to my stomach, and I shall be prosperous!"

Hearing Mr. Sivan's words, the young man with the knife lost all scruples, raised the gleaming white knife in his hand, and was about to slaughter Beans.

Just when the knife in his hand was about to fall, a voice with immense chill suddenly said.

"Anyone who dares to touch my daughter's dog will be killed by me!"

Chapter 687 What's Wrong With Breaking Into A Private Residence

"Who's there?"

The man with the knife turned his head immediately, but he did not see anyone.

However, the voice just now was as clear and recognizable as if it was in the ear.

Just when everyone in the restaurant was wondering why.

Boom!

With a loud bang, the door of the villa collapsed.

The mahogany gate, which was tens of centimeters thick, hit the ground hard.

The marble on the ground was instantly torn apart like a spider's web, and the part that was hit was even sunken, raising dust several meters high.

"Damn!"

Several people in the restaurant were all terrified.

They did not understand what happened, the gate of the villa was destroyed so vigorously.

When the dust dissipated, they were even more surprised when they saw Skylar and others walking in.

Because Skylar, the leader, just kicked with bare hands. How powerful could he be?

"What do you want when you break into my house?"

Mr. Sivan swallowed hard, and asked with a look of guard.

Skylar did not even look at him, his attention was immediately attracted by Beans who was lying on the ground.

"Beans!"

When Lola saw Beans covered in blood, she burst into tears immediately, and ran to Beans's side without hesitation.

"Wooooof!"

Seeing Lola, Beans immediately cried out in joy.

It was just that it had been drugged, even its barking was so weak.

"Daddy, Beans is injured, please help Beans to heal quickly, Lola doesn't want it to die!"

The little girl had tears all over her face, and said to Skylar pitifully.

Skylar quickly took out a pill from the small bottle he carried with him, fed it into Beans's mouth, and said to Lola at the same time, "Don't worry, baby, after taking this medicine, Beans will definitely get better."

Nathaniel and Yulia, who were next to them, saw one of the young men holding a knife and the hot pot soup prepared on the table, and they were immediately furious.

Were these people perverts?

Beans was a human pet dog, but they captured it and wanted to eat it!

At this time, those young people also recovered from the shock.

When Mr. Sivan saw Nathaniel's face clearly, he suddenly sneered, "Old guy, it's you, I thought which extraordinary person showed up!"

"You broke into my private residence and destroyed my belongings. If I am serious about it, I will make you pay down to the bottom of your pants!"

"Get out of here before I get angry!"

Nathaniel had an incredulous expression on his face, "Young man, you are too arrogant, aren't you?"

"You wanted to buy my granddaughter's pet dog, but we didn't agree, so you drugged it and stole it home, and tortured it until it was bruised."

"And even set up a hot pot, ready to eat its meat, you are so vicious, you still blame us for trespassing on private residence?"

"Brutal?"

Mr. Sivan said disdainfully, "Haha, what's wrong with me being arrogant?"

"Even if it goes to court, isn't it just an animal, how much is it worth? Sue me if you can?"

"And I'm not afraid to tell you that in Clouddtopia, even if you could speak to the King, you can't do anything to me!"

As soon as he finished speaking, his eyes flickered suddenly, and he said, "It's a good time for you to show up here, our brothers are bored."

"Why don't you just stand by and watch us eat dog meat hot pot!"

"Pfft hahahahahaha! Mr. Sivan is so creative!"

"Even better if you could pour us more wine and more tea."

The young people next to him burst into laughter and echoed.

"You!"

Nathaniel trembled with anger.

"Beans is Lola's good friend, you are not allowed to eat it!"

When Lola heard what these people said, she was so frightened that she quickly lay down on the ground, protecting Beans.

"Where did you come from, that stinky girl, die!"

One of the youths was about to throw Lola aside while talking.

However, his hand was only a little closer to Lola before it was clamped by iron-like fingers.

Skylar made a move!

Chapter 688 Do You Want To Die?

The young man wanted to get rid of Skylar's hand, but he could not move at all, his eyes darkened immediately, and he cursed angrily, "Hurry up and let me go, or I will let you... ah..."

Only halfway through the words, a piercing pain hit his wrist, and the young man let out a miserable scream.

Before he could react, Skylar pushed forward with his big hand, and his body was lifted violently like a piece of rag.

Bang!

There was a loud bang.

The young man hit the dining table a few meters behind him.

There was a hot pot on the dining table, and the hot water in the pot poured directly on him.

"Ahhh..."

It was a scream that was even more shrill than before, and the young man's body was instantly scalded to be covered in big blisters.

The few people around, seeing this scene, all started sweating.

They did not expect that Skylar, who looked gentle and soft, turned out to be a ruthless character.

Mr. Sivan's eyes were as wide as copper bells, "Who the hell are you..."

He was about to have a verbal entanglement with Skylar, but Skylar was too lazy to talk to him, so he took two steps forward and threw another young man who was shouting loudly onto the table.

Did you guys not want to cook Beans and eat hot pot? Then I would let you taste the taste of hot pot in advance!

"Ahhh!"

The remaining half of the pot of boiling water was overturned, and the dining room was once again filled with screams like a pig was being slaughtered.

Without squinting, Skylar walked straight towards Mr. Sivan.

Mr. Sivan backed away in fright, and at the same time asked nervously, "You...what are you going to do to me?"

"I'm the young master of the Sivan family... If you dare to hurt me, my father will never forgive you!"

"Your father?"

Skylar snorted coldly, "I don't care who your father is."

"However, I want to see how he will screw me!"

"Come on, I'll give you a chance, call him, and I'll boil a pot of water again. If he hasn't arrived after the water is boiled, then this pot of water will come in handy."

Hearing that Skylar wanted to re-boil a pot of hot water, Mr. Sivan was so frightened that his heart twitched. He quickly took out his mobile phone, dialed the number, and gritted his teeth, "Kid, you said that!"

"When my dad comes, you're going to die!"

Skylar laughed, why were there so many idiots in this world? They were so scared to death, but they still insisted on saying some harsh words. Even if his father was as mighty as he said, he could only wait until he arrived.

After the call was connected, Mr. Sivan said a few words quickly and hung up the phone.

"Hahaha, my dad is nearby, kid, you will tumble in my hands today."

Mr. Sivan burst out laughing.

Skylar glanced at him speechlessly, not bothering to talk to this idiot.

After this period of buffering, Beans on the ground regained some vitality, kicked back, and stood up directly.

Because Skylar fed it a miraculous pill, the pain on his body disappeared, and the wound began to scab.

Perhaps it felt the joy of revival after the catastrophe, it circled around Lola excitedly.

Seeing that Beans got better, Lola was very happy, hugged Beans and kissed it fiercely.

After a while, there was a sound outside the door.

"Is there anyone in Clouddtopia who dares to touch my son? Do you want to die?"

A violent male voice said.

The next moment, a large group of people poured into the villa.

The one in lead was the real father of Mr. Sivan, Bosco Sivan.

The dozens of people behind him were all tall and burly, with big muscles that were about to burst their suits.

Not only did they overwhelm people with their aura, but everyone had arms in their hands, as if they were going to fight Skylar desperately.

Chapter 689 The Backhand Slap

Seeing that his father brought fifty or sixty people here, Mr. Sivan was immediately hyped, and rushed to Bosco to complain, "Dad, it's a good thing you were nearby, otherwise I would have been boiled by this kid!"

"Uncle Sivan, this guy not only smashed the door of your villa, scalded us, but also threatened your son, saying that he will be boiled into a hot pot!"

Several other young people also added on their comments, and looked at Skylar with resentment in their eyes.

They did not dare to do anything to Skylar, so they waited for Bosco to vent their anger on them.

Hearing these people's words, Bosco subconsciously glanced at Skylar, and was about to order the bodyguard behind him to do something, but his brain suddenly rang.

Skylar!

It turned out to be Skylar!

Bosco's pupils shrank suddenly, and then his eyes were full of horror.

He never thought that his son would offend Skylar, just after he came back from abroad!

Everyone in the upper class of Cloudtopia knew about Skylar!

Not to mention a second-tier family like his, even the old man of the four major first-tier families would need to bow down to him.

At the 80th birthday banquet of the old Mr. Sue back then, Bosco had personally witnessed the spectacular scene where all upper class members in Cloudtopia were mobilized.

On the surface, it was to celebrate the birthday of old Mr. Sue, but in fact, it was all for Skylar.

For such a heaven-defying character like Skylar, Bosco would be happy if he could just speak to Skylar for a word or two, but he never expected his son would offend the other party recklessly!

And the moment he entered the door, not only did he not recognize the other party, but he even uttered wild words, saying that the other party wanted to die.

Thinking of this, Bosco's back was soaked instantly.

Mr. Sivan next to him was all focused on Skylar, and he did not notice anything unusual about his own father at all.

"Dad, please give an order, let everyone go up together, hold that guy down!"

"Didn't he want to scald me with boiling water? I'll let him have a taste of taking a boiled water bath."

Mr. Sivan looked at Skylar ferociously and said.

As soon as the words fell, before Bosco could react, he could not wait but shouted to the bodyguards, "Why are you still standing there? Let's go together and take down this arrogant guy..."

However, before he could finish his words, Bosco stretched out his hand and slapped him backhanded.

Slap!

"Shut up!"

Bosco cursed with a trembling voice.

At the birthday banquet of old Mr. Sue that day, a terrorist assassin broke in and threatened to kill Skylar.

Skylar was calm and composed, and killed the opponent with just one move.

No one in the room could see how it happened.

Such terrifying strength was rare in the world.

In front of Skylar, the bodyguards he brought were nothing close to par.

He was afraid Skylar could knock all these bodyguards to the ground with just a wave of his hand. How would it be possible for him to rely on them to subdue Skylar?

Stupid, ignorant!

Courting death!

"Dad, what did you hit me for?"

Mr. Sivan covered his face, eyes full of disbelief.

He was bullied and threatened, and he called Bosco in the hope that Bosco would bring someone to support him and take Skylar down.

However, Bosco only took one look at the other party, and then slapped him hard.

How dare Bosco explain this to him?

He only gave him a hard look, then immediately walked in front of Skylar, bowed and cupped his fists and said, "I am Bosco Sivan, pleased to meet Mr. Stone!"

"My silly son just came back from abroad, so he did not know that Mr. Stone is a respectable person, and accidentally offended you. I hope Mr. Stone could be the bigger man, and not care about what he did."

Chapter 690 Not Any Less

"Uncle Sivan, you..."

Seeing that Bosco bowed to Skylar, Mr. Sivan's friends were all dumbfounded.

The expressions on their faces changed wildly.

Bosco was so respectful and addressed him as Mr. Stone. Could it be that this kid was actually a big shot?

Skylar glanced at Bosco coldly, and said, "Your name is Bosco?"

"Your son not only wants to make my daughter's dog into a hot pot, but also make me take a hot bath?"

Bosco's face turned pale immediately, "No, no, no, he is talking nonsense, Mr. Stone, please don't take it seriously!"

"If I knew your identity, even if I had the courage from him, I wouldn't dare to say such disrespectful words!"

Saying that, without waiting for Skylar to react, he immediately kicked Mr. Sivan's stomach fiercely, and cursed angrily, "Kneel down and apologize to Skylar!"

"Do you think you could mess with a big man like Mr. Stone?"

"Dad, I..."

Mr. Sivan clutched his stomach, his facial features twisted together.

Asking him to kneel down to Skylar in front of a group of cronies, he felt completely embarrassed.

"You, you, you, a useless thing!"

While Bosco was cursing, he was about to give a second kick.

Skylar snorted coldly, "No need."

"There are many people who want to kneel down to me, and he's not one of them."

"Break his hands and feet, and he will not be allowed to leave the hospital within a year, otherwise, I will throw him into the sea to feed the sharks!"

Hearing this, Mr. Sivan gritted his teeth and said, "You dare to touch me again!"

"Dad, did you recognize the wrong person? This guy lives in this villa area. How can his status be any higher than ours?"

"Even if he can fight, you brought so many people here, why do you let him manipulate you?"

"What are you still doing in a daze? Let's go together, fight to the death, I will bear the responsibility if something goes wrong!"

Mr. Sivan scolded the group of bodyguards.

At this moment, Bosco hesitated for a moment.

He did not expect Skylar to be so ruthless that he would break his son's hands and feet as soon as he opened his mouth.

Just as Skylar was about to speak, his pupils shrank suddenly.

Dangerous!

He felt the same danger as when he accompanied Valerie to the studio last time!

No, even stronger than that time!

In the blink of an eye, a black bullet with the power to demolish everything passed through the transparent glass on the window and shot toward his heart.

If this was an ordinary person, let alone avoiding it, he probably would not even notice it, and he would die immediately.

However, Skylar was naturally not an ordinary person, a small bullet could not hurt him.

With just a flash, he dodged the bullet that was trying to kill him.

Almost instantly, the glass on the window burst due to the huge impact.

Countless fragments flew out in all directions, also carrying extremely strong lethality.

Some of them just flew in Lola's direction.

Skylar's heart tightened, and he was about to wave his hand to create a wave of air to block the debris for Lola, when suddenly a golden shadow flashed.

It turned out to be Beans, who was beside Lola, who realized that her master was in danger, jumped up recklessly, and used its body to block the glass shards.

"Ahh-woooo..."

Seven or eight sharp fragments inserted into Beans' body in an instant. Beans, who had just regained some vitality, had golden hair stained red with blood again.

Beans screamed in pain and collapsed on the ground again, unable to even crawl this time.

"It's an armed assassin!"

Bosco and his gang immediately realized that the assassin hiding in the dark wanted to kill Skylar!
