

Troublemakers 1061

Chapter 1061: so you have to eat

The two of them finally arrived at Yuanxian County at around noon after rolling around several docks. At this time, the doctors in the Maternal and Child Health Hospital had already left work and did not return to work until two o'clock in the afternoon.

Hey, it is so difficult to do a prenatal checkup in this small county!

"Sister Ning, you have a big belly, we have walked for a long time by land and water, go eat something first, and find a place to rest." Zhang Xiaoxian is considerate of Shen Ning, afraid that she will be tired.

"Okay, let's go eat something first, then go to the market to learn about the situation, come back at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for the prenatal checkup, there is no need to rest." Shen Ning smiled.

"But aren't you tired with a big belly?"

"Why are you tired? At this time, pregnant women should walk more and exercise more to facilitate delivery."

"Sister, do you want to have a normal delivery?"

"Spontaneous delivery?" Shen Ning remembered that night six years ago. She wanted to insist on a normal delivery, but the severe labor pain and the adherent placenta still made the doctor perform a caesarean section. That night was very dangerous, "The doctor must decide. "

"Don't worry, I will be with you in the hospital on the day of your delivery. You don't have to worry about anything, I will serve you during confinement." Zhang Xiaoxian was very emotional.

"Thank you, Xiaoxian."

"It's okay, we are good sisters."

The two talked and laughed and came to a decent restaurant.

"Sister, eat, I'm not hungry." They walked in and sat down in a corner, Shen Ning began to order, Zhang Xiaoxian looked at the menu and shook her head vigorously.

Shen Ning understood her thoughts immediately, and couldn't laugh or cry, this little girl was afraid that the food would be too expensive!

"Then you have to eat something with me. If you don't eat, what's the point of me eating alone?" Shen Ning deliberately ordered a lot of dishes.

"Sister, you are twin, you need to eat more, you can't starve the child in your belly, I'll just go to the noodle stall opposite and eat a bowl of noodles later, I like the hot and sour noodles the most." Zhang Xiaoxian Looking at the balance on the phone, he smiled slightly.

Shen Ning ignored her, and after a while, the waiter served all the dishes.

"Sister, can you finish eating?" Zhang Xiaoxian stared at six or seven dishes.

"You can't finish it, so you have to keep eating, or it will be wasted."

"Okay." Zhang Xiaoxian was indeed hungry, looking at the tempting delicacies in front of her, some of which she would never want to eat for the rest of her life, she picked up the chopsticks under Shen Ning's repeated threats.

Now, the two of them had a great time eating, and after a while, they ate up all the dishes.

"I'll pay the bill." After the meal, Zhang Xiaoxian rushed to pay the bill, and Shen Ning gave her a smile, "Okay, I've already swiped my phone."

"How much?"

"Don't ask, I have money."

Zhang Xiaoxian thought it must be two or three hundred, but Shen Ning spent more than eight hundred. I guess she would want to spit out the food if she knew.

After a while, Shen Ning stood up, Zhang Xiaoxian supported her, and the two walked outside.

As soon as they walked out and turned to the small alley on the left, a tall and strong man walked in.

Li Zhenting has been wandering around all morning, contacted several local tour guides, and went to the police station to check the records. He is going to conduct a carpet search, and this time he vows to find Shen Ning.

He walked to a corner and sat down. This restaurant was in good business, and the leftover dishes on the dining table had not been taken away when he sat down.

He put down his briefcase, and saw that the seven plates in front of him were all eaten cleanly. It really is a small county, and there is no waste. This habit is better.

Chapter 1062: Can you give me a hand?

"Look, is this spice bag beautiful?" While Li Zhenting was sitting and waiting for the food to be served, suddenly a woman at the next table spoke softly.

He raised his eyes slightly, and saw a pregnant woman sitting on the table next to her, with a spice bag wrapped around her fingers, asking her husband with a smile on her face.

"It's okay." The young man just glanced lightly and replied casually.

"I can tell you, this spice bag is not only good-looking, but also has anti-virus effects. This time, I was the only one in the family who didn't get caught. It's thanks to it." The pregnant woman gently stroked the spice bag, cherishing it very much.

Li Zhenting glanced at the spice bag in her hand again, and the letter 'G' engraved on it caught his attention.

Suddenly, his heart beat violently.

Isn't this G the first English capital letter of Gucci? Gucci's current LOGO all start with the word G.

"Excuse me, lady, where did you buy this spice bag?" He couldn't help asking.

The pregnant woman was taken aback, she didn't expect that her husband didn't care much, but the man next to her cared instead, she looked at him, oh my god, there is such a noble and handsome man in Yuan County, she has never seen it in her whole life.

"I bought it at the market behind." She quickly replied.

"Can you tell me exactly which booth it is at?" Li Zhenting stared at the letter G on the spice package, and then asked, unable to restrain his excitement.

"It's the last few stalls, I don't remember which one it is."

"When did you buy it?"

"About a week ago."

"Does that stall still sell it? I also want to buy one for my wife, who is also pregnant."

"Oh, it seems to be out of stock. It was sold for a few days. I happened to see it that time. However, this spice bag is indeed useful. There are many fewer mosquitoes when worn on the body." Pregnant women like this spice bag Very much, praise endlessly.

"Oh." When Li Zhenting heard that it was out of stock, his deep eyes were full of disappointment, and the hope that had just been ignited was lost again.

Based on my feeling, this is probably the spice bag made by Shen Ning. Is she going to make a living by selling spice bags? Then what kind of life is she living now? The doctor once said that she was malnourished, and the food in her stomach Child... He didn't dare to think about it, and there was a sharp pain in his heart.

"If you really want to buy, you can go to that market every afternoon to have a look, maybe she will come when she has the goods." At this time, the pregnant woman couldn't bear to see his disappointed expression, and hurriedly reminded him.

"Thank you, can you do me a favor? That is, if you meet her selling spice packets at the market next time, please take a photo of the specific stall and the seller himself, okay?"

"It is possible, but I don't know when I will meet her."

"It's okay, as long as you have a chance to see her, you can take a photo for me, thank you."

"Okay." Seeing that he was sincere, the pregnant woman readily agreed.

"Then let me add your WeChat." Li Zhenting immediately took out his mobile phone. This was the first time in his life that he took the initiative to ask a woman for her mobile phone to add WeChat.

After adding WeChat, the waiter came over to serve the food, and he immediately said to the waiter, "Waiter, I will pay for the food at the table next to me."

"Okay." The waiter immediately agreed after being stunned for a while.

The pregnant woman and her husband were startled. They just asked a few words, and they could get a meal for free. It's not too cost-effective.

They happily finished eating and left.

Chapter 1063: no wonder your belly is so big

Li Zhenting ate with a heavy heart, thinking that Shen Ning was pregnant but malnourished, her heart ached, and what she ate tasted like wax, and she threw away the bowl and chopsticks after a while and left.

Because the pregnant woman said that the general spice packs were only sold in the afternoon, he went directly to the hotel to rest, and vowed to find her as soon as possible. Slap him in the face of the richest man? He doesn't allow this kind of thing to happen, absolutely!

However, Shen Ning and Zhang Xiaoxian didn't see many spices for sale after walking around the market, so Shen Ning had to search online and found the original spice market in the imperial capital. Come on, as for the price, it doesn't matter, the main purpose is to let Zhang Xiaoxian earn money through her labor.

"Sister, it's almost two o'clock, let's go to the Maternal and Child Health Hospital, or we will be in trouble if we miss the physical examination." Zhang Xiaoxian looked at her watch and urged Shen Ning.

"Okay." Shen Ning also wanted to finish the inspection early so that he could go home. After all, he would have to take round trips three times to get back to Yuhe Village, and it would probably be dark when he got home.

The two walked towards the right exit of the market.

Li Zhenting lay on the bed for a while, seeing the shadow of Shen Ning's hard life with a big belly in front of him, he sat up immediately, feeling extremely depressed.

After a while, he got up and washed up a little, then walked towards the market.

The market is not far from the hotel.

He came in from the left entrance.

There are many stalls here, and there is no rest at noon.

He walked along a row of stalls, looking one after another, but didn't see anyone selling dried flower spice packs. Following the hint of the pregnant woman, he probably stopped by the stall selling spice packs and asked left and right.

On the right side of the market, Shen Ning and Zhang Xiaoxian have already walked out towards the Maternal and Child Health Hospital.

In the hospital.

"Sister, so you are pregnant with twins." Zhang Xiaoxian looked at the B-ultrasound sheet with surprise on her face.

"Yes." Shen Ning smiled.

"No wonder you have such a big belly. It turns out that you have twins. Great, now you have a son and a daughter." She smiled, "In this case, you have to be careful recently, and you can't go anywhere in the future. Just get some rest."

"Well, don't worry, I understand." Shen Ning gave the doctor the B-ultrasound sheet, and the doctor said to her: "At present, the condition is not bad, but the blood sugar is a little high and a little anemic. You should pay attention to your diet. How about it? I'll prescribe some calcium tablets and vitamins for you, and you should drink more lean pork liver soup and pork bone soup."

"Okay, thank you doctor." Shen Ning thanked with a smile, the children are okay, this is her happiest.

At this moment, the doctor finished the order, Zhang Xiaoxian asked Shen Ning to sit on a chair outside to rest, and she went to pay for the medicine.

"Sister, let's go home, it's already 4:30." Not long after, Zhang Xiaoxian came over with the medicine and smiled, "You have a son and a daughter in your belly, and you will have to call me godmother from now on. Two children came out."

"Come on, it's almost enough to call you an aunt, and a godmother, old-fashioned and vulgar." Shen Ning smiled and hit her.

The two happily walked outside the hospital.

"No, it's rare to come to Yuan County once. You are anemic and deficient in nutrition. I have to buy some delicious food at the vegetable market. How about it? That's enough." When passing a vegetable market, Zhang Xiaoxian insisted on going in to buy bones, pork liver and lean meat.

Shen Ning had no choice but to follow her, standing by the road and waiting.

Chapter 1064: inexplicable sadness

After detailed investigation in the market, Li Zhenting learned that the seller who sold the spice package was indeed a young girl, but not a pregnant woman.

But no one knows where the girl lives and when she will come to sell.

He pondered for a while and then walked towards the market management office.

After all, there are managers in every market. It would be great if we could check the monitoring there!

But when he came to the management office, there was no one working there. He asked around and said that he had gone to a meeting, and the management office was very simple, and there were basically no monitoring measures.

But he still waited patiently. It wasn't until after three o'clock that he saw a middle-aged man walking over.

Li Zhenting talked about the situation of his search, and the man said: "Sir, we are only responsible for the security of the market, maintaining order and daily charges. As for the search, there is really no way. Think about it, the whole Yuan County is like this." A market with so many people every day, and there is no monitoring inside, there is really no way to check. If you really want to check, you might as well go to the police station to check the monitoring at the intersection. Maybe you can find it. After all, people who come to this market come from the intersection. The monitor came in, that is, there is a monitor there."

Li Zhenting heard the truth, so he walked out, preparing to go to the police station.

In the vegetable market here, Zhang Xiaoxian came out carrying the meat, bones, and pork liver she bought.

Shen Ning was no longer waiting for her on the street.

She was wondering when someone patted her shoulder. Turning around, she saw Shen Ning standing behind her with a smile, holding many fruits in her hands.

"Ah, the fruit is so heavy, how can you lift it, give it to me quickly, I'll put it in the basket together." Zhang Xiaoxian immediately took the fruit and put it in her basket.

The two walked towards the pier.

"It's strange, I bought so many things, and the boss actually said that someone paid for it." Zhang Xiaoxian murmured, her face full of confusion.

Shen Ning pursed her lips and smiled, of course she followed behind Gu Kong and paid the money, Zhang Xiaoxian was only focused on picking things and didn't see them.

"Maybe that stall owner knows Aunt Dong, and if he doesn't charge money, we don't have to worry about it." She said lightly.

Zhang Xiaoxian thought for a long time and felt that what she said was right or wrong, but it was getting late, and she didn't think too much about it. Besides, Shen Ning walked slowly, and they had to go to the pier quickly.

Therefore, the two hurried towards the pier.

Here Li Zhenting came to the police station to ask for an investigation, but the people there didn't know him, so he didn't want to check for him, so he had to start contacting acquaintances, and after several phone calls, he was asked to investigate, but it made him want to cry. The tearful thing is that this remote small county has imperfect monitoring and has long been in disrepair, and a storm directly destroyed it some time ago. Although some pictures were found, they were still very blurry and could not be checked at all. To the shadow of Shen Ning.

In desperation, Li Zhenting had to give up.

"Sir, since the person you are looking for is a pregnant woman, you should go to the Maternal and Child Health Hospital or the wharf. There are a lot of people in those places, and the cars on the wharf rely on wheels." At this time A careful female police officer inside reminded him.

After hearing this, Li Zhenting thought it was right, so he left immediately and walked out.

He wants to go to the Maternal and Child Health Hospital first, and see if he can find it today. If not, then he will stay at the pier in the future.

Soon, he took a taxi to the Maternal and Child Health Hospital.

At the gate, there are pregnant women going in from time to time. Every pregnant woman is accompanied by family members, and they are all happy.

He stood there feeling inexplicably sad, everyone had family members who cared and accompanied him, only his woman was homeless, and this was all his responsibility!

It's past five o'clock, and the doctors are about to leave work.

He strode in.

Finally, after searching every corner downstairs and downstairs, but still did not see Shen Ning's shadow, he came out in a daze.

For a moment, standing on the street, eyes full of bewilderment.

"Hurry up, the boat is about to sail, run quickly." Someone beside him hurried forward with something on his back.

Li Zhenting looked at them and ran after them involuntarily.

Ten minutes later, he looked up, and saw a large wharf and white river in front of him, which was much bigger than Qingshan City. The dream suddenly flashed in his mind, how similar the white river was.

While he was in a trance for a while, the phone on his body rang.

Chapter 1065: A touch of figure

He looked down at his phone, and it turned out that it was the calls from the tour guides he had invited.

They told him that they had searched all the land-connected suburbs and villages around Yuan County, but no one was found.

Now they are planning to go to several neighboring towns to find them.

They let him have time to look at the pier, because there are dozens of villages near the waterway pier, and many people come and go every day, which is very important.

Li Zhenting agreed and hung up the phone.

He looked down at the pier at his feet. On the river, a large wheel was pacing passengers. As the sun set, a round of red sunset fell on the boat, reflecting the ripples on the water surface, showing the beauty and magnificence of nature.

Sudden

His eyes were attracted by a figure on the boat.

It was a pregnant woman, wearing a beige maternity dress, standing on the edge of the boat with a big belly, looking at the river in a daze, and beside her stood a young girl, holding her arm.

His breathing stopped suddenly.

"Ning Ning." Almost in an instant, he yelled and ran frantically down the pier.

"Comrade, please buy a ticket first." But just as he ran under the pier, someone stopped him.

"Wait, I'm going to walk the boat." He was in a hurry, shouted loudly, turned around and ran to the conductor, threw a hundred yuan to the conductor, and then ran down.

"Don't run away, the boat has already started." But when he went down to the pier again, the security guard next to him stopped him, "Wait for the next trip."

When he raised his eyes, he saw that the ship was already some distance away from the shore, and it was heading towards the opposite side of the river. The pregnant woman was still standing on the side of the ship, but the ship was gradually turning around, and soon, she would be out of sight. shadow.

It's her, it must be her!

"Ningning, Ningning." He shouted towards the direction of the ship.

But the river water kept puffing and spitting, and the wind kept sounding, his shout was drowned in the sound of Feng Shui.

"How long will it take for the next shift?" he asked eagerly.

"Half an hour."

Half an hour?

Half an hour later, can we still find people on the other side of the river?

He stomped his feet anxiously, and asked directly: "If I give the money, can a boat take me across the river right away?"

"No." The security guard shook his head, "It's not a question of money, but that there is no dock on the other side of the river to stop the boat. Moreover, this boat can't be opened casually. The shipping company has regulations."

Li Zhenting's eyes were dark, and he finally found the trace again, but now he can only watch helplessly as she is about to disappear again.

He was not reconciled, but he had no choice but to take out his mobile phone and turn on the magnifying glass to look at the boat.

At this time, the boat has completely turned around, and the people on board can no longer be seen.

The surface of the river is a vast expanse of whiteness. Compared with the small lake in Qingshan City, this place is simply a giant. You can only see that after the boat reaches the other side, even the remaining passengers on and off are as big as ants.

He was so worried that he had to wait for the next shift.

After half an hour, he was the first to rush to the wheel, but it was already half an hour before this wheel started, and when he went ashore, it was already an hour after the last wheel landed.

However, what made him even more dizzy was that after landing on the shore, there were several forked roads, and each forked road was either a village or a river.

There were quite a few motorcycles waiting to pick up passengers, and he didn't know which way to go.

But he didn't hesitate, and immediately got on a motorcycle, paid a lot of money, and asked him to take him to search for each road separately.

The motorcycle driver was very honest. After hearing him say that he was looking for someone, he told him directly that it was too late today. If he didn't know which direction to go, he would not even have the wheel to go back.

Li Zhenting asked him if he saw a pregnant woman coming ashore just now, the driver shook his head, indicating that he didn't pay attention, and finally suggested that he come to look for it early tomorrow, and he will wait for him here!

Li Zhenting's eyes were darkened, and he chased for a long time for a lonely time, but found nothing!

But facing the increasingly dark sky, he could only follow the driver's advice and go back to the hotel first.

Chapter 1066: I might have to get out of here

the next day.

At five o'clock in the morning, Li Zhenting got up and ran to the pier, and was the first to get on the wheel and walk to the other side of the river.

only

This road of finding people is easier said than done.

The driver took him around the nearby villages and found nothing.

Then, the driver told him that there are villagers from more than 40 neighboring villages who took this wheel walking to Yuan County, and there are more than 40 wheel walkings one after another. The longest one takes six wheel walkings to reach the village. .

If you don't know where a person lives, it will take a lot of effort to search for it in such a vague way, and you may not be able to find it.

Li Zhenting's eyes were bloodshot, but he was not discouraged. As long as he thought of Shen Ning living a difficult life with a big belly, his heart would hurt, so he must make up his mind to find her and fulfill his responsibility as a husband.

With a big wave of his hand, he decided to pay a lot of money to ask people to search from village to river.

Such a move alarmed many nearby villagers.

After all, everyone is willing to help if there is money to be made. In just three days, many nearby villagers have joined the ranks of searching.

And everyone is even more curious about Li Zhenting's origins. People before and after call him a rich man, a wealthy businessman, because Li Zhenting is not only handsome but also has a lot of money. Everyone is also curious about what kind of woman is worth his effort to find. !

Even so, after three days, there is still no news.

And Li Zhenting himself visited six villages in three days, searching every village, but he couldn't find any whereabouts of Shen Ning, which made him extremely frustrated and disappointed.

But he was not discouraged, and finally chose to sit on the pier and wait.

After just ten days, he lost a lot of weight because he was traveling between the docks of various villages every day, his diet was irregular, his tea and meals were not in time, and his thoughts were heavy.

In the courtyard, Shen Ning was lying on the bed, closing his eyes and resting his mind. Zhang Xiaoxian came in carrying a big bag of things.

"Sister, let me tell you some news. I heard that a rich man is looking for his pregnant wife. The villagers in the first group, second group, third group, and fourth group are all helping to find her. It was in full swing. They said that the rich man was handsome and rich. His wife came to our place for some reason. Everyone was helping to find him. The man was very anxious and asked everyone if he had seen it.

Seeing his wife, hehe, how dedicated." She put down her things and wiped the sweat from her forehead, "Sister, this is the spice we bought online, it's here."

Shen Ning opened his eyes, and sat up sideways: "Xiaoxian, I'm afraid we won't be able to take spice packets to sell in the market for the time being."

"Why?"

"..." Shen Ning pondered: "How about this, you can get it online and sell it, and then sell it in the market after a while, because, because I have a big belly, I can't help you."

"Hi, I don't need your help, as long as you point it out, you are so big that you are struggling to bend over, of course I never thought of asking you for help." Zhang Xiaoxian was relieved and laughed.

This is not a problem at all, she can handle it by herself.

But Shen Ning was silent.

Zhang Xiaoxian didn't pay attention to the complicated look on her face, but asked with concern: "Have you eaten yet? I made porridge, go and get it for you."

She turned around and was about to leave.

"Xiaoxian, I might have to leave here." Shen Ning held her and said slowly.

"Why?" Zhang Xiaoxian's eyes widened instantly, "Didn't you buy this place? And you said you would live here forever."

"Yes, but because something happened at home, I have to go back. I don't know when I will come back this time." Shen Ning lowered his thick eyes, hiding all his thoughts in his eyes.

"Does Aunt Dong know?"

"I don't know." Shen Ning shook his head, suddenly feeling a headache.

Zhang Xiaoxian stood in despair, and when she raised her eyes, she saw the painful expression on Shen Ning's face.

Chapter 1067: hate him to the core

"Sister, is it because of your ex-husband? Is he still hurting you?" She asked suddenly.

The person who can make Shen Ning suffer must be her ex-husband. After all, she is pregnant with a child, and of course it is related to her ex-husband who abandoned her.

"...No." Shen Ning couldn't explain, so he could only shake his head.

"Hey, Sister Ning, you don't need to explain, I understand." Zhang Xiaoxian sighed, "At this time, who else will hurt you besides your ex-husband? It's really different between people, you look at that rich businessman, a handsome man who still loves his wife so much, chasing his wife for thousands of miles, only thinking of giving, but you have such a big belly and divorced, he still refuses to let you go, it's really hateful."

The shy look of Shen Ning's ex-husband flashed in her mind, and she was extremely angry.

Shen Ning bowed his head in silence.

"Sister Ning, don't be afraid. After all, now is a society ruled by law, and you must take up legal weapons to protect your rights and interests. Now there is a Women's Federation, which can protect women's rights." Zhang Xiaoxian reminded seriously.

Shen Ning murmured: "Yes, you shouldn't be afraid, let alone give in to him."

In fact, she has seen from the mobile phone news that Li Zhenting is looking for her everywhere, and has even found Yuan County. There is no doubt that the rich businessman who is looking for his wife in the village of Yuan County must be Li Zhenting.

He has come after him.

What should she do?

No, if he still wants to use the same tricks to **** her child away, or pretend to please her to make her submit, she will definitely not soften her heart, and will definitely take up legal weapons to protect her rights and interests.

It turns out that she has nothing and can't compete with him, but now she has Gu Qi and has a certain financial strength. Even if she wants to go to court, she doesn't believe that she can't win one or two with so many children up!

It's useless to be afraid these days!

"That's right." Seeing Shen Ning's firm face, Zhang Xiaoxian showed a gratified smile, "If you need my help, just say, I have a classmate who is a lawyer, and now he is a little famous, I can let him She helped you with the lawsuit."

lawyer?

When a lawyer was mentioned at first, Shen Ning's heart couldn't help but move.

There used to be a Niu lawyer who promised to help her with the lawsuit, but later...

She shook her head, this bully lawyer has no eyes and tails, and his intuition is unreliable, so forget it.

"Sister Ning, don't worry, my classmate lawyer has a very good relationship with me, she will definitely help with this, as long as you need it, I can go to her at any time." Zhang Xiaoxian spoke again.

But Shen Ning just shook his head with a wry smile.

People who dare to litigate Li Zhenting are still too rare at present, unless that lawyer Niu... No, even Lawyer Niu may be bragging. Hearing Li Zhenting's name would tremble with fright.

However, she will not be afraid. If Li Zhenting drives her to a dead end, she must go to court in person and let the judge decide!

She doesn't believe it's unreasonable!

"Xiaoxian, let's put these spices away for now. I'll teach you tomorrow, okay? I'm a little sleepy and want to rest." She lay down with a lazy expression.

"Okay, then you rest first, I'll bring you food later." Zhang Xiaoxian promised to leave.

"Xiaoxian." Shen Ning stopped her.

"What's up?"

"If someone asks about me, don't tell anyone, just say that I am the daughter-in-law of the Dong family." Shen Ning told her.

"Oh, okay, don't worry, I won't tell anyone." Zhang Xiaoxian froze for a moment, then nodded emphatically.

She was afraid that her ex-husband would come and make trouble! Busy gave a comforting smile.

Shen Ning smiled: "Then you go first."

"Okay." Zhang Xiaoxian agreed emphatically and left.

Shen Ning lay on the bed, covered his head under the quilt, and firmly grasped the sheet with his fingers.

Li Zhenting, why can't you let me go? Can't you just let me stay in a corner quietly? I have come to such a remote place, and you still want to look for it?

What exactly do you want to do? Why must this be so?

I will never let you do what you want!

She clutched the bed sheet tightly, and only then did she feel like cold water in her heart, and she hated him to the core.

Chapter 1068: wait and see

Another week passed, and Li Zhenting still found nothing. He almost went all over the villages in Yuan County, but still couldn't find Shen Ning.

He cannot accept this result.

Obviously, on the pier that day, he saw the pregnant woman standing on the wheel, facing her sideways, she must be Shen Ning.

Her figure, silhouette, and even her hair are so similar that she can be recognized at a glance.

But why, I searched all the places but couldn't find her. Could it be that this time, his intuition has gone wrong!

impossible!

After thinking about it for a while, he decided to stay on the pier and wait for the rabbit!

After all, among the dozens of villages nearby, there is only one market in Yuan County. Everyone has to buy their daily necessities here. Another point is that she is pregnant. She must have a prenatal checkup. She will definitely show up again. on this pier.

So, every morning, after he got up at 5 o'clock, he came to the pier. From the first ferry to the last ferry, he personally watched here, never letting anyone go.

When you eat, just eat something nearby.

After a long time, everyone will be familiar with it.

In a hostel in Yuan County.

Aunt Dong was about to go out for a walk after breakfast. When she came downstairs, she heard the waiter talking:

"The rich businessman is so young and handsome. He watches by the pier every day, waiting for his wife. I was moved."

"That's right, so dedicated. I don't know what kind of woman can have this blessing. I didn't expect that there is such a dedicated and good man in this age."

"When I first saw him, I really thought he was more handsome than the stars on TV, but after working hard for this period of time, I saw him haggard a lot, and it really hurts to see him."

"If only I could meet such a dedicated and affectionate man in the future."

Aunt Dong shook her head.

These little girls are living in dreams, and they don't know the complexity of the world. If they know Shen Ning's situation and experience, will they be envious?

Actually, she had been back in Yuan County for several days, but she didn't dare to go back because she saw Li Zhenting.

What shocked her was that Li Zhenting actually came here.

She was surprised and uneasy.

Right now, Shen Ning is going to give birth in less than a month, and she came back to take care of her because she was worried.

But Li Zhenting came here like this, what is going on?

Can Shen Ning forgive him for his harm to Shen Ning?

After thinking about it, she had no choice but to find a hotel to live in, but what made her uneasy was that after staying for so many days, Li Zhenting still did not give up.

He stood guard on the pier every day, alone, but so strong that she, who was originally very angry with him, couldn't bear it.

She sighed and walked down the street.

Looking at the strange to familiar city in front of me, I was filled with emotion in my heart.

Originally thought that she would never come back in this life, after all, there are not many relatives here.

But I didn't expect that I would still have the opportunity to come back, and I didn't know where to start with so many words in my heart.

But thinking about Shen Ning's current situation, he was even more worried.

She walked slowly towards the pier.

On the pier.

Li Zhenting stood by the railing and stared at everyone who disembarked, refusing to let anyone go.

Aunt Dong looked at him.

Is this still the energetic, proud and noble young master of the Li family? It's just that I haven't seen him for a while, and he has changed a lot. Not only has he lost weight, his face has turned gray and haggard, and the suit on his body is not as clean as it was ironed. Dust and dirt.

She didn't take a closer look. If she did, it would be even worse.

She looked at his figure and fell into deep thought.

Chapter 1069: Time is the cure for all

"Don't, don't hurt my child."

Shen Ning was sweating profusely, claspng his stomach tightly with both hands, crying out in horror.

For a while, she seemed to be pushed into the bottom of a cliff, with pain all over her body, and for a while, she seemed to have fallen into the vast sea, surrounded by sea water around her, unable to breathe, suffocating.

at last

When she woke up, there was darkness around her, it was already midnight, and she had a nightmare!

In the darkness, she was shrunken all over, her eyes were completely dark, she couldn't see any starlight, and the surrounding was deathly silence.

Ge Di

There was a strange noise in the darkness, which frightened her to the bone.

"What?" she called out across the living room.

After yelling several times, she heard the sound of 'Zhi Zhi', and something was running back and forth in the living room.

It should be a mouse.

She breathed a sigh of relief, holding her stomach with her hands, her abdomen felt swollen and swollen, her whole body was weak, her stomach was empty, and she felt extremely uncomfortable.

What made her feel even more uncomfortable was the endless darkness and loneliness.

It's scary for a pregnant woman to live in such a big house in the countryside.

She shrank herself into the quilt, not even daring to get up to go to the toilet. Fortunately, the weather was not so hot and she could adapt.

Thinking of her miserable life, she suddenly thought of those three little fellows far away in the imperial capital, her own children. I haven't seen them for a long time, and I haven't even heard their voices. I miss them so much up.

They should be okay, except for missing her as a mommy.

Time is the cure for everything!

The children are still young, so they still miss her for a year and a half. When they grow up, they will gradually forget her as a mommy.

She was heartbroken, tears rolled up her face unconsciously, and she hid in the quilt and cried secretly. After a while, the baby in her stomach seemed to feel the sadness and anxiety of Mummy, and moved inside.

Shen Ning didn't dare to cry anymore, he gritted his teeth and stroked his stomach to comfort them.

Later, at some point, she finally fell asleep. When she woke up the next day, her face was still full of tears and her eyes were swollen.

"Sister, sister, open the door." Zhang Xiaoxian's voice sounded outside.

"Okay, wait." Shen Ning struggled to get out of bed and opened the door.

Zhang Xiaoxian stood outside with steaming gruel, capers, and big buns, smiling all over her face.

"Sister, hurry up and have breakfast, I just made it." She walked in with the breakfast and put it on the dining table.

Shen Ning smiled gratefully: "I'm just hungry, thank you, Xiaoxian."

"Hey, what's there to thank for something worthless? I didn't even say thank you for helping me." Zhang Xiaoxian helped her clean up the house and said, "There must be a big mouse in this house. Look at the fan and the charger. Everywhere."

After a while, she screamed again: "Damn mouse, bitten through the spice bag, looks like I'll have to send you a cat."

Shen Ning smiled: "There were indeed rats making noise last night, and I was so scared that I covered my head under the quilt."

She took the comb to comb her hair.

"Sister, I'll help you, you just take the mirror." Seeing that she couldn't even bend her hands, Zhang Xiaoxian immediately came over to help her, and handed her a small mirror.

Shen Ning took a look in the small mirror, and was startled. His eyes were swollen, and his yellow face was covered with tears.

"Ah, sister, your face is swollen, what's going on." Zhang Xiaoxian raised her head and saw Shen Ning's face carefully, and cried out in shock.

"It's okay, maybe it's a reaction in the late pregnancy." Shen Ning put away the mirror, calmly.

"No, I have to take you to the hospital. This is not acceptable. I'm worried about something." Zhang Xiaoxian will take her to the hospital after combing her hair a few times.

Shen Ning helped her hand away: "I just finished the physical examination, it's fine, don't worry."

"Hey, you must be worrying because of something on your mind. Let me tell you, you must think about it. There is no barrier in the world that you can't pass." Zhang Xiaoxian is a sensible person and understands Shen Ning's thoughts, "Let's have breakfast first, don't worry. Hungry."

"Well, I know." Shen Ning walked to the dining table and started to eat breakfast.

Zhang Xiaoxian sat aside and said some funny things to explain her.

Gradually, Shen Ning's mood improved.

Chapter 1070: he is sick

At the pier in Yuan County, Li Zhenting came early, and the first boat was coming soon. He carefully watched the people on the pier, not wanting to let anyone go.

Shen Ning must be in Yuan County!

He firmly believes that he read it correctly last time!

Now that she has a big belly, it is impossible not to come to the hospital for an obstetric examination. As long as she comes to the hospital, she has to go through the pier. Therefore, it is definitely useful to guard the exit of this small pier.

However, after a long time, even he himself felt a little unreal!

The weather today is not very good. Not long after I stood there, I saw dark clouds billowing in the sky, thunder and lightning, and soon there was a heavy rainstorm.

The remaining passengers held up their umbrellas after disembarking.

Li Zhenting couldn't see his face clearly, and hurriedly ran down, searching eagerly among the crowd, for fear of missing any possible opportunity.

only

Everyone finished walking, and he didn't find the person he was looking for, standing on the pier, soaked, with rain dripping from his head.

"Young man, you're all wet, go back and change into dry clothes, you'll catch a cold, it's not good for the cold to enter your body." An older man next to him already knew Li Zhenting. Seeing Li Zhenting like this, he put his Yu Yu put it on his head, persuading him.

"It's okay, I have a good physique." Li Zhenting didn't want to give up at all, the more likely he would miss it at this time.

"Hey, young man, there is no way for you to continue looking for her like this. Can you find another way? Besides, if you are looking for her like this, if she really lives in Yuan County, she should have known that you were looking for her. But she hides and refuses to come out, even if you stay here, there is nothing you can do."

Li Zhenting had a wry smile on his lips, of course he understood the truth.

When they were in Qingshan City, they rescued the children face to face. She knew it was him, but refused to recognize him, and escaped under his nose. Now that he is looking for her, whether she knows it or not, she is sure He won't show up on his own initiative, she hates him!

The only way is for him to find it himself!

Who asked him to blame her!

"Thank you, I see, the umbrella is no longer needed, you go, I just stay over there." He rejected the old man's kindness, went to the side of the shed and sat down, regardless of the rain on his body.

The old man shook his head and left.

This young man is really infatuated. I don't know how his wife left him so cruelly. You must know that there are not many good men who are so infatuated and dedicated these days. Besides, he is very rich and his family is also very good. Women are so blessed to be loved by him.

only

The most difficult thing to explain in the world is love.

One morning passed, and Li Zhenting felt dizzy in his head. It was hard to wait until lunch time. At this time, because the shipping personnel also had to eat, there would be an hour's rest in the middle. He wanted to take this opportunity to go back to the hotel to change clothes, eat. Come back after ordering something.

Unexpectedly, after returning to the hotel, he took a shower and became more dizzy and dizzy. He couldn't even move his feet, so he had to lie down and rest. After lying down, he fell asleep. When he woke up again, it was already the middle of the night, my throat felt like a fire was burning, and my cheeks were hot.

He was sick, with a high fever, hot and cold for a while, and couldn't even open his eyes, so he had to continue to lie down.

I don't know how long it took, and suddenly saw myself falling down a cliff, with the whistling wind in my ears, and dense white bones and sharp stones in sight.

"Ah." With his eyes darkened, he screamed and fell down.

"Wake up, wake up." A girl's gentle voice kept calling in his ears, and he opened his eyes suddenly, but there was darkness in front of him.
